DOWAGER EMPRESS IS ANGRY.

Her Majesty Has Instructed the Chinese Foreign Office to Protest Against This "Unwarrantable Action of the Russians"—Affairs in the Soudan—French Chamber Asserts Itself—Cable News.

Pekin, Feb. 25.—The Dowager Empress is greatly incensed at the action of the Russians at Talienwan, on the Liaotung Peninsula, near Port Arthur, in killing 300 Chinese during a conflict which originated in a question of taxes, as cabled on Feb. 19. Her Majesty has instructed the Chinese foreign office to protest in the strongest possible language against this "Unwarrantable action of the Russians," who, it is added, distinctly broke the terms of the Port Arthur convention, which does not give the Russians authority to collect taxes.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

The Reported Advance of the Khalifa—Gen. Kitchener's Preparations—The Samoan and the Muscat Incidents.

London, Feb. 25.—In the House of Commons Mr. Broderick, Parliamentary Secretary to the Foreign Office, announced that Col. Kitchener had found the Khalifa, with a force of 6,000 Dervishes, occupying a strong position 113 miles distant from the Nile. Not having a sufficient force to justify him in making an attack upon the Khalifa, Col. Kitchener returned to Omdurman, where, on Feb. 15, it was reported that the Khalifa's cavalry had defeated a force of friendly Arabs on the White Nile. Preparations were being made, he said, to stop the Khalifa's advance.

In answer to a series of questions regarding the alleged mutilation of the body of the Mahdi, Mr. Broderick said that Lord Cromer, the British diplomatic agent in Egypt, had reported that under the exceptional circumstances the action of the Sirdar was justifiable in ordering the demolition of the Mahdi's tomb. Mr. Broderick said he had no information that the Mahdi's head been presented to the son of General Gordon.

Mr. Broderick denied that any steps had been taken to terminate the triparfite government of Samoa, or to establish a German protectorate over the islands. He also denied that the Government had taken any side in the struggle between Mataafa and Malietoa. He added that he was unable to explain the action of the German commander at Apia.

Mr. Broderick said that the lease of a coaling station to France by the Sultan of Oman was contrary to the terms of the treaty under which it was proceeded with. Lord George Hamilton, Secretary of State for India, in response to a question whether the naval demonstration against Muscat was made by the order of the Indian Government or Her Majesty's, said: "We throughout have been in close communication with the Indian Government."

ASSERTS ITSELF.

The French Chamber Takes a Firm Stand Against the Traitors to the Republic.

Paris, Feb. 25.—Paul Deroulede yesterday made an effort to suborn the army and signally failed. He is now biting his nails in the Reuilly barracks, in a cell at the depot. MM. Habert and Millevoye were also arrested. The Figaro gives the following version:

"At 5 o'clock M. Deroulede was at the head of the Ligue des Patriotes and the anti-Semite committees in the Place des Nations when General Roget, formerly M. Cavaignac's chief of Cabinet, returned from the funeral at the head of a brigade of infantry.

"The League cheered M. Deroulede, and MM. Marcel and Habert placed themselves beside the General, who shook hands with M. Deroulede, who is an old friend.

"M. Deroulede exclaimed, 'I hope you will march to the Elysee. France is with you. You must save the unhappy country. The League is with you.'

"The General did not reply, but continued to march along the Boulevard de Diderot, followed by M. Deroulede and the patriots, who perhaps thought of going to the Elysee via the quays.

"At the Rue de Reuilly they were disillusioned. The troops went up it to the barracks. The League stopped, while MM. Deroulede and Habert followed into the barracks and harangued the soldiers, repeating: 'Save us from anarchy and the Dreyfusards. The General who will save the country will deserve well of France.'

"The General replied, 'Go out or I will close the gates on you as prisoners.'

"'All right we are your prisoners, and remain with you.'

"The gates were then closed."

Confronted by Gen. Roget.

Deputies Deroulede, Marcel, Habert and Millevoye were confronted at 9 o'clock yesterday morning with General Roget, who declared that M. Deroulede had tried to induce him and his troops to march on the Elysee Palace. The friends of M. Deroulede fear that he will be tried before the Senate, sitting as a high court. In all, the police made about 400 arrests yesterday.

To Be Prosecuted.

In the Chamber of Deputies yesterday afternoon M. Deschanel read a request to prosecute Mm. Deroulede and Habert. It came from the public prosecutor.

Amid a great uproar Premier Dupuy said a decision whether or not to prosecute the two men should be had without delay, and he asked for the appointment of a committee with instructions to report on the subject immediately. (Cheers.)

The Bureau selected a committee unanimously favorable to the prosecution of MM. Deroulede and Habert.

After the briefest meeting, at which M. Dupuy was heard on the question, the committee decided to authorize the prosecution of the two deputies and subsequently reported to the Chamber, which, by a show of hands, voted for the prosecution.

Ras Mangascia Captured.

London, Feb. 25.—A despatch from Jibutil, on the west coast of the Gulf of Aden, announces that Emperor Menelek of Abyssinia has captured, without striking a blow, the Abyssinian Chief Ras Mangascia, Governor of the Province of Tigre, who for some time had maintained a rebellious attitude toward the Negus.

The Bulgaria Safe in Port.

Ponta del Gada, Feb. 25.—The Hamburg-American Liner Bulgaria, Captain Schmidt, from New York on Jan. 28 for Hamburg, previously reported in great distress by the British tank steamer Weehawken, 900 miles from the Azore Islands, is here. All on board the Bulgaria are in good health.

Grip's Fearful Ravages.

Stockholm, Feb. 25.—An epidemic of influenza is raging here and at Christiana. Last week there were 2,913 cases here and 197 deaths. At Christiana there were 2,291 cases and 189 deaths.

THEY FOUND HIS BONES.

Terrible Ending of Old Fred Taggart in Somerville Township.

Bobcaygeon, Feb. 25.—An old man named Fred. Taggart lived alone in a shanty on lot 10, con. 1 of Somerville. He had lately been ill and the neighbors had provided him with food. They were startled on getting up a couple of mornings ago to find the smouldering embers of the Taggart shanty. It was at first thought that the old man had gone away on a visit, but when an investigation was made, the people were horrified to find the ghastly remains of Taggart in the cellar.

Miss Ella Byers, a woman of 35 years, committed suicide in Toronto on Friday by remaining in front of a Grand Trunk train instead of stepping off the track. On her body was found this note: "357 King street west. Forgive me. Dad." She resided with her mother at 361 King west, and the other address was that of her sister. She left other notes which threw some light on her intentions, but her people refuse them for publication.

THAT ANDREE STORY WAS TRUE,

According to a Letter in The Siberian Advertiser.

New York, Feb. 25.—A despatch to The World from Berlin says: The following letter, which may have started the recent report in regard to the supposed finding of Andree, is published in The Siberian Advertiser. It is from a well-known sportsman named Ljalen: "I hasten to inform you that Andree's balloon has been found.

"I was running in snowshoes after elk in the primeval forests of South Yenisei and came across traces of Andree. It was 850 versts (284 miles) from Krasnoiarsk and 100 versts (67 miles) from the gold washings in Sanvinich, down in the pit of the river.

"The balloon and ropes were torn, and three bodies lay at its side, one with a broken skull.

"Please prepare assistance, so that the balloon and bodies can be brought to the washings at Sanvinich, which can only be done by means of snowshoes.

"I guarantee the truth of these facts, and shall soon be in Tomsk."

The Hackney Horse Society.

Toronto, Feb. 25.—At the seventh annual meeting of the Hackney Horse Society the reports showed that during the past year 82 pedigrees have been recorded and 16 fees paid. There is $166.51 in the treasury.

The officers elected were as follows: President, H. N. Crossley, Toronto; first vice-president, John Macdonald, Toronto; second vice-president, Robert Graham, Claremont. Vice-Presidents for the Provinces—Ontario, A. C. Ramsay, Hamilton; Quebec, James A. Cochrane, Hillhurst; Alberta, A. M. Rawlinson, Calgary, Alta.; Manitoba, Mr. McMillan, Brandon; New Brunswick, J. B. Frink, St. John, N.B.

Silver medals were accepted from the English Hackney Society for Canadian bred stock. The sum of $25 was voted to the Spring Horse Show for the best Hackney stallion of any age, and $25 for the best mare of any age, sired by a registered Hackney stallion, both classes to be shown on the line.

FACTS ABOUT HEALTH

It is Easy to Keep Well if We Know How—Some of the Conditions Necessary to Perfect Health.

The importance of maintaining good health is easily understood, and it is really a simple matter if we take a correct view of the conditions required. In perfect health the stomach promptly digests food, and thus prepares nourishment. The blood is employed to carry this nourishment to the organs, nerves, muscles and tissues which need it. The first great essential for good health, therefore, is pure, rich blood. Now it is certainly a fact that no medicine has such a record of cures as Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is literally true that there are hundreds of people alive and well today who would have been in their graves had they not taken Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is depended upon as a family medicine and general regulator of the system by tens of thousands of people. This is because Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the blood pure. This is the secret of its great success. Keep your system in good health by keeping your blood pure with Hood's Sarsaparilla, which absolutely cures when other medicines fail to do any good whatever.

Hood's Pills are the only pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

EXPORT DUTY ON NICKEL.

The Globe.

The United States tariff arrangement by which nickel ore and matte are admitted free, while a stiff duty is imposed on the refined metal, has had the effect that it was doubtless intended to have, namely, that while Canada has the mines the United States has the most profitable part of the business, the refining of the ores and matte. Statistics are not available to show what the value of the metal product of the mines has been since the first shipments of ores were made eleven years ago, but they are available for the past six years, and they show very conclusively to how small an extent the working classes of this Province have been benefitted by the development of this great natural bounty.

In these six years (1892-97 inclusive) the ore raised from the mines was 536,-119 tons, and the ore roasted, smelted and reduced to matte was 469,929 tons. The metal contents of the matte, computed from the daily assays and values reckoned upon selling price at the works in the form of matte, were:

	Pounds.	Value.
Nickel	25,137,500	$2,779,840
Copper	26,197,000	1,084,725

The total value of the matte product, exclusive of cobalt, in the six years was $3,-814,565. The earnings of labour employed in the industry make a total of $1,614,393, and this sum, together with what may be paid for supplies and railway freight, make up the whole of the value of the product which falls to the share of Canada.

The final value of the refined metals, computed at selling prices in New York markets, is for nickel $8,798,125, and for copper $2,947,162, or a total of $11,745,287. Deduct the portion paid for labour, supplies and railway freight in Ontario, say $2,700,000, and there is left the large sum of $9,045,287 to be apportioned for freight, labour, management and profits outside of Canada. Only the crudest part of the work is done here—all the high-priced labour is employed elsewhere, where. While the present situation holds this will continue to be the case, and the only remedy for it seems to be to make it more profitable to refine the ore here than elsewhere. This, it is believed, can be effectually done by the imposition of an export duty of sufficient magnitude to encourage the erection of smelting works here. The tariffs of the United States as regards nickel ore and matte, nickel alloys and refined nickel have been studiously framed for the promotion of American interests. The time seems to have arrived when we might take a leaf out of their book purely in our own interest. There is nothing of a retaliatory flavour in the proposal. It is entirely conceived with the idea of getting a fuller proportion of the benefits of these bounties which nature has conferred on us.

The situation seems entirely favorable to the founding of a refining industry in this Province. There are but two large deposits of nickel known in the world to-day. One of these is in Ontario, the other is in the French colony of New Caledonia, lying in the South Pacific Ocean, 7,000 miles from the shores of the United States. These New Caledonia mines are the only possible competitors of the Sudbury deposits, and as the latter have supplanted the French product in the free markets of the world it must be presumed that the Ontario nickel has the advantage of its rival under equal conditions. There is no danger of competition from any United States mines, for these practically do not exist, as Judge Burke, who holds the chief interest in the Canadian Copper Company, testified before a Congressional committee some years ago.

The establishment of a refining industry in Ontario would in all likelihood lead to the development of the smelting of other ores, and it is by no means Utopian to look forward to the production of nickel steel in this Province produced entirely from Ontario metals. The Dominion Government is already empowered by Parliament to impose an export duty, and we feel sure that it will give the subject immediate attention.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The elections of South Perth are likely to take considerable Stock in the St. Valentine legend. Mr. Valentine's stock is the Liberal candidate in the bye-election.

The Liberal wave is rolling on in sympathy with world wide advancement. It has swept over Canada and the "refluent wave" is rolling over England. The Liberals there have had several notable victories in bye-elections and another is recorded yesterday in the Rotherham division of Yorkshire.

It is expected that a proclamation will issue soon summoning the Dominion Parliament to meet on march 16th. The session may be somewhat prolonged for the Opposition will be expected in default of doing anything else to talk interminably. Sir Charles Tupper is one of the leaders and his tank of talk is like a miraculous lake, always overflowing and always full.

Sir Charles Tupper the agonizer at large for the Conservative party, is advertising for an organizer for Ontario. It appears that the job is so difficult and delicate that that great manufacturing centre, Birmingham, cannot furnish the necessary article. A great many Conservatives think that the greatest contribution Sir Charles can add to the organization of the party is to retire from its leadership.

The Toronto Telegram has a cartoon strongly illustrating the rapacious hoggishness of the United States statesmen, or, rather, politicians. Miss Canada is represented as saluting Sir Wilfrid Laurier with "And you've been at Washington; did you bring back nothing?" Sir Wilfrid replies—"Nothing is what I've brought back; and if Uncle Samuel had had his way I shouldn't have got away with that."

The doctors are jocularly credited with the practice of killing people, and some of the crankiest sort are discovering some new way of shunting us off the track of life. One of these wonderful wiseacres has discovered that that innocent warbler, the lemon-coated canary, is a deadly enemy to human life. He says most of them die of consumption, and, by communicating it to the members of the household, contribute to the spread of the disease. He may be right, but this is narrowing the circle of innocent enjoyment very severely.

MUNICIPAL FRANCHISES.

A recent writer on the subject gives two principal reasons why, in his opinion, all public franchises should be retained for the benefit of the municipality. First, that the municipality can and will do the work better and cheaper than a private corporation, secondly, private ownership of public franchises is responsible for nearly all of the corruption in State and municipal politics. He cited the case of San Francisco, whose principal public franchises are the street car lines, water company and gas company. These concerns are so heavily capitalised that the interest charges alone amount to a tax of $10 a year upon every man, woman and child in the city and county of San Francisco. The average household is supposed to consist of five persons, so this makes a charge to every head of a family in San Francisco of $50 per annum, for interest alone, paid to the stock-holders in the three principal corporations. Now, why should every householder in San Francisco be forced to pay $50 a year to the stockholders of these three companies? The answer is that the companies have so arranged matters by securing exclusive, or practically exclusive, franchises from the Board of Supervisors that they control absolutely the light, water and transportation supplies of the city; and their managers even regard themselves as men of great moderation in only exacting $50 per household for their interest account, which $50 does not include the cost of wear and tear, and other expenses. Had the stockholders of these corporations invested their money in carrying on the business they are engaged in, the interest charge would perhaps not be so objectionable, but the combined investment of all the transportation, gas and water companies does not exceed one-half the amount on which the people of San Francisco are forced to pay interest. The other half of their capital on which they can collect interest, is found in the exclusive privileges or franchises, which have for the most part been given them by the Boards of Supervisors of the city. A value is given to the stocks of these corporations, by the payment of annual dividends thereon, and the corporations are enabled to pay these dividends by by the dishonest acts of the Board of Supervisors. The principal stock argument of the opponents to public ownership of public francises is that it is contrary to the spirit of democratic institutions to build up large bodies of municipal officials. There never was a more false or fallacious argument. Under proper supervision, no man is more interested in the stability of the government, the perfection of its institutions, and the honest administration of public affairs, than the official employee of moderate salary. He knows that misconduct will cost him his position, and with good conduct his place is secured to him.

Another View of the Question.

When Mayor Warner of Rochester says that "in nearly every case" municipal ownership of electric light plants has proved to be "wise," he states what cannot be proved. Xenia, O., paid $35,000 for its lighting plant and sold it for $10,000, and made a contract with a private company. Gravesend, L. I., paid $120,000 for its plant, sold it for $30,000, and made a contract with a private company also. Greenville, S. C., found that it could better afford to pay a private company $100 a light than to own its own plant. The stories of the experience of other cities are similar. They all tell of poor and expensive service.—Rochester Post Express.

LOOK WELL

To the Boys and Girls.

If they are Delicate and Sickly Paine's Celery Compound will Make them Strong and Robust.

Boys and girls who are ailing, weak and sickly are suffering from a weakend condition of the nervous system. The nerves, tissues and muscles of our boys and girls are extremely delicate and sensitive, and quickly disturbed by ill health.

When you find your dear ones nervous, cross, irritable and weak, when they do not sleep well, when they have headache, variable appetite, sallow skin, sunken eyes and skin troubles, be assured the blood is foul and thin, and nervous force is at a low ebb. Children with weak stomachs and weak organs of assimilation cannot thrive on their ordinary daily diet. They are in need of a special nerve medicine, tonic and blood cleanser like Paine's Celery Compound, noted for its wonderful flesh building and nerve bracing qualities. Paine's Celery Compound is the great and only true medicine for weak and frail bodies, and unstrung nerves. It has no equal as a medicine for the young.

In the past grateful parents in every part of our Dominion have gladly testified to the great work that Paine's Celery Compound has done for their children.

We strongly counsel fathers and mothers to have their boys and girls use Paine's Celery Compound at once if they are not showing signs of healthy and natural growth. Paine's Celery Compound is pleasant to the taste, free from all dangerous narcotics, and cannot harm the most delicate child.

A Hamilton Church Scandal.

Hamilton, Feb. 24.—For months past rumors concerning Rev. Thomas Geoghegan, rector of St. Peter's Church and warden of St. Peter's Infirmary, have been in the air. Most of his friends declined to believe what was alleged—that he had betrayed a well-known Hamilton lady, who had given birth to a child in Buffalo; but now a court of his peers will investigate the charge. J. V. Teetzel, Q.C., is acting for the relatives of the lady, and a charge was preferred against Rev. Father Geoghegan. This came before the committee of discipline of the Niagara Diocese, and the committee appointed a committee of friers before whom the clergyman will appear next Tuesday for trial. The charge laid is a most serious one, and Rev. Father Geoghegan denies it, saying he merely acted as a friend of the family through a trying crisis.

King Goes to Iowa.

Walkerton, Ont., Feb. 24.—Robert W. King of Paisley, who has been fighting extradition to the United States for two months, leaves for Rock Rapids, Iowa, this morning, in company with James Kemplay, sheriff of Lyon County, Ia., a deputy sheriff from the same county, and I. Stiefel of the Pinkerton staff, Chicago. King is supposed to have made a living by passing forged drafts on country banks in the United States.

Big Blaze in Chicago.

Chicago, Feb. 24.—Fire yesterday destroyed the Lind Building, 28 to 32 Market street, one of the few buildings which stood through the great fire of 1871 and through several other fires. Total loss estimated at $226,000.

A SURE CURE FOR NERVOUS HEADACHE.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Cure by Removing the Cause.

They Make New, Rich Blood and Give Strength to the Nerves and Vigour to the Entire System—Nature's Cure in Nature's Way.

Nervous Headache is, perhaps, the most prominent after-effect of the much-dreaded "Grippe."

Words cannot describe the sufferings of the thousands of victims, nor is it needed that they should. Those who suffer need no description. Their experience is all-sufficient for them.

But tell them of something that will give them relief from their tortures, and you gain their attention in a moment.

It is for this reason that such a genuine, deep and widespread interest has been aroused with reference to Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

This remedy affords a simple and speedy cure for Nervous Headache, following the "Grippe."

It effects a cure by removing from the system the cause of the trouble.

"The Grippe" causes a most severe strain on the nerves. Daily, hourly, they are weakened and shattered, until they reach the climax, and no longer fulfil their duties, though they still endeavour to do so.

The attempts to perform their duties, produces an effect something like laying a red hot rod of steel on raw, living flesh—in other words it causes Nervous Headache.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets begin the cure right at the root of the trouble. They (by ensuring prompt and thorough digestion) provide a full supply of rich, fresh, nourishing blood. On this, the nerves are fed, and gain strength every second.

In a remarkably short period a wonderful change occurs. Restored to their natural strength, with all their powers of endurance regained, the nerves are able to withstand the attacks of disease, and to perform their duties as it was intended they should.

Then goodbye to Nervous Headache. It is henceforth a thing impossible. If you don't believe it, try Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, and be convinced.

VALUABLE Residential Properties FOR SALE

In Peterborough.

Having decided to remove to Manitoba in the spring, I have decided to sell the following valuable properties at prices that should secure ready purchasers:

Parcel No. 1. A Brick Terrace of four houses, adjoining the corner of Hunter-street and Park-street, two storys, well built with good stone cellars full size of buildings. Each residence contains six rooms with summer kitchen. This property has always been continuously rented and pays an excellent rate of interest on the investment, and it is practically a new property, being only erected a few years, and in first good condition.

Parcel No. 2. Brick residence corner of Reid and Simcoe. Containing ten rooms. House in good condition with all modern improvements, bath, closets, heated with furnace and lighted with electricity.

Parcel No. 3. Brick dwelling corner Aberdeen and Dawson streets, facing Dixon Park, containg seven rooms with summer kitchen. This property was erected last season for myself and occupied by myself. Has hard and soft water in kitchen and is a very comfortable residence. This lot is 165 feet square.

Parcel No. 4. Brick residence, corner Wolseley and Bethune streets. Two storys, seven rooms with kitchen, pleasantly situated adjoining Dixon Park. Hard and soft water in kitchen. This lot is also 165 feet square and is a similar building to parcel No. 3.

Parties desiring a good paying investment or home will find any of these desirable purchases.

Particulars and terms, which are reasonable, made known on application to the undersigned.

Does Your Head Ache?

Are your nerves weak? Can't you sleep well? Pain in your back? Lack energy? Appetite poor? Digestion bad? Boils or pimples? These are sure signs of poisoning.

From what poisons?

From poisons that are always found in constipated bowels.

If the contents of the bowels are not removed from the body each day, as nature intended, these poisonous substances are sure to be absorbed into the blood, always causing suffering and frequently causing severe disease.

There is a common sense cure.

AYER'S PILLS

They daily insure an easy and natural movement of the bowels.

You will find that the use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

with the pills will hasten recovery. It cleanses the blood from all impurities and is a great tonic to the nerves.

SOUTH PERTH.

Hon. G. W. Ross Addresses a Big Meeting at St. Mary's — Conservative Charges Answered.

St. Mary's, Feb. 25.—The Opera House was filled last night to its utmost capacity by a representative audience eager to hear the esteemed Minister of Education. The meeting was held in the interests of the Liberal candidate, Mr. Stock, and the interest and enthusiasm were sustained from beginning to end. Mr. E. W. Harding presided.

Mr. W. C. Moscrip made an eloquent speech, and in going over the course pursued by himself and the Liberal party since the last election he carried the audience with him, being greeted with frequent and hearty applause.

Hon. Geo. W. Ross was never in better form. His bright humor, the intense earnestness of conviction, apt hits and bursts of glowing eloquence called forth in turn laughter and applause. His speech was at once a literary treat and a lesson in politics and patriotism. In touching on the battle cries of the Conservatives in South Perth he pointed out that in choosing a candidate who was a non-resident, though he lived only 66 feet beyond the line, the Liberals here had many precedents among both parties. The cry of sympathy for Mr. Monteith was made ridiculous. We pity the poor and needy, but we want a strong, resolute representative who requires no pity. Those things were petty. The elector should vote for a good cause and a good man. A great party should have sound principles and a large, comprehensive policy. Sir John Macdonald had shown his statesmanship in helping to organize all the provinces into one great Dominion, and in binding them together by a great railway. But the leader of the Conservatives in the Ontario House to-day had no large conception of his responsibilities. Again and again he had voted against measures necessary to our material welfare and in keeping with that progressive spirit which has kept our province foremost in the Dominion. Millions of dollars had been spent in the past 27 years, but they had been well spent, and the Opposition could not place a finger on a single dollar that had been dishonestly or corruptly spent.

Mr. Cole Discovers the Power of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Windsor Feb. 20.—The following statement, which Mr. F. H. Cole of this place requests us to publish, is worthy of attention from every victim of Rheumatism in Canada.

Mr. Cole's experiment fully warrants him in making this statement.

"Words cannot describe how I suffered from Rheumatism and Kidney Complaint. I tried every cure that was recommended, but got no benefit until I began using Dodd's Kidney Pills."

"Thank God I did use Dodd's Kidney Pills, for they cured me—made me sound and well, in every joint and limb."

Those who suffer the agonies of Rheumatism or Lumbago need do so no longer. Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure them.

Turks in Macedonia.

Vienna, Feb. 24.—It is learned that Turkish officials in the Province of Macedonia, who have not received any salaries since several months, are raising funds by imprisoning wealthy Macedonians, who are released only on payment of a heavy ransom. This adds new fuel to the revolutionary movement in Macedonia.

Life insurance is a good thing but health insurance, by keeping the blood pure with Hood's Sarsaparilla, is still better.

THE LEGISLATURE

The Attorney-General Replies to Mr. Carscallen's Questions

CONCERNING FUNDS IN COURT.

The Officers Appointed to the Fisheries Board (Inside Service)—Mr. Carscallen's Motion for a Return of the Funds in Court Will Be Brought Down — Binder Twine Output.

Toronto, Feb. 25.—At the Legislature Mr. Hardy yesterday made a statement about the funds in court, but other than this, and a passing reference to the binder twine question, the questions to the fore did not present much of interest.

Mr. Barr (Dufferin) presented two petitions from his constituency against the passing of the Ontario Veterinary Surgeons' bill, and Mr. W. J. Hill (West York) a bill respecting the office of sheriff.

Funds in Court.

In reply to Mr. H. Carscallen's series of questions respecting the investment of funds in court, the responsibility for the same, and the interest received, the Attorney-General said, by J. A., rule 521 (which remains unrepealed, and which is printed in Maclennan's Judicature Act, second edition, p. 577), it was ordered that the judges of the Chancery Division might arrange with the Toronto General Trusts Company to make investments and to take security in the name of the accountant of the Supreme Court of Judicature of moneys in court upon first mortgages of land, etc. The rate of interest had been modified by the judges from 4½ to 5% per cent. No specific funds are invested. Titles are investigated by the solicitor for the Toronto General Trusts Company and are approved by the registrar of the Court of Appeal, who also approves of the valuation. The Toronto General Trusts Company invests and is the only company with which the court has at present any arrangement with reference to the investment of moneys. The Toronto General Trusts Company has for some time been anxious that the work shall be divided with other companies. The consideration which the Toronto General Trusts Company receives is a percentage of the interest accruing on the investments, varying with the rate at which the investments are made.

Answers Deferred.

Questions by Mr. A. B. Thompson (Centre Simcoe) and Mr. J. H. Carnegie (East Victoria) were allowed to stand over in the absence of the Commissioner of Crown Lands.

Fisheries Board Service.

Mr. C. B. Powell (Ottawa) asked: How many officers have been appointed to the Fisheries Board (inside service) since Sept. 1, 1898; their names and salaries.

The Attorney-General stated, in reply, that there are three officers: Mr. Bastedo, transferred from the Attorney-General's office, salary $1,900; Mr. James Webster, transferred from Ottawa, salary $1,400, and Mr. W. W. Ellis, from the Postoffice Department, salary $700.

Money in Court.

Mr. Carscallen moved for a return showing the total amount of moneys now on deposit in, or subject to, the control and distribution of the Supreme Court of Judicature for Ontario, or either division thereof; the full style of cause of each action or proceeding in which such moneys have been so paid in, and the county in which each action or proceeding was commenced and hereafter prosecuted; together with the amount now standing to the credit of each such action or proceeding, and also the dates when the said moneys were paid in; the names of the persons by whom such payments were respectively made, and on what account; the names and last known addresses of the persons entitled thereto, so far as appears by the books and papers in the office of the accountant of the Supreme Court of Judicature for Ontario, and the amounts due to said persons respectively; also for a return showing specifically the nature and amount of each investment now outstanding of the moneys or funds of infants and others in court, the date when each such investment was made, the rate of interest the same bears, when and how payable, and the security held for each of such investments.

The Attorney-General said it would be somewhat difficult to give all the detailed information asked for. Considerable search would have to be made to obtain it, but the Government would give all the information in their power as early as possible.

Binder Twine Once Again.

Mr. Barr (Dufferin) moved for a return of all papers, correspondence and documents in relation to the sale of the output of binder twine manufactured in the Central Prison in 1899. Mr. Barr said he regretted that Hon. Mr. Davis did not give a more detailed statement when this subject was brought before the House the other day. Farmers were humbugged last year and, as a consequence, had to pay just about double what they should have paid for their binder twine. There was a danger that similar tactics might be resorted to this year. He suggested that the Provincial and Dominion Governments might legislate to prevent the monopolists buying up the binder twine and thus thwart the combine. There were only two or three firms in Ontario manufacturing binder twine, so there was not the benefit of competition. If this state of affairs should continue he hoped the Government would see the necessity of enlarging their works, so that they would be able to supply the whole of the province. He saw no reason why farmers' institutes should not supply farmers in the respective districts with binder twine at cost. Many enquiries had been made in this respect, and there was a feeling that such facilities should be provided.

Minister's Reply.

Hon. Mr. Davis said that there was no correspondence in his department on this subject.

Mr. Barr said he wished to be informed where binder twine could be obtained and whether in large or small quantities.

Hon. Mr. Davis said particulars of price and arrangements for sale were sent out in the terms of the contracts. Places of purchase were advertised in the local papers. The price was fixed by certain date, which he had already communicated to the House. A very small percentage was allowed above the actual cost as a maximum price. The Government was now in a position to make binder twine cheaper than ever before.

Mr. Barr thanked the Minister for the information supplied, and withdrew his motion.

The Attorney-General moved the adjournment of the House till Monday afternoon.

LUMBAGO CURED.

Mr. David G. Lapierre, of Montreal, Rejoices

Over his Cure, Effected by Dodd's Kidney Pills—No Other Medicine had Beneficial Effect—Dodd's Kidney Pills Quickly Cured.

MONTREAL, Feb. 24.—"I have been troubled with Lumbago for more than two years. Despite the fact that I expended dollars upon dollars, for various kinds of medicine, I got no relief.

"I used three boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills, which cured me entirely.

"You may publish this testimonial if you see fit to do so, in order that other sufferers may be benefitted by reading of my case, and my cure."

"This statement is made by Mr. David G. Lapierre, No. 256 Bent St., Montreal.

There are hundreds of men and women in this big city who are suffering from Lumbago, and who have tried in vain to find a cure. To these Mr. Lapierre's experience will prove of the utmost importance.

They have now the knowledge of a certain cure for their ailment. Dodd's Kidney Pills will not fail them. They never fail to cure Lumbago quickly and permanently.

Dodd's Kidney Pills have cured thousands of cases of Lumbago. They will cure thousands more, just as surely. There is no doubt about their effect. All doubt vanished long ago. A trial is all that is needed to prove the truth of this claim.

Dodd's Kidney Pills cure Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Rheumatism, Gout, Lumbago, Paralysis, Heart Disease, Stone in the Bladder, Gravel, Disease of Women, Sciatica, Neuralgia and other Kidney complaints.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists at fifty cents a box, six boxes $2.50, or sent, on receipt of price, by The Dodds Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto.

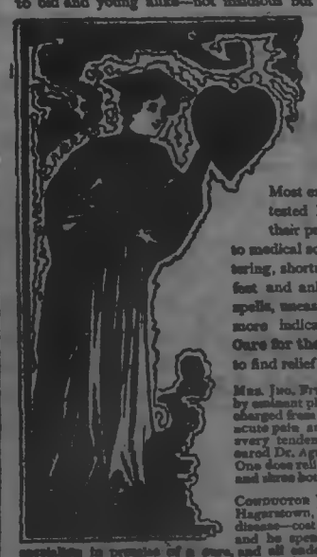
"She Carries Her Heart on Her Sleeve"

What a boon to many a man or woman if this were literally so—How many spirits are broken because this particular organ is shackled by disease—and yet how many times has Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart brushed against the grim reaper and robbed him of his victim.

Diseases of the heart are by far the most treacherous of ailments which afflict humanity—ruthless to old and young alike—not insidious but violent, for when the heart fails the whole system suffers violence. Discussing causes here will not console the suffering one. The one great years of the heart-sickened patient is how to get relief and a cure. Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart stands pre-eminently to-day as the star of hope to sufferers from heart trouble, and so far past the experimental period that thousands to-day proclaim, in no uncertain sound, the belief that were it not for this great remedy they world have long ago passed into the great beyond. Most eminent doctors, whom heart cases have baffled, have tested Dr. Agnew's claims, and to-day they prescribe it in their practice as the quickest and safest heart remedy known to medical science. What are the symptoms? Palpitation, fluttering, shortness of breath, weak and irregular pulse, swelling of feet and ankles, pain in the left side, chilly sensations, fainting spells, uneasiness in sleeping, dropsical tendency and as many more indications that the heart is deranged. Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart is a heart specific; and no case too acute to find relief from it inside of thirty minutes—a powerful cure.



MRS. JNO. FITZPATRICK, of Gananoque, Ont., after having been treated by eminent physicians for heart disease of five years' standing, was discharged from the hospital as a hopeless incurable. She suffered from acute pain and palpitation, her feet and ankles swollen, and there was every tendency to the dropsical form of heart disease, but the lady procured Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart as she declared, as a last hope. One dose relieved her of a very acute spasm in less than thirty minutes, and three bottles cured her—not a symptom of the trouble remaining.

CONDUCTOR WILLIAM G. LUCAS, of the N. & W.R.R., and living at Hagerstown, Md., suffered for years with acute valvular form of heart disease—cost him many a "lay off" from his daily duties on the road, and he spent a small fortune in remedies and treating with heart specialists in pursuit of a cure, and all ended in disappointment, until a good friend, who had been benefited, recommended Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart. He tried it, and found it gave him relief and comfort almost immediately. He continued its use until a few bottles were taken, and to-day he's well and strong, and says, "Tell all heart sufferers that I can highly recommend this great remedy."

THE ODORLESS CREMATORY CLOSET.

I have been appointed Sole Agent for the Odorless Crematory Closet manufactured by the Crematory Closet and General Heating Co., of Hamilton.

This Closet has found a place in many of the best homes in the province, and all who have used it cannot speak too highly of its merits. Medical men speak of it from a sanitary point of view, claiming that, if health is any consideration, no home should be without one. Here are some of the

TESTIMONIALS.

Alliston, March 1st, 1898.

I have had one of your "Crematory Closets" in use now for several weeks and am glad to be able to say that I have found it entirely satisfactory in every respect. I have not been able to detect the slightest odor from it at any time and would not be without it. I am sure it must prove a great convenience to people in the country, and in towns where water is not obtainable. Yours respectfully,

JAMES CONWAY.

Sheddon, February 28th, 1898.

I have used it for sometime and find it perfectly odorless. It is a long felt want and I believe it will become very popular especially in rural districts, towns and villages where wells are so frequently contaminated by the ordinary closets. I am, yours, etc.

W. H. MORRISON

Medical Superintendent's Office, Sept. 20th, 1897 Asylum for the Insane, Hamilton.

Gentlemen: I had the opportunity of witnessing yesterday the operation of your Odorless Crematory Closet. It had a large accumulation of fecal matter in the pan when the fire was started, and inside of 20 minutes it was all reduced to ashes. There was no odor before or during the operation of consuming the fecal matter, as the ventilation by the flue seems to carry off all odor at once, before it has a chance to vitiate the surrounding atmosphere.

Yours truly, JAMES RUSSELL, M.D.

Blakbrook, Sept. 20th, 1897.

Dear Sir—Having been present at a private test of your new patent closet yesterday afternoon, I beg to express my satisfaction with it in every way. Neither before, during or after the burning out of its contents did I detect the slightest unpleasant odor. I am satisfied it will be a boon to thousands in rural towns, villages and country homes. Yours truly,

M. J. MULLOOK.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1898 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which delights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. A New Business Firm Taking up Quarters in Peterborough.

The many advantages afforded business men by Peterborough has induced another firm to seek a location in the town and on Saturday, March 4th, J. Sutcliffe & Sons will re-open the stand which has been occupied for some years by R. H. Kells. Messrs. Sutcliffe & Sons have purchased the Kells stock at 60c on the dollar and consequently will have the advantage of beginning business with a cheap sale.

The firm of J. Sutcliffe & Sons is well known throughout Ontario as a substantial and reliable business concern. Until a few years ago they conducted business in Toronto, whence they removed to Lindsay. They carry on business in Lindsay under the name of Sutcliffe & Sons, and have also a large business in Kingston under the name of Starr & Sutcliffe.

The senior member, Mr. J. Sutcliffe, has been connected with the dry goods business in Canada for the period of forty-seven years and consequently is well posted in every department. The local manager will be Mr. J. A. Sutcliffe, a young business man of much ability and considerable experience. The store in Peterborough will be operated in connection with the branches in Lindsay and Kingston.

By adhering to the straightforward character of the dealings, which has marked its business career in the past, the firm hopes to be able to make a strong bid for the patronage of the citizens of Peterborough.

A large staff of employees is now engaged in taking stock at the store.

St. Luke's Church Ashburnham.

Senor and Senora Gonzalez.

This morning a letter was received from Senor Gonzalez, the great solo tenor and voice specialist, announcing that he would be in town on Wednesday, March 1st, and will give an invitation recital in the Y. M. C. A. hall. Those who have been consulted upon the subject will understand. The recital in reference to the meetings of that evening will begin at 8.30 p.m. Senor Gonzalez will arrive on the morning train, and those who wish to have their voices tested may call at the Y.M.C. A. hall from 2 to 4 in the afternoon. The Senor will be accompanied by Senora Gonzalez (pronounced Gon-zal-es, with accent on the second syllable.) This lady is a pianist and organist, and teaches both instruments according to the highest methods.

SUDDEN DEATH ON THE RAIL.

Mrs. Cornelius Sheehan Killed This Morning

ON THE SIMCOE STREET CROSSING.

The Mangled Remains are Viewed by Hundreds—The Coroner Does Not Consider an Inquest will be Necessary.

A shocking fatality occurred this morning at the Simcoe street crossing of the Grand Trunk, when the Lakefield train ran down Mrs. Cornelius Sheehan, crushing and disfiguring her body in such a manner that the remains were almost unrecognizable.

Mr. Alex. Reid, expressman, who was an eye witness of the accident, states that he saw Mrs. Sheehan crossing the track from the west, on the south side of Simcoe street. His attention was called to her perilous position on the track by the shrill whistling of the locomotive attached to the approaching Lakefield train. The train was running very slowly and Mr. Reid thought that the old lady would be able to cross in time to escape, but as her head was enveloped in a shawl the probability is that she did not hear the train

UNTIL TOO LATE.

When she did realize her position the locomotive was so close that it was impossible for Mr. Reid to tell whether she slipped and fell under the wheels, or whether the cow-catcher knocked her down.

The first wheel on the left hand-side of the locomotive caught the unfortunate old lady and, whilst the engine was running too slow to pass over the body, yet it was dragged along until it became so entangled in the axle that the wheel was unable to revolve.

Although the body and lower limbs were reduced to a shapeless mass, the face was only marred by a single bruise over the eye.

Driver Pilling, who was in charge of the locomotive, brought his engine to, an almost immediate stop, which was comparatively easy, as the train was running at a very low rate of speed. In fact the engine was brought to a standstill inside of its own length, the train halting by the time the driving wheels reached the spot where Mrs. Sheehan had been first caught.

A large crowd assembled almost instantaneously and the street was blocked for over half an hour, as the train did not move until the arrival when, after a short inquiry into the circumstances, he gave permission for it to pull on into the station. Conductor Haskit was in charge.

In the meantime Undertaker McFadden had arrived and covered the remains with a tarpaulin, shutting out the sickening sight from the curious eyes of the hundreds who crowded to the scene. The bloody condition of the wheel which crushed the body was, however, gruesome enough to send a shudder through the the most composed of those who caught sight of it, whilst an ever-increasing pool of blood had crimsoned the snow for a considerable space before the coroner ordered the remains to be moved to Mr. McFadden's establishment, where they were placed in a coffin before being sent home, in order that the children might be spared of the mangled remains.

The deceased was the widow of the late Cornelius Sheehan and for many years resided in Douro-Mrs. Sheehan was about eighty years of age and leaves four children, Daniel and Ellen, of town, Bridget, who is housekeeper for Rev. Father Conway at Norwood, and John who is at present in Rochester. The family reside at No. 306 Simcoe street. Mrs. Sheehan leaves also an only sister, Mrs. Ellen Rogers, 293 Murray street.

Coroner Bell has decided that under the circumstances, no inquest is necessary. Blame could not be attached to the railway company or to Driver Pilling when the train was running at such an exceedingly slow rate of speed. Inquiry also reveals the fact that besides having her head enveloped in a shawl the old lady's hearing was somewhat impaired.

The funeral will take place from the family residence, No. 306 Simcoe street, at 9 o'clock Monday morning.

[It is not, perhaps, speaking more strongly than the circumstances and conditions justify, to call this accident another level crossing murder. If crossing gates had been in use, as they should be, Mrs. Sheehan would have been alive now. The engine driver is not one whit to blame; the blame rests with the railway authorities and the town authorities, which have both delayed action in the providing of crossing gates with almost criminal negligence. Within the past few years three or four persons have been slain at level crossings. After each accident public indignation and an aroused sense of duty would cause a little spasmodic activity, which, however, has on every occasion ended in nothing but a practical decision to set the value of human life against dollars and cents. Now our authorities have another incentive to take action. The Simcoe street level crossing is especially dangerous. On the east a high building, close to the track, shuts off the sight and sound of trains almost completely. Our town authorities are urged to take hold of the matter vigourously and push such measures as will prevent the terrible destruction of precious life that results from level crossings unprotected by gates.—ED. EXAMINER.

The Maple Sugar Season.

Some of the farmers report that the sap is already flowing quite freely, and that their sugar bushes will soon be the scene of active operations. The sharp frosty nights succeeded by the bright warm sunshine during the day has induced an unusually early flow, and if the weather continues favourable, maple syrup will soon make its appearance on the market. It might be mentioned, however, that some of the sugar refineries have been working overtime lately in the manufacture of genuine maple syrup and maple sugar.

TO-DAY'S MARKET.

Despite the bad conditions of the roads there was a good market this morning, and a large number of farmers came into town.

As was to be expected, the receipts of grain have fallen off, and the prices of the other commodities remain about the same as quoted on Wednesday.

On the square apples are selling from $1 to $1.50 per bag; potatoes, 70 to 75c per bag; beef, $4 50 to $6; pork by the quarter 6 to 7c.; hogs, $5 to $5.25; lamb, 6 to 7c.; mutton, 6 to 7c.; hay, $5 to $6.

In the upstairs department of the market butter was selling from 17 to 19c.; eggs, 16 to 18c.; chickens, 45 to 60c.; geese, 60 to 70c, and turkeys, 75c to $1.25.

SOME TIMELY REMARKS ON SEASONABLE GAMES.

What is Going on in Local and Outside Hockey Arenas—Notes From the Curling Ice.

HOCKEY.

The Peterboroughs have made the Montreal Victorias a good offer for a game.

Waterloo to-day challenges Peterborough, through the Globe, for a game in the Mutual street rink in Toronto. Waterloo has considerable gall. Surely two thrashings in a year from the Peterboroughs should be enough for them.

The Globe says Upper Canada College may send a team down Wednesday for a friendly game with the Colts.

The Ontario Bank is out with a challenge to play the best team that can be picked from the other three banks combined.

The Thistles and Granites lay aside the brooms and stones a week from to-night and play hockey. The new gallery will be completed by that time and a big crowd will doubtless be down to see the fun. The match starts at ten o'clock in order that the business men may have an opportunity of being present. The Thistles met last night and selected their team.

The Barbers wish to challenge the Dry-goods team to a game next week.

The Mutual Street Rink, Toronto was selected as the battle ground for the semi-final game in the intermediate series, between Collingwood and the Frontenacs of Kingston. More than ordinary interest was evinced in the match, nearly 300 people coming down from the northern town to cheer their boys along. The game was fast all the way and the best team won. The Frontenacs excelled in combination work and their passing runs were dazzling in their brilliancy. Collingwood at times "got together," but it was seldom; individual dashes were their strong point. All the Kingston forwards were fast and rare stick handlers. Labatt and Andrews worried the Kingston defence considerably but they were a little off in their shooting. The defences of both teams were strong, that of Collingwood being probably the best, although there was little to choose between them. Morrow used his weight to good advantage, and made nugatory many a promising rush by his effective checking. Elsworthy's lifting was a feature. He scored the first game by a long lift the length of the rink.

At half-time the score was 2 to 1 in favour of the Frontenacs. For the first part of the game Collingwood confined the play in their opponents' territory, but they couldn't score. Elsworthy finally notched a point by a long lift. The next game was long and the play was of the give-and-take order. Raynar scored from a scrimmage and by a combination run Frontenacs got another a few minutes later, Murray being responsible.

In the second half McDowell was ruled off for slugging at the start. Labatt and Andrews between them got through the Frontenacs' defence. The score was tied. Labatt was hurt and there was a delay. Shortly after the face off Wilson scored and the game ended 3 to 2 in favour of the Frontenacs.

The teams and officials:

Frontenacs (3)—Goal, Hiscock; point, McCrae; cover point, McDowell; forwards, Clarke, Murray, Reynar and Wilson.

Collingwood—Goal, Mitchell; point, Elsworthy; cover point, Morrow; forwards, Fair, Collins, Labatt and Andrews.

Referee, Mr. Gauthier; Goal umpires, Messrs. F. W. Atkinson of Toronto, and W. J. English of Peterborough; time keepers, W. Winnett and Dr. Clark.

Summary—1 Collingwood, Elsworthy, 5 minutes; 2 Frontenacs, Reynar, 14 minutes; 3 Frontenacs, Murray, 2 minutes. Second half—4 Collingwood, Andrews, 15 minutes; 5 Frontenacs, Wilson, 12 minutes.

MONDAY NIGHT'S MATCH.

Trainer Hobbins has his aggregation of so-called hockey players in good shape for their match against Lakefield in the Charlotte street rink on Monday evening next. The local team is composed of Patty Connal, Dagger McAuliffe, Badger Brown, Shanghai Isaacs, Beefy Higgins, Bones Comstock, Hatchet Burnham and Madore Stethem. Just what the boys intend to do to Lakefield is hard to say, but a red-hot game may be expected. Keep your eye on Hatchet Burnham as it is said he has been sleeping with his skates on for the last week so as to be in good shape for Monday.

OBITUARY.

Reference to the Death of the Late George Tully.

The Lenox Gleaner, of Iowa, makes the following reference to the death of the late George Tully, formerly of North Monaghan, whose demise was noted in the Examiner some time ago.

George Tully was born in Roxburghshire, Scotland, November 8th, 1823. Died February 12th, 1899, aged 75 years, 3 months and 4 days. He was a son of Andrew and Catherine Tully. In 1830 with his parents he emigrated to Peterborough, Canada. At the age of 28 years, on December 5, 1850, was united in marriage to Jane Fowler. Unto them was born ten children, seven daughters and three sons. His wife, two sons and six daughters survive him.

At an early age he united with the Presbyterian Church, of Peterborough, Canada, (where he was a member until he moved to Iowa) where his father was an Elder for many years, under the pastorate of the Rev. Mr. Rogers. After his death his brother William was elected in his place. He remained Elder until his death. Two other brothers were engaged in the Ministry, Rev. David Tully of Medin, Penn., and Rev. Andrew Tully, who preached at upper Mt. Bethel Presbytery of Lehigh, Penn. He died in 1880.

Mr. Tully was a member and an Elder in the United Presbyterian Church of Lenox, and a regular attendant whenever health would permit. His Christian influence and many acts of charity will be sadly missed in his neighborhood. All through the long weeks of sickness he exhibited the true spirit of christian character with patience and was well prepared to meet his Master in the hour of death. Home, church and society have lost a member who has been faithful so long. Funeral services were held Tuesday at one o'clock, at the United Presbyterian church conducted by Rev. F. B. Marsh. Remains were tenderly laid to rest in the Fairview cemetery in Lenox.

MEETING OF PARLIAMENT.

Thursday, March 16, Decided Upon by a Cabinet Council.

Ottawa, Feb. 24.—Parliament will meet for the despatch of business on Thursday, March 16, the earliest date at which it could now be called, having regard to the convenience of the members. This was decided at a Cabinet Council yesterday, at which Sir Wilfrid Laurier presided. It is expected that the debate on the address will be disposed of before the Easter adjournment.

Loubet Is a Democrat.

Paris, Feb. 24.—Great emphasis is given to the President's future course by the fact that he not only does not intend to abandon the visit to his aged half-peasant mother, living in the country in southern France—a visit arranged before he so much as dreamed of election to the Presidency—but he will make the journey like a private gentleman, just in the way President Grevy used to do and just as an American President would do, an excellent custom unfortunately abandoned by MM. Carnot and Faure.

The Fast Atlantic Line.

London, Feb. 24.—Hon. R. R. Dobell has been interviewed regarding the Canadian fast Atlantic steamship line. He said the assertion that the Canadian Government would accept a 17 or 18-knot service was inaccurate, and that a speed of at least 20 knots would be insisted on. He also denied the report that Mr. Petersen is again tendering. He said the Petersen deposit of £10,000 as an earnest of good faith was still retained by the Government, and the Petersen scheme is entirely off.

Overhead Trolleys Must Go.

Venice, Feb. 24.—Sig. Arna, a well-known engineer of Turin, thinks he has solved the problem of dispensing with the overhead trolley in electric traction. He asserts that his ground-conductor system is adaptable to any locality or climate and is workable in all sorts of weather. He has interested a number of tramway companies in his device.

That Brother.

Some time ago a well known Irishman was dining with Lord Hampden, governor of New South Wales. Wishing to pay a compliment to his host, the Irishman commented upon the fact that his excellency's family had all been true to the cause of Ireland with one exception. "We Irish never could forgive that brother of yours who sided with Caine for the Unionists in the great division of 1886. We used to call him the Brand of Caine."

"Ah!" observed the governor good humoredly. "I was that brother!"—Liverpool Mercury.

A Comparison.

"Have you met Mr Woolly, the western millionaire?" asked the sharp faced young lady.

"Oh, yes!" replied the plump one. "He took me in to dinner at Mrs. Hytone's last night. He was quite gallant and remarked upon my birdlike appetite."

"Indeed, dear! Well, he's a good judge. You know he runs an ostrich farm in California." — Catholic Standard and Times.

About Catarrh.

"I was weak and hardly able to walk. My blood was thin and I was as pale as death. Being told about Hood's Sarsaparilla I began taking it and in a few months I had gained twenty pounds in weight. I hope on with it until I was as well as ever." Arthur Mills, Dresden, Ontario.

THE SAP OF TREES.

Contrary to the Popular Belief, It Never Descends.

Probably nearly nine out of every ten believe that sap ascends in the spring and returns in the fall. Although I have never been able to find anything to the contrary in any book I have ever seen, I know from long and careful observation that this is not so. The sap never descends. It fulfills its office in causing the growth of the leaves and adding another to the rings which indicate the annual growth of the tree. So soon as the leaves fall the sap begins to reascend. This can be proved in various ways. Any farmer who has cut a pile of hard wood in November has noticed the sap flies gathering around the ends of the sticks on warm days. They are attracted by the sap, which can be seen issuing from the ends of the sticks, which sap had already begun to ascend before the sticks were cut.

Any hunter who has set a line of log traps for sable has noticed the sap flowing from maple sticks in warm days in November. Partridges begin to bud in November and find something besides dry twigs or they would not bud. But a still more convincing proof is that in some warm falls I have known maple sirup to be made and sold in quantities of several gallons at a time. Pussy willows, where growing in wet places, often bloom in warm November and December. One can see that the buds on the horse chestnuts are swelling in January. The sap which is proved to be present in all these cases is not the sap which went up in the spring descending, but new sap, which is going up.

No one ever speaks of the sap in a cornstalk going down in the fall. It has fed the leaves and matured the corn, and its work ended there. So in the tree each year the sap has finished its work when the leaves have matured and a new crop of sap at once begins to take its place. Of course this sap cannot ascend when the wood is frozen, but whenever the wood is thawed it keeps ascending.

Another error is that trees in growing carry their branches up with them as they grow, or, to make it plainer, that a limb which is five feet from the ground will in time be ten feet. The fact is that limbs grow as much lower on the lower side as they do higher on the upper side and no more. A limb which is an inch in diameter, if it grows to be three inches, will be an inch farther from the ground on the upper side and an inch nearer on the under side. The forks or crotches in trees often get to be considerably higher from the two branches which form it growing together as they increase in size. The top of the tree grows up, but limbs do not rise above where they are when they first start out.—Forest and Stream.

A Pointer for Boys.

Edward W. Bok, editor of the Ladies' Home Journal, gives the following, among other reasons for having never tasted liquor: "Another thing which led me to make up my mind never to touch liquor was the damage which I saw wrought by it upon some of the finest minds with which it was ever my privilege to come into contact, and I concluded that what had resulted injuriously to others might prove so to me. I have seen, even in my few years of professional life, some of the smartest, yea, brilliant, literary men dethroned from splendid positions, owing to nothing else but this indulgence in wine. I have known men with salaries of thousands of dollars per year, occupying positions which hundreds would strive a lifetime to attain, come to beggary from drink. Only recently there applied to me, for any position I could offer him, one of the most brilliant editorial writers in the newspaper profession—a man who two years ago easily commanded one hundred dollars for a single editorial in his special field. That man became so unreliable from drink that the editors are now afraid of his articles, and, although he can to-day write as forcible an editorial as any time during his life, he sits in a cellar in one of our cities writing newspaper wrappers for one dollar per thousand.

How to Read a Modern Novel.

"A rather clever young lady has been explaining to "an inquisitive librarian" the way in which she reads her novels. While the majority of people are content to begin with Chapter I. and work on conscientiously to the inevitable marriage at the close of Volume III., she adopts the original procedure of beginning at the last chapter and reading backward. By so doing she finds that she obtains a continual fund of excitement, for, as she remarks, it is easier to anticipate the close of a novel from its beginning than to divine its beginning from its close. The hero and heroine may be in themselves "neither rich nor rare," and the "situations" may be hackneyed, but read backward, the problem "how the dickens they got there"—into the said situation—is intricate enough, in her opinion, to make the dullest novel "go."—London News.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great sufferings for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidney and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by all Druggists, every bottle guaranteed.

Children Cry for
CASTORIA.

We all covet strength and admire it. We look at the marvelous muscular development of a Sandow with envy and straightway resolve to buy a pair of dumb bells and get strong, as if the secret of strength lay in muscles.

Strength begins in the stomach. It begins there because there the strength elements are manufactured, and from there they are distributed to blood, bone, brain, muscle and nerve. If you want to begin to be strong, start with the stomach. Put the digestive and nutritive organs and blood making glands in perfect working order. That is the foundation of strength. Exercise puts on the superstructure of development.

To establish the stomach and the digestive and nutritive functions in perfect health, there is no medicine so sure and so satisfactory as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens the stomach, enriches the blood, nourishes the nerves, and regulates the functions of every vital organ of the body.

"About twelve years ago I was suddenly taken with a pain in the pit of the stomach which was so violent I could not walk straight," writes O. S. Copenhaver, Esq., of Mount Union, Huntingdon Co., Pa., (Box 232). "It would grow more severe until it caused waterbrash and vomiting of a slimy yellow water. I consulted a physician and he told me I had a form of dyspepsia and treated me for about six months with but little benefit. I still kept getting so weak I could scarcely walk. I then tried another physician and he told me my liver was out of order and that I had indigestion. He gave me a treatment and I got some better but only for a short time. I then took to using several widely advertised patent medicines, but received no more than temporary relief while using. I then tried Dr. Pierce's medicines, using his 'Golden Medical Discovery,' 'Favorite Prescription' and the 'Pleasant Pellets,' and in two months' time I was feeling better than I had for years before. I can truthfully say Dr. Pierce's medicines did me more good than any I had ever taken."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, illustrated, is sent free for 21 one-cent stamps (cost of customs and mailing only) for paper edition, or 50 stamps for edition bound in cloth. Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE FASHION PLATE.

Soft gray czarina, much like French camel's hair in effect comes in all the varied tones so popular at this time of year.

Bayadere effects will reappear this spring, and there is enough diversity shown in these cross stripes to render them suitable for either tall or short figures.

The new cheviots for tailor costumes are very attractive and stylish. The colors are mixed, as usual, but most of the very desirable patterns are quiet and unobtrusive.

Four-in-hand scarfs, with very long ends that reach the belt, will this spring be worn with smart tailor made shirt waists of fancy silk, faille, silk dotted French mohair, etc.

The three or five piece sheath skirt, with short jacket and vest tastefully braided or trimmed with soutache in applique designs, is still a very popular style for general use this spring.

Some of the new English walking jackets for next season are turned back in gracefully shaped revers to the waist line. Others are worn closed straight down from the neck fastened diagonally from the left shoulder.

A dainty fluffiness about the neck, produced by plaitings of white lace or chiffon intermingled with outstanding loops of very narrow black velvet ribbon, is decidedly becoming to women with slender throats and faces.

Besides the new, very smart, little jackets, military coats, separate jacket bodices, tailor made boleros, stylish English cutaways and many shaped "Louis," there will appear with both Lenten and Easter models very handsome costumes made with wraps en suite.

Black silk braids and black woven chenille in patterns like soutache trimmings are woven and twisted into various fanciful and conventional designs for skirt, bodice and jacket trimmings, yokes, curving collars and flaring cuffs, guimpes, vest girdle and corselet pieces, and their favor for the spring and summer is already assured.—New York Post.

WEALTHY STAGE LIGHTS.

Probably no actor now on the stage is richer than William H. Crane. He is said to be worth $250,000, and it is all safely invested.

Joe Jefferson is supposed to be worth about $800,000. Henry Dixey ought to have a lot of money, but after he made $60,000 in "Adonis" he lost it.

The lowest figure put on Francis Wilson's wealth is $100,000. He got $660 a night when playing in "Erminie," and most of his other ventures have paid well. He has invested in real estate.

Della Fox has about $50,000 in jewels. Edna Wallace Hopper is supposed to have $60,000 or $70,000 and a short time ago made $15,000, in a stock speculation. Her interest in "El Capitan" made her $26,000 two years ago.

Nat Goodwin has $80,000 and would have had more had he not persisted in sticking so close to his ideal of art. Richard Mansfield is said to be rich. He got $40,000 one year out of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." He owns property and has a lovely home.

Lillian Russell always works on guarantees and is sure of $1,000 a week. She does not speculate and has made good investments. May Irwin owns a whole island up in the St. Lawrence. Ada Rehan has put aside $60,000, and Mme. Modjeska is comfortably supplied with money.

Another Permanent Cure of Scrofula.

Not long ago we published the case of Mrs. Bennet, of Crewson's Corners, Ont., whom Burdock Blood Bitters cured of one of the severest cases of Scrofula met with in Ontario.

So thorough and permanent has the cure been that in nearly 5 years the disease has shown no signs of returning.

This time we give the case of Mr. Norman D. Murray, of Brook Village, N.S., who was permanently cured by B. B. B. of scrofulous sores that defied the skill of two prominent physicians. Mr. Murray writes as follows:

"It is with pleasure I write in praise of Burdock Blood Bitters, which completely cured me of Scrofula. I consulted two of our most skilful doctors, who gave me some acid to apply to the sores, but I regret to say that the application only made them worse. My face was all one running sore and I could get no ease. At last I purchased one bottle of B. B. B., and before I had used it all I was completely cured. Words cannot express my feelings toward your God-sent medicine. I will praise it wherever I go, because it has made a permanent cure in my case, after I had practically given up hope.

"IT IS VERY SATISFACTORY."

To Wm. McCabe, Esq., Managing Director, North American Life Assurance Co., Toronto:

DEAR SIR.—Your official notice came duly to hand, apprising me of the results obtainable upon my 15 year endowment Policy in your Company for $1,000, which matured on the 6th inst. Of the various options you have given me viz.:

Cash value	$1,564 26
Paid-up Policy, payable at my death, for	2,560 00
Yearly Income for life of	166 20

I have decided upon the cash value; and it gives me pleasure to testify that, as I anticipated it would be when I took out the policy, IT IS VERY SATISFACTORY. This returns me the full premiums of the 15 years and over 4½ per cent. compound interest, in addition to which you have carried the risk upon my life. In view of the lowering rates of interest which have been obtainable during the latter portion of the period, it is difficult to see how this excellent result could have been surpassed.

Yours sincerely,

JEWELRY JOTTINGS.

Quite distingue are new plain silver or gilt cases for visiting cards.

An unusual combination of stones in a brooch, that of pink topazes and diamonds, is both striking and beautiful.

"Baby spoons" are about the daintiest and most charming little novelties out. They come in silver and in gilt, plain, engraved or enameled.

Some silver platters, shallow bowls, trays, etc., bear an engraved pattern which reminds one of a fine tiny figured damask napkin laid in the bottom of the dish.

Among new small shopping bags, costly gold embroidered brocade with collapsible top of India gold set with a large topaz or amethyst appeals to a taste for richness and color.

The beaded border seems to have captivated popular fancy, and silversmiths are making great use of it in tea sets, table ware, toilet appointments, vases and small silver novelties.

A certain air of old time elegance and distinction attaches itself to one of the latest shapes in rings. This, though a new production, reminds one of an antique oblong seal and consists of a trap cut emerald or a sapphire set in a plain beveled gold frame.—Jewelers' Circular.

MR. HOUSE, OF BERLIN

Cured of Lumbago by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Berlin Feb. 18.—Everyone in Berlin knows Andrew House. He is a respected and prosperous resident, who numbers his friends by hundreds.

For over a year past, Mr. House was tormented by severe pains in his back, which increased in severity in spite of doctors and their medicines.

He was advised to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. He did so. That night he felt less pain. Daily the pains abated, and in less than two weeks, Dodd's Kidney Pills had cured him thoroughly.

There is only one sure and unfailing cure for Back-ache. That cure is Dodd's Kidney Pills. Experience has proved this thousands of times.

Sipping Liquids at Meals.

The matter of drinking is important in indigestion. Do not get into the habit of constantly sipping liquids during the course of a meal. Drink as little as possible until the meal is concluded, or, better still, drink nothing at all until half an hour or so later, and then only pure, hot water.

Never eat between meals, and let those be as regular as possible. One fruitful source of indigestion may be found in the fact that people who are subject to it often sit down to a meal immediately after coming in from a long walk or other fatiguing exercise. Rest a little while before beginning to eat, if you are very tired. And, if you are subject to indigestion, rest again for a short while when the meal is over.

Women's Worst Enemy

Some hesitate before giving an answer, but those who know best will immediately say HEADACHE.

Thousands of women live in misery day after day, and week after week, suffering untold agony from these dreadful headaches. Husbands are disheartened, children neglected, and happy homes ruined. Most women strive to bear in patience the suffering which they consider part of life without looking into the cause or searching for relief. Food cannot digest without the bile which the liver supplies and hence the necessity of keeping the liver in good working order. To cure the headaches you must cure the liver and then remove the cause of disease.

Dr. Chase spent years of his life in perfecting a medicine which acts directly on the kidneys and liver. Thousands of grateful women have testified during the past ten years to the effectiveness of this remedy for sick headaches. Many a home has been restored to happiness as a result.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, the greatest discovery of this great scientist, are put up to sell at 25 cents per box. All dealers.

MRS. BILLTOP'S WAYS.

Only One Disturbing Peculiarity, and Even That For the Common Good.

"I suppose," said Mr. Billtops, "that we all have our peculiarities—even Mrs. Billtops has some. But she has only one that is disturbing—she will insist on calling up the subject of our expenses at night—the last thing at night—and this I hold to be bad, because it keeps me awake thinking about it. My idea is that nothing of that sort should be discussed after dinner. With that meal ample, let us hope, if not sumptuous, we should put up a barrier against the cares of the day and devote ourselves thereafter to comfort and tranquillity, so as to insure that calmness of mind that is essential to sleeping well. I don't know of anything that breaks all this up more than a discussion of ways and means as called up by Mrs. Billtops.

"She says that there's no other time to speak of it; that I am away all day, to begin with, and she doesn't want to speak to me immediately after dinner. She wants to give me time to smoke my cigar, and then, she says, she has things to look after herself, and she wants to read the evening paper, and all that, and what else can she do? I don't know, but I do know that when at about a quarter of 10 I see her lay the paper down on the table and look across at me and say:

"'Now, what are we going to do about'—

"I know that we're in for it sure. And then follows the usual list of things, gradually piling up till it becomes so mountainous that, honest, it makes me laugh. I can't help it. But it's only a temporary relief, for when Mrs. Billtops breaks in with this, 'Well, I must say I don't see anything to laugh at,' of course I instantly become very sober and pay strict attention.

"And then she goes through the solemn details and I listen, and when she is all through I say that we shall have to do the best we can about it of course.

"'That's what you always say,' she says, and then she gives up for the time her efforts to make me understand. She gets up with a resigned expression upon her face and folds up the newspaper, which means, I know, that the conference is ended, and I keep very dark then and say nothing. And she thinks that I mean all right, but that it's hopeless to talk to me about business matters. And I wish that she wouldn't insist on always bringing up that subject just at that hour of the day, but it's her only disturbing peculiarity, and even that's for the common good."

Strephon's Wedding Coat.

Now, Strephon has always prided himself on his figure. Mrs. Strephon (Phyllis as was) says he has the only figure in his family.

"Your brothers' figures," she said, contemplatively, "well, they're not lost, they're only gone before. But you—with broader shoulders and chest, and narrower waist—you'd have a first-rate figure—a really frock-coat figure, you know."

So for a long time Strephon exulted over his brothers.

"I've been married eight years," he was wont to say, "and I can still wear my wedding coat; that's proof that I'm not getting fat.

But this pride had its fall.

One afternoon Phyllis met him when he came home with a determined look.

"What does this mean?" she demanded, waving a bill before his eyes. He looked; it was receipted.

"What's the matter? The bill's paid," he said.

"Read it, ordered Phyllis. It was for a black coat and "vest and light trousers, and was a year old.

Strephon's eyes met Phyllis' and sank before them. At length Strephon spoke.

"I've been married eight years," he said, "but I have not on a wedding garment. Still, I've kept my figure," with a glance at his wife, who glared scornfully at him in reply.

"Now, if that is not my wedding coat," said Strephon, "where is my wedding coat?"

Phyllis blushed.

"I think you must have given it away," she said, timidly.—New York Sun.

An Ordinary Economy.

"What's this?" exclaimed the young husband, referring to the memorandum she had given him. "One dozen eggs, a pound of raisins, a bottle of lemon extract, can of condensed milk, dime's worth of ground cinnamon and half a dollar's worth of sugar. What do you want with all these things, Belinda?"

"I've got a dry loaf of baker's bread," replied the young wife, "that I'm going to save by working up into a bread pudding. I never let anything go to waste, Henry."—Clairmont (N. H.) Eagle.

Short Lesson in English.

A tiresome caller who had spent the evening at the home of a friend, a young lady, and had devoted nearly all the time to a description of a trip to Europe, from which he had recently returned, said to her as he rose to go:

"I beg pardon for being so talkative. I fear my long story about my adventures abroad has entertained you but illy."

"On the contrary," she replied politely, "it has entertained me quite avelly."—Youth's Companion.

SPONGES.

With Demand Exceeding Supply, Prices Have for Years Advanced.

One effect of the war in Cuba has been to diminish the export of Cuban sponges by fully one-half. The Cuban sponge fishermen get a license to fish in Cuban waters only upon condition that they shall serve in the navy if required; and so many have been called upon for this service that the take of sponges has been materially reduced.

Cuba furnishes less than a third of the sponges used in this country, but the curtailment of that supply helps to put up prices that have been advancing for years. The supply of sponges comes from Florida, Cuba, Nassau, Mexico and the Mediterranean. Ordinarily about two-thirds of the supply, in value, comes from American waters. The demand for sponges has increased naturally, while the world's supply has not kept pace with it. It has within recent years actually diminished, owing to careless methods of fishing and to overfishing, to supply the increased demand.

The sponge is of slow growth; it takes two or three years for it to attain commercial size. In all countries in whose waters sponges grow there are laws against the pulling of little sponges until they have reached a certain growth, just as there are laws against the taking of lobsters and of some fishes under specified sizes. These laws have been to a greater or less extent ignored. In some waters sponges have been fished for, with rakes and nets. This method has been prohibited in Nassau. It was found not operative in Florida waters, on account of the nature of the bottom.

With the supply not equal to the increasing demand prices have steadily advanced. One kind of sponge that sold here less than twenty years ago at 90 cents a pound now sells at $2.50 a pound. The advance in other sponges has not been proportionately so great, but it has been large, and the tendency of prices is still upward.—New York Sun.

A New Wrinkle in Photography.

It has often happened that the only picture remaining of a friend who has passed away is the result of a random "snap shot" out of doors, which was anything but satisfactory. Such a photograph can now be developed into a fine picture by a new process. The usual method when the negative proved available has been to print a glass positive by superposition, or in contact with the negative, and from the resultant positive, which, of course, is the size of the original negative, make an enlarged negative through a camera. Although this method was generally recognized even in the large London carbon establishments, it had the radical fault of enlarging and reproducing the grain, the retouching, and all the strise of the glass. This operation is now reversed by first making a full time positive, the exact size desired for the enlarged negative. The amendments, improvements and changes that can be made at this stage are remarkable. Upon the perfection of this positive, and the work thereon, depends success in the final result. Let the positive be very carefully retouched and improved, as suggested. Then place it in a printing frame, of course, with the glass side out, and in perfect contact with a dry plate. Back the plate with black cloth of felt, to prevent halation, and expose it at the distance of say, 4 feet, from a 6-foot burner two or three seconds, depending on the vigor and strength of the positive. It is a good plan to expose and develop a small (4x5) plate as a test of the proper time. If all this is carefully done, the resulting negative will compare favorably with a negative made from life.—Denver Republican.

HALE OLD AGE.

Greatest enemy to the enjoyment of a hearty, comfortable old age is—Backache.

Active bustling life of this present generation puts too heavy a strain on the kidneys. The delicate filters of the blood were never intended to do such hard work—can't do it very often without help.

Backache is simply the cry of overworked kidneys for help in throwing off the poisons of the system.

If they don't get it there's trouble—serious trouble.

Doan's Kidney Pills strengthen weak kidneys—Help them to keep the blood pure and the system strong and vigorous.

Help people to grow old slowly and comfortably—Are doing it every day.

MR. THOS. ASH, an old gentleman, well-known in Renfrew, Ont., made the following statement: "I am 72 years of age, and have been troubled for a number of years with pains across my back. In fact I was racked in every joint.

When I would stoop over it seemed to give agonizing pain to straighten up. I was so bad that I could scarcely walk. I have taken many kinds of medicines, but got nothing to help me.

Being recommended to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box at Clark's drug store and commenced their use. After taking three doses I noticed a great change for the better, which I am glad to say has since continued, and I can now get around as smart as a cricket.

I can split my own wood, and am, in fact, just like a new man altogether. My friends remark it, and I am glad to tell them that the credit for this remarkable change is all due to Doan's Kidney Pills."

Doan's Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists at 50c. a box or 3 for $1.25. The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont. Remember the name Doan's, and refuse all others.

SHED SKIN 20 TIMES

Little Boy's Terrible Eczema. Mass of Sores from Head to Foot.

Not an Inch of Body Unaffected. Skin Came off with Bandages.

Screams Were Heart-Breaking. 3 Doctors & Institute no Avail.

CURED BY CUTICURA.

My little boy broke out with an itching rash. I tried three doctors and medical college but he kept getting worse. There was not one square inch of skin on his whole body unaffected. He was one mass of sores, and the stench was frightful. At the time I was induced to try CUTICURA remedies, he was so bad that I had to cut his hair all off, and put the CUTICURA (ointment) on him on bandages, as it was impossible to touch him with the bare hand. In removing the bandages they would take the skin with them, and the poor child's screams were heart-breaking. After the second application of CUTICURA (ointment) I saw signs of improvement, and the sores began to dry up. His skin peeled off twenty times, but now he is entirely cured. I used CUTICURA RESOLVENT for his blood, and a stronger and healthier boy you never saw than he is to-day.

PEAT DEVELOPMENT BY LOCAL CAPITAL.

Peterborough Men Engage in the New Industry.

THE TRENT VALLEY CANAL BOGS.

Some of the Reasons Why Peat is Expected to Replace Coal—The Importance of the By-product.

The recent discovery of the possibility of compressing ordinary peat, and thus making of it a marketable fuel equal in every regard and by reason of its cleanliness and solidity superior to coal, has during the past few years attracted a great deal of attention to this new field of industry. That Ontario should be the fortunate possessor of practically inexhaustible bogs of peat, situated in such a manner as to render the processes of extraction and drying extremely cheap, is a matter of congratulation. A representative of the Globe visited Peterborough recently and was favoured with a long and interesting conversation with Mayor Davis, who is actively interested in the peat deposits which have lately been found to exist along the Trent Valley Canal and at various points in the seven counties from Ontario to Prince Edward. Mr. Davis devoted much time explaining the processes of manufacture and many other matters of interest concerning Ontario's peat.

CANADIAN DEVELOPMENT.

The company which is now engaged in the manufacture of the peat fuel is known as the Trent Valley Peat Fuel Company, the charter members being Mayor Davis, of Peterborough; Aaron Cox, Director of the Central Canada Loan & Saving Company; W. G. Morrow, Manager of the Toronto Savings & Loan Company; J. R. Stratton, M.P.P. for West Peterborough, and W. J. Sims, contractor for the Trent Valley Canal. In seven counties of Ontario they have the sole right to manufacture peat fuel, and have already succeeded in completing most of the preliminary details of the work. It has been a general question of late why the peat fuel, of which so much has been heard, has not yet been put on the market. The public, however, are not in a position to appreciate the difficulties which have had to be overcome by the promoters. Although the fact that peat is of use as a fuel has been known for a long time, it is only quite recently that such use has been rendered practical by the invention of a machine whereby it can be compressed and thus given a market value. Mr. A. A. Dickson, of Toronto, is the inventor of this machine, which was seen by Torontonians at the last Industrial Exhibition.

The deposits which are now being exploited in the Trent Valley were found there about four years ago by Mr. W. J. Sims, when excavating for the canal. During the excavations enormous quantities of the peat were laid aside, and are now ready for the compressor. With this to begin operations on, the company expects to be able to supply any demands which may be made upon it, and to have the fuel on the market by next fall.

HOW PEAT IS FOUND.

The peat bogs are, in addition to their usefulness, places of much interest. They are found in many places in Ontario, and in Central Ontario are especially rich in the vegetable fuel. On the surface is found an odd mossy grass. This grass bears the curious relation to the peat of being nourished by it, and of annually falling and forming a layer on the surface, which in time becomes peat. The peat has thus the nature of a live plant, annually producing an addition to itself. In the Ontario bogs the peat is particularly plentiful, extending from 17 to 25 feet in depth. Beneath the peat there is found a further deposit of a curious pink-colored gelatinous substance, which when exposed to the air dries and becomes quite hard, with the appearance of limestone. When hard it has a brown color and burns similarly to coal. Of this deposit little use has yet been made, but the two upper deposits are now becoming valuable for various purposes. Of the actual peat only one use is made. But of the moss on the surface, which until recently has been removed and cast aside at much expense, an important by-product has been made. A few of its many uses are as raw materials for the manufacture of fine packing material, disinfectants, textile fabrics, paper, carpets, curtains and wall papers. It consists of long fluffy strings, in appearance resembling faded moss. These plant remains abound in spiral cells, which make it extremely absorbent. It will absorb ten times its own weight in water, and is, therefore, much more absorbent than ordinary straw. The grass contains all the antiseptic and disinfectant qualities of the peat. On account of this it is a much better manure than straw. For packing perishable and breakable articles it is also well adapted, being less easily penetrated by heat and cold. When dried it possesses nothing capable of fermentation or decay. It is elastic, fibrous, durable, a non-conductor of heat and non-combustible. A means of weaving the grass has recently been invented in Vienna, and it can now be made into coats, hats, carpets, ropes, rugs, mattings and pillows. As a substitute for absorbent cotton it has a decided advantage in its natural antiseptic qualities. The possibilities, in fact, for the use of the peat grass seems to be unlimited.

EXPLOITATION.

The method of extraction and manufacture of the peat, though simple, is interesting on account of the high value produced by such little work. The peat is found in many successive layers, and is extracted by means of dredging. It is then laid out along the flat limestone rocks which abound in Central Ontario, and for about a week it is continually moved about and turned in order to be dried. When thoroughly dry the peat is put through a machine, which powders and compresses it into little blocks—the finished product. From what has been said it will easily be understood how exceptionally favoured are the bogs of central Ontario. The depth of the peat is greater than is usual, that of most bogs being only about ten feet or fifteen feet at the outside, while these extend seventeen feet, and in some places as much as twenty five feet beneath the surface. The presence of the flat limestone rocks makes the drying process as simple and cheap as possible. A further and all important consideration is the proximity of good markets and the facilities for transportation. It has been already demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Trent Valley Peat Company that in Toronto and the numerous towns of Ontario a close and steady market will be found. As to transportation, the company will have the advantages both of rail and canal at its most important points of production.

The great advantages which peat fuel possesses over coal is the entire absence of all mineral matter in its composition. There are thus no clinkers found after consumption. The amount of ash is remarkably small, and, like hard coal, peat gives off no smoke. In addition to this, there is no sulphur in the peat. Tests have been made on the Central Ontario Railroad, which have proven the fuel perfectly satisfactory and a decided improvement upon coal. As compared with coal, peat balks between hard and soft coal, and lasts in the same proportion. There is absolutely no dirt in connection with it. It is calculated that it can be placed on the market at a price from $1.00 to $1.50 less than that of coal.

SIGNIFICANCE OF THE DISCOVERIES.

The importance to Canada of the simultaneous discovery of peat bogs and the invention of a means of compressing it can scarcely be over-estimated. In Ontario especially the problem of how to obtain cheap fuel has been one of the most important and pressing for some time. With the consumption of lumber the importance of the question has increased, and it is for these reasons that the timely discovery of an additional fuel is so opportune. As an incentive to every variety of manufacturing industry its importance will be mostly felt. The lack of sulphur is a consideration of immense value, as it is so injurious to metals. For generating steam peat is vastly superior to any other fuel. It ignites and burns freely, giving off an intense heat and leaving only a fine white ash, which is easily removed. For every conceivable domestic use its adaptability is very great. The prospects are that a new era is in store for Canada, if the peat is found in actual use to be as valuable as it has appeared by the tests. We will no longer be dependent upon outside sources for our fuel, and a saving of almost half will be effected in the cost of heat production. To our mining industries the development means much. The presence of a fuel capable in every respect of supplying heat for smelting purposes will effect a great saving to Canadian miners, and will probably render profitable many mines which cannot now be worked because of the expense of coal.

HUMPHREYS'

THE LATE R. J. TATE.

(Canadian Churchman.)

The north-eastern part of the diocese of Toronto has sustained considerable loss in the death of Mr. J. F. Tate, of Lakefield, Ontario, who died on Friday, February 3rd, of la grippe complicated with pneumonia. Many of the readers of the Canadian Churchman are aware of the deep interest the above-mentioned gentleman has for many years taken in matters affecting the welfare of the Church; and will, doubtless, in their turn, feel an interest in a short sketch of his life. Francis James Tate was born in 1841, at Charing, Kent, of which place his father, the Rev. F. J. Blackburn Tate, held the living for some years. The Tates were a Yorkshire family; and with that county were identified most of the early recollections of the deceased, whose grandfather, the Rev. James Tate, was headmaster of Richmond Grammar School for several years, previous to his appointment to a canonry of St. Paul's. Mr. Tate was educated partly at Fulneck, among the Moravians, for whom he more than once expressed a high respect, and partly at Richmond Grammar School. A year or two of his boyhood was spent at Brussels in Belgium. When his school days were ended, his father having exchanged the English living for the parish of St. Luke's, Montreal, he came to Canada and entered the Bank of Montreal, holding appointments successively at Montreal, Hamilton and New York. Upon attaining the 30th year of his age, he became manager of the Peterborough branch, and in 1873 married the only daughter of Matthew S. Rolleston, Esq. Unfortunately in the summer of 1874 he was visited with a severe illness, from which he did not recover sufficiently to resume the duties of his position in the bank. Several years spent in England resulted in slowly returning health; and in 1881 he returned to Lakefield, where he has resided ever since. The distinguishing characteristic of the deceased gentleman was his very earnest devotion to the Church of England, which was so strong that it became the absorbing purpose of his life. It is no exaggeration to say that he was willing at all times to spend and be spent in her service. For the clergy he could not do enough. Their charge he believed to be a most sacred one; and he considered it a privilege to do anything that would benefit the cause for which they laboured. Accordingly, he performed as a welcome duty any service he could render to a clergyman. His parish priest was the object of his deep solicitude and of many delicate acts of kindness. In the welfare of his own parish, and of the neighbouring mission of St. Barleigh, his interest amounted almost to anxiety. He watched and fostered the extension of the church and with intense concern. For some years he read the lessons and trained the choir at St. Mark's, Warsaw. Occasionally, when asked to do so, he has taken the services at Warsaw, Hall's Glen, Young's Point and Haultain. Rather more than two years ago he raised a company of the Church Boys' Brigade in Lakefield. He did everything in his power to promote the objects of the C.E.T.S. He taught regularly in the Sunday school, with the exception of the summer months, which were spent at Headlands, Stony Lake, where during the last three summers, having made arrangements with various clergymen, he has held services of the Church continuously throughout the holiday season. The spacious verandah was fitted with altar, prayer-desks and seats, and Holy Communion, morning and evening prayer were held every Sunday. At the same charming summer home he has, on two or three occasions, entertained the chapter of the Rural Deanery of Northumberland, and numberous clergymen have there enjoyed the beauties of Stony Lake, and the generous hospitality of Mr. Tate. Happily, owing to the generosity of Mrs. Tate, there is every reason to believe that Headlands will continue to yield its tribute of prayer and praise, and to furnish summer rest and refreshment to the clergy. In the absence of a will, Mrs. Tate, with the concurrence of her son, Mr. R. Rolleston Tate, and her daughter, Miss Gwyneth Tate, felt that she could carry out the wishes of her husband in no better way than by devoting Headlands and its equipment to the service of the Church as a Clergy House of Rest. To effect this, it is her intention to transfer Headlands to Rev. F. H. Hartley, Mr. E. R. Tate, and Rev. G. Warren in trust. The necessary arrangements will most probably be made so that the House of Rest will be available for clergymen next summer and if desired, also for the coming session of the Summer School for Clergy. As at Cascuna, it will be arranged on the basis of the smallest possible charge for board. Those who have visited Headlands know of its fitness and many advantages for this purpose. Mr. Tate's type of Churchmanship was that of the Oxford revival. It was his belief that High Churchmen most faithfully reflected the true character of the Anglican branch of the church. This may seem strange, when we consider his Evangelical parentage, and his Moravian impressions. Probably the reason is to be found in the fact that in early manhood he came under the influence of the earnest devotion manifested by the Tractarians. He watched the later developments of the Oxford movement, studied its literature, and drank of its spirit, and by this means he became more and more devoted to the Church of England, an earnest disciple of the Crucified and Risen Lord, and a true friend to the distressed. Those that knew him well became profoundly aware of his strong attachment to the church and her ordinances, his practical charity, and his personal attachment to our Lord. With all the constancy and tenacity of a strong nature he was persistent and unflinching in proclaiming the principles of the High Churchman and the practices of the Prayer Book; with equal sincerity he believed that these were of the highest value to the Christian in his war with sin, and in his endeavours after a holy life. Even those things which appeared to the observers as exaggerations only served to make more evident a reality of purpose and constancy of aim far from common. His death is a decided loss to us all, but he leaves behind him the seed of a devotion which may, with the blessing of God, germinate and fructify in the lives of many younger members of the church. The funeral was held at Lakefield on Monday, February 6th, and was largely attended by relatives and friends from Toronto, Peterborough and other places. The Revs. J. C. Davidson, R. V. Stevenson, and G. Warren assisted in the burial service. The interment took place at Hillside cemetery, Lakefield. Requiescat in pace.

FOES OF THE REPUBLIC

French Government Moves Against Royalists in Paris.

RUSSIAN CZAR IS QUITE ILL.

British and French Relations Are Again Strained—Fresh Friction Caused by the Oman Incident—The Resurrection of the Khalifa—The British People Surprised—The News by Cable.

Paris, Feb. 27.—In consequence of the placarding throughout the city of speeches of the Duc d'Orleans, the Orleanist pretender, recently delivered at San Remo, and the seizure of scarf-pins and medals bearing the pretender's portrait, the Prefect of Police was ordered by the Government to make a strict investigation into the recent proceedings of the monarchist party.

Saturday evening the search was made in the homes of many prominent suspects, but no incident occurred in the course of the domiciliary visits.

Yesterday morning M. Buffet, who represents the Duc d'Orleans, vigorously protested against the violation of his domicile, and declared that the Royalist party would always conspire, even if threatened with imprisonment. Many documents were seized at M. Buffet's residence.

AGAIN A HITCH.

Eternal Vigilance Seems to Be the Price of Peace Between France and Britain —A Strained Situation.

London, Feb. 27.—There has been a temporary halt, for some unknown reason, in Lord Salisbury's negotiations with Ambassador Cambon for the settlement of the disputes between England and France. There have been no conferences between these two diplomats during the last week, although the Muscat incident led to an exchange of communications between the foreign offices of the two countries.

The French declare that they had no notion of obtaining a strip of territory in the Province of Oman, on the Persian Gulf, but only a coal depot for the benefit of trade. The English action in forcing the Sultan of Oman to refuse the French request was neither correct nor polite to France, so the diplomats across the channel assert. Coming on the heels of the Shanghai affair, it tends to prove to the Parisian mind persistent ill-will of Great Britain toward France.

On the other hand, the English diplomats assert that France, by secret intrigue, purchased from the Sultan of Oman a coaling station, and the agreement did not forbid it being fortified. The sum of the whole matter is, however, that the Anglo-French strain has seriously increased.

Following the recent hissing of the Queen's name in a variety theatre at Nice, another incident has occurred there tending to show French hostility. At the Battle of the Flowers in Nice, the Union Jack and American flag were displayed together upon one of the carriage. Along the Promenade Anglais this was loudly hissed.

A wagon filled with French soldiers coming abreast of this carriage, another insult was offered to the English and American flags. The officers drew themselves up, stood at attention, and ceased throwing flowers until the carriage had passed.

If the Queen decides not to go to Nice this spring there will be an exodus of English and Americans from the Riviera.

THE KHALIFA AND HIS HOST.

New Governor of Omdurman Considers Him Only a Nuisance.

London, Feb. 27.—The news that the Khalifa is gathering a host, varying in number from 15,000 to 80,000 men, and is marching on Khartoum, came with a rude shock to the people of Great Britain, who were under the impression that he was almost a solitary wanderer in the desert. Official circles, however, express satisfaction at the fact that the Khalifa is apparently determined to make another onslaught on the Anglo-Egyptian forces, as they are confident that he will easily be defeated. Major-General Sir Archibald Hunter, the Governor of Omdurman, is quoted as saying in an interview: "I regard the Khalifa as a nuisance. He is no longer dangerous, and it will greatly simplify matters if he comes out and fights." In the meanwhile detachments of British troops have been ordered to get ready to return to Omdurman from Lower Egypt, and a strong expedition will be formed and advanced to meet the Khalifa.

JOY IN PARIS.

A Parallel Drawn Between the Treatment of Canada and Spain.

Paris, Feb. 27.—The leader in La Liberte last night is devoted to the disagreement of the joint high commission in Canadian-American affairs. The writer rather enjoys what he considers a rebuff to England. He says the American commissioners have treated the Canadians just as the peace commissioners treated the Spaniards at Paris.

Turks Hate the British.

Moscow, Feb. 27.—A despatch just received from Constantinople says that the Turkish population show intense hostility to the English residents. It is reported on good authority, the correspondent says, that the embassy of Sir Nicholas O'Connor is constantly watched by Turkish spies, who report to the chief of the secret service, a favorite of Abdul Hamid.

GUERILLA WARFARE.

The Filipinos Waging a Shot-at-a-Time Warfare Against the Americans—The Situation Serious.

Manila, Feb. 27.—Saturday night the rebels concentrated in such numbers near the Chinese cemetery that General McArthur anticipated an attack and asked for reinforcements. Two companies of the 23rd Regulars were sent to Caloocan and a battery of the 20th Regulars to the cemetery at about midnight, but the expected attack was not made, the rebels, after making a great noise with bugle calls and yells of "Viva Independencia" and "Mucho Malo Americano," and firing volleys, disappeared in the woods.

Killing Them One by One.

Manila, Feb. 27.—All was quiet yesterday afternoon inside and outside of Manila, except near Caloocan, where the Filipino sharpshooters continue to annoy the American troops at a comparatively close range. One man of the 20th Kansas Volunteers was killed in Ariquina Village, which was burned last night, and four were wounded in the skirmish—one of the Idaho, one of the Minnesota and two of the Pennsylvania Volunteer regiments.

Gen. Otis' Urgent Wire.

Colombo, Island of Ceylon, Feb. 27.—The United States transport Grant, which sailed from New York for Manila on Jan. 19 with troops, under command of Major-General Henry W. Lawton, on board, arrived here yesterday. General Lawton received a cablegram from Major-General Otis, in charge of the American military forces in the Philippines, saying: "Situation critical. Your early arrival necessary." He also received from General Corbin, U. S. Adjutant-General, a cable urging him to hurry. General Lawton ordered his officers to buy supplies, regardless of expense, and the transport is taking on coal and water hurriedly. She will try to reach Manila without further stop.

By Way of Madrid.

Madrid, Feb. 27.—An official despatch from Manila says: "The situation here is very serious. The foreign warships are disembarking troops. General Rios will leave Manila and go to Zamboanga, Island of Mindanao."

Washington Getting Anxious.

New York, Feb. 27.—A Washington despatch to The Herald yesterday says: "With the arrival of the German cruiser Kaiserin Augusta at Manila to-day and the reports of the filibustering expeditions from Japan in the interests of Aguinaldo, there is a well-defined suspicion in the public mind here that the 'political reasons' of Admiral Dewey for desiring the Oregon must be interpreted in the broadest sense—that her presence is desired as much for the moral effect in preventing foreign interference as in bringing the insurgents to terms.

"The anxiety of the officials has reached such a point that there is no further doubt that Rear-Admiral Dewey will be asked to submit an explanation."

A LIBERAL MISHAP.

Campbell-Bannerman's First Defeat—Follows Morley Against Soudan Campaign.

London, Feb. 27.—Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, after such an excellent start on his new mount, the Liberal leadership, "came a cropper" Friday evening at the first hurdle. John Morley, the former Chief Secretary for Ireland under the Liberal Government, challenged the Government on its Soudan policy, by moving a reduction of the supplementary estimates.

Sir Edward Grey (Liberal) formerly Parliamentary Secretary of the Foreign Office, rose and pointed out that the Khartoum expedition was necessary, in consequence of acts to which Mr. Morley, as a Cabinet Minister, gave his assent.

Then Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman spoke, tried the impossible feat of agreeing with both of his associates, and ended by voting with Mr. Morley, who was also supported by Mr. Labouchere and the front Opposition bench. Over a dozen Liberals, including one whip, voted with the Government. Herbert Henry Asquith, the former Liberal Secretary of State for Home Affairs, and some others abstained from voting. This division presents the Liberals as being in a woeful condition of divided councils, and the rebuff of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman's leadership is the subject of general comment.

THE CZAR IS QUITE ILL.

Russian Emperor Prostrated and Unable to Attend to State Business.

London, Feb. 27.—The Copenhagen correspondent of The Daily Mail says: "Well-informed persons here assure me that the health of Emperor Nicholas is far from good and that his condition excites the gravest solicitude. A long-threatening ailment assumed a critical form soon after the issuance of the manifesto in behalf of the limitation of the armaments and the Czar is now prostrated.

The malady is of such a character as to forbid all intellectual exertion. His participation in the Government is merely formal, confined to signing documents of whose contents he is ignorant. The Grand Duke Michael possesses the executive power, and all Government decisions are arrived at without the Czar's co-operation or knowledge.

HERE'S ANOTHER QUESTION.

Does the Monroe Doctrine Cover South as Well as North America?

London, Feb. 27.—Does the Monroe doctrine cover South America, and will the United States take up the cause of the Argentine Republic against a European monarchy? are questions that arise in an interesting case of territorial possession that is likely to cause international complications between Great Britain and the Argentine Republic. The disputed land consists of the small colony of Chupat, in Chupat Valley, Patagonia. It was founded by Welshmen in 1865, and now has a population of about 6,000. The pioneers originally found existence difficult, supporting themselves almost wholly by hunting. The men were sturdy, obtained the friendship of the aborigines and devoted themselves subsequently to agriculture. This was extremely arduous until the natives taught them the system of irrigation. The colony continued to thrive, and by hard work has now become a self-supporting industrial community with fourteen schools. The Argentine Republic has grabbed the colony, and recently the Argentine authorities have been interfering in the self-government methods of the colony, and have enforced the Argentine Republic's rules of government. The settlers sent a deputation to enlist the assistance of the British Foreign Office. Delegates Phillips and Swan are now in London, and have already placed the case before the Welsh Parliamentary party.

Methodists Raise Money.

London, Feb. 27.—The Wesleyan Methodist Twentieth Century Fund is proving a remarkable success. The object of this fund is to collect some million guineas to extend the work of Wesleyan Methodist churches. Although started only three months ago, $08,160 guineas already have been guaranteed.

The Duke in Turin.

Turin, Feb. 27.—The Duc d'Orleans arrived here last evening from Brussels.

Who Wouldn't Marry Patti?

London, Feb. 24.—An intimate friend of Baron Cederstrom, who recently married Mme. Adelina Patti, says that after the wedding the Baroness settled on her young husband an annual income of $15,000, to continue throughout his life.

DEAD ON WHEEL—WON HIS RACE.

Australian Rider's Heart Stops on Last Lap—His Corpse in Front.

Vancouver, Feb. 27.—Australian advices by the steamer Miowera tell of a remarkable bicycle race in Sydney, which was won by a dead man. As the story goes, the race took place at an electric light carnival. In a one-mile race there were 50 entries, some of the fastest men in Australia taking part. Ten thousand persons watched the race, and saw young James Somerville pass under the tape a winner and a dead man.

At the start Somerville took the lead, followed closely by another crack rider named Percy Cliff. Five yards from the tape Cliff put on a tremendous spurt, and struck Somerville's hind wheel, shooting the machine with its rider like a rocket past the tape. The crowd yelled wildly, but silence ensued when Somerville's body, after crossing the finish line, plunged headforemost from the wheel to the track.

Physicians who examined the body said Somerville must have had an attack of heart failure while on the last lap.

The People's Faith

Firmly Grounded Upon Real Merit—They Know Hood's Sarsaparilla Absolutely and Permanently Cures When All Others Fail.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is not merely a simple preparation of Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia and a little Iodide of Potassium.

Besides these excellent alteratives, it also contains those great anti-bilious and liver remedies, Mandrake and Dandelion. It also contains those great kidney remedies, Uva Ursi, Juniper Berries, and Pipsissewa.

Nor are these all. Other very valuable curative agents are harmoniously combined in Hood's Sarsaparilla and it is carefully prepared under the personal supervision of a regularly educated pharmacist.

Knowing these facts, is the abiding faith the people have in Hood's Sarsaparilla a matter of surprise? You can see why Hood's Sarsaparilla cures, when other medicines totally, absolutely fail.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

THE statements published as to the ill-health of Sir J. D. Edgar, Speaker of the House of Commons, have been very greatly exaggerated.

THE Globe suggests that the opening of the new city hall, Toronto, should be made an annual event. No necessity; the annual tax-bills representing payment for the costly pile will be sufficiently emphatic reminders.

THE Toronto Star says that the city aldermen were elected "to transact the city's business, not to squabble." Let them take model after Peterborough's alderman ic board, who have, so far, this year refrained from squabbling, and have transacted business like business men.

UNCLE SAM will have to be quick about revising the game laws in the Philippines. The brown brother pot hunters are picking off the blue birds in a very uncomfortable manner. It is evident that Brother Johnathan didn't study the specifications very carefully when he undertook the contract of civilizing the Filipinos.

SOME Ottawa citizens criticise the Central Fair because it does not show cash profits on the grounds. That's not the proper standard. Against such a condition should be set the elements of profit difficult of reduction to record—the immense impetus given agricultural and industrial interests, the educational influence, the social improvement and the immense amount of money distributed in a city or town through such an exhibition. A dollar and cents balance is a low standard for the computation of the benefit of exhibitions like the Ottawa Central Fair, or the Peterborough Central.

A COMPREHENSIVE scheme of tax reform is now before the New York State Legislature. Briefly stated it is as follows:—Separation of State and local taxes. The entire revenue of the State to be raised by taxes on inheritances, corporations, franchises and incomes. The income tax is to be ½ per cent. on all incomes above $1,500 up to $5,000, 1 per cent. on all incomes over $5,000 and up to $10,000, and ½ per cent. to be addded for every additional $10,000. Each municipality to have the option of raising local revenue from taxation of local reality and personality, or from taxation of real estate only. All unoccupied and uncultivated lands, city and village lots, to be taxed at the full cost value.

CHEESE AND BUTTER.

Canadians have been so successful in marketing their cheese in the old country markets that they have come to be of the opinion that they have little to fear from competition. Pride goes before a fall. The proper time to recognize danger to a trade is before anything serious has occurred to injure it. Although great quantities of Canadian cheese are annually consumed in the United Kingdom, it is none the less an opportune time to inquire into the possibility of our losing hold upon the market by reason of the activity of our competitors. The Dominion Minister of Agriculture, Mr. Fisher, recently stated that it was a good deal of a shock to him when last year, in England he had heard criticisms of Canadian cheese. "We used to think our cheese was the best that could be bought in England. But now their home-made cheese is superior to ours, especially the Scotch cheese. Two Canadian cheesemakers went over to Scotland, and taught the people there how to make cheese, and now the Scotch cheese has beaten ours in the English market. Although we have a great climatic advantage, we have other disadvantages that more than make up for it. The English people eat cheese as a food, or used to, but now they are getting better off and are giving up cheese to eat more meat. The English laboring man is now able to buy pork and beef and mutton. It will not therefore do for us to make more cheese than at present, or we will glut the market. But the difficulty is that the milk supply of Canada is increasing. The only thing to be done is to turn the milk into butter rather than cheese. The conditions of a few years ago in Canadian butter are changed, and now we have a wide opportunity of increasing our butter market. Our butter stands nearly as high as the best Danish. Canada sends to England only 5 per cent. of the butter that England imports. With our present cold storage facilities. Canada can lay down on the counters of the English retailers her butter in as good condition as when it leaves the creameries.—Monetary Times.

THE DIFFERENCE.

(London Advertiser)

So far as we are able to see, there is only one fundamental point of difference between the attitude of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that of Sir Charles Tupper, in regard to the relations of Canada and the United States.

We have no reason to suppose that Sir Charles, any more than Sir Wilfrid, desires the rights of Canada to be surrendered. A plebiscite in the line of this feeling would be unanimous throughout the Dominion.

Wherein, then, lies the difference between the two contending statesmen? In this, that Sir Charles wants to assert the rights of Canada—plus insult to the United States; whereas Sir Wilfrid wishes to assert the rights of Canada—minus insult to the United States.

Sir Wilfrid and his colleagues are eminently right. The firmness and manner of the gentleman will effect more than the sound and fury of the fish-wife.

WE CAN FEED THEM ALL.

British Dependence on Canadian Food Supplies.

At the annual soiree of the dairymen of Glasgow, Mr. Scott Dickson, Q.C., made an important forecast as to the part to be played by Canada in the food supply of Britain:—"The vast rolling prairies of the Northwest, the older settled provinces of Quebec and Ontario, not to speak of the rapidly rising area of British Columbia, with its rich and fertile plains, are all now contributing their quota to the food supply of the mother country. Year by year that supply is increasing, and, looking to the practically limitless acres of our great North American colony, it would be difficult to hasard even a guess as to what that country will produce in the way of food supplies say ten years hence, or, approximately, what our imports from the Dominion may be. But one question is perfectly clear, that our trade with the Dominion is practically in its infancy. Every year the hardy Scotch emigrant, imbued with the characteristic business capabilities of his countrymen, sees in the markets of the old world his nearest and most certain road to that independence which he desires so much, and he has been greatly aided in his efforts in finding markets in this country by the now rapid journeys of modern steamers, and the great advantages of the cold-storage system, by which the goods are brought into the country in as fresh and sweet a condition as when they leave the quay at Montreal."

HEART DISEASE.

SOME FACTS REGARDING THE RAPID INCREASE OF HEART TROUBLE.

Do not be Alarmed, but Look for the Cause.

Heart troubles, at least among the Americans, are certainly increasing, and while this may be largely due to the excitement and worry of American business life, it is more often the result of weak stomachs, of poor digestion.

Real organic disease is incurable, but not one case in one hundred of heart trouble is organic.

The close relation between heart trouble and poor digestion is because both organs are controlled by the same great nerves, the Sympathetic and the Pneumogastric.

In another way also the heart is affected by the form of poor digestion, which causes gas and fermentation from half-digested food. There is a feeling of oppression and heaviness in the chest caused by pressure of the distended stomach on the heart and lungs, interfering with their action, hence arises palpitation and short breath.

Poor digestion also poisons the blood, making it thin and watery, which irritates and weakens the heart.

The most sensible treatment for heart trouble is to improve the digestion and to insure the prompt assimilation of food.

This can be done by the regular use after meals of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which may be found at most drug stores and which contain valuable, harmless digestive elements in a pleasant, convenient form.

It is safe to say that the regular persistent use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at meal time will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

Full sized package of these tablets sold by druggists at 50 cents. Little book on stomach troubles mailed free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

COLD CURE

A SHORT SESSION.

The British Columbia Government Cancels Certain Railway Subsidies Said to Have Been Unearned.

Vancouver, B.C., Feb. 27.—Not for many years has there been so short a session of the British Columbia Legislature as the one that closes to-day. Among the chief acts passed is one that repeals certain railway subsidies which were unearthed.

Hon. Joseph Martin, in explaining the bill, remarked that the late Government had purported to enter into certain contracts with McKenzie & Mann, with reference to the construction of a line of railway from Penticton to Boundary Creek; from Penticton to Point Roberts, 200 miles, and from an ocean port in British Columbia to Teslin Lake, 400 miles.

As a matter of fact, no contracts had been entered into. There had been what purported to be contracts, but they were voided by the insertion of a condition that they should be of no effect unless, in the one case, of a subsidy "satisfactory to McKenzie & Mann," and in the other case of $6,000 per mile, should be obtained from the Dominion Government; and, as the statutes contained no authority whatever for the making of such conditional contracts or agreements, the bargain had been voided from the beginning. The Opposition stoutly opposed the bill, claiming that the measure was one of repudiation. This the Finance Minister for the Government denied. He added that the Government intended that the line from Midway to Penticton should be built, and, therefore, among the bills which Lieutenant-Governor McInnes will assent to to-day is one that has this clause: "There is hereby granted for and in aid of the construction of a standard-guage railway from a point at or near Midway to a point at or near Penticton, or some other point on Lake Okanagan, approximately 100 miles in length, a sum not exceeding $4,000 per mile."

DEAD MAN'S ISLAND.

The Facts of the Lease Set Forth—What All the Excitement in Vancouver Is About.

Ottawa, Feb. 27.—Objection has been raised by some of the residents of Vancouver because the Department of Militia and Defence has agreed to the alienation of Dead Man's Island, a military property in the harbor of that city, for industrial purposes. An application was made by the Vancouver Lumber Co., represented by Mr. Theodore Ludgate, formerly of Peterboro, for a lease of the island. It was represented that a sawmill would be erected at a cost of $250,000, and that employment would be given to a thousand men. Mr. G. R. Maxwell, the representative of Burrard, favored the application. It was found that a similar application had been made in 1888, and that objection had been taken to the granting of a lease on the ground that the island might be required for purposes of military defence. Dr. Borden declined to sanction the lease until he had been assured that the property was of no military value. This information was obtained from Admiral Palliser of the British navy, who, upon being asked for an opinion, answered that he could not see that Dead Man's Island would ever be required for purpose of defence. Upon this information and the recommendation of the general officer commanding, the lease was granted, the rental for five acres being fixed at $500 annually. The company has agreed to surrender the island without compensation at any time it may be required for defensive purposes, and to allow British men-of-war and Canadian Government vessels the free use of its wharves. There is a difference of opinion in Vancouver as to the wisdom of the department's action, some disapproving on the ground that a sawmill so near Stanley Park will constitute a nuisance, but a great many believing that the city is fortunate in securing the establishment of such an important industry.

SMELT HIS WAY IN.

How the Skipper's Son Got the Boss Into Port.

The pigsty certainly was a nuisance, and after having filled the little fishing village with assorted odors for many years a self appointed health committee decided that it would be "for the good of the community that the aforesaid nuisance—namely, the pigsty—be abolished."

The meeting of the committee was held at the village store, and the committeemen sat around the big stove. Only one of them, Sam Jordan, an old fisherman, seemed to be dissatisfied with its decision. When asked his reasons, he tilted his chair back and spat on the stove; then, shifting his quid to his other cheek, he began:

"Waal, yer see, that thar pigsty did me a good turn once that I calkinate I won't forget it soon. This is the way it was: Yer see, me and the lad," jerking his thumb over his shoulder at a tall, raw boned specimen of "down east" youth, who was sitting on the counter, "war out on one night past the point. That was afore they had that newfangled light out thar. We was in the Bess, and cod war a-runnin fust rate that winter. We had nigh onto 500 pound aboard. We were jest gettin things in shape for a run in when thar come on the cun darnest fog yer ever say; yer couldn't see nawthin within six inches of yer. Waal, thar we war. We didn't know what we war headed for; we didn't know whar the channel war; we didn't know nawthin.

"'Waal,' says I to the lad jest like that, 'waal, wot yer goin ter do? The boys'll have that party without us, I reckon.' Yer remember that New Year's celebration round to Eph's, don't yer?

"'No,' sez the lad suddinlike; 'we'll be thar. I'll run the Bess in. Let me at the tiller.'

"Waal, I jest sat thar an watched him as he threw her head round, an in less than half an hour we war in the cove. How did he do it? Why, it war Miss Stebbins' pigsty that war the guidin star, an he jest smelt his way in."—New York Commerical Advertiser.

A Good Excuse for Once.

'Lias Blackburn was, in his day, one of the most successful and notorious moonshiners of southwestern Virginia. Still, 'Lias was by no means an unprincipled man. His contempt for the revenue laws was complemented by a regard for a code of morals, peculiarly his own, that gave him no little worry, for it particularly inveighed against unreasonable inebriety. 'Lias never was drunk without cause, and "any other reason why" being no reason for a drink to his logical mind, he was often sober for five consecutive days.

After one of these periods of abstinence 'Lias found occasion to smuggle a ten-gallon "kaig" into Tennessee. 'Lias had a quasi-conviction that in spite of his generous gauging of the barrel, a shortage might be noticed when he delivered the goods, and the suspicion weighed on his mind more than the "kaig" on his shoulder. When he reached the part of the mountain trail called High Knob, the greatest elevation thereabouts, he felt so worn out by worry and fatigue that he decided to rest awhile. The beauty of the night brought comfort to 'Lias's soul, and the softness of the turf to his bare feet. He threw down the "kaig," stretched himself on the grass, and shut his eyes for "fo'ty winks."

Around High Knob there is only one thing thicker than huckleberries and moonshiners; it is rattlesnakes. Consequently 'Lias, wakened by a sharp pain in his right great toe, was not at all surprised to see an immense rattler wriggling away. 'Lias sat up. A great contented smile spread over his face. He drew the "kaig" a trifle nearer, put out his left foot and shook it at the retreating snake.

"Chaw away, ole man," said 'Lias. "I's just as well prepared fo' you as though you'd given me six months' notice."—From the "Editor's Drawer," in Harper's Magazine.

ONE-SIDED STORY.

A Tale of Misery Woes From Across the Border -- The Atlin Lake Gold District in Conflict.

Tacoma, Wash., Feb. 27.—British Columbia may become embroiled in civil war, growing out of the discovery of gold in the Atlin Lake district, and the alleged high-handed action of the Government officials in attempting to corner it all for themselves.

This is the tenor of advices received from Skaguay yesterday by the steamship Excelsior. Startling news was brought out from the interior Feb. 16 in a letter written by John McCarthy, correspondent of the Skaguay newspaper. Its publication on the following morning caused great excitement in Skaguay, although no details of the threatened rebellion were given.

According to Mr. McCarthy's letter, British and Canadian subjects, together with a few Americans, whose claims are included in the recently announced Government reservation of five miles along the west shore of Lake Atlin, have banded together and pledged themselves to resist the proposed forfeiture of their mining claim town lots to the Government without trial of their rights or judicial process of any description.

A petition has been prepared and extensively signed, binding signers to every means in their power to defend their property, even by resort to arms. The conspiracy of the injured miners was discovered only when a copy of the petition fell into the hands of Deputy Recorder McVicar, who reported the matter to the gold commissioner, who has a force of police and constables to back up his forfeiture order.

In Skaguay, where the facts are well known, public sentiment is practically unanimous in upholding the signers of the petition. The reservation includes many hundreds of the most valuable mining claims in the district, as well as the town site of Atlin.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great sufferings for years. THE ODORLESS CREMATORY CLOSET.

I have been appointed Sole Agent for the Odorless Crematory Closet manufactured by the Crematory Closet and General Heating Co., of Hamilton.

This Closet has found a place in many of the best homes in the province, and all who have used it cannot speak too highly of its merits. Medical men speak of it from a sanitary point of view, claiming that, if health is any consideration, no home should be without one. Here are some of the

TESTIMONIALS.

Alliston, March 1st, 1898.

I have had one of your "Crematory Closets" in use now for several weeks and am glad to be able to say that I have found it entirely satisfactory in every respect. I have not been able to detect the slightest odor from it at any time and would not be without it. I am sure it must prove a great convenience to people in the country and in towns where water is not obtainable. Yours respectfully, JAMES CONWAY.

Sheddon, February 28th, 1898.

I have used it for sometime and find it perfectly odorless. It is a long felt want and I believe it will become very popular especially in rural districts, towns and villages where wells are so frequently contaminated by the ordinary closets. I am, yours, etc. W. H. MORRISON

Medical Superintendent's Office, Sept. 30th, 1897
Asylum for the Insane, Hamilton.

Gentlemen: I had the opportunity of witnessing yesterday the operation of your Odorless Crematory Closet. It had a large accumulation of fecal matter in the pan when the fire was started, and inside of 20 minutes it was all reduced to ashes. There was no odor before or during the operation of consuming the fecal matter, as the ventilation by the flue seems to carry off all odor at once, before it has a chance to vitiate the surrounding atmosphere.
Yours truly. JAMES RUSSELL, M.D.

Binbrook, Sept. 30th, 1897.

Dear Sirs—Having been present at a private test of your new patent closet yesterday afternoon, I beg to express my satisfaction with it in every way. Neither before, during or after the burning out of its contents did I detect the slightest unpleasant odor. I am satisfied it will be a boon to thousands in rural towns, villages and country homes. Yours truly, M. J. MULLOCK.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1896 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which delights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used. Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. For correct and full information regarding the new invention and NEWCOMBE PIANOS, write to our Direct Representative. Easy Prices. Liberal Terms.

VALUABLE

Residential Properties FOR SALE

In Peterborough.

Having decided to remove to Manitoba in the spring, I have decided to sell the following valuable properties at prices that should secure ready purchasers:

Parcel No. 1. A Brick Terrace of four houses, adjoining the corner of Sherbrooke and Park streets, two storys, well built with good stone cellars full size of buildings. Each residence contains six rooms with summer kitchen. This property has always been continuously rented and pays an excellent rate of interest on the investment, and it is practically a new property, being only erected a few years, and is in good condition.

Parcel No. 2. Brick residence corner of Reid and Simcoe. Containing ten rooms. House in good condition with all modern improvements, bath, closets, heated with furnace and lighted with electricity.

Parcel No. 3. Brick dwelling corner Aberdeen and Benson streets, facing Dixon Park, containg seven rooms with summer kitchen. This property was erected last season for myself and occupied by myself. Has hard and soft water in kitchen and is a very comfortable residence. This lot is 100 feet square.

Parcel No. 4. Brick residence, corner Wolseley and Benson streets. Two storeys, seven rooms with kitchen, pleasantly situated adjoining Dixon Park. Hard and soft water in kitchen. This lot is also 100 feet square and is a similar building to parcel No. 3.

Parties desiring a good paying investment or home will find any of these desirable purchases.

Particulars and terms, which are reasonable, made known on application to the undersigned.

DEATH OF JOHN O'DONNELL.

He was One of the Oldest Masons in Peterborough.

One of the oldest settlers of Peterborough in the person of Mr. John O'Donnell, L.D.S., passed away at the Nicholls Hospital on Sunday last, at the age of 60 years, after a somewhat prolonged illness, though only confined to the Hospital for a few days. The immediate cause of death was pneumonia, but Mr. O'Donnell has been unwell for months.

For many years Mr. O'Donnell had his dental parlours over the store of H. S. Macdonald where he conducted a successful office practice. He afterwards removed to Toronto, where he was married. Some years after the death of his wife he removed again to Peterborough, where he has since been engaged in life insurance and other agency business, being unable to practice his profession on account of an injury to one of his hands.

Mr. O'Donnell took an active part in Masonic circles and was one of the most advanced members of the fraternity in Peterborough, having occupied the various chairs in the Blue Lodge, as well as having held high office in Capitular Masonry.

The funeral, which will take place from the Masonic Hall, Water street, on Tuesday afternoon, at 2 30 o'clock, will be conducted under Masonic auspices.

A PECULIAR CASE.

A Well-Known Resident of Douro Ill at the Nicholls Hospital.

Mr. James Hall, of Douro, is at the Nicholls Hospital, on account of gangrene having supervened in his foot. The case is a peculiar one, being caused by Mr. Hall having pared a corn on his toe too close. The toe has been removed, but it is feared that this may not be sufficient to check the progress of the disease and a further operation may be necessary. Dr. King is in attendance.

DEADMAN'S ISLAND WAS WELL LEASED.

Mr. Wm. Irwin Gives His Opinion in the Matter.

FALSE INFLAMMATORY REPORTS.

The Island was Reeking in Filth and Those Having the Welfare of Vancouver at Heart are Pleased to See it Occupied.

Mr. Wm. Irwin returned on Saturday evening from a trip to the Crow's Nest region and Vancouver, B. C. Mr. Irwin accompanied a number of gentlemen who were examining into timber lands which they proposed purchasing in British Columbia.

Returning directly from Vancouver, having left them there on Monday, a reporter of the EXAMINER interviewed Mr. Irwin in regard to the lease procured by Mr. Theodore Ludgate from the Dominion Government for the erection of a large sawmill on what is known as Deadman's Island, which is situated about half a mile from Vancouver City. Mr. Irwin states that there is no foundation for the inflammatory reports of supposed indignation at the Government for leasing this property to a company which Mr. Ludgate represents, and which will greatly improve the value of the land.

WERE YOU IN VANCOUVER

Mr. Irwin, when it was made known that Mr. Ludgate procured the lease of Deadman's Island? asked the reporter.

Yes! answered Mr. Irwin, I was in the city when the information arrived, reporting the lease having been issued by the department.

What was the feeling in Vancouver?

The merchants and working people of Vancouver are pleased that Vancouver is to have erected a large modern sawmill that will give employment to a large number of workingmen. The company which Mr. Ludgate represents have limits that warrant them in erecting a first-class mill, which they are bound to do under the lease, and the advantage of this enterprise, so convenient to Vancouver, is fully appreciated by those having material interests in the city. Of course efforts are being made to make political capital out of it, but it will fail to have any effect in Vancouver, and that is the place which is most directly interested.

Do you know anything about the situation and condition of the Island?

Yes! I was on the ground a week ago Saturday and was over every foot of the Island which is between five and seven acres. At present it is a perfect sink-hole, and anything that could be done with it would to its present condition. There are a number of fishermen with their little houseboats, about twenty or twenty-five with their families, all anchored there for some years, and it does not require a very fervid imagination to understand the condition that a small island without any sanitary conditions, would be in. If the Government is able to realize $500 a year for 21 years, from this property, they have made a contract in the interests of the Dominion, and in the interests of the city.

What improvements have been made to Stanley Park, that a saw-mill built on Deadman's Island would operate against?

Stanley Park is composed of about 1,200 acres of wild forest lands, upon which a road has been made around the outskirts of the property and the balance of it is as nature made it.

And if the Government could lease four or five pieces off the park for additional saw mills it would be to the advantage of Vancouver as well as to British Columbia generally, as the lumber trade is looking up on the coast and what is wanted to develop that country is more saw mills and more industries.

The member for Vancouver, Rev. Mr. Maxwell is spoken of by the press as having assisted Mr. Ludgate in procuring the lease. What do you know of this?

I am not conversant with the efforts put forth by Mr. Ludgate of the property. Any person that assisted Mr. Ludgate in procuring what is known as Deadman's Island did a good act for Vancouver, as I cannot imagine any place being left in a more filthy condition than I found this Island.

TO OBTAIN A LEASE

Then you think the Government did right in issuing the lease?

Most certainly I do and the people of Vancouver will be the first to appreciate it as soon as the mill is in working order. As a newspaper man you know that paper won't refuse ink, and the supposed outburst is more on paper than existing in reality.

How did you find business in British Columbia?

Well, wherever I went on the trip I found everything moving along, and Vancouver is rapidly advancing to be, as it is destined to become, a very important city, and with the mining and other development that is progressing in British Columbia, I will be greatly disappointed if British Columbia is not eventually the most important province of the Dominion. The gold mines that are being operated in British Columbia are turning out to be dividend payers, and thus capital will be encouraged to go still further in this direction. The British Columbians expect rapid progress this year, and large numbers are going west and settling in all parts of the province.

Miss Neild will re-open our Dress and Mantle Order Department for the spring season of 1899 on Wednesday March 1st. ROBERT FAIR & CO.

SINGLE TAX ASSOCIATION SEEMS.

The Second Lecture in the Course will Probably be Held in March.

The Secretary of the local Single Tax Association, received information some time ago, that the visit to Ontario of Jas. R. Brown, of New York, would have to be cancelled for this session. He is now able to say that the second event in the course of the Association for this season is more likely to be accomplished. The Hon. John S. Crosby will visit Toronto about the 20th of March, and if the opera house can be secured for a suitable date he will visit Peterborough. Louis F. Post, says of him, "I am inclined to regard him as without exception the best orator in the Single Tax movement." It is expected that Mr. Crosby will be in Peterborough about March 28th.

President—Mrs T. F. Matthews.

Vice Presidents—Mrs. Dr. Scott, Miss Dickon, Mrs. Jas. Best, Miss Chamberlen, Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. M. M. Morrison.

Secretary-Treasurer—Miss M. A. Davidson.

Organist—Mrs. C. B. McAllister.

MR. FRANK DODGE

Says His Life was Saved by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto Feb, 27.—Mr. Frank Dodge, of North Maupsberg, Ont., has been visiting here recently. He is a splendid specimen of Canadian manhood, standing more than six feet high "in his stockings" erect and muscular.

"I was a different man two years ago," said he to a friend to-day. The truth is I would have died of Kidney Complaint, if it hadn't been for Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I had been treated by physicians and had taken various remedies without getting any better. I read of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and decided to try them. I did so, and was thoroughly cured in a couple of weeks.

WILL BE INTERESTING.

A lecture will be given in St. Paul's church on "The Homes and Haunts of Sir Walter Scott," by Rev. A. McMillan, of Toronto, on Monday Feb'y 27th, at 8 p. m. Tickets may be obtained at the stores of Ormond & Walsh, H. S. Macdonald, Peter Connal and A. G. Dickson. Price of admission 25 cents.

OUR COLUMN OF SPORTS.

SOME TIMELY REMARKS ON SEASONABLE GAMES.

What is Going on in Local and Outside Hockey Arenas—Notes From the Curling Ice.

HOCKEY.

Nelson Gross, who figures on the Berlin junior hockey team, was taken in a delirious condition to the hospital. He played hockey at Galt, and was rather careless of his doings after the game in that he drank too much ice cold water. He is seriously ill.

Lakefield plays the Hardware men in the Charlotte street rink to-night. It is expected to be a scrap-iron sort of game.

A team from Auburn composed as follows went to Lakefield, last week, and was defeated by the score of 7 goals to 4. Goal, McFadden; point, Thornton; coverpoint, D. Arsenault; forwards, J. Dignault, G. Mayes, W. Parnell and J. Doris. Parnell and Hayes are said to have done some great combination work. Mr. George Newberry, of Lakefield, made a capital referee. The Lakefield's with their usual hospitality gave the visitors an oyster supper at the Craig House.

AUBURN VS. LAKEFIELD.

The village hens had settled down
Upon their roosts in Lakefield town,
When a hockey team from Auburn Mills
Went up to play the Boostervilles.
Said one, "The task we have to-night
Is one that should each heart delight;
But let us try, for goodness sake,
To do our best and all keep straight—
We'll need our wits and powers, too,
If we're going to win that oyster stew."
The Shoddy Hustlers knew their Boss
Of victory lay in Craig's saloon;
Said one "I think we'll all go in
And have a bout of Johnnie's gin."
Naught did they fear, nor nothing heed,
With Tick, the tinsmith, in their lead.
Then to the rink they did repair,
Across the street and market square.
The Boostervilles were prompt on hand—
They were a warlike looking band—
They shook the hand of the shoddy men,
And the puck was faced at 9 p.m.
The puck was kept a hustling round—
The Shoddy men were gaining ground.
For well the cunning Hustlers knew
That all the while the moments flew,
And that a couple of hours hence
Must find them some few miles from thence.
The Hustlers chances were very fair,
When the tinsmith's heels went in the air.
Good playing had in truth begun,
As here and there the Hustlers run,
The tinsmith always in the lead—
He's just the kind the Shoddies need.
The Boostervilles knew naught before
Of woollen trait and shoddy lore;
But luck had turned the Boosters soon
And every Shoddy scalp was gone.
Down Parnell's nose there ran a tear—
The tinsmith grinned from ear to ear;
Jimmy cried and Minky wailed
When they found the Shoddy men had failed;
Spot danced around and tore his hair—
Out Daignault rushed in wild despair.
They over to the hotel flew
And got outside an oyster stew;
Then started out for home at eleven—
They had been in Boosterville since seven.

Let old acquaintance be forgot
And never brought to mind,
Next time we play the Boostervilles

VARSITY'S ERRATIC TEAM.

The Varsity team this year, according to Captain Arthur Snell, is the most erratic aggregation that has ever worn the blue and white. The team plays an in and out game, working well one day and falling all away against a weak team the very next match. In Peterborough the Varsity forwards cut all around the home team, combining and shooting in grand form, while at Toronto on their own ice the Collegians were beaten, and even did well to get a look in and the round. Varsity won in Peterborough 12 to 9, and lost in Toronto 5 to 3. Though Varsity never had a chance against Queen's, a week ago, still the team could have done better, as evidenced in the playing of the men against Queen's at Kingston on Thursday. Varsity out scored Queen's in the last half, 5 games to 3. At Brockville, Varsity put up wonderful hockey, winning handily. Against McGill in the last half, Snell, Sheppard, Isbister and Brander simply walked away with McGill's three senior hockey stars, Howard, Tuhey and Brennan, tallying 4 goals to McGill's 2. It all goes to show, say the Varsity men, that this year's seven is made up of the right material, but is badly balanced, and fatally short of coaching. The experiment of trying MacKenzie at centre with Snell has proven a success. Isbester has the weight for the point position, while MacKenzie skates and handles his stick effectively with the forwards. With MacKenzie on the line, Varsity is a much different team. MacKenzie formerly played a forward position on the Bishop Ridley College seven, and with the Wellingtons, when the Dukes first landed the City League championship in 1896.

LACROSSE.

At the 21st annual meeting of the Markham Lacrosse Club, held in the Franklin House, Markham, there was about 200 present, including: County Councillor Hall, Reeve Underhill, ex-Reeves Speight and Vansant, and Councillors McGaw and C. H. Wilson, W. F. Latimer, Jas. Torrance, A. H. Wilson, F. B. Willis, W. McKenzie, and R. B. Robinson.

The following officers were elected for the coming year.

President—W. F. Latimer.

Hon. President—G. R. Vansant.

First Vice-President—J. McGaw.

Second Vice-President—J. Winkler.

Third Vice-President—R. Welsh.

Secretary—G. W. Wilson.

Treasurer—T. B. Willis.

Manager—W. H. Hall.

Executive Committee—T. H. Speight, H. D. Barlow, Geo. Glover, W. J. Hambury.

It was decided to again enter the C. L. A., and W. H. Hall, A. H. Wilson and G. W. Wilson were appointed delegates to the C. L. A. meeting on Good Friday.

Markham will have the strong twelve of last season all on hand. Glover, Whitcock, Ambury, Wales, Scott, Wilson on the defence; Querrie, their fast centre player and Latimer brothers, Barlow and Wilson on the home. This is the same team that played the champion Orillia team a draw at Orillia last season, and this year they will make a big bid for the championship. It was also decided to put a strong junior twelve in the field, and advocate a limit to the age of juniors, or in some manner pass a rule to define a junior player.

CHURCH CHIMES.

Last night the first of the course of sermons to young men and young women was given in S. Luke's church by Rev. H. Symonds. There was a large congregation present.

Rev. C. H. March of Lindsay, will give an address in St. Luke's church next Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. on "China." This is the first of a series of missionary addresses. The collections at these services will be given to the building fund of the Canadian Mission Church at Ngano, Japan.

The anthem "I will Praise Him," was excellently rendered in the George street church last evening. The solo and obligato was sung by Mrs. (Rev.) Shorey.

The solo, "They Crucified Him," was excellently rendered by Miss L. Peacock, during the offertory at the George street Methodist church.

The Bethany Mission people held their last meeting in their old hall on Water street last night, and the proceedings naturally were of a farewell character. Although Bethany Tabernacle on George street is not altogther completed, the main auditorium will be ready for occupancy on Sunday next, and as the lease of the old hall expires at the end of the present month it was thought best to remove at once. Rev. Mr. Bales of Chicago, will conduct the dedicatory services on Sunday next, and the first week of special services.

ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL.

His Lordship Bishop O'Connor has been delivering a course of lectures on Sunday evenings, taking as his subject "The Three Estates of Life—Religious, Married and Unmarried." Sunday evening he delivered a most practical address on the unmarried state, thus finishing the series. His Lordship directed attention to the fact that those in the unmarried state occupied the condition of having more time to devote to religious duties, and yet were more susceptible to temptation through not having exercised upon them the restraining influence of family and home life.

Next Sunday evening His Lordship will speak on "The Catacombs of Rome," the collection being in aid of the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

MURRAY STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. Mr. Bastow, preached last evening upon the subject, "Paul Beginning to Pray." Text, Acts 9.11. Behold he prayeth.

The large congregation heard with marked attention, a very impressive sermon, containing a wealth of thought and religious feeling which left a lasting, profitable impression upon all present.

The speaker said this text teaches that mere formal prayer counts for nothing in God's esteem. Paul was carefully educated in the Jewish religion. He was one the strictest of the Pharasies who loved to pray standing in the synogogues and at the corners of the streets. He prayed much in form, but it was only in form. He drew nigh to God with his mouth and he honoured him with lips, while his heart was far from Him. But now he prayed in reality from the heart. He put himself into it. Let us not be deceived and think that ritualism will answer as a substitute for genuine heart worship. Certainly we ought not to be satisfied without any worship at all. Yet many are living on God's bounty, breathing His air, basking in His sunshine and living in the light of His Gospel, without thanking God for His goodness or seeking the salvation He offers.

The text also teaches that if a man really prays it proves that he is converted. "Behold he prayeth!" This was said to pacify the fears of Ananias and show that Paul had been changed from a bitter persecuting enemy to a friend. We are saved by faith, but it is the faith that voices itself in prayer. Prayer and faith always go together. Prayer is essential to all great achievements in the Christian life. Christ prayed much. His apostles said, We will give ourselves to prayer and the ministry of the Word. The Christian warfare will be a failure, and Christian work will be fruitless, without God's help, and we cannot have that help without prayer—so let us put ourselves right on this point, whatever else we fail to do.

Paul not only began his Christian life with prayer, but he was preeminenently distinguished for prayer all through the rest of his days. He took no journeys, preached no sermons, planted no churches, and wrote no epistles without first seeking Divine guidance and help. This had much to do in making his great and admirable character. It accounted for his great influence.

Paul received so much good himself from prayer, that he commended it frequently and earnestly to others. He said:—Be instant in prayer. Pray without ceasing. In everything give thanks. Be careful for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, make your request known unto God, and the peace of God that passeth all understanding, shall keep your minds by Christ Jesus. So we cannot put prayer in too prominent a place in our lives. "It gives exercise, faith and love. Brings every blessing from above."

Have you begun to pray dear friends? If you have not, you must, or you will be lost. God bestows his material blessings to a large extent, such as the sunshine and showers, regardless of the character of the recipients. But he does not bestow the forgiveness of sin, or the salvation of the soul except upon those who ask for it. Don't think that it is a hard task to ask for these blessings. It is as easy to ask God for salvation as it is for a babe to make known its wants to its mother, or for a beggar to ask for help, or as it is for any of us to ask our friends for assistance in time of need. Ask and you shall surely receive. Seek and you shall surely find.

"Praise the Lord" was the title of the morning anthem in the Murray street church. It was given with fine effect.

Mr. G. K. Martin gave a fine rendering of "The Ninety and Nine" last evening in the Murray street Baptist church.

PARK STREET BAPTIST.

Evangelistic services will be conducted in the Park street Baptist church every night this week. Rev. D. H. Cowsert will preach, and Mrs. S. Dingman of Toronto, will sing at each service. The services begin at 7.30 and close at 9 o'clock promptly. The public are cordially invited.

LEGEND OF THE LACEMAKER.

How a Bruges Maid Was Visited With a Vision.

Her jewels of great price were not the only things bequeathed to her daughters by the Empress of Austria. She left a fortune in a collection of laces to the eldest that has already proved a bone of contention between the two ladies. These laces, it is claimed by connoisseurs, are priceless and should never be trusted beyond the walls of a museum. Should they be seen, however, a fresh impetus might be given to the industry of lacemaking, now in a languishing condition. The queen of the Belgians was the first to sound the trumpet of alarm about this falling off in Flanders, the cradle of the art of lacemaking.

As the legend runs, it was Jaqueline, countess of Flanders, who was deeply in love with her noble husband, the handsome Henelick, but who did not return this tender feeling with the ardor it deserved. He had even made eyes at the countess' maid, Serena, who, for the sole crime of being beautiful, was sent by her mistress to a dark and noisome place of concealment in a corner of the palace. The room where the poor girl was confined opened on a small, damp garden, and there she would sadly sit and mourn for her beloved, the equerry Luitpold.

One day her eyes filled with tears. She prayed to the Virgin to come to her rescue by some miracle, and then, raising her heavy eyelids, she beheld a million white silky threads, so tenuous and arranged in such wonderful patterns that she was lost in admiration before them.

By and by she began to wish she could imitate the lovely patterns of good Mary's threads, for evidently they had been placed there in answer to her supplication. At last, after a month of patient and arduous toil, she achieved a piece of gossamer, cobweblike work that rivaled the miraculous threads arrayed by her holy patron. The lace was sent to the countess, who shed tears of delight at the sight of so much beauty. The next step was to send for the captive and marry her to the equerry, bestowing a sum of money on the happy pair that would have kept them in comfort ever after, but independently of the countess they became rich, for the young woman taught her art to seven daughters, from whom descended all the Bruges lacemakers.

This is a sweet romance, but from whom did this pious Serena receive the threads with which she imitated the heavenly cobwebs? It has been suggested that she unraveled her stockings and again that she plucked the golden hairs from her head, but why will folks be so dreadfully practical? It is sufficient that the handmade lace of Flanders is the most exquisite thing wrought by human fingers, and the fatal looms have almost destroyed its art with their new industry. It was the elegant Marie Antoinette who gave the first blow to lacemaking. The splendid lace worn in profusion at the courts of Louis XIV and XV were replaced by the gauzes and muslins of the queen, and, though the Empress Josephine brought back the fashion, it has never been the same as then. The looms have produced perfect—too perfect—imitations and cheapened the marvelous labor of years. It is now proposed by the Belgian queen and some other sovereign ladies to make a point of wearing only handmade lace and binding themselves by solemn compact not to allow an inch of machine made lace on their petticoats and underlinen. We shall see what effect this will have on the modern mondaine and how her bills will increase.—Boston Herald.

"I have long thought it my duty to write you a few lines to let you know what Dr.

Pierce's Favorite Prescription has done for me," writes Mrs. Raphemia Falconer, of Trent, Muskegon Co., Mich. "I am twenty-seven years old; have been married ten years. I am the mother of four children. My first two babies were still-born, and I suffered everything but death. My friends all thought I could never recover. I was reduced to 100 pounds. When I was three months along for my third child, I was taken with hemorrhage or flooding and came near having a miscarriage from female weakness. For two months I was under the care of our doctor, but was getting weaker all the time until one day I sent and got three bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one bottle of 'Pellets.' I improved so fast, I continued to take your medicine until baby was born, and he is healthy and all right. He is four years old. My baby girl is two years old. My health has been good ever since. I now weigh 165 pounds and when I begin to feel badly I take 'Favorite Prescription' which always helps me. I always tell my neighbors what helps me and a good many have taken your 'Favorite Prescription' with good results."

The "Favorite Prescription" has cured more women than all other medicines for women combined. It is the only preparation of its sort devised by a regularly graduated physician—a skilled and experienced specialist in the diseases of women.

Other medicines are sometimes sold on the plea that they are "just as good as the 'Favorite Prescription.'" Don't believe it. Don't be imposed upon. Counterfeits are never as good as the genuine.

Over 250,000 women have endorsed "Favorite Prescription." They say there is nothing "just as good" and they know. Would you rather have the say-so of one dealer who makes an extra profit on the substitute, than the provable words of 250,000 women whose only object in recommending the "Favorite Prescription" is their desire to help their suffering sisters?

LORD BERESFORD IN NEW YORK.

The British Seaman Gives Some Figures of China's Trade.

New York, Feb. 25.—The New York Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon tendered a public reception to Rear-Admiral Lord Charles Beresford. Never before in the history of the Chamber was there gathered together such a representative assemblage of members.

In replying to President Alexander Odd's welcome, Lord Beresford said in part as follows:

"What remarks I have to offer may be somewhat stale, as it is difficult not to repeat when speaking for two days running. With regard to the development of trade in China and Japan, about which you desire me to speak, I will say that as a result of my investigation I found that the total trade of China was $275,000,000. Out of that England, or Great Britain, owns 55 per cent. and America owns 15 per cent. The remaining countries of the world own 30 per cent., and out of that, too, Great Britain comes in for a large share because of the extent of her colonies.

"What you do with your sphere of influence policy is your own business, not mine; I'm not a mercantile man; I'm only a British seaman. (Cheers.) What we've got to look out for is the volume of trade. While I have my sympathy, I naturally would not like to see a British merchant cut out by an American. Suppose China was smothered in cotton mills, American and British trade will not suffer. In China they take every available asset and make it a dividend. (Laughter.) No; the question is, Shall China remain a power and be assisted, or is she to be brought to an end and divided among the great European powers? Without the aid of the United States and certain European powers, I am certain China will go to pieces. I maintain that the more Great Britain, Germany, the United States and Japan have their vested interets in China, the greater the security for the peace of the world. The first thing needed is to help China to get law and order and stop rebellions.

"I cannot conclude without expressing gratitude for the reception tendered me. If we can get together, I don't say in an alliance, but in national affection, and trade purposes and the spread of civilization, the peace of the whole world will be assured." (Cheers.)

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Lord Beresford. Luncheon was then taken.

Toronto Live Stock.

Toronto, Feb. 25.—The run of live stock was light yesterday—44 loads all told, composed of 650 cattle, 350 sheep, 25 calves and 1,500 hogs. The quality of fat cattle was only medium generally, not enough finished cattle coming forward. Few straight loads of export came in, the bulk of offerings being mixed loads. Trade was good and prices firm at the following quotations:

Children Cry for CASTORIA.

Three Years in Bed.

From Kidney Disease—Although a Man of Three-Score and Ten, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills gave him back perfect health.

This is to certify that I was sick in bed the most of the time for three years with kidney disease. I took several boxes of pills—different kinds—and a great many other kinds of patent medicines; besides that I was under treatment by four different doctors during the time and not able to work. I began to take Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and since that time have been working every day, although a man nearly 70 years of age. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have cured me.

JAMES SIMPSON,
Newcombe Mills, Ont.

If the Kidneys are not in a perfectly clean and healthy condition, the blood becomes impregnated with impurities, and a decay of the kidneys soon takes place. Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Gravel, Stone in the Bladder, Inflammation of the Bladder, and a long list of Kidney diseases become seated, and sooner or later in so many instances end fatally. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills cure all Kidney troubles. Sold by all dealers, price 25 cents per box.

FILIPINO SHARPSHOOTERS.

They Are Picking Off U. S. Troops Day by Day—Cables From Otis and Dewey—The Killed.

Manila, Feb. 25.—The enemy's sharpshooters have been particularly active about Caloocan all day long. Special attention was paid to the three-gun battery near the railroad and the improvement of the rebel marksmanship was very noticeable. The rebels fired volleys at the battery, their bullets frequently skimming the tops of the sand bags. A lieutenant of the 20th Kansas Volunteers and three other men were slightly wounded. A man was killed in the trenches.

The rebel battery has not been used since a shell from the United States double-turreted Monadnock exploded over it yesterday. The enemy's fire was so hot during the night, in the vicinity of the Higgins House, that the headquarters was removed to a church 400 yards inside the line.

A few small fires have destroyed native shacks in various parts of the city.

Cable From Gen. Otis.

Washington, Feb. 25.—General Otis yesterday cabled the War Department as follows: "Scandia arrived last night. On nights 21st and 22nd and yesterday morning insurgent troops gained access to outskirts of city behind our lines. Many in hiding and about 1,000 entrenched themselves. Completely routed yesterday, with loss of killed and wounded about 500 and 200 prisoners. Our loss very slight. City quiet, confidence restored, business progressing."

Also From Dewey.

The following despatch from Manila was received yesterday at the Navy Department: "For political reasons, the Oregon should be sent here at once. Yorktown arrived. Charleston and Petrel cruising around the Philippine Islands. Affairs more quiet. (Signed), Dewey."

The cablegram from Admiral Dewey asking for the Oregon was received with surprise by the officials here. No one knew, or at least would admit, that he knew the nature of the political reasons which the Admiral says demand the immediate presence of the battleship. But there is an underlying doubt whether or not the Admiral may not be keenly sighting a gathering cloud in the east, and is looking to the prevention of any possible intervention or interference by European powers in the struggle now in progress in the neighborhood of Manila. It is believed in this connection that in the big fires much property of foreign residents and business concerns was destroyed.

More Casualties.

Washington, Feb. 25.—General Otis cabled to the War Department yesterday from Manila a list of casualties during the past two days. The list is a long one. Among those killed were: Pte. Albert J. Rupper, First Washington Volunteers; Pte. Oscar L. Fulker and Sergt. William B. Smith, First South Dakota Volunteers; Pte. George H. Monroe, 20th Kansas; Second Lieut. Eugene S. French, First Montana, and Pte. Edward Reave, 33rd Infantry. Eleven men are reported as having serious wounds, and between 20 and 30 are reported slightly hurt.

Oregon Ordered to Manila.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The battleship Oregon is ordered by the Navy Department to arrive at Manila about March 10, and Gen. Otis within a week will have about 2,500 men as reinforcements.

HEN FRUIT CORNERED.

An Advance From 21 Cents to 40 Cents a Dozen in Pittsburg—Hens Frozen in the Blizzard.

Pittsburg, Feb. 25.—There is a corner in eggs here, and prices have advanced from 21 cents to 40 cents a dozen.

Last week H. D. Miller of Philo, Muskingum County, Ohio, arrived in Pittsburg and quietly started in to buy eggs. In a few days he had secured 1,000 cases, or 30,000 dozen, and now he has the market cornered. Before coming to Pittsburg, Miller went out among the poultry farms and found that the hens had been frost bitten during the blizzard.

As it takes them several weeks to recuperate, Miller says eggs will be selling a nickel apiece before Easter.

Great Tobacco Feel.

New York, Feb. 25.—Notwithstanding many denials, it has now been learned that the Union Tobacco Co., the American Tobacco Co. and the Liggett & Meyers Co. have finally concluded arrangements by which consolidation of interests has been effected. The deal places the American Tobacco Company in complete control of the cigarette and plug tobacco business of the United States. The new trust will have a capital of $100,000,000.

Kipling Is No Worse.

New York, Feb. 25.—The following bulletin was issued at 9 a.m. yesterday: "Mr. Kipling passed a comfortable night. The lower part of the left lung somewhat involved. Condition is not worse."

10.30 p.m. bulletin: Mr. Kipling, owing to added inflammation and a continuation of the disease, is a little weaker.

YOU'RE COURTING CONSUMPTION.

If you neglect that Cough—Have it Cured by Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

"It's only a slight Cold, only a little Cough," you say—but it hangs on and, on and won't leave. Better wake up to the fact before it's too late that you're on the highway to Consumption. Better have the Cough cured now, when you can—than wait a while longer when, perhaps, you can't. A bottle or two of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will promptly cure that Cough, and heal up the lungs so that not a trace of its effects will remain.

Mrs. Grace Lynch of Blackville, N.B., writes: "I have been troubled with Coughs, Colds and weakness of the lungs for a long time, and could get no relief until I took Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, which made a complete cure in my case."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is sold by medicine dealers everywhere at 25c. and 50c. a bottle.

"IT IS VERY SATISFACTORY."

To Wm. McCabe, Esq., Managing Director, North American Life Assurance Co., Toronto:

DEAR SIR,—Your official notice came duly to hand, apprising me of the results obtainable upon my 15 year endowment Policy in your Company for $1,000, which matured on the 8th inst. Of the various options you have given me viz.:

Cash value	$1,564 86
Paid-up Policy, payable at my death, for	2,560 00
Yearly Income for life of	166 20

I have decided upon the cash value; and it gives me pleasure to testify that, as I anticipated it would be when I took out the policy, IT IS VERY SATISFACTORY. This returns me the full premiums of the 15 years and over 4½ per cent. compound interest, in addition to which you have carried the risk upon my life. In view of the low-ering rates of interest which have been obtainable during the latter portion of the period, it is difficult to see how this excellent result could have been surpassed.

Yours sincerely,

Early Accidents

Cause Lifelong Suffering.

A Case that is Causing Talk.

When a lad about eight years of age I fell into a cellar a distance of ten feet, striking on my head, and causing concussion of the brain. I was taken to a London, Eng., Hospital, the first seven days not recovering consciousness. I am now 35 years old and from the time of my accident until I began taking Dr. Ward's Pills five months ago I had been subject to fainting spells, never being more than two weeks without an attack of fainting. As I grew older these spells became more frequent, lasted longer, and left me with less vitality. I was weak, had no strength or stamina, always very low-spirited and down-hearted; imagined that every thing and every person was going against me, and life only had a dark side for me. My appetite was poor most of the time, but I am now happy to say that, since taking Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills, I have only had one fainting spell, shortly after I began taking them, so I have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Ward's Pills cured me. Before taking these pills I always looked for a fainting spell not more than two weeks apart; now, I would be greatly surprised at a recurrence of these spells. Life is now bright—the constant, morbid, down-hearted feeling is gone, being replaced by a contented, hopeful feeling. I feel like working. My appetite is good, and in every respect I have experienced the health and strength restoring properties of Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills. They certainly have proved a great blessing to me. Yours truly, (Signed), Thomas Stanton, Brighton, Ont.

Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills are sold at 50c. per box, 5 boxes for $2.00 at druggists, or mailed on receipt of price by The Doctor Ward Co., Limited, Toronto.

THE PEACE SHOW.

While the czar is calling on the nations to lay down their arms England responds by laying down a couple of new battleships.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Reformer Tolstoi told the czar that he would believe in disarmament when Russia begins. The question of precedence in this matter is the ticklish point.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

While waiting for the curtain to go up on the peace conference performance Great Britain is passing away the time building two more 14,000 ton battleships at a cost of $5,000,000.—Indianapolis News.

The czar seems to think that a good way to begin his disarmament programme is to make his peace with Count Tolstoi. There is no doubt of the wisdom of disarming possible enemies first.—Chicago Journal.

Whatever the motive of the young czar—and charity "thinketh no evil"—the burden of such military establishments as those of Europe is too great for any proposition to reduce the load to be dismissed lightly.—Troy Times.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady of this country. Disease fastened his clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz., Troup writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Sold by all Druggists at 50 cents and $1 00. Every bottle guaranteed.

The Lady I Love.

The lady I love has winsome eyes,
And her hair is a chestnut brown;
Her lips are like cherries, her look very wise,
And her face is ne'er marred by a frown.

But this lady I love cares little for me.
She thinks me too icy, too chilly, too cold.
She says I won't do and, with one of her smiles,
Insists I'm too staid and too old.

She told me today when upon her I called
My attentions from now I must pay to another.
A sister to me she would willingly be,
For she is engaged to marry my brother.
—Detroit Free Press.

Merely Verbal Defiance.

"I don't see," said Aguinaldo's confidential adviser, "what you want to fight the United States for."

"I don't want to fight."

"But you talk as if you do."

"I know it. It gets me into trouble constantly, this bold and defiant demeanor of mine. You see, I was educated in Spanish, and I can't get rid of some of those idioms."—Washington Star.

The Boy Told Him.

After a recent supper in the rural district a tall, clerical looking individual arose to respond to a toast.

"What am I here for tonight?" was the question he opened with.

"To eat!" shouted a hungry small boy near the door. "You've drinked six cups o' coffee an swallered the last biscuit on the plate!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Under False Pretenses.

"I was at Santiago town,"
He said, with merry laugh.
The maiden, with a tender kiss,
His sentence cut in half.

"I was," he, gasping, cried again,
"In Santiago town!"
When, with another loving kiss,
She straightway cut him down.

"I was," once more he strove to say,
"In Santiago! See?"
But ere he could complete the phrase
She landed number three.

"I was at Santiago town!"
The fourth he countered low;
Then added as he turned to run,
"At least three years ago!"
—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Open Door.

The book agent wafted in, but discreetly refrained from closing the portal.

"I'm not interested in the Philippines," shouted the business man.

"But, sir, I"—

"Yes, I see you are an advocate of the 'open door,' but I'm not. Kindly go outside and shut it. Good day!"—Philadelphia Record.

He Had Ceased to Worry.

"Yes," said the young doctor to his wife, "I felt greatly worried until the climax was passed."

"Will he be out soon?"

"No," said the young doctor, "not until the day of the funeral."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

UP IN WINDSOR.

Mr. Cole Discovers the Power of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Windsor Feb. 20.—The following statement, which Mr. F. H. Cole of this place requests us to publish, is worthy of attention from every victim of Rheumatism in Canada.

Mr. Cole's experiment fully warrants him in making this statement.

"Words cannot describe how I suffered from Rheumatism and Kidney Complaint. I tried every cure that was recommended, but got no benefit until I began using Dodd's Kidney Pills."

"Thank God I did use Dodd's Kidney Pills, for they cured me—made me sound and well, in every joint and limb."

Those who suffer the agonies of Rheumatism or Lumbago need do so no longer. Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure them.

ORCHARD AND GARDEN.

Grub out all worthless trees.

Plan out the orchard in winter.

Do not prune the peach until spring.

Tobacco smoke will kill the green fly.

As a rule it is safer and better to plant young trees than to graft old ones.

House plants often fail to do well on account of lack of light in the rooms.

Severe pruning is necessary on a vigorous grapevine to prevent its overbearing.

Blight in pear trees may often be averted by cutting out the unripened sprouts that have been winter killed.

Most fruit trees bear fruit on short spurs of last year's growth. This is the case with the apple, pear, plum and cherry.

Fruit trees, grapevines and bushes should have no place in the garden. They draw nourishment needed by the garden plants.

Sometimes a judicious pruning of the quince trees will induce fruiting, for the restriction of bloom often tends to setting of fruit.

It is a mistake to suppose that any old, worn out soil is good enough for the orchard without fertilization. Good soil is essential to good fruit.—Exchange.

Ruling Passion.

The reporter lay on his eiderdown couch, slowly breathing his life away. It was evident that the end was very near.

Suddenly the luxuriously furnished room was filled with a phosphorescent light, and a pale shade appeared, standing at the bedside, grim and inscrutable.

"I am the messenger of death!" he said.

"One moment, please!" gasped the reporter, reaching feebly for his notebook and pencil. "How do you like America?"

Dr. A. W. CHASE

COMES TO THE AID OF

Catarrh Sufferers

SUCCESS in life is almost impossible for a man with bad breath. Nobody wants to do business with him. Nobody wants to associate with him. He is handicapped everywhere. Offensive breath comes from Catarrh; sometimes from Catarrh of the Stomach, sometimes of the lungs, sometimes of the head, nose, and throat. It is from Catarrh somewhere, and Catarrh is another name for uncleanness.

Many men understand this, and make every effort to cure it, but it is beyond the reach of ordinary practice.

No self-respecting man can ignore Catarrh. If he has it in any form he makes constant effort to be rid of it.

There is something about the manner of life and the climate of Canada that seems to breed diseases of the mucous membrane. Medical science ordinarily doesn't try to cure Catarrh; it "relieves" it; but Dr. Chase has been curing Catarrh for over thirty years, and his name is blessed by thousands who have shaken off the grasp of this insidious disease.

MAKES CHILD'S PLAY OF WASH DAY

Hard to Please.

"A small boy of my acquaintance," says a writer in the Boston Transcript, "stood the other day taking a lesson in feminine human nature—not his first lesson, but a bitter one—with quivering lip and deeply perplexed face. He exclaimed, having reference to his still smaller sister:

"'Dolly cries because I don't do a thing, and when I do it then she cries because I do it!'

"This was true and natural, but the boy's remark was not so profound as was an anecdote which I once read in the French. A wife, so this story related, was awakened by her husband's weeping and howling in the middle of the night. He was evidently having a dream, and she woke him and asked what was the matter.

"'Oh, my dear,' he said, rubbing his eyes, 'I dreamed that you were dead!'

"'Ha!' she said bitterly, and turned away from him. 'Great griefs are mute.'"

HIS FORTY YEARS' EXPERIENCE.

Senator Cox Never Touched Liquor or Smoked Tobacco.

Toronto, Feb. 27.—Senator George A. Cox presided at the Canadian Temperance League's meeting in the Pavilion yesterday afternoon, and made a brief personal reference. He said: In March, 1851, I presided over a meeting of the Peterboro division of the Sons of Temperance, when I had the honor to be elected patriarch. From my personal experience I can say that it is not necessary to take a glass of wine or a cigar in order to be thought manly. For above 40 years—from the position of an office boy, without any influential friends, and with no better means than any poor young man in this hall—I have been making some progress in social, commercial and political life, and during all that time I have not found it necessary to take a glass of liquor or a cigar. Nor is it necessary for any young man who aspires to rise in the social scale or attain the highest position.

A Government Cable to Hawaii.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The Senate committee on appropriations on Saturday agreed to incorporate a provision in the sundry civil appropriation bill providing for the construction of a submarine cable connecting the United States with the Hawaiian Islands. The amendment provides for the laying of the cable by the United States and for its subsequent ownership by the Government, the Navy Department to perform the service, and the cable, when completed, to be operated by the Postoffice Department.

Thieves' Paradise No More.

City of Mexico, Feb. 27.—The extradition treaty negotiated between Mexico and the United States has been signed by Foreign Minister Mariscal and Ambassador Powell Clayton.

The treaty, which is predicated from the proposition made by Mexico in 1885, is to have a retroactive effect, so as to cover the cases of fugitives from justice during the interregnum between the old and the new treaty.

The convention broadens the embezzlement clause to cover not merely public moneys, but all defalcations and thefts.

The Way to Drink Milk.

A pleasant variation in an evening of games is the drawing of flowers with colored crayons, and then having your guests guess the names of the flowers. A list of flowers should be made out, each one with a number. On separate slips of paper write the name of the flowers with its corresponding number, until you have used each one on the list. Give each guest one of the slips, or have a draw for them, and provide them with crayons and sheets of paper. Give fifteen minutes for the making of the flowers, then collect the drawings and pin them up about the room. As the names of the flowers are read from the list guesses are given as to which flower among the drawings represent it. Another pleasant game is called matching quotations. Well-known lines are written on slips of paper and then divided into bits, each part having three or four words. These fragments are pinned about the room on furniture, curtains, and hangings, and each person takes one and starts out to find the other parts that will make the quotation complete. Sometimes the quotations may consist of an entire line, with the second line forming the other half to be looked for.—Philadelphia Times.

CHARGED WITH THEFT

A Well-Known Galt Business Man Arrested on Saturday.

HIS WARD'S MONEY IN QUESTION

James White, Carriage Manufacturer, Accused of Stealing Several Thousands of Dollars From Miss Lena Harbon—An Attempt at Escape—The Arrest and Bail—Miss Harbon's Story.

Galt, Ont., Feb. 27.—James White, proprietor of White's Carriage Works, was arrested on Saturday after an exciting chase by the police, and taken to the lockup, charged with stealing and misappropriating over $3,000 belonging to his ward, Miss Lena Harbon. The warrant for his arrest was sworn out during the week by Miss Harbon, who has been in Toronto for some months, and on Saturday morning Chief Ahern and Constable Kay proceeded to White's Carriage Works to arrest that gentleman.

When Chief Ahern entered the shop to make the arrest, White like a flash went through a window into the yard. After an exciting chase, the police called to John Allison, who was working nearby, who caught the man. He was handcuffed and taken to the cells.

A little later he appeared before Police Magistrate Blake. To the charge "That James White of the said Town of Galt did feloniously steal and appropriate to his own use the sum of $3,106.80, the property of Lena Harbon," White pleaded not guilty and elected to be tried at the next court of competent jurisdiction. He will get his preliminary hearing this morning. White is out on $7,000 bail, sureties $1,000 furnished by himself and two of $3,000 by Mrs. White and N. G. Kinsman.

The story, as told by Miss Harbon, is briefly as follows: Her father, Mr. Henry Harbon of Toronto, died in 1880, leaving her an orphan about 4 years of age and with an estate of $8,000 in cash. White was appointed executor and guardian and took the child in his care.

She came of age about a year and a half ago, and, for the first time, learned of the existence of the legacy left by her father. She demanded the money from Mr. White, who, she says, had all the time led her to suppose she was a pauper and one subsisting on his beneficence. White replied that he had spent the money.

Miss Harbon then left the home of her foster parents and went to live in Carleton Place, but subsequently returned to Toronto. She entered suit against White last summer, and the case was heard at Osgoode Hall, judgment being rendered in her favor.

White not having produced the money, she swore out a warrant against him, charging him with the theft, and the arrest was made as stated above. The money was drawn from the Government savings bank in Toronto, it had been ascertained, on the 13th of April, 1880. The amount Miss Harbon alleges to be due her is something over $6,000, the interest on $3,000 computed for 19 years bringing it up a considerable sum.

MR. KIPLING MAY DIE.

Delirious When Sunday Night's Bulletin Was Issued.

New York, Feb. 27.—Dr. Dunham came from the sick chamber soon after 11 o'clock last night. His wife is a sister of Mrs. Kipling. "Is Mr. Kipling suffering from pneumonia?" Dr. Dunham was asked. "We will call it inflammation of the lungs," he replied. "If he gets through to-day he will be much nearer to safety," said Dr. Dunham.

Mr. Kipling is extremely weak. At times he recognises those around him. Those at the bedside are: Dr. Dunham, Mrs. Kipling, her mother, Mrs. Balestier, Mr. Doubleday, the children and two nurses.

The following bulletin was issued at 7 o'clock last night:

"Mr. Kipling's condition has been very serious during this the sixth day of the disease, giving rise to the gravest apprehension for the outcome."

At that hour the physicians were making almost constant use of oxygen. Their demeanor indicated a most critical stage of the disease. Mr. Kipling was delirious as the above bulletin was issued.

Low and Unconscious.

At 10.20 o'clock last night the following bulletin was issued:

"Mr. Kipling's condition remains the same as at last report."

It was said at that hour that Mr. Kipling was very low and unconscious.

The Gaspesia Visited.

Halifax, N.S., Feb. 27.—The party of men who left the Magdalen Islands Wednesday morning succeeded in reaching the ice-bound steamer Gaspesia, after a perilous journey over the ice. All are reported well aboard the steamer. The vessel has not been damaged, and she has a plentiful supply of coal and provisions to withstand a long siege in the ice. The ice floes are closely packed between her and the shore.

Seeking the Bruce's Aid.

St. John's, Nfld., Feb. 27.—The agents of the Canadian Liner Gaspesia yesterday opened negotiations with Mr. Reid, the contractor and owner of the Newfoundland steamer Bruce, noted for her ice-breaking qualities, for the rescue of the Gaspesia, which has been for the last three weeks frozen in an ice floe in the Gulf of St. Lawrence.

$20,000,000 Capital.

Halifax, Feb. 23.—The negotiations for the purchase by the Dominion Coal Company of the greater part of the Belle Isle iron mines have gone so far that the mines have been handed to members of the company. A new company is to be formed to take over the mines, and it is not at all unlikely that the capital will be as great as $20,000,0000.

Ottawa, Feb. 24.—Mr. W. J. Ryan of the Department of Railways and Canals is left a legacy of $40,000 by the will of his uncle, the late Hugh Ryan of Toronto.

SHOEMAKERS' WAX.

Experiments With This Substance That Will Surprise Every One.

One of the most apt illustrations ever made by Lord Kelvin was his likening the luminiferous ether to a mass of shoemakers' wax. What Lord Kelvin said of shoemakers' wax may be tested by any boy in a manner that will astonish his playmates. First let it be said that the ether penetrates all space. It is as rigid as steel and yet so flexible that it does not retard the passage of planets through space in the least. It is an invisible substance which travels in waves through all things. Now, to illustrate the nature of such a paradoxical material Lord Kelvin searched everywhere, and at last concluded that shoemakers' wax represented it best. He made tests and this is what he found:

He melted some wax in a common glass tumbler. After it had hardened he tried to thrust a lead pencil through it. It would not go. Then he placed a coin on the surface of the wax and left it there for several days. When he again visited it, the coin had sunk to the bottom of the glass. The wax had closed over it and by lifting up the glass and looking through the bottom he could see the coin lying there. Had the wax been as deep as a well the coin would have gone on sinking until it reached the bottom. This proved that the wax would conform only to very slow movements. If he had tried to push it too fast, it would have resisted him.

An idea struck the scientist. If the wax acted like this toward the coin, how would it treat an object which floated? He accordingly placed a cork in a tumbler and poured hot shoemakers' wax upon it. The wax hardened with the cork at the bottom. Yet when Lord Kelvin looked at the bottom of the glass in a day or two he found the cork had disappeared. It was somewhere in the mass of wax and probably rising very slowly, but surely, toward the top. Sure enough, after a given period of time the cork peeped above the surface of the hard wax and finally it rose to a point where it remained half imbedded in the wax, just as it would have done in a glass of water. It rose no higher than this, however, and a corkscrew probably would not have pulled it from the wax. Yet its own buoyancy had raised it up from the bottom, through what seemed an impenetrable mass of wax.

This, in fact, is the peculiarity of shoemakers' wax, that it resists all sudden or quick movements, but is highly susceptible to very slow and prolonged pressure. If you pressed a flatiron hard down on a lump of wax on a table it is probable you would make no impression on it, but if you left that iron resting on the wax for a day or two, you would find the lump flattened out under the iron. So curious is this property of the wax that tuning forks have been cast from pieces of it. These forks were capable of vibration, giving a musical note and being set going by vibration for another tuning fork, yet when one of them was laid across the open mouth of a jar it slowly collapsed and fell into the jar in a shapeless, sticky mass. Any boy may perform these experiments, and the lesson in physics to be got therefrom is no less valuable than the amusement which the performance affords. — Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

How He Helped.

The Philadelphia Record tells of a little woman and a big man who visited a dentist not long ago. "I just came along to help her keep her courage up," explained the big man fondly. She sat through a long operation, the filling of several teeth, with scarcely a quiver. When it was done, she suggested that her husband ought to have his teeth examined. He said he knew there was nothing the matter with his, but finally she had her own way. The dentist found one small cavity and said he might as well fix it at once, and the little woman agreed with him.

When the boring machine was moved out from its corner, the big man seemed to shrink; when it began to buzz he shivered perceptibly, and even before the tool touched his tooth he gave a shout. After which it took all of the little woman's powers of persuasion to keep him in the chair until the job was completed. "And that's no exceptional case," said the dentist when the couple had gone.

MISS RUDKINS
—STORE NEWS—

NEW SPRING PRINTS.
NEW SPRING BLOUSE SILKS.
NEW SPRING MUSLINS.
NEW TABLE LINENS.
NEW SPRING GLOVES.

This Store is keeping right up to the calender—never missing the new things as they come out. Constant newness will mark this store from day to day.

Don't ask for last years mantles, they have been sold. If you must have them inquire down street. No bankrupt stuff, no driftwood from the city fires or failures. They would spoil the spring like flavor of our Whole Store.

We propose selling the newest of the Season's Goods just as cheap as bankrupt and fire sale prices will be offered.

A BREAK FOR LIBERTY

Prisoner White Makes Another Bolt at Galt on Monday.

HE WAS COMMITTED FOR TRIAL

The Charge Against Him Is That He Robbed His Ward of Over $3,000—Evidence of Prosecutrix—Counsel Pleads That Offence Is Not Theft and Asked for Discharge.

Galt, Ont., Feb. 28.—James White appeared before Magistrate Blake yesterday afternoon to answer to the charge of appropriating $3,106.80 held in trust for his ward and niece, Miss Lena Harbon. W. S. Turnbull appeared for Miss Harbon and George Kelcher for White. The court room was crowded, and the demonstration of those present showed plainly that the fair plaintiff had the sympathy of the crowd. The only evidence taken was that of Miss Harbon, the prosecutrix, who testified that her father, the late Harry Harbon, died in 1880, leaving an estate of over $3,000 in cash deposited in the Government Savings Bank, Toronto. The executors named in the will were James White and David Ferguson. A paper produced in court proved to be a receipt for the withdrawal by White of $3,172 from the bank in Toronto on the 19th of May, 1880. The witness said that White withdrew the money, and had it now so far as she knew. He never paid her the money, though she had asked him for it. Miss Harbon got judgment against White at Osgoode Hall for $3,106.80, and White's evidence on that occasion was admitted by Magistrate Blake, who disallowed Mr. Kelleher's objection. The testimony is important, because in it White acknowledges that he used Miss Harbon's money and lost it. The prisoner's counsel denied this admission, but the exhibit went in.

Mr. Kelleher, the prisoner's counsel, in his address said: "There was no theft. If the investment had 'panned out' well Miss Harbon would have been paid."

Mr. Turnbull asked for commitment, claiming that he had shown conclusively that White had drawn the money, and that Miss Harbon had not received it, though she had often asked for it.

Mr. Kelleher demanded a discharge on the ground that White had not obtained the money with intent to defraud, and would have returned it had things gone right.

The magistrate committed him to Berlin, where he will be tried by judge and jury. White applied for bail, and was refused. He will make application at a higher court.

Immediately at the close of the court White made a desperate bolt for liberty through the door, Chief Ahern leaping over a four-foot railing in hot pursuit, Constable Hay bringing up the rear. White was captured by Charlie Cromwell. In the meantime the prisoner's wife had to be taken home in a cab, having gone into hysterics. An additional charge of attempting escape from custody will be brought against White, who was taken to Berlin Jail last night.

A BIG TEXTILE FACTORY

To Be Built at the Falls and to Use the Cataract Power.

Buffalo, Feb. 28.—Alexander Morton & Co., of Darvel, Scotland, one of the great textile concerns of the world, is to build a great factory at Niagara Falls. It will use electric power from the cataract to operate the factory. News was received in Buffalo yesterday morning that the Darvel company had closed contracts with the power company at the Falls, both for a site for its factory and for the power to run it.

Alexander Morton & Co., who manufacture carpets and other textile fabrics, have branches of their establishment in Ireland, Belgium and other countries.

Alex. Campbell Dead at Galt.

Galt, Ont., Feb. 28.—Alexander Campbell, a former prominent Nova Scotia business man, and a resident of Galt for the past two years, passed away last evening in his 89th year. La grippe was the cause of his demise. Deceased was born in Aberdeen, Scotland, in 1810, and at an early age emigrated to Nova Scotia with his parents, where he received a general education, and later was engaged as surveyor of Crown lands. He represented Colchester in the Provincial Assembly before Confederation from 1856 to 1863, as a supporter of the Howe Government. The remains will be taken to West River, N.S., for burial.

Railway Collision at Mimico.

Mimico, Feb. 28.—Two Grand Trunk Railway trains came into collision at the Mimico crossing yesterday afternoon, which resulted in engine No. 230, a caboose and a car of coal being derailed and the tender of the engine and caboose being badly damaged. The way freight was standing in the station yard when the freight from the west came along. The semaphore was against the approaching train, but it had not distance enough in which to stop. The train hands jumped when they saw a collision was inevitable, and thus no one was hurt.

McFadden Arrested at Calgary.

Regina, N.W.T., Feb. 28.—D. McFadden, formerly in the employ of the Massey-Harris Company at Edmonton, left that town a few days ago with a young woman. They were arrested at Calgary, and McFadden was accused of bigamy. When it was learned that he had not married the woman, the charge was amended. McFadden was taken back to Edmonton, where he has been sent for trial for an alleged offence under the Charlton Act.

Verdict in Adams Poisoning Case.

New York, Feb. 28.—Last night the jury in the Adams poisoning case brought in the following verdict:

"We find that the said Catherine J. Adams came to her death by poison by mercuric cyanide, administered by Harry S. Cornish, to whom said poison had been sent in a bottle of bromo seltzer by Roland B. Molineux."

The coroner immediately issued a warrant for the arrest of Molineux, and the latter was at once arraigned before him. The preliminary hearing was set down for Wednesday morning at 11.30 o'clock. Molineux was committed to the Tombs without bail.

Twenty Persons Missing.

Kingston, Jamaica, Feb. 28.—Further advices from the Cayman Islands, situated 150 miles from here, as to the terrible storm of Feb. 13 and 14, say that it was the longest and most severe in the history of the inhabitants, the seas almost overwhelming the islands. Throughout the entire two days the wind was working general destruction. The full extent of the fatalities is not yet reported, but it is known that about 20 persons are missing.

A Canadian Friend in Need.

Gloucester, Mass., Feb. 28.—The captains of three schooners report a recent act of courtesy on the part of the Canadian revenue cutter Aberdeen which they think should receive some official commendation. The three vessels were frozen in the ice at Shelburne, N.S., when, without solicitation, Captain Campbell of the cutter broke the ice round the vessels so that they might have a safe anchorage.

Trouble in French Guiana.

Kingston, Jamaica, Feb. 28.—Further advices from Cayenne, capital of French Guiana, say that additional French troops have been despatched to Cormani, because the Governor received information that a strong body of Brazilians was proceeding up the river. It is presumed the French troops went to meet them.

Gets Behind the Union Jack.

Managua, Nicaragua, Feb. 28.—The Government troops under Gen. Reuling, from Greytown, attacked and captured the bluff in front of Bluefields. Gen. Reys, the insurgent leader, fled for protection to the British consulate at Bluefields. He will surrender without further resistance, thus closing the revolution.

Fired a Church.

Harrow, Feb. 28.—A third case of incendiarism within a year was discovered here early yesterday morning through which the handsome Methodist Church narrowly escaped destruction. Fortunately the fire was seen before it had taken a strong hold on the building, and was quickly extinguished.

GUERILLA WARFARE

In the Philippines Has Cost the Americans Many Men.

THE NUMBER TO DATE IS 431.

The Filipinos Send a Flag of Truce—Returned Spanish Commissioners Say Aguinaldo Is Not Averse to Peace—The Insurgent General Sends Out Another Anti-American Decree.

Manila, Feb. 28.—Two Spanish commissioners, Senors Romulo and Abogoda, who were permitted to pass through the United States lines and confer with Aguinaldo with reference to the Spanish prisoners at Malolos, returned yesterday morning with sealed despatches for the Spaniards. The commissioners said that Aguinaldo and Sandiko were both at Malolos, and inclined to pacific overtures. While the Filipinos are not yet prepared to surrender the Spanish prisoners, they will release two Americans who have been held for six weeks, on the payment of $50, the value of the food and clothing furnished to them.

Shortly afterwards the rebels sent out a flag of truce, borne by Commandant Sinforoso de la Cruz, and several hundred of the enemy left the Filipino lines, crying, "No quiere," "Mas combate," "Americanos mucho bueno." The commandant said that fully 8,000 of his men had had enough, and were anxious to surrender. Among the enemy in the jungle many women and children were visible. A woman laid down her rifle and attempted to cross with the parleyers, but she was sent back. After the party returned to the American lines the enemy on the right fired a volley. The bullets dropped at their feet.

A Decree From Aguinaldo.

Hongkong, Feb. 28.—The Filipino Government has issued another anti-American decree, in which the following passages occur: "The American guns respect neither honor nor property, but barbarously massacre women and children.

"Manila has witnessed the most horrible outrages, confiscating the properties and savings of the people at the point of the bayonet and shooting the defenceless, accompanied by odious acts of abomination, repugnant barbarism and racial hatred worse than the doings in Carolina. Unless you conjure a holy war for independence you are only worthy to be slaves and pariahs. Proclaim before the civilized world that you will fight to the death against American treachery and brute force. Even the women should fight if necessary.

"American professions and promises are pure hypocrisy. They covet the spoils of this patrimony of our race, wishing to implant here a more irritating and barbarous dominion than in the past."

Concession to American Fruit.

Berlin, Feb. 28.—The officials of the German Foreign Office have notified the United States Embassy that the Government will henceforth admit American oranges, lemons and raisins without examination, and, also, that all American fresh and dried fruit will be allowed to pass in bond through Germany without being examined. The decisions are based on the favorable reports of the German experts sent to America.

Gen. Zurlinden's Removal.

London, Feb. 28.—A despatch from Paris to a newspaper here says its correspondent hears President Loubet has already signed a decree removing General Zurlinden from the post of Military Governor of Paris, and appointing General Faure Biguet, commander of the 16th Army Corps, to succeed him. The latter has been a consistent upholder of the innocence of Dreyfus. There is no confirmation of this statement.

Don't Want a Britisher.

London, Feb. 28.—The Pekin correspondent of The Times says: "The Russian Government has protested to the Tsung Li Yamen against the terms of the Niuchwang Railway extension loan, recently subscribed in London, on the ground that the clause appointing a British subject chief engineer of the line is in conflict with the Russo-Chinese agreement."

Mad Dogs in Long Island City.

New York, Feb. 28.—Within three months 17 children have been bitten by mad dogs in Long Island City, and two have died. Many of the dogs thought to have hydrophobia are thoroughbreds.

Grip in the City of Mexico.

City of Mexico, Feb. 28.—The Board of Health reports that there are more than 35,000 cases of grip in this city. The disease is proving fatal to many of the poorer people.

Perfectly Cured

Weak and Low Spirited—Nervous Prostration—Appetite Poor and Could Not Rest.

"I take great pleasure in recommending Hood's Sarsaparilla to others. It has been the means of restoring my wife to good health. She was stricken down with an attack of nervous prostration. She suffered with headaches and her nerves were under severe strain. She became very low spirited and so weak she could only do a little work without resting. Her appetite was poor, and being so weak she could not get the proper rest at night. She decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, as we had heard it highly praised, and I am glad to state that Hood's Sarsaparilla has perfectly cured all her ailments." G. ONTARIO'S ADVANCE POLICY.

The speech delivered in the Ontario Legislature by the member for West Peterborough, during the progress of the Budget debate, was, as is generally acknowledged, a new departure, and has consequently attracted considerable attention, the press speaking of its sentiments and broader tone in terms of warm commendation. The London Advertiser and Ottawa Free Press devote over a column each of commendatory criticism of the progressive policy enunciated in the speech and other journals have briefer but equally favourable comment. Among them the Brockville Recorder says:

Mr. Jas. R. Stratton, of West Peterborough, moved the adjournment, which meant that he resumed the debate when it again came up. Mr. Stratton is proprietor of the Peterborough EXAMINER. He sits in the front row next the Cabinet Ministers, and rumour says that he has one foot inside the crimson covered door now, and that at the first opportunity he will be allowed to enter. The suspicion, I think, is well founded, for Jas. R. looks even now a Cabinet minister, and bears on his countenance a knowing look which betokens to the ordinary member a superiority born of the knowledge that the wearer is "in it" or expects to be. A genial, good soul and a man of more that ordinary ability is Mr. Stratton, and his speeches show great care in preparation. On this occasion he took two falls out of the budget, speaking in all about three and a half hours. He demolished Col. Mathieson's contention about certain moneys not being received from the Dominion as interest by reading the letter of the Federal official who transmitted the money, declaring it to be interest on a stated amount. Mr. Whitney said the letter was written under instructions, but Mr. Stratton sidetracked the leader of the Opposition by telling the House that the official in question was a Tory, appointed by a Tory Government. Then, too, Mr. Stratton in his remarks riled the normally serene Mr. Hoyle, and for a time he was kept busy in a hot cross fire. But Jas. R. has a faculty of keeping cool and he pulled out with credit to himself and the Government. Like Mr. Conmee he took strong ground in favour of developing Northwestern Ontario, and in this most people will agree with him. As the head of several financial concerns he believed it would be just to tax such concerns, as well as telephone and telegraph companies, and that the province over the territory of which these companies operate, should receive the amount from this taxation rather than the municipalities. It is conceded that Mr. Stratton's was one of the most exhaustspeeches ever made on the Ontario budget.

The Woodstock Sentinel-Review says:—

The speech delivered by Mr. Stratton, M.P.P., in the Legislature last week during the budget debate has been published in pamphlet form as it deserved to be. As has been said in our special correspondence from Toronto it was an able and important deliverance. Few men in the House are better able to discuss our provincial finances in a clear and convincing way than the member for W. Peterborough, who has made the subject a careful study. But the most interesting parts of Mr. Stratton's speech were his references to the needs and the future policy of the province. Mr. Stratton believes with the editor of this journal that the great work of the immediate future for the Ontario government should be the development of our natural resources, especially in New Ontario. In this direction a vigorous and progressive policy is wanted. Mr. Stratton would carry the lumber policy of the Government further and prevent the export of pulpwood to the United States, a subject upon which his views will be pretty generally endorsed.

LEVEL-HEADED GERMANS WANT IT.

The German Government Appreciates Road Instructor Campbell's Work—Permission Asked to Translate the 'Good Roads' Report of the Ontario Government into German.

At the August session of Parliament Mr. Whitney in his onslaught on the Government; made the extraordinary statement that not half a mile of roads had been made that would not have been made had not Mr. Campbell been appointed. This was so preposterous an assertion that it was hardly worth while to contradict it — hundreds of farmers throughout Ontario could rise up and furnish ocular demonstration that Mr. Campbell's services had been of inestimable benefit in the production of better roads. Mr. Whitney and his Opposition friends may shut their eyes to the benefits resulting from the good roads crusade, but the question of good roads is arousing a great deal of interest in other countries than Ontario. Mr. C C. James the other day received a newspaper from Belfast which contains the report of a meeting of the Natural Historical and Philosophical Society, at which a lecture was delivered by Mr. James Brown upon the subject of improvement of highways. The lecturer gave the result of his calculations after the close study of the question of friction and resistance offered by ruts, from which it appeared that the effect of ruts on a certain road was equal to an artificial hill of 100 feet in a mile, and that for a load of one ton travelling seven miles per hour an extra power equal to three-quarter horse would be required to overcome the resistance met with. Diagrams of the exact depth of ruts on various roads were shown, the measurements having been obtained by means of the viagraph, a new instrument which has been specially designed for the purpose.

Mr. A. W. Campbell last week received a communication from Mr. W. J. Wolf, Commissioner of Public Works for the German Government, asking permission to have the annual report issued by Mr. Campbell, translated into German for circulation by the German Government. The German Government has been stimulated by the example of Ontario to activity in the improvement of the highways, and the reports of Mr. Campbell have been found to be the best publications available for the purpose of interesting the people, and instructing the local authorities. The communication which covered a translation of the report for Mr. Campbell's approval, complimented him very highly up on the thoroughness of his methods. The Germans are far seeing and thorough, and a commendation from them is praise indeed.

Speaking of the progress made by the "good roads movement" during the past few years. Mr. Pattullo, M. P. P. in conversation with a Globe reporter, stated that the wisdom of the decision at the commencement of the agitation to adopt a policy of education rather than legislation had been fully demonstrated by the results. Not only have the advantages of improved roads been recognized, but the farmers have shown a surprising readiness to take the initiative, and many excellent roads have replaced the highways formerly dignified by the name of roads. The existing legislation has been found sufficiently elastic to permit of much good work being done, and he had not therefore, although a prime mover in the good roads agitation, felt called upon to introduce special legislation on the subject before the Province was ripe for it. There are several amendments the adoption of which would facilitate the construction of better roads, and he intended introducing a bill in the Legislature, but had not deemed it wise to do so this year owing to the shortness of the session and the rush of other business. He proposed doing so, however, at the next session.

Steamship Combine Broken.

London, Feb. 28.—The Daily Maill this morning announces the breakup of the trans-Atlantic liner combine, in consequence of which the American Line managers have reduced first-class fares to $19 and second-class to $7. It is rumored, according to the same authority, that the White Star Steamship Company will reduce rates to even lower figures and then a keen rate war will ensue.

A Doctor's Fatal Mishap.

New York, Feb. 26.—Dr. Willard Avery Hancock, 33 years old, is dead from blood poisoning. After attending a patient with a contagious disease, he scratched his lip, which itched, with his finger nail. The next day his jaw was stiff and swollen. Next day he died, after an operation to remove a diseased gland.

Killed Dogs Instead.

Regina, N.W.T., Feb. 28.—Frank Keller put out poison to kill wolves, but it resulted in the death of two valuable dogs. He was fined $50, the estimated value of the dogs, and $7 costs.

Army Appropriation Bill Passed.

Washington, Feb. 28. — The House passed the army appropriation bill yesterday.

Rev. J. N. Vanatter, of Albion, Wis.

WRITES A LETTER ON DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

Sufferers are at liberty to correspond with the above address and will obtain full particulars regarding the great cure.

He says: My wife was most terribly afflicted with protruding piles, and contemplated a surgical operation. A friend of ours recommended the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and less than one box effected a complete cure. We were so pleased with the ointment that I tried it myself, as I have been troubled with an unsightly skin affliction which covered the lower part of my face.

For 25 years I suffered untold agony, and was treated by the best medical skill in the United States. I consider Dr. Chase's Ointment worth its weight in gold for piles and skin disease.

Dr. Chase's large-size recipe book, cloth-bound, sent to any address on receipt of 50 cents, by addressing Dr. Chase's Company, Toronto or Buffalo, N.Y.

BISON CITY'S BIG THING.

Buffalo Street Railway System and Suburban Lines Handed Over—Capital Involved Is $25,000,000.

Buffalo, Feb. 28.—The Commercial yesterday afternoon said: The most stupendous business deal in the history of the City of Buffalo, both in point of public and private interests concerned and in the amount of capital involved, is about completed. It involves some $25,000,000 of capital. Briefly, it is the sale of the entire street railroad system of Buffalo and a number of suburban lines.

The deal includes the properties of the following companies: The Buffalo Railway Company, the Buffalo Traction Company, the Buffalo, Bellevue & Lancaster Railway Company, the Buffalo & Niagara Falls Railway Company, the Buffalo & Lockport Railway Company, the Niagara Falls Park & River Electric Railway Company (running along river bank on the Canadian side), the Niagara Falls & Clifton Bridge Company, and the Lewiston & Queenston Heights Bridge Company.

This immense combination of interests has been sold to a syndicate composed of New Yorkers and Philadelphians, and all of the interests named are to be consolidated under one management.

RUDYARD KIPLING.

The Great Author Has Been at the Door of Death and His Recovery Will Be Very Slow.

New York, Feb. 28.—The physicians in attendance on Mr. Rudyard Kipling now have a more hopeful view of his case. Mrs. Kipling went out for a drive at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon with Mr. Doubleday, Mr. Kipling's publisher, and remained an hour. It was the first time in two days that she had left the bedside of her husband. That she considered Mr. Kipling's condition warranted her leaving him even for a short time was regarded as a hopeful sign.

Holding His Own at Midnight.

The following bulletin was posted at 12.30 o'clock this morning:

Mr. Kipling is, at the last report, holding his own. The advent of a crisis may be delayed, as the inflammation has developed in the upper portion of the lungs, while the part originally affected had nearly resolved. The severity of the disease during the past few days has been due to the advance of the inflammation upward, while the parts originally affected were not yet available for respiration.

A CARD.

We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to refund the money on a twenty five-cent bottle of Dr. Wills' English Pills, if, after using three-fourths of contents of bottle, they do not relieve Constipation and Headache. We also warrant that four bottles will permanently cure the most obstinate case of constiptiion. Satisfaction or no pay when Wills' English Pills are used.

TWO DEADLY ENEMIES OF MANKIND.

Constipation and Ill-Health Banished by Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

They Cannot Exist where Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are Used—A Splendid Medicine Gentle but Positive, Simple but Effective.

Nine out of every ten people in the Dominion has been taking medicine for "The Grippe," at one time or another, during the past two months.

In everyone of these cases, it is safe to say, the effect of the medicines used, has been to cause constipation to a greater or less extent.

Constipation is one of the commonest and most dangerous diseases known today.

Babes inherit the tendency to it from their parents; men and women suffer from it at all times and seasons.

Good health and Constipation can never go together. Ill-health and Constipation are inseparable companions. And ill-health leads to the grave.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are a thorough and perfect remedy for this complaint. They act first on the food in the stomach, which they digest thoroughly, and prepare for the action of the bowels.

Then they restore full and natural strength and activity to the bowels, and enable them to carry the useless, refuse matter separated from the food, out of the body.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are not a cathartic. They do not gripe. Their action is gentle, but positive. They restore natural conditions. Their effect is felt in a very short time, and is permanent.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists and dealers in medicine, at fifty cents a box, six boxes $2.50; or are sent on receipt of price, by the Dodd's Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto.

Stop Coughing

Every cough makes your throat more raw and irritable. Every cough congests the lining membrane of your lungs. Cease tearing your throat and lungs in this way. Put the parts at rest and give them a chance to heal. You will need some help to do this, and you will find it in

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

From the first dose the quiet and rest begin: the tickling in the throat ceases; the spasm weakens; the cough disappears. Do not wait for pneumonia and consumption but cut short your cold without delay.

Dr. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Plaster should be over the lungs of every person troubled with a cough.

THE LEGISLATURE

Bill for the Appointment of Bicycle Path Commissioners.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION.

Opposition to Mr. Crawford's Bill at Woodstock—The Second Reading of Bills—Several Bills to Amend the Municipal Act Introduced—Answers to Inquiries—Departmental Reports.

Toronto, Feb. 28.—Several bills to amend minor clauses of the Municipal Act were introduced yesterday, and Mr. Whitney's bill to amend the Election Act was introduced by Mr. Matheson in the absence of his leader. Hon. Mr. Dryden, replying to an inquiry relative to the injurious effect of the barberry bush upon growing grain, informed the House that the matter was ancient history, his department having as long ago as 1888 issued a bulletin advising farmers upon the subject. Replying to Mr. Matheson's question respecting the apparent discrepancy between his statement and the letter of the Assistant Deputy Minister of Finance respecting the amount owing to the Dominion by the province, Hon. Mr. Harcourt explained that his figures of $4,000,000 were approximate, but he did not know precisely at what date Mr. Fitzgerald's figures were compiled. Several public bills were given second readings, and several others which dealt with matters upon the principle of which the House has not yet pronounced were allowed to stand. A petition was presented by Mr. Pattullo from the manufacturers of Woodstock, submitting their objections to the provisions of Mr. Crawford's Workmen's Compensation bill. Mr. J. B. Stratton also gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill providing for the creation of boards of commissioners to regulate bicycle paths and administer the "cycle path fund" which is to be formed in each city, town or county out of the revenue received from the annual bicycle license which the bill imposes for the use of the bicycle path. The budget debate will be resumed to-day, and in all probability brought to a conclusion.

Bills Introduced.

Bill No. 157 is introduced by Mr. MacNish to amend the Municipal Act, and is to enable the council of a city to pass bylaws raising money to pay its own share of the cost of bridges between it and any other municipalities, and for rebuilding any existing bridges in a municipality up to a cost of $20,000, without the consent of the electorate.

Bills to amend the Municipal Act and the Elections Act were introduced by Col. Matheson (South Lanark).

Questions by Members.

Mr. Little (Cardwell) asked: "Has the Government inquired into or considered the memorial of the County Council of Simcoe, as presented at the August session, 1898, asking for an investigation as to the effect the barberry shrub has on growing grain, such as wheat or oats? If not, does the Government intend to accede to the request of the memorialists?"

Hon. Mr. Dryden, in reply, said that experiments made at the Guelph Agricultural College had conclusively shown that the barberry shrub prejudicially affects the growing of grain, and, as a consequence, it had been recommended that the shrub be destroyed.

Col. Matheson (South Lanark) asked: "Is the present estimate of the amount of debt owing by the province to the Dominion $2,000,000, as stated by the Provincial Treasurer in his financial statement, or $1,700,000, as estimated in letter of Mr. W. Fitzgerald, assistant D. M. F. of Canada, in his letter of July 28th ult., enclosing cheque for $60,000 on account of interest on trust funds? Has an arrangement been made with the Dominion to reduce the rate of interest on debt over $500,000 owing from the province to the Dominion from 5 per cent., fixed by the third section of the award of Aug. 21, 1894, to 4 per cent., as assumed in the letter of Mr. Fitzgerald of July 28 last?"

Hon. Mr. Harcourt, in reply, said his estimate of the amount of debt owing to the Dominion was as stated in the public accounts. The figures of Mr. Fitzgerald, he believed, referred to some former statement of the public accounts. It was not known whether these figures referred to former estimates submitted to the House or to the position of the debt at the time the letter was written. The arrangement stands to reduce the rate of interest to 4 per cent.

Mr. Fox (West Victoria) obtained an order of the House for a return of copies of all correspondence between the Government and the corporation of Lindsay with reference to the appointment of a police magistrate and the salary to be paid him.

Second Readings.

Mr. Kribs (South Waterloo) moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Municipal Act, the object of which is to allow townships, towns or villages to assist, by grants of money, electric railway construction. The Attorney-General suggested that the bill stand until after the discussion of the question of bonusing, and the request was agreed to.

Mr. Wardell (North Wentworth) moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Ontario Elections Act. On the suggestion of the Attorney-General, the bill was allowed to stand.

Mr. Wardell moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Municipal Act. The object of the bill is to restrict the power of issue of debentures by county councils. The bill was read a second time and sent to the municipal committee.

Mr. Reid's bill to amend the Ontario Game Protection Act was also given a second reading.

Amongst the bills read a second time was that of Mr. Foy (South Toronto) repecting the Church of Holy Trinity, Toronto, varying the terms of the declaration of trust, and appropriating one-tenth of the income to the maintenance of the edifice.

Vital Statistics.

Dr. Bryce of the Provincial Board of Health has sent in his report of registration of births, marriages and deaths in the Province of Ontario to the Legislature. It is very complete. The population of the province on Dec. 31, 1897, was estimated to be 2,223,189. Total births returned is 47,898; total deaths, 27,633, the difference being an actual increase over 1896 by 19,690. According to the report of the Minister of the Interior for 1897 27,200 immigrants arrived in Canada, and of these 19,804 came here to settle. In the cities it is estimated that the registration only represented one-fifth of the actual birth rate, otherwise the returns are almost complete. Some interesting and valuable tables are published, showing the movement of the population from the older settled counties to the newer portions of the province. The tables show that Ontario's death rate is lower than that of any other place in the world.

Division Court Report.

The report of the inspector of Division Courts states that the number of suits entered numbered 40,086, the claims aggregating $1,548,099, total of moneys paid out $482,690. The returns of percentages on fees and emoluments of clerks payable to the treasury give a total of $4,211.18. The figures show a perceptible decrease in the volume of business as compared with the figures given in the returns of preceding years. The total of trials by juries summoned numbered 203. Amount paid to jurors summoned $1,897. Amount paid to county treasurers for Division Courts jury fund $13,051.49.

Niagara Falls Park.

The report of the Niagara Falls Park commissioners has been presented to the Legislature. The commissioners recommend the issue of $35,000 worth of debentures for the purpose of carrying out improvements of various kinds. In regard to the suggestion that they should take over the grounds around the ruins of old Fort Erie, the commissioners adhere to their opinion that they are not in a position to do so without Dominion or provincial aid. The receipts amounted to $54,842, and there was an overdraft at the end of 1898 of $729.

New Companies.

Notice is given in The Ontario Gazette of the incorporation of the following new companies:

The Minerva Manufacturing Company, Limited, of Toronto, with a capital of $50,000, in 500 shares, to manufacture and sell ladies' clothing.

The Diamond Harrow Company of Windsor, Limited, with a capital of $30,000, in 300 shares.

Gordon, Mackay & Company, Limited, Toronto, with a capital of $750,000, in 7,500 shares, 5,000 being preference shares, to acquire the dry goods business of Donald Mackay.

Children Cry for CASTORIA.

A TOT BURNED.

Mother Was Away and the Little One Was Playing With Fire.

Flesherton, Ont., Feb. 28. — Mrs. Flynn, a poor washerwoman, is the mother of seven children, and supports them by her daily labors. Yesterday she was out as usual, and left four of the small children at home, the youngest being 2½ years of age. About 3 o'clock one of the children came running for her, telling her the baby was burning. Mrs. Flynn ran for home, and found the infant lying outside the door in the ice and snow, with its clothing completely burned from its little body. It was carried in, and Dr. Carter quickly summoned. The scene was pitiful in the extreme. From what can be gathered from the other children it appears that the babe was putting paper in the stove, and its apron caught fire. The other children were all too small to know how to put out the fire, and one of them ran for the mother over two blocks away. The baby still lives, but can hardly recover.

MARKET REPORTS.

Liverpool Wheat Was Easier, But Chicago Showed Some Strength—Visible and Afloat—The Prices.

Liverpool, Feb. 28.—Wheat futures were easier yesterday, declining ¼d to 3-8d per cental from Saturday's close.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—The wheat market showed early strength yesterday. The small increase in the visible supply, the small shipments from Russia for the past week, and talk of weather damage to American crop were the bull arguments on which the May option was advanced to 78⅜c. The close was near the top figure for the day, or 3-8c higher than on Saturday. The July delivery was not so buoyant.

Visible and Afloat.

As compared with a week ago, the visible supply of wheat in Canada and the United States has increased 302,000 bushels; that of corn has increased 1,000 bushels, and that of oats has increased 608,000 bushels. The visible supply of wheat in Canada and the United States, together with that afloat to Europe, is 61,440,000 bushels, against 59,858,000 bushels a week ago, and 71,528,000 bushels a year ago.

THE ODORLESS CREMATORY CLOSET.

I have been appointed Sole Agent for the Odorless Crematory Closet manufactured by the Crematory Closet and General Heating Co., of Hamilton.

This Closet has found a place in many of the best homes in the province, and all who have used it cannot speak too highly of its merits. Medical men speak of it from a sanitary point of view, claiming that, if health is any consideration, no home should be without one. Here are some of the

TESTIMONIALS.

Allliston, March 1st, 1898.

I have had one of your "Crematory Closets" in use now for several weeks and am glad to be able to say that I have found it entirely satisfactory in every respect. I have not been able to detect the slightest odor from it at any time and would not be without it. I am sure it must prove a great convenience to people in the country and in towns where water is not obtainable. Yours respectfully,

JAMES CONWAY.

Shedden, February 25th, 1898.

I have used it for sometime and find it perfectly odorless. It is a long felt want and I believe it will become very popular especially in rural districts, towns and villages where wells are so frequently contaminated by the ordinary closets. I am, yours, etc.

W. H. MORRISON

Medical Superintendent's Office, Sept. 20th, 1897
Asylum for the Insane, Hamilton.

Gentlemen: I had the opportunity of witnessing yesterday the operation of your Odorless Crematory Closet. It had a large accumulation of fecal matter in the pan when the fire was started, and inside of 20 minutes it was all reduced to ashes. There was no odor before or during the operation of consuming the fecal matter, as the ventilation by the fine seems to carry off all odor at once, before it has a chance to vitiate the surrounding atmosphere.

Yours truly, JAMES RUSSELL, M.D.

Binbrook, Sept. 20th, 1897.

Dear Sirs—Having been present at a private test of your new patent closet yesterday afternoon, I beg to express my satisfaction with it in every way. Neither before, during or after the burning out of its contents did I detect the slightest unpleasant odor. I am satisfied it will be a boon to thousands in rural towns, villages and country homes. Yours truly,

M. J. MULLOCK.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1898 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which delights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used, Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. VALUABLE Residential Properties FOR SALE

In Peterborough.

Having decided to remove to Manitoba in the spring, I have decided to sell the following valuable properties at prices that should secure ready purchasers:

Parcel No. 1. A Brick Terrace of four houses, adjoining the corner of Sherbrooke and Park streets, two storys, well built with good stone cellars full size of buildings. Each residence contains six rooms with summer kitchens. This property has always been continuously rented and pays an excellent rate of interest on the investment, and it is practically a new property, being only erected a few years, and is in good condition.

Parcel No. 2. Brick residence corner of Reid and Simcoe. Containing ten rooms. House is good condition with all modern improvements, bath, closets, heated with furnace and lighted with electricity.

Parcel No. 3. Brick dwelling corner Aberdeen and Benson streets, facing Dixon Park, containg seven rooms with summer kitchen. This property was erected last season for myself and occupied by myself. Has hard and soft water in kitchen and is a very comfortable residence. This lot is 102 feet square.

Parcel No. 4. Brick residence, corner Wolseley and Benson streets, two storeys, seven rooms with kitchen, pleasantly situated adjoining Dixon Park. Hard and soft water in kitchen. This lot is also 103 feet square and is a similar building to parcel No. 3.

Parties desiring a good paying investment or home will find any of these desirable purchases.

Particulars and terms, which are reasonable, made known on application to the undersigned.

GOING TO BELLEVILLE.

One of Peterborough's Most Popular Young Men Leaves Town.

Mr. Walter J. Squires left this morning for Belleville, where has been engaged by the firm of D. V. Sinclair & Co. Walter was one of Peterborough's most popular young men and during his connection with Mr. R. H. Kells in the drygoods business he made himself a general favourite by his courteous demeanor. He was not allowed to leave town without being made aware of the friendly feeling entertained towards him. On Saturday evening the boys of Echo Camp gave him a supper at Potvin's and last night the members of Otonabee Lodge assembled and after the regular business of the Lodge was concluded, the following address was read:

Bro. Walter Squires, Rec.-Sec. Otonabee Lodge. No. 13, I.O.O.F.

Your brethren of Otonabee Lodge learn with regret that the exigencies of business life have again brought us to the point in our social relations where we must say good-bye to a worthy companion. Our association having been of the most pleasant and cordial character since you first sought membership in this Lodge of Oddfellows, it is we assure you, a source of great disappointment to us to find your chair vacant and the prospect of your advancement in our Lodge obscured for the present. We recognize the fact that your services to this lodge, and to society generally in this good town, has been rendered cheerfully and at no small sacrifice of time and effort on your part. For this reason we desire to-night to impress upon you the fact that your generous contributions to our social happiness have been appreciated.

We feel assured that your many good qualities of voice, heart and hand will be the only passport you will need to gain admission to the confidence and respect of any community in which your future may be cast.

We wish for you the inestimable blessings of good health and a fair opportunity to display your qualifications for success and feel satisfied to leave the result in your hands, under the Divine blessing.

We cannot let this occasion pass without recommending to our fraternity wherever you may go in the future the fellowship of one who has won by his manly conduct and generous disposition so warm a place in our hearts.

Signed on behalf of Otonabee Lodge, No. 13, I.O.O.F.

J. M. GERMELL, N.G., (acting.) W. F. GUMMY, Secretary.

Mr. Squires made a suitable response, after which an impromptu musical programme was rendered.

Miss Neild will re-open our Dress and Mantle Order Department for the spring season of 1899 on Wednesday March 1st.

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Of Court Peterborough, No. 29, C. O. F.

WAS GRANDLY CELEBRATED.

A Sumptuous Banquet Enjoyed by a Large Company.

Sister and Kindred Societies Co-operate — A Sketch of the Local Court—The Toast List Presented and Speeches Made—A Very Successful Celebration of a Great Event.

When Court Peterborough, Canadian Order of Foresters, sets out to do anything it is bound to be done right, and when the local veterans of the order take things in hand it is bound to be a tremendouous success and was the celebration last night of the twentieth anniversary of the organization of Court Peterborough. It was a happy coincidence that the twentieth anniversary should fall upon the date of the twentieth annual meeting of the High Court, now in session in Brantford, a meeting whose delegates represent the individual elements of a beneficiary order, one of the most, if not the most, stable of any in the broad Dominion, strong financially and strong in the elements of protection thrown around its members and their beneficiaries.

Court Peterborough, No. 29, Canadian Order of Foresters, whose crystal wedding anniversary was, so to speak, so successful, fully celebrated last night was organized on February 27th, 1879, under what was then the Independent Order of Foresters of America.

At the first meeting of the Court, held in what was then known as Trennam's Hall, Water street, a modest forest home compared with the elegant and commodious permanent home in the Snowden block, Simcoe street, there were present twenty-one members and of these old originals there are still eleven for a trifle more than half still living and in active connection with Court Peterborough. These gentlemen are Bros. H. W. Watson, Thos. Hooper, Sr. Wm. Galley, Jos. Mitchell, Cole Barrett, N. Lush, A. Comstock, L. Spry, A. P. Morgan, Jas. Byrne, and George Kingdon. As stated, the first hall was on Water street; the next local habitation of the order was the hall over China Hall, corner George and Simcoe streets; then a fine hall, for those days, was fitted up over Long Bros. confectionery establishment, George street south. Finally the splendid and specious forest home now occupied, and in which last night's great function was given, was fitted up as the present home of Court Peterborough, as well as sister courts. At first the order was the Independent, connected with the United States. Owing to the large death rate which this association entailed, many of the Canadian members conceived the idea of the establishment of a solely Canadian order. Of the 700 or 800 members that composed the order in Canada, about 400 patriotic Canadians took the steps that led to the establishment on Dec. 1st, 1879, of a solely Canadian Order of Foresters, with Canadian spirit and aspirations. A new system better adapted to Canadian needs was adopted. That the departure was justified, that the Canadian Order was founded upon sound, economic, financial and fraternal principles, is shown by the fact that the growth and progress of the Order has been phenomenally rapid and at the same time substantial. The latter fact is attested by the fact that the endowment fund of the Canadian Order of Foresters, invested in the best and most staple financial institutions in the country, amounts to the large sum of nearly three-quarters of a million—$711,000—and is gaining rapidly every day. With such a strong reserve fund upon which to draw for the payment of endowments, the security afforded members is of the most gratifying and trustworthy character.

In this prosperity, Court Peterborough has shared and it is now the banner Court of Canada having the largest membership of any single Court of the Dominion, as Peterborough with its three strong Courts is the banner town of the Dominion in Canadian Forestery.

Last night's celebration was a great event, grandly celebrated. The efficient committee, Mr. H. Nesbitt, chairman, and Jos. Matheral, secretary, comprised besides others, the original members of the Court as mentioned above.

A splendid banquet, elegantly set forth, was provided by Bro. Harry Long, the popular local caterer, complete and tasteful in all its appointments. The large hall was well filled. Representatives from all the beneficiary societies in two were invited, and most of these responded.

After the banquet had been discussed with delight by the large number present, the intellectual portion of the feast was brought on.

Bro. H. Nesbitt, the veteran financial secretary, to whom a large share of the success of the occasion is due, occupied the chair. He was ably supported in the vice chairs by Bros. A. Comstock, W. H. Watson and N. Lush.

Brother Nesbitt, chairman, before proceeding with the toast list, said he wished to state the reason for the banquet. This being the 20th anniversary of Court Peterborough, No. 29, C. O. F., it was thought best to celebrate the event in a manner becoming the importance of the occasion and the result of the committee's labour could be seen before them. He wished to thank the representatives of the Courts and of the different societies of the town for their kindly fraternal co-operation in contributing to the success of the celebration of the twentieth anniversary of the establishment of Court Peterborough.

He then called upon the assemblage to drink the health of Her Gracious Majesty the Queen, which was done with a loyal enthusiasm which the denizens o Sherwood forest would not have shown in drinking the health of Prince John in the time of Robin Hood.

The toast of "The Governor-General and Houses of Parliament" was heartily honoured and responded to by Mr. James

The Joint Committee reported as follows through its chairman Alderman Hall :

Your Joint Committee beg leave to report and recommend that they accept the county of Peterborough in rebuilding the Mud Lake bridge to the extent of one-third of the cost of rebuilding up to a total cost of $60,000, any grant from the Government or Governments to be deducted from the total cost in ascertaining the town's proportion, provided that the Legislature give authority for making the grant, and that a by-law for that purpose receive the approval of the qualified ratepayers in accordance with the provisions of the Municipal Act regarding by-laws requiring the consent of the ratepayers, and also that the town pay three-tenths of the cost of maintaining the bridge this year, the town's share not to exceed $300.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

E. H. D. HALL, Chairman.

The report was adopted.

THE BOARD OF WORKS

through its chairman, Alderman Davidson, reported as follows :

1. That Messrs. Dolan & Sheehy be paid the balance owing them on their pavement contract, provided a satisfactory agreement from their bondsman is filed with the town agreeing to the payment being made now.

2. That Mr. T. A. S. Hay be appointed town engineer and superintendent of municipal works at a salary of $1,200 per year to take effect on the 1st of April next.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

H. S. DAVIDSON, Chairman.

The report was adopted.

THE PROPERTY, HEALTH AND MARKET

Committee reported as follows through Alderman Best :

Your Property, Health and Market Committee begs leave to report that they asked for tenders for new desks for Council Chamber similar to those in the County Council Chamber, to be made of oak, and recommend that the tender of Mr. D. Bellegham be accepted, his price, $7.50 each for five double desks, being the lowest.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

JOHN SAWERS, Chairman.

The report was adopted.

[THE COMMITTEE ON LICENSES

reported through its chairman, Alderman Corkery, as follows :

Your Committee on Appointments and Licenses beg leave to report and recommend that 600 dog tags of a round pattern be purchased from Mr. Lewis Spry at $16.15 for that number.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

JOHN CORKERY, Chairman.

The report was adopted.

Alderman McWilliams introduced the Wm. Hamilton Mfg. Co bylaw authorizing the closing of a portion of Downie street, exemption from taxation and a loan of the sum of $30,000.

The bylaw received its several readings and was passed.

A NEW INDUSTRY

Moved by Alderman McWilliams, seconded by Alderman Davidson, that the commissioners of the Peterborough Town Trust, be requested to sell and convey to the Stanley Piano Company, Limited, of Toronto, the south 120 feet of lots, numbers 10 and 11, north of Perry Street, and west of George Street, in the town of Peterborough, and also the use in common of a roadway 14 feet wide between Bethune and Stewart Streets, north of the said 120 feet, for the consideration of one dollar, and in the consideration of the company erecting the buildings herein after mentioned. Such conveyance to be given upon the Stanley Piano Company, Limited, and George A. Cox, Esq., making and executing to the commissioners a bond and covenant, in form approved by the Town Solicitor, providing that a factory building 100 feet long, and of proportionate width, and four stories high, shall be erected on said lands, and completely equipped for the manufacture of pianos, on or before the first day of August next; and further providing, that if the buildings shall not be erected and equipped as aforesaid, on or about the first day of August next, the Stanley Piano Company, Limited, of Toronto, shall re convey the said lands to the commissioners free from encumbrances. Such last mentioned proviso, however, to be subject to the condition ; that, when and so soon as the company shall have paid out as wages $100,000, in running said factory in the Town of Peterborough, and shall have furnished to the commissioners and to the council proper and satisfactory evidence of such payment, the company, shall hold the said lands free and discharged from said last mentioned proviso.—Carried.

Alderman Hall rose to state that he understood that the new pavements were being considerably injured by citizens chopping the ice off them with an axe and also putting out fish barrels from which salt water drained to the great injury of the walks.

Alderman Davidson said that he had spoken to the Chief of Police about the matter and that official had notified all property-holders in front of whose premises the walks had been constructed.

Alderman Hall replied that he had received very recent information in the matter to the effect that the walks were actually sustaining injury by these means.

A bylaw will be passed at the next council meeting under which the police can act and an example is to be made of the first offender.

The council then adjourned.

"A SOLDIERS DAUGHTER."

There was only Standing Room for Late Arrivals at the Opera House Last Night.

Marks Bros.' Dramatic Company began a two-weeks' engagement in the opera house last night to an audience that packed the house. "Standing Room Only" was the announcement that greeted late comers.

"A Soldier's Daughter' was presented in such a manner as to draw forth round after round of applause. The play is brimful of life, snap and stirring incidents, and the piece in its construction, is of just the nature to please the theatre going public.

Miss May A. Ball in the title roll proved herself worthy of the storms of applause which greeted her appearance. J. Knox Gavin, as the French soldier, is worthy of special mention. Fred Wilson, always a favourite in Peterborough, as Dennis O'Flarity, the Irish Dragoon, kept the audience convulsed at his every appearance.

Marks Bros.' success has always hinged on the vaudeville part of the entertainment. This season the specialties are of the best, and make the show continuous.

There is no doubt but the opera house will be filled nightly. There are matinees on Wednesday and Saturday at 2 30 p. m. "Jerry, the Tramp," on Wednesday, and "Uncle Tom's Cabin" on Saturday. Tonight "A Soldier's Sweet Heart."

Is Your Piano in Tune?

The change of season affects pianos as well as anything else. Mr. Geo. Gumpright, practical piano maker and tuner, with 25 years experience, attends to all orders left at Mr. H. S. Macdonald's drug store.

SOME TIMELY REMARKS ON SEASONABLE GAMES.

What is Going on in Local and Outside Hockey Arenas—Notes From the Curling Ice.

HOCKEY.

The great match of Granites vs. Thistles on Saturday night next is going to occasion lots of fun at the rink. The curlers will turn out in full force and cheer their representatives on to victory. The teams have been chosen as follows :

Granites.		Thistles.
Geo Giroux	goal	Gus Hay
H R H Kenner	point	J Connal
A McClelland	cover point	Alf Terrill
Geo Boucher, Myles Hamilton, A Skill, W F Hamilton	forwards	Dr Neill, T Ferguson, Will Thompson, Fred Dixon

Capt. Hollingshead has invested in a suit of armour and will referee the game.

The game is called for 10 p.m. sharp.

The dry goods men have accepted the challenge of the barbers, and in a business like way have engaged the ice for the match to-night. The game promises to be a hot one.

The druggists are after the hardware team, "hot foot," and have accepted their challenge for a match. The game comes off to-morrow night.

The Printers and the Wm. Hamilton Mfg. Company's team play on Tuesday night next week.

The Morgan House has gallantly stepped into the breach and accepted the challenge of the Oriental boarders and the game will come off in the near future.

LAKEFIELD VS. HARDWARE MEN.

Last night Lakefield senior hockey team came to town to play the return match with the Pig Iron team, feeling confident that they would repeat the drubbing administered to "Putty's" aggregation at Lakefield recently. In this, however, they were disappointed, as Trainer Hobbins had been getting in his work for the past week and had his men in the pink of condition, and instead of victory the boys from the north met with defeat by a score of 6 to 5. Owing to a weak ankle McAuliffe did not play, and Higgins, through inability to train down in weight, also occupied a place among the spectators. Their places, however, were very acceptably filled by R. Watt and W. Crossley. The Lakefield team were also in much better condition than in the former match, and while their skating was somewhat faster than that of the iron men, they lost this advantage by lack of good stick handling and by their inability to break up their opponents fine combination work.

Mr. R. M. Glover acted as referee during the first half, and being compelled to leave the rink at half time Mr. B. Belleghem officiated during the remainder of the game. They were assisted at the goals by Messrs. Hobbins and Crawford, and all gave entire satisfaction.

It was nine o'clock before the players lined up before Referee Glover, who was heartily cheered by the four hundred spectators as he appeared on the ice clothed in his official robes, which were kindly supplied for the occasion by Mr. Tom Burnham. The following composed the teams :—

Pig Iron.		Lakefield.
Isaacs	goal	Newbury
Brown	point	Ridpath
Crossley	cover-point	Strickland
Watt, Comstock, Burnham, Stetham	forwards	Smith, Stabler, Blomfield, Gray

On the face-off everyone started to play hockey, mixed with a large quantity of shinny, which was kept up to the finish, greatly to the amusement of the spectators, who at times went wild with excitement, especially the small boy. After three minutes play Lakefield succeeded in scoring the first goal. Peterborough took the next two and at the end of half time the score had run up to 4—4.

In the second half the hardware boys secured two more goals, but Lakefield, though playing a stubborn game, were unable to score more than once, and the Pig Irons were proclaimed victors by a score of 6—5.

The local boys all played a strong game, especially Watt, who proved a regular whirlwind on skates.

With a little more practice that boy Ikey need not take a back seat from any of the league goal keepers.

Burnham could not make the referee believe that he did it with his little hatchet, therefore he took the fence very gracefully.

The visitors were banquetted at McCallum's after the match, a very pleasant time being spent.

Piles Cured without the Knife, by Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment.

Mr. Geo. Browne, painter, of Woodville, Ont., Victoria Co. says :— "For thirteen years I was a sufferer from bleeding piles and the intense agony which I passed through during those years and relief I obtained by Chase's Ointment prompts me to give this testimonial. My physicians wished me to have an operation but I felt I could be cured without a knife. Three boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment stopped the bleeding and effected a permanent cure."

THE LATE JOHN O'DONNELL.

His Funeral Took Place Under Masonic Auspices This Afternoon.

The funeral took place this afternoon of the late John O'Donnell. The body had been removed from the Nicholls Hospital and placed in the Chapter room of the Masonic hall, Water street, where the brethren could view it. The features of the deceased had assumed a reposeful expression. The body was appropriately attired, in a cloth-covered coffin, mounted with silver-plated trimmings. Each of the set of massive coffin handles bore the emblems of the order. The coffin plate was handsomely engraved, having a skillfully executed representation of the interior of a Masonic lodge room, and bore the words :—

JOHN O'DONNELL.
DIED FEBRUARY 25TH, 1899,
Aged 65 years.

A reference to the records of Peterborough Lodge, No. 158, showed that in Oct. 1863, the deceased brother had filled in his age on his application form as 29 years.

A handsomely designed floral was in the form of a circular wreath composed of white roses, with the square and compass in pink geraniums in the centre.

The pall bearers were :—R. W. Bro. H. Rush, R. W. Bro. R. E. Wood, V. W. Bro. Chas. Cameron, W. Bro. H. C. Rogers, W. Bro. Dr. Carmichael, V. W. Bro. H. C. Wisch.

V. W. Bro. R. M. Dennistoun, acted as marshall. The body was deposited in the vault to be interred in the Masonic burial plot in the spring.

The funeral service was performed in the Masonic Hall, by Rev. E. V. Stevenson, and at the cemetery the Masonic service was held in the chapel.

Cures While You Breathe.

It is so simple and so certain in its action, so mild, yet cleanses as by fire. Catarrhozone is an absolute cure for catarrh, bronchitis, irritable throat, and other throat and nasal maladies. Disease germs cannot live when Catarrhozone is inhaled, and it penetrates wherever air can. You breathe—it does the rest. Of course you can scarcely believe this good news, but to convince you we will send prepaid a trial bottle of Catarrhozone and inhaler free. Write at once to

DROPPED DEAD.

The man with heart trouble never knows when his time may come. When he leaves home for work he may never return alive. He may drop dead on the street, in his pulpit, in his office, over his work bench. Heart disease is no respecter of persons. The Christian minister is liable the same as anyone else.

Rev. C. L. Mundell writes:

"I suffered from that dreadful tired feeling and weakness, and in 1893 I lost my health altogether. I went to one of the best doctors in the state and he said I had heart, stomach, liver and kidney trouble. His treatment did me no good. I tried different kinds of patent medicines but got worse all the time. If I walked up hill or a little fast it seemed as though my heart would jump out. I had almost given up all hope, and my money was all gone; was scarcely able to make a living. Finally I wrote Dr. Pierce and following his advice I purchased at my nearest drug store a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and a bottle of his 'Pleasant Pellets.' This was a year ago and now I am happy to say that I am in the enjoyment of perfect health. I can not be glad of my health that I cannot say too much. I first return my sincere thanks to Almighty God and then to Dr. Pierce.

"I would not do without your 'Pellets' for one hundred dollars ($100.00) per month.

"Do not think I am exaggerating. My statement is true and if any doubt it they can write to Pinegrove, Ohio, where I live, and if any should think this an assumed name and that such a man as C. L. Mundell does not exist, they may look in the minutes of Providence Association, or in the Baptist Year Book, in the list of Elders, and they will find my name."

Constipation and biliousness are radically cured by Dr. Pierce's Pellets.

SHE FOILED A PLOT.

How Mme. Alboni Frustrated a Scheme to Miss Her.

"Once upon a time, when Mme. Alboni was at Trieste," writes Henry C. Lahee in "Famous Singers of Today," "she was informed of the existence of a plot to hiss her off the stage. Having ascertained the names of her detractors and where they were to be found, she donned male attire, to which her short hair and robust figure helped to complete her disguise, and went to the cafe at which the conspirators met. Here she found them in full consultation, and taking a seat at a table she listened to their conversation for a time. After awhile she addressed the leader, saying: "I hear that you intend to play a trick upon some one. I am very fond of a little practical joke myself and should be glad if you would allow me to join you on this occasion."

"'With pleasure,' was the reply. 'We intend to hiss an opera singer off the stage this evening.'

"'Indeed! And of what is she guilty?'

"'Oh, nothing, except that, being an Italian, she has sung in Munich and Vienna to German audiences, and we think she ought to receive some castigation for her unpatriotic conduct.'

"'I agree with you, and now please tell me what I am to do.'

"'Take this whistle,' said the leader. 'At a signal to be given at the conclusion of the air sung by Rosina the noise will begin, and you will have to join in.'

"'I shall be very glad to do so,' said the singer and put the whistle in her pocket.

"In the evening the house was packed—every seat was occupied—and the audience warmly applauded the opening numbers of the opera. In due course Mme. Alboni appeared, and at the point at which she was about to address her tutor a few of the conspirators began to make a disturbance, not waiting for the signal.

"Without showing any concern, Mme. Alboni walked down to the footlights, and, holding up the whistle, which was hung to her neck by a ribbon, she exclaimed: 'Gentlemen, are you not a little before your time? I thought we were not to commence whistling until I had sung the air.'

"For a moment a deathly stillness prevailed; then suddenly the house broke into thunders of applause, which was led by the conspirators themselves."

MR. FRANK DODGE

Says His Life was Saved by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto Feb. 27.—Mr. Frank Dodge, of North Mausperg, Ont., has been visiting here recently. He is a splendid specimen of Canadian manhood, standing more than six feet high "in his stockings" erect and muscular.

"I was a different man two years ago," said he to a friend to day. The truth is I would have died of Kidney Complaint, if it hadn't been for Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I had been treated by physicians and had taken various remedies without getting any better. I read of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and decided to try them. I did so, and was thoroughly cured in a couple of weeks.

"No-o, but Bertha Bullion's father takes the paper I advertised the loss in, and he'll see that advertisement. See?"

"Humph! Where did you get the money to pay for that big ad?"

"Bertha lent it to me, blem her!"—London Tit-Bits.

A LEPROSY TRAGEDY.

THE SACRIFICE OF KAOMOUNA, THE HAWAIIAN BEAUTY.

A Story Which Sheds a Bright Light Upon the Filial Devotion of Kanaka Women—Why a Baby's Advances Were Not Returned.

The usual Honolulu crowd was down at the dock when the steamship Australia, seven days from San Francisco, pulled alongside the pier on a brilliant, balmy afternoon in January, 1895. American women in summer afternoon costumes, a few English and a few German women of society arrayed also for steamer day (which is a Honolulu function), leaned back languorously in their carriages and phaetons, under the shade of parasols, listening to the lazy complimentary talk of the duck clad, lei enwreathed young business men who combined duty with pleasure in thus waiting for the great steamer to slip laboriously into her measured berth beside the pier.

The usual groups of silent, expectant eyed Kanaka men stood in the shade of the pier sheds, humble in attitude, chary of words, and yet sweet natured. Some of the men wore shoulder leis (wreaths of flowers) over their labor grimed hickory shirts, and the Kanaka women wore leis in cross belt over their flowing white Mother Hubbards. In truth, the flower wreaths were everywhere. Staid, middle aged merchants among the whites wore them about their helmets and straw hats, and all of the white women in carriages had belts of Hawaiian exotics.

All of the Kanaka women had bare feet. They stood about in little groups as silent as the men of their race. A few of the Kanaka women carried tiny brown babies—silent also. The young women were of varying degrees of beauty, their figures showing a uniform excellence of proportion.

One of these Kanaka women at the dock on this brilliant January afternoon was particularly beautiful. She was clad like the rest of the women of her race. She was fully 5 feet 10 inches in height, and the white silk cord with which, unlike the other Kanaka women, she drew her white dress about her waist, emphasized the splendid, heroic proportions of her figure. Kaomouna seemed quite unconscious of her beauty. The young shipping clerks, hurrying to and fro on the dock, with their pencils behind their ears, stopped suddenly when they caught sight of her. The women in the carriages, who had not been long down from the States or from Europe, saw Kamouna, and asked the women of longer Honolulu residence, "Who is that glorious creature?" Kaomouna, with a very sad face, spoke only an occasional word to one of the Kanaka women.

The Australia was made fast to the pier, and the passengers began to troop over the gangway. There was one man with his pretty young wife and 3-year-old little girl. The little girl was the first to catch sight of Kaomouna as she reached the bottom of the gangway. She quickly freed her hand from her father's grasp and ran toward Kaomouna with baby words. Kaomouna smiled at the little girl, but did not offer to take her up. Instead, she folded her arms, looking down at the little pink faced child pleasantly. When the mother had taken the little girl, she raised her eyes to look at Kaomouna.

"Did you ever in your whole life see such a perfectly beautiful woman?" asked the young wife of her husband in a whisper when he came up. "And Tita seemed to take to her immediately. If we could only have her for a nurse for Tita!"

Kaomouna heard her.

"Kaomouna would love to be that," she replied in a soft Kanaka accented speech, smiling. Then a look of pain came into her face. "But it may not be—it may not be"—and with her hands at her eyes Kaomouna turned suddenly and disappeared among the departing men and women of her race.

Three months later the parents of the little girl were at the dock together to witness for the first time the saddest of sights—the departure of the lepers for the island of Molokai. The Kilauea Hou, the leper steamer, was out in the stream, and the lepers were being carried out to her in barges. A litter was borne through the roped enclosure for the lepers. On it lay a very old Kanaka woman in the final stages of the disease. At the side of the litter walked Kaomouna. Her face was very sad. The parents of the little girl wondered. They spoke to an official of the Hawaiian board of health, who was busy in the task of embarking the lepers.

"Surely," they said, "she does not accompany the lepers?"

"Who, Kaomouna?" replied the health official. "Oh, yes, she does. But it is her own choice. Kaomouna, you know, has been secreting her old mother for a number of years. We always knew there was something mysterious about Kaomouna—that is, we have known it for the last five years. She had made queer visits to a palm hut far over in the Nuuanu valley. Last week we followed her—we felt there was leprosy in it. We found her mother in the hut—Kaomouna had had her in hiding, trying to save her from Molokai, ever since the disease became evident. Kaomouna is not infected in the least—she has been careful. But she elects to follow her mother to Molokai. Extraordinary? Why, not at all! You do not understand the filial devotion of Kanaka women—men, too, for that matter. Such cases are common enough."

The parents of the little girl looked at each other. There were tears in the mother's eyes.

"That is why she folded her arms and would not touch Tita!" she said. "In this world of God, civilized or uncivilized, could there be anything more noble?"

All was ready, and the Kilauea Hou, with Kaomouna and her mother on board, slowly started down the harbor, the Kanakas on the dock setting up the weird, plaintive death wail.

SURVIVORS OF THE BULGARIA.

The Second Officer Believes That 101 Persons Have Gone Down.

Baltimore, Feb. 28.—The British steamer Victoria has arrived here with four of the crew of the steamer Bulgaria, which was reported as disabled 900 miles off the Azores. These four, along with 25 women and children, taken off the Bulgaria by the Wechawken, are all that are known to be safe of the crew of 80 and 41 passengers, which were on the unlucky ship. These four were picked up from one of the Bulgaria's small boats on Feb. 5. Second Officer Scharges, one of the rescued, believes that 101 persons have gone down with the Bulgaria.

Made the First Phonograph.

Schenectady, N. Y., Feb. 28.—Jean Kreusi, one of the best known mechanical engineers in this country, died yesterday, aged 56 years. At the time of his death Mr. Kreusi was the chief mechanical engineer of the General Electric Company. He was a native of Switzerland, came to this country in 1870, he entered the employ of Thomas A. Edison at Menlo Park, N.J., and in a short time became the inventor's confidential man. It was to him that Edison gave the task of construction of the first phonograph. Mr. Kreusi was the inventor and perfector of the underground tubing system that is now in general use.

Yankees Have Bought Oak Island.

Ogdensburg, N.Y., Feb. 28.—George C. Boldt of the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, and Charles M. Englis of the Englis Ship Building Company, Brooklyn, have purchased Oak Island, in the St. Lawrence River. They will form an association, including 15 prominent New Yorkers, each subscribing $1,000, for the establishment of a game preserve upon the island, which includes about 600 acres, and is one of the finest of the Thousand Islands group.

Nursed Five Generations.

St. Thomas, Feb. 28. — Miss Mary McLean died at the residence of Rev. B. W. Williams, 51 Curtis street, last night, aged 91 years. "Old Mary," as the deceased was familiarly called, was the nurse for five generations of children in one family and was acquainted with six generations. She was born at Mount Millick, near Dublin, Ireland, and was waiting maid for a Mr. Beal of this city. She nursed Prof. Beal of Trinity College, Dublin.

Transferring a Leaf.

It is possible to transfer to paper the outlines and natural tints of a leaf with all the fidelity of a painting or a colored photograph. Soak a piece of linen free from starch in a solution of saltpeter. Take a sheet of smooth paper, place the leaf upon it and on that lay the wet linen. Another sheet of paper is laid on the linen, the whole inclosed between two pieces of cardboard and put under a heavy box or in a letter press. After three days under this weight it will be found that the leaf is bleached and the impression of the leaf in all its natural coloring is on the paper. This is very effective for decorative purposes.

Kentucky's Queer Names.

Speaking of queer names, the Danville Advocate recalls that a Madison county school has been taught in succession by a Sparrow, Duck and Crow. The Cynthiana Democrat says that at Washington and Lee university the close of a session found but two graduates who received the A. B. degree. One was Bugg and the other Bair. The Richmond Register says in that city a Hogg and a Pigg were taught by a Cobb, and the Sharpsburg World rises to remark: "This village contains two hotels. One is the Wood House and the other is the Ware House."

MR. R. H. ORDE, GREYSTOCK, ONT.,

Says Laxa-Liver Pills cured himself and a friend of Constipation and Allied Troubles.

Everybody who has used Laxa-Liver Pills says they are the finest thing in the world of medicine.

Mr. R. H. Orde, of Greystock, Ont., is of this opinion and this is how he expresses himself:

"Some time ago I got a sample packet of Laxa-Liver Pills, and after I had used them with great satisfaction I sent to Mr. Madill's drug store, in Peterboro, and bought two bottles, one of which I gave to a friend of mine. He assured me they did him a world of good. His trouble was constipation and fluttering of the heart.

"In my own case the trouble was very similar, i.e., constipation, fluttering and palpitation of the heart, and pains in my legs, like rheumatism, when I lay down at night. I have only taken the pills a short time, but every one of the unpleasant symptoms has disappeared. The pills did their work thoroughly, yet so mildly that a person would not think he was taking medicine at all. I am highly pleased with their effects, and recommend Laxa-Liver Pills to all who suffer as I did."

A CONTRACTOR WRECKED.

Constitution Undermined by Nervous Complications—South American Nervine Worked a Complete Cure.

Nervous prostration and liver complications so afflicted J. W. Dinwoody, contractor, Campbellford, that physically he was almost a total wreck. His druggist recommended South American Nervine. A few doses gave him great relief, induced sound sleep, and a few bottles built him up and cured him so that to-day he is as strong and hearty as ever. Sold by H. S. Macdonald, and Ormond and Welsh.

Pleasures of Boarding Round.

Many of the experiences of the student doctor in "boarding around" a generation ago are amusing. One tells the story that when he arrived at his new boarding house after school one day the old lady intimated to him that it was customary for the boarding teacher to lend his services for the benefit of the household and informed him that just then the old man and the boys were out in the barn killing swine and would no doubt be pleased to have his assistance. This the embryo doctor declined to do. Rather disappointed at this, the thrifty matron drew his attention to a churnful of milk requiring a power at the dasher, only again to meet with the doctor's dissent.

Well, then, would he hold the baby while Sal churned? This he undertook, but before the lapse of ten minutes the uppermost feeling in his mind was regret that he had not helped the old man and the boys in the barn, exercised on the churn dasher or undertaken any other job in the household economy rather than that of tending baby. He had previously passed very fair examinations in physiology, anatomy and the mechanical sciences, but never until then did he learn that a baby has no bones in its body, and he also made the discovery that an infant has no center of gravity, somewhat to its danger and Sal's discomfort.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great sufferings for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent.' This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by all Druggists, every bottle guaranteed.

A SEAMLESS TUBE.

There Are Three Operations by Which It May Be Made.

Henry Souther said at a recent meeting of the National Association of Mechanical Engineers that the scientific and technical designation of a tube, whether seamed or seamless, depended solely upon the tube itself and not upon the process followed in its manufacture. Referring to the dictionary you will find that the word "seamless" means without seam, which conveys no light upon the subject. Turning to the word "seam," it is found that it is defined as a joint, suture, or line of union, and here in the last term we find the key. A tube jointed in any way cannot be seamless. If in the primary stages of its manufacture it be lap, butt or lock jointed, it cannot by any subsequent operation be deprived of the seam and therefore cannot be considered when completed as being seamless.

A strictly seamless tube may be made by any one of three operations—first, a billet may be by successive steps punched into the form of a tube with extremely thick sides, and these may then by the ordinary drawing processes be reduced to a tube with thin walls; next, the billet may be bored or the blank may be cast with a hole in it and in either case then drawn to the required dimensions; thirdly, the tube may be made by the cupping process, which consists in taking a disk of the metal, forming it into a cup shape, gradually elongating the cup and reducing it in diameter and finally by this means producing a tube.

Each and all of these processes yield a tube which is absolutely seamless and about which there is and can be no dispute. In all tubes formed with a seam the edges have first been separated, then united, either by lap or butt weld or by some lock joint system, and in these the joint cannot be eliminated by any after processes. The custom houses of the United States recognize the difference between a seam and a seamless tube. A seamless tube is one in which the walls have never been separated from the time the metal was in a molten condition to the time of the completion of the tube.—Iron Age.

Paris Cycling Freaks.

The great question of skirt versus culotte, writes a Paris correspondent of the Lady's Pictorial, still deeply agitates the minds of female cyclists. Certain sets are in favor of the skirt, others of the divided garment, and no absolutely definite conclusion as to what is to be worn, what condemned, has been arrived at. En attendant the culotte is much the more popular among the majority; that of this season is quite different from the baggy sonave shape of last year. It is cut flat on the hips as though it were a skirt, and all the fulness is around the knee, giving, when the wearer is walking, quite the illusion of a skirt. The most prudish of prudes would be at a loss to discover anything savoring of the indecent about this garment, and all who have any practical experience of cycling cannot but acknowledge that it is infinitely more convenient than the jupe. For those who are prejudiced against this form of garment a really cleverly devised contrivance, la jupe culotte, has just been introduced by a big tailoring establishment. In it one has the appearance of wearing a somewhat short skirt, that is, when walking; on the bicycle it is a different thing, for between the heavy folds there is a division. Tight-fitting knickerbockers inside form part of the lining. A lady bicyclist one morning this week wore on the Bois a garment such as I have described, in thin black cloth, with jacket to match, the latter opening over a loose front of ecru batiste. Her hat created quite a sensation; it was certainly one of the neatest specimens of bicycling headgear that have been seen this season. It was a sailor shape built of light brown embroidered holland the embroidery taking the form of tiny white sprigs. A broad band of white moire ribbon surrounded the brim, and at the right-hand side were three smart white quills and a stiffly erect bunch of lilies of the valley with their leaves. The effect of the whole costume was ladylike in the extreme.

..Dr. Chase's Ointment..

His suffering from Ulcerating Piles Cured.

He says:—I was troubled with itching piles for five years, and was badly ulcerated. They were very painful, so much so that I could not sleep. I tried almost every remedy heard of, and was recommended to use Dr. Chase's Ointment. I purchased a box, and from the first application got such relief that I was satisfied a cure would be made. I used in all two boxes, and am now completely cured.

Every remedy given by Dr. Chase cost years of study and research, and with an eye single to its adaptation for the ailments for which it was intended. Dr. Chase detested cure-alls, and it has been proven ten thousand times that not one of his formulas leave a bad after-effect. Dr. Chase's Ointment is based on lanoline, and the best physicians prescribe it.

A Brigand Who Levies Taxes.

"Brigandage is still rampant in many rural districts in Italy," says Dr. Bavogli, the resident Italian consul.

"From advices I receive occasionally I keep in touch with home affairs, and a letter from a friend in Trieste contains a reference to Tiburzi, one of the most picturesque of these freebooters. Tiburzi is about 48. At the beginning of his career he was as bad as others in the same vocation in life.

"In 1872 he was caught, convicted of highway robbery and murder, and sentenced to imprisonment for life. He escaped in 1874, and took refuge in a wood near Viterbo, where he lived in security in spite of seventeen warrants and a large reward for his arrest. The reason of this security is simple enough. He was good to the poor—any peasant in need of help could always get a gold coin from Tiburzi—and he punished traitors. Consequently the peasants were ready to assist him against the police or Government emissaries, and those who would willingly have given information were afraid to do so.

"After his escape Tiburzi altered his method of gaining a living. He caused it to be made known to all the well-to-do people in the district that if they paid him an annual contribution he would not interfere with them and would protect them form molestation by others. It was considered advisable to agree and Tiburzi has been for years in receipt of a large income, one man alone paying him £150 a year. Crime has considerably diminished in the district; the smaller fry dare not molest Tiburzi's proteges, for he is still a good shot with his English repeating rifle. Tiburzi does what the government cannot do; he collects taxes without trouble and he keeps down crime.

"It must not be supposed that he hides in the woods all day. He can walk about the whole district without fear of capture and he lives in good style. He goes to Rome sometimes, presumably in disguise, and has even been abroad. Will he ever be arrested? Time alone can tell.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Wax Figures.

The best wax figures in the world are made in New York. One firm here has two to show in its store. Each of these figures cost $300. They are made entirely of wax and are the exact counterparts of two famous New York models. The first figure was sculptured after a French girl. Almost the only difference between the little French model and the polite, dainty figure in wax is that the girl of flesh and blood has dark hair and the hair of the wax figure is yellow. The second figure is that of an American woman. Her figure and the soft pink flush of the skin seem almost perfect. The woman who stood for the model of this one was said to have the best American figure in New York.

Spanking Convicts.

When convicts in the Colorado state prison become unruly, instead of being confined to bread and water solitary confinement they are spanked, the instrument used being a paddle a little more than 2 feet long, 3 inches wide and weighing 15¼ ounces. According to the chief of the institution, this method is entirely satisfactory and is free from the pernicious effects that often follow the ordinary treatment.

"During the spanking process," says the warden, "the prisoner has no time to brood—to store away in his mind vicious thoughts and grow mentally one sided as he grows physically weaker, for all of his time and thoughts are concentrated into one spot for a minute or two, and when it is over he goes back to his work none the worse for the treatment."—San Francisco Argonaut.

"IT IS VERY SATISFACTORY."

To Wm. McCabe, Esq., Managing Director, North American Life Assurance Co., Toronto:

DEAR SIR,—Your official notice came duly to hand, apprising me of the results obtainable upon my 15 year endowment Policy in your Company for $1,000 which matured on the 8th inst. Of the various options you have given me viz:

Cash value	$1,564 25
Paid-up Policy, payable at my death, for	2,560 00
Yearly Income for life of	166 20

I have decided upon the cash value; and it gives me pleasure to testify that, as I anticipated it would be when I took out the policy, IT IS VERY SATISFACTORY. This returns me the full premiums of the 15 years and over 4½ per cent. compound interest, in addition to which you have carried the risk upon my life. In view of the low ing rates of interest which have been obtainable during the latter portion of the period, it is difficult to see how this excellent result could have been surpassed.

Yours sincerely,

THE TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY.

Keadry, M.P. He referred to the pleasure it gave him to meet with Court Peterborough, and especially on this occasion, he being amongst the oldest members of the court. He assured the company of the honour he felt in representing this riding in the Dominion Parliament, and expressed the wish to be able to show any of his constituents the city of Ottawa should they meet him in that place. He felt that the Houses of Parliament of this country of ours would compare very favourably with any other legislature in the world, and he felt sure the new Governor-General would ably fill his high office.

Bro. Watson, vice-chairmain, in proposing the toast of the Army, Navy and Volunteers, spoke of his long connection with military matters, and of his desire to do his utmost in promoting the welfare and upholding the honour of his country.

Lieut. Col. Bell on rising, thanked the Chairman for his kind invitation to be present, and respond to this toast. He congratulated the Court on the noble work done by the Order, and by the Court which was the banner Court of the Province. Being a society man, though not a Forester, he was not ignorant of the fact that the C. O. F. was the means of relieving a great deal of affliction and distress. He earnestly hoped that the Order would continue to prosper. Britain, he said, was the mistress of the seas, and her navy is the backbone of British supremacy. It only required a twist of the lion's tail for England to show to the world that she was as wide awake as ever, as has been evidenced on more than one occasion during the last two or three years. He had no hesitancy in saying that the army at the present day is fully as great, if not superior to what it was in days gone by. The bravery of the British soldiers is never questioned. We are all proud to be a part of the great national army, and we know that when occasion offers, Canadian soldiers will show equal bravery with that of the mother land. (Cheers). The militia force of Canada is being taken hold of and placed in a position that it never has yet occupied and is now equipped with arms of the most modern make. He asked the Foresters and their friends to assist the officers of the local force and to take an interest in the Battalion in order to make it second to none in the province, and one that would maintain the honour of the town and country.

Capt. Dennistoun also warmly expressed his thanks for the pleasure afforded him. It was his first meeting with the Foresters and from what he had seen they were a credit to the Order. Referring to the subject of the toast he pointed out, there were over 211,000 men in the British Army, 24,000 in the Navy, and 304,000 in militia forces, or over 700,000 men directly engaged in the defence of the Empire. It is a fact that we should be proud of, and could speak of with enthusiasm—the condition of the Army and Navy of Great Britain at the present time. Great Britain never was better prepared, and this had been helped to a considerable extent by the fact that it has been a favourite pastime of some of the foreign powers—and our neighbours have also been to blame in this particular—to twist the lion's tail. The very fact that we have been successful has not aroused the admiration, but the envy, of our national competitors. Speaking for himself only, the speaker said he had no confidence in any Anglo-Saxon alliance based on sentiment only. He felt that it was in the heart of the American people that Great Britain was courting an alliance as an advantage to herself. It was the duty of all Canadians to see to it that our Canadian forces are placed on a more efficient basis than ever before.

Our "Merchantile and Manufacturing Interests." was proposed by Vice-Chairman, Bro. N. Lash.

Bro. Robert Fair acknowledged the toast by complimenting the Order and Court Peterborough on the good work accomplished during the past twenty years, and it had his warmest sympathy.

Bros. Alex. Gibson, R. McWhinnie and A. H. Stratton also responded, referring to Peterborough's enviable mercantile position.

Bro. A. McFarlane felt that it was England's manufacturers more than anything else that had placed her in the position she holds to-day, and that this in time would refer to Canada also.

Bro. A. McCallum thought that Canada held a unique position. It was said that England was too conservative while the States were too much the opposite, and Canada was a combination of the two, and was as is characteristic of the Scotchmen, a little cautious. He believed that Canada had a bright future before it and it behooved all Canadians to take a deep interest in our manufacturing interests.

Capt. R. M. Dennistoun here gave his ever acceptable ditty, "Drill Ye Tarriers Drill."

Vice Chairman Comstock proposed the toast of the learned professions, which was responded to by Mr. W. F. Johnston who in a humorous speech upheld the merits of the law. Bro. W. H. Walkey for the teaching profession, said he was glad that his vocation was now classed with the learned profession and felt that it should be the first of all professions. Dr. Rose also briefly and pleasantly responded.

Mr. J. H. Smith proposed the toast of "Our sister Courts." Bro. Wilson, C.R., of Court Langton, and Bro. Harris, C.R., of Court Young, Peterborough, happily responded wishing Court Peterborough all success.

Bro. Hillier was then asked to propose the toast of "Our Sister Societies." This brought to their feet Thos. Tapse for Court St. Peter, C. O. F.; Jas. Mulholland, A. O. U. W.; A. Allison, I. O. F.; Thos. Stenton, S. O. E., B. S. and Robt. Weir, of the Orange Association. They one and all congratulated Court Peterborough for the work she is doing and has been doing and wished her and the Order continued prosperity.

Mr. A. Allison then proposed the toast of the evening, that of Court Peterborough No. 29, C. O. F. He stated that the present occasion was the first of its nature in Peterborough and great credit was due to the Court in this respect as it was a means of promoting social intercourse and good feeling.

The toast was heartily honoured and responded to by Bros. N. Lash and W. H. Watson, who are among the oldest members of the Court and Order in Peterborough. They related incidents showing some of the hardships under which the members in the early days of the Court had laboured and compared its present standing with that of twenty years ago.

Bros. Kingdon, Barrett, Hooper and Bryne responded as well.

Bro. A. D. Russell, in a happy little address, proposed the toast of the Right Worthy High Court, which he said was now in the 20th, annual session at Brantford. Bros. R. J. Mitchell, A. McFarlane, and A. Rose responded. It was pointed out whilst money had to be borrowed to pay the first death claim that there was now a surplus of over $700,000, every dollar of which is invested in Canada, and in the best securities. The fact of their having this surplus went to show that the management of the order was sound, and that the officers were men of business ability and integrity. Bro. Hardwick proposed the toast of the press which was responded to by representations of the Review and Examiner. Bro. John Fanning was then asked to propose the toast of the Ladies. Bro. J. H. Smith responded fittingly and eloquently.

The names of J. H. Yelland and John Sim were also coupled with this toast.

Bro. W. F. Johnston proposed the health of the Chairman, which was most heartily drunk.

Bro. Nesbitt, replying, spoke of the immense strides the court had taken during the past twenty years. In life insurance between twenty-eight and thirty thousand dollars had been paid, and in relief between fifteen and twenty thousand dollars. The court had grown from a mere handful to over 330 members in good standing, and was the premier court of the Order.

The company then sang "God Save the Queen" and "Auld Lang Syne," and thus was brought to a close the delightfully successfully celebration of the 20th anniversary of grand old Court Peterborough.

THE HAUNTS AND HOMES OF SIR WALTER SCOTT,

THEIR INFLUENCE UPON HIS LIFE AND LITERATURE

Eloquently Set Forth in a Lecture by Rev. Alex. McMillan—A Delightful Evening in St. Paul's Church.

Last night Rev. Alex. McMillan, B. D., pastor of St. Enoch's church, Toronto, gave a most able and interesting lecture in St. Paul's church, under the auspices of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society. The subject was "The Haunts and Homes of Sir Walter Scott," and the lecturer handled the subject in a most able manner, investing it with an interest that will in turn deepen the interest of his hearers in the works of this great genius.

There was not a very large audience present, and those that did attend were principally ladies.

Sheriff Hall occupied the chair, and previous to the lecture the doxology was sung, and prayer offered by Rev. Mr. McMillan. A duet, "Rock of Ages," was sung by Mrs. Main and Miss Montgomery. Miss Falconer also sang very sweetly "The Songs my Mither Sang."

The speaker began by saying that every Scottish heart warmed at the name of Walter Scott. But it was not of him as a Scotchmen that he would speak, but as a great genius, a king of literature, of whom and whose works no person having a claim to culture could afford to be ignorant. He would only bring Walter Scott before them in one aspect, that in relation to his environment—he was at once the creature and master of his environment, Shakespere, a master mind was not subject but superior to environment. The speaker then went on to take his audience to the "Haunts and Homes of Walter Scott," and show how they affected him, and his writings. George Square, Edinburg, in 1774, became the birthplace of Walter Scott. His father was a strict Calvanist in religion and his favourite study was church history. Scott's novel, Red Gauntlet, was autobiographical and contained a strongly limned picture of Sir Walter's father who sprang from a hardy and freebooting border race, whose strong characteristics of dry humor and prompt decision of nature were reproduced in their descendant, Sir Walter Scott. His mother was of the Haliburtons of Dryburgh, a cultured family, and the qualities of both parents were conserved in the great genius, whose pure and lofty literature was a reflection of the influence of his home. At the Royal High School in Edinburgh Walter Scott was not a good student in the orthodox sense, but he was a voracious reader, whose wonderful memory never seemed to forget anything he had ever heard. He delighted little in this haunt, but he loved the heathy plain in the vicinity, where his tales that thrilled his playmates embodied many of the heroes that his novels have made immortal. Even Scott's truancy, which he spent in the bracken of Blackford, laid the foundation of that habit of observation of nature and scenery that developed later in the striking descriptive passages that abound in his works, and to this particular haunt is due his descriptive inspiration—an inspiration that justified Ruskin's description of Scott and Turner as the two greatest landscape painters of the world—one with the pen, the other with the brush. Walter Scott's first love story was associated with Gray Friars Church, when he first met a Scottish maiden, and though the association was only temporary, her memory and influence never passed from the poet's life, she was the original of Lillias Red Gauntlet, in the novel of that ilk as Sir Walter himself was the original of Allan Fairford. Not far from this was another haunt, the ancient parliament house of Scotland, now devoted to the law where he was the chief clerk to the Court of Session, for many years of his life; he used the knowledge here gained to paint in many of his characters, the comedy, sario-comedy and tragedy of the law. The trial scene of Effie Deans in the "Heart of Midlothian," was described as, apart from the trial scene in the Merchant of Venice, the most powerful description of a trial extant. Another of Scott's Homes and Haunts was the south country whose glamour hung over his whole life, which was saturated with its folk lore, and here he gathered the material for his work on Scottish minstrelsy.

Here in later life, when he became rich and famous, his beloved Abbotsford was built and in the low country his intimacy with the people and their habits served as materials for the splendid pictures of farm and domestic life that adorn the pages of many of his works. The familiar story of the failure of Scott's publishing house, of the poet's heroic struggle to pay every farthing of the indebtedness in which, by the failure he became involved, his failing health, his going abroad, his going home to die at his beloved Abbotsford, and his being laid at rest in his last home, Dryburgh, were eloquently detailed.

The lecture was a most enjoyable one, and was illustrated by the excellent reading of many passages from the great poet's works. No sort of synopsis can give it any kind of justice.

At the conclusion, Miss Falconer sang with fine effect the sweetly plaintive "Bonnie Doon," and a cordial vote of thanks, moved by Rev. J. G. Potter, and seconded by Mr. J. A. Fife, was passed.

JOIN THE CROWDS!

We beg to Announce that during the Underwriters' Auction Fire Sales, in Montreal, of the entire stock of

MESSRS. McINTYRE, SON & CO.,

We were among the largest purchasers of Linen Tablings, Linen Table Cloths, Table Napkins, Towels, Towellings, Bath Towels, Glass Towellings, Tea Cloths, Hem-stitched Handkerchiefs, Kid Gloves, Silks, Etc. MESSRS. McINTYRE, SON & CO. are known throughout the whole Dominion for carrying only goods of the very Highest Grades and although these goods were sold by the FIRE UNDERWRITERS, AT AUCTION, only a very small proportion was in reality damaged, and that but slightly. In order to clear these goods out quickly before the advent of our regular spring season we have commenced a Sale of these Purchases at a Great Deal Less than McIntyre, Son & Co's Wholesale Prices.

In addition to this BIG SALE we will continue our Annual Sale of LADIES' WHITE WEAR, which so far has proved a trade event and every garment we offer is worthy of special mention and notice.

It would be impossible to quote a list of prices in this announcement as the stock is so large and varied, but we will simply say it will far exceed any previous sale of Linens ever held in Peterborough and those who act promptly will fare best.

NOT DUE TO FRICTION

But to the Fear That an Attack May Be Made Upon Her Life.

QUEEN CANCELS FRENCH VISIT.

Constant Personal Attacks Have Been Made Upon Her Majesty by a French Newspaper, Which May Have Its Effect Upon the Half-Demented —A Loss to the Riviera— Cable News.

London, March 1.—The correspondent of The New York World cabled the following to his paper yesterday: "The World correspondent hears to-night that Queen Victoria has practically decided to abandon her projected visit to the Riviera. She had arranged to start March 8.

"This change of plans is not due to any friction with France, but because of the constant personal attacks by which her advent has been heralded in The Nicois Journal.

"Remembering the assassination of the Empress of Austria, it is feared that these attacks may incite some half-demented person to make an attempt on the Queen's life, the mere shock of which might prove fatal at her advanced age.

"The Queen is loth to give up her holiday, and may reconsider her present intention, which is to remain at home. Should she adhere to it the loss to the Riviera hotelkeepers will be enormous, as the bulk of the intending English visitors will follow her example."

SHOT BY SHARPSHOOTERS.

The Filipino Marksmen Seriously Wound a Captain and Private of the 20th Kansas Volunteers.

Manila, March 1.—The rebels at Malabon fired upon the cruiser Callao from the jungle yesterday while Admiral Dewey was visiting the Monadnock. Three shells were dropped by the monitor into the Malabon church, demolishing the structure and killing a number of rebels who were inside.

A factory at Malolos is reported to be running day and night to supply ammunition for the insurgents.

The cruiser Charleston and the gunboat Concord have gone on a ten days' cruise, presumably looking for filibusters. It is believed that arms are being landed in small quantities at northern ports.

The commissioners appointed by President McKinley to study the conditions in the islands are expected to arrive here on Saturday.

There has been the usual desultory firing along various parts of the line, but the only casualties yesterday were Captain David S. Elliott of Co. G, 20th Kansas Volunteers, and a private of the same regiment. They are both seriously wounded. They were shot by the enemy's sharpshooters near Caloocan.

Is Japan Filibustering?

Madrid, March 1.—The Reforma asserts it has received letters from reliable sources as Manila, saying that 30 cannon, 30,000 rifles and several million cartridges from Japan have been landed at Sual, on the Gulf of Lingayen, on the west coast of the Island of Luzon, and about 100 miles from Manila, and have been taken thence to Malolos, the seat of the rebel Government.

The Reforma adds: "Japan evidently intends to act toward the Americans in the Philippines as the Americans acted toward the Spaniards in Cuba."

WILL PROTECT HER PEOPLE.

Baron Von Buelow Makes a Statement About Germany in China.

Berlin, March 1.—During the session yesterday of the budget committee of the Reichstag the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Baron von Buelow, made a statement relative to affairs in China. He said that in view of the anti-foreign irritation, particularly the fact that several Germans were grossly insulted and afterwards assaulted at Tientsin last Saturday, he had instructed the German minister at Pekin, Baron von Heyking, to make it perfectly clear that if such acts were not severely punished, or if there was a recurrence of such acts, grave consequences would ensue for the Chinese Government. He added: "We do not intend to interfere in the internal affairs of China; but duty compels us to protect the lives and property of Germans."

Minister von Buelow said that unless the claims of German subjects in Morocco were speedily settled the demands for such settlement would be supported by German warships.

He referred to Cuba, and said the German firm of Schneider & Fischer claimed 2,500,000 marks, and the firm of Lobecs, their successors, claimed 1,000,000 marks compensation for losses during the war, while other claims aggregated 800,000 marks. It would not be easy, the Minister pointed out, to secure redress, but the German Government would endeavor to see that Germans did not come off any worse than others.

The Foreign Minister then discussed the question of Samoa, saying that "we shall hold to the act of 1889, and we shall not allow the rights which that act gave us to be curtailed or our interests to suffer diminution. But we shall also respect the rights accruing to others by virtue of the Samoan Act."

Anglo-German Relations.

Berlin, March. 1.—The Minister of Foreign Affairs, Baron von Buelow, replying in the Reichstag yesterday to a question regarding Anglo-German commercial relations, said Great Britain, in February, 1898, communicated to the German Government the draft of an extensive treaty, which was carefully examined and answered by a counterdraft, to which no reply has yet been received.

Another Step Towards Revision.

Paris, March 1.—The Senate yesterday, by a vote of 115 to 25, adopted the principle of the trial revision bill.

Cession of the Philippines.

Madrid, March 1.—The Senate, by a vote of 190 to 118, yesterday rejected the amendment to the bill ceding the Philippine Islands to the United States.

Blames Germany for It All.

London, March 1.—The Daily Graphic publishes this morning from a Samoa correspondent a story of recent events there, attributing the whole trouble to the attempts of Germany to upset the Berlin treaty, and to secure supremacy in the islands.

THE POPE ILL.

Had a Prolonged Fainting Spell on Tuesday—The Receptions for March 2 Cancelled.

Rome, March 1.—The Pope had a prolonged fainting fit at 9 o'clock last night. His Holiness had a fatiguing day on Monday, receiving congratulations on the approaching anniversary of his coronation, and complained of the cold, which has been intense for two days. Yesterday morning the Pontiff complained of a pain in his side. Dr. Lapponi found some fever and ordered the patient to remain in bed and take a complete rest. The physician has since visited the Pope three times. It is almost certain that the Pontificial reception and ceremonies fixed for March 2 will be countermanded.

Fears of Pneumonia.

London, March 1.—The Rome correspondent of The Daily Mail says: "It is feared the Pope has pneumonia and will not recover. Cardinal Croglia, Doyon of the Sacred College, has been in the apartment of His Holiness the entire evening."

March 2 Receptions Cancelled.

Rome, March 1.—Cardinal Rampolla, Papal Secretary of State, paid several visits to the Pope in the course of the day. The receptions for March 2 and the service in the Papal chapel fixed for the following day have been countermanded, but the diplomatic dinner, arranged for Thursday, the invitations to which have been issued by Cardinal Rampolla, will be given.

Italy Gets Her Slice.

Rome, March 1.—The Famfulla announces that China has granted Italy a 90-year lease of Sanmun Bay, in the Province of Chekiang.

U. S. Will Protect Germans.

Washington, March 1.—At the instance of the German Government, the President has consented to take under the protection of the United States army and navy commanders at Manila and other Philippine points the lives and property of German subjects resident there. The explanation of this movement is the wish of the German Government to release such German war vessels as are now stationed in the Philippines for service on the Chinese coast, where they are believed to be needed.

Would Gladly Come to Canada.

Ottawa, March 1.—Mr. C. O. Swanson, Government immigration agent, was at the Brunswick yesterday, en route for his home in Waterville, Que. He has just returned from a visit to the Scandinavian settlements in Dakota, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and states that there are hundreds of families in these States who would gladly come to Canada, but who have not the money to do so.

THE LEGISLATURE

Budget Debate Was Concluded in the House on Tuesday.

THE ASSEMBLY IN SUPPLY.

Votes for Lieutenant-Governor's Office, Executive Council and Attorney-General's Department, Administration of Justice, Department of Education and Department of Public Works Passed.

Toronto, March 1.—The debate on the budget yesterday afternoon came to an abrupt termination. Mr. McLaughlin, who held the floor when the House adjourned on Thursday last, resumed his remarks, and spoke for about 45 minutes. No one on the Government side being anxious to reply, Mr. Fox of West Victoria followed him in a brief speech, and the motion to go into supply was carried on division. In supply a number of items under the head of "civil government" were approved of, no serious opposition being offered except in the case of the salary of the Division Court inspector, for whom some members of the Opposition appear to have a rooted aversion.

The Government will probably bring down its revenue bill to-day.

The House in committee of supply, with Mr. Stratton (West Peterboro) in the chair, passed these votes:

Lieutenant-Governor's office, $3,780.

Executive Council and Attorney-General's Department, $20,650.

Administration of Justice, $442,796.

Department of Education, $19,660.

Department of Public Works, $18,750.

Bills Introduced.

The following bills were introduced yesterday:

Mr. Jessop—To amend the San Jose Scale Act, so as to enable the county council instead of the Minister of Agriculture to appoint the inspectors for the purpose of the act.

Mr. Whitney—Respecting village of Winchester, to enable that village to raise $10,000 for the purpose of granting aid to the construction of a pork packing business.

Mr. McKay—To enable townships to be divided into wards, the ward system having been abolished as to all townships in 1898.

Mr. Pattullo—To incorporate Ontario Historical Society. It incorporates Hon. G. W. Ross, LL.D., hon. president; James H. Coyne, B.A., president; D. B. Read, Q.C., and John Ojijatekha Brant-Sero, elected vice-presidents; David Boyle, secretary; B. E. Charlton, treasurer; together with Henry Scadding and other persons named as ex-officio honorary elected members, to be a body corporate under the name of the Ontario Historical Society. It enables local historical and pioneer societies to affiliate with the main society. The publications of the local societies are to be sent to the Ontario Historical Society, and if an affiliated society ceases to exist its library, museum and other property is to immediately becomes vested in the Ontario Historical Society. In the event of the Ontario Historical Society ceasing to exist its property is to be vested in Her Majesty.

Mr. Taylor—To provide that instead of the clerks of the local municipalities sending a copy of the whole assessment roll to the county clerk they only send the totals of the various columns of the assessment roll.

Mr. Malcolm—To amend Municipal Act to enable persons who go into the House of Industry to convey their property to the corporation in order to provide for their maintenance in the House of Industry.

ASSEMBLY NOTES.

The standing orders committee yesterday passed the petition of Charles Miller re the Toronto Elevated Railway Company, on the understanding that it shall provide for York County only. Other bills were passed.

The private bills committee considered the bill regarding the amalgamation of the Toronto General Trusts Company and the Trusts Corporation of Ontario. After much discussion and an array of figures and comparisons, an adjournment was made until Friday.

A deputation of the bankers' section, Board of Trade, consisting of Messrs. Kirkland of the Bank of Montreal, Walker of the Bank of Commerce, Wilkie of the Imperial Bank and Coulson of the Dominion Bank, waited on the Attorney-General yesterday to lay their case before the Government regarding proposed legislation. A discussion took place, the Provincial Secretary taking part.

Mr. John R. Shaw, secretary of the Canadian Furniture Manufacturers' Association, has issued a circular calling for a general meeting at the Windsor Hotel, Stratford, on Tuesday, March 7, at 1.30 o'clock. The Crawford Compensation bill will be discussed, also the advisability of a furniture exhibit at Paris.

In committee yesterday the bill to incorporate the Mutuality Insurance Co. was discussed, but Hon. J. M. Gibson objected to it on several grounds, one that the inspector of insurance stated the scheme of the bill was entirely contrary to the act. Mr. Marter stated the clauses were put in after careful thought, but he had a conference with Mr. Hunter, and when the second reading is reached he will withdraw it.

Two Railroad Men Killed.

Peoria, Ill., Feb. 28.—Agent Ryan and Operator Wilton of the Peoria, Decatur & Evansville Railroad at Makinaw Station, were killed on the Big Four near Tremont last night. They were returning home from Tremont on a railway velocipede and the train, an extra, ran them down, killing both men instantly.

Acute Rheumatism

Pains in the Feet and Limb—A Complete Cure Accomplished by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"For a number of years I was afflicted with acute rheumatism in my left side and all the way down my limb into my foot. I live five blocks from my work and had to stop and rest several times in going and coming. I could get no relief from my trouble and was on the point of giving up my job when I happened to hear of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I purchased a bottle of this medicine and a vial of Hood's Pills and began taking them. Before I had half finished them I was relieved and it was not long before I was completely cured. I never lose an opportunity to praise Hood's Sarsaparilla, for my cure meant a great deal to me, as I have a family and must always be at my post." WILLIAM HASKETT, yardman, Grand Trunk Railroad depot, Brantford, Ontario.

OUR OTTAWA LETTER.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Ottawa, Feb. 25th.—The national financial statement for the first seven months of the current fiscal year has been published, and the figures are a fitting continuance of the unbroken record of progress and development which has marked the past two or three years of our country's history. Compared with the corresponding period of last year, there is an increase of $11,055,000, this year's figures reaching the unprecedented total of $196,017,000, as against $184,962,000 in 1898. While exports decreased by $4,703,000, the balance of trade between imports and exports was thus $17,123,000 in favour of Canada. In the seven months' period of 1898 99 we exported $106,570,000, and imported $89,447,000, while during the corresponding period of 1897-98 we exported $111,274,000, and imported $735,698,000. The duty collected on imports was $14,408,080 and $12 198,515 respectively, an increase for the seven months of $2,200,515. For the month of January, 1899, the figures show exports of $7,667,000, as against $10,654,000 last year, and imports of $10,485,000, as compared with $9,857,000.

It is from figures such as these, that Sir Charles Tupper and his political friends must obtain evidence of a fulfilment of their prophecies of commercial ruin and national disaster, which they so confidently predicted would follow the accession of the Liberals to power. If they succeed in convincing their supporters of the correctness of those predictions, figures can indeed be made to prove anything.

LOCAL POLITICS IN NEW BRUNSWICK.

The local elections in New Brunswick are over, and while there had never been any reasonable doubt that the Emmerson Government would be sustained, no one anticipated the practical annihilation of the Conservative party which was the result of the poll, for out of a total membership of forty-six there are only four straight Conservatives, and two Independents, who will support the Government. For many years the affairs of the province have been in the hands of a coalition Government in which the minority have had representation considerably in excess of their numerical strength either in the House or in the Province, but this election was run upon straight party lines, the Federal Opposition leaders having decided that this would give them a better opportunity to capture the treasury benches. How wofully their plans have miscarried is shown by the result of last Saturday's vote.

THEY DO NOT SING THE OLD SONG.

Of course the Opposition has taken it all back now, and the Mail-Empire, which last week was most emphatic and insistent in declaring that it was to be a fight upon straight party lines, now declares that "a coalition victory is not a Liberal victory, notwithstanding anything that the dominant Federal party may say." Just where the "coalition" business comes in is not very clear, for Hon. A. R. Dickey, Minister of Justice in the Tupper cabinet, states his belief to the Ottawa Citizens that the Conservatives who rallied to the support of the Emmerson Government would now definitely remain in the Liberal camp. The one grain of comfort which the Opposition has so far succeeded in extracting from the situation is the reassuring announcement that "Mr. Foster is not worrying." That's good.

THE WAY THE TARIFF WORKS.

If it is a fact that the present Government has made no substantial progress in a readjustment of the tariff in the interest of Canadian industries, possibly Opposition speakers and writers can explain how such a tremendous impetus has been given to home manufacturers since that readjustment became imperative. Take for instance the case of a certain factory in Western Ontario, where raw material from the United States is used to a large extent. Under the old tariff this material was so highly taxed that it could not be bought in in large quantities, but at the present time the raw material comes in free, with the result that two hundred hands now find steady employment where only one hundred were working two years ago. This is but a sample of what is occurring all over Canada, and the people know it, for they have a personal experience in their very midst. Not a day goes by but word comes from some part of the Dominion of new and important industries starting up and old ones greatly developing, and all as a result of "the disastrous trade policy of the Grits."

HOW'S THIS MR. KIPLLING?

British farmers who have got their ideas of the climatic conditions of Canada, from the old orthodox pictures of winter here, and from Mr. Kipling's poetic imagery, must have been somewhat startled by a statement, which appeared the other day in a leading English agricultural weekly, to the effect that a remarkable agricultural experiment was successfully tried during the past summer in the far North-west. The members of a Roman Catholic mission at Fort Providence succeeded in reaping "a very fine wheat harvest," the period between seed time and harvest having been ninety-one days. Fort Providence is on the McKenzie River, just west of the Great Slave Lake, in a latitude something over 62 degrees—the latitude, that is of the Faroe Islands, Southern Greenland, and Hudson Strait. It is about 600 miles north of Edmonton, in western Alberta, 1100 miles north of the international boundary, and less than 200 miles south of the latitude of Dawson City.

BOTH COWARD AND BULLY.

The Terrible Story Told by the Second Mate of the Galatea.

Dartmouth, Eng., March 1.—The British steamer Garton, Captain Willis, from Brunswick, via Norfolk, on Feb. 9, for Rotterdam and Bremen, arrived here yesterday, having on board the second officer and six of the crew of the British barque Galatea, Captain Lewis, of St. John, N.B., from Turk's Island, on Jan. 30, with salt, for Boston, reported on Feb. 18 to have been abandoned, dismantled and waterlogged. The Galatea, it appears from the report of her second officer, was abandoned on Feb. 15, at which time she was in a sinking condition. The barque had experienced terrible weather, and began to leak rapidly. In spite of the fact that her pumps were kept going, the Galatea made ten inches of water, and at 9 o'clock on the morning of Feb. 15 Captain Lewis, the chief officer, the steward, the stewardess and three seamen left her in the only remaining boat, the others having been stove in during the gale. At the end of four hours the boat was lost sight of in a furious gale, and the second officer considered it impossible for her to have weathered the storm.

Captain Lewis, according to the second officer, took with him all the provisions, and left the remainder of the crew on board the sinking ship, although, he adds, there was room for all in the boat, which hung about the barque until 1.30 p.m., and then rowed on.

All the rescued members of the crew of the Galatea confirm the story told by the second officer. They add that the captain, with his revolver in his hand, threatened to "drill a hole" in the first man entering the boat without his orders.

SOUTH PERTH.

Mr. Nelson Monteith Elected by About Thirty Majority.

Stratford, March 1,—Mr. Nelson Monteith, the Conservative candidate, was elected to represent South Perth in the Local Legislature yesterday by a majority of 30 votes, so far as could be learned here last night. The biggest surprise was in St. Mary's town, which at the general elections in March gave Mr. Moscrip 69 of a majority. This has been turned into a majority for Mr. Monteith of 46. Other divisions have lessened the majorities for the Reform candidate; in fact, the only increase was in South Easthope, where the increase was about 60. There were two chief causes for Mr. Stock's defeat. The Conservatives refused to fight the battle on the political issues of the day, but instead made a house-to-house canvass, raising the sympathy cry and claiming that the High Court judges had virtually stolen the seat from Mr. Monteith and had given it to Mr. Moscrip. The other cry was that Mr. Stock was an outsider, he living in Tavistock, and on the opposite side of the road from South Perth. Besides this, there was a woeful lack of organization in the Reform ranks, as is indicated by the result in St. Mary's, while the Conservative organization was complete.

A G.N.W. press despatch gives the following returns of the election:

Following are the majorities:

For Monteith—St. Mary's 46, Mitchell 71, Blanchard 107, Fullarton 195, Logan 131—total 470.

For Stock—South Easthope 248, Hibbert 79, Downie 118—total 440.

Net majority for Monteith 30.

The death is announced of James Tyson, who was said to be the richest man in Australia. He began life as a butcher, at a salary of $150 a year. In 1855 he went into sheep ranching and made an enormous fortune ont of it. In 1892, when Queensland was in such desperate financial straits, he offered to lend the colony $2,500,000.

Vim Vigor Vitality

DR. WARD'S BLOOD & NERVE PILLS

VIM—to work and to win—to keep a sane mind in a sound body—to laugh at worry.

VIGOR—to ward off disease—to conquer obstacles—to transmit health and strength to your posterity.

VITALITY—to resist the fearful strain and tension of modern life—to make up for the constant drains of overwork. Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills contain all these essential qualities on the user.

THIS EVIDENCE IS AMPLE PROOF.

Before using Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills I felt weak, nervous and run down. I had lost weight steadily for some time; my circulation was poor; hands, feet and limbs were cold. I always felt weak and my muscles trembled. Now, after the use of one box of Dr. Ward's Pills, I feel like my old self. I have gained five pounds in weight and 100 per cent. in cheerfulness. I now walk firmly, my muscular system is strong and my blood circulates vigorously. I have more comfort than I have experienced in years. Dr. Ward's Pills have done more for me than any medicine I ever took.

Mr. M. T. Wigle

Of Kingsville, Essex Co.

CURED OF ITCHING PILES OF 23 YEARS STANDING

M. T. Wigle, better known to every one in the vicinity as "Uncle Mike," was troubled for over 23 years with itching piles. At times he was so bad he would have to quit work. The irritation became so intense with constant rubbing that they became ulcerated and would bleed. He had been treated by many physicians, but found nothing that gave him relief. Reading in the paper the cure of a friend who had suffered in a like manner, and been cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment, he procured a box. After the third application he got such relief that he had the first comfortable night's sleep he had enjoyed in years. The one box made a complete cure, and he says he would not be without it for $50 a box if it could not be replaced. Mr. Wigle is a wealthy farmer, well known in the community in which he resides. It is over two years since he was afflicted, and he has never been troubled since.

Physicians fail to make a cure when Dr. Chase's Ointment gave Immediate Relief. . . .

ANOTHER MARINE DISASTER.

Str. Moravia Stranded and Broken in Two—Crew of 30 Lost.

Gloucester, Mass., March 1. — The schooner Mondego, Captain William Corkum, arrived here yesterday from a shipping trip, and brings news of the loss of the steamer Moravia, Captain Witt, which sailed from Hamburg Jan. 18 for Boston, but put into Falmouth, Eng., short of coal, clearing from the latter port Jan. 25. Captain Corkum reports that he sighted the Moravia on the northeast bar of Sable Island, broken in two. Evidently she had struck in the storm of Feb. 12 and 13, and, as the place where she stranded is 12 miles from shore, and as nothing could be seen of the crew two days after Captain Corkum sighted the wreck, he thinks the men are probably lost. The Moravia had no passengers. She carried a crew of about 30. The value of the vessel was about $100,000.

HEART DISEASE.

SOME FACTS REGARDING THE RAPID INCREASE OF HEART TROUBLE.

Do not be Alarmed, but Look for the Cause.

Heart troubles, at least among the Americans, are certainly increasing, and while this may be largely due to the excitement and worry of American business life, it is more often the result of weak stomachs, of poor digestion.

Real organic disease is incurable, but not one case in one hundred of heart trouble is organic.

The close relation between heart trouble and poor digestion is because both organs are controlled by the same great nerves, the Sympathetic and the Pneumogastric.

In another way also the heart is affected by the form of poor digestion, which causes gas and fermentation from half-digested food. There is a feeling of oppression and heaviness in the chest caused by pressure of the distended stomach on the heart and lungs, interfering with their action, hence arises palpitation and short breath.

Poor digestion also poisons the blood, making it thin and watery, which irritates and weakens the heart.

The most sensible treatment for heart trouble is to improve the digestion and to insure the prompt assimilation of food.

This can be done by the regular use after meals of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which may be found at most drug stores and which contain valuable, harmless digestive elements in a pleasant, convenient form.

It is safe to say that the regular persistent use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at meal time will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

Full sized package of these tablets sold by druggists at 50 cents. Little book on stomach troubles mailed free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

Tom Allen's Shot Killed.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 28,—Tom Allen, an old-time prize fighter, at one time heavyweight champion of the world, is under arrest at the Four Courts, charged with murder. Tom Coupry, whom Allen shot in the course of a fracas in the ex-prize fighter's saloon, died at the City Hospital shortly before midnight last night. Allen declares that he thought Coupry was going to shoot him, and for that reason used his revolver.

MR. FRANK DODGE

Says His Life was Saved by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto Feb, 27.—Mr. Frank Dodge, of North Maupeberg, Ont., has been visiting here recently. He is a splendid specimen of Canadian manhood, standing more than six feet high "in his stockings" erect and muscular.

"I was a different man two years ago," said he to a friend to day. The truth is I would have died of Kidney Complaint, if it hadn't been for Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I had been treated by physicians and had taken various remedies without getting any better. I read of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and decided to try them. I did so, and was thoroughly cured in a couple of weeks.

War Enquiry to Be Held.

Madrid, Feb. 28.—The Senate yesterday, by a vote of 130 to 7, approved of the motion of Marshall Martinez de Campos, signed by all the Spanish Generals in the Senate, demanding a Parliamentary enquiry into the conduct of the recent wars. The Government supported the motion, and Count d'Almenas strongly opposed it.

Khalifa Is Hungry.

Cairo, Feb. 28.—The War Office has issued a statement, indicating that the Khalifa's recent movements have been made for the purpose of raiding cattle and grain. It is believed that the Dervish force is still in the country southwest of Abaas Island, 160 miles from Omdurman. It is not proposed to send reinforcements to Khartoum at present.

London Rector a Pugilist.

London, Feb. 28.—Rev. Charles Wesley, rector of Grosmont Church, has justified his right to be placed among the English clergymen of pugilistic abilities, several of whom have appeared of late. He broke a workingman's ribs and was charged $75 therefor at the Hereford County Court. The amount the workman claimed was only $4.

Asthma Cure vs. Asthma Relief.

It is a recognized fact among those suffering from asthma that the longer they use the temporary relief asthma remedies which require to be burned the worse they become, until it loses its effect entirely. Clarke's Kola Compound is not among this class, but will cure the worst case of asthma in from 60 to 90 days. Mr. F. J. Painton, proprietor of Painton's Music Store, Vancouver, B. C., writes: "I have been a great sufferer from asthma in its worst form for over 15 years, and had consulted many physicians both in England and Canada, but obtained no relief. A friend of mine who had been cured by the Clarke's Kola Compound advised me to try it, and three bottles have entirely cured me; it is now over two years since my recovery and asthma has not troubled me since; and previous to taking Clarke's Kola Compound I have many nights had to sit up nearly all night. It is truly a wonderful remedy, and it affords me much pleasure in attesting my appreciation of anything so worthy." Clarke's Kola Compound is sold by Ormond & Walsh, druggists, Peterborough. Free sample to be sent to any person. Address The Griffiths & Macpherson Co., 121 Church street, Toronto, or Vancouver, B. C., sole Canadian agents.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1899 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which delights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used. Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. MR. KIPLING IS STILL LOW.

But His Relatives Have Now Renewed Hopes of His Recovery.

New York, March 1.—The relatives and friends of Rudyard Kipling have renewed hopes for his recovery. Although it was impossible to get either Dr. Janeway, Dr. Dunham or Mr. Doubleday, or any other persons from the sick room or in the confidence of the family or physicians, to talk, except in the most non-committal manner, it was evident, both before and after the issue of the 11 o'clock bulletin, that the patient's condition was not so serious as it was in the afternoon. The 11 o'clock bulletin was as follows: "Mr. Kipling has, on the whole, not gained during the day, though the respiratory function has so far improved that the use of oxygen is no longer necessary. The influence of the persisting inflammation in the upper lobes is still manifest."

The statement that the respiratory function has so far improved that the use of oxygen is no longer necessary is taken by the friends of Mr. Kipling to be a most favorable indication.

SPEECH BY MR. SIFTON

A Large Meeting at Perth Addressed by the Minister.

TWO ADDRESSES PRESENTED.

The Hon. Gentleman Reviews the Leading Issues of the Day—The Tariff, the Immigration Policy, the Yukon Administration and the Washington Conference All Thoroughly Dealt With.

Perth, March 1.—At the invitation of the Young Liberal Club of Perth, Hon. Clifford Sifton, Minister of the Interior, spoke in the Town Hall last night on public matters. The hall was filled, notwithstanding the night turned out rainy and prevented people coming in from the country.

An address from the Young Liberal Club of Perth and the county association was read by Mr. E. A. Sheppard, secretary, and presented to Mr. Sifton.

Hon. Mr. Sifton reviewed the leading questions of the day. He dwelt for some time on the tariff policy of the Administration, and claimed that the Government had fulfilled all their pledges regarding it. The tariff had been so changed, especially on textile fabrics, that though more revenue is derived from duties the expansion of trade had lessened the burdens on the people and enabled them to buy more goods than before. The duties on goods from Great Britain were lowered, which had the effect of increasing imports, but no Canadian woollen industry suffered in consequence, for the extra competition stimulated the efforts of our manufacturers, and they were equal to the occasion. He defended the immigration policy of the Government, of which he was in charge, and said that their policy had brought 5,000 people and their belongings from the United States and large detachments from Europe to fill the unoccupied prairies, while the exodus had been stopped. He read an extract from The Mail and Empire, corroborating the latter statement. He touched upon the progressive canal and transportation policy of the Administration, which was reflective of the wants of the day, and which would be the life of the northwest by allowing grain and cattle cheap freightage to the seaports. He explained the policy adopted for making the Yukon administration pay for itself by imposing royalties on the gold output, and said that the result was a surplus under this head so far of over $400,000, and the system had been proved a success. He referred, lastly, to the abrupt breaking up for the present of the international commission at Washington, which was brought about by the United States commissioners declining to arbitrate on the Alaska boundary on the same basis as they had insisted upon being adopted by Great Britain in the Venezuela affair. At this decision of the American members the Canadian commissioners had the convention adjourned until August, so as to lay their case and their action before the people of Canada in the meantime.

Burglary at Weston.

Weston, Feb. 28.—Between 5 and 7 o'clock last night, when Day Operator Hill and Night Operator Rankin were exchanging duties, the Grand Trunk Railway station office was broken into and burglarized. The burglars ransacked all the drawers, and took about $8 in loose change from the till. They broke the handle and combination off the Canadian Express Company's safe, in which was about $40, but the door would not yield to their sledge hammers. Detectives are in search of the perpetrators.

MARKET REPORTS.

Meat Prices Higher—Liverpool Showed Strength and Chicago Prices Advanced—The Prices.

Liverpool, March 1.—The wheat market was stronger yesterday. Spot wheat advanced ½d and futures ½d to 3-8d per cental for the day.

Chicago, March 1.—The wheat futures advanced over ½c again yesterday and closed near the top prices for the session. There was good buying by commission houses, and cables helped the market.

Toronto Live Stock.

Toronto, March 1.—Receipts of live stock at the cattle market yesterday were light—56 carloads, consisting of 819 cattle, 278 sheep, 1,300 hogs and 30 calves. The quality of fat cattle generally was only medium, too many unfinished, and not enough of good quality coming forward. A large number of dealers were on the market; trade was good and prices firm.

Total receipts of live stock for last week: Cattle, 2,225; sheep, 1,043; hogs, 6,617. Weigh scale receipts were $189.55.

SKIN LIKE BABY'S

Skin diseases from the merest pimples to the most obstinate eczema, salt rheum, running sores, are quickly, pleasantly and permanently cured by Dr. Agnew's Ointment—35 cents.

Who does not envy a baby its soft velvety skin? How many suffer from distressing skin diseases—Do you suffer? Have you tetter—salt rheum—scald head—ring worm—eczema—ulcers—blotches on the skin—chronic erysipelas—liver spots and what not else of these distasteful and aggravating disorders which disfigure and discourage? Dr. Agnew's Ointment allays the distressing itching, burning, stinging sensations which are part and parcel of such troubles, and in a thousand cases where internal treatments have failed to heal and eradicate them it has worked wonderful and permanent cures—and no skin disease, no matter of how long standing, has baffled its curative qualities. In cases of chronic eczema it has proved its great worth, and cases are on record where this dread affection has been the birthright of its patient and constant companion until past middle life, and Dr. Agnew's Ointment has cured speedily and permanently. It is a boon to mothers because it is a boon to babyland—scald head and its irritations, which are accompaniments to the teething period, are quickly driven off and restlessness passes away—and where torture reigned with baby this balm brought rest and a cure—it affords instant relief from the itching distress. . . .

Do you suffer from piles—itching, blind, bleeding or ulcerated?—No remedy has brought so quick relief, spared painful surgical operations as Dr. Agnew's Ointment—it has proved itself an absolute cure for piles in all forms and at all stages—one application will relieve the itching, irritating sensations in an instant—and long standing cases disappear after from three to five nights' treatment—the pain and soreness quit you and the tumors vanish.

A lady living in a northern County town writes that for seventeen years she was troubled with salt rheum. She took doctors' treatments and used many lotions without any permanent relief. Reading of the cures made by Dr. Agnew's Ointment, she decided to try it. The first application allayed the irritation and she continued using it—the disease rapidly disappeared and now for two years there has been no sign of a return of it.

The baby of another lady living on Pacific Ave. in Toronto, was terribly afflicted with scald-head and eczema—she tried washes prescribed by her physician, and soaps advertised for such purposes, but the disease remained—Dr. Agnew's Ointment was her good friend; half a box cured the baby and saved herself of troublesome piles which had been the bane of her life since baby's birth.

DR. AGNEW'S CURE FOR THE HEART—Cures palpitation, fluttering, shortness of breath and all heart disorders—relief in 30 minutes.

DR. AGNEW'S CATARRHAL POWDER—Has cured cases of catarrh of 50 years' standing—relieves cold in the head in 10 minutes.

DR. AGNEW'S LIVER PILLS—Stop sick headache—cure constipation, biliousness and liver troubles—pleasant little doses—40 in a box—25 cents. —4

PERMANENT CURE OF A SCALY, SKIN DISEASE.

Mr. Geo. Tribe, of Strafferdville, Ont., cured by B.B.B. 5 years ago of an Itching, Scaly, Skin Disease.

HE HAS NEVER BEEN TROUBLED SINCE.

"FROM a common pimple to the worst scrofulous sore," has been a common way of expressing the range of skin diseases that Burdock Blood Bitters will cure. All those facial eruptions and blotches which disfigure the features are promptly removed by its use, as well as the more severe forms which wreck the health and undermine the system. But B.B.B. works in its own peculiar way. There is nothing of the temporary or transient about the cures B.B.B. makes.

It always builds up the health and strength on the foundation of Pure, Rich Blood, and in consequence the cures it makes are of a permanent and lasting nature.

We again prove the permanency of the cures it makes by the case of Mr. George Tribe, Straffordville, Ont., who wrote the following letter respecting his case.

MR. GEORGE E. TRIBE.

It is Dated February 8th, 1894.

"I have used Burdock Blood Bitters for a severe form of skin disease from which I have been a sufferer for three years.

"I have taken in all six bottles and am now entirely cured.

"I tried various remedies, but none of them did me any good.

"I doctored one year with the best physicians in the land; they pronounced my disease a Scaly Eruption, but could not remove it.

"It came on in red blotches and spread over my body. The skin became dry and formed hard, white scales. The itching was intolerable, but I am now completely cured, and I owe it all to B.B.B. I advise all sufferers to use it, as its equal cannot be found."

GEORGE TRIBE.

Here's what Mr. Tribe says:

July 10th, 1898.

"I have had no return of that terrible skin disease with which I was afflicted some four or five years ago. The cure made by Burdock Blood Bitters then has been permanent, and if you want it I could give you as good a testimonial as ever was published, as my cure was a remarkable one."

GEORGE E. TRIBE.

After reading such testimony as the above, who can doubt the efficacy of B.B.B. in all forms of skin disease.

There is no other remedy that can show cures of such obstinate and chronic diseases. No other medicine can offer so conclusive proofs of these cures being permanent.

Any one troubled with any itching, burning, irritating skin disease can place full reliance on B.B.B. to effect a cure, no matter what other remedies have failed.

B.B.B. is purely vegetable, contains no harsh or injurious drugs and can be taken by the most delicate.

If you would like to hear from Mr. Tribe personally, write him, enclosing stamp for reply, and we have no doubt he would be only too pleased to answer you, giving full details of his case.

THE ODORLESS CREMATORY CLOSET.

I have been appointed Sole Agent for the Odorless Crematory Closet manufactured by the Crematory Closet and General Heating Co., of Hamilton.

This Closet has found a place in many of the best homes in the province, and all who have used it cannot speak too highly of its merits. Medical men speak of it from a sanitary point of view, claiming that, if health is any consideration, no home should be without one. Here are some of the

TESTIMONIALS.

Alliston, March 1st, 1898.

I have had one of your "Crematory Closets" in use now for several weeks and am glad to be able to say that I have found it entirely satisfactory in every respect. I have not been able to detect the slightest odor from it at any time and would not be without it. I am sure it must prove a great convenience to people in the country and in towns where water is not obtainable. Yours respectfully,

JAMES CONWAY.

Sheddon, February 28th, 1898.

I have used it for sometime and find it perfectly odorless. It is a long left want and I believe it will become very popular especially in rural districts, towns and villages where wells are so frequently contaminated by the ordinary closets. I am, yours, etc.

W. H. MORRISON

Medical Superintendent's Office, Sept. 30th, 1897 Asylum for the Insane, Hamilton.

Gentlemen: I had the opportunity of witnessing yesterday the operation of your Odorless Crematory Closet. It had a large accumulation of fecal matter in the pan when the fire was started, and inside of 20 minutes it was all reduced to ashes. There was no odor before or during the operation of consuming the fecal matter, as the ventilation by the flue seems to carry off all odor at once, before it has a chance to vitiate the surrounding atmosphere.

Yours truly. JAMES RUSSELL, M.D.

Binbrook, Sept. 30th, 1897.

Dear Sirs—Having been present at a private test of your new patent closet yesterday afternoon, I beg to express my satisfaction with it in every way. Neither before, during or after the burning out of its contents did I detect the slightest unpleasant odor. I am satisfied it will be a boon to thousands in rural towns, villages and country homes. Yours truly,

M. J. MULLOCK,

VALUABLE Residential Properties FOR SALE

In Peterborough.

Having decided to remove to Manitoba in the spring, I have decided to sell the following valuable properties at prices that should secure ready purchasers:

Parcel No. 1. A Brick Terrace of four houses, adjoining the corner of Sherbrooke and Park streets, two storys, well built with good stone cellars, full size of buildings. Each residence contains six rooms with summer kitchen. This property has always been continuously rented and pays an excellent rate of interest on the investment, and it is practically a new property, being only erected a few years, and is in good condition.

Parcel No. 2. Brick residence corner of Reid and Simcoe. Containing ten rooms. House in good condition with all modern improvements, bath, closets, heated with furnace and lighted with electricity.

Parcel No. 3. Brick dwelling corner Aberdeen and Benson streets, facing Dixon Park, containg seven rooms with summer kitchen. This property was erected last season for myself and occupied by myself. Has hard and soft water in kitchen and is a very comfortable residence. This lot is 100 feet square.

Parcel No. 4. Brick residence, corner Wellesley and Benson streets. Two storeys, seven rooms with kitchen, pleasantly situated adjoining Dixon Park. Hard and soft water in kitchen. This lot is also 100 feet square and is a similar building to parcel No. 3.

Parties desiring a good paying investment or home will find any of these desirable purchases. Particulars and terms, which are reasonable, made known on application to the undersigned.

London Street Accident.

This morning as Mr. E. Corkery, of Ennismore, was driving down the hill by Mrs. T. Bradburn's house with a heavy load of green hard-wood, the sleigh slid around completely upsetting with horses and load in the ditch. It was only through Mr. Corkery being an expert teamster, that he evaded a serious accident, not only to himself but to his horses. As it was one of the team received rather a nasty cut, and no doubt both will be somewhat stiffened up by their late experience.

MRS. BRIGADIER READ,

At the Salvation Army Barracks This Week.

Brigadier Mrs. Read, who is visiting Peterborough on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, March 4th, 5th, and 6th, came into the Army when quite young. She was for five years a Field Captain in the Army, and has been an Officer over 13 years. After five years' evangelistic work, Captain Goodall was promoted to the Staff, and took charge for a year of the Drunken Women's Home in Toronto. After her marriage, Mrs. Read had the oversight of the Auxiliary work, and for a year previous to going with her mother to Newfoundland, was Secretary for the Rescue work in the Dominion. While in Newfoundland she organised the rescue work there, and in the North West took an active part both in Field and Social work.

For two years now Mrs. Reid has been superintendent of the Women's Social Department and League of Mercy work in Canada, Newfoundland and the North-western States, and has travelled thousands of miles conducting meetings in connection with this work and other branch of the Salvation Army's mission.

The League of Mercy is a branch of the Army's work organized in Toronto some years ago, and developed under Mrs. Read's direction. Members of the Army now visit many of the public institutions in Canada, such as prisons, asylums, poor houses, hospitals, etc. Mrs. Read will conduct the following meetings in town:

Saturday—Welcome to Mrs. Brigadier Read.

Sunday—11 a.m., special holiness meeting; 3 p.m., social address. Chair occupied by Alderman Sawers; 7 p.m., address to young men.

Monday—8 p.m.—Subject, League of Mercy and Prison work.

Brigadier Read has a thorough knowledge of the Army's social affairs, and by her wide experience has won the admiration of her audiences. These special meetings should be well attended. All the meetings will be held in the barracks, Simcoe street. Welcome to all. Silver collection.

PARK STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Evangelistic Services Opened on Monday Evening Last.

On Monday night the opening meeting of a series of evangelistic services to be held in the Park street Baptist church during the next two weeks, was well attended. A hearty song service was held before Rev. Vernon H. Cowsert, who is to conduct the services, began his address. His text was Gal. iii, 10, and he first called attention to the foolish and despicable habit some people have of selecting a hypocrite or some weak saint with which to compare their lives, and then flattering themselves with the result of the comparison. The only standard we should measure ourselves by was the law of God. He was confident that if everyone would measures their lives by the Ten Commandments, and the spiritual interpretation of them given by Christ in His sermon on the mount, they would realise that they came under the curse of the law as declared in the text, and needed saving from its awful condemnation.

From the thirteenth verse of the same chapter he showed how God had by laying the weight of condemnation on Jesus Christ, made it possible for everyone to be free from the curse of the law. "Christ had been made a curse for us," and by implicitly trusting in His finished work we could know we were free from the curse of the law.

Just before Mr. Cowsert's address Mrs. J. F. Dingman of Toronto, sang as a solo "I was once far away from the Saviour." Mr. Cowsert will preach again this evening and Mrs. Dingman will sing during the service. The meetings commence at 7.30 and close at 9. The public are cordially invited.

ANOTHER INDUSTRY.

An Endeavour to be Made to have it Locate Here.

Mr. D. S. Cluff of the Thomas Organ and Piano Co., of Woodstock, was a welcome visitor to our town this week. While here he was brought in contact with the town authorities, and was greatly struck with the business facilities which Peterborough offers for factory sites. He was taken in hand by Alderman McWilliams, and made acquainted with the town's resources as regards power, etc., and driven around the town.

The Thomas Organ and Piano Company is a large progressive concern with a rapidly increasing business, and being obliged to increase its manufacturing capacity, it would be to their interests as well as Peterborough's, if they are to locate here.

The Council may take hold of the matter and make an endeavour to secure this promising industry for Peterborough, as it is an old and well established concern of over 50 years standing, employing a large staff, with connections in all the European markets, as well as a large Canadian trade.

FEBRUARY WEATHER NOTES.

Though January is almost always the coldest of the winter months, this year proved an exception. The average daily temperature of February was 3 degrees lower than the previous month January), and 4 or 5 degree lower than the average of February of other years.

The month was ushered in with 9 degrees below zero, and though the weather moderated somewhat for a few days, daily temperatures of below zero began again on the 6th and continued for the next nine days. On the mornings of the 10th and 11th the thermometer marked 18 degrees below, being the lowest of the present winter. During the 10th the temperature never rose higher than 5 degrees below zero. Milder weather ensued from the 15th to the end of the month. The warmest day was the 21st, 42 degrees.

The fall of snow was light, and we did not have more than 12 inches in the aggregate. Snow fell on 9 days. The rainfall was also very light, amounting to only .57 of an inch. Rain fell on 4 days.

Sleighing continued fair until the 15th, after which date it could only be classified as poor, or non existent.

The prevailing winds were from the north and north-west, easterly winds blowing on only 4 days.

The month ended in a rainstorm, and March came in in a lamb-like way.

The local rinks were drawn against Norwood and suffered defeat by two shots.

HOCKEY.

The Executive Committee of the Hockey Club will meet at F. D. Kerr's office, on Hunter street, to-night, at a quarter to eight sharp. A full attendance is requested, as important business will be brought before the meeting.

Pills vs. Putty at the rink to-night at 10 o'clock.

The druggists' hockey team for to-night will be composed as follows:—Goal, Winsyrup Crossley; point, Cough Drop Meharry; cover point, Short Stop O'Connor; forwards, Arsenic Milburn, Antidote Tully, Hoarhound Edmison. Seafoam Best; trainer, Witch Hazel Alexander; manager, Corn Cure Fife.

BARBERS VS. DRYGOODS.

As the winter draws to a close the hockey spirit always runs high in Peterborough. Even the league games do not seem to arouse a great deal of enthusiasm at the beginning of the season and gradually the crowd grows at each match until as March comes in the delirium seizes all classes of citizens and anyone who has ever donned a skate becomes imbued with the idea that he can play hockey—it looks so simple. The telephone bell in the sanctum is kept on the ring as challenges flash over the wire from the different trade teams, the store boys take the fever, which spreads and spreads until it invades the sanctum itself.

Last night as the result of a challenge, the Barbers and Dry Goods men took the ice, parading as follows:

Barbers.		Dry Goods.
W Rundle	goal	W Worham
H Baker	point	R Deane
J Lewis	cover	J Picard
E Mitchell	forwards	Wesley
A Mitchell		Davidson
J Lefevre		Doane
W Meagher		Gemmell

The game started at ten o'clock, as do all these games, and the crowd had "fun for your life" for an hour.

The Mitchell brothers started in and worked a nice bit of combination which resulted in first blood for the Barbers. The blood, however, stirred up the Dry Goods men, and the springiness acquired through counter jumping stood them in good stead. They made the barbers think that cutting the hair of a restive child was a snap to breaking up the charge of that forward line. Two goals did the dry goods men tally in quick succession. Being accustomed to nicking, the barbers thought things were going too smoothly against them, and nicked another point, tieing the score. Both sides then began to "mix it up" and "Hum" Deane took a canter to the fence, which he climbed with a agility which argued that it wasn't the first fence he had mounted in a hurry. He had been participating too vigourously in a mass play along the side, and Referee Willie Crowley made the magic motion which put him out of the game for five minutes. The dry goods men had gotten into the swing of the game, however by this time and tallied three more games before half time.

In the second half the barbers got three more and the dry goods five, making the total 10 to 5 in favour of the dry good representatives.

Willie Crossley had been keeping his eye on Gemmel for some time, as Dido was doing too much fancy skating. When he finally fell and dropped his stick, Willie fired him from the ice.

After the game the barbers lodged a protest on the ground that, when Doane left the ice to repair his skate, a substitute came on in his place and that the substitute did not retire from the ice when Doane came back.

LACROSSE.

President Lennox of the Canadian Lacrosse Association has appointed Messrs. George Wilson, J. D. Bailey and Secretary W. S. A. Hartley, a special committee to arrange for the entertainment of the delegates to the annual convention on Good Friday. The convention will get to work at 1.30 sharp, and it is hoped to conclude the business in time to have the evening spent in a social gathering. The convention of representatives of the national game promises to be larger this year than ever, though it has in the past been a more representative meeting than other bodies that have attracted more attention.

A CHAPTER ON CHEESE.

Mr. Cluxton's Good Advice Commended—Mr. Wrighton's Views on the Subject.

In connection with the annual convention of the cheesemakers of the Peterborough district, there is one important point among others that should be especially impressed. Our Canadian cheese has gained a leading position in the British market, but to hold that place the very highest standard will have to be maintained. Competition has become exceedingly keen, and the Old Country cheesemakers, especially the Scotch have, thanks to "pointers" from Canadian cheese experts, become able to produce an article dangerously near in quality to the best Canadian. Therefore it behooves the Canadian maker to use every means in his power to maintain our cheese at the very highest standard. To this end, and in particular, in regard to that most important and indeed, indispensable matter, the curing of cheese, it would be well for cheesemakers to lay to heart the advice of Mr. Wm. Cluxton, given at the annual meeting of the cheese board in regard to the extreme necessity of the greatest care in the curing of cheese This matter derives importance, if from no other reason, because Mr. Cluxton insists upon it. He has been for a long time intimately associated with the cheese trade, and no man in the Dominion has a better knowledge of the trade, and its conditions and requirements than Mr. Cluxton. When he points out that our dominant position in the British markets depends upon the proper curing of our cheese, it is time that cheese makers and others connected with the business should take the lesson to heart, and use the greatest care, and employ the best means available, to effect the proper curing of our cheese. Makers and patrons have no excuse on the score of ignorance—they know how it should be done. The Governments have furnished information of the fullest kind for those who need it, and now all that is required is to apply the knowledge which every competent cheese maker possesses, and it rests largely with patrons and companies to provide the necessary conveniences.

Mr. Wrighton Interviewed Upon the Subject.

Realizing the importance of the proper curing of cheese, the EXAMINER this morning waited upon Mr. Wrighton, Inspector of the Peterborough cheese board, and his opinions on the subject, which are of high value, are given below. Mr. Wrighton said:

I have had many years' experience in this county in the line of cheese, not as a maker, but as a buyer, having bought cheese before there was any Board here, and when the cheese made was so poor that at the present day it would be classed as "rejections," unfit for present requirements in the English market. Now they require a mild, meaty cheese, not sharp.

At the present time we have the best of makers, as a rule, that can be got and our cheese should be nearer perfection than it is, and the principal cause is, in my opinion, in the improper curing rooms. They, as a rule, are not suitable for curing or keeping in hot weather (such as we had last summer). Rooms that vary from fifty to ninety degrees of heat cannot possibly turn out perfect cheese, no matter how well made. The cheese ripens too quickly, goes off flavour and becomes sharp too soon—before they can be sold in England. No cheese can be classed as "finest" that runs grease, as we frequently have had it. In England their best cheese is cured in a temperature of 68 degrees, and brings the highest prices.

The question of proper curing is, in my opinion now the important one. How are we going to overcome the difficulty? I have given this matter serious consideration for some years. Ice has been tried and wetting the floor with cold water, etc. I consider such means are practical failures. Ice and cold water cause dampness in the room Many factories cannot obtain ice without a good deal of expense and labour, and cheesemakers as a rule are so poorly paid that they cannot afford any extra expenses. Now the only available remedy to overcome the difficulty is, in my opinion, to build dry cellars indoor the curing room, half underground and half over, with a cement floor and sufficient windows for good ventilation, if required. The building requires to be built in a high and dry place, on a slight hill if possible, so that the back door of the cellar will be even with the ground and the front ground will be sufficiently high for teams delivering milk. Such a cellar will give a temperature of 65 to 75 degrees, and can be regulated. As an example of how such a cellar works, last August the cheese was running grease in almost every factory, one buyer in this section refusing five factories out of six that he purchased on that account. The only one he accepted was Warminster, a factory well known. This factory is an up-to-date one and has a cellar such as I have mentioned. The cheese was put in the cellar during the heat and came out right. If cheese can be kept safe, as in this case, it can also be done in others.

I would advise all those interested to visit Warminster and Warsaw factories. They are both built on the same principle. Just as soon as the extreme heat comes the cured cheese, or that most advanced, is put in the cellar through a trap or stairs for that purpose and there remains until sold and shipped. The cheese comes out in a cool state. Makers do not require to be changing their make, making firmer and less meaty cheese, such as the market does not require. This method of keeping cheese cool will, in my opinion, be adopted in most factories where it can be done.

I hope my remarks may be of some value to the most important industry of cheese making.

WELL-DESERVED COMMENDATION

The "Bobcaygeon Independent" makes Important References.

The current issue of the Bobcaygeon Independent says:—The Peterborough Cheese Board held its annual meeting last Saturday, and Mr. J. M. Drummond was elected President. Mr. Cluxton, a gentleman whose views on all commercial questions command the greatest consideration drew the attention of the Board to the necessity of fully maintaining the quality of our cheese. Mr. Thos. Robertson, the energetic President of the Lindsay Board was present and made a few remarks. He favored the employment of an Inspector and Instructor as last year. Peterborough's first sale will be made on May 23rd.

When witnesses are examined the Court insists that they shall tell only what they know, not what they think or believe. Time and again the wandering witness is brought back to the point by the stern voice of the judge: "Madam we are not interested in what you think, we want to hear what you actually know."

There's no such trouble experienced with the worthy women witnesses to the cures wrought by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. They know what they are talking about. Women who suffered from painful irregularities, from inflammation, ulceration, displaced organs, bearing-down pains, or any other form of female disorder, which undermines the health and shatters the nerves,—such women know when they are well and why they are well. They do not hesitate to say: "I know 'Favorite Prescription' cured me." There are half a million women witnesses like these:

"I am enjoying good health, thanks to your kind advice and valuable remedies," writes Mrs. Anna Willy, of Northville, Spink Co., S. Dak., (Michigan House). "I suffered very much with female weakness and other ailments for more than two years, when I wrote to you for advice. After carefully following your advice and taking six bottles each of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' I am now a well and happy woman."

"I had been a great sufferer from female weakness," writes Mrs. M. B. Wallace, of Muenster, Cook Co., Texas. "I tried four doctors and none did me any good. I suffered six years, but at last I found relief. I followed your advice, and took four bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and eight of the 'Favorite Prescription.' I now feel like a new woman. I have gained eighteen pounds."

Sick women can consult Dr. Pierce without charge, and thus get the benefits of his long experience in diseases peculiar to women. Write freely. Write fully. Your letter will be treated as a sacred confidence, and its answer will be written with fatherly friendliness, as well as medical knowledge. Write without fear as without fee.

CITIES OF THE TROGLODYTES.

Built In Layers and Reached by Means of Steps Cut In the Walls.

If you want to be introduced to the slowest people in the world, you must visit north Africa and make your way across the scorching desert that separates from the rest of the inhabitants of Africa the race known to the ancients as the Troglodytes, from the Greek "troglois," a hole. They were given this name on account of the habit of living in holes in the ground, a habit that probably owes its origin to the fact that Old Sol in that quarter is a very merciless old tyrant, and life above ground is scarcely bearable except when the sun has retired for the night.

The Troglodytes are in the line of caravan travel and are visited by those freight trains of the African desert. No outside influence has been able, however, to wean them from their ancient habits, their antique garb and their peculiar manner of living. So far as is known, the manners and customs of the Troglodytes have not changed since Bible times, and any one coming upon a group of these people in the present day and comparing their appearance with descriptions extant that some historians have regarded as fabulous will see that they are precisely the same now as they were many centuries ago.

A Troglodyte city is the most curious dwelling place in the world. From the exterior it presents the aspect of a Roman circus. The habitations are built in layers one above the other and form a circular wall, with a single entance from the outside. All the doors of the houses open on the interior of the circular city. Each habitation has a door and a window. To get to them you climb a flight of steps cut in the wall, which brings you to the lower layer of houses. If you wish to go higher, you climb another pair of steps to the houses above, and from here to the third row if you are visiting some one living on the top of the pile. The doors are all fastened with the most primitive lock that is turned by means of a wooden key.

Besides providing protection from their enemy, the sun, the circular habitations with the dead walls outside form a strong fortress to guard the inhabitants from the attacks of neighboring tribes. In these more peaceful days, however, they have no such fear before them, and so they use the walled city mostly for storing of crops, while they live in holes dug in the ground within the walls and frequently change their position in search of pasture for the animals.

The age of the cities is immense. The exact date when they were built is unknown, but it is believed that they antedate the birth of Christ. The people are peaceably disposed, in which phase of character they are superior to most other natives of northern Africa. They are intelligent and hardworking, tending their flocks and farming their land with patient energy. The approach to their country is so difficult and dangerous on account of the frightful gorges it is necessary to traverse and the risk of being overcome by the deadly sirocco that the interesting people have been disturbed but little by Europeans. Now that archæologists are turning their attention to the ancient people something more is being learned of them than was known heretofore.—St. Paul Dispatch.

THE NEW COLONEL.

How Grant Proved Himself to Be a Master of Men.

When Captain Grant, formerly of the regular army, was appointed colonel of an Illinois regiment in place of Colonel Goode, John A. Logan while escorting him to the camp said: "Colonel, the regiment is a little unruly. Do you think you can manage the boys?"

"I think I can," replied Grant.

Logan and McClernand, two congressmen, made patriotic speeches, and Logan, after a two hours' oration, led forward a quiet man in plain citizen's clothes, saying:

"Allow me to present to you your new commander, Colonel U. S. Grant."

"Most of the soldiers observed him for the first time," writes Hamlin Garland, from whose "Life of Grant" we have quoted. "They were astonished and disappointed." Grant looked like a grave country doctor. But he showed that he could manage the "unruly boys." There were loud calls: "Grant! Grant! A speech!" Their late colonel used to "orate" before them. The new colonel stepped two paces toward them and said in a clear, calm voice:

"Men, go to your quarters!"

If an 8 inch shell had exploded in their ranks, the "boys" would not have been more surprised, but they went to their quarters. There was that in the new colonel's voice which expressed command. The tone was not loud, but it was given with a clear cut inflection which showed him a master of men.

That evening at dress parade, as he stepped to the center of the regiment, wearing no uniform save a pair of gray trousers with a stripe running down the outside seams and an old sword, the men jested in low voices about their new commander.

Colonel Goode, the late colonel, not infrequently used the daily parade as an occasion to make a speech, and the men expected one from Grant. The line officers advanced, and the adjutant saluted.

"A soldier's first duty is to learn to obey his commander. I shall expect my orders to be obeyed as exactly and as instantly as if we were on the field of battle."

That was all he said. As the men marched back to quarters a private asked: "What do they mean by sending down a little man like him to command this regiment? He can't pound dry sand in a straight hole."

"He can't make a speech. Look at the clothes he wears. Who is he anyhow?"

"Boys," retorted a sergeant, "I'll tell you who he is. He's the colonel of this regiment, as you'll find, and don't you forget it."

The sergeant was a prophet. The regiment had obtained all the liquor it wished for. Grant stopped that. A man resisted arrest.

"What's the matter?" asked Grant of the officer of the day.

"The man persists in bringing liquor into camp and refuses to give it up."

"Put him into the guardhouse."

"He refuses to go."

Grant stepped up to him, seized him by the collar and jerked him outside of the camp gate. "Get out of my regiment," he said. "You are not worth disciplining. If you come back, I'll have you shot!" A big, dangerous man named Mexico was tied up with a score of others for leaving camp without permission. "For every minute I stand here I'll have an ounce of your blood," said he to the colonel.

"Gag him!" replied Grant.

One by one, as the hours passed, the other offenders were released by the officers of the guard. Grant released Mexico himself. The bully saw that his colonel was his master, and the regiment began to find out that it had a colonel.—Youth's Companion.

Selling Papers on the Roof.

Not all the enterprising newsboys are in the United States. The small street merchants of Paris, when forbidden to enter the cars and omnibuses, got over a serious difficulty in real Yankee fashion.

It was easy enough, of course, to sell papers through the windows to people seated in the vehicles. But how was it possible to reach would be customers perched on the imperiales, the seats provided on the roof? A youth promptly solved the problem.

He procured a stick seven or eight feet long, with clamps fastened to the sides. Papers were put in the clamps. On the top of the stick there was a small cup with a hole in the bottom.

The hole was a very important part of the apparatus, for it reached all the way down, and through it came the copper coins of one or two sous, according to the price of the paper which the patron selected when the boy held up the stick.—Youth's Companion.

The Debacle.

When the ice is on the sidewalk and the wind is on the run,
There are certain acts surprising that are regularly done.
Though considered accidental, they are easily explained,
But the man who hits the pavement just remembers he is pained.

Thus we find, when grim disaster floors us with a bitter blow,
That it gives no satisfaction to the fallen man to know
That the world is full of failures and has hopeless wrecks galore.
His predominant sensation is it's hard and makes him sore!

The Bachelor Girl.

She's a satisfied bachelor girl.
She vows that she never will marry.
She has been in society's whirl
And known many a marriage miscarry.

She is pretty well furnished with brains,
And it doesn't quite enter her plans
While around her all pleasant remains
To link her glad life with a man's.

She can guide herself well with her head,
She can do lots of good with her hands;
She's a model girl, so it is said,
But a latchkey she always demands.

She had joined a girl bachelors' club,
Into which not a man was allowed
(As it happened, just there was the rub),
And to celibacy all were vowed.

At the very last meeting, though loathed,
A general confession was planned,
And 'twas found every girl was betrothed.
So the club then was forced to disband.

All betrothed but our bachelor girl!
To her colors still faithful and true,
That sole banner she still will unfurl!
Who will order it down, I or you?

—Boston Globe.

"IT IS VERY SATISFACTORY."

To Wm. McCabe, Esq., Managing Director, North American Life Assurance Co., Toronto:

DEAR SIR.—Your official notice came duly to hand, apprising me of the results obtainable upon my 15 year endowment Policy in your Company for $1,000, which matured on the 5th inst. Of the various options you have given me viz.:

Cash value	$1,564 96
Paid-up Policy, payable at my death, for	2,560 00
Yearly Income for life of	166 20

I have decided upon the cash value; and it gives me pleasure to testify that, as I anticipated it would be when I took out the policy, IT IS VERY SATISFACTORY. This returns me the full premiums of the 15 years and over 4½ per cent. compound interest in addition to which you have carried the risk upon my life. In view of the low rating rates of interest which have been obtainable during the latter portion of the period, it is difficult to see how this excellent result could have been surpassed.

Yours sincerely,

Sensible Geese.

Geese are not supposed to be very sensible creatures or at all particular about the cleanliness of the food they eat. Popular Science News, however, records an instance in which they were better than their reputation.

The geese in question were on the bank of the York river, Virginia, and had discovered a good supply of that delicacy of southern goose diet—pieces of watermelon rind. Unfortunately these particular pieces were so covered with mud and sand as to be in a very uncomfortable condition for eating. But the geese—a large flock—knew how to overcome the difficulty.

As each bird picked out a piece of rind from the garbage heap it inspected it, and if it seemed too dirty for immediate consumption carried it at once to the river, dropped it into the shallow water and stood watching it until the running stream had carried away the extraneous matter and left the tempting pulp fresh and comparatively clean. This accomplished, the goose stepped into the shallow water by the side of its freshly washed food and gobbled off the edible pulp with much apparent appreciation.

The writer watched the geese for half an hour or more and saw the thing done repeatedly, and that by several birds. It seemed as if that particular flock had acquired the habit of thus washing their food.

DRAINING HILLSIDES.

Underdrainage to Prevent Surface Washing and Deepen the Soil.

Many farmers whose land is rolling or hilly do not appreciate the benefit that underdraining it would give them. The soil is thin and they complain that the water runs off too rapidly. That is indeed just the trouble. There is only a thin stratum on the surface that is permeable by water, and when the floods come they carry every winter more or less of this surface soil into the valleys below. The American Cultivator, looking at the matter in this light, says: Wherever the subsoil of hills is clay an underdrain sunk three feet deep will cause the water that comes to it to sink into the soil and be carried off by the drain instead of on the surface.

On very steep hillsides it is not best to dig ditches straight up and down the hill. A diagonal course leading the water across the hill, with a gradual descent to the lower part, will be much better. Of course several drains will be needed, running parallel, in a hill of much size, and all may run into an open ditch on the lower side of the hill. We dislike to run side hill drains into a large underground conduit. More or less dirt will be loosened and brought down in the drains. The covered conduit will often need to be cleaned. So will the open ditch, but it will be much less trouble than the underdrain. Wherever there is a sudden stoppage of rapid descent there will be a large deposit of silt, and at such place a deep, wide hole two or three feet below the tile should be made to be filled with water. In this still water all the soil brought from the heights above will be deposited, and from this on the farther side a drain can be run that will take only the pure water above the surface of the silt.

By thus draining hillsides all the surface wash can be prevented. What comes down through the tiles will be very little, except for the first few years, while the soil is settling. After an underdrain is thus established in its position it undergoes very few changes. The effect of frost on moist ground is to expand and deepen it, so that it will absorb more water. In this way the hillside may be given as deep soil and with as much fertility as the best lowland, with the advantage over the latter that it is not likely to be overflowed with water which remains stagnant.

On many upland hillsides springs will be struck in the progress of underdraining, or there may be springs that appear even now on the surface. These springs ought always to be tapped. Wherever there is a wet place in the hillside a little digging will probably find the spring that originates it. Sole or round tiles should always be used on hillside draining. Where horseshoe tiles are used the edges of the tiles are liable to be undermined by washing away of the soil between them, and in this way the drain is soon spoiled. With sole or round tiles there is no such friction on the soil beneath.

Many hillsides are too rocky for profitable draining, and especially those that are very springy. But on almost all of them it is possible to make short underdrains from wet places to the lower grounds, where it can often in rocky soil find fissures in the rocks through which it may pass to the vales below. The greater part of the rainfall on mountains thus finds its way to the seaboard. If the mountain streams brought in surface floods all the rain that falls, it would make greater floods than any that are now known. This is shown by the heavy floods that come when the ground is covered with ice, so that the natural escape through absorption by the surface soil is stopped.

Storing Tools For Winter.

Needed repairs for all farm implements should be ordered now, says a Farm and Fireside writer. Tools should be sharpened ready for spring work. I know that this advice is often given and rarely heeded, but I know from experience that it pays to have everything put away in shape ready for use. One knows just what is needed now, but by spring one forgets the weak and broken places. It takes no more time now than later on, and in the spring or summer there is comfort in having all implements ready for work. Plows and similar tools should have a board floor under them or they rust. Clean off the machinery and tools that have been in use a few years and give them a coat of paint. This costs little and pays in improved appearance and lasting power. The name and number of every machine should be kept in a memorandum book for convenience in ordering repairs. If this record was not made when the machine was bought, it should be done before the paint effaces them. Such a record is a great convenience. More study of future convenience and comfort would make life better worth living on many a farm.

Mr. Cole Discovers the Power of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Windsor Feb. 20.—The following statement, which Mr. F. H. Cole of this place requests us to publish, is worthy of attention from every victim of Rheumatism in Canada.

Mr. Cole's experiment fully warrants him in making this statement.

"Words cannot describe how I suffered from Rheumatism and Kidney Complaint. I tried every cure that was recommended, but got no benefit until I began using Dodd's Kidney Pills."

"Thank God I did use Dodd's Kidney Pills, for they cured me—made me sound and well, in every joint and limb."

Those who suffer the agonies of Rheumatism or Lumbago need do so no longer. Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure them.

Children Cry for
CASTORIA.

Women's Worst Enemy

Some hesitate before giving an answer, but those who know best will immediately say HEADACHE.

Thousands of women live in misery day after day, and week after week, suffering untold agony from these dreadful headaches. Husbands are disheartened, children neglected, and happy homes ruined. Most women strive to bear in patience the suffering which they consider part of life without looking into the cause or searching for relief. Food cannot digest without the bile which the liver supplies and hence the necessity of keeping the liver in good working order. To cure the headaches you must cure the liver and thus remove the cause of disease.

Dr. Chase spent years of his life in perfecting a medicine which acts directly on the kidneys and liver. Thousands of grateful women have testified during the past ten years to the effectiveness of this remedy for sick headaches. Many a home has been restored to happiness as a result.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, the greatest discovery of this great scientist, are put up to sell at 25c. a box. All dealers.

IMPERIAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.
OF CANADA.

Seven Cardinal Reasons for Insuring in the Imperial:

1. It Affords Unquestionable Security to policy-holders, by its large Capital Stock of $1,000,000, and its Dominion Government Deposit of $250,000, being the largest Government Deposit of any Canadian life insurance company.
2. Its Policy Reserves are held on the most stringent basis used in Canadian Actuarial calculation.
3. Its Policies do not Restrict the assured in respect to residence, travel or occupation, and are payable immediately on receipt of satisfactory proof of death.
4. Its Policies cannot be Forfeited after three annual premiums have been paid, but provide for surrender values by way of cash or paid-up insurance.
5. The Premium Rates Compare favorably with those of other insurance companies, and a grace of month is allowed in payment hereof, during which time the policy remains in full force and effect.
6. Its Policies are Automatically Continued in force after three years premiums have been paid, for such time as the whole reserve is sufficient to pay premiums.
7. Liberal Cash Loans are granted under policies after three annual premiums have been paid.

RUNNINGSORE

Solid Sore from Knee to Instep. Thought have to be Amputated. Walked with Crutch. Almost Wild with Pain.

Physician Said "Never could be Cured." Tries CUTICURA. Sleep after First Application. Cured in Eight Weeks.

I was afflicted with a terrible sore leg, caused by a cut. It became so inflamed that it was thought it would have to be amputated. My physician said that "it could never be cured, that it would remain a running sore on account of the poisonous state of my blood." When I got out of bed I could hardly stand the pain, and had to get along with a crutch. I tried all kinds of blood and other medicines without success, my leg getting worse until it became a solid sore from my knee to instep. Utterly discouraged and almost wild with pain, I gave up in despair, making up my mind that death would be a sweet relief. Casually picking up an old paper, I noticed the description of a man who had been cured by CUTICURA remedies, afflicted like myself. I immediately procured the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, CUTICURA SOAP, and CUTICURA (ointment). The first application of CUTICURA (ointment), after carefully washing my leg with warm water and plenty of the CUTICURA SOAP, gave me and so much relief that I was able to sleep over half of the night, and after the third day I rested well every night. I went on improving, and in exactly eight weeks from the time I began the use of CUTICURA remedies I was able to return to my trade (carpentering), well and sound.

CUTICURA

Begins with the Blood and Ends with The Skin and Scalp.

That is to say it purifies the blood and circulating fluids of HUMOR GERMS, and thus removes the cause, while warm baths with CUTICURA SOAP, and gentle anointings with CUTICURA (ointment), greatest of emollient skin cures, cleanse the skin and scalp of crusts and scales, allay itching, burning, and inflammation, soothe and heal. Thus are speedily, permanently, and economically cured the most torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin, scalp and blood, with loss of hair, when the best physicians and all other remedies fail.

A PRESENTATION.

To Rev. Father O'Leary Prior to His Leaving Sturgeon Falls.

The following reference is made in the Sturgeon Falls Colonization to a presentation made to Rev. Father O'Leary, formerly of town, who has been transferred to Fenelon Falls.

At eight o'clock Saturday evening last the council chamber was the scene of a happy gathering—the occasion being the presentation of an address and a purse to Rev. Father O'Leary, on the eve of his departure to assume parochial duties in the parish of Fenelon Falls. The pleasant event was brought about and conducted to a successful issue by Mrs. Yielding, Miss Cockburn and Miss Lebeau, who deserve unstinted praise for their zealous efforts in behalf of such a worthy cause. Mr. Z. Mageau acted as chairman and discharged the duties of his office in a very pleasant manner, while Mr. J. M. E. Lavallee, editor of the Colonization, read the following address—the purse being presented by Miss Cockburn :—

Sturgeon Falls, Feb. 18th, 1899.

Rev. P. J. O'Leary.

Reverend and Dear Sir,—It was with mingled sorrow and joy that we, your devoted parishioners, listened to the announcement at High Mass on last Sunday of your approaching departure from among us, and the consequent severance of those warm and precious ties of friendship which have grown warmer and stronger as the years rolled by—sorrow at losing one whose devotion and zeal in his high and holy calling have been marked characteristics of his sojourn in Sturgeon Falls, and joy upon learning that his Lordship the Bishop of the Diocese had been pleased to bestow upon you a well-merited promotion. Pardon us, dear Father, if we beg to assure you that our esteem and love for you shall not fade away in your absence, but ever remain warmly guarded in our hearts as souvenirs of your residence here, and of the constant care and watchfulness which you have ever exercised in all the matters pertaining to our good and the good of the town at large. May not we also be permitted to remember you in our prayers, and to ask the God of All Good to bestow upon you, as your new home, the choicest blessings of Heaven, that you may always there, as you have been here, be filled with that grace so necessary to one, who, as a labourer in the vineyard of Christ, has so many souls to guard and care for.

In conclusion, dear father, we would ask you to accept this small purse as a slight token of our friendship and love for you; and, when far away among new scenes and new associations, we would beg of you that your devoted parishioners of Sturgeon Falls be sometimes remembered at the altar of the Most High.

Signed on behalf of the parishioners of the Sacred Heart,

JOS. MICHAUD, Mayor,
MRS. J. D. COCKBURN,
MRS. YIELDING,
MRS. GEO. LEVESQUE,
J. M. E. LAVALLEE.

Father O'Leary, who was taken completely by surprise, was visibly affected by the reading of the address, but proved equal to the occasion and replied in words of the gentlest love to those whom, he considered, had honoured him beyond his due. He had simply done his duty here, he said, as he expected to do elsewhere, but assured his listeners that they would always have a warm place in his heart, and would not be forgotten before the altar of God.

Rev. Father Gingras, who was present, made a brief but happy speech, in which he heartily endorsed all the address contained, and further added that Father O'Leary, by his zeal and devotion in the cause of religion, and by his constant practice of good example was not only a good but a model priest, whom all would regret to lose. He warmly thanked Father O'Leary for past services here and wished him abundant success and happiness in his new home.

The meeting then closed by the singing of God save the Queen.

Father O'Leary left for Fenelon Falls on Monday night last.

Grand Trunk Engineer Swears by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Mr. Geo. Cummings, for over twenty years engineer on Grand Trunk running between Toronto and Allandale, says:—"My constant duty with my work gave me a backache price in my back, racking my kidneys. I tried several remedies until I was recommended by my fireman Mr. Dave Cowling, to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Five boxes have completely cured me as I feel to-day a better man than ever. I recommend them to all my friends.

CHRISTIANITY AND SOCIALISM.

The term "Socialism" and the principles which it is supposed to express, has been somewhat hazy to the average mind, and to an extent which is surprising. Full of misgiving should one's friend, under the impulse of an expansive mood, confide in us his socialistic tendencies, we have shuddered and followed him in our imagination through dark lanes to some garret, the secret abode of thieves and robbers, and the storehouse of dynamite bombs and bowie knives, and our sensibilities have been so shaken that the propriety of informing the police has been a very serious consideration. It has been, therefore, with some sense of relief, if not indeed, of surprise, that we have learned from the pulpit of St. John's church that Christianity has any counsel with socialism, or that socialism is, in any of its various phases and teachings, in keeping with the Christian faith. There has just been concluded a series of lectures on and though these lectures have not been presented with an effort at full development of the subject—for the lecturer has disclaimed any such ambition—still one is pleased to see the church entering into the consideration of such subjects as "Citizenship," "Christian Standard and Value," "The Employer and Employee," and while those who have attended may have been disappointed that these lectures lacked the definiteness and precision which a fuller consideration would have afforded, still they have the advantage of having had these great and important questions brought prominently before their attention. These are matters of the most potent character to-day, and these are matters that have to be solved. It is well enough for some to say "Pooh! pooh! let things alone." We are quite content to leave such a person alone, but there is a generation rising which yields to the social impulse of the age, which is not content with its own concerns, but spares an anxiety for the interests of others. Surely this must be the child socialism which is being fed and fitted for life by the practical

PRACTICAL SOCIAL TOPICS

UNADULTERATED SOCIAL PRINCIPLES

of Jesus Christ. It looks as if the day of individualism had set, and that the dawn of larger social interest were at hand. We cannot really seperate the interests of men. The success or failure of one member of society is reflected upon another; and when we have practically apprehended the meaning of this social law, the whole fabric and machinery of society and industry will be altered. When men waken to the fact that the golden rule, "that whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do unto them," is after all the most advantageous and economic, they are going to apply it. The employer of labour—whether that employer be a corporation or individual—who realizes that for ALL men, and not for a few, "Life is more than mere meat," will, as a Christian individual or corporation, set about to provide the means and opportunity that his employees may cultivate the higher side of life. And for that he will be rewarded—morally and financially. For he will find that the workers who are good foods and reasonable recreation, do superior work in the factory. But least of all for expediency; man is man whether he is in the private office or at the bench and the moral dignity of each is equal. God has given it into the hand of no man to crush his brother between the millstones of life's fortunes. "How much is a man better than a sheep?" said our blessed Redeemer, and Christianity and socialism alike claim that no industry has a right to grind men like machines, or as we call them "hands." The institution which makes its profits by grinding up the bodies of men, women and children may be a financial success, temporarily at least, but it is a moral failure and some one will have to liquidate the debts of the firm before a just and impartial Judge. There is just one other concern. We live in an age in which the prevailing passions is to get something for nothing. That is the secret of the bargain counter. The same disposition is found

GIVEN HEALTHY HOMES,

IN INDUSTRIAL LIFE.

Buy your labour in the cheapest market, is the creed of some institutions guided by those who profess and call themselves "Christians." That is to say, "take any advantage you can of competition in labour."

The thing is clearly wrong, and again are Christianity and Socialism united to oppose such a standard of value? The only moral standard of value known is value for value rendered. Pay a man what his work is worth to you, and the man who wields the meat axe theory with such proficiency, curtailing wages and extending labour might well profitably spend a few moments of consideration with himself as to whether he most resembles the historical delineations of Pharoah's taskmasters or a disciple of Him "of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named."—COM.

YOUNG'S POINT.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Young have returned from Toronto, after remaining in that city one week. They stated the operation on master Roberts foot, was successful, and the child will be able to come home in the course of ten days. While in Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Young visited Niagara Falls.

Mr. James Kearney, Sr., was taken seriously ill on Monday, the 27th, ult. While reading a paper, he was suddenly stricken with paralysis, making his limbs on one side powerless, also affecting his speech. He had to be carried up stairs to bed and lies in a critical condition.

The sleighing is fairly good between here and Lakefield, considering the recent mild weather.

Quite a number of wild ducks are in the river here.

Maple syrup has arrived in the village already, it being made last week.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady of this country. "Disease fastened his clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz., They writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Sold by all Druggists at 50 cents and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

NORWOOD.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. Jno. Harper, of this place, has sold his comfortable brick residence on Alma street to Mrs. McCleary.

Mr. E. S. Meyer, of Peterborough, Superintendent for the York County Loan and Savings Co., was in town on Tuesday.

Mr. Martin O'Reilly, of Nelson, B. C., son of Mr. Chas. O'Reilly, is visiting relatives in this locality.

Miss Clara McNicoll, of this place, is visiting in Toronto this week. She is also attending the millinery openings there.

Mr. W. J. Stuart, clerk in Messrs. Kirkpatrick & Buck's dry good store, was west last week attending the funeral of his brother who died at Arthur.

Mr. Jas. Evans, D. D. G. M., of Port Hope, paid a visit to Norwood Lodge A. F. and A. M. on Tuesday evening.

Mr. R. J. Stewart has been endeavouring during the past week to enlist the support of our citizens with a view to forming a joint stock company to establish a foundry here. So far his efforts have met with good success, having secured about $2,500.

The school board held a special meeting Wednesday night to select a teacher to fill Mr. A. W. McPherson's place, who has resigned to accept a position on the staff of the Peterborough Collegiate Institute All the members present except Messrs. R. W. Waters, Wm. Webster and John Breckenridge. The secretary read eleven applications for the position as teacher, and after some discussion it was moved by Messrs. Fraser and Cumming that the application of Mr. Martin, of Arthur, be accepted—Carried.

Moved by P. W. Stevenson and W. H. Brethen, that Messrs. Fraser, Peugelly and Cumming be a committee to meet the Government inspector at the school when he comes.—Carried.

Board adjourned.

J. K. McCullough, the champion skater of the world, visited Norwood on Monday evening. The crowd was large and enthusiastic in their applause. McCullough is no doubt the champion. His skating is graceful and very attractive. Mr. Russell Pearce, of Norwood, had the honour of skating in a race with him, and, although he was beaten, he is to be admired on account of his pluck. The gate receipts amounted to nearly one hundred dollars.

Two rinks of the Norwood curlers went to Campbellford on Tuesday to compete for a trophy offered by Campbellford, for the winning rinks in a bonspiel held in that place on Tuesday and Wednesday. The skips appointed were Messrs McGregor and McKelvie.

Mr. Ridge Pearce of Marmora, was in town on Tuesday.

Geo. J. Sherry is in Peterborough this week on business.

HAVELOCK.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The "At Home" on Monday night in the basement of the Methodist church, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid, was a decided success. The music furnished by the Citizens' Band and by Mr. McAllister and the Stewart brothers deserve special mention. The recitations by Miss Howson and Miss Armstrong were well received. The ladies are to be congratulated on the sumptuous repast they had prepared. The music on bottles, by Mr. Joseph Smith, brought many encores.

We are pleased to learn of Mrs. Joseph Rose's recovery after her long illness.

A number of our citizens went up to Norwood to see McCullough, the world's champion skater, on Monday night.

Miss Mabel Denike has returned after a prolonged visit in Campbellford and other places.

We congratulate Mr. W. B. Ritchie, C. P.R. engineer, on being presented with a handsome nickel-plated oil can by the master mechanic, for showing most economy among the freight engineers between Havelock and Smith's Falls in the use of oil.

Mrs. Mark and her daughter Bertie, of Peterborough, are visiting at her son's, James Mark, C.P.R. conductor here, preparatory to leaving for Montana.

Mr. William Fairman, C.P.R. engineer, has gone on a two months' leave of absence, to Eastern Canada and New England States.

The Citizen's Band concert at Belmont town hall on Friday night was a grand success. A good programme was prepared by the members of the band and a goodly number was present to enjoy it. We can assure the band a good hearing at at any future entertainment they may have, as the above mentioned one surpassed all expectations of those listeners who are most difficult to satisfy. If there had been a place in town to hold the concert we think there would have been at least 500 present. This is another case of a town hall necessity. It is poor encouragement to our band to have to go between three and four miles to get a room spacious enough to hold a concert. We think every intelligent ratepayer should be in favour of erecting a town hall within the corporation and we earnestly hope to see a handsome structure of that kind within our midst ere this year is out.

Again and again we see the necessity of a lockup as Havelock is a rendezvous for tramps, being a railroad terminus. Most of our citizens are railroad men, who are on the road most of the time and whose families are left unprotected.

BARON HERSCHELL.

Heart Failure Carries Him Off Suddenly at Washington.

A BRILLIANT CAREER ENDED.

His Lordship's Last Moments—The Messenger of Death Came Without Warning—Remains to Be Sent Home to England—The News at Washington, Ottawa and in England—His Life Work.

Washington, March 2.—Baron Farrer Herschell, one of the commissioners from Great Britain on the joint high commission, recently in session here to adjust differences between the United States and Canada, died quite suddenly at 7.05 o'clock yesterday morning, at the Shoreham Hotel, where he had been confined to his bed for several weeks with a broken bone, caused by a fall on a slippery sidewalk.

Lord Herschell's death came without warning. Except for the pain incident to the fracture of his leg, which occurred on

LORD FARRER HERSCHELL.

Feb. 16, he has been in excellent health and spirits, and up to almost the hour of his death there was no premonitory symptoms of the coming end. At about 5 o'clock in the morning His Lordship awakened and called to the trained nurse who has been with him ever since his accident. She found him breathing heavily. After receiving some attentions he said he felt better and again went to sleep. A little after 6 o'clock he again called the nurse, and said he felt ill, and complained of great pain in his chest below the heart.

Dr. W. W. Johnson was hastily summoned, and, after a hurried examination, despatched a messenger for Dr. Madox, who joined him in a few minutes. The pain, however, did not yield to treatment, and at five minutes after 7 o'clock His Lordship breathed his last. At the time there were with him his private secretary, Mr. Hedworth Williamson, Mr. W. C. Cartwright, secretary of the joint high commission, of which Lord Herschell was the president; Dr. Johnson, Dr. Madox and his nurse. In answer to inquiries the physicians said they were unable to give the exact cause of death, but the symptoms, it was thought, indicated that it was angina pectoris.

The Senate's Tribute.

In the Senate yesterday afternoon Mr. Fairbanks announced the death of Lord Herschell, and paid a high tribute to the deceased jurist. He then offered the following resolutions:

"That the Senate has heard with profound sensibility of the death of Lord Farrer Herschell, an eminent jurist and statesman of Great Britain, formerly Lord High Chancellor, a member of the United States and British high commission.

"That the president of the Senate is requested to convey to Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain the sympathy of the Senate of the United States in the great loss which she and the people of Great Britain have sustained by the death of Lord Herschell."

The Supreme Court of the United States adjourned upon the announcement of the death of Lord Herschell.

Sketch of His Career.

Farrer Herschell, first baron of that name, was born Nov. 2, 1837. He was a son of the late Rev. Ridley Herschell of London, and Helen, daughter of William Mowbray of Edinburgh. He married in 1876 Agnes, third daughter of Edward Leigh Kinderaley. There are one son and two daughters living.

Baron Herschell was a Privy Councillor, a Knight Grand Cross of the Bath, Doctor of Civil Law, Doctor of Laws, a deputy lieutenant for Kent and Durham, a Justice of the Peace, Captain of Dean Castle, Chancellor of London University, and was appointed British member of the Venezuela and British Guiana boundary arbitration tribunal in 1897. He was knighted in 1880, and was created a peer in 1876.

The deceased was educated at London University, where he graduated Bachelor of Arts with classical honors. He became a barrister of Lincolns Inn in 1860, Queen's Counsel in 1872, Bencher of Lincolns Inn in 1872, Recorder of Carlisle from 1873 to 1880, Solicitor-General from 1880 to 1885, and was Lord High Chancellor in 1886, and from 1892 to 1895.

In politics Baron Herschell was a Liberal, and he represented the city of Durham in the House of Commons from 1874 to 1875. He took part in the so-called Round Table conference on Home Rule, the first meeting of which was held in his house, and on the appointment of a royal commission to enquire into the working of the Metropolitan Board of Works, Lord Herschell was unanimously elected president. In 1887, during his absence in India, Baron Herschell was elected alderman on the London County Council, but he declined to fill the office. Lord Herschell was a man of small stature, of florid complexion and wore the sidewhiskers which are usually characteristic of the English barrister after his elevation to the bench.

THE NEWS AT OTTAWA.

Sad Information Came as a Shock to Lord Minto and Ministers.

Ottawa, March 2.—The news of Lord Herschell's death was received with consternation among the members of the Ministry who had been associated with him on the joint high commission.

At Government House, too, where His Lordship had been a guest at Christmas, the very deepest concern was manifested.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier expressed surprise and regret, stating that the loss to Canada and the Empire was great.

Sir Richard Cartwright said: "I regard it as a misfortune to Canada. Not only were our relations with him most cordial, but in all respects we found him disposed to render us valuable assistance. Both personally and politically I extremely regret his loss."

Hon. David Mills remarked that the matter was a great surprise and a matter of profound regret to the people of Canada, more especially to those who were acquainted with the legal attainments of the man. Both the American and British commissions have each lost a man of high prominence.

Sir Louis Davies left last night for Washington to represent the Government at the funeral.

Body to Go to England.

The arrangements for the funeral services are not yet complete. They will be held probably on Saturday, either at St. John's Episcopal Church or at the British embassy. Invitation will be extended to the President and others prominent in official life to attend. Upon the conclusion of this ceremony the body will be taken to New York and put aboard a steamship, leaving about Wednesday, to Europe.

Regret in England.

London, March 2.—All the papers express deep sympathy and regret at the untimely death of Baron Herschell, dwelling especially upon the loss to the Liberal party.

THE POPE IS DOING WELL.

His Holiness Underwent a Surgical Operation With Fortitude.

Rome, March 2.—The following bulletin has been issued: "His Holiness underwent an operation at 10 o'clock yesterday morning for the removal of a long-standing cyst, which suddenly became inflamed. His Holiness bore the operation remarkably well, although it was impossible to use chloroform. The Pope's condition is now fairly satisfactory. (Signed) Mazzoni, Lapponi."

The Pope desired that the cyst be simply lanced, but he consented to its removal on the doctors insisting upon the point.

An official bulletin issued at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon says: "The Pope's pulse is excellent and the general conditions are satisfactory in the part operated upon. All is proceeding regularly. (Signed) Mazzoni, Lapponi."

Cannot Register in Ontario.

Toronto, March 2.—Mr. J. Howard Hunter, inspector of insurance companies, refused the A.O.U.W. of Manitoba the right to register as a friendly society in Ontario, holding that in reality it was the mother society in the States seeking registration, which was a breach of the act. The company contends its Ontario society is entirely separate, not in affiliation with the mother society.

The Division Court decided yesterday that it could not order registration, and doubted its power to refer back to Mr. Hunter the application for registration.

Dominion Liner Labrador Becomes a Total Wreck

OFF THE COAST OF SCOTLAND.

Sixty-Four Passengers and Crew of 100 Thought to Have Been Saved—Agoncillo, the Representative of the Filipinos, on Board—The Cargo, Which Is Lost, Valued at $130,500.

Halifax, March 2.—Great excitement prevailed in Halifax last night when a report gained circulation that the big passenger steamer Labrador of the Dominion Line, which sailed from this port early on Tuesday morning of last week, bound to Liverpool, via Moville, had been wrecked on the Irish coast. The ill-fated ship had 21 first, 19 second-cabin and 24 steerage passengers and a full general cargo. She was commanded by Captain Erskine and carried a crew of about 100 officers and men. At a late hour the news of the disaster was confirmed by the receipt of a cablegram from Liverpool by A. C. Jones & Co., Halifax agents of the Dominion Line. The cable read: "Labrador total loss; all hands saved."

The First Cabin Passengers.

The first cabin passengers are: W. B. Cuthbertson of Vancouver; Nathan Mercier, Montreal; C. D. Bowles, Montreal; Charles Bryan, St. John; W. W. Stanley, Charleston; W. A. Huestis, Charleston; Charles Leigh, S. A. McLeod, L. R. Prouse, all of Charlottetown; N. H. Tetley, Montreal; J. W. McLaren, M. P. Chisholm, E. F. Wilkinson of Halifax; A. J. Gorrie, Montreal; L. T. Hardman, A. A. Holm of Halifax; Gilbert Winkle and Miss Greenshields of Montreal; T. Pears, Halifax; F. Agoncillo and Senor F. Marti. The last two named will be remembered as the Filipino representatives, who left Montreal a short time ago.

The Labrador was built by Harland & Wolff of Belfast, in 1891. Her length was 400 feet, breadth 47 feet, depth of hold 33 and her tonnage 4,700 gross, 2,998 net register.

The cargo taken from Halifax consisted of 1,200 barrels of apples and 254 tons of general cargo, including 41 packages of cordage and 2,858 bales of wood pulp.

The Cargo From St. John.

St. John, N.B., March 2.—The cargo taken from St. John by the wrecked Labrador included 1,300 sacks of flour, 500 sacks oilcake, 879 boxes meats, 50 barrels glucose, 60 barrels croton oil, all American goods, valued at $50,000; also 43,987 bushels wheat, 535 sacks flour, 6,788 maple blocks, 2 canoes, 6 cases rubber shoes, 88 packages pulleys, 208 cases bacon, 1,241 bales hay, 553 cases chairstuffs, 84 packages furniture, 3,330 barrels apples, 579 boxes cheese, 162 boxes butter, 50 barrels leather, 44 boxes hams, 35 boxes oranges, 834 doors, 491,681 feet deals and battens, 38,778 feet scantling, 35,165 ends, all Canadian goods, valued at $80,500.

Where the Wreck Happened.

London, March 2.—Up to a late hour no particulars regarding the Labrador has been received at Lloyds'. It is believed, however, that all the passengers are safe. She was wrecked at Skerryvore Rock, off Tobermory, a town of Scotland, County of Argyle, in the northeast of the Island of Mull.

MR. KIPLING MUCH IMPROVED.

Had a Refreshing Sleep After the Passing of the Crisis.

New York, March 2.—The condition of Rudyard Kipling was very much improved last night. The crisis in the disease was passed in the morning. It was the ninth day of Mr. Kipling's illness. In pneumonia the crisis is usually reached by the seventh or ninth day, but it may be delayed until 14. It required an iron constitution to bear up against the intensity of the disease, for Mr. Kipling's disease is a double lobar pneumonia—a pneumonia of both lungs—instead of the ordinary pneumonia, which is an inflammation and consolidation of one of the lobes of a single lung, the former being fatal in the highest degree.

The patient began to breathe more freely early yesterday morning, and after a few hours dropped into a refreshing sleep, the first in days, and the one essential to restore his fast waning strength. Later, the temperature dropped rapidly from 104 to 99, which is about normal, and which is the ordinary course of the disease.

Notwithstanding the fact that the crisis has been passed in Mr. Kipling's illness, he is by no means out of danger, pneumonia being one of those insidious diseases, like diphtheria, which has a tendency to seriously affect the heart.

The following bulletin was posted at 11.15 last night: "Mr. Kipling has continued to improve."

At an early hour this morning Mr. Kipling was resting easily.

The Klondike at Paris.

Chicago, March 1.—Thomas Crahan, miner and merchant of Dawson City, has just arrived here. Mr. Crahan is the manager of the Klondike Exploration Company, organized to bring the Klondike country to the knowledge of visitors at the Paris Exposition. The exhibition will consist of reproduction in part of the city of Dawson, with natives and dogs; practical demonstration of the system of mining, thawing the ground, sluicing, etc., and besides daily lectures on the country in three languages—French, German and English. Moving and stationary pictures will also be shown. Associated with them in the project are Hon. Clifford Sifton, Canadian Minister of the Interior, and William Ogilvie, commissioner of the Northwest Territories.

FRIENDS PREVAILED

A Nervous Toronto Woman Walked the Floor During the Night for Hours at a Time—She Makes a Statement.

TORONTO, ONT.—"I was troubled with nervousness. It was impossible for me to keep still and if the spells came over me during the night I had to get up and walk the floor for hours at a time. My blood was very poor and I was subject to bilious attacks. My feet would swell and I was not able to do my own housework. I treated with two of the best physicians here but only received relief for a time. I became discouraged. One day a friend called and advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I laughed at the advice but I was prevailed upon and procured one bottle. Before I used it all I began to feel better. I took several bottles and also several boxes of Hood's Pills. Now I can eat and drink heartily and sleep soundly. Hood's Sarsaparilla has entirely cured me and also strengthened me so that I now do all my own work. I cheerfully recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to all sufferers from nervousness, weakness or general debility." MRS. H. F. PARM, Degrassi Street.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

THERE is a probability of Samoa trouble in the far east growing out of the German and American eagles failing to agree in their little nests around the Philippines.

IF Kipling recovers—and all Anglo-Saxondom hopes he will—look out, warns the London Advertiser, for a poem on the New York climate that will make Our Lady of the Snows a summer girl in comparison.

THE German Minister of Education says that criticism of the Government's policy should be regarded as treason. How many Canadian editors, asks the London Advertiser, would be out of jail if such a principle applied in this country?

A NEW TRANSCONTINENTAL LINE.

(Toronto World.)

Things are moving very rapidly these days in railway matters. By putting two and two together, the World very much suspects that a new Canadian transcontinental railway system is at present in process of formation. For a long time there has been a general impression that Messrs. Wm. McKenzie and Dan Mann have been associates of the Canadian Pacific Railway, or rather, agents of that company, and that as fast as they got charters and bonuses they turned them over, by agreement, to Sir William Van Horne. It looks now as if a split had taken place between Mr. McKenzie and the C.P.R., and that war is on between them. Any day we may look for a declaration of open hostilities. The fact that Joe Martin's Government in British Columbia threw out McKenzie's B. C. & Eastern bill the other day is significant. This road was to run from Vancouver to Nelson, with the intention of securing a right over the Crow's Nest line to Lethbridge. The throwing out of the bill deprives Mr. McKenzie of the customary bonus, and thus prevents him from undertaking the construction of the road. Messrs. Mann & McKenzie have, therefore, to look for another outlet, and their various schemes have now pretty much taken the following shape: Beginning at Port Arthur, they propose to build a railway to Winnipeg, and from Winnipeg, via Gladstone and along the Dauphin road, over the old Mackenzie survey, and through the Rocky Mountains to the coast, by the Yellowhead Pass. Messrs. McKenzie & Mann are also reported to have bought Hugh Sutherland's charter for a road from Winnipeg to Hudson Bay. This road includes western connections beyond Manitoba. For several weeks Messrs. Mann & McKenzie and Sutherland, and Premier Greenway and Hon. J. D. Cameron, of Manitoba, have been in consultation here, and the Ottawa end of it has been represented by Hon. Mr. Sifton. Practically, then, Mr. McKenzie's scheme is for a railway from Port Arthur to the Pacific coast, via Winnipeg, Lake Dauphin and the Yellowhead Pass, going to the north of the present C.P.R. line, and also through a country which is said to contain better land and afford a better traffic than the C.P.R.

How Japanese Catarrh Cure Cures Nasal Catarrh.

Japanese Catarrh Cure is a penetrating soothing and healing premade, which is inserted up the nostrils by a small camel's hair pencil the heat of the body melts this premade and the patient breathes the soothing medication through the nostrils, and the nasal channels open up. The stuffed-up feeling in the head leaves, and the person can breath naturally through the nose. The dull pains across the head cease. Continual use for a short time soothes the mucous membrane until the soreness and inflammation are all gone. The bad order of breath passes away, and the lost senses of smell and hearing return. The dropping in the throat is permanently checked, and the nose does not clog up towards night. The discharge from the nose grows less and less, and finally stops altogether. It does not drive the disease into the throat or lungs or into the ears, as is so often done by washes, douches and the temporary relief catarrh powders and snuffs which contain cocaine and other fatal alkaloids, which relieve at the time but give rise to a false security. Japanese Catarrh Cure is a thorough antiseptic, is cleansing and healing in its action, and soothes the minute applied. Six boxes are absolutely guaranteed to cure any case of nasal catarrh, or money will be refunded. A free sample will be sent to any person suffering from this most dangerous disease. Sample 5 cents in stamps. Sold by Ormond & Walsh, druggists, Peterborough. 50 cents, six for $2.50, or by mail. Address, The Griffiths & Macpherson Co., 121 Church street, Toronto.

ONTARIO'S STOCK OF LIVE STOCK.

According to the latest published returns the several classes of live stock in Ontario at the close of 1898 are as follows: Agricultural horses, 611,241 against 613,670 for 1897; cattle, 2,215,943 against 2,182,326; sheep, 1,677,014 against 1,680,360, and pigs, 1,648,787, against 1,284,963. Altogether the account of agriculture in Ontario for 1898 is a prosperous one.

IMPROVING OUR STOCK.

THE REVISION BILL PASSED.

More Residences in Paris Searched by Officials.

Paris, March 2.—The Senate finally adopted the trial revision bill by a vote of 158 to 131.

The police yesterday searched the residences of the officials and members of the League of the French Fatherland, the League of the Rights of Man and Baron Legoux, president of the Bonapartist committee. Numbers of documents, books and accounts were seized, and the offices of the leagues were closed.

The most important papers were found at the residence of Baron Legoux, who is the representative of Prince Victor Napoleon.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great sufferings for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent.' This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidney and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by all Druggists, every bottle guaranteed.

WENT AGAINST SENATOR COX.

Canada Life Policy-Holders Want to Recover $400,000 From Him.

Hamilton, March 2.—Yesterday a writ was issued by Scott, Lees & Hobson, on behalf of William Lees and other policyholders of the Canada Life Insurance Company, against Senator George A. Cox, Toronto, to recover $400,000 alleged to have been received by him as commission on transactions made by him while he was a director of the company. The endorsement on the writ reads as follows: "The plaintiff's claim is for a judgment of this honorable court directing the defendant, George A. Cox, to repay to the defendants, the Canada Life Assurance Company, the sum of $400,000, and all other moneys received by him from his co-defendants, or taken by him from moneys of his co-defendants which have come to his hands while a director of the defendants, the Canada Life Assurance Company, whether in respect of business of the said company transacted in Canada or in the States of Michigan or Minnesota, or any other of the United States of America, and for an order directing the said defendant, George A. Cox, to account for moneys improperly taken or received by him while a director of his co-defendants, such moneys being the moneys of the defendants, the Canada Life Assurance Company, and for an injunction."

Mr. Scott said that his case was but the forerunner of numerous lawsuits to be entered against the Senator and several of the gentlemen associated with him in the recent changes made by the directorate.

Mr. Walker's Statement.

Toronto, March 2.—Mr. Byron E. Walker, general manager of the Bank of Commerce, who is one of the directors of the Canada Life, was seen by The Globe yesterday, and on hearing of the matter was inclined to ridicule it. In speaking of it he said: "Mr. Scott of Scott & Lee, is, if I am well informed, interested in the Canada Life to the extent of one share, transferred to him just before the annual meeting, and is, I believe, not a policy-holder. Even if there were anything in their contention the amount of money sued for is preposterous, and the writ undoubtedly represents the personal animus of certain persons in Hamilton, and not the genuine interests of policy-holders. Mr. Cox has only been a director for five or six years, and before entering the board the question of his right to be both manager of the eastern district and a director was doubtless duly considered."

MR. FRANK DODGE

Says His Life was Saved by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto Feb, 27.—Mr. Frank Dodge, of North Maupesberg, Ont., has been visiting here recently. He is a splendid specimen of Canadian manhood, standing more than six feet high "in his stockings" erect and muscular.

"I was a different man two years ago," said he to a friend to day. The truth is I would have died of Kidney Complaint, if it hadn't been for Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I had been treated by physicians and had taken various remedies without getting any better. I read of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and decided to try them. I did so, and was thoroughly cured in a couple of weeks.

MR. J. DOHERTY. ST. JOHN, N.B.,

Tells how Laxa-Liver Pills cured him of Dyspepsia and Constipation.

Ninety per cent. of Canadians are suffering from either Dyspepsia or Constipation. Most of them are groping in the dark—searching for something to relieve and cure them.

Mr. John Doherty, 85 North Street, St. John, N.B., has found the remedy that cures every disease of the digestive tract.

It is Laxa-Liver Pills.

Here's his opinion of them:

"I am pleased to speak of the great benefit I have received from Laxa-Liver Pills.

"I was very much constipated and felt great distress after eating.

"Laxa-Liver Pills regulated my stomach and restored my entire digestive system to healthy action.

"They work in a natural, yet effective way, and are free from any pain or griping, and do not cause the least inconvenience."

Anyone suffering from dyspepsia, sour stomach, wind on the stomach, biliousness, jaundice, liver torpor, sick headache, constipation, bad breath or coated tongue will find Laxa-Liver Pills the most effective remedy to cure any of these complaints. Price 25 cents, all druggists.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the time when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1899 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which delights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used, Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. FOR SENATE REFORM.

A Resolution by Hon. Mr. Hardy in the Legislature.

TO INCREASE THE REVENUES.

The Provincial Treasurer Brings Down His Measures—License Fees Are Increased, and Railways, Street Railways, Banks, Trust, Insurance Loan, Telegraph and Telephone Companies Taxed.

Toronto, March 2.—Hon. Mr. Hardy has given notice of the following motion:

"That in the opinion of this House the provisions of the British North America Act respecting the constitution and powers of the Senate of Canada are at variance with the well-understood principles of responsible government, and should be brought more into harmony with those principles by an amendment to the said act, substantially providing that in case of disagreement between the House of Commons and the Senate, the point of difference shall be decided by a majority of the members of the two Houses present and voting in a joint meeting.

"Further, that it is the opinion of this House that the British North America Act should be so amended as to provide that the appointment of Senators should be for a limited term of years, and not for life, as at present."

INCREASE IN LICENSE FEES.

Hon. Mr. Harcourt, in introducing his bill to supplement the revenues of Ontario, disclaimed any intention of considering the questions involved from any but a purely business standpoint. He told how the License Act of 1884 had increased the revenue by $114,892, from 3,151 licenses. In 1885 the Scott Act agitation was at its height. One effect was immediately to reduce the number of licenses; in fact, a considerable area of the province was altogether outside the license law. This caused a loss to the revenue of $50,000. In 1886 further increases were put on all licenses. Neither the act of 1884 nor that of 1886, raising the licenses, cut off one single license in force in those years. Nor did those acts take away from municipalities the power of increasing the amount of license by their own motion. There are two ways in which municipalities can raise the amount of a license—by bylaws of council, by bylaw submitted to the electors. Both are still open to municipalities if they desire to increase their revenues. The bill now proposed takes away no rights which municipalities have in reference to licenses.

Mr. Harcourt then went into details of the proposed increases. In cities with over 150,000 population wholesale dealers will pay an additional fee of $250; in cities of between 40,000 and 150,000—and there are eight of them)—an increased fee of $150, and in all other cities an increased license fee of $100. These figures only refer to wholesale dealers.

As to taverns and shop licenses in cities of 150,000 population the license shall cost $150 more than at the present time. In cities from 40,000 to 150,000, there shall be an increase on each license of $100, and in all other cities of $100. Three saloons connected with railways will pay an additional $150 each. Two hundred licenses are affected in the case of population over 150,000, 205 between 40,000 and 150,000, and 272 in cities under 40,000.

In Toronto the number of tavern and shop licenses is 200, and there are six wholesale dealers. Hamilton and Ottawa come in the second class, and there are, respectively, in those cities, 95 and 110 licenses, with 11 wholesale dealers. In smaller cities there are only five wholesale licenses. Hence, there are only 26 wholesale dealers in the province. The bill concerns only cities.

There are in the province eight distilleries and 67 breweries. The bill is so framed that the amount of license to be paid will depend upon the amount of money invested in the business of the brewery or distillery. There are 30 breweries which are small, and they will not be affected by this bill, but continue to pay $350 each. Only one small brewery had complained to the department that the payment of $350 was harsh.

The scale of increase as applied to the 67 breweries is that the license fee will be raised from $150 to $1,000, dependent on the amount of money invested. The same principle applies to the eight distilleries. They will pay an increased amount of from $750 to $4,000.

The total increase of revenue Hon. Mr. Harcourt expects to receive annually by the operation of the bill is, approximately: $54,000 from distilleries, $16,000 from breweries, and from $65,000 to $70,000 from shop and tavern licenses.

In anticipation of the objection that the proposed fees are higher than the licensees can afford to pay, Hon. Mr. Harcourt said that in the case of Toronto, with its 200 licenses, he was in a position to state positively, knowing the facts, that if the 200 licenses were to be granted to-morrow, there would be twice 200 people anxious to pay the increased fee to get the license. Hon. gentlemen representing the City of Toronto know that there have been transactions of this kind in the city.

Enlarging on this topic, the Provincial Treasurer said: "The imposition of this increased fee will not operate in closing any licensed house in Toronto. Each of the 200 license-holders, rather than give place to someone else, would not only pay the increment we ask, but pay it double, yea, treble. In some transactions eight times the fee we propose has been paid for a license in Toronto.

"Are we exacting too high a fee? I say emphatically, no." To prove this, Hon. Mr. Harcourt gave statistics of other cities. The total receipts from liquor licenses last year in Ontario were $275,000. Two cities in the Province of Quebec took in a revenue of $340,000, a larger revenue by $65,000 than the whole of Ontario. Montreal paid $310,000, Toronto $76,000, or five times as much. Albany raised twice as much liquor revenue as Toronto, with only half the population; Buffalo eight times as much. Rochester, with only one-half the population of Toronto, received two and a half times the amount of liquor licenses. "This," said the Provincial Treasurer, "is my answer to the allegation that the increased fees are too high."

Statistics having been given as to the higher fees charged in many American cities, Hon. Mr. Harcourt concluded by proclaiming that the bill is not extreme or immoderate; that only one-third of the licenses of the province are affected thereby, and that the 200 license-holders in Toronto will uncomplainingly pay the increased fee. He moved the first reading of the bill.

THE SECOND BILL.

Hon. Mr. Harcourt also introduced his second bill in the Legislature yesterday to supplement the revenues of the province. He explained the need of this increase and justified the expenditure of the appropriations, 99 out of every 100 of which had been concurred in by members of both sides of the House. The only course open in this juncture is to secure additional revenue in an equitable way. In 1892 the Government, with this object in view, enacted the succession duties, which had placed $1,000,000 in the treasury. The bill he had to propose that afternoon, he contended, was one which would work free from irritation, one which would commend itself to all classes of the community, and one that would readily get the support of those who were affected by it. "I know," added Mr. Harcourt, "that is the case." The United States, after 70 years' experience, had been unable to evolve a basis of taxation to which no objection can be taken.

The first corporation which the bill will affect will be the chartered banks. It was proposed that every bank shall pay a tax of one-tenth of one per cent. on paid-up capital stock, where such does not exceed $2,000,000, and $25 for every $100,000 or fraction thereof of the paid-up capital stock in excess of $2,000,000 and not exceeding $6,000,000, and $15 for every $100,000 or fraction thereof of paid-up stock over $6,000,000. Every bank shall pay an additional tax of $100 for each principal office or place of business in the province, and $25 for each additional office branch or agency, but no tax shall be levied upon more than one office in any one municipality.

"I am glad," continued Hon. Mr. Harcourt, "that the banks approve of this bill, not only of the basis of taxation, but of the whole bill, as it concerns them." Probably the bank arrangement would yield the Government $40,000.

The bill proposes to tax certain insurance companies—all life insurance companies except mutual companies. It provides that every life insurance company which transacts business in the city shall pay a tax of one per cent., and every other insurance company shall pay a tax of one-half of one per cent., calculated on the gross premiums received by such company in respect of the business transacted during the preceding year.

The Minister explained that no difference would be made under this bill as to the treatment of domestic or foreign fire companies. If we made a discrimination in favor of our Canadian offices as against Great Britain we should be the only British colony adopting such a course. In fact, he understood Canadians did not wish any discrimination clause.

The Minister also explained that in all his propositions respecting banks, railways, telegraph and telephone companies, as far as municipal assessment is concerned, they are left in precisely the same position as before the introduction of this bill. The right of a municipality to tax any corporation was not affected by this bill. We are not changing the law. Insurance and trusts companies were still liable for income tax as before.

Every railway company which has received, or shall receive, a subvention from the province shall pay $15 mileage tax, on the same principle as street railways pay mileage tax. In urban districts, it shall be $30 per mile when the district does not exceed 15 miles; above that the scale is graduated.

Telegraph companies will be taxed one-quarter of one per cent. on all paid-up capital; telephone companies one-sixth of one per cent. on paid-up capital.

The bill also taxes natural gas companies and companies which merely transmit natural gas. Producers of natural gas will pay $5,000, and $2,000 extra if they transmit the product.

Express companies will pay $3,000 each.

Loan companies will be rated at $65 on every $1,000,000 of capital stock, and $100 for every additional million.

In conclusion, Hon. Mr. Harcourt said the Government expected to receive $100,000 from the liquor license bill and $200,000 from the operation of the present bill. Approximately, he placed these estimates of receipts: Banks, $40,000; telephone companies, $11,000; telegraph companies, $7,000; gas companies, $6,000; natural gas companies, $15,000; trust companies, $3,000; life companies, $43,000; other companies, $17,000; loan companies (fixed capital), $24,000; do., terminating, $3,000; street railways, $13,000; provincial subsidized railways, $90,000.

Mr. Whitney's Criticism.

Mr. Whitney (Dundas) said the magnitude and seriousness of the statement they had just heard were such that the proposals should not be discussed hastily. Owing to the action, or non-action, of the Government, the province had arrived at a situation when almost the hearthstones, as well as the windows and chimneys, had to be taxed. We are face to face with direct taxation. That which had been prophesied by friends of the Government and the warnings of the Opposition had been realised—had come true—and the Provincial Treasurer was now the herald of what had long been foreseen.

The second reading of the bill was fixed for Tuesday next.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady of this country. "Disease fastened his clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz., Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Sold by all Druggists at 50 cents and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

Caught in a Shaft.

Lumsden, N.W.T., Feb. 28.—While Sidney E. Armstrong, employed on A. & G. Mutch's farm, was crushing grain with the windmill on Saturday, he caught hold of a horizontal shaft. His arm was smashed to a pulp. Another man had to turn Armstrong five times round the shaft to get the victim loose. The arm had to be amputated at the shoulder.

Smallpox Killed the Nurse.

Ottawa, March 1.—Mrs. A. L. Firn of this city, the nurse who volunteered her services to attend the family stricken with smallpox at Irish Creek, died at that place on Sunday morning. Soon after reaching Irish Creek she contracted the deadly disease, and after 12 days' suffering succumbed to its terrible effects.

THE ODORLESS

CREMATORY CLOSET.

I have been appointed Sole Agent for the Odorless Crematory Closet manufactured by the Crematory Closet and General Heating Co., of Hamilton.

This Closet has found a place in many of the best homes in the province, and all who have used it cannot speak too highly of its merits. Medical men speak of it from a sanitary point of view, claiming that, if health is any consideration, no home should be without one. Here are some of the

TESTIMONIALS.

Alliston, March 1st, 1898.

I have had one of your "Crematory Closets" in use now for several weeks and am glad to be able to say that I have found it entirely satisfactory in every respect. I have not been able to detect the slightest odor from it at any time and would not be without it. I am sure it must prove a great convenience to people in the country and in towns where water is not obtainable. Yours respectfully, JAMES CONWAY.

Sheddon, February 25th, 1898.

I have used it for sometime and find it perfectly odorless. It is a long left want and I believe it will become very popular especially in rural districts, towns and villages where wells are so frequently contaminated by the ordinary closets. I am, yours, etc. W. H. MORRISON

Medical Superintendent's Office, Sept. 20th, 1897
Asylum for the Insane, Hamilton.

Gentlemen: I had the opportunity of witnessing yesterday the operation of your Odorless Crematory Closet. It had a large accumulation of fecal matter in the pan when the fire was started, and inside of 20 minutes it was all reduced to ashes. There was no odor before or during the operation of consuming the fecal matter, as the ventilation by the flue seems to carry off all odor at once, before it has a chance to vitiate the surrounding atmosphere.

Yours truly. JAMES RUSSELL, M.D.

Binbrook, Sept. 20th, 1897.

Dear Sirs—Having been present at a private test of your new patent closet yesterday afternoon, I beg to express my satisfaction with it in every way. Neither before, during or after the burning out of its contents did I detect the slightest unpleasant odor. I am satisfied it will be a boon to thousands in rural towns, villages and country homes. Yours truly, M. J. MULLOCK.

Residential Properties FOR SALE

In Peterborough.

Having decided to remove to Manitoba in the spring, I have decided to sell the following valuable properties at prices that should secure ready purchasers:

Parcel No. 1. A Brick Terrace of four houses, adjoining the corner of Shortbrooke and Park streets, two storys, well built with good stone cellars full size of buildings. Each residence contains six rooms with summer kitchen. This property has always been continuously rented and pays an excellent rate of interest on the investment, and it is practically a new property, being only erected a few years, and is in good condition.

Parcel No. 2. Brick residence corner of Reid and Simcoe. Containing ten rooms. House in good condition with all modern improvements, bath, closets, heated with furnace and lighted with electricity.

Parcel No. 3. Brick dwelling corner Aberdeen and Benson streets, facing Dixon Park, containing seven rooms with summer kitchen. This property was erected last season for myself and occupied by myself. Has hard and soft water in kitchen and is very comfortable residence. This lot is 100 feet square.

Parcel No. 4. Brick residence, corner Wellesley and Benson streets. Two storys, seven rooms with kitchen, pleasantly situated adjoining Dixon Park. Hard and soft water in kitchen. This lot is also 100 feet square and is a similar building to parcel No. 3.

Parties desiring a good paying investment or home will find any of these desirable purchases.

Particulars and terms, which are reasonable, made known on application to the undersigned.

CHARMING MUSICAL RECITAL.

Given by Senor Gonsales at the Y. M. C. A. Hall Last Night.

There is no doubt that there is a great deal of natural musical talent in Peterborough, but unfortunately it is something like the natural resources of Ontario, very largely undeveloped. Therefore an opportunity of securing conditions that will develop the musical talent which abounds here should be hailed with delight. That such an opportunity, and an excellent one, is represented by Senor Gonzales, the operatic tenor and specialist in voice culture, who proposes establishing classes in vocal culture in Peterborough, will be very readily admitted by the large audience of music loving people that assembled in Association Hall last night.

A Nordheimer pianoforte commercially conspicuous as to titular blazonry, graced the platform and Senora Gonzales, pleasantly suggested the enjoyment the programme of the evening afforded by a spirited rendering of The Russian Spring Song, displaying a crisp, firm touch and finished style.

Senor Gonzales, with a pleasant and typical Spanish face, furnished the principal part of the programme. His first number was sung in Spanish—"Costa de Levante," from the opera of Emilio Arieta. In answer to a fervid encore he sang a song in English, "Since Thou art Mine." This was followed by "Non e Ver," by Tito Mattei. "Still is the Night," a musical gem by Boehm, received a beautiful vocal setting from Senor Gonzales and, par parenthesis, was the most charming thing he sang during the evening. "La Dona Mobile," from Verdi's opera of "Riggoletto" followed and brought out as an encore Bischoff's "Good Night." The recital was concluded by the duet in the prison scene in Il Trovatore—"Miserere," the part of Leonora being obligingly taken by Mrs. Sanderson, at a few hours' notice.

Senor Gonzalez created a very satisfactory impression. Under the circumstances the audience was inclined to be critical, but the singer passed the ordeal very successfully. His voice, whilst not phenomenal, is a good tenor robusto, of even quality of register, best, perhaps, in the lower and middle. But the most conspicuous feature was the excellent culture its clever use betrayed, which enabled the singer to make most creditable use of it. The Senor's versatility was indicated by the wide range of style represented by the programme presented. Equally artistic work was done in the tender delicacy of effect demanded by Boehm's "Still is the Night," and the vocal virtuosity and dramatic force called for in the operatic selections sung. A delightful feature of Senor Gonzales's singing, illustrative of the excellence of his method, was his fine and distinct enunciation, which lent an especial charm to his songs in English. Though this was a foreign tongue to him, the words of his songs could be distinctly heard and understood. If Senor Gonzales is, as he claims, able to make his pupils sing as well as he sings, that is to apply successfully the excellent method that marks his work, a large class of musical students such, as is understood, is in prospect, will be a distinct and decided advance in musical culture and development in Peterborough.

Senor Gonzalez was assisted in the programme by Mrs. Sanderson, Mrs. Bert Brown and Mr. T. O. Rush, in trio—"One Sweetly Solemn Thought."

At the conclusion, Mr. Dumble in a few graceful words voiced the sentiments of the audience as regards the pleasure experienced by the delightful introduction they had had to Senor Gonzales—an introduction for which especial thanks were due to Mr. Tom Rush, the energetic impresario of the occasion.

As the audience was leaving the hall a gentleman made vigorous complaint of the thoughtless conduct of some persons exhibited in talking loudly enough during the singing to seriously annoy those in the vicinity who appreciated and wished to listen to the music.

Sunday at George Street Church.

THE POULTRY MEN'S ANNUAL MEETING.

MR. R. H. LEARY ELECTED PRESIDENT FOR THE YEAR.

The Ontario Exhibition for Next Year—Bright Prospects for the Local Association.

The annual meeting of the Peterborough Poultry and Pet Stock Association was held last evening in the council chamber, all the directors but three being present, as well as a number of members.

The chair was taken by the vice-president, Mr. W. C. Rightmyer.

THE DIRECTOR'S REPORT

was submitted as appended:

To the Members of the Peterborough Poultry and Pet Stock Association:

Gentlemen,—We beg leave to submit to you for approval our second annual report as follows:

Last year when your Board of Directors was elected there was a considerable amount of the prize money to pay on the previous combined Poultry and Bench Show. Although at the annual meeting a balance was shown to be on hand we had to raise by way of a loan $65 to enable us to pay our prizes in full.

Early in March of last year the dates of this winter's show were fixed and announced—January 17th to 19th—and your board made all preparations accordingly and carried the show through. In number and quality of exhibits it far exceeded the previous year's exhibition, and the appearance of the display was greatly improved by the Ontario Association coops. It would be a hard matter to find anywhere a display of birds to beat it. The expression of everyone who had the good fortune to visit the show was that they were surprised and delighted. But the visitors were not in numbers all that could be wished for. It is hard to understand why in a town such as Peterborough the citizens, whom we would expect to appreciate any effort put forward to a bigger and better supply of poultry and eggs for sale and consumption, do not show a more active interest in an enterprise which might work so much to their benefit. And the farmers are just as slow to help along an industry that could be a source of much revenue to them. If they would take hold of the poultry business in the same way as they have done the cheese, and in the same way as they are developing the butter industry, similar good results would follow. There is no valid reason why this business should not be made just as profitable. It seems that the people require to be awakened and educated, and there is no better way of doing so than by holding exhibitions and creating rivalry among the breeders, who are always ready to sell either birds or eggs to those who wish to commence poultry raising or to re-stock the yards of those who have been wasting time and money trying to raise poultry from mongrels in the manner of the old times. It only requires a united effort on the part of the town and country people to bring their feathered friends to the front in importance. We see by the statistics of 1897 that eggs to the value of $9,600,000 were sold in Canada, not including those consumed at home.

Owing to the small attendance, due to indifference and other causes, one of which which was that a bench show was held on the week previous to ours, though our dates were announced nine months ahead. The receipts were smaller than was anticipated, and the show was not a success financially.

Your board at the time of the first show in 1898 commenced to take steps to secure the meeting of the Ontario Association in 1900 and the work has been carried on by your Board of this year, and success has crowned our efforts. We return thanks to our many friends who supported our application. Peterborough will have the Ontario show next winter, and we hope it will bring out the people in such numbers and give us such assistance financially that we will be able to pay off the slight debt we carry at present.

Although our two shows have not been great financial successes we are not all discouraged. We hope the day is not far distant when the Government of Ontario will see its way clear to help a poultry association in every county with a grant, as it does the agricultural and horticultural societies at present.

The Board wishes to thank the County Council for a grant of $25 and all those who helped so generously either with goods or special prizes, or by becoming members of the Association.

Yours respectfully,
JOHN A. DAVIDSON, President. WM. COLLINS, Secretary.

The financial statement showed that the deficit in 1898 had been covered by a note for $65 given by the Directors. In 1899 a further deficit of $135 resulted, which amount had been similarly raised.

The reports were adopted on motion of Messrs. Goldie and Cullen.

Mr. Wm. Collins, the secretary-treasurer, pointed out that the deficit of the two years would, in his opinion, be very easily wiped out next year, when the Ontario Show would be held in Peterborough. Further than this he expected that the Goverment would make annual grants for poultry shows.

Messrs. Isaac Dormer and R. H. Leary were tendered a hearty vote of thanks for the efforts made by them in securing the Ontario Exhibition, and also for their untiring interest in the Association.

OFFICERS

for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

Hon. Pres.—A. L. Davis.
Pres.—R. H. Leary.
1st Vice.-Pres.—Jas. Cullen.
2nd Vice-Pres.—John Robson.
Sec.-Treas.—Wm. Collins.
Board of Directors—T H Goldie, W C Rightmyer, Fred Lund, Wm Head, Harry Lush, Jas Baptie, H Nesbitt, J I Davidson and Elric White.
Auditors—John Jayes and Alf, Terrill.

OBITUARY.

The Late William Murphy.

The many friends in town of Mr. Wm. Murphy will be pained to hear of his death, which occurred at 4 o'clock this morning at St. Joseph's Hospital, at the early age of 26 years.

The deceased, who was a sufferer from diabetes, entered the hospital for treatment on Tuesday, and in spite of the best medical treatment the unfortunate young man gradually grew worse, until death ensued this morning.

Mr. Murphy was the only son of the late Patrick Murphy, of Ennismore, and was employed as wine clerk with Messrs. LeFrun & Felcher, of the Palace. He was a young man of excellent character, quiet and unassuming, and a general favourite with all who knew him.

The funeral will take place from St. Joseph's Hospital to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock, and will proceed to Ennismore, where the interment will take plac.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES

Which are Being Conducted in the Park Street Baptist Church.

There was a large attendance last evening at the special evangelistic services which are being held in the Park street Baptist church. Rev. A. H. Cowsert, of Belleville, was the speaker and took his text from Galatians v. chap., 11th ver., the subject being "The Stumbling Block of the Cross." The speaker went on to state the way of salvation through the crucified Christ was a stumbling block to the natural mind because it was opposite to the self righteousness that so many pride themselves in. Some people thought that if they paid their debts and lived a good moral life that, therefore, their chances for heaven were good, but the fact of a salvation through shed blood was an offence or a stumbling block to them. It was also against the legality of the natural mind. It also seemed to be against reason.

The speaker then went on to show that people reasoned very falsely about the great atonement because they failed to recognize that the justice of God required a complete satisfaction.

Salvation was a spiritual thing and required spiritual discernment.

Spiritual import of the atonement could not be apprehended by reason alone.

Mr. Cowsert then pointed out that Christ by satisfying the claims of God's law against us by dying, had made possible a reconciliation.

During the evening quite a number manifested a desire to be saved.

A trio composed of Miss Dingman, Rev. Cowsert and Rev. Elliott sang "I shall know Him" at the close.

The meetings will continue.

JOHN WYCLIFFE AND HIS BIBLE.

The Third of the Special Lenten Discourses.

ADDRESS BY REV. W. H. A. FRENCH.

The Devotion of the Great Reformer to That Which he Considered to be the Truth—His Piety and the Singleness of his Aims.

The third of the Lenten addresses in St. John's church was delivered last evening by Rev. W. H. A. French :

The subject, said the speaker, upon which I was asked to address you was first "John Wycliffe," but I see that it has been announced as being "Wycliffe and the Bible." It does not, however, make much difference, as you can hardly undertake an essay on Wycliffe without mention of his Bible, and hardly speak about his Bible without some reference to the man. In whatever manner we view the life of John Wycliffe we are led to the conclusion that he was in all points a remarkable man. Remarkable not only for the purity of his life, the singleness of his aims, his devotion to that which he considered to be the truth, the depth of his scholarship, but for courage he exhibited against his opponents and the influence he exercised over the English nation.

John Wycliffe cannot be discussed apart from the church he represented. Whatever opinions we may hold regarding the doctrines, ceremonies and mode of that obtained in his day we cannot shut our eyes to the fact that it was the Church of England for which he wrote and for which he fought so nobly and so well. It was not to reform the Church of Rome, but the Church of England that he stood forth a champion and if history informs us that his first efforts in the interests of England against the Papal See, were only of a political character, the principles which underlay all his arguments them were culled from the new Testament and their application to political matters at the beginning could not fail to eventually extend to matters ecclesiastical.

There are many people who imagine that the Church of England began its existence at the Reformation. That that period saw the birth of the church and that previous to that dividing line every Englishman was a member of the Church of Rome. To believe this is to evince great ignorance in regard to English history.

The writers before the Reformation never saw the matter in this light. The church of their country was the Church of England and not the Church of Rome.

THE CHURCH OF ROME

was regarded as an alien power to be treated with respect as long as she acted rightly, but to be resisted whenever she manifested towards the English Church any signs of tyranny or arrogance. The Pope was accorded certain legal rights, but when he overstepped those rights he was no more entitled to obedience.

When King John surrendered his sovereignty to the Pope, the moral influence of the Papacy in the country began to stoop towards its overthrow. The sturdy spirit of independence became on that occasion thoroughly aroused. The barons compelled King John to sign the Magna Charta, which in effect told Pope Innocent III that he revoked his vow of vassalage and took back the Kingdom. For 150 years from that time the ecclesiastical history of England was a great wrestling match between England and Rome. In the reign of Edward III, Wycliffe arose and those well known events took place which set in motion those influences which kept on fermenting until they culminated in the Reformation of the Church.

Wycliffe was born in the North Riding of Yorkshire in 1324.

OF HIS BOYHOOD

we learn nothing. He was early destined for the church and entered upon his university course about 1336. He became Master of Baliol in 1361 and in 1365 was appointed Warden of Canterbury Hall. The event which first called him from his scholastic labours was the demand made by Pope Urban for the fendatory tribute of 1,000 marks, with 33 years arrears of payment, as promised by King John.

Wycliffe claimed that if there was to be any sovereign Lord above the monarch, Christ himself must be that Lord; that the Pope was a man liable, like other men to sin and while in mortal sin was unfitted for dominion. The result of the grounds so taken and so successfully maintained by Wycliffe was a great and lasting victory over Rome, the blessings of which England enjoys to this very hour.

While on a commission to Rome for King Edward in 1374, the germs of suspicion of the Church of Rome were implanted in Wycliffe's mind. These germs afterwards grew and developed until they led him to stand out as the great champion of infant protestantism and to characterise him who was termed "Christ's Vicar," as above all others, to be the adversary of Christ.

Wycliffe's labour perfected the work of the Reformation, delivered England from the domination of the Romish system and gave England that Book, for the first time, which alone can make men wise unto salvation and a nation truly great.

METHODISM AROUSED.

Great Interest Manifested in the Evangelistic Services Now being Conducted.

We are told by the oldest residents of the town that there never has been such a revival of "pure and undefiled religion" in the Methodist churches in Peterborough as the one now in progress. At every meeting for the past three weeks converts have been made, and still the work goes on with unabated interest and increasing success.

The trio of ministers leading the movement are men of about the same age, each having spent a quarter of a century in the Methodist Ministry, viz, Revs. S. J. Shorey, D. O. Crossley and J. E. Moore, each having had marked success in the Lord's work.

Rev. Mr. Shorey preached last evening from the text "Is it well with thee?" Rev. Mr. Moore preaches this evening, and Rev. Mr. Crossley, though suffering from rheumatism, has conducted the after meetings this week with admirable tact and success. A meeting for believers is announced for each afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Charlotte street church lecture hall. The place was crowded to the doors last night, and many seeking at the altar. As Mr. Crossley said, "it was a spectacle for men and angels."

PERSONAL

Miss Maggie Sherlock, town, was visiting in Millbrook this week.

His Lordship Bishop O'Connor, who has been in Toronto for the past few days, arrived home to-day.

Miss Annie O'Neil, of the millinery department of Miss K. Rudkins' drygoods store, has accepted a position in Simcoe.

Mr. John Hall has acquired a partnership with the firm of Warde & Co. The firm name has been changed to Warde & Hall.

Mr. John Jeffrey has returned from Montreal and is again connected with the draughting department of the Canadian General Electric Works.

The many friends in town of Mr. C. A. Barton, who was formerly connected with the staff of the Canadian General Electric Works, will be pleased to learn that he has returned from Cleveland and assumed the general managership of the company.

Miss Lena Shannon, of Lindsay, who has been spending a few days with Mrs. F. A. Shannon, Bethune street, left for home last evening.

THE GAME OF QUOITS.

CAN BE PLAYED ANY PLACE AND IS SPLENDID EXERCISE.

It Is a Very Ancient English Pastime, and Its Beginnings Are Lost in the Mist of Ages—Fine Training For the Eye and Arm.

There are some games which have never had their boom, and quoits is one of them. Still, as nothing happens but the unexpected, it may be that the time is nearly ripe for quoits to be taken out of its undeserved obscurity, to be exalted to the status of a national game, to have weekly papers named after it and to have columns in the sporting press devoted to the doings of its champions. Stranger things have happened. Who, for instance, would have said when at the end of the sixties a few energetic sportsmen went wobbling about on bone shaking bicycles which it would have been far easier to push than to ride that at the end of the century considerably more than 100,000 bicycles would be manufactured annually in Great Britain alone and that a great part of the population would adopt this means of locomotion? One cannot imagine that quoits will ever attain such popularity as the bicycle, but the unprejudiced person can see no reason why it should not become as favorite a pastime as golf, which a very few years ago was almost unheard of south of the Tweed.

Quoits is a very fine game, especially in the winter time. It is splendid exercise and trains the eye and the hand to act together in a way that few other sports can do, for the very essence of it is accuracy of aim at a mark placed below the level of the hand. It has been objected that throwing quoits makes the player lopsided, but, after all, that is easily remedied, for there is nothing to prevent the player throwing the quoit with his left hand if he so pleases, and such a change would make a variation in the game and also afford an excellent method of handicapping the men of unequal skill. Quoits strengthens the arms and shoulders, but it is not a pastime which primarily demands strength.

A great advantage of the game is that it can be played in any small space and that the ground need not be particularly level. Any rough field or waste bit of ground is good enough for a quoits pitch, and no rolling or cutting is required to satisfy the demands of the most exigent. For cricket you need a carefully prepared wicket, for lawn tennis and croquet a piece of turf like a billiard table and for golf the best part of a country all to yourself, but for quoits you only need a few yards of rough ground, and you have as good a place for throwing as any one can possibly require.

People certainly might play quoits more than they do, but the taking up of a game is usually a matter of fancy, and perhaps two things stand in the way of quoits. First, there is an idea that it is a "rustic" sport and can only be played by the rough country lads, and, second, there is the legend that the game is derived from the classical discus throwing, a suspicion which it must be confessed is enough to throw a slur on any well regulated game.

No treatise on quoits can begin without the time honored pedigree of the quoit from the discus. Strutt, who lived at the end of the last century, of course dealt with it, and equally of course he dragged in the discus even if he did not invent the descent of quoits from the sports of ancient Greece. The thing, of course, is absurd. To make a discus, the artisan did not, in the words of the immortal Irishman, take a hole and put some iron around it. The discus was more like a flattened Dutch cheese and was a solid missile. Moreover, it was not held in the same manner as a quoit, but was bowled underhand, in which indeed it alone differs from putting the weight. That quoits is now played chiefly in the country is the fault of those who do not play it and bring it into fashion.

It is no doubt a very ancient English game, and its beginnings are lost in the mist of ages. Hakluyt mentions it in his book of "Voyages," so it was well known in Queen Elizabeth's time, when it probably was one of the favorite sports of Merrie England. In some parts of the country the rustics used to employ horseshoes for want of properly made quoits, and there are districts in which the quoit is called a "shoe" even to this day. This gives us the clew to the most probable origin of the sport and hints that the first game of quoits was started by throwing old horseshoes at the hob or mark, and from this gradually grew up the practice of having quoits specially made for throwing. So much for the discus legend. As for the word "quoit" itself, its etymology is more than doubtful, and it gives us no clew whatever to the origin of the game.

Shakespeare, who mentions everything except tobacco, of course has a reference to the sport, and as Hakluyt was a contemporary of his it may be held to show that the spacious times of Great Elizabeth were the palmy period of quoits. It is true that he does not speak of the sport in very reputable connection, for the only mention of it occurs in the scene in which Prince Henry, Falstaff, Poins and the rest were in the Boar's Head tavern, in Eastcheap. Falstaff, in giving a character sketch of the young prince, observes that he plays quoits well, but the context very clearly shows that in Queen Elizabeth's time at any rate quoit playing was looked down upon as the idle man's recreation, much as skittles is with us. That fat Jack Falstaff, disreputable old fellow as he was, meant to imply no good of the prince by his reference to quoits is very evident. This is the only reference to quoits in Shakespeare, and it is a libel, though the sting is taken out of it by the fact that it is put into the mouth of Falstaff.—Physical Culture.

CHARLES STEWART PARNELL

How the Great Irish Leader Came to Enter Politics.

Charles Stewart Parnell was 28 years old before he made his entry into the political arena. How the step was taken is thus described by Mr. R. Barry O'Brien in his biography of the great Irish leader:

"One night during the general election of 1874 Parnell dined with his sister, Mrs. Dickinson, in Dublin. After dinner Captain Dickinson said 'Well, Charles, why don't you go into parliament? Why don't you stand for your native county?'

"To the surprise of every one at the table, Parnell said quickly 'I will. Whom ought I to see?'

"'Oh,' said Dickinson, 'we will see about that tomorrow. The great thing is you have decided to stand.'

"'I will see about it at once,' said Parnell. 'I have made up my mind, and I won't wait. Whom ought I to see?'

"'I think Gray of The Freeman's Journal,' said John, who was also present.

"'Very well,' said Parnell, rising from the table. 'I shall go to him at once. Do you come with me, John.'

"The two brothers then went away together. It was now 11 o'clock, and they found Gray at The Freeman's office. He was amazed when Parnell entered and said, 'I have come to say, Mr. Gray, that I mean to stand for Wicklow as a Home Ruler.'"

It was only the year after that, on the death of John Mitchel, Parnell was returned for Meath. At first it is plain that Parnell had few if any followers. The ability of the representative from Meath was questioned. Butt was then the controlling power. It was only in 1880 that Parnell became the leader.

Bruges.

The chronicles of 1456 speak of 150 vessels in its basins and of German merchants carrying away over 2,000 pieces of cloth to the distant lands of Russia and Poland. It was the exchange of Europe, possessing in the fourteenth century 52 guilds and 150,000 inhabitants, more than three times as many as it now contains. Among its wares we read of leather from Spain, wool from England, silk from Italy and Persia, linen and cloth from Brabant, hemp and flax from Holland, wine from Portugal, Greece and France and hardware from Germany, which included every variety of object in ivory, bone, wood, glass, tin, copper, lead, iron, silver and gold. It had its factories, its carriers, its dyers, and its taxation considerably exceeded that of Ghent. But at the commencement of the fourteenth century its troubles began—troubles from within and from without.

The fisone was rendered useless by the invasion of sand as far as Sluis (Ecluse), treachery, slaughter and political jealousies and rivalries completed the fall, and in 1544 its inhabitants had diminished to 7,696. Then came the religious wars and persecutions from 1567 to 1584, the fanatics and the Gueux destroying what remained, leaving little for the French revolutionists.—Good Words.

The Swiss Parliament.

Switzerland differs from other countries in many things, and one of the most remarkable is the way in which its parliamentary debates are conducted. A Swiss member of parliament can express himself in French, German or Italian, and the privilege is freely used. When the president of the federal assembly speaks in German, his remarks are translated by a secretary in close proximity to him. All the laws and resolutions, before being voted upon, are drawn up in French, German and Italian, and every official report is published in these three languages.—Birmingham Post.

Making It Clear.

Somebody has discovered that a Bermuda onion eaten raw will clear the head. A Bermuda onion eaten raw will do more than that. It will clear an entire room. An active Bermuda onion is a complete clearing house all by itself. Take one Bermuda onion—only one—and let the lips of beauty close upon it, and love will turn to hatred and honey to gall and bitterness.

Clear the head? Why, a Bermuda onion in fairly good health will clear the head of navigation!—Exchange.

Don't ride in cabs or trains or cars,
Don't walk upon the street,
Don't stay out gazing at the stars

Don't kiss, don't smack, don't osculate!
With every chaste embrace
You plant a deadly germ of fate
Upon your loved one's face!

Don't swallow stuff of certain brands,
Don't take a "nip" or "smile,"
Don't go in bathing on the sands—
Don't go to Coney Isle!

Don't pile the blankets high in bed,
But, then, don't take them off!
Don't say, "A code is id by head!"
Don't cough, dear boy—don't cough!

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

BRING HOPE AND HEALTH TO THE SICK.

NERVOUS AND WORN OUT.

Mrs. Peter Mahar, Seal Cove, Que., writes: "It gives me real pleasure to acknowledge the benefit I have derived from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, for I believe had it not been for their use I would now be in my grave. My health was broken down, and the least exertion would fatigue me. I was troubled with dizziness, shortness of breath, and palpitation of the heart; my appetite was fickle, and I was extremely pale. I gave the pills a fair trial, and they have restored me to perfect health, and I can do all my household work without experiencing the least fatigue. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the best tonic I know of for weak, tired and pale people.

A PREVENTIVE OF CONSUMPTION.

The Sisters of L'Assomption, Onion Lake, N.W.T., who are doing a noble work among the Indians of that section write: "It affords us great pleasure to bear public testimony to the beneficial effects of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Several of the Indian children in our care being menaced with consumption, we gave them Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and in each case a cure resulted. We distribute a great many boxes to cure scrofula, consumption, and anaemia, and always with the happiest results. We recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as the best preventive of consumption we know."

ERYSIPELAS CURED.

Mrs. Charles Shannon, a lady well known in Wolverton, Ont., and vicinity, says: "A few years ago I received an injury to my knee, occasioned by a blow. Although it was very painful I paid but little attention to it at the time, expecting that it would soon be all right. But instead of getting better the knee remained swollen and very much inflamed. I consulted a doctor, and he told me that the trouble had developed into a severe case of erysipelas, and further said that as my blood was in a disordered condition I would have to be very careful. He left me a liniment with which to bathe the limb, but it did not give my any relief. I had heard so much concerning Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that I determined to give them a trial. In about three weeks' time the swelling and inflammation in my knee had subsided, and my general health much improved. The use of the pills a few weeks longer restored my health. I am now a firm believer in the efficacy of this medicine, as others in my family have been benefitted by it."

HOPE FOR THE SICK.

The strongest desire of the sick is to get well. Nobody in good health can realize the intensity of this longing.

It is so strong that unless relief comes it turns to hopelessness—and hopelessness kills.

No one can afford to neglect a remedy that brings hope to the hopeless, strength to the weak, health to the sick.

Such a remedy is

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS for PALE PEOPLE.

These pills have a larger sale than any other medicine in the world because it is proved they cure every form of disease they are advertised to cure. Millions throughout the world now use no other medicine.

Pink colored pills in glass jars, or in any loose form, or in boxes that do not bear the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," are NOT Dr. Williams'.

The genuine are put up in packages resembling the engraving on the right, with wrapper printed in red. Sold by all dealers or direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50.

SCIATIC RHEUMATISM CURED.

Mr. Samuel Francis, a young farmer living on the farm of his brother, near Northcote, in Renfrew county, says: "About three years ago the cows got into a grain field at night, and I was called up to put them out. In doing so I got thoroughly wet, and when I arose the next morning my limbs were so stiff that I could scarcely move them. I was thoroughly rubbed with liniment, but without any effect. Mustard plasters were then tried with equally poor results. By this time I was suffering great pain, and a doctor was called in. He said the trouble was sciatic rheumatism, and off and on for nearly two years he doctored me with no material improvement. Then I decided to discontinue the doctor and give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial. These I took, two after each meal, for nearly six months, at the expiration of which time every symptom of the trouble had left me. It is now nearly two years since I was cured, and I have in that interval done farm work in all kinds of weather, without feeling a twinge of the trouble, so that there can be no doubt the cure is permanent. Anyone who is suffering from this complaint will save money and hours of suffering by at once beginning the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

SICK HEADACHE CURED.

Mr. William Morrow, St. Patrick, Ont., says: "I suffered very much from biliousness and sick headache. For months my stomach seemed to be in an unsettled condition, and often I would vomit my food almost as soon as I had taken it. On one occasion a doctor remained with me all night before he could stop the vomiting, but beyond stopping it temporarily I received no other benefit. Through a little book which came into my possession, telling of the cures effected through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I was induced to give them a trial, and to my joy they have removed all the disagreeable symptoms and made me a well man again."

GOOD THINGS TO EAT.

What they are depends mostly on the condition of the eater.

Most anything is good to eat if a man is properly, healthily hungry.

Every man is properly hungry at more or less distinct intervals if he is healthy.

Corned beef and cabbage taste better to a healthy, hungry man than terrapin and pate de foi gras to the jaded appetite of a dyspeptic. The enjoyment of eating depends on the condition of the stomach, liver, bowels, and kidneys. If these do not do their work properly there accumulates in them undigested, fermenting, putrid, blood poisoning matter. The appetite cannot be healthy till this is removed. A machine will not run if it is all clogged up with dirt. The stomach cannot appropriate food unless it is clean, and so healthy hunger cannot come. The stomach cannot be clean if the liver and bowels do not dispose of the food passed along to them. If poisonous, effete matter is allowed to accumulate and congest the liver and bowels more or less of it gets into the blood, and is carried all over the body. Is it any wonder that it makes you sick?

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is designed to correct all disorders of the digestive and blood-making system and to drive all impurities out of the blood itself.

It restores lost appetite and vitality, builds healthy flesh and muscle, changes sickness to health, misery to happiness.

John A. Calloway, Esq., of No. 218 26th Street, Columbus, Ga., writes: "I had catarrh for four years and also liver and kidney trouble. In 1894 I was working at night and I broke out in lumps all over and when these left, the skin peeled off. My eyes were sunken and I had pimples and brown spots on my face. Now these are all gone, and I believe I am entirely well. I have a good appetite, but before I commenced taking your 'Golden Medical Discovery' I had no appetite at all. Now I am like a child—ready to eat at any time of the day or night."

WIT AND HUMOR.

While the Days Grow Long.

Yes, the days is gittin longer, an I reckon pretty nigh
Half the winter has slid past us, kinder prambulatin by,
Afore we're rallly 'quainted with it—sorter bluffin at a freeze—
Then turn roun an rain, a-makin nearly all creation sneeze.
Ketch a leetle cold an bust it with a doste of old quinine
An a sweat an dress up heavy, an the sun is shore to shine
Hot enough fer sproutin vilets; leave yer coat to home, an then,
Biff! comes up a cold nor'wester, freezin of yer up again.

Kinder irritatin, ain't it? Yet, I dunno, like enough
We'd think the sunshine mighty common 'less we had the other stuff.
Knew a feller one hot summer who cussed roun about the heat;
Swore he'd go to Manatober—winter was his stiddy meat.
Well, the first cold spell he crawfished, swore he couldn't stand the cold,
Sold out an went to southern Texas. He's comin back again, I'm told.
He's a common sort of feller, like the rest of us, I guess.
I'm a-longin fer the green leaves an the flowers, more or less.

Notes From Billville.

We are in favor of expansion if they can make a dollar bill expand into 20.

The Billville regiment expects to have the yellow fever in Cuba. But that's more dignified than corn bread and measles at home.

It takes longer for the war generals to tell how it happened than it did for the privates to fight it out.

"I los' two husbands in de las' war," said the old colored sister, "but we livin under a grateful guver'mint now, an it done give me $20 apiece fer each er dem!"

The Third Billville regiment wires, "Mustered out." But we don't care if the mustard is out, for we haven't seen any meat in this neighborhood in six weeks.—Atlanta Constitution.

Undisturbed.

I wonder at the crocus
An various grains an flowers
That's busy gettin ready
To respond to warmer showers.
They go ahead so peaceful,
Without no worryin
About "imperialism"
An all that sort o' thing.

In spite of this excitement
That bothers people so
They're makin preparations
To grow right ahead an grow.
Though you'd think in all this clamor
The very birds 'ud sing
About "imperialism"
An all that sort o' thing.

It's a comfortin reminder
That, no matter what they say,
This earth'll keep a-spinnin
In the good old fashioned way.
It'll never stop to listen
To these argyments we bring
About "imperialism"
An all that sort o' thing.

FREAKS OF APPLE CULTURE.

Armorial Bearings Which Nature Paints on the Popular Fruit.

It is no difficult matter in any sphere of life to come across people who think they know a great deal better than nature herself how things ought to be, and this unfortunate idea prevails to a great extent among the gardening fraternity. Now they are producing apples that exhibit armorial bearings. Any person therefore who wishes for a supply of the fruit with his family crest upon it has only to forward an illustration of it to one of the Montreuil fruit growers who make a specialty of such things, and he will duly receive the apples the following season.

This end is attained by growing the apples in paper bags, which are slipped on when the fruit is about the size of a walnut. Being thus sheltered from the sun, the apples do not color as they swell, and when fully grown still remain green or yellow in color. As soon as they reach their maximum size the bags which cover them are replaced by others on the side of which the crest or coat-of-arms desired has been cut out like a stencil. The sun can then penetrate to that part of the apple exposed and redden it thoroughly, so that when the bag is again withdrawn the device is seen standing out in red upon the green surface of the remainder of the fruit. To obtain exactly the opposite result—that is, a green device on a red ground—the second bag is not used, but the pattern is cut out in paper and stuck on to the fruit, the sun coloring all the exposed parts, but leaving green the crest or other device which the paper forms.

Quite recently many Parisian fruiterers have been exposing for sale apples with the arms of Russia printed upon them, and others have them with monograms, Christian names, arrow pierced hearts and other tender devices. Probably it will not be long before they are seen in England, although, apart from the novelty of the thing, they have nothing to recommend them.—Golden Penny.

Mixed Them Up.

It is such an unusual thing for one wife to flow into another so smoothly as not to ruffle the placid flow of the general stream that the experience of a delightful old elder in the church seems worthy to be recorded. Says the New York Times:

The elder, who was married early in life and is now living with his third wife, was talking recently of the civil war.

"It was so dirty in Washington after the war!" he was saying to the assembled company. "The streets were dirty, and even the inside of the buildings. Why, we were stopping at one of the best hotels in the city, and it was astonishing—the condition of that place. Don't you remember, my dear," he said, turning to his wife for corroboration, "how dirty the rooms we occupied were?"

"No," answered Mrs. Elder, with a little laugh, shaking her head. "You forget I wasn't your dear then."

"Thank God I did use Dodd's Kidney Pills, for they cured me—made me sound and well, in every joint and limb."

Those who suffer the agonies of Rheumatism or Lumbago need do so no longer. Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure them.

Sensible Physical Exercises.

I have always been much impressed with the facility with which the graduate of West Point or of Annapolis does a variety of things in physical exercises—exercises some of which are perhaps not always characterized by the name of athletics, although useful not only in physical development, but as adjuncts through life. The man who can ride, and who can swim, and who can dance, and who can fence, and who can do other things such as are taught at West Point and Annapolis has distinct accomplishments, the attainment of which has not only benefited him during the period of attainment, but the possession of which will continue to benefit him so long as he shall have the use of his physical powers.

I have long thought that the graduate of Harvard ought to possess physical accomplishments equivalent to, even if not identical with, those of his brothers at West Point and at Annapolis, and I am inclined to think that, unless he is a cripple or otherwise infirm physically, it is the duty of the university to see that he does possess such before it gives him his degree.—Harvard Graduates' Magazine.

Farm Notes.

The white scaly insect which does some injury to tomatoes in forcing houses can be kept in check by fumigating with tobacco smoke.

The successful keeping of apples is said to require a temperature as near 32 degrees and as steady as it is possible to keep it.

By writing to about 30 of its readers in various parts of the country The Rural New Yorker has found that first class second crop clover is about as scarce as gold this year. Very little of it was cut, and even when it was cut much of it was spoiled in curing.

As the result of experiments at the Missouri station the conclusion reached is: It appears that six inches is the best width of tire for a combination farm and road wagon, and that both axles should be the same length, so that the front and hind wheels will run in the same track.

H. E. Van Deman says in Rural New Yorker that the Red Cross currant can be propagated with good success from cuttings.

Restricted Diet Is the Main Cure of All the Health Resorts.

"Of the many cures in vogue and recognized from their records as worthy the name nine-tenths of them depend upon reducing the diet for their effectiveness," is the position taken by Ella Morris Kretchmar writing on "The Subject of Diet" in The Woman's Home Companion.

"A widespread fad during the last few years has been the 'no breakfast cure,' and thousands of dyspeptics have gained health, the stout have grown thin and the thin have grown stout, all through lifting the burden from overtaxed digestions. An equally popular cure preceding this was the leaving off of the evening meal—equally effective, of course, just as a 'no midday meal cure' would be if it should be promulgated.

"One of the most splendid cures for all ills in Europe is the grape cure, practiced in Germany, and it is said that any one taking the treatment drops off the wear and tear of five years—actually renews himself by so much. The sanitariums where this treatment is given are beautifully and healthfully situated and comfortably appointed. The patient is given nothing but unfermented grape juice for a period of four weeks—beginning with a generous amount, decreased to a minimum allowance (as little as the system will bear without great weakening) and gradually increased to the first amount.

"At all European spas and American springs, where people are so benefited, what is the course? A restricted diet and a flooding of the system with pure water—resting and washing the system, in other words.

"Animals, those not dominated by the habits and thought atmosphere of man, do not overeat, and even domestic animals stop short their nourishment when in anywise ill. A dog will bury the food not immediately required. Other animals leave off before or at repletion. Man alone will eat without hunger solely to tickle his palate, being indeed the only gorging animal save (truth is merciless) the occupant of the sty."

Unexpected.

The tramp had been very impertinent and dictatorial until the hired man unexpectedly made his appearance and inquired, "Are you lookin fur a scrap?"

His manner changed entirely, and at once he answered, "Yes, sir, that's what I'm lookin fur—a scrap o' cold turkey or cold ham or anything that happens to be handy."—Washington Star.

A SONG OF FORGETTING.

The hours as playthings were—ah, me!
And laughter lived in every word
What time that love was young and glee
In every pulsing heart throb stirred.

The wild plum blossomed in the glen,
The rabbit raced across the plain,
And frightened birdlings flurried when
Our hounds and horses tramped the grain.

Down in the grove beside the spring
We rested when the race was won,
And listened to the wood bird sing
A lullaby when day was done.

But, ah, you wandered from my side
And paved the long lone lane of years
With memory stones and lost too wide
For sobs to soothe with memory tears.

And now you come—come back to me
To fill, as then, the old time place—
Where is the magic of your plea?
What change has come upon your face?

Oh, friend, to lose and still love on,
To live on chaff instead of grain
Is better than to feel love gone—
Forgetting is the keenest pain.

—Atlanta Constitution.

A Long Wait.

An old countryman was sitting on a bench on the London bridge floating landing stage of the penny steamboat system on the Thames. Suddenly he arose from his seat, accosted a passing gentleman and inquired:

"Eh, can you tell me what time the boat leaves?"

"Why, there's a boat leaving every few minutes or so," was the reply.

"Every few minutes or so, eh? Well, what's the reason this boat don't start, then?"

"What boat?"

"W'y, this 'ere boat."

"Man alive, this isn't the boat; this is the landing stage!"

"You don't say so! The landing stage!" said the old man. "And here I've been waiting three hours for the confounded thing to start for Chelsea!"—Pearson's Weekly.

"IT IS VERY SATISFACTORY."

To Wm. McCabe, Esq., Managing Director, North American Life Assurance Co., Toronto:

DEAR SIR.—Your official notice came duly to hand, apprising me of the results obtainable upon my 15 year endowment Policy in your Company for $1,000, which matured on the 8th inst. Of the various options you have given me viz.:

Cash value	$1,584 00
Paid-up Policy, payable at my death, for	1,560 00
Yearly Income, for life of—	106 20

I have decided upon the cash value; and it gives me pleasure to testify that, as I anticipated it would be when I took out the policy, IT IS VERY SATISFACTORY. This returns me the full premiums of the 15 years and over 4½ per cent. compound interest, in addition to which you have carried the risk upon my life. In view of the low rates of interest which have been obtainable during the latter portion of the period, it is difficult to see how this excellent result could have been surpassed.

Yours sincerely,

OUR COLUMN OF SPORTS.

SOME TIMELY REMARKS ON SEASONABLE GAMES.

What is Going on in Local and Outside Hockey Arenas—Notes From the Curling Ice.

HOCKEY.

A team will be sent to Belleville for a game to-morrow and will be composed as follows:—Goal, Wasson; point, Reynolds; cover-point, Hollingshead; forwards, Bellegham, Crossley, Glover and Armstrong. Mr. Alf. Tarrill will accompany the team.

PILLS VS. PUTTY.

The match of Pills vs. Putty, which is always looked forward to as one of the events of the year, took place at the rink last night and was fast and furious from start to finish. Putty redeemed itself and wiped out the defeats of former years by winning from the Pills by five goals to four.

The teams were composed as follows:

Pills—Goal, Wormsyrup Crossley; point, Cough Drop Maharey; cover point, Short Stop O'Connor; forwards, Arsenic Milburn, Antidote Tully, Hoarhound Edmison, Seafoam Best.

Pig Irons—Goal, Yousouff Connal; point, Badger Brown; cover, Beefy Higgins; forwards, Bones Comstock, Hatchet Burnham, Crowbar Isaacs, Tacks Stethem.

In the first half the Pills looked like sure winners, the score standing three goals to two in their favour. They couldn't stand the pace, however, in the second half, and after scoring the first goal, allowed the hardware men to get the next three.

Badger Brown was the particular star of the evening, although Hatchett Burnham was trotting all the time. Tacks Stethem does great headwork on the team, and the famous Putty Connal, from whom the team takes its name, covered himself with glory and snow.

The Pills all played a rattling good game but couldn't stand the pace that was set for them by their opponents.

THE SHAMROCKS ARE CHAMPIONS.

The Victoria hockey team, of Montreal, after holding the hockey championship for five years, was defeated last night by the Shamrocks by a score of 1 to 0. One of the biggest crowds that ever gathered to see a hockey match, fully 7,000 people were in attendance. The ice was rather slow, but there was nothing slow about the playing, as the score shows.

FRONTENACS WILL PLAY AT HOME.

Kingston, March 1.—(Special.)—This morning the Frontenacs received the following telegram from W. S. Smith, President of the London hockey team:—"We are fighting Guelph protest. Thanks for your sportsmanlike standing in the matter. Will you accept $100 and all expenses for ten men for final game in London?"

The Frontenacs' Executive held a conference immediately after receiving the message, but decided to follow the ruling of the O. H. A. Executive in having the final game here.

NATIONALS WIN PROTEST.

The Guelph Nationals's protest against London, was decided yesterday by the O. H. A. Executive, the match being ordered to be played to-morrow night in London. The Nationals based their protest on the fact that several players on the London team had played in the London City League, and, though the Executive considered that it was so evidently a mere branch of the latter of the law, and not the spirit, that it could hardly be considered as a misdemeanor, and they accordingly only cancelled the game. The players in question will have to make formal application to be allowed to participate in the second game. London did not enter any defence.

A CARD.

Mr. Jul. Heintzman, 203 Monroe Ave., Hoboken N. J., advises all men who are weak and who desire a speedy and perfect cure to write to Dr. Gustav E. Roberts, 233 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich.

Fortnightly Club.

Professor Fraser, of the University of of Toronto, will lecture in the Y.M.C.A. hall on Friday evening, March 3rd, on "Michael Angelo." The lecture will be illustrated by beautiful lime-light views. The members of the club and the public generally are invited to be present in large numbers. There will be a small silver collection to defray the expenses incurred in connection with the lime-light views. Sheriff Hall will take the chair at eight o'clock.

Cloth Bound Books 15c Each.

300 volumes of cloth bound books by the best standard authors including Dickens, Thackery, Scott, Lytton, E. P. Roe, Augusta Evans Wilcox, George Eliot, Mrs. Wetherell, Mrs. Webb, Gus McDonald, T. S. Arthur, and just as many other notable writers. This is the finest collection of titles ever offered for the money. Just imagine—we will commence to-morrow and run them off at 15c each. Come and see them. You are sure to find something interesting among the list.—A. H. Stratton & Co., Agents for Butterick Patterns.

HAPPY WEDDING BELLS.

Nuptials of Miss Nellie Philp and Mr. Fred T. Oke, Port Hope.

A very pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Philp, Ward street, on Wednesday evening, Feb. 15th, when their eldest daughter, Miss Nellie, was united in holy wedlock to one of Port Hope's most popular and enterprising young business men, Mr. Fred T. Oke, nephew of Mr. J. B. Oke, town. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. R. Young, B.A., pastor of the Methodist church, and took place at 7 o'clock, witnessed by a large company of relatives and friends from Toronto, Bowmanville, Peterborough, Brighton, Colborne and Port Hope.

The bride was assisted by her sister, Miss Muse, with little Miss Vivian Philp (neice) as maid of honor. Mr. Walter Oke, Toronto, supported the groom.

After hearty congratulations were extended to the happy couple, dinner was served, and ample justice done to the bountiful provisions made for the occasion.

The bride was the recipient of many very handsome and useful presents which betoken the very high esteem in which the young couple are held, not only among their immediate relatives, but also throughout their large circle of friends.

POWER FROM BURLEIGH.

Will be Generated at Burleigh Falls, Thirty Miles Away — Toronto Men in it.

The Toronto World says:—A Toronto syndicate, headed by Mr. J. Alex. Culverwell, yesterday secured control of the Burleigh Falls water power, with a 37-foot head and 3,000 minimum horsepower, the proposal being to transmit one-half of the power to Lindsay, 30 miles away, the franchises for town lighting for 10 years, and revenue for power and lighting amounting to $15,000 per annum. A stock company with $200,000 capital, composed of Toronto and Lindsay citizens, is being formed. Peterborough is only twenty; miles distant, and it is proposed to transmit the balance of power there and to other places, having received manufactory overtures. Mr. George McHugh, M. P., and Mayor Walters, of Lindsay, are interested.

THE ABERDEEN ASSOCIATION.

It Has a Most Worthy Object—The Local Branch of the Organization.

Quite recently through the efforts of Mrs. C. B. McAllister a large case of papers and magazines was sent from Peterborough to the Aberdeen Association in Ottawa.

This is the third case sent within a short time.

The object of the association is to distribute old literature among the settlers in the Canadian Northwest and a goodly number of Peterborough people have assisted Mrs. McAllister in sending in contributions for the cases sent.

The Association in Ottawa sent a letter of thanks from which the following is an extract:

"The box arrived on Monday and we have been busy unpacking its delightful contents. Thank you so very much for such a generous contribution and all so useful to us in our work. Please express our grateful thanks to all who helped you to send such a box of literature."

Mrs. McAllister wishes to send another case as soon as possible and any having contributions for the same are requested to leave them with Mr. Williamson at the Y. M. C. A.

MRS. JARRET SPEAKS.

She Tells What Dodd's Kidney Pills Did for Her.

Two Years of Suffering Ended in a Couple of Weeks—Other Medicines had Failed to Relieve her—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Her.

Montreal, March 1.—Dodd's Kidney Pills are doing a wonderful work in the Canadian metropolis this winter. Never a day passes that does not see the report of some victim of Kidney Disease having been cured by them.

Old and young, male and female, are singing the praises of this popular medicine. The latest to tell her fellow sufferers what Dodd's Kidney Pills have done for her is Mrs. J. Jarret, No. 6, Moanick street.

Mrs. Jarrett writes as follows: "I have been troubled with female weakness for the past two years. I have tried medicines without number, but without receiving any benefit, until I began using Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I took several boxes of this grand remedy and am now entirely cured.

"You may publish this if you see fit, so as to help others who may be suffering as I did."

Now, if a lady buys a certain make of shoes, which prove serviceable and fully worth their price, she recommends that make to her friends, and her recommendation is sufficient to induce them to buy the same style for themselves.

It is exactly the same with regard to medicine. Dodd's Kidney Pills having cured so many ladies are recommended by them to their sister sufferers, who know that the recommendations are to be fully relied upon. When they require a medicine of this kind they use Dodd's Kidney Pills, the best they can procure.

Dodd's Kidney Pill are sold by all druggists at 50c a box; six boxes $2 50, or sent by mail, on receipt of price, by The Dodds Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto.

THE HIDE MARKET.

Brightman Bros. report the hide market a little flat this week. No. 1 are bringing $7.50 and No. 2 $6 50. Dealers are worth from 7 to 9c and sheep pelts 70 to 85.

MACHINERY FOR THE OKANAGAN

(Spokane Review)

One of the most complete mining machinery plants ever taken into Okanagan country, and involving an expenditure when laid down at Oro and finally erected, of some $25,000, is now on the way to the property of the Okanagan Free Gold Mines, near that town. This is the British Columbia Company, promoted by S. Thornton Langley of Rossland, to acquire a group of five free gold claims near Oro. Mr. Langley has just returned to this city from Portland, where in company with K. K. Peiser, the secretary, and Alf. Edgecombe, the company's engineer, the plant was purchased. He leaves for home this morning. Speaking last night to a reporter, he said:—"The plant purchased by the company is a stamp and Cyanide mill. It consists of two Hammond five stamp mills and seven California wood vats, two Pelton water wheels, a 25 horse-power boiler and engine, and sawmill complete, besides piping, hardware, etc. The machinery is now on the way to the mines. The plant was built to order from the plans and specifications drawn by our engineer, Mr. Edgecombe, following the plans made by the late Dr. Paul Langhamer, who had every confidence in the present engineer's ability to manage the property. Mr. Edgecombe will have full charge of the mine, and as soon as the machinery arrives will have a force of 25 extra men at work to put same in running order. The company has also engaged the services of an assistant superintendent. I cannot say what date the plant will be completed; somewhere towards the end of May, I think, but it just depends what kind of weather they have to haul the machinery in.

Mr. Langley, while in Portland, had some enlarged photographs made, showing the vein on the property, surface cross-cut for a distance of ninety feet, and also showing the water power acquired by the company, which is three quarters of a mile from the claims.

LABRADOR RAN ASHORE IN A FOG.

The Vessel Was Very Much Out of Her Regular Course—Bravery of the Crew—How the Passengers Were Calmed by the Captain and Transferred to the Boats

—Cable News.

Rome, March 3.—The Pope was very cheerful all day long, and in an interested way asked the doctors from time to time what they thought of his condition. They reassured him. There has, however, been a slight increase in his temperature, to which the doctors attach some importance, although hoping it is merely due to the nourishment he has taken. Dr. Lapponi will remain in attendance at the Vatican.

It Fails Again.

1 a.m.—The latest news from the Vatican is that the Pope's temperature at midnight has fallen several points. It appears that his disinclination to observe the recommendations of his physicians forms an obstacle in the way of prompt recovery. He has full confidence in his own strength, and does not readily acquiesce in their advice not to move.

Wonders He Is Still Alive.

The Pope said during the day: "It is a miracle of God that I am still alive, for he wishes to spare his Church a terrible crisis at the present moment."

Twenty-One Years Ago.

His Holiness Pope Leo XIII. was crowned with the Papal tiara on March 3, 1878, just 21 years ago to-day. Few of the Popes have had such length of days; fewer still have sat as long in the chair of Peter. But 15 of the Roman Pontiffs, including St. Peter, have reigned as long as the present Pope. Of his 257 successors only one was Bishop of Rome longer than he, and that one was Pius the Ninth, whose reign extended over a period of 32 years.

RAN ASHORE IN A FOG.

Steamer Labrador Lost Her Bearings and Was a Long Way Out of Her Regular Course.

Tobermory, Scotland, March 3.—Investigation into the wreck of the British steamer Labrador, from St. John, N.B., on Feb. 16, by way of Halifax on Feb. 20, for Liverpool, shows that she ran ashore about four miles from Skerryvore on Wednesday morning.

Captain Erskine, her commander, yesterday sent the following despatch to the agents of the steamer at Liverpool:

"Labrador ran on Mackensie Rock in a thick fog at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, four miles from Skerryvore. The ship was caught amidships, the seas breaking over her. Holds No. 1, 2 and 3 were soon full of water. The passengers and crew were saved in the boats. One boat load was landed at Skerryvore lighthouse. The German steamer Viking picked up the remainder. No steamer is obtainable to return for the passengers. If the ship is not broken up will endeavor to save the mails when a steamer is obtained."

The Labrador had a good passage until Sunday, when she entered a fog bank and lost her bearings. Skerryvore light was mistaken for Inistrahull light, on the north of Ireland. Most of the passengers were still in bed when the steamer struck, and there was much excitement, but the passengers were calmed by the assurances of the captain, the boats were lowered without a hitch and all on board left the steamer in safety.

The passengers and crew lost everything they possessed.

Captain Erskine endeavored to save the mails, but was obliged to abandon them owing to the vessel threatening to break up. The women and children were put in the first boat, in charge of the fourth officer, the other passengers were placed in the second boat, under the command of the second officer.

The crew of the Labrador then took the other boats and as they left the steamer wheat was pouring into the sea from her hold.

After three and a half hours had expired the boats met the steamer Viking from Norway, which took them on board, though the operation was dangerous, owing to the heavy swell, the seas breaking over the Viking's funnel.

When the Labrador was seen she was settling down by the stern. The passengers of the wrecked steamer are full of praise for the Labrador's officers and crew and for the captain of the Viking.

The passengers of the Labrador have been accommodated at the hotels here and at private houses.

The owners of the Labrador have caused a tug and divers to be despatched to the scene of the wreck in order to salvage the cargo of the steamer.

Yankee Patrol Boat Overhauled Them After a Chase.

Manila, March 3.—It is reported that Aguinaldo will only release the Spanish clerical prisoners upon condition that all land and other property that they own shall be transferred to the rebels, and, also, that the native priests shall be recognized.

Last night 12 insurgents in two canoes were discovered paddling out from Paranague. They attempted to cross the bay, but a patrol boat overhauled them after a chase and took them prisoners to Manila.

This was the hottest day of the season, so the majority of the men were kept in the shade.

French Eyes Opened.

Paris, March 3.—The Temps in a leader yesterday points out that there is a stronger bond between England, the United States and Germany than Frenchmen care to admit. The paper says American forbearance toward Germany in the face of certain provocations, and Germany's evident desire to make amends for her former appearance of hostility, are indications of this. The article concludes with the warning that in view of the above it would be a dangerous undertaking for France to direct her policy toward a European coalition against England and America.

BRIBERY AT ELECTIONS.

Our contemporary, the Review, has had a good deal to say for some time past as to charging Liberals with corrupt acts in regard to elections. It has in this respect followed the practice of Opposition journals, which have generally, for the past year especially, sown broadcast accusations of corruption on the part of Liberals. Care was taken to make those charges vague and general. In the matter of the general elections, however, numerous protests were brought and most absurd charges were made, as the result showed, generally without foundation. Even grave charges were made against ministers of the Crown that had to be practically withdrawn. Of the many protests entered, most of them were withdrawn and others generally failed; in cases where anything was proven it fell far, far short of the wholesale and absurd charges entered But still the vague, general charges are kept up. Our contemporary, in reference to the Perth election, said the Liberals did not win simply because "South Perth could not be bought." Judging by the results of the protests against Conservatives, the fact of a Conservative winning is no proof that the riding could not be bought. A party that makes such wholesale charges of bribery would be supposed to be approximately pure itself. But this is by no means the condition of the Conservative party. In the past, and even the recent past, this has been the policy of the party. Its precious system of protection involved nothing less than a gigantic system of bribery, to those interested in manufactures, especially; and these in return for the favours extended them at the expense of the people, were, it is well known, generous contributors to Conservative campaign funds, one form of bribery, by wholesale furnishing the materials for retail operations in this direction. And the people of this country have had a most glaring local example of the manner which public works were exploited in a manner to directly influence the votes of electors. A day or two before the Dominion elections of 1891, just in time to operate as a roorback, Mr. Stevenson the Conservative candidate received the following telegram:—

"KINGSTON, March 3rd, 1891.

The Trent Valley Canal commissioners having reported favourably on the completion of the scheme, parliament will be asked in the estimates next session for a grant for the purpose.
JOHN A. MACDONALD."

Now, a more direct bribe could not be offered any constituency, received as the despatch was, on the very eve of our election contest.

If the Conservative party have had a change of heart in this regard it is none too soon. It is however, too much to hope that they feel any differently on the subject. They are merely crying down bribery on the "stop thief" principle, to distract attention from their own operations. We are afraid they are not sincere—the leopard does not change his spots.

ONTARIO'S BIG FARM PAYS.

Opposition Contentions Discredited by the Facts.

Guelph Mercury.

Owing to the manner in which the educational and experimental work at almost every point overlaps the practical farming operations at the Ontario Agricultural College, it is not easy to disassociate the services in such a way as to present an exact statement of the receipts and expenditures on account of the farm proper, and show whether it pays or does not pay its way. Nevertheless, Mr. Rennie, the farm superintendent, has done this for some years past, and his presentation of the financial operations of the farm may each year be found in the Annual Report. In criticising the receipts and expenditures on account of the purely farming operations of the institution, the Opposition in the Legislature ignore Mr. Rennie's report entirely. They take the public accounts, which only show the actual cash receipts and expenditures, and which it would be very inconvenient to burden with all the details of debit and credit accounts, as between the farm and the various educational and experimental departments, but which, none the less, must enter into a fair consideration of the question. By this means the Opposition are able to show annual deficits, which in reality do not exist. Then they unjustly charge that the farm is not being economically conducted; that the methods are bad, that the example set is injurious to the agriculturists of the Province, and so the management is unsparingly condemned.

Taking the year 1897, the last for which we have as yet the College report, the cash receipts of the farm proper amounted to $4,295.25. Such are the only receipts the Opposition would take into account. Against that they would place the whole of the disbursements of the farm, notwithstanding the fact that a portion of these are fairly chargeable against other departments. They would thus show that the expenditures were $8,156.23, and so would make out a loss in that year of $3,860.98.

Now, Mr. Rennie's statement, published in the College report, shows the credit side of the balance sheet, as follows

Cash revenue	$4,295 25
Food, feed, fodder and services of men and horses supplied, as follows:
To the College	1,056 81
To the Experimental Department	286 26
To the Horticultural Department	153 75
To the Dairy Department	209 64
Expenditure for steers in 1897 above that of 1896, the steers to be sold in 1898	666 73
Allowance for time spent by Farm Superintendent in other duties	400 00
Keeping live stock for educational purposes	400 00
Total	$3,295 23

In the case of Mr. Rennie's salary, the Opposition charge it all against the farm, overlooking the fact altogether that a considerable portion of his time is spent in lecturing in the College, at Farmers' Institutes, and in other educational work. They include also the whole of the amount spent in permanent improvements on the farm, though these improvements will last for a number of years and the cost should fairly be distributed over those years. Thus, while all the receipts of the year are not included, as we have shown, more than the proportion of the disbursements fairly chargeable against the farm, or chargeable against it in any single year, are included, and so a deficit is shown. The total disbursements, as made out by Mr. Rennie in the College Report for 1897, were $7,126.82, instead of $8,156.23, as the Opposition would make us believe, and instead of there being a deficit in the year's operations on the farm of $3,860.68, the e was in reality a net profit of $1,163.01. We have no doubt this profit would appear much larger if it were possible to arrive with perfect accuracy at every portion of the burden which the farm bears with relation to the educational and experimental work.

Mr. Rennie's work and methods are too faithful and intelligent as the thousands of farmers who have visited the College, and derived advantage from their own observation, and his advice well know—to render his management unprofitable. And since the proof that, as a matter of fact, he is making the farm pay its own way is available, the Opposition contentition to the contrary can only be the outcome of dishonesty or ignorance. Leading agriculturists in the United States have no hesitation in saying that the Guelph institution is not only giving better results than any similar one on the continent, but that it is doing so at a great deal less expenditure than those of similar proportions elsewhere. We can hardly expect tributes of that kind from the Ontario Opposition, but we have reason to look for wholesome, helpful criticism, instead of carping and untruthful statements which reflect credit neither upon themselves nor the Province.

SOME CANADA LIFE POLICY HOLDERS BEGIN A FIGHT.

They Propose to Recover from Senator Cox on Agency Fees—Mr. B. H. Walker's Statement.

Toronto Globe.

The Globe's Hamilton correspondent wires that Mr. William Lees, of the legal firm of Scott, Lees & Hobson, has issued a writ on behalf of himself and other policy holders of the Canada Life Assurance Company against Senator George A. Cox. Following is a copy of the writ, the Canada Life Company being joined as nominal co-defendant:—The plaintiff's claim is for a judgment of the court directing the defendant, George A. Cox, to repay to the defendants, the Canada Life Assurance Company, the sum of $400,000, and all other moneys received by him from his co-defendants, or taken by him from moneys of his co-defendants which have come to his hands while a director of the defendants, the Canada Life Assurance Company, whether in respect of business of the said company transacted in Canada

Take No Other. Get the Genuine. Refuse Imitations. There's Only One Dodd's.

Dr. A. W. CHASE

COMES TO THE AID OF

Catarrh Sufferers

SUCCESS in life is almost impossible for a man with bad breath. Nobody wants to do business with him. Nobody wants to associate with him. He is handicapped everywhere. Offensive breath comes from Catarrh; sometimes from Catarrh of the Stomach, sometimes of the lungs, sometimes of the head, nose, and throat. It is from Catarrh somewhere, and Catarrh is another name for uncleanness.

Many men understand this, and make every effort to cure it, but it is beyond the reach of ordinary practice.

No self-respecting man can ignore Catarrh. If he has it in any form he makes constant effort to be rid of it.

There is something about the manner of life and the climate of Canada that seems to breed diseases of the mucous membrane. Medical science ordinarily doesn't try to cure Catarrh; it "relieves" it; but Dr. Chase has been curing Catarrh for over thirty years, and his name is blessed by thousands who have shaken off the grasp of this insidious disease.

or in the State of Michigan or Minnesota, or any other of the United States of America, and for an order directing the said defendant, George A. Cox, to account for moneys improperly taken or received by him while a director of his co-defendants, such moneys being the moneys of the defendants, the Canada Life Assurance Company and for an injunction.

At present Senator Cox is in New York. He is expected back to Toronto during the first of the week. At the Canada Life office on King street no word had been received of the matter, and no one could explain it. The only light that could be thrown on it was that at the time of the appointment of Senator Cox as a director, his election was opposed by Messrs. Hendrie and Stuart, who questioned his right to sit as a director while being also in the pay of the company as an agent.

Mr. Byron E. Walker, General Manager of the Bank of Commerce, who is one of the directors of the Canada Life, was seen yesterday, and on hearing of the matter was inclined to ridicule it. In speaking of it he said: "Mr Scott, of Scott & Lee, is, if I am well informed, interested in the Canada Life to the extent of one share, transferred to him just before the annual meeting, and is, I believe, not a policyholder. Even if there were anything in their contention the amount of money sued for is preposterous, and the writ undoubtedly represents the personal animus of certain persons in Hamilton, and not the genuine interests of policy-holders. Mr. Cox has only been a director for five or six years, and before entering the board the question of his right to be both manager of the eastern district and a director was doubtless duly considered."

MR. FRANK DODGE

Says His Life was Saved by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto Feb. 27.—Mr. Frank Dodge, of North Maupeberg, Ont., has been visiting here recently. He is a splendid specimen of Canadian manhood, standing more than six feet high "in his stockings" erect and muscular.

"I was a different man two years ago," said he to a friend to day. The truth is I would have died of Kidney Complaint, if it hadn't been for Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I had been treated by physicians and had taken various remedies without getting any better. I read of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and decided to try them. I did so, and was thoroughly cured in a couple of weeks.

The Figures for 1898 Given at the Mining Association Meeting.

Montreal, March 3.—At the Mining Association meeting yesterday the mineral production of Canada for 1898 was given out for the first time. The value of gold from the Yukon district was $10,000,000, and for all other districts in Canada $8,700,000, or a total of 23,700,000, and there were produced 58,464 tons of iron ore at a value of $152,510, and the total value of the Dominion metallic mineral production for 1898 was $21,022,601.

In the grand total an increase is shown of over $9,000,000, or nearly 32 per cent., as compared with 1897. Compared with 1886, the first year for which statistics were issued, the increase in the value of mineral products in 13 years reached almost 270 per cent., thus the per capita value of the mineral production of the Dominion has increased from about $3.20 to $7.20.

Shot Her Brother-in-Law.

Marshall, Ill., March 3.—Miss Lillie Marvin, a prominent young lady of this city, shot and probably fatally wounded Williiam A. Vaughn, her brother-in-law. She had been attending college in Buffalo, N.Y., and returned home unexpectedly yesterday afternoon. She went direct to the office in her father's mill, where she found Vaughn and fired twice before bystanders could interfere. Bad feeling had existed between them for some time. Miss Marvin is now under arrest, awaiting the result of the shooting.

$5,000 for a Hereford Bull.

Kansas City, Mo., March 3.—A high mark in recent cattle sales was made here yesterday at the auction sale of Herefords from the herd of T. F. B. Sotham of Chillicothe, Mo., when the Hereford bull "Sir Bredwall" was sold to Col. C. C. Slaughter of Dallas, Texas, for $5,000. With one exception, this is the highest price ever paid in America for a Hereford.

SENATE REFORM.

Attorney-General Longley of Nova Scotia Wants to Adopt the Joint Vote Plan.

Halifax, March 3.—In the House of Assembly yesterday afternoon Attorney-General Longley gave notice of motion for a memorial to the Queen on the question of reforming the Canadian Senate. The resolution relates as follows:

Resolved: That an humble address be presented to Her Majesty the Queen, setting forth that the provisions of the British North America Act of 1867, respecting the Legislative functions of the Senate of Canada, are unsatisfactory, and should be so amended as to bring that body more into harmony with the principles of representativ Government, and praying that Her Majesty may be pleased to recommend to the Imperial Parliament such an amendment to the said Act as will provide that if the House of Commons passes any bill, and that the Senate reject such bill and fails to pass it, or passes it with any amendments to which the House of Commons will not agree, and to which amendments the Senate adheres, the Governor-General may by message, upon the advice of his council, convene a joint sitting of the two Houses, which sitting shall decide by a joint vote, without debate, the question in controversy between the two Houses.

A PORT HOPE GROCER

Tells how Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cured Him of Heart Weakness, Dizzy Spells and Nervousness.

Many Port Hope people have lately been cured by the use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and are gladly coming forward and telling other sufferers how this remedy cures when all else fails.

One of these is Mr. W. A. Carson, the well-known grocer, who made the following statement:—

"For a length of time I was seriously troubled with my heart, causing shortness of breath, nervousness, dizziness, debility, etc.

I got a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills at Deyell's drug store here, and am very much pleased to tell you that after using them a short time I was entirely cured of my troubles. Not only that but I feel thoroughly built up and restored to health and vigor.

I can highly recommend these remarkable pills to those afflicted with heart or nerve trouble in any form as I believe them to be the best remedy in existance".

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure palpitation, dizzy or faint spells, nervousness, sleeplessness, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance tobacco heart, anæmia, pale and sallow complexion, female complaints and general debility.

Guesses as Evidence.

Washington, March 1.—The feature of the court of enquiry into General Miles' beef charges yesterday was an object lesson in canned meats prepared by the court and served to the non-commissioned men who testified at Monday's hearing. An army surgeon, Dr. Bowden, kept tally on the guesses of the men, and changed the position of the plates after each witness had left the room. The result of this record was not made public, however, and will be reserved till Dr. Bowden testifies, probably some time this week.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1898 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which delights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used, Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. For correct and full information regarding the new invention and NEWCOMBE PIANOS, write to our Direct Representative. Easy Prices. Liberal Terms.

THE LEGISLATURE

Mr. Pattullo Introduces His Anti-Bonus Resolutions.

HIS SPEECH ON THE QUESTION.

Country's Changed Conditions Demand a Change in the Bonus System—Arguments Against a Continuation of the Present Method of Evading the Bonus Law by Special Enactments.

Toronto, March 3.—The principal topic of debate in the Legislature yesterday was the bonus question, and it proved to be one of much interest to members. In moving his resolutions Mr. Pattullo spoke for three-quarters of an hour, and his position was practically endorsed by the Hon. G. W. Ross, Mr. Marter and Dr. Pyne, while the only voice against the measure proposed was that of Mr. Commee.

Mr. Pattullo, in moving his resolutions, explained that the object aimed at by the bill is to stop municipal aid in any form, direct or indirect, to any kind of business. The law at present prevents bonusing, but permits exemptions. But the restriction of the bonusing powers of municipalities did not stop the evils of the system. The practice grew up of applying to the Legislature for special acts. The first of these was in 1893, giving the town of Strathroy power to grant a bonus where a factory had been destroyed by fire. Similar special acts were passed in the following year in reference to Cornwall, Kingston and Mitchell. In 1894 the city of Hamilton was authorised to bonus an iron smelter and also a steel smelter. Preston was given power to loan money for the erection of a factory. In 1896 Walkerton was permitted to bonus a chair factory, and Wingham was given similar powers. The next year bonusing powers were given New Hamburg, Port Dalhousie, Preston and Thorold. In 1898 came the turn of Berlin, Collingwood, Ingersoll, Walkerton and Trenton. It is not a function of municipal government to interfere between one class of business and another, and municipalities are not competent to decide what kinds of business do the most good. Municipal aids make a fetish of manufacturers for the people to worship. Men were rewarded who employed cheap labor—often for only half the year. The system of municipal aids is opposed to British ideas of equality and equal justice to all. Its constitutionality was doubtful, and for this reason: Trade and commerce belong exclusively to the Dominion Government. If the Provincial Legislature can give the power to aid industries by gifts or exemptions, why not the power to collect duties? The validity of municipal bonus bonds was also doubtful. The bonus system has excited rivalry and hatred between municipal corporations. It has done few of them any good. But for this system most corporations would have more industries, and they would have had millions of dollars to spend on local improvements and public services. Municipal aid has outraged the rights of labor by dragging workingmen from their settled homes and taking them at the heels of bonus-grabbers to other places. In the case of railway corporations the injury to municipalities and to labor has amounted to infamy sanctioned by law. Other commercial businesses had been created by the increase of bonuses, the collapse that had followed their removal had been ruinous, and in the end the value of real estate had been depreciated. The system had, too, produced over-competition and consequently loss of capital. It had made incompetent men rely on bonuses instead of on brains and modern methods for success. A survey of the industries would show that those who have succeeded are the ones that have not sought bonuses or special favors. Galt was instanced as a case in point. The present system was an artificial one; its abolition would lead industries into natural channels. After adverting to the case of Toronto, he said the question is not a local one, but a national one. It involves the future stability and growth of Canadian industries. No manufacturer is safe. It has frightened capital. "Our manufacturers are now prosperous. They can well afford to take their share of taxation." Concluding, Mr. Pattullo said: "Special legislation has injured the Legislature, lowering its methods of work. The House is not taken seriously by the municipalities. We are regarded as law breakers, not as law makers; as co-operating burglars, helping municipalities to rob the homes of others."

Endorsed by Toronto Members.

Mr. G. F. Marter (North Toronto) spoke in favor of the resolutions.

Dr. Pyne (East Toronto) said that if the passing of these resolutions would stop undue competition he should be glad, and with the hope that it would have this effect he should support them.

Endorsed by Mr. Ross.

Hon. G. W. Ross, whilst admitting that the subject involved economic difficulties, made a speech favorable to the resolutions. The subject had come before the House none too soon. Ontario was not now in her infant days, when it was deemed necessary to aid industrial concerns. Much money had thus been wasted. If the House agreed to these resolutions many municipalities would save large expenditures from which they are now receiving no benefit. Skill and intelligence should be fostered, but not by bonuses. Agriculturists received no bonus and other industries might be placed in the same category. In conclusion Mr. Ross congratulated Mr. Pattullo on the able manner in which he had brought this important matter before the House.

A Dissenting Voice.

Mr. Commee (West Algoma) said he thought it was going too far to try and dragoon the people that they should not do what they deemed fit. Municipalities were the best judges of their own action; they certainly had to pay the bill. If there were no bonuses railways would create new and rival towns, as they had done in the United States. Another reason why large concerns looked for bonuses was that there was a disposition on the part of municipalities to tax them too highly. We have gone far enough with the bonus system. At the same time I shall oppose the resolution, for I think the newer sections of the province ought to have the same opportunities for growth and development as the older.

Mr. Wardell (North Wentworth) moved the adjournment of the debate.

Agricultural Teaching.

Hon. Mr. Ross moved the second reading of his bill to improve the law respecting public schools. The bill provides for a fifth form and the teaching of agriculture in public schools.

Mr. Whitney (Dundas) signified his approval of the bill and the second reading carried.

Second Readings.

Mr. Kribs (South Waterloo) secured the second reading of his bill to amend the Municipal Act, by giving power to one-fourth of the owners of real property in a township, city, town or village, to aid street railways.

Mr. R. L. Joynt's (Grenville) bill in reference to security for costs on appeal from Court of Revision to county judge was lost on division.

Mr. Pattullo's (North Oxford) bill to prohibit voting by ballot in municipal councils was read a second time.

Mr. Foy's (South Toronto) bill respecting sureties was read a second time.

The Toronto city bill passed its second reading without comment.

Mr. Tucker's (West Wellington) bill to prevent Government officials taking part in election contests under a penalty of $900 and costs, forfeiture of his office, and disqualification for four years, was also read a second time.

Mr. J. Richardson's (East York) bill to amend the Municipal Act, concerning towns separating without the consent of county council; respecting commissioners to house of industry and laws as to hawkers and pedlars, was read a second time.

Committee of Supply.

At 10 o'clock the House went into committee of supply and passed a number of items in the estimates of the Provincial Secretary's Department, for public institutions, and in the Registrar-General's branch.

The House adjourned at 11 o'clock.

ASSEMBLY NOTES.

The public accounts committee has elected Mr. W. A. Charlton chairman and will meet on Tuesday.

The printing committee organized yesterday afternoon, Mr. J. R. Stratton being elected chairman.

Hon. John Dryden was waited upon yesterday by a deputation from the Ontario Farmers' Experimental Union, consisting of ex-students, students and farmers, asking for a hall in Guelph.

Mr. Commee has introduced a bill to amend the Municipal Act. It provides that municipalities must take over and own the lighting concerns of the municipality just as they are now required to do with waterworks.

Drs. Bryce, Cassidy and Macdonald of Hamilton, the Legislative committee of the Provincial Board of Health, have waited upon Hon. Mr. Davis in reference to the new bill which they have under consideration. The bill may be introduced next session.

Mr. Little has introduced a bill for an act to prohibit the growth and cultivation of the barberry shrub. It prohibits cultivation of barberry within half a mile of farm land used for grain producing.

Mr. Richardson has introduced a bill for an act to enable councils of cities, towns, townships and villages to pass by-laws for prohibiting persons from camping on highways or vacant land adjoining except with the consent of the owner of such lands. It enables constables to arrest without a warrant persons violating this act. Also a bill for an act to repeal the provision of the Municipal Act enabling a municipality to exempt manufacturers and others from taxation.

A deputation from Gore Bay, Manitoulin Island, composed of Messrs. Jackson, Cashman and McKessock, was introduced by Mr. Farwell, M.P.P., to the Attorney-General yesterday morning. They request a rearrangement of the East Algoma judiciary, by dividing the district and assigning the junior judge to the Island of Manitoulin.

A deputation from the Canadian Manufacturers' Association interviewed the Premier yesterday and expressed views in opposition to Mr. Crawford's bill to provide compensation for injured workmen.

HEART DISEASE.

SOME FACTS REGARDING THE RAPID INCREASE OF HEART TROUBLE.

Do not be Alarmed, but Look for the Cause.

Heart troubles, at least among the Americans, are certainly increasing, and while this may be largely due to the excitement and worry of American business life, it is more often the result of weak stomachs, of poor digestion.

Real organic disease is incurable, but not one case in one hundred of heart trouble is organic.

The close relation between heart trouble and poor digestion is because both organs are controlled by the same great nerves, the Sympathetic and the Pneumogastric.

In another way also the heart is affected by the form of poor digestion, which causes gas and fermentation from half-digested food. There is a feeling of oppression and heaviness in the chest caused by pressure of the distended stomach on the heart and lungs, interfering with their action, hence arises palpitation and short breath.

Poor digestion also poisons the blood, making it thin and watery, which irritates and weakens the heart.

The most sensible treatment for heart trouble is to improve the digestion and to insure the prompt assimilation of food.

This can be done by the regular use after meals of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which may be found at most drug stores and which contain valuable, harmless digestive elements in a pleasant, convenient form.

It is safe to say that the regular persistent use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at meal time will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

Full sized package of these tablets sold by druggists at 50 cents. Little book on stomach troubles mailed free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

Head Almost Severed From Body.

St. Thomas, Ont., March 1.—About 5.30 Monday evening, as Abraham Kingswood was crossing the Michigan Central tracks in this city, he was run over by an engine, which was shunting cars in the yard. He was instantly killed, the head being almost severed from the body. Deceased had resided in the city for the past 27 years, and had been an employe of the M. C. R. for a great many years. He leaves a wife and grown-up family.

George Smyth's Death.

Simcoe, March 1.—The adjourned inquest into the death of George Smyth of Vittoria was held at that place yesterday. The report of the public analyst showed that there was no trace of poison in the viscera. The jury brought in a verdict, stating that Smyth had died from natural causes, but censuring the widow and nurse for not allowing the brothers and sisters of the deceased to visit him during the last two weeks of his illness.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady of this country. "Disease fastened his clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Sold by all Druggists at 50 cents and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

THE ODORLESS CREMATORY CLOSET.

I have been appointed Sole Agent for the Odorless Crematory Closet manufactured by the Crematory Closet and General Heating Co., of Hamilton.

This Closet has found a place in many of the best homes in the province, and all who have used it cannot speak too highly of its merits. Medical men speak of it from a sanitary point of view, claiming that, if health is any consideration, no home should be without one. Here are some of the

TESTIMONIALS.

Alliston, March 1st, 1898.

"I have had one of your "Crematory Closets" in use now for several weeks and am glad to be able to say that I have found it entirely satisfactory in every respect. I have not been able to detect the slightest odor from it at any time and would not be without it. I am sure it must prove a great convenience to people in the country and in towns where water is not obtainable. Yours respectfully, JAMES CORWAY.

Shedden, February 28th, 1898.

I have used it for sometime and find it perfectly odorless. It is a long felt want and I believe it will become very popular especially in rural districts, towns and villages where wells are so frequently contaminated by the ordinary closets. I am, yours, etc. W. E. MORRISON

Medical Superintendent's Office, Sept. 20th, 1897 Asylum for the Insane, Hamilton.

Gentlemen: I had the opportunity of witnessing yesterday the operation of your Odorless Crematory Closet. It had a large accumulation of fecal matter in the pan when the fire was started, and inside of 30 minutes it was all reduced to ashes. There was no odor before or during the operation of consuming the fecal matter, as the ventilation by the flue causes to carry off all odor at once, before it has a chance to vitiate the surrounding atmosphere. Yours truly, JAMES RUSSELL, M.D.

Elmbrook, Sept. 20th, 1897.

Dear Sirs—Having been a president at a private test of your new patent closet yesterday afternoon, I beg to express my satisfaction with it in every way. Neither before, during or after the burning out of its contents did I detect the slightest unpleasant odor. I am satisfied it will be a boon to thousands in rural towns, villages and country homes. Yours truly, M. J. MULLOCK.

VALUABLE Residential Properties FOR SALE

In Peterborough.

Having decided to remove to Manitoba in the spring, I have decided to sell the following valuable properties at prices that should secure ready purchasers:

Parcel No. 1. A Brick Terrace of four houses, adjoining the corner of Hunter-brooke and Park streets, two storeys and bath with good stone cellars full size of buildings. Each residence contains six rooms with summer kitchen. This property has always been continuously rented and pays an excellent rate of interest on the investment, and it is practically a new property, being only erected a few years, and is in good condition.

Parcel No. 2. Brick residence corner of Reid and Simcoe. Containing ten rooms. House in good condition with all modern improvements, bath, closets, heated with furnace and lighted with electricity.

Parcel No. 3. Brick dwelling corner Aberdeen and Benson streets, facing Dixon Park, containing seven rooms with summer kitchen. This property was erected last season for myself and occupied by myself. Has hard and soft water in kitchen and is a very comfortable residence. This lot is 100 feet square.

Parcel No. 4. Brick residence, corner Wolseley and Benson streets. Two storeys, seven rooms with kitchen, pleasantly situated adjoining Dixon Park. Hard and soft water in kitchen. This lot is also 100 feet square and is a similar building to parcel No. 3.

Parties desiring a good paying investment or home will find any of these desirable purchases.

Particulars and terms, which are reasonable, made known on application to the undersigned.

LOCAL NEWS

10 a.m. Probabilities.

Unsettled to-day. Showers to-morrow.

Sprained His Foot.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Sam Ray, while out fox hunting with several local sports, had the misfortune to sprain his foot, and is to-day confined to the house.

Laid at Rest.

The funeral of the late William Murphy took place this morning at 10 o'clock from St Joseph's Hospital, and was largely attended by the many friends of the deceased. Interment took place in the Ennismore cemetery, the parents of the deceased being buried there.

An Obliging Vagrant.

A well known character in town, who has been serving time as a vagrant on the hill, appeared in court yesterday evening to answer to a similar charge. He stated that he was'nt working at present, but thought that before Saturday he would obtain steady employment, so as to be able to provide himself with clothing. If, however, he did not secure the job, he would appear in court on Monday morning. He was allowed to go.

Fortnightly Club.

Professor Fraser, of the University of of Toronto, will lecture in the Y.M.C.A. hall on Friday evening, March 3rd, on "Michael Angelo." The lecture will be illustrated by beautiful lime-light views. The members of the club and the public generally are invited to be present in large numbers. There will be a small silver collection to defray the expenses incurred in connection with the lime-light views. Sheriff Hall will take the chair at eight o'clock.

A Famous Missionary Here.

And will speak in George street church on Monday evening in connection with the annual missionary services of the church. The speaker will be Rev. Thos. Crosby, the famous missionary of British Columbia, and who has spent 26 years among the Indians of the Pacific Coast. His address will be one of very great interest and will deal with the successes and vicissitudes of the mission field. All should hear him and his recital of actual facts. Collection as usual. 2d

The Spring Overcoat season has begun—our stock is ready for your inspection. Everything is brand new, of positive value and marked in plain figures at prices that our low expenses allow and which must prove to be an attraction to buyers who want the best for cash money. GRAFTON & CO, the well known Clothing Manufacturers.

BUSINESS CHANGE.

New Partner—Firm Name Changed to Warde & Hall.

By reference to advertisement in another column, it will be observed that Mr. John G. Hall, an old Peterborough boy just returned from Chicago, has acquired a partnership in the firm of Warde & Co., stove and hardware dealers, 392 George street. The firm name has also been changed to Messrs. Warde & Hall. Mr. Hall is a son of our respected townsman, Mr. J. J. Hall, Inland Revenue Inspector, and is well known in Peterborough. He learned the hardware business in Peterborough, having held positions with the good old firms of Klugan & Co. and Breese & Bain. About nine years ago Mr. Hall accepted a good situation with one of the wealthiest hardware firms of Chicago, where he has resided up to the present date. The valuable experience gained, both here and in the "Windy City," will be of advantage to the customers of the firm and prove useful to Mr. Hall in the new and more responsible position which he now occupies. His numerous Peterborough friends will be glad to welcome him back to his native town and do business with him again, and the firm will doubtless benefit by the addition of another practical man at the helm.

PERSONAL

Miss V. Lecson is visiting Lakefield friends.

Mr. T. E. Bradburn was in Port Hope yesterday.

Mr. Thos. J. Upton, town, is visiting in Campbellford.

Mrs. (Dr.) Moffatt, of Norwood, is visiting friends in town.

Mr. H. P. Kennedy paid a flying visit to Lindsay yesterday.

Mr. W. J. Brightman was in Lindsay yesterday on business.

Miss A. M. Stuart, town, is visiting Mr. Lake Berry, Oak Hills.

Mrs. Mark and her daughter Beretie are visiting Mr. Jas Mark, Havelock.

Miss Ella Cochrane was the guest of Miss Irwin, in Lakefield, this week.

Miss May McGibbon of Port Hope, who has been visiting friends in town, has returned home.

Mr. Lou Squires, of Norwood, was in town for the past few days. He has secured a position in a flour mill near Barrie.

Mr. A. L. Grover, for many years connected with Mr. J. C. Turnbull's dry goods store, has entered upon an engagement with the new dry goods firm of Messrs. J. Sutcliffe & Co.

At the Traps.

Yesterday afternoon a few members of the Gun Club enjoyed a shoot on Riverside Park at pigeons, only one out of twenty-five escaping the marksmen's aim.

An Excursion to Guelph.

At a meeting of the Directors of the East Peterborough Farmers' Institute, held in Norwood on Tuesday, it was decided to run an excursion to the Experimental Farm, at Guelph, about June 6th, the excursion train to leave Peterborough.

Will Undergo an Operation.

Mr. Wm. O'Toole, employed at St. Joseph's Hospital, of Ashburnham, has been suffering for some time with an affection of the stomach, which has baffled the best medical skill. Yesterday he was taken to St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, where he will undergo an operation. Mother Vincent, of St. Joseph's Hospital, accompanied him and Dr. McGrath went up to the city to-day.

Under the British Flag.

Under the British Flag was the bill at the Opera House last night, and judging from the packed house, the indications are that standing room will be at a premium for the remainder of the engagement. The audience gave every evidence of pleasure, in fact at times it was quite hilarious. May A. Bell as the dashing, Mary Hope, draws in an ideal manner a picture of a refined retiring society girl who is thrown in contact with villains. All parts are in competent hands, catchy songs and pretty dances filled the waits between acts, and made the programme continuous.

Cold on The Chest.

This is the serious cold stage and should not be neglected. Hundreds have proved Griffiths' Menthol Liniment to be the quickest and surest cure for colds. Apply it freely to the chest night and morning, and take a few drops on sugar. It is pleasant to take, clean to apply and will cure a cold in a single night. 25 cents. Sold by Ormond & Walsh, Druggist, Peterborough.

SEPARATE SCHOOL INSPECTOR'S REPORT.

THE LOCAL SCHOOLS IN GOOD CONDITION.

Extracts From the Report of Inspector White—Information for the Board and Head Master.

The report of Mr. J. W. White, Inspector of Separate Schools, has been received, and the following interesting information has been extracted from it;

THE CONVENT SCHOOL.

Eight pupils succeeded in passing the High School entrance examinations during the year, and the organization of the pupils is declared to be well classified. The discipline of the school is characterized as excellent. Under the heading of accommodation, the report states that the school buildings are of brick, of neat appearance and in proper repair; the school ground pretty good, and the water closet and the water supply good. There are five class rooms, and that of the senior (1) is not the best. The others, however, are good. The lighting of the rooms is fair, while the heating and ventilation are said to be suitable.

In equipments, the desks and seats are, on the whole, in good condition, and the blackboards are large (except in Senior I.) and well placed. The schools have a proper supply of maps, globes and charts. Larger black boards for senior (1) are required, as well as a supply of supplementary reading.

The general tone and standing of the classes are very satisfactory, and under the earnest teachers in charge, there is every likelihood of a very successful year's work.

ST. PETER'S SCHOOL.

The organization of this school is now on good lines, and the discipline is very creditable. As regards the accommodations, the school buildings are of brick, of good appearance and in suitable repair, while the school grounds are put down as the best in the province. There is a fair system of water closets, but they need attention. One well furnishes the water supply. There are five large class rooms, which are comfortable and pretty well kept. The rooms are lighted from both sides, and the buildings are heated by well-placed stoves. Ventilation is obtained chiefly by windows.

In the matter of equipments, the desks and seats are, on the whole, suitable. The rooms have large blackboards, and there is a proper supply of well-hung maps, globes and charts.

As to requirements, the boys' closets should be kept locked outside of school hours; the urinal trough should be of metal; the dividing partition should be sounded. A new floor is needed. As regards the school rooms the pupils should be so seated as to have the light come from the left and rear. The teacher's desk should not obstruct the approach to the front board. A supply of supplementary reading is urgently needed. Junior I class should be on the ground floor.

The general standing of the classes is quite creditable, with good prospects of further improvement.

LAKE STREET SCHOOL.

The organization of this school is good, and the discipline highly creditable. The school buildings are also of brick and in good condition. There are suitable school grounds, but the water closets are not of the best. A well furnishes the water supply. The class rooms are four in number, and are suitable in all respects, and the lighting is obtained from three sides in some rooms. The rooms are heated by stoves and fair provision is made for ventilation.

In equipments there is a suitable supply of desks and seats, and the blackboards are of good size. The school also possesses a proper supply of maps, globes and charts. The school closets are somewhat small. Those for boys need attention. The rooms should be calcimined during the vacation. The maps should be hung better, and a supply of supplementary reading is needed.

The pupils did very creditable work. The staff is earnest and capable and the outlook for the school is very bright.

OUR FIREMEN INVITED

To Participate in a Celebration at Madoc.

The local fire department has received a communication from Mr. McDonald, secretary of the Alert Hose Company, of Madoc, inviting the Peterborough firemen to participate in the demonstration at that village on the Queen's Birthday. It is the intention of the Madoc firemen to offer valuable prizes for competition among the various fire departments which are expected to be present. If no demonstration is held here on that date, the local brigade will endeavor to be well represented at the neighbouring town.

COMMITTEE MEETINGS.

The Court of Revision, Market and Property Committees Hold Meetings.

A meeting of the Court of Revision was held yesterday in the town clerk's office. The committee will recommend the council to remit the taxes on the Y. W. C. A. Home, with the exception of the school tax.

The request of Mr. Charles James for remission of taxes on his house on account of fire was refused.

The Property Committee also met and they will ask the council at its next meeting for permission to advertise for property on which to erect a new fire hall.

At a meeting of the Market Committee it was decided to recall the market tolls on March 15th.

The best medicine money can buy for impure blood, nervousness, and all stomach and kidney troubles is Hood's Sarsaparilla.

From the Millinery Openings.

Sunday at George Street Church.

The annual missionary services in connection with the George street Methodist church will be held on Sunday and Monday next, March 5th and 6th. On Sunday the pastor, Rev. S. J. Shorey, will occupy the pulpit in the morning and Rev. Thos. Crosby, of British Columbia, in the evening. Rev. Mr. Crosby is a famous missionary worker and an eloquent speaker and has over 25 years experience among the Indian mission stations along the Pacific Coast. 2d

ONE MORE UNFORTUNATE.

A Sad Case Dealt With in the Police Court.

Ada Stent, an unfortunate young Scotch girl, was yesterday arrested by the police as a vagrant, and a special session of the court was held at five o'clock to try her case.

The poor girl, who is just 21 years of age, hails from Cobourg, and has been in town for some days, living on the streets, with other well known characters. She has been stopping at a certain house in town, where a young man promised to pay her board, but he failed to do so.

She is evidently suffering from some disease, judging by her appearance, and the Magistrate thought it advisable to send her up to goal for a month, where she will receive medical treatment, and perhaps, if necessary, she will be taken up to the hospital.

As the unfortunate was taken back to her cell, she gave vent to her feelings in violent sobs, which were pitiful to hear.

Port Hope Doctor Married.

Wednesday evening a fashionable wedding took place at Orono when Miss Annie Bowen, daughter of the late Mr. Samuel Bowen, was married to Dr. G. E. Patterson, of Port Hope.

The Printers and the Wm. Hamilton team play on Tuesday night.

A team of the Peterboroughs went over to Fenelon Falls last evening from town, and was defeated by 12 goals to 3. The score in the first half was 8 to 3, in favour of Fenelon Falls, but the Peterboroughs outplayed the home team in the latter part of the game. The Peterboroughs were composed as follows:—Goal, Comstock; point, Graham; cover point, Morgan; forwards, Harry King, R. Watt, B. Bellegham and W. Crossley. The boys say they were never treated better in their lives than at Fenelon.

A Business College team went to Keene last night, and played the team of that village a tie game. The Business College boys lined up as follows:—Goal, W. Cochrane; point, W. Robinson, cover point; J. Walsh; forwards, McBain, Sheridan, Hamilton and Smith.

The Belleville Intelligencer says:—The Peterborough senior team, whose lightning play created a sensation in O.H.A. circles this year, and who easily defeated Varsity in the second game, losing by one point on the round, will play the local team here Friday night.

Campbellford defeated Norwood's senior team by 7 to 5 in Campbellford last evening. Mr. Rutherford, of Norwood, acted as referee.

THE CAMPBELLFORD BONSPIEL.

Campbellford, March 2.—The Campbellford bonspiel which took place here on Tuesday and Wednesday was a very successful affair. It was played on the Victoria rink, which affords six sheets of ice. The cup for two-rink teams was won by Norwood, and the single rink trophy remains in Campbellford, each final resulting in a close contest, with the majority only two shots. The scores:

NEWS NUGGETS.

Paragraphs Picked Up and Pencilled for Public Perusal.

—The bill "respecting the town of Peterborough" was introduced into the Ontario Legislature yesterday by Mr. Stratton.

—The C.P.R. will make a lot of improvements in their yards at Havelock. New tracks will be laid in the yards and other repairs executed, amounting to $8,000.

—A 'bus load of Ashburnham young people, while on their way to Keene, last evening, were upset into a ditch this side of Zion and a number of them received severe bruises.

—Word was received in Westwood on Wednesday by the relatives of Mr. Wm. Slade that he had been killed by a falling tree whilst lumbering. He leaves a wife and four children.

—And now Peterborough is talking of gobbling another musical industry—the Thomas Organ and Piano Co., of Woodstock. Peterborough is happy in possessing a lot of live business men who are ever on the alert to benefit the town in every way possible.—Lindsay Post.

DOMINION PERMANENT LOAN COMPANY.

The annual meeting of the Dominion Permanent Loan Company was held at the Company's handsome new offices, 14 King street west, Toronto, on Wednesday, March 1st. Mr. J. R. Stratton, president, occupied the chair, and there was a large attendance of shareholders, who were, as they had reason to be, well pleased with the satisfactory growth of business as revealed in the financial reports, which are printed elsewhere in this issue. The total amount of assets on December 31st, 1898, was $1,427,961.11, an increase of more than $150,000 over 1897. The total earnings for the year were $118,992.76. Of this amount there was a balance of $94,969 left for distribution after paying interest on debentures and deposits, writing off losses on mortgage account, adding $10,000 to the contingent and reserve funds, and allowing 10 per cent. off office furniture, a showing that indicated good and careful management. The excellent standing of the company was more fully set forth in the remarks made on motion the for the adoption of the report. The Dominion Permanent Loan Company has given good reasons for the large measure of public confidence it enjoys. The old board of directors was re-elected, Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., president, and Mr. T. P. Coffee vice-president. It is worth mentioning that this meeting was the first held in the company's handsome new offices, which were much admired for their exceptional adaptability to the business requirements of the company and are, it is safe to say, not surpassed in this respect by any in Toronto. The front is of heavy bevelled glass and cut stone. The vestibule is floored in mosaic with the firm's name neatly set therein. Inside the wainscoting and counters are finished in quartered oak and mahogany and oxydized brass. At the left on entering is the manager's office. Beyond are the general offices, which are of a most commodious character. Neatly separated are rooms for the President and the stenographers, and in adjoining sections to the west are a ladies' reception room, a board room and the vault, the latter being finished in steel. In the basement are cloak rooms, etc., and another vault. The building is lighted throughout by electricity.

"CIVIC IDEALS."

An Interesting and Instructive Lecture by Rev. H. Symonds.

A very interesting session of the Y. M. C. A. Debating Club was held last evening when Rev. H. Symonds delivered a most entertaining and instructive lecture on "Civic Ideals."

Mr. A. Dixon occupied the chair in a highly acceptable manner.

In the audience were a number of prominent citizens, including several connected with Municipal and Provincial politics.

At the conclusion of the lecture, which was listened to with marked attention, a discussion took place which was taken part in by Sheriff Hall, Town-Solicitor Edwards, Alderman Hall, J. W. Garvin, Dr. Rose, Reeve Adams, G. M. Rogers and J. W. Bennett.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Symonds, to which he responded by replying to the points brought out in the discussion.

Is Your Piano in Tune?

The change of season affects pianos as well as anything else. Mr. Geo. Gumpricht, practical piano maker and tuner, with 25 years experience, attends to all orders left at Mr. H. S. Macdonald's drug store.

Warde & Hall

On the First Day of March, instant, MR. JOHN G. HALL, formerly of Peterborough, and more recently of Chicago, acquired a Partnership interest in the firm of Messrs. Warde & Co., Stove and Hardware Merchants, 393 George Street; and on the same date the firm name was changed to WARDE & HALL.

The new partner enters the firm with a valuable experience of over fifteen years—having held positions for about half that period in Peterborough, the other half being connected with the largest wholesale hardware houses of Chicago.

Mr. Hall will be glad to meet all his old friends and customers in his new position; and the firm respectfully solicit a continuance of the liberal patronage hitherto enjoyed by Messrs. Warde & Co.

Peterborough, March 2nd, 1899.

IF THE LADIES WAIT

THEY'LL MAKE MONEY!

OUR WHITEWEAR and SHIRT WAIST OPENING will take place in a few days. You will find it economy to wait for it, when we will make a superior display in Cottons, Cambric and Nainsook Muslins.

Our stock of WHITEWEAR this season very forcibly illustrate what can be accomplished in manufacture by being PARTICULAR. Every garment is double-stitched with felled seams, while such extras as pearl buttons and extra fullness contribute to all-round satisfaction.

Blouses—We again remind the Ladies that our Blouses are all manufactured on our own premises, and consequently, while the styles and material are up-to-date, the prices will be from 20 to 25 per cent. less than other Blouses sold in town.

C. G. GEMMELL, Peterborough Corset Factory, 208 and 210 Charlotte St.

One Pound . . .
Will Make 200 Cups.

The growth of a whole year of six Tea bushes is required to produce one pound of Ram Lal's Pure Indian Tea, but so carefully is it manufactured and so rich is its character that one pound, brewed according to the directions on the package, will make enough liquor to fill two hundred tea cups.

MANY will heartily appreciate the appetizing changes in their daily Bill of Fare which the Lenten Season brings to their tables.

Lenten Dainties

In the Special Lines of Delicacies which our Grocery Department supplies, our policy is to offer the very choicest which the market affords. We can confidently recommend our Ale and Porter—being kept in prime condition and thoroughly matured. Gentlemen who wish to replenish their wine cellars should sample our stock.

INCALCULABLE GOOD,

AN EXPRESSION OF FAITH.

Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills have done me an incalculable amount of good. I think they are the best, surest and quickest acting cure for nervousness, unhealthy action of the heart, insomnia or sleeplessness, anemia or impoverished blood, loss of appetite, general debility and ill-health. For nine years, before I commenced taking Dr. Ward's Blood and nerve Pills, my heart was weak and in an unhealthy state. Its action was so much impaired that I could not walk across the street without suffering great distress, my heart fluttering and beating so rapidly that I could scarcely breathe, causing faintness, loss of strength, and leaving my nerves all unstrung. My sleep was very much disturbed, I had no appetite and there was little strength or vitality in my blood; I was always excessively nervous.

I have now taken three boxes of Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills and since taking them I have not been away from my business an hour. Before taking these pills it was a frequent occurrence for me to be away from business. As a result of taking Dr. Ward's Pills my heart is perfectly healthy and strong and gives me no distress or trouble whatever. They removed all nerve trouble, made my nerves strong and gave me healthy sleep. These pills also made my blood rich and strong and gave me a healthy appetite. Dr. Ward's Pills have given me perfect health, restoring my lost strength, in place of continual ill-health, weakness, heart trouble and nervousness. In justice I cannot speak too highly of this wonderful medicine. Signed, Miss N. Millward, Walton St., Port Hope, Ont.

Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills are sold at 50c. per box, 5 boxes for $2.00 at druggists, or mailed on receipt of price by THE DOCTOR WARD CO. Limited, 71 Victoria Street, Toronto. Book of information free.

JOHN HAY'S BIG APRON.

One of the Cases Where Dishwashing Produced a Poet.

Colonel Hay was when a boy a regular attendant of the Presbyterian Sunday school at Warsaw, Ills.

The Sunday school lessons partly consisted of committing to memory Bible verses, and to attain supremacy in this created quite a rivalry among the scholars. John Hay was sure to come out ahead from two to five answers, sometimes more, causing those of his comrades who were always behind him to regard him with envy.

Consequently when some of those boys heard that John had to wash dishes and do the churning for his mother and, more than all, that he wore an apron while at these duties his jealous comrades fairly crowed.

One morning it was agreed by his comrades to get him out of doors while he had his apron on and humiliate him by having two or three girls whom he rather liked ask him questions in regard to his housework.

Young Hay came out to where the boys were and answered the questions by saying that he washed dishes as his mother taught him, and then, with twinkling eyes, he gave the dishpan which he had with him a tremendous fling, contents and all, drenching whoever happened to be near enough, and, laughing loudly, ran into the kitchen. Hay and his big apron were never molested after that.—Christian Endeavor World.

A Kissing Nation.

In no other part of the world is kissing so much in vogue as in Russia. From time immemorial it has been the national salute. Indeed it is more of a greeting than a caress.

In public affairs, as in private, the kiss is an established custom. Fathers and sons kiss, old generals with rusty mustaches kiss, whole regiments kiss. The emperor kisses his officers. On a reviewing day there are almost as many kisses as shots exchanged. If a lilliputian corps of cadets have earned the imperial approval, the imperial salute is bestowed upon the head boy, who passes it on with a hearty report to his neighbor, he in his turn to the next, and so on, through the whole juvenile body.

On a holiday or fete day the young and delicate mistress of a house will not only kiss all her maidservants, but all her menservants, too, and if the gentleman does not venture above her hand she will stoop and kiss his cheek.

To judge also from the number of salutes the matrimonial bond in these high circles must be one of uninterrupted felicity. A gentleman scarcely enters or leaves the room without kissing his wife either on her forehead, cheek or hand.

Grand Trunk Engineer Swears by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Mr. Geo. Cummings, for over twenty years engineer on Grand Trunk running between Toronto and Allandale, says:—"The constant duty with my work gave me excessive pains in my back, rocking my kidneys. I tried several remedies until I was recommend by my fireman, Mr. Dave Cauley, to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Two boxes have completely cured me an I feel to-day a better man than ever. I recommend them to all my friends.

The Missouri For "O. K."

"Remember me to your friend from Missouri."

"How did you know he was from Missouri?"

"I heard him say, when you had asked him how he liked something, 'To a t-y-tee.' Only Missourians say that. T-y-tee is Missouri for O. K. Only a Missourian can give the two letters the pronunciation they have in that state. It can't be described. You must hear it to appreciate it, and from a Missourian."

A Boy's Way.

"Nothing like plenty of sleep to make a boy happy and healthy," said the visitor.

"I get too much at night," said the little boy, "but not enough in the morning."

MANY SECRET MINES.

ENGLAND'S COAST STUDDED WITH THESE DEFENSES.

Their Locality, Approaches and Firing Points Are Mysteries That Foreign Spies Have Often Tried, but Always In Vain, to Solve.

England has the most formidable navy in the world, but she does not rely upon it alone in the event of war to prevent a foreign force from landing upon her shores. London Tit-Bits, in an article on the secret coast defenses of Great Britain, says:

In the event of war no alien army could approach our shores without imperilling its navy by encountering our explosive mines, scores of which surround our coasts at all places likely to be selected for attack by a foreign foe. The Thames is also carefully shielded by similar secret mines, one of these being in the vicinity of Blackwall. The precise locality of these mines is, however, for obvious reasons, kept a dark and inscrutable mystery, and the approaches to them are so cleverly constructed and concealed that no one save an expert would suspect their real character.

An innocent looking cellar at the basement of a certain tradesman's shop is the entrance to one important mine, but even the tradesman himself is not aware that the government rents his cellar, nor does he ever surmise the true nature of the operations carried on therein. The mines are equipped with explosives of the most potent kind and admirably connected with the secret chambers on shore by means of electric wires.

Each mine is controlled by a button, over which are printed particulars relating to the location and character of the mine. This button is placed in the wall of the secret chamber and covered by a double door, securely locked, the outer door so closely resembling the wall of the chamber that no one but those in the secret could detect its presence. The chambers are double locked and approached by passages protected in a similar manner.

Every lock and key is specially made for the government and is unlike any other. Only a few of the very highest officials are allowed to use these keys, and they are solemnly sworn to preserve their secret rigidly. No persons apart from those especially empowered may inspect or visit any of the secret chambers at any time except by express written permit personally procured from a certain high official. This is exceedingly difficult to obtain, and in fact is rarely ever granted.

Prior to such a permit being issued the officials assure themselves that the possessor of the document bears a blameless character, is British born and has no ulterior reasons for preferring his request. This settled, he is sworn to secrecy in the most solemn manner, blindfolded and conducted by a circuitous route to the secret chamber, where he is permitted to use his eyes, but not his tongue, no questions being answered by the attending officials.

Strange stories have been told of attempts made by foreign spies to penetrate the privacy of these mysterious mines.

A young lieutenant in the navy, whose honorable character won the confidence of his superior officers some years since, was accorded the privilege of guarding one of these secret mines and intrusted with certain information concerning its character.

Soon after his appointment he became engaged to a charming young French lady of whom he was desperately enamored. By some inexplicable means his fiancee got to hear of his appointment, and by alternate threats and persuasion induced him to take her to see the secret mine under his care.

On the evening arranged, after extracting a solemn vow of secrecy from his ladylove and getting her to don the dress of a naval officer for the occasion, he was about to set out on his secret mission when, to his surprise and alarm, he and his companion were arrested by detectives. In some mysterious manner the authorities had been enlightened as to the proceedings on foot and were in time to stop them.

For "breach of regulations" the young lieutenant was subsequently court martialed and reduced, while his charming companion, who proved to be a spy in the employ of the French government, was conveyed back to her own country, with a caustic caution.

On another occasion a German gentleman contrived to locate the entrance to one of the secret chambers and actually hired a member of the Bill Sikes fraternity to aid him in negotiating the double locks one dark November night. But so splendidly fitted and fortified were these appliances both the visitors were doomed to disappointment. Returning from the rendezvous, both the plotter and his accomplice were arrested and imprisoned.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great sufferings for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent.' This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidney and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by all Druggists, every bottle guaranteed.

KIDNEY CURE

VORACIOUS LITTLE ROBINS.

Each Required Fourteen Yards of Angleworms Every Day.

A would be philanthropist relates his experiences trying to play mother to a nest of little robins, which had by some accident been deprived of their rightful mother's care. He diligently set to work digging angleworms, and supposed that he was fulfilling his whole duty, when one of the poor little songsters died. Upon examination of the body, which was reduced to skin and bone, the foster parent came to the conclusion that it must have died of starvation.

Deeply grieved at his shortcoming, he redoubled his efforts, determined to at least save the other two. It was not long, however, before a second one died, evidently of the same malady. The good man then resolved that, whatever the third one died of, it should not be starvation, and took off his coat and went to work in earnest. He kept on with the angleworm diet until he found that his one little bird was consuming from 14 to 18 yards of angleworms a day. This was too much for his patience, and he proceeded to substitute the more easily managed diet of bread and milk and other delicacies, which were, however, not nearly so much to Miss Robin's taste.

Wanting to discover whether he had been catering to a family of abnormal appetites, our friend took to watching the methods of a real mother bird and found that she fed her young every two minutes. He then consulted the learned books upon birds and discovered that 14 yards of worms a day, with meals every two minutes, is the average rate of feeding fledgelings. He has therefore decided that he does not care to take up raising birds by hand as a business.—Boston Transcript.

A Perverted Sentiment.

Some one once wrote a sentimental song about the "light in the window for me," and ever since that time the "light in the window" has figured in poetry and song to a greater extent and in a more sentimental manner than it is entitled to. The cold truth is that when there is a light in the window it means some one is sitting up to give the last one to come home a scolding or advice about the good sense of going to bed earlier. A light in the window is something that a nagged person never fails to see, and when his eyes first see it in turning a corner he gets a cold chill and longs for a home in a boarding house. The "light in the window" sentiment is badly overdone.

An Audacious Thief.

A country gentleman of Cheshire was once sent galloping 20 miles to fetch the police to catch the thief who had stolen a check from inside an envelope which was inside his own letter box in his own hall gate—all through a tomtit. The envelope and the covering letter were there, but the whereabouts of the check might have remained as great a mystery as any Thames embankment robbery in open daylight, but that when the gentleman and the police arrived and proceeded solemnly to inspect the letter box two tomtits were discovered inside. This led to a search, and 20 yards off, lying on the ground, with beak marks upon it, was the check. Whether the tomtits had returned to find out ir whose name they should forge an indorsement to the check is not clear, but this new development of the criminal tendency, which has always been latent in the whole race of tits, cannot be too strongly reprobated.—Longman's Magazine.

Wanted Her.

"An old couple from the east," says the Detroit Free Press, "are visiting their son in this city. If the mother gets out of sight of the father he is constantly asking for her and is not content till they are together again. The other evening she went to another part of the house while he was in the parlor, and after he had asked for her a half dozen times the son said, rather curtly:

"'It seems as though you couldn't be without mother five minutes at a time.'

"'You're right,' said the old gentleman slowly. 'That's the reason I married her.'"

Night Coughs.

Terribly wearing on the system is the Cough that comes at night and prevents sleep. Sometimes it's a constant Cough, Cough, that won't be quieted.

Sometimes a choked-up stuffed-up feeling that makes breathing difficult, and sleep impossible. Whatever it may be, Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is the remedy that cures.

Here's what Mrs. Fred Laine, St. George, Ont., says about it: "My little girl would cough so at night that neither she nor myself could get any rest. I read about Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and thought I would try it. I am thankful to say it cured her Cough quickly, and now we use no other Cough remedy in our house."

Four Doctors Failed.

Think of a woman being sick and suffering six years when she might have been well all that time!

Think of her taking the treatment of four doctors and getting no better.

Think of the pain she endured—of the uselessness of her life in those six long, dreary, miserable years.

Think of the distress of a refined, modest woman during the useless examinations and treatment of four different doctors who each and all failed to give her any comfort.

Think of all this and then think that she was finally cured—completely, wholly, permanently cured right in the privacy of her home without the abhorrent "examinations" and local treatment so uniformly insisted upon by home physicians—cured just as she might have been six years before.

These are simply the facts in the case of Mrs. M. B. Wallace, of Muenster, Cook Co., Texas, who writes:

"I had been a great sufferer from female weakness. I tried four doctors and none did me any good. I suffered six years, but at last I found relief. I followed your advice, and took four bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and eight of the 'Favorite Prescription.' I now feel like a new woman. I have gained eighteen pounds."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a medicine made for just one purpose—to cure disorders or diseases of the feminine organism. It is the only preparation of its kind introduced by a regularly graduated physician—a skilled specialist in the diseases of women, whose thirty years of successful practice are a guarantee of health to all sufferers who consult him.

Every woman may write fully and confidentially to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and may be sure that her case will receive careful, conscientious, confidential consideration, and that the best medical advice in the world will be given to her, absolutely free.

In addition to this free advice Dr. Pierce will send a paper-bound copy of his great 1,000-page book "The Common Sense Medical Adviser," to any one who will send 21 one-cent stamps to pay cost of customs and mailing. French cloth-binding, 50 stamps.

SURPRISED HER HUSBAND.

Why the Young Wife Spent an Afternoon in His Office.

Young Mrs. Smith, who lives down on Prairie avenue, is very fond of her husband and also very jealous of him. Mr. Smith knows this and enjoys it immensely. Before the Smiths were married he used to know a Minneapolis girl who visited his sister in Chicago. Mrs. Smith knew her very well too. The Minneapolis girl came down not long ago, and Mrs. Smith called on her. A few days before the Minneapolis girl went back she called on Mrs. Smith, and they had an enjoyable quarter of an hour thinking things about one another and talking about Mansfield.

When the Minneapolis girl rose to go, she said sweetly, "Oh, by the way, I want to see Charlie before I go back, and I think I may just drop into his office this afternoon."

"Oh, do; Charlie will be delighted," returned Mrs. Smith. The door had hardly closed on the guest before Mrs. Smith executed a sort of war dance. She dressed as fast as she could, put on her bonnet and announced her intention of going down to Mr. Smith's office. Her grandmother remonstrated in vain. Mrs. Smith is only 19, and she is jealous.

"I thought I'd spend the afternoon with you," she announced to the astonished Charlie as she swept into the office.

"But, my dear"— he began, when Mrs. Smith ensconced herself at the side of his desk and intimated that the most violent arguments would not move her. She sat there all the afternoon. The Minneapolis girl enjoyed herself shopping, and forgot to call in to tell Charlie goodby. Mrs. Smith broke down and confessed as soon as she got home, and her foolish young husband told her to go down next day and buy herself the prettiest hat she could find. —Chicago Inter Ocean.

Mr. Cole Discovers the Power of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Windsor Feb. 22.—The following statement, which Mr. F. H. Cole of this place requests us to publish, is worthy of attention from every victim of Rheumatism in Canada.

Mr. Cole's experiment fully warrants him in making this statement.

"Words cannot describe how I suffered from Rheumatism and Kidney Complaint. I tried every cure that was recommended, but got no benefit until I began using Dodd's Kidney Pills."

"Thank God I did use Dodd's Kidney Pills, for they cured me—made me sound and well, in every joint and limb."

Those who suffer the agonies of Rheumatism or Lumbago need do so no longer. Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure them.

A Double Headed Bull.

On the occasion of a public reception at Napier, Australia, the school children of the town, after being duly complimented by his excellency from County Tyrone on the hearty manner in which they had rendered the national anthem, were solemnly assured that if they put their shoulders to the wheel they would be sure to reach the top of the tree! Upon which a compatriot turned to me and said, "Sure, it was an axletree he meant, bedad."—Spectator.

OLD DUELLING RULES.

"MUCH USEFUL ADVICE" FROM AN ANCIENT BOOK.

If the Combatant Dies as a Result of the Encounter, He Is Told to Go Off With as Good Grace as Possible. Irishmen Not Good Seconds.

To Englishmen dueling is happily a lost art, but three-quarters of a century ago dueling was sufficiently in vogue to induce an anonymous writer to publish a book "containing much useful information," ironically dedicated to Daniel O'Connell, Esq., M. P., and James Silk Buckingham, Esq., M. P., as "entertaining the opinion first promulgated by the immortal Falstaff of happy memory that discretion is the better part of valor."

The author advises "all my countrymen who go abroad to use the pistol instead of the sword when they have the choice of the weapon, as the balance of killed and wounded is now much in favor of the French, who, upon the termination of the late war, amused themselves by occasionally spitting some half dozen of our traveling young fashionables before breakfast." He recommends "Purdey, in Oxford street, as the maker of the best dueling pistol locks," care in the selection of a stock which fits the hand comfortably and to eschew "saw handles." Barrels should be ten inches long and half rifled, which, considering that throughout his volume he poses as a man of the strictest honor, is puzzling, for he admits that a wholly rifled pistol is considered an unfair weapon, therefore one not appearing to be rifled should be substituted.

On "the chances" he writes: "Many a poor, long armed, straggling fellow has received the coup di (sic) coeur (or fatal stroke) who might still have been in existence had he known how to protect his person in the field," the necessary protection consisting in standing sideways and drawing in the stomach. "Should the party be hit"—presumably because he could not draw in his stomach—"he must not feel alarmed." This seems difficult, as a man with a bullet in his stomach can hardly be expected not to display some little natural anxiety, for, as is admitted later, "a shot in the digestive organs must be particularly annoying to a bon vivant." To alderman his advice is "the old method of fighting—the back to the adversary and discharging over the shoulder." "The chances of a man's being killed are about 14 to 1, and of his being hit about 6 to 1." He arrives at this conclusion by dividing a man's body, when opposed to his adversary, into nine parts. Therefore he says, "As in only three of these a wound would prove mortal, the chances are 3 to 1 against his being killed, and 5 to 1 against his being hit—that is, however," he hastens to add, "provided his antagonist has never read my work. If he has, the case may be different!"

The combatant is told "not to allow the idea of becoming a target to make him uneasy, but to treat the matter jocosely." He is to laugh away the evening over a bottle of port, and play a rubber of whist, but he must avoid drinking to excess, or taking "any food that tends to create bile," because "bilious objects are not seen either distinctly or correctly." This would rather be a valid reason for getting as bilious as possible. A man with an attack of jaundice should be invisible, and able to blaze at his antagonist in perfect safety. If he cannot sleep on retiring to rest, he is to read Byron's "Childe Harold." His servant is to call him at 5 and give him a strong cup of coffee. Then he is to smoke a cigar, and "on his way to the scene of action" he is to take a brandy and soda, as a most "grateful stimulant and corrective."

No wonder our author recommends him at this point to draw in his stomach. "If he dies, he is to go off with as good grace as possible!" On the other hand, if he hits his antagonist, he is to take off his hat to him and express regret.

A challenge is not to be in rhyme, such as "a certain poetical, brandy loving major general of marines" wrote to a brother officer who ran off with his wife:

Wounds on the flesh a surgeon's skill may heal,
But wounded honor's only cured with steel.

An Irishman is not to be chosen as second, for nine out of ten have such an innate love of fighting they cannot bring an affair to an amicable adjustment, and the first duty of a second is to prevent the affair coming to a serious issue. Other advice is for the second to take care his principal is not inconvenienced by the sun, and to get his antagonist with something dark behind him, when it will be much more easy to hit him.

As may be inferred, the author holds by dueling, for "the man who falls in a duel and the individual who is killed by the overturn of a stagecoach are both unfortunate victims to a practice from which we derive great advantages. It would be absurd to prohibit stage traveling because occasionally a few lives are lost by an overturn, and unless men endeavored to destroy each other they might live to a patriarchal age and multiply so rapidly that the soil would soon be insufficient to supply them with nourishment," with which reductio ad absurdum the volume may well be put back on the shelf. —Navy and Army Illustrated.

Three Years in Bed.

From Kidney Disease—Although a Man of Three-Score and Ten, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills gave him back perfect health.

This is to certify that I was sick in bed the most of the time for three years with kidney disease. I took several boxes of pills—different kinds—and a great many other kinds of patent medicines; besides that I was under treatment by four different doctors during the time and not able to work. I began to take Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and since that time have been working every day, although a man nearly 70 years of age. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have cured me.

JAMES SIMPSON,
Newcombe Mills, Ont.

If the Kidneys are not in a perfectly clean and healthy condition, the blood becomes impregnated with impurities, and a decay of the Kidneys soon takes place. Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Gravel, Stone in the Bladder, Inflammation of the Bladder, and a long list of Kidney diseases become seated, and sooner or later in so many instances end fatally. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills cure all Kidney troubles. Sold by all dealers, price 25 cents per box.

He Got the Ad.

"You're not on that horrid paper, are you," cried the girl who speaks her mind, "though I did once meet a reporter from it who was rather nice? He came to see about getting an advertisement— What! Not a reporter? Why, I thought he was. Well, anyway I had lost a dog, and he said he had heard of it and wanted to know if I didn't want to advertise in his paper for it. I told him I didn't believe I liked his old paper, and he said he didn't think much of it himself, but he thought it was pretty apt to reach the class of people who stole dogs. And so since he was so polite about it I thought I might as well advertise in it. But I didn't get the dog."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

A Mind Healer's Fee.

Some years ago a young friend of mine went to a mind healer for a lark. There was nothing in the world the matter with him, but he pretended to be the victim of terrible headaches. The wonderful healer asked no questions as to the cause of the ailment. He did not care about that, for he had one panacea which sufficed for every ill. Said he to the young investigator: "Go home, and whenever the headache comes on sit down quietly and put your whole mind on it, thinking with all your might that you have not got a headache. Then you will not have it and will be cured."

"That's easy," said my young friend. "What is your fee?"

"Five dollars."

"Well, sir, you put your whole mind on it and think with all your might that you have that $5.

CIDER A BACTERICIDE.

The Beverage Declared to Be a Specific Against Typhoid Fever.

Cider was regarded by the late Edmond de Goncourt as the drink of dry, hard-headed, reasoning men, but his judgment was probably biased by the traditional prejudice of the French against the calculating and wily "Normand." It may be remarked that the Devonshire people, who are the cider drinkers of England, do not appear to have this character, though they are certainly intelligent. Literary men, owing to their partial, hasty or superficial views, are prone to fall into many errors of this kind, especially when dealing with the characters of races and peoples.

They do not patiently and repeatedly look at the matter all round or take the long time required to sift it to the bottom and so arrive at the truth. In short, they have not the scientific habit of mind which might save them from very erroneous conclusions and the propagation of pernicious popular mistakes. At the same time there is no doubt that the liquor a man habitually drinks has some influence on his mind, and it is possible that the acidity of cider sharpens the wits. "He who drinks beer thinks beer," is an old saying with some foundation.

Be that as it may, the Pasteur institute has recently found that cider is a bactericide. The Normans often make cider with dirty water, and even pretend that pure water does not make good cider. The institute, investigating Norman cider in search of bacteria, has observed that the bacillus of typhoid dies in cider in two to 18 hours, owing to acidity. The cider should contain at least 2 per cent of malic acid to produce this effect, otherwise the bacillus will exist for three or four days, and if the liquor is neuter, for more than 20 days. Ordinary cider, however, possesses at least 2 per cent of malic acid, and consequently if it is not drunk for 18 or 20 hours there is no danger of typhoid fever.—London Globe.

Heroes of the Pen.

The intensity of application with which the mind follows whatever it lays hold of in literary pursuits is exemplified in the case of Robert Ainsworth, a celebrated writer and antiquarian of the seventeenth century. He had been for years engaged in a voluminous Latin dictionary, and while fascinated with this heroic work gave so little time and attention to his wife that he incurred her bitterest jealousy, and before the work was quite complete she committed the whole to the flames. Instead of abandoning himself to despair, Ainsworth set to work and rewrote it, accomplishing the entire work in time. The same bitter disappointment was endured with similar heroism by Carlyle when the manuscript of his "Frederick the Great" was destroyed by fire.

"IT IS VERY SATISFACTORY."

To Wm. McCabe, Esq., Managing Director, North American Life Assurance Co., Toronto:

DEAR SIR.—Your official notice came duly to hand, apprising me of the results obtainable upon my 15 year endowment Policy in your Company for $1,000 which matured on the 6th inst. Of the various options you have given me viz.:

Cash value	$1,564 80
Paid-up Policy, payable at my death, for	2,560 00
Yearly Income for life of	166 20

I have decided upon the cash value; and it gives me pleasure to testify that, as I anticipated it would be when I took out the policy, IT IS VERY SATISFACTORY. This returns me the full premiums of the 15 years and over 4½ per cent. compound interest in addition to which you have carried the risk upon my life. In view of the low lending rates of interest which have been obtainable during the latter portion of the period it is difficult to see how this excellent result could have been surpassed.

Yours sincerely,

ANNUAL MEETING.

...THE...

DOMINION PERMANENT

LOAN COMPANY.

THE EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT.

ONE OF OUR MOST PROSPEROUS COMPANIES

Very Satisfactory Reports Presented—A Steadily Increasing Business—Election of Officers.

The regular annual meeting of the Shareholders of the Dominion Permanent Loan Company was held at the offices, 14 King street west, Toronto, on Wednesday, March 1st, 1899, at 2 o'clock p.m., with a good attendance of the Shareholders. Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., President, occupied the chair, and Mr. F. M. Holland, General Manager, acted as secretary.

The President submitted the report of the directors for the year ending Dec. 31st, 1898, as follows:

Your Directors have much pleasure in submitting their report of the business of the Company for the past year, including statements of income and expenditure, assets and liabilities, and profit, and loss, accompanied by the Auditors' report.

It is gratifying to be able to point out that these statements indicate a satisfactory growth of the business of the Company. The total amount of the assets on December 31st, 1897, was $1,275,616.43, while the assets on the 31st December, 1898, were $1,427,981.11, showing an increase for the year of over $150,000, a circumstance which permits us to once more present a report showing more than the average yearly increase in the business of the Company.

The total earnings for the year were $118,992.76. Of this total, after paying interest on debentures and deposits, writing off losses on Mortgage account, and 10 per cent off office furniture, besides adding $10,000 to the contingent and reserve funds, there is a balance left for distribution of $94,269.

During the past year loans were applied for and accepted, more than sufficient to keep the funds of the Company fully employed; in fact, we are able to report that, had the necessary funds been available, at a profitable rate of interest, the amount which we could have placed on loan during the year on most satisfactory security, would have been more than double what we actually advanced.

As you are aware, since our last annual meeting, legislation has been procured changing the name of the Company to one expressing more clearly the character of the Company's business.

The auditors have, during the year made a careful monthly audit of the books and accounts of the Company, and also carefully examined the securities.

The usual inspection of properties under mortgage to the Company, has been made during the year, and you will be gratified to know that the result of this inspection has been extremely satisfactory.

At our first annual meeting in our new premises, the shareholders cannot fail to be impressed with their excellent adaptability to the purposes of our business, occupying, as they do, one of the most central and accessible situations in the city.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the directors,

J. R. STRATTON, President.

AUDITORS' CERTIFICATE.

We have audited the accounts of The Dominion Permanent Loan Company for the twelve months ending December 31st, 1898, and find the transactions of that period accurately recorded in the books of the Company, the receipts accounted for, the payments duly authorized, and vouchers produced therefor. We certify to the correctness of the accompanying statements of the Revenue Account, Profit and Loss Account and Balance Sheet. We have made a careful examination of the Securities, checked the same with the Mortgage Register, and report everything satisfactory.

Auditors.

Toronto, February 8th, 1899.

Mr. Stratton in moving the adoption of the report, said:—

It is a pleasure for me to be able to congratulate the Shareholders upon the success that has attended the operations of the Company during the past year, as indicated in the report whose adoption I have much pleasure in moving.

You will have noticed that the growth of the Company's business has been steady, and that the confidence of the investing public is evidenced by the continuously increasing volume of business intrusted to its management.

The total earnings for the year have been most satisfactory, enabling the Directors after writing off necessary items, [illegible] besides to pay [illegible] to [illegible] furniture, and propose [illegible] to [illegible] for $10,000 to [illegible] Contingent Funds, a [illegible] of the [illegible] Company.

The [illegible] of this financial [illegible] is [illegible] in prosperity [illegible] by the fact that the payments on account of loans and interest have been exceedingly well met, the amount collected for interest during the year going beyond anticipation, and showing a marked improvement over previous years.

The applications for loans were much in excess of the money available for use in this direction, a practical tribute to the industry of the management and to the excellent opportunities provided by the system of the Company for the profitable investment of funds.

You will be interested in knowing that the investments of the Company are of a most satisfactory character, a circumstance arising from the great care exercised by the Board of Directors in selecting trustworthy and capable agents, whose good judgment and prudence in preliminary negotiations, combined with the exacting scrutiny of applications made by the Board, have resulted in mortgage investments of a most substantial and dependable nature. The sums represented by debentures and deposits are satisfactory evidence of the continued and increasing confidence of the public in our Company.

The present condition of the Company as viewed in the light of the report must be eminently satisfactory to the Shareholders, while the future is full of promise. The Company is firmly established, not only on a sound financial basis but in the confidence of the public, a confidence justified by the fact that the closest scrutiny of its business methods and its securities will be found reflected in the statements presented to the public. And besides the new era of commercial prosperity that has evidently arrived and which promises to be of a permanent nature, and the revived vitality of every department of industrial activity throughout the Dominion will create [illegible] for capital that must, in turn, bring employment and profit to this Company.

You will remember that at the last annual meeting, I intimated the necessity of securing new premises. These have been obtained in a good locality in the business centre of the city. They have been fitted up in a substantial and suitable manner, worthy of the standing of the Company, and as to arrangement and convenience, are in every way excellently adapted to meet every requirement for the transaction of the business of the Company, with ample and secure vault accommodation. These offices are regarded by the business community, as not only handsome, but in every way splendidly adapted to our business necessities, while at the same time the terms upon which they have been secured by the Company are most reasonable.

I feel it would be omitting a very important part of my remarks, if I failed to voice the feeling of satisfaction, experienced by the Directors, with the faithful services of the efficient General Manager, to whom, as well as the representatives in the Provinces, and all the officials of the Company in their respective positions, no small amount of the prosperity of the Company is due.

I have to announce with regret the death during the year of one of our Auditors, in the person of Mr. Wm. Powis, F.C.A., who as Auditor and Actuary, rendered excellent service to the Company by always discharging his duties in the most exact and painstaking manner. Mr. W. B. Tindall, C.A., was appointed Auditor in his place.

Mr. D. W. Karn, President Karn Piano Company, Woodstock, in seconding the adoption of the report said:—

I have had for several years the pleasure of seconding the adoption of the annual report of this Company, and on each occasion it gives me greater pleasure, because every succeeding report gives evidence of the steadily progressive growth of the Company, not only in volume of profitable business but also in stability.

The Shareholders are to be congratulated upon the fact that the Directors and management have had the courage and ability to confront changing financial and commercial conditions, and deal with the interests of the Company in relation thereto, in a manner which has resulted in bettering both the earnings and standing of The Dominion Permanent Loan Company.

One of the important advantages enjoyed by this Company is the great care and direct interest exercised and shown by the President and the Executive Committee, in the management of the Company's affairs, in continuous co-operation with the efficient General Manager in dealing promptly, and with the advantage of the combined wisdom thus represented, with the varied and sometimes difficult matters that demand attention.

In view of the financial position of the Company, the nature of the securities, all of which have been rigidly inspected, the strengthening of the Reserve fund, and the growing confidence of the public, as shown by the Debenture and Deposit accounts, I feel that I have the very strongest reasons for heartily congratulating the shareholders, and for predicting a prosperous future. I have consequently, much pleasure in seconding the adoption of the report.

Several shareholders added their congratulations to those of the mover and seconder, referring especially to the care and ability that characterized the management of the Company's affairs, and the satisfactory results flowing therefrom. Reference was also made to the excellent situation and suitability of the new premises.

The report was adopted.

Resolutions of thanks to the directors agents and to the officers of the Company were unanimously adopted.

The following directors were then elected; J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., President of The Trusts and Guarantee Company; D. W. Karn, President of the D. W. Karn Company, Woodstock; C. Kloepfer, M.P., Manufacturer and Director Traders' Bank, Toronto; T. P. Coffee, Barrister, etc.; J. M. Lefevre, M.D., Vancouver, B. C.; and F. M. Holland, Toronto. At a subsequent meeting of the Directors, Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., was re-elected President, and Mr. T. P. Coffee was re-elected Vice-President.

THE CONFESSION OF SINS.

The Evangelistic Service in Park Street Baptist Church are being well Patronized.

Park street Baptist chapel was well filled last evening when Rev. Mr. Cowsert preached an impressive sermon from I Jno. 1-9, on the subject of "The Confession of Sins." Just before the address, Mr. Cowsert and Mrs. Dingman sang a duet entitled "The' Your Sins be as Scarlet."

In discussing the subject of who should confess, the speaker held that God's own children should confess. There were some who professed to be sinless, because they misapprehended the teaching of such Scripture as I Jno. 3-9, which might m an did not habitually sin, or that the new nature born of God did not sin. Others confounded being perfectly God's child, with being God's perfect child. While still others narrowed God down to being little gods. Regeneration did not deliver from sin in absolute sense but would ultimately do so. A person could become God's child perfectly in a moment, while to become God's perfect child would require a lifetime. Just as Noah, Abraham, David and Daniel, who had been most intimate with God, had found it necessary to confess their sinfulness. So those who at present were in closest relation with God would realize the need of confessing their sins. To say we had none would be to deceive ourselves.

Backsliders should confess their sins. The cause of backsliding in Mr. Cowsert's opinion was the neglect of private devotion and the public means of grace. Just as neglect of food and nourishment would produce physical weakness and deformity so neglect to feed and exercise our spiritual beings would result in weakness. If, like the prodigal son we confessed our sins, we would receive the prodigal's welcome and pardon.

Sinners should come and confess their sins for confession was one of the conditions of pardon though not the grounds of it. The only grounds upon which God pardoned and cleansed was the complete satisfaction Christ had made. To obtain the purchased forgiveness it was necessary to acknowledge our guilt.

This confession of sin was to be made to God, and to God alone. No man or company of men had the power to absolve or not absolve from sin. That alone was a prerogative of God. To Him we should confess and by Him we would be forgiven and cleansed. We should also confess our wrong doing to any who were injured by us. This was a hard thing to do, but it ought to be done.

The following reasons were then urged as to why we should confess: 1 God had commanded it; 2 It implied penitence, and penitence was a condition of salvation; 3 That it was an essential condition to receiving pardon and cleansing.

This evening Mr. Cowsert's subject will be "Confessing Christ," and Mrs. Dingman will sing. No meeting will be held on Saturday evening, but there will be meetings every night next week. The meetings have been steadily increasing in interest and power, and conversions have occurred at every service.

THE JEWELER.

POPE'S CORONATION.

Ceremonials Postponed Owing to His Holiness' Illness.

HIS PRAYER OF THANKFULNESS

Getting Along Nicely Now—The Danger From Blood Poisoning Has Passed, But the Incision Made to Remove the Cyst Has Not Healed Yet—The Doctors Are Satisfied.

Rome, March 4.—Yesterday was the anniversary of the Pope's coronation, which took place March 3, 1878. Elaborate ceremonies and fetes had been planned for the occasion, but, as was the case with the birthday festivities yesterday, these have been abandoned, and the day was marked with a general feeling of gloom and suspense over the Pope's condition.

The most cheerful man in Rome is the Pontiff himself. He converses in almost a jovial vein with those at the bedside, and insists on seeing all the bulletins posted by his physicians. These are, therefore, made as optimistic as possible.

The danger of blood poisoning, resulting from the operation, is passed, but the incision made to remove the cyst has not yet healed.

The large square in front of St. Peter's and the entrance of the Vatican were thronged with people, anxious for news of the Pope's condition.

Getting on Nicely.

The following bulletin was issued at 6 o'clock in the evening:

"The Pope has passed a very good day, and does not complain of any pain. He says he feels very well. His temperature is 98.6, pulse 72 and respiration 22."

The doctors add that the Pontiff's mental and physical condition is excellent.

The Papal Secretary of State, Cardinal Rampolla, has sent a letter to the high prelates residing in Rome, in which he says:

"I hasten to notify you that to-day the state of the Holy Father is completely satisfactory."

Latest About the Pope.

The absence of fever permitting, the Pope's oft-repeated wish to have the curtains drawn was granted yesterday morning. He greeted the blue sky with the ejaculation, "Thanks be to the Almighty, who has again preserved me to work for the greatness of his church."

Everything is going on satisfactorily, and Dr. Lapponi thinks that after Monday it will not be necessary to continue the night attendance.

JAPS AND FILIPINOS.

A Rumor That Arms and Ammunition for the Filipinos Have Been Taken in Charge by Them.

New York, March 4.—A despatch to The Herald from Manila says: It is rumored here that a steamer with 20,000 stands of arms and ammunition which was bound for the Philippines, has been seized in Japanese waters by Japanese authorities. Aguinaldo's army is disheartened as the result of the recent actions. Many companies of the insurgents have retired, because their officers skulk and won't lead their men.

The latest news from Cebu is good. The natives are returning to the town. The coolies are now willing to work at reasonable wages. Under the native Government they asked double pay. Vessels are now unloading, and business has been resumed.

The influential natives of the islands of Mabate and Ticao request Gen. Otis to send troops there. They say that 200 men could easily subdue the rebels. The inhabitants are peaceable. They are disgusted with the extortions of three successive native Governors. The islands contain 80,000 head of cattle, which constitute the food supply of the rebel army of the south.

The Concord's Cruise.

Manila, March 4.—The U.S. gunboat Concord has arrived here, after a week's cruise along the west coast of Luson. The only incident of her trip was the burning of a schooner, loaded with supplies for rebels, at Dagupan, the terminus of the railroad. The natives fled and abandoned the town when the gunboat anchored in the bay.

HEAD OFFICE IN TORONTO.

Crow's Nest Pass Coal Company Increases Its Capital to $2,000,000.

Montreal, March 4.—The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Company was held at its head office, Canada Life Building, here yesterday. Bylaws were passed authorizing the increase of the capital to $2,000,000, the increase ($500,000) to be allotted to the shareholders at par, in the proportion of 1 to 3, and transferring the head offices to Toronto. Transfers of shares will be made there forthwith, no further business being done in Montreal.

The following gentlemen were elected directors: Hon. Senator Cox, Robert Jaffray, Elias Rogers, H. M. Pellatt, Thomas Walmsley, J. W. Flavelle of Toronto; J. A. Gemmill, Q.C., Ottawa; David Morrice, William Hanson, S. Finlay of Montreal; William Fernie of British Columbia, and J. D. Chapman of New Brunswick.

Subsequently, Hon. George A. Cox was elected president, Robert Jaffray vice-president and J. A. Gemmill, Ottawa, secretary-treasurer of the company.

JUMPED INTO THE NIAGARA.

A Deported Canadian Insane Man Escapes From His Custodians.

Buffalo, March 4.—Louis Fralick, a Canadian, was deported across the river by Inspector DeBarry as an insane man on Thursday. Officer Griffin took the man to Fort Erie and turned him over to Constable Griffin of that place. Griffin was warned that Fralick was dangerous, and that he had threatened to take his life. The Buffalo officials advised the constable to keep a close watch on him.

Griffin locked his man up in a room in the Town Hall, and in the evening turned him over to Arthur Yeomans. Yeomans was told to watch Fralick closely.

About 5.30 yesterday morning, Yeomans says, Fralick suddenly opened a window and jumped to the ground. He ran down the railroad track to the river with Yeomans in hot pursuit. The insane man was fleet of foot, and when the bank was reached, and before his pursuer could overtake him, Yeomans says, he made a leap into the water and disappeared. There was no ice in the river, at the time. The body has not been recovered.

Fralick's mother, his only near relative, lives near Ottawa. He has distant relations at St. Catharines. He left his home, near Ottawa, about two months ago, and has been working at his trade since then at Rochester.

When arrested Fralick had considerable money in his possession.

Was to Have Been His Wedding Day.

The police learned yesterday afternoon that Fralick (or Froelich) was to have been married to-day to Carrie Taylor of Glenwood avenue, this city. She went to school with him at Ottawa, Ont., many years ago.

Half-Brothers in Kingston.

Kingston, March 4.—Louis Fralick, drowned at Fort Erie, was a half-brother of J. W. and George Fralick of the Windsor Hotel in this city.

Mr. Chamberlain Won't Interfere With Self-Governing Colonies.

ITALY'S DEALINGS WITH CHINA.

The Recent Demand Said to Be Made With Britain's Acquiescence, and May Be Prelude to International Control of the Celestial Empire—The News by Cable.

London, March 4.—The Daily Mail's report that the Japanese ambassador may ask Mr. Chamberlain to secure the disallowance of the British Columbian alien bill excites no attention here. The impression which prevails among well informed circles is that Mr. Chamberlain's policy is one of non-interference with the self-governing colonies.

ITALY'S DEALINGS WITH CHINA.

Many Surmises Caused by the Recent Demand of the Former.

Pekin, March 4.—The demand of the Italian Government upon the Government of China for a lease of Sanmun Bay as a coaling station and naval base on the same conditions as those under which Germany holds Kiaochou Bay, including a demand upon the part of Italy for the concession of three islands off the coast of the Province of Chekiang, with the right to construct a railroad from Sanmun Bay to Poyang Lake, and preferential mining and railroad rights within a sphere of influence covering the southern two-thirds of Chekiang Province, has caused great excitement here, not only among the Chinese, but also among the diplomats. The Chinese are firmly convinced that Great Britain is chiefly responsible for the Italian demand, and that it was made in order to emphasize Great Britain's displeasure at the turn which the Northern Railroad question has taken. They declare in proof of this assertion that Great Britain has determined upon a sphere of action, and the abandonment of the "open door" policy. The diplomatists openly say that the new development is the beginning of a policy of partition upon the part of the powers. The agent of a great power, during a conversation, is said to have suggested that the moment had now arrived for international control of China, and it was added that if the policy of the "spheres of influence" should be really inaugurated, the United States would be expected to have a say in the matter; and he further said that there were indications that America would be likely to prefer the Province of Pechili.

Confirmed the Report.

Rome, March 4.—In the Chamber of Deputies yesterday Admiral de Canevaro, Minister of Foreign Affairs, replying to a question on the subject, confirmed the report that the Government is taking steps at Pekin to secure a lease of Sanmun Bay, Province of Chekiang, China, and has given notice of its intention to the other nations interested in China, all of whom, the Minister said, were friendly to the Government's project.

Will Hold China to Terms.

London, March 4.—The Daily Graphic announces that the British Minister to China, Sir Claude Macdonald, acting upon Lord Salisbury's instructions, has notified the Tsung Li Yamen (Chinese Foreign Office) that Great Britain will hold China to the terms of the contract on the recent railway loan, and will also support her in resisting any aggression intended to force her to repudiate her obligations under that contract. As the result of British action, according to The Daily Graphic, Anglo-Russian negotiations have been resumed, with the prospect of an amicable arrangement.

Warship Has Been Offered.

Washington, March 4.—The American Government has proffered the use of a United States warship to convey the remains of the late Baron Herschell to England. The particular vessel has not yet been selected, but it will be one of the ships now at Havana, attached to the North Atlantic squadron if the British embassy cares to accept the offer.

Weak and Run Down, With Heart and Kidneys in Bad Condition—Restored by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I was very much run down, having been sick for several months. I had been trying different remedies which did me no good. I would have severe spells of coughing that would leave me prostrate. I was told that my lungs were affected, and my heart and kidneys were in a bad condition. In fact, it seemed as though every organ was out of order. I felt that something must be done and my brother advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I procured a bottle and began taking it. Before it was half gone I felt that it was helping me. SATURDAY, MARCH 4, 1899.

A CORRECTION.

The Hamilton Spectator (Conservative) made some comments on the remarks of Mr. Stratton, based on the alleged report of a Toronto evening paper. The Review, with that fairness which usually characterizes it in dealing with political opponents, published the paragraph, for which there was no foundation in fact. Is it not strange that our contemporary did not see the following correction, which the Hamilton Spectator, with a higher idea of journalistic decency, published, as follows?

'The other day the Spectator found, in a Toronto paper, an alleged report of a speech delivered in the Ontario Legislature by Mr. Stratton, Grit, in which there were some glaring misstatements. We have since been furnished with a printed copy of Mr. Stratton's speech, in which these inaccuracies do not appear, and we hasten to withdraw some remarks we made about the errors into which we supposed Mr. Stratton had fallen.

"A perusal of the speech has been a great pleasure to us. It points out the resources—the monopolies—of the country and indicates what should be done with them. It is just such a speech as a Tory would make. It has the true ring, and shows how Canada, aided as she has been by Providence, can make herself great.

Mr. Stratton insists that Canadian spruce should be manufactured into pulp and paper in Canada; that Canada, by a protective policy, should seek to capture the pulp trade of Britain. Mr. Stratton makes mention of the great stores of nickel ore in Ontario, and claims that in corundum we have a big thing.

"Let us," said Mr. Stratton, "map out a broad road which all may travel. We shall have left enough of minor matters to squabble over. But where our country is concerned let us have a big policy, an unchanging policy, so that no matter how we divide on party lines, on lesser matters, we shall be as one man in regard to the main consideration."

Inasmuch as Mr. Stratton announced himself in favour of compelling the manufacture of pulpwood into paper in Canada, thus admitting the virtue of the principle, we suppose that he would do the same with nickel ore and pine. We thank Mr. Stratton for that sheech and hope that it will be heeded by his fellow-Liberals.

A newspaper with any ordinary sense of honour would publish a correction of even quoted misstatement.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

TORONTO can't run up a high tower nor run a Tampa trip without "getting into the hole," figuratively.

HON. MR. SIFTON, Minister of the Interior, speaking at Perth, Ont., predicted that the surplus this year would be $5,000,000, and that the Yukon would yield $400,000 over and above the cost of its administration. This will be very bad news for Sir Charles Tupper. He has not been figuring on these things.

THE burden of the increase of license fees on hotels is to be met by the Toronto bonifaces by watering the whiskey and advancing the price. A toper under this regime will afford a double benefit to the seller—an increased quantity of whiskey, at a doubled price, will be required to bring the "dead" stage of conviviality.

THE complaint is made that the new revenue proposals of Hon. Mr. Harcour will strike the City of Toronto harder than it will the rest of the Province. Toronto shouldn't growl at that. That city has in a hundred ways acted for years as if it were the Province, and now it must not complain at a practical application of the doctrine.

FORTUNATELY, from the Liberal view point, the Conservative party seems to have unlimited confidence in Sir Charles Tupper. At the meeting held in Toronto, Wednesday the matter of re-organization of the party for Ontario was left entirely in the hands of the Cumberland War Horse. What better could we ask?

MR. GOODERHAM, the distiller, thinks that the proposed new higher licenses will drive these industries to Quebec. If he expects to escape a demand for taxes in Quebec, he is much mistaken. Our sister province exploits almost everything in sight for revenue, and it won't hesitate to touch up the distilleries to a pretty high tune if it gets the chance.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER has wonderful energy for a man of his years. But unfortunately his fluency of speech, which elicits the admiration of his political cult, seems, judging by reading his speeches, to be the garrulity of old age—a mere shouldering of his crutch to show how fields were won—in his palmy days, when there was a Conservative party.

THE increase in the importation of Canadian butter into Great Britain continues. For the period between September 24 last and January 14, 1899, the amount imported into England was 118,849 hundredweight, as against 84,725 hundredweight for the same period in the previous year. Up to last year Denmark had been selling John Bull half of his butter supply.

THE Hamilton Spectator, hopelessly and fossiliferously Tory, remarks that the New York Sun can produce more misinformation about Canada than any other journal in the United States. To this the London Advertiser aptly replies: "We are inclined to believe this. The other day we saw a half-column in the Spectator clipped from the Sun, stating that the Liberal party in Canada was going to the dogs."

OUR Lady of the Snows, says the Cleveland Plaindealer, proposes to make it warm for the Standard Oil Trust. The Canuck brother is a perverse and obstinate fellow, and there is no telling to what lengths his prejudice may carry him. The Plaindealer in making "Our Lady of the Snows" a "fellow", gets its metaphors mixed, but it is right in thinking that Jack Canuck will stand no nonsense from a standard commercial iniquity like the Standard Oil Trust.

JUDGE a man by his acts. Hon. Mr. Blair, says the Stratford Beacon, is roundly abused by his political enemies, who find him a man hard to beat, but the people have reason to applaud him. He is the only Minister of Railways Canada has yet had that has stood up for the people against the great railway interests. At the meeting of the Railway Committee of the Privy Council the other day he gave it pretty plainly to be understood that he would not permit collusion between the railways and the Standard Oil Company monopoly to continue, and the solicitors of these companies at once wilted. As long as Mr. Blair stands for the people he need not care about the abuse of his enemies.

THE Mail and Empire and other Opposition journals are publishing interviews with the managers of insurance and other companies respecting the new revenue legislation of Hon. Mr. Harcourt, provincial treasurer. Of course these gentlemen object to paying a proportion of their profits received, in one sense, through the protection afforded by the Government. Judged by the same standard one could hold interviews with thousands of persons who object to paying municipal or any other taxes on principle, or, at least, naturally; nearly everybody objects to contributing to the expenses of government in any form. If such objections were regarded we should have no revenue of any kind collected in the country. The fact that the corporations affected are complaining of the revenue bill of Mr. Harcourt, that calls upon them for a share of their income to support the expenses of the state, have hitherto been exempt, doubtless gives rise to their objections now, but that is surely a reason that they should be no longer exempt.

HONEST BOOK-KEEPING.

Montreal Herald.

The Huntingdon Gleaner calls for "an honest system of book-keeping" in connection with the Federal finances. As this is the favorite line of attack by Conservative papers, and as it appears to have imposed upon the Gleaner, it may be worth while to repeat that the book-keeping at Ottawa is not dishonest our even misleading to to those who take the smallest pains to understand it. In national-book-keeping there are, and properly must be, two general accounts: (1) Ordinary annual receipts and disbursements; (2) capital loans and expenditures. The same is the case in all commercial enterprises. If, for example, a business man increases or decreases the cost of running his business, the record of the fact goes into one account along with the record of an increase or decrease of income from the ordinary process of his business. But if, on the other hand, he erects a new building in which to carry on his business, he neither charges the cost of the building against ordinary income of the year, nor does he, if he had to borrow money for the purpose, put his borrowing in with the year's ordinary income. To do so would result in confusion and in showing, frequently, that upon the face of his books a perfectly solvent business man was in a bankrupt condition. A business man has his capital account. He finds it a great convenience. By means of it he is easily able to see how his business is going from year to year, how the management expenses compare with the returns.

It is much the same with national book-keeping. Here, too, it is convenient to know how the costs of national house-keeping, from year to year, compare with the means at the housekeepers' command—distinct from borrowings for permanent undertakings. There are, therefore, two accounts. A capital account is useful not merely to these officials who keep the books nor convenient merely to the politicians. It is most useful of all to the plain citizen, the taxpayer, whose concern is to ascertain, with as little difficulty as possible, how the ordinary charges of the year compare with the ordinary revenues. He is accordingly able to judge the economy or extravagance with which the public services are administered. Of course this one account does not cover the whole ground to be viewed by the taxpayer A Government may be careful in the ordinary services, but extravagant in public works, or vice versa. And its record can best be judged when these two departments of expenditure are kept separate. If there were only one account, as our contemporary, the Gleaner, appears to want, a Government which was extravagant in the ordinary services of the country might cover its prodigality in a general statement, including expenditures upon public works against whose construction the people might have no complaint to make. When the two accounts are kept separate this is more difficult.

For these elementary reasons the system of bookkeeping which the Gleaner appears to think dishonest, and which is the universal system, is seen to be the only rational one, if we have have in mind the convenience of the taxpayer and an easy scrutiny of the expenditure of public money.

KIDNEY-SICK PEOPLE!

By far the largest army of sufferers in the world are the kidney-sick people—but by far the largest army of the cured ones attribute their release from disease to the great South American Kidney Cure—Cures Bright's disease. Cures diabetes. Cures all bladder ailments.

Kidney diseases are the most insidious of all diseases common to humanity; within the past few years medical science has made wonderful strides in coping with its ravages. South American Kidney Cure has proved rich in healing power, and every day testimony is piled up for its great curative qualities. Where kidney disease exists it is generally indicated by certain changes in the urine, such as mucus, sediment, albumen, brick dust, acid and blood—pain is not necessarily an accompaniment, which only aggravates the insidious nature of it. Testing and experimenting has disclosed the fact that the passing through these organs of the solid particles in the ordinary course of circulation do in a remarkably short while clog up, grind out and impair them so that the functions of these organs are not performed and disease lays hold on the patient with a ruthless hand. Kidney diseases require a solvent—South American Kidney Cure is a solvent—it is a kidney specific—claims to be no more—it has been tested by eminent medical authorities on kidney diseases, and proved and testified to by them as the surest and safest cure for all diseases of the kidneys and bladder. It's a purifier—a healer—a health builder—efficacious alike to man or woman.

Good News from the North Country—A young machinist in a large manufacturing concern in Northern Ontario, fell a victim to the dropsical form of kidney disease through atmospheric changes in following his daily labors—he continued his work until almost commanded to quit by the physician from whom he had been receiving treatment. He visited Toronto and consulted an eminent authority on kidney diseases. The doctor sent him home with as hopeful a story of himself as he could give, but wrote privately to the young man's physician that it was only a matter of time with him until death would claim another kidney victim. When he began to realise for himself that his case was hopeless he took his case in his own hands, determined to fight for his life. He experimented with many so-called cures without relief. South American Kidney Cure was brought to his notice, and like everything else, he tried it—to his astonishment he began to feel better under its use. He continued to gain strength—he took six bottles—and to-day that same young man can be found at that same lathe, working for that same concern, hale and hearty as the first day he went there. He gives all the credit to South American Kidney Cure.

SOUTH AMERICAN NERVINE—Is a nerve healer. Cures indigestion and all stomach troubles which are forerunners of nervous collapses.

THE LEGISLATURE

Development of Niagara's Power Under Discussion.

THE BIG MONOPOLY MUST GO.

Resolutions of Mr. German Were Carried —Able Speeches in Favor of the Resolution by Mr. German, the Mover, and by the Attorney-General for the Government.

Toronto, March 4.—Yesterday afternoon the galleries were filled with a deputation which came by special train from Niagara Falls to hear the debate upon Mr. German's resolution in opposition to the continued monopoly of the right to generate electric power from the Niagara River at Niagara Falls Park. The debate upon this resolution was the feature of the proceedings of the day, and the House was unanimous in its approval. Mr. German made an excellent speech, and that it was eminently satisfactory to those of his constituents who heard it was manifest from the generous applause which, contrary to the rules of the House, he received from the galleries when he sat down. The Attorney-General voiced the concurrence of the Government in the resolution and its determination to enforce the terms of the contract, especially with reference to the time of completion, and he, too, received applause from the galleries.

The Resolutions.

"Resolved, That in the opinion of this House the sole and exclusive right to the use of the waters of the Niagara River within the limits of the Queen Victoria Niagara Falls Park, under the agreement set out in chapter 8 of 55 Victoria (Ontario), between the commissioners for the said park and Messrs. Shaw, Stetson and Rankine, or the Canadian Niagara Power Company, as provided by section 9 of the said agreement, should be forfeited and terminated immediately upon default by the company in complying with sections 10 and 13 of the said agreement, and that no performance of work, expenditure of money or letting of contracts in part performance of the work to be done in generating electric power under said sections, should be considered to save such forfeiture;

"And this House is further of opinion that all necessary steps should be taken to bring about at the earliest date the largest possible development of Niagara power."

Mr. German's Speech.

Mr. German, in introducing the above resolutions, referred to the general interest in the question and the discussions thereon in the press. He disclaimed any desire to in any way injure the Canadian Niagara Power Company, which had for six years held a monopoly of the water power of Niagara Falls. He wished for electrical power development to the greatest extent, but if the company was not prepared to fulfil its part of the agreement with the Government he wished the contract to terminate. This had been his position from the beginning. The hon. member then recited the clauses of the agreement, one of which is that the company pay to the commissioners of the Queen Victoria Niagara Falls Park a rental of $25,000 for the exclusive use of the water for development purposes. The wisdom of this arrangement he would not discuss, but he would say that the agreement had not proved a beneficial one for the province, owing to this monopoly clause. If the company had carried out this agreement according to its spirit—if they had expended a considerable amount of money—if they had shown a bona fide intention to develop power—this discussion and demand would never have arisen. It was the fact, however, that the company had practically done nothing, and, from present appearances, did not intend to do anything, but simply to tie up all the Niagara Falls power. It was stated by the company that they had expended a very considerable sum of money. The best answer to this would be a personal visit to the spot. If anyone could find evidence of anything having been done in compliance with their contract, he would be entitled to a chromo for his services.

The company certainly has paid the stipulated rental to the Government, but this, said Mr. German, is not development; and they pay this rent for the purpose of holding on to the agreement.

"In my opinion," continued Mr. German, "and I am supported by the best engineering experts in this country, it is impossible for the Canadian Niagara Power Company to carry out the terms of its agreement by Nov. 1 next. It was within the knowledge of members of the House that this company was an adjunct of a larger American company, and hence it was unlikely that they would build up on the Canadian side industries to compete with those they were interested in on the other side of the river. Unless compelled to go out by the Government this company could keep the Canadian side tied up for 100 years if the company only developed for sale in Canada 5,000 horse-power."

These facts showed that the agreement sanctioned by this House was an exceedingly bad one, not so much by reason of the monopoly, but by reason of the limitation he had specified. Any further development they might make would doubtless be used as an adjunct to their American enterprise. The question of the maximum rental should not be a prime factor in the consideration of this question by the Government. He concluded by moving the resolutions quoted above.

Mr. James Conmee (West Algoma) seconded the resolutions.

The Attorney-General's Speech.

Hon. Mr. Hardy congratulated the member for Welland on his able speech, and proceeded to state that unquestionably there is an earnest desire on the part of the Government that the Canadian Niagara Power Company's contract should be fully carried out and that as soon as possible. But for the rental received from this company the Government would have been called upon to provide larger sums for the maintenance of Queen Victoria Niagara Falls Park. So long as the company had not thwarted their agreement the Government was not called upon to interfere, but was, on the contrary, anxious that they should go on and fulfil their contract. Apart from this the Government had no feeling in the matter. Whatever might now be the opinion of the House as to the company's acts, whatever we may believe as to their failure to prosecute those works, the Government did believe the company intended to go on with their contract—that is, until the last few weeks. They maintained that they were entitled up to the 1st of November, 1899, for the fulfilment of the terms of the contract. The Government was as much bound by that agreement as the company was, or any private individuals would be. The agreement was as binding on us as on them. We could not violate the agreement, and hence found ourselves tied up in this respect. When the agreement was made the project of the company was an experiment. However, the House was a party to the contract. After a while we found that the company was practically at a standstill in the execution of the works. On three occasions the Government wrote to them concerning this—in 1897, in 1898, and at the beginning of the present year. We told the company that we refused to extend their time, and that the 1st of November of this year was the limit of the time for compliance with the terms of the agreement. They were told that in default of spending one million dollars by that stipulated time the cancellation of the agreement would follow. There were two courses open to the Government—to cancel the monopoly clause alone, or to cancel the entire agreement. He read the clause which the courts had held constituted a monopoly, and said he was of opinion that to invalidate the monopoly clause would necessarily involve the forfeiture of the agreement. We must be in the position, if it comes within our power, to abolish this monopoly. The company, however, still had the opportunity to comply with the terms of the agreement. Failing this, what everybody desires is that at the earliest possible moment the Government shall cancel the monopoly clause. Nothing has been given away by the Government, unless it can be proved that the agreement unanimously sanctioned by this House was a bad bargain. This was not the opinion of Sir Oliver Mowat, the then Attorney-General, nor of Sir William Meredith, the then leader of the Opposition. It appeared eminently fair to the House, as, in fact, the matter was almost a question of speculation on the part of the company.

Mr. German's Reply.

In reply to Mr. Foy (South Toronto), Mr. German said he had not given the Canadian Niagara Power Company notice of his resolutions. It made no difference, either, in fact or in law, if this resolution passes. They had already failed to carry out section 10. The court had said they have grace to do this up to Nov. 1, 1899. Now, if the company can carry out section 10, they can carry out section 13. If they provide power, as stated in the contract, for one day only, they can say they have complied with the agreement. Therefore, he wishes, in the terms of the resolution, to make it clear that they must comply with all the provisions of the agreement. If the monopoly goes, the agreement goes. It stands to reason if the monopoly terminates the company will not continue to pay to the Government $25,000 a year. If the monopoly terminates, there is nothing to prevent the Government making another agreement the next day without any monopoly clause. The Government would in such case be free to deal with the Canadian Niagara Power Company, or any other company. What we are seeking to do to-day is to clear the decks at Niagara Falls.

The resolutions carried on division, the yeas and nays not being asked.

ASSEMBLY NOTES.

The Ontario Lord's Day Alliance has, through Mr. Thomas Crawford (West Toronto), presented a petition against the running of Sunday street cars in Ottawa.

Mr. Richardson, on behalf of East Toronto corporation, has put in a petition that county councils be refused the control of street railways within their limits.

A very extensively signed petition was presented by Mr. German yesterday praying that the Canadian Power Company be given the right to use the water of Niagara Falls.

Hon. John Dryden has been elected chairman of the railway committee.

The notice bill had a large addition to it yesterday, among others one by the Attorney-General of a bill to improve the law relating to the fisheries of this province.

A delegation of between 300 and 400 people from the vicinity of Niagara Falls yesterday wore badges, bearing the inscription, "Canada no place for monopolies." They had come in by special train to show the Government how they felt regarding the Canadian Niagara Power Company monopoly.

The Government has received the report of the University of Toronto. The institution is hardly a financial success, there being a deficit of $6,088, which does not include a sale of land amounting to $748. Education for the year cost $192,290, and fees brought in $41,942. Thus the Crown provided about 75 per cent. of the cost of education, which it is necessary to supplement by from 6 to 7 more. The fees have reached the limit, an advance having been made from $80 to $86, but as less students attended the income was consequently not raised thereby. General expenditure was $119,067. From residence the institution received $157 above the expenditure, receipts being $4,090, and expenditure $3,863.

HOW YOU CAN BANISH BILIOUSNESS.

A Sure, Simple and Speedy Method of Cure.

Simply Take Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets —They will do the Rest—They Tone and Regulate the Liver—Perfect in Their Action.

Biliousness destroys the comfort of life. No bilious man or woman can be thoroughly, perfectly, comfortably or happy.

When a man is bilious he knows it—and his friends knows it too. There is no necessity to describe the causes, symptoms and miseries of the complaint.

What the patient wants to know is what will cure him. And that is just what he will find if he will read this very short article.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are just what he needs. They act promptly on the Liver, regulate its action, prevent it from working too hard, and so prevent the formation of too much bile.

If the formation of bile be kept down to just what is needed, there is an end to Biliousness.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets keep the quantity of bile, at just the proper point. Therefore Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets put an end to Biliousness.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are the only remedy made that have this effect on the Liver. They tone it to perfect health and strength. They prevent the formation of surplus bile, and thus make it impossible for this liquid to flow into the blood, and paint it. Thus the health is preserved, and Biliousness becomes a thing impossible.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets give perfect satisfaction. One trial proves this.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists at fifty cents a box, six boxes $2 50; or will be sent, on receipt of price, by The Dodd's Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto.

CREMATORY CLOSET.

I have been appointed Sole Agent for the Odorless Crematory Closet manufactured by the Crematory Closet and General Heating Co., of Hamilton.

This Closet has found a place in many of the best homes in the province, and all who have used it cannot speak too highly of its merits. Medical men speak of it from a sanitary point of view, claiming that, if health is any consideration, no home should be without one. Here are some of the

TESTIMONIALS.

Alliston, March 1st, 1899.

I have had one of your "Crematory Closets in use now for several weeks and am glad to be able to say that I have found it entirely satisfactory in every respect. I have not been able to detect the slightest odor from it at any time and would not be without it. I am sure it must prove a great convenience to people in the country and in towns where water is not obtainable. Yours respectfully,

JAMES CONWAY.

Sheddon, February 20th, 1899.

I have used it for sometime and find it perfectly odorless. It is a long left want and I believe it will become very popular especially in rural districts, towns and villages where wells are so frequently contaminated by the ordinary closets. I am, yours, etc.

W. H. MORRISON

Medical Superintendent's Office, Sept. 20th, 1897 Asylum for the Insane, Hamilton.

Gentlemen: I had the opportunity of witnessing yesterday the operation of your Odorless Crematory Closet. It had a large accumulation of fecal matter in the pan when the fire was started, and inside of 20 minutes it was all reduced to ashes. There was no odor before or during the operation of consuming the fecal matter, as the ventilation by the flue seemed to carry off all odor at once, before it has a chance to vitiate the surrounding atmosphere.

Yours truly. JAMES RUSSELL, M.D.

Elmbrook, Sept. 20th, 1897.

Dear Sirs—Having been present at a private test of your new patent closet yesterday afternoon, I beg to express my satisfaction with it in every way. Neither before, during or after the burning out of its contents did I detect the slightest unpleasant odor. I am satisfied it will be a boon to thousands in rural towns, villages and country homes. Yours truly,

M. J. MULLOOK.

VALUABLE

Residential Properties FOR SALE

In Peterborough.

Having decided to remove to Manitoba in the spring, I have decided to sell the following valuable properties at prices that should secure ready purchasers:

Parcel No. 1. A Brick Terrace of four houses, adjoining the corner of Sherbrooke and Park streets, two storys, well built with good stone cellars full size of buildings. Each residence contains six rooms with summer kitchen. This property has always been continuously rented and pays an excellent rate of interest on the investment, and it is practically a new property, being only erected a few years, and is in good condition.

Parcel No. 2. Brick residence corner of Reid and Simcoe. Containing ten rooms. House in good condition with all modern improvements, bath, closets, heated with furnace and lighted with electricity.

Parcel No. 3. Brick dwelling corner Aberdeen and Benson streets, facing Dixon Park, containing seven rooms with summer kitchen. This property was erected last season for myself and occupied by myself. Has hard and soft water in kitchen and is a very comfortable residence. This lot is 108 feet square.

Parcel No. 4. Brick residence, corner Wolseley and Benson streets. Two storeys, seven rooms with kitchen, pleasantly situated adjoining Dixon Park. Hard and soft water in kitchen. This lot is also 108 feet square and is a similar building to parcel No. 3.

Parties desiring a good paying investment or home will find any of these desirable purchases. Particulars and terms, which are reasonable, made known on application to the undersigned.

IN FIVE ASPECTS.

"Michael Angelo" the Subject of a Lecture Delivered by Prof. Fraser, of Trinity University.

A cultured audience filled the Y.M.C.A. Hall last evening and was greatly pleased and edified by the comprehensive address on "Michael Angelo," delivered by Prof. Fraser, of Trinity University. The interest in the lecture was further increased through the fact that Mr. R. M. Roy gave a number of limelight views of many of the greatest works of the noted artist and sculptor.

Michael Angelo was born March, 2nd, 1475, in that most beautiful section of country lying east of Florence, near the storied ridges of the Appenines. The boy came of noble parents, who were violently opposed to young Angelo's taste for dabbling in colours. Any rude piece of chalk or charcoal would be eagerly seized by the young lad and converted to the purpose of portraying mind pictures, which even then gave promise of wonderful genius. School held no attraction for the boy and studies were neglected whilst he consulted with artists. Being finally bound as an apprentice to an artist, his genius was turned in the right direction and developed so rapidly as to soon place him in advance of his master to such an extent that the apprenticeship was broken.

Shortly afterwards Angelo came in contact with Lorenzo, the sculptor, and under that great master his talents were developed along the line of sculpture and he speedily rose to eminence. By the time he had reached his 25th year he was in Rome. Wealth and riches poured in upon him and he in turn lavished his bounty on his parents. In 1501 he returned to Florence, which he had adopted as his home city. His fame had preceded him and he received a commission to execute a statute. His subject was "David in the act of meeting Goliath, the Philistine." Shortly afterwards he was recalled to Rome by the Pope in connection with the erection of a massive tomb, but after quarrelling with his distinguished patron he left the work unfinished and returned to Florence. When on the point of embarking for Turkey a reconciliation of the quarrel was effected and he again undertook the completion of the tomb.

It was just at this juncture that Angelo returned to his first love and again took up the brush, evoking that great series of paintings known as the Story of the Creation.

Following on the sack of Rome in 1520, the fortifications of Florence were constructed by plans drawn up by Angelo, who now took up architecture with great success. The great picture known as "The Last Judgment", was painted on the commission of Pope Pius III. In 1546 he began work on the dome of St. Peter.

As a poet Angelo is not so well known, though his sonnets are most interesting.

At the close of the lecture Prof. Fraser was tendered a vote of thanks on motion of Rev. H. Symonds and Mr. E. B. Edwards.

Bible Society.

The annual meeting of the Bible Society will be held this year, in the George street Methodist church, on Wednesday evening next. Rev. A. V. Knowles, of Galt, formerly of Ottawa, will deliver an address. Mr. Knowles was at one time a student here with Rev. Dr. Torrance.

PLEASE, DON'T.

We have received many complaints, both verbal and written, respecting the annoyance suffered at public lectures and at concerts by the thoughtlessness or indifference to the feelings and enjoyment of others, shown by persons who follow the impolite—to speak mildly—practice of—as a lady in a letter expressed it this morning—"giggling, criticising the lecturer, and finally, after elaborate preparation, leaving the hall in a body." It goes without saying that those who go to a concert or a lecture to enjoy it are necessarily seriously annoyed and inconvenienced by the practice mentioned. At a recent musical entertainment a little coterie was noticed; the members of it were modest, or had some subject of conversation they wished to keep secret, for in the pauses between the numbers they were as quiet as if they had made up their minds to behave like civilized beings, but the moment the music began their disturbing and distracting conversation or, rather, chatter, also began. Now such conduct is, in a social sense, rude and boorish, in a moral sense unchristian—a distinct breach of the canons of good breeding and of the golden rule. A person who pays a certain price for a specified enjoyment, has reason to complain if the manager, or managers, of an entertainment permit the contract to be broken by allowing conduct on the part of any of the audience that results in depriving any person of the full enjoyment of what has been paid for. Giggiers and gossipers at public entertainments will win wide gratitude if they would in future exploit their specialty at home, or under conditions that do not destroy the enjoyment and rasp the nerves of those who can appreciate good music or good oratory. Public entertainments are not proper places for the simple display of good clothes or bad breeding.

SATURDAY, MARCH 4, 1899.

A NORTH WARD MIX UP.

Two Neighbours Quarrel over a Meddlesome Boy.

There were "wigs on the green' in the north ward last evening, and the trouble was all caused by an incorrigible youth, who has been in the habit of playing pranks on a lady resident in the vicinity of his home.

Patience ceased to be a virtue, and the woman reported the boy to his mother, who became quite indignant, and declared her boy to be a very paragon of innocence. She further assured the complainant that it would keep her hustling to look after her own boy.

One word brought on another, and finally the boy's mother reached for the nearest thing she could lay her hand on, which unfortunately proved to be a pitcher of sour milk. She emptied the contents over woman No. 1, who made her exit from the house as if she had been shot from a dynamite gun. When she reached her home she presented a sort of a milky way appearance, and from all accounts the trouble is far from being settled.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady of this country. "Disease fastened his clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Sold by all Druggists at 50 cents and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

OBITUARY.

John Bateson, of Millbrook.

When we made reference to the severe illness of Mr. John Bateson last week we had little thought that death would so soon claim him as a victim, but so deeply had the disease taken hold of his constitution that Saturday morning ushered him into the world beyond. Deceased was perhaps best known and will be longest in memory on account of his deep interest and active service in connection with the volunteer corps, with which he had been connected for years. He was one of the most trusted men of the Battalion during their service in the Northwest Rebellion, and his connection with the Batoche Battle and the church bell incident were conspicuous and to his credit. His comrades in arms did him the honour of a military funeral and the town and country turned out from far and near in large numbers to sympathise and join in laying him in his last resting place. Rev. Dr. Cade took charge of the funeral ceremonies. Capt. Winslow, senior in command, was in charge, and a firing party under the command of Lieut. W. D Leach, with the pall bearers in charge of Sergt. McCarry of Peterborough, and the Millbrook band, the procession slowly marched to Gardiner's cemetery to the strains of martial music, where the last tribute was paid to the dead. A soldier's volley was fired over the grave and all was over till the great roll call.—Reporter.

OUR COLUMN OF SPORTS.

SOME TIMELY REMARKS ON SEASONABLE GAMES.

What is Going on in Local and Outside Hockey Arenas—Notes From the Curling Ice.

HOCKEY.

A picked team went to Belleville yesterday and was defeated by the score of five goals to three. Although the Peterboroughs were not able to win the game, yet those who participated in the trip returned with nothing but the most pleasant thoughts of Belleville and Belleville's hockey team. The game was clean and devoid of the least semblance of roughness. It was won by the best team, every member of which can play hockey from the drop of the flag. In the first half the score was 3—2 in Belleville's favour, and in the last half the home team scored two more to Peterborough's one.

From start to finish the game was fast and the crowd went wild with excitement as the puck was swept up and down the ice by rush and counter-rush. The ice was covered with slush and water, and the play was not as fast as it would have been in colder weather but that the audience was satisfied was amply evinced by the liberal applause display d, whenever occasion warranted it. The teams paraded in the following order :—

Belleville.		Peterborough.
Nolan	goal	E Wasson
Hulme	point	H Reynolds
Wallace	cover point	A A Hollingshead
Laing	forwards	H Armstrong
Mallory		H King
McGuire		W Crossley
Strader		R Glover
F F Brentnell	umpires	Alf Terrill

Time-keeper—Geo Boucher.

Dr. Perry Goldsmith, acted as referee and proved to be a most satisfactory official in every respect.

The Peterborough boys never made a trip to any town where they received the courteous attention bestowed upon them in Belleville and the visit to the Bay City will not soon be forgotten. They were met at the train by the whole team and taken up to the palatial Hotel Quinte in a big carryall. A number of citizens were around to show the boys any of those little attentions, which whilst not amounting to much in themselves, yet contribute so much to make up the tout ensemble of a royal welcome. After the game the Peterboroughs were invited to partake of an oyster supper and the evening was brought to a most pleasant conclusion. Peterborough money was no good in Belleville. The visitors couldn't spend a cent on anything, and if they had wanted the town it could have been their's for the asking. At no place have the Peterboroughs received such a reception this year, and Belleville may well be proud of the boys who have the management of the hockey team.

It is hoped that the temperature will drop sufficiently to enable the Peterboroughs to invite the Belleville boys up for a return game, when they will have an opportunity of showing those Quinte lads that a kindness extended to Peterborough never goes unrequited.

The great Granite and Thistle hockey match takes place at the rink at nine o'clock to-night. The opposing teams will be composed as follows :

Granites.		Thistles.
Geo Giroux	goal	Gus Hay
H H Keaner	point	Jim Conn
A J McClelland	cover point	Alf Terrill
Geo Boucher	forwards	Tom Ferguson
R Mylie Hamilton		Dr Neil
W S Hamilton		W Thompson
A Skill		Fred Dixon

It would be a graceful act if the rink management would provide some refreshment for the members of the curling teams to-night. The curlers pay in $400 a year to the rink, and fully as much is turned in each season by the Hockey club. A compliment could be paid to both games by a little courtesy of the above-mentioned nature.

CURLIANA.

Belleville won out yesterday in the southern group of the Midland Colts' Curling Association, and will play the winners of the Peterborough-Lindsay draw for the championship this year.

In the afternoon Kingston won from Campbellford by six shots, and the rinks from the Limestone City were in turn defeated by Belleville at night, the latter club having drawn the bye in the group.

The ice was in very bad condition, water lying on it to the depth of fully half an inch in places and making it difficult to get the stones "up." The scores were as follows :—

Campbellford.		Kingston.
W Haines,		L Henderson,
G Armstrong,		W A VanTassel,

Another Band Concert.

By the kind permission of Lieut.-Col. Bell and officers, the band of the 57th Batt. under the direction of Mr. Gliddon, will play in the market hall on Friday evening, March 10th, from 8 to 10 o'clock. Programme later.

Marks Bros'. Co.

If anything was wanting to manifest the popularity of the Marks Bros'. Company it was amply furnished in the packed house, despite the rain, which witnessed the dramatized version of Mrs. Woods' touching and pathetic story, "East Lynne," at the Opera House last evening. May A. Bell as Lady Isabel and Madame Vine, the mother and nurse, displayed rare emotional powers. The audience cheered lustily when Mr. Wilson announced that the company would continue their engagement next week. To-night, "A Farmer's Daughter." Next Monday, "The Two Orphans."

WEDDING BELLS.

Nuptials of Miss Annie Bowen, and Dr. Patterson of Orono.

A fashionable wedding took place at Orono on Wednesday evening, when Miss Annie Bowen daughter of the late Mr. Samuel Bowen, was married to Dr. G. R. Patterson of Port Hope. The bridegroom was accompanied by his brother, Dr. W. Patterson of Paris. The bride, who looked charming in her lovely trained gown and veil, was given away by her brother, Mr. G. Bowen.

Rev. W. H. Adams performed the ceremony and the bridal party left the church to the strains of a wedding march rendered by Mr. O. A. Gamsby.

The reception was held at the residence of the bride's brother-in-law, Mr. D. Noble, where a large number of guests assembled and whence the happy pair subsequently drove to their new home, amid a shower of rice and old shoes.

Among the many handsome presents were a Bible and a hymn book, which were presented to Mrs. Patterson by the trustees of the church, in consequence of hers being the first marriage solemnized in that edifice.

MME. GILBERT'S CASE.

Dodd's Kidney Pills Were Her Only Hope.

They Cured Her After Three Years of Very Severe Suffering—Made Her Strong and Well She Used Only Three Boxes.

MONTREAL, Mar. 3.—That Dodd's Kidney Pills are rapidly winning a place as the Ladies' favorite medicine, is strikingly shown, by the many cordial testimonials sent to the Dodds Medicine Co., by ladies who have been cured by them.

One of the latest to make her experience public, Mdme, Alida Gilbert, the well-known and popular modiste, 335 Cadieux Street.'

Mdme. Gilbert writes as follows :—"I have been greatly troubled with Female Weakness for the past three years, and it seemed as if I had no hope of ever getting over the trouble. However, I was fortunate enough to hear of Dodd's Kidney Pills. I was told by a friend who had used them, that they would cure me, and in hope that they would, I purchased a box of them.

"A few days use convinced me that I had found just what I needed. I kept on using them till I had taken three boxes. I then stopped taking them, being entirely cured—strong and well.

"You may publish this, if you so desire."

Other ladies who feel the need of a medicine that will clear out all impurities from the blood, set the Kidneys working properly and bring health and strength in place of sickness and weakness, will find in Dodd's Kidney Pills, just what they need.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists at fifty cents a box, six boxes $2.50, or sent, on receipt of price, by the Dodds Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto.

SATURDAY'S MARKET.

A Fair Turn-out of Farmers—Not Much Changes in Prices.

The market this morning was a fair one, notwithstanding the condition of the roads in the country.

There is very little difference in the price of grain. Fall and spring wheat are selling at 70c, rye 55 to 56c, buckwheat 50c, peas 65 to 70c.

Upstairs butter is selling from 16 to 18c, eggs 16 to 17c, chickens 45 to 60c, geese 60 to 70c, turkeys 75 to $1.25.

On the square beef is selling for $4.50 to $6 00, lamb 6 to 7c: potatoes 70 to 75c, per bag, apples $1 00 to $1 50 per bag, dressed hogs $5.00 to $5.25, pork $6 to 7c, hay $5 00 to $6.00.

ASTHMA CAN BE CURED

And is Being Permanently Cured Daily by Clarke's Kola Compound —Here is What a Hamilton Lady Says :

Mrs. Gilbert, 105 Rebecca street, Hamilton, writes : "I suffered from a bad form of asthma for over nine years, and, notwithstanding all the doctors could do for me, got worse and worse, so that my neighbors looked for my death at any time. I spent money lavishly in the efforts to get relief, but all to no purpose. For six weeks at a time I could not get up or down stairs, and was in a miserable condition. My daughter, who clerks in a drug store, had heard a good deal of Clarke's Kola Compound, and urged me to try it as a last resort. I paid $5 for a bottle, but that is nothing, for it is worth more than that for every teaspoonful. Two doses gave me splendid relief, and after using but one bottle, I am a marvel to all who know me. I am doing my own work, can get around as well as ever, and feel like a new creature. Clarke's Kola Compound has been a Godsend to me, and I look upon it as a marvelous remedy. You may use this testimony as you see fit, and I shall be glad to give fuller particulars to any one inquiring. I gratefully endorse Clarke's Kola Compound."

Warde & Hall

On the First Day of March, instant, MR. JOHN G. HALL, formerly of Peterborough, and more recently of Chicago, acquired a Partnership interest in the firm of Messrs. Warde & Co., Stove and Hardware Merchants, 392 George Street ; and on the same date the firm name was changed to WARDE & HALL.

The new partner enters the firm with a valuable experience of over fifteen years—having held positions for about half that period in Peterborough, the other half being connected with the largest wholesale hardware houses of Chicago.

Mr. Hall will be glad to meet all his old friends and customers in his new position ; and the firm respectfully solicit a continuance of the liberal patronage hitherto enjoyed by Messrs. Warde & Co.

IF THE LADIES WAIT
THEY'LL MAKE MONEY!

OUR WHITEWEAR and SHIRT WAIST OPENING will take place in a few days. You will find it economy to wait for it, when we will make a superior display in Cottons, Cambric and Nainsook Muslins.

Our stock of WHITEWEAR this season very forcibly illustrate what can be accomplished in manufacture by being PARTICULAR. Every garment is double-stitched with felled seams, while such extras as pearl buttons and extra fullness contribute to all-round satisfaction.

Blouses—We again remind the Ladies that our Blouses are all manufactured on our own premises, and consequently, while the styles and material are up-to-date, the prices will be from 20 to 25 per cent. less than other Blouses sold in town.

PEOPLE WHO GAMBLE.

Chinese and Italians Especially Addicted to Games of Chance.

Of all the nations of the earth who gamble—and they all do it more or less—the Chinese come in an easy first. Superstition and the gambling mania go in double harness, and while the mandarins fly kites to decide what should be done about Wei-Hai-Wei and Talien-Wan the humbler Celestials gamble for dear life to pass the time away. "The Chinese play night and day," says a traveler, "till they have lost all they are worth, and then they usually go and hang themselves," from which it would appear that the yellow danger is not so formidable after all.

The Chinese laborers in the United States squander their earnings in a game called "white pigeon's ticket." White, by the way, is the unlucky color for the gamer and the lucky one for the keeper of the gaming house. These gentry keep orange peel in a box, believing that it will bring them luck.

The Italians are no less superstitious, and they gamble persistently, the poor people especially, in the government lotteries. Everything has a number; a cat, a dog, a gondola, and the "Libro dei Sogno"—the lotto player's oracle—will tell you what the number is, and the rules for interpreting the appearances in dreams. Visitors to Venice, which has always been a stronghold of gambling, may have seen the declaration of the winning figures from the Campanile of St. Mark's—the silent, eager crowd gathered in the square and the group of officials gathered round the boy with the bandaged eyes who draws the numbers from the cage.

There is a story told in Venice of a madman who hailed a gondolier from the window of the madhouse on the island to tell him the numbers he had dreamed. The man put his money on them and won, and from that day to this the gondoliers go near the window as they pass in the hope that the madman will call again. The story is true.—London Chronicle.

Grand Trunk Engineer Swears by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Mr. Geo. Cummings, for over twenty years engineer on Grand Trunk running between Toronto and Allandale, says:—"My constant duty with my work gave me excessive pains in my back, rocking my kidneys. I recommend them to all my friends.

BARON HERSCHELL'S LOSS.

Lord Salisbury Says It Is Almost Irreparable—Shock to the Family.

London, March 3.—In the House of Lords yesterday the Premier, Lord Salisbury, referring to the death of Baron Herschell, the representative of Great Britain on the joint American-British-Canadian commission, Washington, said it was an almost irreparable loss. He added: "His great popularity with our kindred race on the other side of the Atlantic had pointed him out for the position he lately occupied, and in which he showed great self-sacrifice and deep interest, and the work of which he was carrying to a successful conclusion."

The Earl of Kimberley, the Liberal leader in the House of Lords, paid a similar tribute to the memory of the deceased statesman.

Lady Herschell Shocked.

Baron Herschell cabled last week to Lady Herschell, who had been staying with other members of the family at Cannes, to join him in Washington. That the call was not urgent is shown by the fact that Lady Herschell expected to arrive in London next Monday, to sail the following Wednesday for New York, in order to accompany her husband back to England as soon as he was able to move. The blow has been a terrific one to her and the whole family. It is now understood that the eldest son will proceed to Washington and bring home his father's remains.

Edward Blake, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman and others pay tributes to the dead jurist. Baron Herschell is succeeded by his son, just 21 years of age, and leaves a widow much younger than himself, and two daughters. He had a large and lucrative practice and had amassed a handsome fortune. His pension, $30,000 a year, as Lord Chancellor, dies with him.

MARKET REPORTS.

Wheat Futures Still Sag in Liverpool and Chicago—Prices Fluctuate Heavily —The Latest Quotations.

Liverpool, March 3.—Wheat futures were easier yesterday, closing 5-8d to 7-8d per cental below Wednesday's final quotations.

Chicago, March 3.—The weak trans-Atlantic advices depressed the Chicago market yesterday, and this, combined with trading on the short side, sent prices of futures down a full cent. There was a partial recovery later, on foreign buying, but the close was 5-8c below Wednesday's last quotations.

DYED DIAMONDS.

Yellow Stones Can Be Made to Look Like Gems of the First Water.

"There are tricks in every trade" has grown to be an adage, and this proverb holds especially good with regard to the jewelry trade, which for "ways that are dark and tricks that are vain" fairly takes the palm for roguery.

Although a great deal of capital, time and labor have been devoted to counterfeiting the diamond, very little success has been obtained from a fraudulent point of view, as the diamond possesses extraordinary qualities of hardness and brilliancy, with which no imitation, up to now, can attempt to vie. "Paste" of all kinds can be tested by means of a sharp steel file, which scratches its surface.

A method of successful imposition with diamonds has, however, been discovered, and the originator of this swindle actually defrauded the pawnbrokers of London alone in one year of upward of $500,000.

The general public, as well as jewelers, are aware that diamonds of a yellowish tinge, or, as they are called in the trade, "straws," are worth very little. Large stones of this color, even when weighing from 10 to 100 carats, are quite common and will only fetch in the market from $5 to $20 per carat, the value, of course, increasing in ratio with weight. Diamonds of the same weight, if of the first water, or perfectly colorless, would be worth from five to ten times as much.

The methods of the individual referred to were as follows: He purchased a quantity of "yellow" stones, and then by a simple yet ingenious process succeeded in imparting to them an evanescent purity of color. This was done by procuring two ordinary glasses, a kettle of boiling water and a threepenny packet of mauve dye.

The "yellow" diamond, which was perhaps set in a gold ring or pin, was merely dipped in the glass containing the dye, and then in clean boiling water half a dozen times, and allowed to dry, when it presented all the appearance, even to the eye of an expert, of a magnificent stone of the first water.

The next move was to place the ring on the finger, and the well dressed diamond dyer would sally forth, enter a pawnbroker's and pledge the ring for at least three times its worth. Within 12 hours, however, the effects of the dye would have disappeared, and the pawnbroker could only wonder what on earth was wrong with his eyes when he advanced so much money on such a yellow stone.

Fortunately, owing to the magnitude of this individual's operations, the fraud was discovered, and now pawnbrokers, if they are suspicious of a diamond's color, immerse it in nitric acid, which destroys any dye that may be present without in any way injuring the stone.—London Mail.

What 3 Doctors Didn't Do.

We believe the physicians of Canada to be the best in the world.

Sometimes though even they, with all their skill and knowledge, fail to cure diseases that Burdock Blood Bitters can completely and permanently eradicate from the system. We have given instances where B. B. B. cured cancers, malignant scrofulous sores and ulcers, and deep seated abscesses, after doctors failed to do good.

Now we give a case of dyspepsia, that most common and distressing disease of civilized humanity, and show how B. B. B. cured it permanently after three doctors couldn't give relief.

The case of M. Napier Garant, merchant, Chaplin River, Bonaventure Co., Que., is the one referred to, and this is what he writes:

"After being treated by three doctors for a severe case of dyspepsia and receiving no benefit, I decided to try Burdock Blood Bitters. By the time I had taken two bottles of B. B. B. I was completely cured and have had no return of the trouble since.

"At the time I had dyspepsia I was so weak and thin I could hardly walk. Today my weight is 161 lbs., and I am well and strong, and owe it all to B. B. B."

Men put in the best years of their lives in the pursuit of riches. One class works with the head, and the other with the muscles. Each cares more for dollars than for health. The brain is taxed to the utmost in evolving and exciting schemes, and the body is worn out with constant, unremitting toil. Just about the time a man stops to take account of things, he finds the dollars have come, but health has departed. Then he reverses matters completely. He devotes the rest of his life to spending his dollars to regain his health.

What a man with worn-out body and tired brain needs most of all is a good stomach. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the proper remedy to set the stomach right. This medicine will make his appetite good, make his weak stomach strong and help it to digest the food he puts into it. Good digestion makes pure blood, and pure blood vitilizes the whole system. This great remedy also cures those who have sore throat, a persistent cough, weak and bleeding lungs and bronchitis, all of which often arise from weak stomach and consequent indigestion. It is a cleansing, strengthening, purifying, invigorating alterative tonic. It puts life into the blood and nerves, into the brain and body. It cures every form of indigestion, makes the sleep sound, and nerves steady. There is nothing so good, and you should refuse all substitutes offered by dealers.

"I had catarrh for four years and also liver and kidney trouble," writes John A. Calloway, Esq., of No. 218 25th Street, Columbus, Ga., "when it would commence troubling me, I would have a slight aching a little below the chest. In 1894 I broke out in lumps all over and when these left the skin peeled off. I took six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, two bottles of his 'Pleasant Pellets,' and I believe I am sound and well. I have a good appetite; before I commenced treatment I had no appetite at all."

Toombs' Middle Name.

Few Georgians know that Toombs had two Christian names. History speaks of him as "Robert" Toombs. He was prouder than a Montague, haughtier than a Capulet, and in his last years the person who mentioned his middle name was in danger of decapitation. This dropped name was "Alston."

Toombs was a marvel on the hustings and in his thirtieth year arrived at the zenith of political debate still wearing his full name—Robert Alston Toombs. The initials, you will see, spell rat. One day a rival candidate for the state senate of the name of Charles A. Thornton replied to Toombs on the stump, and as he flayed the patrician alive his followers and henchmen yelled: "That's right. Go at him again. Our Cat has got that Rat. That Rat can't get away from our Cat. Sick him, Cat. Go it, Rat." Thornton's initials spelled cat. The incident so displeased Toombs that he immediately dropped his middle name and was known henceforth as plain "Bob."—New York Press.

UP IN WINDSOR.

Mr. Cole Discovers the Power of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Windsor Feb. 20.—The following statement, which Mr. F. H. Cole of this place requests us to publish, is worthy of attention from every victim of Rheumatism in Canada.

Mr. Cole's experiment fully warrants him in making this statement.

"Words cannot describe how I suffered from Rheumatism and Kidney Complaint. I tried every cure that was recommended, but got no benefit until I began using Dodd's Kidney Pills."

"Thank God I did use Dodd's Kidney Pills, for they cured me—made me sound and well, in every joint and limb."

Those who suffer the agonies of Rheumatism or Lumbago need do so no longer. Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure them.

The Women of Belgium.

No one can travel in Belgium without being struck by the extraordinary activity and prominence of the women. Over the doors of shops of all descriptions the name of the owner or owners is frequently followed by "Soeurs" or "Veuve." You find them proprietors of hotels and restaurants. They are often custodians of the churches. They are employed to tow the boats along the canal banks. They cut up the meat in the butchers' shops, and they are even to be noticed shoeing horses at the forge

The Appetite of a Goat

Is envied by all poor dyspeptics whose Stomach and Liver are out of order. All such should know that Dr. King's New Life Pills, the wonderful Stomach and Liver Remedy, gives a splendid appetite, sound digestion and a regular bodily habit that insures perfect health and great energy. Only 25 cents at any Drug Store.

Twice Told Tales.

"A well known American humorist," says the Yonkers Statesman, "made a speech at a dinner in London once upon a time. It was as full of jokes as a nut is full of meat. The following day a friend of the humorist, an American, met on the street an English acquaintance who had attended the dinner.

"'So you heard my friend speak last night?' said the American.

"'That I did,' replied the Englishman.

"'And did you see any of the jokes he got off?'

"'Indeed, yes; I saw nearly all of them about a year ago in Punch.'"

First Symptoms of Heart Disease often appear at the head and feet—parts farthest from the heart.

The heart pumps less strongly—possibly pressed upon by an enlarged stomach—then sluggish blood swells the veins, inflames the feet, liver, kidneys or other parts where there are many veins. Various diseases so arise.

The reasonable cure is provided in Howard's Heart Relief. It removes the cause. It never fails to help—will cure where cure is possible. So says Mrs. Henry Wolfe, Hartford, Ont.; so say a multitude from Vancouver to Halifax who have been cured in the last three months.

FREAKS OF MEMORY.

QUEER PRANKS FOR WHICH THERE IS NO ACCOUNTING.

Some Instances of the Singular Effects Produced Upon the Mind by Gazing Steadily at a Crystal—Forgotten Incidents Recalled.

The queer freaks of memory are a constant puzzle to those who study psychical phenomena. Who has not been driven to the verge of distraction by the total inability to recall a name when an effort was made to do so and when the occasion for such remembrance was past had the missing name flash into the mind apparently of its own volition?

Great minds have wrestled to find an explanation for the pranks that memory plays and have had to give up the effort. In the course of a systematic attempt to arrive at some understanding with regard to the wonders of memory a very valuable and unique body of testimony has been obtained. The following questions have been put to 200 American university students and professional persons, 151 being men and 49 being women. The answers are here given with the questions:

Question 1.—When you cannot recall a name you want, does it seem to come back spontaneously without being suggested by any perceived association of ideas? To this 11 per cent answered "No" and 81 per cent "Yes."

Question 2.—Does such recovery ever come during sleep? To this 17 per cent answered "No" and 28 per cent "Yes."

Some examples given:

1. This morning I tried to recall the name of a character I had read of the night before in one of Scott's novels and failed. I taught a class, and walking home in the afternoon, all the names recurred to me without effort.

2. I tried to recall the name of a book. Gave it up. Half an hour later, while talking of something else, blurted it out without conscious volition.

Question 3.—On seeing a sight or hearing a sound for the first time, have you ever felt that you had seen (or heard) the same before? Fifty-nine per cent answered "Yes."

The action of unconscious memory during sleep is illustrated by further queries:

Question 4.—Do you dream? Ninety-four per cent answered "Yes."

Question 5.—Can you wake at a given hour determined before going to sleep without waking up many times before? Fifty-nine per cent answered "Yes." Thirty-one per cent answered "No."

Question 6.—If you can, how about failure? Sixty-nine per cent seldom failed; 25 per cent often.

Question 7.—Do you come direct from oblivion into consciousness? Sixty-four per cent answered "Yes" and 16 per cent "Gradually."

Examples:

1. I had to give medicine every two hours exactly to my wife. I am a very sound sleeper, but for six weeks I woke up every two hours and never missed giving the medicine.

2. I am always awake five minutes before the hour I set the alarm.

3. I had had little sleep for ten days and went to bed at 9, asking to be called at midnight. I fell asleep at once. I rose and dressed as the clock struck 12, and could not believe I had not been called.

A strange phenomenon has come to light in the course of the inquiry into the mystery of memory. It has been discovered that by gazing steadily at a crystal consciousness is partly lost. Into the void thus produced those who have practiced crystal gazing find that there enter unbidden forgotten incidents and lost memories. To give a few instances: A lady in crystal gazing saw a bit of dark wall covered with white flowers. She was conscious she must have seen it somewhere, but had no recollection where. She walked over the ground she had just traversed and found the wall, which she had passed unnoticed.

She took out her bankbook another day. Shortly afterward she was gazing at the crystal and saw nothing but the number one. She thought it was some back number, but, taking up the bankbook, found to her surprise it was the number of the account.

At another time she destroyed a letter without noting the address. She could only remember the town. After gazing at the crystal some time she saw "331 Jefferson avenue." She addressed the letter there, adding the town, and found it was right.

A lady sat in a room to write where she had sat eight years before. She felt her feet moving restlessly under the table and then remembered that eight years before she always had a footstool. It was this her feet were seeking.

Psychical research brings to light many cases of similar strange tricks of memory. It is easy to find instances that serve to deepen the mystery. It is not so easy to give an explanation. The cleverest men who have attempted to do so have had to admit defeat.—Washington Post.

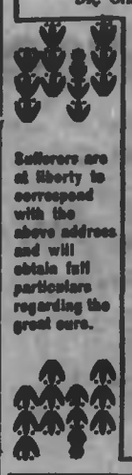
WRITES A LETTER ON DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.



Sufferers are at liberty to correspond with the above address and will obtain full particulars regarding the great cure.

He says: My wife was most terribly afflicted with protruding piles, and contemplated a surgical operation. A friend of ours recommended the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and less than one box effected a complete cure. We were so pleased with the ointment that I tried it myself, as I have been troubled with an unsightly skin affliction which covered the lower part of my face.

For 25 years I suffered untold agony, and was treated by the best medical skill in the United States. I consider Dr. Chase's Ointment worth its weight in gold for piles and skin disease.

HABITS OF THE HORSE.

Fear of Wolves, Speed of Colts and Habit of Shying.

Another animal which, when in a state of nature, lives in droves is the horse. It is almost as defenseless as the sheep, and when a herd of wild horses is attacked by wolves there is no escape but in flight. In its wild state the horse's natural habitat is on the open plains, not in mountainous regions, but on the steppes of Asia, and when attacked by wolves its only safety lies in its superior speed. If the young foal were not as swift as its parents, it would fall an easy prey to the pursuer, and so, within a few generations, the wild horse might be utterly destroyed by its enemies. The curious thing is that the foal is quite as swift as its parents. When one looks at it, even in its domesticated condition, it seems to be all legs, and one is surprised to see how easily the slight body is borne along on those long legs beside the mother, even when she is running at her swiftest rate. In that fact lies the safety of the wild horse from destruction, and the thousands of generations in which that useful animal has been domesticated have brought no change in the peculiar conformation of the foal's limbs, though it is no longer needed for its original purpose.

Another curious thing is that one of the faults of the horse of which we are apt to complain—we mean the habit of shying—is a survival of an old habit which was useful and necessary when its ancestors were still roaming wild upon the plains. Then every horse was constantly on the outlook for an enemy, and it did not look only with one eye. It habitually kept turning its ear in all directions, so as to catch the slightest sound which should indicate the presence of danger. Not only when a wolf was seen did the herd take flight. Any sound, as of the wolf breaking through the long grass, caused an instantaneous stampede, and something of that habit still survives. The horse seldom fears the objects which it sees unless they appear suddenly, but the sudden appearance of some light thing driven by the wind or some slight sound that perhaps may not be heard by his master may cause an instant and involuntary shy, such as the poor brute would instinctively make if he were still wild upon the plains. How unjust it is and how utterly stupid to justify his terror by whipping him for such a fault! To do so is to make him only so much the readier to shy again, remembering—and he is sure to remember—that, even if there has been no reason for his involuntary shying, there is something to dread immediately afterward. The only sensible way to deal with this remnant of wildness in the domesticated horse is to stop and let him feel that there is nothing to fear and so break down the remnant of his old and perfectly natural habit of fright from possible danger.—Our Animal Friends.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great sufferings for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidney and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by all Druggists, every bottle guaranteed.

The Force of Instinct.

Several Northumberland pitmen who were waiting to hear the result of a pigeon homing contest began to discuss the merits of various well known breeds of pigeons. One of the miners said he knew an instance of a young pigeon that had never flown, having been taken to Carlisle, a distance of about 65 miles, yet the first time it was liberated it came straight home.

"That's nowt!" exclaimed a well known authority. "Aa vence bowt twe eggs fra a chep in Edinburgh and Aa put 'em under ma best hen. As syun as ivvor they wor hatched an flown they went straight as an arrow back tiv And Reekie."—San Francisco Wave.

Gomez Wants Army Reduced.

Havana, March 3. — Gen. Maximo Gomez asks Governor Gen. Brooke to reduce the American army of occupation to 10,000 men, retaining 10,000 Cuban soldiers in the service of the military government. Were 10,000 enlisted this would allow $300,000 to be divided among the remainder, less those already employed on the streets and the rural police, about 1,200.

The Pan-American Exposition.

Buffalo, March 3.—The bill appropriating $500,000 for a National Building and exhibit at the Pan-American Exposition to be held in Buffalo in 1901 passed both branches of Congress at Washington yesterday, and was signed by the President. The bill passed at Albany setting aside $300,000 as the State's share in the exposition has been signed by Governor Roosevelt. These two amounts, added to the local subscriptions, bring the total already raised for the exposition to $2,800,000.

LITTLE BABYS
SCALY BLEEDING SORES

No Rest Day or Night. Sufferings Beyond Description. Dwindled to a Skeleton. All Thought would Die.

Mother Reads of Wonderful Cure by CUTICURA. Father Goes 5 Miles to Get It. Instant and Grateful Relief.

Complete Cure in Nine Weeks, and Not a Sign Left to Tell of His Awful Sufferings.

My baby had a terrible breaking out all over his face and head, extending half way down his back, while his arm became one solid, scaly, bleeding sore. A physician gave me a prescription which I used, but he kept getting worse, and suffered beyond description. The pain became so intense that he had to be put under opiates. We could get no rest, night or day. He dwindled down to a mere skeleton. Everybody who saw him said he would surely die. As a last resort a trip to the country was suggested, that the change of air might do him good. As soon as my mother saw the child she got a copy of an Atlanta paper, in which there was an account of a wonderful cure CUTICURA REMEDIES had wrought on a two-year-old child. My father started to the nearest drug store, which was five miles, and purchased CUTICURA (ointment), CUTICURA SOAP, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT. We applied as per directions putting plenty of the CUTICURA on his head, face, arm, and back. The child slept for over two hours that night, improved daily, and in nine weeks from the time he started on the CUTICURA REMEDIES we were able to discontinue their use, and not a sign is left to tell of his awful sufferings.

"CONFESSING CHRIST."

The Evangelistic Services in the Park Street Baptist Church.

Despite the disagreeable weather, there was a fair attendance at the evangelistic services in the Park street Baptist church last evening. Rev. Mr. Cowsert gave an eloquent address on "Confessing Christ," his text being John xii, 42.

There were many, said he, in this present day who like the Pharisees spoken of in the text, were trying to serve Christ secretly and get to heaven on the sly. This was an impossibility. No one could get to heaven or hell alone. He then gave the following reasons why Christ should be acknowledged:

Because if we did not willingly do so now we would be compelled to do so in the hereafter. Every knee would have to bow and every tongue confess that Jesus was Christ to the glory of God the Father.

The second reason was that Christ had pledged Himself to openly confess before God those who openly confessed Him before men. There was a sense in which Christ, as our advocate, continually acknowledged His followers before God, but the acknowledgement spoken of in Luke xii., 8, was more glorious, and would take place when Christians were being rewarded for their works.

The third reason was that in failing to confess Christ we denied Him, and to deny Him is to be denied by Him. Some people, like Nicodemus and Joseph of Arimathea, were deterred from confessing Christ for fear of religious persecution, while others failed to confess through neglect. Those who did must have a selfish conception of following Christ. The claims of Christ, as our Saviour, must be admitted or denied by every person. A failure to acknowledge Him was a practical denial, and those who did so would be repudiated by Christ. At the close of the address a number publicly acknowledged Christ as their Saviour. One of the most pleasing features of the meeting was a duet by Mrs. Dingman and Rev. Mr. Cowsert.

The meetings will be continued every night next week.

'Tis But the After-Effects of Grippe and the Common Diseases That Make People Look so Weak and Deathlike.

Paine's Celery Compound

The Great Disease Banisher and True Health Builder.

The writer a few days ago enjoyed a half hour walk with a well-known physician on one of Montreal's crowded business streets.

Meeting with a great many pale and sallow-faced men and women—young and middle aged—the writer asked his physician friend the question: "Doctor, we are passing scores of sick looking people; does this fact prove that we are deteriorating as a people in health and general physical development?"

The physician's answer was very much as follows: "A large number of sickly looking and half-well people have passed us to-day, which I am sure has prompted your question. You must remember that grippe has been epidemic during the winter, and has left thousands in a sad condition of health; then there are others common causes of sickness that have been operating, such as insomnia, headaches, digestive disturbances, blood troubles, rheumatism, and kidney and liver ailments. All these have contributed to sickness and deaths this year, and those we have passed are but a few of the victims. The same conditions exist in all countries, and I would not care to state positively that as a people we are deteriorating in true manhood and womanhood. Early attention to, and sensible care and treatment of, present weaknesses will bring all back to good health."

The class of sick people to whom the city physician referred stand in urgent need of Paine's Celery Compound, if they would quickly regain nerve force and power, weight in flesh, fresh blood and sound bodily health. There is nothing known to physicians of the most extensive practice equal to Paine's Celery Compound for building up the weakened body. When the great compound is used, all weaknesses soon become things of the past, and solid health, refreshing sleep, natural appetite and vivacity of disposition make life a pleasure.

CANADA'S MINERALS.

Big Increase in the Production for 1898 —The figures for Recent Years.

Ottawa, March 2.—A summary of the mineral production of Canada issued from the Geological Survey, shows that in 1898 there was an increase of over $9 000,000, or nearly 33 per cent. in the production of minerals, as compared with 1897. This is a still larger proportional increase than that of 1897 over 1896 which amounted to nearly 27 per cent. Compared with 1896, the first year for which statistics were issued, there is an increase in the value of mineral products in thirteen years of nearly 270 per cent. The per capita value of minerals of the country has increased from $2 20 to $7 20.

The more important product increases were as follows: Gold, $7,673,000; coal, $934,000; copper, $658,000; nickel, $423,000. The increase in copper in Ontario was over 50 per cent.

The total value of metals produced was $21,622,601; non-metallic, $15,884,396, and $280,000, not returned. The increase in Yukon gold was $7,500,000.

WARSAW.

The topic of conversation in this village now is the revival services in the Methodist church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Fusse, and the Cornish evangelist, J. S. Jenkin. On Sunday evening last the church was crowded and fourteen seekers were at the altar of consecration. The evangelist is a beautiful singer and preaches with fluency and power, and possesses a strange and magnetic influence over his audience. The church has been greatly awakened and the services are being continued.

Almost in Despair.

"My wife suffered with pain and distress from an affection of the throat caused by impure blood. She was almost in despair of ever obtaining a cure, but finally procured a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after taking six bottles of this medicine she was completely cured." John Wecknar, Galt, Ontario.

That distress after eating is prevented by one or two of Hood's Pills. They don't gripe.

AWFUL POWDER EXPLOSION.

An Awful Scene of Misery and Devastation Near Toulon, in Southern France —A Corporal Literally Scalped—M. Lockroy, Minister of Marine, Acts Promptly—Budget of Cable News.

Pekin, March 6.—The Tsung Li Yamen (Chinese Foreign Office), has returned to the Italian charge d'affaires, Marquis Salvago Raggi, his despatch containing the demand of the Italian Government for a lease of Sanmun Bay on the same conditions as those under which Germany holds Kiaochou Bay, accompanying it with a letter declaring that the Chinese Government is unable to grant the request.

Italy Will Persist.

Rome, March 6.—Little attention is paid here to the refusal of the Chinese Government to grant the requested lease of Sanmun Bay to be used as a naval base and coaling station. No doubt is entertained that the concession will be made after further negotiations. Rear-Admiral Grenet embarked yesterday on the Italian cruiser Stromboli at Naples to take command of the Italian squadron in Chinese waters.

Italian Marines Landed.

London, March 6.—The Rome correspondent of The Daily Mail says: "The Italian warships have landed marines at Saumun Bay, thus virtually taking possession. Italy will pay nearly £80,000 ($400,000) for the concession. The Tsung Li Yamen wishes to reduce the lease to 50 years."

Britain Supports Italy.

London, March 6.—The Pekin correspondent of The Times says: "It is asserted that since the Tsung Li Yamen returned Italy's despatch Sir Claude Macdonald (British Minister to China) has presented a note supporting Italy's demand, and it is probable that Italy will now take possession of Sanmun Bay, encountering practically no resistance."

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

Marconi to Establish the System Between Great Britain and France.

London, March 6.—Great interest was excited at the meeting of the Society of Electrical Engineers on Thursday night by Signor Marconi's wireless telegraphy demonstration. He sent a message from one end of the hall to the other by means of a small apparatus. He said that operations had been in progress daily for months between the south foreland and the lightship at the East Goodwins, showing that on no single occasion had communication been interrupted, despite all sorts of bad weather. Messages between the Queen at Osborne and the Prince of Wales on the royal yacht had been transmitted, in some instances for a distance of eight miles over land. Intervening hills, although 300 feet higher than the vertical wire at Osborne, offered no obstacle.

During his lecture Signor Marconi received a note conveying the permission of the French Government to establish his system between Folkestone and Boulogne. Signor Marconi states that vertical wires, rising to a height of 114 feet, will be sufficient to ensure communication between the two coasts.

ENGLISHMEN ASK INDEMNITY

For the Damage Done Them by the U. S. Fighting in the Philippines.

London, March 6.—It is learned that during the past week a majority of the British houses trading with the Philippines have made representations to the Foreign Office respecting damage done to their properties in the recent fighting at and around Manila. On Thursday several representative tradesmen had interviews with Mr. Broderick, the Parliamentary Foreign Secretary, and asked to be indemnified for their losses. Mr. Broderick replied that the Government would carefully consider the matter and see whether there had been any such damage as represented, and, if so, in what manner claims for compensation could be made upon the United States.

Agoncillo Lost Everything.

London, March 6. — Agoncillo, the representative of Aguinaldo, who was among the passengers on the wrecked steamer Labrador, telegraphed Saturday to the London agent of the Filipinos: "Reached Oban at 8 a.m. Expect to arrive in London at midnight. Have lost everything." The London agent believes that Agoncillo's loss includes his credentials and the original correspondence between Aguinaldo and Admiral Dewey, in which the latter is alleged to have promised the Filipinos independence.

British Budget Will Show a Deficit.

London, March 6.—The British budget, for the first time in many years, is going to show a deficit for the financial year, which ends on March 25. The receipts are already half a million pounds sterling below Chancellor Hicks-Beach's estimates, and it is evident from the department programs that he will have to raise three millions by increased taxation to meet the coming year's requirements. The country has been so accustomed to surpluses that it is quite nonplussed.

Not a Cure for Pneumonia.

Berlin, March 6.—Prof. Wassermann, Prof. Koch's principal pupil, speaking of the discovery of new serum for pneumonia, said the matter had been ridiculously exaggerated. His discovery had a theoretical interest only. Nothing practical had yet been reached or attempted, either on animals or human beings. To speak of it as a pneumonia cure was pure nonsense.

Bubonic Plague Raging.

London, March 6.—The Bombay correspondent of The Morning Post says: "The bubonic plague is raging here with unparalleled severity. According to the official returns there were 972 deaths last week, but these quite underrate the mortality."

The Condition of the Pope.

Rome, March 6.—His Holiness, who arose at half-past 10, returned to bed at 1.30 p.m. He has resumed his ordinary diet, and his condition, mentally and physically, is good. He engaged his physicians in conversation, and, to their amazement, recited the entire last portion of the seventh canto of Dante's "Paradise," commenting upon various passages as he proceeded. Prof. Massoni afterward remarked: "He is, indeed, a marvellous man." Dr. Lapponi hopes to be able to dispense with the bulletins altogether in the course of two or three days.

POWDER EXPLOSION.

An Awful Disaster at the Naval Powder Magazine Near Toulon, France—Corpses Terribly Mangled.

Toulon, March 6.—The naval powder magazine of La Goubranell, between La Seyne and Toulon, in the Department of Var, southern France, exploded at half-past 2 o'clock yesterday morning. All of the soldiers on duty at the magazine were killed and a number of the inhabitants of the surrounding districts, the buildings in which were razed, also fell victims. Forty corpses have already been recovered. The cause of the explosion is not known.

The Explosion Was Awful.

Fifty thousand kilogrammes of black powder exploded. It looks as though a volcanic eruption had occurred, the country being swept almost bare within a radius of two miles, houses destroyed, trees overturned and distorted, fields devastated and covered with stones and black dust. Some of the stones are enormous. One weighing 50 kilogrammes fell in the suburbs of Toulon and in the city itself. Even at St. Jean de Var, five miles distant, windows were shattered and doors battered in.

Four Sentries Killed.

Later reports show that of the seven sentries, four were killed outright and the others severely injured, the corporal being literally scalped, and the scalp overhanging his face like a veil. A large number of soldiers are now employed in clearing away the debris, but the work is very difficult. It is impossible to ascertain accurately the number of killed, but it is believed that no fewer than 100 were injured. Although it was a clear night, the explosion was so terrific as to produce a slight rainfall.

Fortunately the neighboring magazines escaped. It is now believed that the explosion originated in the chemical decomposition in smokeless powder. There is no suggestion of foul play.

The City in Mourning.

To-day the whole city is in mourning, flags are at half-mast and the theatres are draped and the casinos closed. Both the Government and municipal authorities are forwarding relief funds. M. Lockroy, Minister of Marine, has telegraphed 10,000 francs toward the maintenance of the families of the victims; and a public subscription has been opened here.

Four of the injured have succumbed to their injuries. It is believed that 15 are still buried in the debris.

Bodies Terribly Mutilated.

All the bodies found or recovered are terribly mutilated. Sixteen were found on the rocks near the shore, and it is feared that others were precipitated into the sea. A vehicle moving along a road near the sea was lifted bodily into the water by the force of the explosion, two of its occupants being drowned. The scene at the village of La Goubran was appalling. The cries of the wounded were agonizing, and the people were almost frantic. Telegrams from Nice say the explosion was distinctly felt there.

SPAIN'S NEW CABINET.

Senor Silvela, Conservative, Succeeds Senor Sagasta as Premier.

Madrid, March 6.—The new Cabinet took the oath of office on Saturday. The Ministry is composed as follows:

Senor Silvela, Premier and Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Senor Dato, Minister of the Interior.

Marquis Villa Verda, Minister of Finance.

Senor Duran, Minister of Justice.

Gen. Polavieja, Minister of War.

Marquis Pidal, Minister of Public Works for the Colonies.

Admiral Camara, Minister of Marine.

It is expected that Gen. Martinez de Campos will become president of the Senate. The brother of Marquis Pidal, it is thought, will be chosen as president of the Chamber of Deputies.

There was some excitement in the cafes when the formation of the Silvela Cabinet was announced. The "Marseillaise" was sung and there were cheers for Liberty. Those who are in the immediate surrounding of Senor Silvela say his settled idea is to regenerate the country. He holds that the Queen Regent can ratify the treaty of peace with the United States without a vote of the Chambers and that, therefore, their dissolution need not defer the ratification.

Admiral Camara, having declined the post of Minister of Marine, Senor Silvela tendered it to Admiral Gomes Imas, who has accepted it.

Hooley Will Surrender.

London, March 6.—The registrar of the Bankruptcy Court has issued the necessary order to prosecute Ernest T. Hooley, the bankrupt speculator and company promoter, for frauds under the Debtors' Act, on the ground of "reasonable probability that he will be convicted." The public prosecutor was about to issue a warrant for Hooley's arrest, when his friends heard of the matter and entered into negotiations with the authorities, with the result that Hooley will voluntarily surrender himself to-day.

Murderers to Be Hanged.

Bombay, March 6.—Wasadev and Ranade, the murderers of the two brothers Dravid, who were recently assassinated at Ponah to prevent their appearance in court as witnesses against the murderers of Plague Commissioner Rand and Lieut. Ayerst during the Jubilee festivals in 1897, were convicted of that crime on Saturday and sentenced to death. Sathe Framin, an accomplice of the convicted murderers, was sentenced to ten years' penal servitude. Wasadev and Ranade confessed their crime.

Kipling's Works Come High.

London, March 6.—Sotheby, Wilkinson & Hodge, literary auctioneers, have sold a copy of Kipling's "Echoes," in the original wrapper, published in Lahore in 1884, for 490 shillings, and a first edition of his "Departmental Ditties," in the original wrapper, for 170 shillings.

Belgian Queen Very Low.

Brussels, March 6.—Queen Marie Henriette, who has been suffering from broncho-pneumonia, had a serious relapse at noon yesterday. The last sacrament was administered last evening.

AT STARVATION POINT.

Forty-Two Persons on a Snowbound Train Have Nothing to Eat.

Cheyenne, Wyo., March 6.—An urgent message for relief was received yesterday from the Cheyenne & Northern train in the snow at Iron Mountain. The provisions are reduced to a few beans and a little coffee, with 42 persons on board to be fed. They have been snowed in for six days and the conditions are desperate, as the adjacent ranches, where food has heretofore been obtained, are about out of provisions. A relief train with a supply of provisions and 100 shovellers will be sent out immediately, but it cannot reach the imprisoned train before to-day.

Japan Wants an Agreement.

London, March 6.—London diplomats are informed that Japan may send Marquis Ito to England and the United States on a special mission. The Japanese Government strongly desires an agreement with the United States and Great Britain on various questions in the far east. It has not been finally settled, however, whether the negotiations will be entrusted to a special commission or conducted through the Japanese Ministers at London and Washington.

Swift Finds a Comet.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 6.—Prof. Lewis Swift, observer at Mount Lowe Observatory, Echo Mountain, sent the following on Saturday:

"I discovered last evening a new bright comet in eridanus right ascension 3 hours 45 minutes, declination south, 20 degrees.

"It is bright, has a short tail. It is just visible to the naked eye, and is moving slowly."

We are More than Pleased.

There was cheer to us all day long Saturday, in the interest you showed in this New Store. It was a revelation to many of you to find such worthy goods at so small prices. Of course, there were many grand values that you didn't see for want of display space and "elbow" room. You're welcome to come and inspect these any time.

But that is only the material side. It is the way we do business that we mean shall be more of a surprise to you. The home-like feeling must be yours when you come here Our employees must be courteous, considerate, thoughtful and attentive. You shall be free to go about, to look about, to rest, to talk, without being importuned to buy.

We will handle only worthy goods; the prices will be fair. ONE Price for one article and that price for CASH.

FACTS ABOUT HEALTH

It is Easy to Keep Well if We Know How—Some of the Conditions Necessary to Perfect Health.

The importance of maintaining good health is easily understood, and it is really a simple matter if we take a correct view of the conditions required. In perfect health the stomach promptly digests food, and thus prepares nourishment. The blood is employed to carry this nourishment to the organs, nerves, muscles and tissues which need it. The first great essential for good health, therefore, is pure, rich blood. Now it is certainly a fact that no medicine has such a record of cures as Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is literally true that there are hundreds of people alive and well today who would have been in their graves had they not taken Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is depended upon as a family medicine and general regulator of the system by tens of thousands of people. This is because Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the blood pure. This is the secret of its great success. Keep your system in good health by keeping your blood pure with Hood's Sarsaparilla, which absolutely cures when other medicines fail to do any good whatever.

Hood's Pills are the only pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

In a little over a quarter of a century, the Galt Reformer points out, the British empire has increased her territory by about two millions and a half square miles, And "what we have we'll hold."

That was a remarkably clumsy attempt, remarks the Ottawa Free Press, on the part of Mr. Whitney to introduce the temperance gag into the discussion of the tax bill in the Legislature on Wednesday. He should have remembered that it was the anniversary of that fateful 1st of March on which the people dissented from his view that "it was time for a change," and have asked himself what he said when on the stump about "reduction in the number of licenses. Such an idea probably never entered his head. Now he is a little behind the times when he affects interest in the subject.

Toronto seems to be disappointed, says the Ottawa Journal (Independent), because it cannot tax the incomes of financial companies, as it is expected, owing to the Ontario Government expecting to tax them. Why should Toronto tax incomes that are derived from business done all over the province? Toronto taxes the buildings of the companies, and taxes the individuals employed in Toronto by the companies. There is no reason why Toronto should further tax the incomes from the general business of these corporations than why Ottawa or Hamilton or Merrickville or Almonte should, except that Toronto being a large city may give a large share of business. But in the case of the Canada Life, one company mentioned, it is known that Hamilton gives the Canada Life more business than Toronto does. If every municipality in Ontario would take to taxing the incomes of provincial financial companies the companies would have to go out of business.

PRAISE FOR THE DOUKS.

A Millionaire Winnipegger Considers The Douks Will Make Splendid Settlers for the Canadian West.

Mr. J. H. Ashdown, the millionaire hardware merchant of Winnipeg, has a high opinion of the Doukhobors. Mr. Ashdown was in Ottawa on his way to England to join his family in a cruise on the Mediterranean. Speaking of the Douks he said:—"They are among the most intelligent and best immigrants the West has had. They are commonly the cleanest, and as to their adaptability for citizenship they have given good evidence already. Those stationed at Winnipeg have shown a desire to learn the English language, and people are now teaching them. They endeavor to get ideas on how to do different kinds of work, and they keep their eyes open for tools they will need. They will make splendid settlers and will soon adapt themselves. The statement the Hon. Mr. Sifton had some settlers removed from farms to make way for the Doukhobors is untrue. The Doukhobors will be given land that has not yet been cultivated.

We expect a boom in Winnipeg this year, and business should be better than ever. The Manitoba hotel which was burnt recently will be rebuilt. I understand that the C. P. R. intends erecting a fine hotel at Winnipeg. Business through out the West will be good this year.

NEW HALIBURTON ROAD.

Proposed Extension Laid Before Toronto Board of Trade Committee.

(Mail and Empire.

At a special meeting of the Railway Committee of the Board of trade yesterday afternoon, Mr. W. H. Lockhart Gordon, representing the promoters, laid before the members the proposition for the extension of the Haliburton railway. Mr. Gordon pointed out that the bill now before the Legislature sought power to build a road from Haliburton, the present terminus of the Midland division of the G. T. R. from Lindsay, to Mattawa, on the Ottawa river, via Whitney, on the Ottawa, Arnprior and Parry Sound railway. He emphasized the following advantages that would accrue to Toronto:—It would open up 10,000 square miles of some of the finest timber land in Ontario, and across the Ottawa river 15,000 is square miles in Quebec. It would connect with the C.P.R., which runs by the Quebec side of Ottawa river from Mattawa to the foot of Lake Temiscamingue. The length of the railway would be 106 miles from Haliburton to Mattawa, 90 miles from Mattawa to Lake Temiscamingue, and 50 miles more to the head of the lake. It would open up a country 150 miles north of Toronto, and give a new route to Pembroke, 80 miles shorter than the present one from Toronto, and make Mattawa 25 miles nearer Toronto than Montreal. At least $1,500,000 worth of supplies are now distributed from Mattawa to the lumber camps in that neighborhood, a great part of which would, if the railway were built, be purchased in Toronto.

The expense, the engineers had reported, would not be any more per mile from Haliburton to Mattawa than the Midland had cost from Lindsay to Haliburton. This road, said Mr. Gordon, was part of the scheme proposed by the late George Laidlaw, and he had always strongly advocated railways running north and south tributary to Toronto, rather than east and west that would carry the trade through the city.

The committee approved of the scheme, and will give their moral support to the bill.

MR. KIPLING IMPROVING.

The Author's Children, Though, Are Not Yet Out of Danger.

New York, March 6.—According to the reports of his physicians, Rudyard Kipling is now far advanced on the way to recovery. All through the hours of Saturday night and early yesterday morning the favorable conditions increased. He slept peacefully and when he awoke it was clear that he had made another powerful stride toward health.

It was said that Mr. Kipling's daughter Josephine is dangerously ill. She is reported to have suffered a slight relapse during Saturday night.

There was no change in the condition of Elsie, his youngest daughter, who is suffering from pneumonia at the Hotel Grenoble.

China Supports Britain.

London, March 6.—According to the Pekin correspondent of The Times, the Tsung Li Yamen supports Great Britain against the protest of the Russian Government regarding the terms of the Niuchwang Railway extension loan, recently subscribed in London, the ground of Russian objection being that the clause appointing a British subject chief engineer of the line is in conflict with the Russo-Chinese agreement.

Crash at the Whirlpool.

Niagara Falls, N.Y., March 6.—A heavy gale yesterday afternoon caused considerable damage in this vicinity. The old elevator at the Buttery whirlpool station was blown over. It crashed through the pavilion at the foot of the cliff, damaging the property in the pavilion and causing a stampede among the people in the neighborhood. No one was hurt. The loss is large.

Killed by a Cyclone.

Athens, Tenn., March 6.—A terrific tornado passed over a portion of Madisonville and Monroe County last night, with disastrous results. Early in the evening a strong wind struck a portion of Madisonville, killing three persons, wounding 10 or 12 others and completely destroying 12 or 15 houses and several barns.

..Dr. Chase's Ointment..

His suffering from Ulcerating Piles Cured.

He says:—I was troubled with itching piles for five years, and was badly ulcerated. They were very painful, so much so that I could not sleep. I tried almost every remedy heard of, and was recommended to use Dr. Chase's Ointment. I purchased a box, and from the first application got such relief that I was satisfied a cure would be made. I used in all two boxes, and am now completely cured.

Every remedy given by Dr. Chase cost years of study and research, and with an eye single to its adaptation for the ailments for which it was intended. Dr. Chase detested cure-alls, and it has been proven ten thousand times that not one of his formulas leave a bad after-effect. Dr. Chase's Ointment is based on lanoline, and the best physicians prescribe it.

First Step Taken in the Actual Amalgamation of the Woollen Industry of the U. S.

New York, March 6.—What is the first step in the amalgamation of the entire woollen industry of this country was taken on Saturday when the manufacturers of worsteds agreed to combine their interests and formed the American Woollen Company, with a capital stock of $50,000,000. Other combinations in the various divisions of the industry are under way, and will be consummated in a short time.

$10,000 CRASH AT KINGSTON.

Oddfellows' Building Wall Topples Over and Does Much Damage.

Kingston, March 6.—A high wind arose yesterday afternoon causing a wall on the south side of the Oddfellows' Building, recently burned, to topple over. It crushed in the three-storey building owned by Miss Gildersleeve and occupied by T. F. Harrison & Co., furniture dealers. It was completely wrecked, causing a loss of $10,000. Charles Chown's tinware establishment was damaged to the extent of $300. The building, owned by Miss Gildersleeve, is also badly damaged. The building and stock were not insured from accidents. It is likely that a suit will have to determine who is the responsible parties, the city or the Oddfellows.

Joseph Gould, caretaker of the Central School, was passing Harrison's, and was buried in the debris. His leg was broken, his face badly damaged, and body bruised. He was removed to the hospital. The firemen are watching the wrecked buildings to prevent fire.

IS IT A TRIFLE?

THAT COMMON TROUBLE, ACID DYSPEPSIA OR SOUR STOMACH.

Now Recognised as a Cause of Serious Disease.

Acid dyspepsia, commonly called heartburn or sour stomach, is a form of indigestion resulting from fermentation of the food. The stomach being too weak to digest it, the food remains until fermentation begins, filling the stomach with gas, and a bitter, sour burning taste in the mouth is often present. This condition soon becomes chronic, and being an every day affair is given but little attention. Because dyspepsia is not immediately fatal, many people do nothing for the trouble.

Within a recent period a remedy has been discovered prepared solely to cure dyspepsia and stomach troubles. It is known as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and is becoming rapidly used and prescribed as a radical cure for every form of dyspepsia.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been placed before the public and are sold by all druggists for 50c per package. It is prepared by the F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., and while it promptly and effectually restores a vigorous digestion, at the same time is perfectly harmless and will not injure the most delicate stomach, but on the contrary by giving perfect digestion, strengthens the stomach, improves the appetite and makes life worth living.

GOOD MONEY FOR BAD NEWS

Paid to Learn That Sight Would Leave Him in Six Months.

Somehow it made me feel bad, this happening that I am about to relate. I was in the office of an oculist, one of the leading men in his profession in Pittsburg. A big, strong and healthy looking man entered. His appearance indicated that he had many years of life before him. He was well dressed, keenly intelligent and of pleasant countenance.

"Doctor," he said, "my eyes have been troubling me, and I would like you to make an examination of them and treat them."

After a few preliminary questions the doctor told him to strip himself to the waist. He took off his clothes and stood there, a magnificent specimen of manhood. The doctor examined him, paying particular attention to his back, for a reason of which I know nothing. Having finished, he said:

"Put on your clothes. I can do nothing for you. Your sight may last six months, but no longer. Treatment will do no good. Blindness is sure to come."

"What's the matter, doctor?" he asked quietly, with a faint tremor in his voice.

The doctor told him in technical language and then explained that the trouble came from the wasting of a nerve leading from the spine.

"What's your bill, doctor?" asked the man when he got his clothes on.

"Five dollars," replied the doctor.

He paid it and left the office without another word. In the fullness of life he walked out into the blessed light of day, doomed within six months to darkness until death. It was an incident to the doctor; to me it was a tragedy.—Pittsburg News.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the time when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1896 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which delights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used, Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. For correct and full information regarding the new invention and NEWCOOMBE PIANOS, write to our Direct Representative. Easy Prices. Liberal Terms.

DEATH OF REV. DR. KING.

The Principal of Manitoba College Died in Winnipeg on Sunday—Sketch of His Life.

Winnipeg, March 6.—Dr. King, principal of Manitoba College, the head and front of Presbyterianism in western Canada, formerly of Toronto, died yesterday afternoon after an illness of several weeks. He was attacked with pneumonia, but the inflammation subsided three weeks ago, and the hope was expressed that recovery was in sight. He did not gain in strength, however, and slowly sank away. Mention of his death was made from every pulpit in the city.

Brief Biography.

Rev. John Mark King was born at Yetholme, Roxburgshire, May 25, 1829, and was consequently in his 70th year. He was educated at his native place, and at the University of Edinburgh. He took his degree of Master of Arts, with honors in mathematics, in 1854. He studied theology in Edinburgh, and was licensed to preach in 1855. Thus he has been 44 years in the Presbyterian ministry. He attended lectures at the University of Halle. Coming to Canada as a missionary in 1856, he was appointed to Columbus and Brooklin, Ontario, in 1857, and was ordained the same year. He was called to Gould Street Presbyterian Church (now used as the Catholic Apostolic Church,) in Toronto, in 1863, and ministered at Gould street and thence at the new St. James' Presbyterian Church, Gerrard street, for 20 years. In 1883 he was appointed principal of Manitoba College. On leaving for his new home he was presented by the congregation with a purse of $1,000, a gold watch and a portrait of himself, the latter being the congregation's gift to Mrs. King. In 1883 Mr. King was elected moderator of the general assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. Besides his duties as principal, he was lecturer in mental and moral sciences and German, and professor of theology, Greek and Hebrew exegesis in the college. The degree of D.D. was conferred on Mr. King by Knox College, Toronto, in 1869. Dr. King was strongly opposed to the coercion of Manitoba on the school question, in the discussions of 1895 and 1896. On his various visits to Toronto he was most cordially received and was an ever-welcome lecturer and preacher. Dr. King married, in 1873, Janet Macpherson, who was a daughter of Mr. Hugh Macpherson, and who died in 1886. His latest literary work was a critical study of "In Memoriam."

Will They Settle Accounts?

London, March 4.—It is officially announced that, as the treaty of 1862 gives France equal rights with Great Britain in Oman, the capital of which Sultanate of Arabia is Muscat, Great Britain has withdrawn her objections to France placing coal sheds on the shore similar to those of Great Britain, provided France does not attempt to obtain territorial rights in Oman. This is understood to be part of a general scheme for the settlement of the various differences between France and Great Britain.

The Queen and France.

London, March 4.—The papers yesterday are showing uneasiness at threats of certain French papers that if the Queen visits France at this time she can expect to be the victim of outrages. The Times says that if any unfortunate incidents occur, England will know where to place the blame.

Insurgent Loss Reported Heavy and American Loss One Man.

Manila, March 6.—At daylight on Saturday General Wheaton's outposts discovered a large body of Filipinos attempting to cross the river for the purpose of reinforcing the enemy at Guadalupe, and a gunboat advanced under a heavy fire and poured shot into the jungle on both sides of the river and shelled the insurgent position at Guadalupe, effectually scattering them. The Filipino loss was heavy.

Private John T. Ois, Third Artillery, was killed.

On board the gunboat Privates William Wheeler and Louis Barrien, California regiment, were wounded.

The United States cruiser Baltimore arrived here at 4 p.m. on Saturday from Hongkong, having on board the civil members of the United States Philippine commission.

Otis Saw the Commissioners.

Gen. Otis, accompanied by his aides, Capt. Murray and Lieut. Slade, yesterday morning paid a formal visit to the civil members of the United States' Philippine Commission. A house on the Ermite water front has been prepared for the residence of the commission.

Col. Charles Denby, the only one of the commissioners who has not arrived yet, is expected by the next steamer from Hongkong.

The vessel which arrived here on Saturday and was reported as the transport Ohio, turns out to be the gunboat Manila. The error was caused by dense fog. The troops brought by the transport steamer Senator are still on board the vessel. A permanent cable has been established between Manila and Cavite.

HEART DISEASE.

SOME FACTS REGARDING THE RAPID INCREASE OF HEART TROUBLE.

Do not be Alarmed, but Look for the Cause.

Heart troubles, at least among the Americans, are certainly increasing, and while this may be largely due to the excitement and worry of American business life, it is more often the result of weak stomachs, of poor digestion.

Real organic disease is incurable, but not one case in one hundred of heart trouble is organic.

The close relation between heart trouble and poor digestion is because both organs are controlled by the same great nerver, the Sympathetic and the Pneumogastric.

In another way also the heart is affected by the form of poor digestion, which causes gas and fermentation from half-digested food. There is a feeling of oppression and heaviness in the chest caused by pressure of the distended stomach on the heart and lungs, interfering with their action, hence arises palpitation and short breath.

Poor digestion also poisons the blood, making it thin and watery, which irritates and weakens the heart.

The most sensible treatment for heart trouble is to improve the digestion and to insure the prompt assimilation of food.

This can be done by the regular use after meals of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which may be found at most drug stores and which contain valuable, harmless digestive elements in a pleasant, convenient form.

It is safe to say that the regular persistent use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at meal time will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

Full sized package of these tablets sold by druggists at 50 cents. Little book on stomach troubles mailed free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

Spanish Officers in Prison.

Madrid, March 4.—Admiral Montojo, who was in command of the Spanish squadron destroyed by Admiral Dewey in the battle of Manila Bay, and the commander of the Cavite arsenal, were last evening incarcerated in the military prison pending trial for their conduct at Manila. The Government has also ordered the prosecution of General Linares, who was in supreme command of the Spanish forces at Santiago at the time of the capitulation to Gen. Shafter.

Spanish Cabinet Crisis.

Madrid, March 4.—The Queen Regent requested Senor Sagasta to re-form his Cabinet without an appeal to the country, but he declined, as did also Senor Montero Rios. Then Senor Silvela, the Conservative leader, was offered and accepted the task, and it is expected he will report the formation of a Ministry to-day.

The Cortes will be dissolved, the new election taking place toward the end of April and the new Chamber of Deputies meeting in May.

The President of the French Senate.

Paris, March 4.—The Senate yesterday elected ex-Minister Fallieres to be president of that body by a vote of 151 against 88 votes cast for ex-Minister Constans.

Catarrh Can Be Cured.

Japanese Catarrh Cure

has successfully coped with this most dangerous disease, and cured to stay cured.

Miss A. Knott, of Beachville, Ont., writes: 'If we had only known of Japanese Catarrh Cure years ago, my father would have been saved from spending hundreds of dollars, and I would have been free from the constant pain and annoyance of this most disgusting disease. I have had catarrh for years. My head was stuffed up so that I could not breathe through my nostrils. My breath was very impure. I had almost a constant pain in my head and over my eyes. Nothing I could get gave me any permanent relief, until using Japanese Catarrh Cure. From the very first it gave me relief, and in a short time had removed the accumulation so that I could breath freely through the nostrils. The pain left my head and eyes. Its effect upon my breath was truly wonderful, purifying and removing every vestige of the unpleasant oder, and during the past year since using this remedy have not felt the least sign of my former trouble. I can highly recommend it, and known of several others in our neighborhood whom it has cured.'

Sold by Orton & Walsh, druggists, Peterborough. 50 cents. Six boxes, with cure guaranteed, for $2.50. A free sample sent to any address. Enclose 5 cent stamp. Address, The Griffiths & Macpherson Co., 121 Church street, Toronto.

VALUABLE Residential Properties FOR SALE

In Peterborough.

Having decided to remove to Manitoba in the spring, I have decided to sell the following valuable properties at prices that should secure ready purchasers:

Parcel No. 1. A Brick Terrace of four houses, adjoining the corner of Shortbrooks and Park streets, two storys, well built with good stone cellars full size of buildings. Each residence contains six rooms with summer kitchen. This property has always been continuously rented and pays an excellent rate of interest on the investment, and it is practically a new property, being only erected a few years, and is in good condition.

Parcel No. 2. Brick residence corner of Reid and Simcoe. Containing ten rooms. House is good condition with all modern improvements, bath, closets, heated with furnace and lighted with electricity.

Parcel No. 3. Brick dwelling corner Aberdeen and Benson streets, facing Dixon Park, containing seven rooms with summer kitchen. This property was erected last season for myself and occupied by myself. Has hard and soft water in kitchen and is a very comfortable residence. This lot is 165 feet square.

Parcel No. 4. Brick residence, corner Wolseley and Benson streets. Two storeys, seven rooms with kitchen, pleasantly situated adjoining Dixon Park. Hard and soft water in kitchen. This lot is also 165 feet square and is a similar building to parcel No. 3.

Parties desiring a good paying investment or home will find any of these desirable purchases.

Particulars and terms, which are reasonable, made known on application to the undersigned

IF THE LADIES WAIT

THEY'LL MAKE MONEY!

OUR WHITEWEAR and SHIRT WAIST OPENING will take place in a few days. You will find it economy to wait for it, when we will make a superior display in Cottons, Cambrics and Nainsook Muslins.

Our stock of WHITEWEAR this season very forcibly illustrate what can be accomplished in manufacture by being PARTICULAR. Every garment is double-stitched with felled seams, while such extras as pearl buttons and extra fullness contribute to all-round satisfaction.

Blouses—We again remind the Ladies that our Blouses are all manufactured on our own premises, and consequently, while the styles and material are up-to-date, the prices will be from 20 to 25 per cent. less than other Blouses sold in town.

THE ODORLESS CREMATORY CLOSET.

I have been appointed Sole Agent for the Odorless Crematory Closet manufactured by the Crematory Closet and General Heating Co., of Hamilton.

This Closet has found a place in many of the best homes in the province, and all who have used it cannot speak too highly of its merits. Medical men speak of it from a sanitary point of view, claiming that, if health is any consideration, no home should be without one. Here are some of the

TESTIMONIALS.

Alliston, March 1st, 1899.

I have had one of your "Crematory Closets in use now for several weeks and am glad to be able to say that I have found it entirely satisfactory in every respect. I have not been able to detect the slightest odor from it at any time and would not be without it. I am sure it must prove a great convenience to people in the country and in towns where water is not attainable.

Yours respectfully, JAMES CONWAY.

Sheddon, February 28th, 1898.

I have used it for sometime and find it perfectly odorless. It is a long felt want and I believe it will become very popular especially in rural districts, towns and villages where wells are so frequently contaminated by the ordinary closets.

I am, yours, etc. W. H. MORRISON

Medical Superintendent's Office, Sept. 20th, 1897 Asylum for the Insane, Hamilton.

Gentlemen: I had the opportunity of witnessing yesterday the operation of your Odorless Crematory Closet. It had a large accumulation of fecal matter in the pan when the fire was started, and inside of 20 minutes it was all reduced to ashes. There was no odor before or during the operation of consuming the fecal matter, as the ventilation by the flue seems to carry off all odor at once, before it has a chance to vitiate the surrounding atmosphere.

Yours truly. JAMES RUSSELL, M.D.

Elmbrook, Sept. 20th, 1897.

Dear Sirs—Having been present at a private test of your new patent closet yesterday afternoon, I beg to express my satisfaction with it in every way. Neither before, during or after the burning out of its contents did I detect the slightest unpleasant odor. I am satisfied it will be a boon to thousands in rural towns, villages and country homes. Yours truly.

THE RETURNED FORESTERS.

Their Experience at the High Court, Brantford.

The Peterborough delegation to the High Court of the Canadian Order of Foresters, Brantford, returned home on Saturday night. They were greatly pleased with Brantford, and especially with the excellent hospitality of the Commercial House, which, under the management of the new proprietor, Mr. Quirk, furnishes the best of accommodation and attention. What is more important, however, was the magnificent hospitality of the local Foresters, and the citizens generally, in the way of entertainments for the visiting brethren and other grateful courtesies. The fraternal treatment was also highly appreciated. Mr. William Kempt was elected to the very important committee, the Standing Committee of the High Court, and Mr. E. A. Kemp was placed on the Good and Welfare Committee. Mr. F. J. Jameson was also re-elected (for the eighth consecutive time) a member of the Executive Committee, and Mr. Wm. Batten was elected to the High Court position of High Junior Beadle. The large representation from the Maritime Provinces, as well as Manitoba and the territories and British Columbia, was a noticeable feature. The next meeting of the High Court will be held in the city of Sherbrooke, P.Q.

COLLAR BONE BROKEN.

Mr. F. H. Dixon Met With an Accident on Saturday Evening.

An unfortunate incident in connection with Saturday night's hockey match was the breaking of Mr. Fred Dixon's collar bone. The accident occurred towards the close of the last half. Dixon had dropped back to the defense and sallied out to meet Mr. R. M. Hamilton, who was coming along the side with the puck. The two players collided and when Fred pulled himself together after the shock he found that his left arm was powerless. An examination showed that the collar bone had been broken in the collision and as a result Mr. Dixon will be confined to his room for the next few weeks.

FELL FROM A 'BUS AND BROKE HIS NECK.

Joseph Brough Met Death Suddenly on Saturday.

HE WAS DRIVING TO LAKEFIELD.

The 'Bus Swerved and Upset and Both the Driver and Mr. John Craig, Throwing Both to the Ground —The Driver's Neck Was Broken.

"Jim" Brough, who for many years has has driven the 'bus of the Grand Central Hotel and was always able to keep his seat under the most precarious conditions, was thrown from the top of the 'bus on Saturday evening and instantly killed.

The vehicle had been purchased, together with the team, by Mr. John Craig, of the Craig House, Lakefield, at the Grand Central Hotel's sale on Saturday. The interior of the 'bus was filled with other goods, which had been purchased at the sale, and Mr. Craig arranged with Brough to drive the 'bus to Lakefield for him in the evening. The vehicle was on wheels, and in getting into the country slewed around considerably on the roads, which were icy. On turning the bend near the foot of Bickle's hill, the 'bus slid sideways a considerable distance and careened to one side to such an extent as to throw both Mr. Craig and Brough from the seat. Both men struck on their heads, the latter's neck being broken by the fall. Death ensued instantaneously, evidently, as he did not even moan. Mr. Craig was thrown about eight feet further than Brough, and although the blood burst from his mouth and nostrils through the terrific shock, he sustained no other injuries than a somewhat badly bruised leg. On ascertaining that Brough was dead, Mr. Craig fastened the team and limped on to the Robt. Walton farm and alarmed Mr. Jas. Cullen. Mr. John Fitzgerald was also around and hitched up a team bringing poor Brough into town on a sleigh.

The body was taken to Comstock's undertaking establishment, and, as Dr. Bell decided that an inquest was not necessary, the funeral took place this morning at ten o'clock. A widow and seven children survive.

The accident took place between eight and nine o'clock, and that the roads were in bad shape is amply testified to by those who had occasion to use them on Saturday. Bickle's Hill is a mile and a half or two miles above Nassau, and about five miles from town.

A NEW NAMEPLATE.

A New Merchant Tailoring Store to be Started Under the Name of Laidlaw Bros., Drapers.

The announcement is made in another column that Messrs. Andrew M. and William Laidlaw will open a new merchant tailoring store on Hunter street, opposite the Oriental Hotel, about the 15th of March. The two young gentlemen have formed a partnership, to do business under the name of Laidlaw Bros., drapers. "Andy" Laidlaw, as he is familiarly known in town, needs no special introduction, having been connected with the firm of A. Mercer & Co. for a number of years past, and is well-known by every good dresser in town. His brother, Mr. Wm. Laidlaw, does not come to town a total stranger, being known to quite a circle of friends through his family connections in Peterborough. He is a graduate of Mitchell's New York Class of the School of Gentlemen's Garment Cutting, and brings with him advanced ideas in the art of fashionable tailoring. The firm will devote themselves exclusively to merchant tailoring, and it is but natural to expect that they will attract a good share of the best patronage of Peterborough gentlemen.

THE 'FARMERS' EXCURSION TO GUELPH.

A Joint Excursion Arranged for June 8th.

Messrs. E. M. Elliott, Robert Vance and Wm. Collins, on behalf of the East Durham and West Peterborough Farmers' Institutes, on Saturday met in Peterborough and closed a contract with the G.T.R. for a special excursion train to be run to the Agricultural College, Guelph, under the auspices of the above Institutes, on Thursday, June 8th. The rates will be low—probably $1.85 for return tickets from Lakefield, from which the excursion starts, $1.75 from Peterborough and proportionate figures from nearer points, to Guelph. The train runs via Port Hope. The train service will admit of excursionists who wish to return the same day spending six hours at the college, but will be good for two or three days at least. This is an excellent opportunity for the farmers of this district to visit their own college, the institution maintained, at great expense, for their direct benefit alone. Those who make the visit will see much which will have an educational value of great importance.

BETHANY TABERNACLE.
OPENED YESTERDAY.

A Most Complete and Beautifully Finished Structure.

NOT A DOLLAR OF INDEBTEDNESS.

Rev. Mr. Bales, of Chicago, Will Preach at 3 and 8 p.m. Every Day This Week—Other Special Services.

The Bethany Tabernacle was formally opened yesterday, and large congregations were in attendance at the three services which were held.

The addresses were delivered by Rev. Mr. Bales, of Chicago, whose wonderful powers of oratory should draw great crowds to the Tabernacle during the week, special services being held each afternoon and evening.

At the morning service Pastor Zimmerman announced that $7,894.92 had been spent in the erection of the church, and he was pleased to be able to state that every cent had been furnished by the Almighty, and no encumbrance whatever remained on the property. The first subscription towards the fund was twenty-five cents, then came a dollar from a little girl, and so on. All the offerings had been voluntary, no subscription had been asked. Some willing hands had helped much in forwarding the work on the building but it was done behind the scenes, and would be known to but few.

NO ENTERTAINMENTS

would ever be held in the Tabernacle. It was for the dispensation of the Gospel only.

Rev. Mr. Bales, before beginning his address, urged the members of the congregation to attend service twice a day and bring their Bibles with them for the next few weeks. He would be present during the first week, and arrangements had been made to have Pastor Salmon and others present later on.

The first thought which had occurred to the speaker on entering the building was that of comparing this new temple with that of the temple of old. The Temple of old was adorned with purple and the best the people possessed. In the present day our lives should be adorned with Christ. The Temple was to be kept pure and clean, as should be our lives. He had driven the money changers out of His Temple, so when He entered the heart He drove out evil.

Mr. Bales took as his text, Acts i, 8th verse, "But ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you, and ye shall be witnesses unto Me, both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost parts of the earth." The conditions necessary to leading a spiritual life were not many. When the Holy Ghost was received, a man's mouth opened in public prayer; if not in the churches, then elsewhere. There is a spiritual life which is as different from a man's every day life, as May is from March. It is the Christ life reproduced in the human life. The question is asked by many "What must I do in order that I can come in possession of this kind of life." The first condition is the hunger and thirst after righteousness. God will never give you the fulness of the gospel of peace until you are hungry for it.

The second step is obedience. Obedience is better than sacrifice. There must

BE NO STIPULATION.

Take Him in God's own way or else you will never get Him. Obedience cannot be given with a mental reservation.

The third condition is "the Glory of God." You suddenly wake up to find that you never were so happy before. From the standpoint of "Glory to Him," must we seek the blessings of the gospel. He desires you more than your body or your works. He desires you supremely.

The next step is entire surrender. You never will get all that He has till He gets all that you have. God proves you first. If you don't prove faithful you cannot prove Him. He must have all the tithes in the store-house. He withholds no good thing from you, if you withhold no good thing from him. If you say all, He will say all. The poor widow with her mite set a glorious example which will never be forgotten. If you lay your life at the feet of the Lord something definite will happen in your life.

Another condition is "taking." You must not only yield everything but take everything—continuing to receive. You must follow up your yielding with receiving. You must take Jesus into your heart. When you cease reckoning, He ceases reckoning. Reckon Him day in and day out under all conditions and needs.

There must be a stirring up before there is a settling down and then be steadfast. Its one thing to get a man converted, but its another thing to keep him converted.

The speaker closed with another strong appeal to give up everything to the Master.

AFTERNOON AND EVENING.

In the afternoon at three o'clock Mr. Bales again spoke on "The Spirit-Filled Life," treating the subject in a somewhat different manner from what he did in the morning, and bringing new aspects of sanctification to view. The reverend gentleman is evidently a deep student of the works of Andrew Murray, F. B. Meyers and other writers on the deeper spiritual life.

In the evening the building was filled. Rev. Mr. Bales spoke at some length on "The Two Gifts—Conversion, and the Anointing of the Holy Spirit." By a number of beautiful analogies from Old Testament history, and more particularly from the journeyings of the Children of Israel, he showed how that whilst the crossing of the Red Sea was a type of the Atonement, the passing over of the Jordan was typical of the blotting out of the sin principle—or sanctification or, as he preferred to call it, "The Spirit-Filled Life." He also laid emphasis on the fact that from the crossing of the Red Sea until the Israelites reached the Jordan was only eleven days' journey — a comparatively short time, and a figure of the short period that should, but does not generally, intervene between conversion and the Baptism of the Holy Spirit. For the first three hundred years of the Christian Church conversion, baptism by water, and the Baptism of the Spirit followed very closely each other in natural sequence, as many examples in the New Testament would indicate. This was not the case at the present day, but it should the aim of every pastor to push his young converts forward and not allow them to remain all their lives in a simply justified state (glorious as that position was) but to seek after the "best things" of God. The speaker pointed out the distinction between Christ with you and Christ in you. A very large number remained to an after meeting, and there were scores of seekers around the altar at the close of the service.

Bethany Tabernacle stands in the unique position of being completed at a cost of over $7,800, of which every cent has been paid. The building is of red brick, the interior being finished in white brick, with wainscotting and ceiling of ash in the natural colour. Every thing is completed in the most modern manner. Opera chairs are provided for seating about 600. They are provided with wire fixtures for coats and hats. Everything appears most complete. The plans and specifications were drawn by Mr. John Belcher. The masonry work was in charge of Mr. J. Main, and the brickwork under the direction of Mr. T. McFadden. Mr. Robert, McGregor looked after the carpentry work, and Messrs. Duncan & Gray that of the painting, etc. The plumbing contract was given to Mr. Adam Hall. The building is heated by a Pease furnace.

FROM THE CHURCHES.

MISSIONARY SUNDAY WITH THE METHODISTS.

Life Amongst the Indians of British Columbia—Rev. J. C. Davidson's Afternoon Address to Men.

MURRAY STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

The pastor spoke yesterday morning from the text "This do in remembrance of Me"—Luke xxii., 19, and his remarks were indeed very profitable. He pointed out that when Christ instituted the Lord's Supper He abrogated the passover and all Jewish rites, instituting instead a pre-eminently spiritual dispensation with its Divine programme, namely:—Repent, believe, be baptized and observe the Lord's Supper. To remain away from His table because one does not feel good enough, is to lose one of the best means of coming nearer to Christ. Alienation among members should not keep away a brother who has sought a reconciliation. The heart of the centurion was melted as he gazed at Christ upon the cross, and surely the backslider's heart should become more tender as he remembers Christ, by meeting at His table. There we should forget all enmity and remember only our greatest Friend, His love and the redemption price which He has paid. Christ most assuredly expels the doubts and unholiness from the hearts of those who simply consent to accept His offer.

MISSIONARY SUNDAY.

It way Missionary Sunday in the George street and Charlotte street Methodist churches yesterday, and Rev. Thos. Crosby a returned missionary from British Columbia, spoke in both churches during the day. He told a wonderful story of his mission work amongst the Indians, and told tales of a condition of affairs, which few knew existed within a few miles of civilization. He stated that notwithstanding the efforts of the churches, the government returns show that there are still 23,000 pagan Indians in the dominion. The most horrible usages aare still in existence amongst the tribes along the frontier of civilization. Had the missionaries been on the ground 100 years ago, many of these savages might now be leading happy and useful lives, but firewater preceded the Bible. The Missionary in Northern British Columbia, along the boundary of Alaska, has some strange questions put to him in this respect. The Indians cannot understand why the provider of the firewater was not converted before he reached the, and in connection with this matter the speeker had often to blush and be ashamed of being a white man.

Going amongst the Flatheads twenty-five years ago Mr. Cosby saw some strange customs practised. The tribe took its name from the fact that by fastening boards across the top of the heads of their young, the intellect was forced down behind the ears and the head noticeably flattened. This practice was speedily abolished. Another cruel system which was in vogue was the abandonment on desert islands of the aged, they being left to die. The Gospel is now making a mighty change in this respect. Sickness or accident was always credited to witchcraft. The medicine man of the tribe singled out a victim as being responsible, and the death torture was administered. Only two years ago a chief's wife was accused of causing the death of her husband in this manner. She fled to the missionaries for safety. The chief's mother was then accused and tied to a stake on the beach where she was gradually engulfed by the tide and drowned. Many such dark deeds are still perpetrated in Christian Canada to-day, including torture by fire. Slavery is still extant and the braves of one tribe embark in their great war canoes holding twenty or thirty men, and sweep down the coast for hundreds of miles, ravaging the villages of their enemies, and taking prisoners for slaves. Slavery even more degrading is in vogue, where little girls are sold for immoral purposes. Through this latter circumstances the foundation of the Crosby Girls' Home was created. These poor little maidens came to the missionary pleading for protection. So many came that gradually the house was filled. Seeing the need for room, a lady offered a subscription of twenty dollars towards the erection of an an addition to the house. The fund grew, and a building costing $700 was erected for these unfortunate children. The Ladies' Missionary Society was organized to help in the cause, and a grand work was now being done by that body all over the world.

The girls were trained in the Home and afterwards married to converted natives, with the result that the village, which twenty years ago was peopled by 1,000 pagans, practising all manners of indecencies, is to-day a thoroughly Christian community, the influence of which was extended to such a degree that natives come for hundreds of miles to learn the wonderful truths which is working such changes.

The man-eating and dog-eating societies are hard to control and even now the members indulge in their horrible orgies.

In the last thirty-six years thirty-five churches have been built along the coast, but more missionaries are needed. The speaker closed with an appeal to the young men not to wait to be sent to the field by the church, but to depend upon their own resources and take the field as soon as ordained.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.

A large audience of men assembled to hear the lecture on "Speculation and Gambling" by Rev. J. C. Davidson yesterday afternoon. The lecture was an interesting and helpful one. There was a certain distinction to be made between classes of speculation. Some were entirely commendable; others doubtful, and a third class, in his opinion, wrong. All legitimate speculation must bear the test of obtaining value for value given. Anything outside this moral may be considered wrong. And though in the present feverish desire for the acquisition of wealth, many were willing to speculate in ventures of greater risk, wealth, wheresoever so accumulated, brought little blessing with it.

READ THE PROOF!

GENTLEMEN,—I have for a long time needed something to make blood and build up my system. My blood was watery and thin, lacking strength and vitality. Last January a friend said:—"Why not try Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills? They will supply the oxygen your blood needs and give you health and strength." I told him I was very skeptical as to any benefit that could be derived from any proprietary medicine and had no faith in them. There the matter rested until four months ago, when reading so much about what Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills have done for so many people with impoverished blood, I concluded to give them a trial. I have taken four boxes and my unbelief so far as Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills are concerned has been entirely removed. They are a splendid blood builder and strength restorer, and an invaluable medicine for weak, enervated people. This has been my experience, they having given me strength of body and strong healthy blood.

BIG TORONTO PROJECT.

University May Sell the Old U.C. College Grounds—Mr. Beacham Offers to Purchase for $350,000.

Toronto, March 4.—There seems to be a probability that the old Upper Canada College property on King street, which has so long and so unprofitably stood in the way of the business development of that thoroughfare westward, may soon be sold by the board of trustees of the University of Toronto. A few days ago Mr. John Hoskin, Q.C., chairman of the board, received an offer from Mr. C. J. Beacham, managing director of the Arlington Hotel Co., to buy the property for $350,000, of which $50,000 is to be in cash and the balance to remain on mortgage. It is believed that in making the offer Mr. Beacham is representing a syndicate of capitalists who have a scheme for improving King street in the locality of the site. Mr. Hoskin submitted the offer to the board, and it was decided to accept it.

When Mr. Hoskin was seen last night and asked for particulars of the scheme, he said that he was absolutely ignorant of the motives which prompted the offer, nor had he the slightest inkling of any scheme for the utilization of the present property or the improvement of King street. Mr. Beacham was also seen, but he declined to make any statement at present, beyond admitting that he had made the offer referred to.

No further steps have been taken in the matter, and the proposed transaction will not be definitely settled until the first condition of the purchase has been carried out, namely, the payment of the $50,000 cash. It is no secret that the university authorities would be glad to dispose of the property, as the money that they would realise from its sale could be most profitably employed in the promotion of the development of the institution. A full explanation of the scheme is expected in a few days.

MR. FRANK DODGE

Says His Life was Saved by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto Feb. 27.—Mr. Frank Dodge, of North Maupsberg, Ont., has been visiting here recently. He is a splendid specimen of Canadian manhood, standing more than six feet high "in his stockings" erect and muscular.

"I was a different man two years ago," said he to a friend to-day. The truth is I would have died of Kidney Complaint, if it hadn't been for Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I had been treated by physicians and had taken various remedies without getting any better. I read of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and decided to try them. I did so, and was thoroughly cured in a couple of weeks.

Only One Was Lost.

Halifax, N.S., March 4.—The Halifax steamer Aberdeen returned yesterday from Sable Island. The entire crew of the wrecked steamer Moravia were saved, except the second officer, who died from exposure in the boat while landing.

A Little Girl Killed.

Orangeville, March 4.—The 8-year-old daughter of John Davis caught on to a passing sleigh loaded with wood. The load upset and tumbled over on the girl. She was got out as quickly as possible, but life was extinct.

Divorced From a Hamilton Woman.

Buffalo, March 4.—Justice White yesterday granted to Dwight E. Clough of this city an absolute divorce from his wife, Beatrice Clough, who lives in Hamilton, Ont.

Grand Trunk Engineer Swears by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Mr. Geo. Cummings, for over twenty years engineer on Grand Trunk running between Toronto and Allandale, says:—"The constant duty with my work gave me excessive pains in my back, racking my kidneys. I tried several remedies until I was recommend by my fireman, Mr. Dave Conley, to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Two boxes have completely cured me an I feel to-day a better man than ever. I recommend them to all my friends.

ASK FOR FUEL OIL FREE.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Promises Immediate and Serious Consideration.

Ottawa, March 4.—A large deputation from the users of fuel oil for manufacturing purposes waited on the Premier yesterday and asked that oil for this purpose should be placed on the free list. Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that it would not break his heart to remove the duties, but the Government would have to look into it as a practical question and see what could be done. What he understood them to want was removal of duty by order-in-council, and not wait until Parliament met. All he could say in reply was that the matter would at once receive the serious consideration of the Government.

Death of the Ven. Archdeacon Brigstocke at St. John, N.B.

St. John, N.B., March 4.—Venerable Archdeacon Brigstocke, after a short illness, died yesterday at noon. He was born at Walwyn's Castle, Wales, in 1841, and was rector of Trinity Church, St. John, for 25 years. A widow and one son survive.

Old Lake Captain Dead.

Hamilton, March 4.—John Malcolmson, well-known lake captain, died yesterday morning. He was 83 years of age, and made Hamilton his home for over 60 years. In 1855 he sailed the John Hemsen, in 1856 the John Ray, in 1857 the brig Orkney Lass; from 1860 to 1868 the barque Malta, and from 1868 to 1881 the schooner New Dominion. He had a wide reputation as a careful navigator, and in all the years of his sailing was never wrecked. He retired in 1881.

Prof. Hough's Jupiter Discoveries.

Chicago, March 3.—In the most recent text books on astronomy it is taught that the surface rotation of the planet Jupiter is similar to that of the sun, being quickest near the equator and slowest in the higher latitudes near the poles.

After observations, extending over 20 years, Prof. Hough, astronomer at Dearborn Observatory at Evanston, announces his belief that the surface of the planet Jupiter rotates upon its axis in separate envelopes, or strata.

Prof. Hough further discovered in the long series of observations that the spots shift in longitude as well as having a rotary movement, and this also supports the ring or strata theory, evidencing the great instability of the surface, and strengthening Prof. Hough's belief of many years that Jupiter is in a gaseous or plastic state.

Lady Dilke a U. E. Loyalist.

Toronto, March 3.—The United Empire Loyalists have added to their roll the name of Lady Dilke, who is of Loyalist extraction. It is expected she will send a donation, as she enquired in her application in what form to send money. The society now numbers about 900 members, and the Government has recently increased the grant by $50 a year. Colonel Shaw stated that very probably Sir Charles Dilke will read a paper at the next meeting.

GASPESIA GOT UP STEAM.

Her Twin, the Lake Ontario, Will Make Halifax Instead of Paspebiac.

Halifax, March 4.—A moderate southeast wind last evening loosened the ice off Etang du Nord. The steamer Gaspesia got up steam, and between her own efforts and a favorable movement of the ice, she made an offing of about two miles.

Will Go to Halifax.

A special from St. John's, Nfld., says the steamer Lake Ontario will come to Halifax instead of attempting to force a passage through the Gulf ice to Paspebiac. She has 330 steerage passengers, and will sail for this port this morning.

Sealers Will Be on the Watch.

St. John's, Nfld., March 4.—The first sealing steamers started last night for the Gulf of St. Lawrence to undertake the annual seal hunt. There will be five vessels in the Gulf, all of which are under instructions to endeavor to relieve the new Canadian Liner Gaspesia, now locked in the ice floes, should conditions be favorable. Fifteen sealing steamers will engage in the North Atlantic fishery.

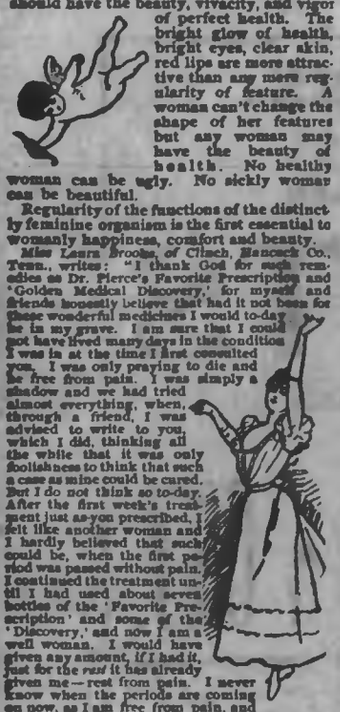
The little god of love turns away from a sickly, sallow, nervous, head-achey, back-achey, lifeless woman. Every woman should have the beauty, vivacity, and vigor of perfect health. The bright glow of health, bright eyes, clear skin, red lips are more attractive than any mere regularity of feature. A woman can't change the shape of her features but any woman may have the beauty of health. No healthy woman can be ugly. No sickly woman can be beautiful.



Regularity of the functions of the distinctly feminine organism is the first essential to womanly happiness, comfort and beauty.

Miss Laura Brooks, of Clinch, Hancock Co., Tenn., writes: "I thank God for such remedies as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' for myself and friends honestly believe that had it not been for these wonderful medicines I would to-day be in my grave. I am sure that I could not have lived many days in the condition I was in at the time I first consulted you. I was only praying to die and be free from pain. I was simply a shadow and we had tried almost everything, when, through a friend, I was advised to write to you, which I did, thinking all the while that it was only foolishness to think that such a case as mine could be cured. But I do not think so to-day. After the first week's treatment just as you prescribed, I felt like another woman and I hardly believed that such could be, when the first period was passed without pain. I continued the treatment until I had used about seven bottles of the 'Favorite Prescription' and some of the 'Discovery,' and now I am a well woman. I would have given any amount, if I had it, just for the rest it has already given me—rest from pain. I never know when the periods are coming on now, as I am free from pain, and during the time I feel just as well as at any time, and am never confined to my room as I once was. I can eat anything I want and can work at any kind of work—something I could never do till this summer. Everybody who knows me thinks it wonderful that I am not sick any more. I thank God for this friend of woman, this blessed 'Favorite Prescription.' The very name sounds sweet to me. I am causing many of my friends to use it and all are improving. I can never tell you how I thank you, dear Doctor, for your kind advice and good, fatherly letters to me."

FINERTY'S SERMON.

It Brought Praise From the Preacher Who Didn't Deliver It.

Before ex-Congressman John Finerty became famous as the great American British lion tail twister he was one of the best reporters in Chicago. He was on The Tribune, and one day a certain city editor (best known to fame as the man who always wore a straw hat and smoked a corncob pipe) decided that Mr. Finerty should be disciplined.

It was Saturday, and some time after midnight Mr. Finerty was assigned to report the morning sermon of an obscure minister way down on the South Side. Finerty was the senior, and his associates were thunderstruck. They expected an explosion, at least, but Finerty remained calm and dignified, although a trifle pale. "Then he will resign," they thought, but Finerty walked out and made no sign. To the surprise of every one, he reported the next day as usual and turned in an abstract of the sermon. Every one read it on Monday morning, and it was certainly an eloquent and carefully reported sermon.

That afternoon a man of clerical cut called on the city editor and asked to see the young man who had reported his sermon the morning before. Mr. Finerty was introduced. The man of the clerical cut would like to see Mr Finerty alone for a few moments. Out in the hallway he asked, "Of course, you were not at my church yesterday morning?"

"No," replied Finerty.

"Well, I simply stopped to thank you for the sermon. It was far more eloquent than the one I preached."

Finerty had composed the sermon in a neighboring cellar beer saloon on Saturday night.—Lippincott's Magazine.

Irving Didn't Read.

Sir Henry Irving appeared at the Theater Royal, Edinburgh, in 1857, and two years later he went to Linlithgow to give a reading there. He was delighted to see his name in big letters on the posters on arriving in the town. He went to the hall, but there was no crowd there—in fact, the caretaker had not arrived, having forgotten all about the reading. Irving went in search of him, and things were got ready; 8:30 o'clock arrived, but no one came to the hall—not even a small boy. In recalling the incident Sir Henry was wont to say, "I never slept better than I did that night."

Its Natural Effect.

"How many of these sheep got out of here?" asked the angry farmer.

"I don't know," replied the new hired man, rubbing his eyes. "After I'd watched five or six of 'em jump over the fence I seemed to lose the count. That always puts me to sleep."—Chicago Tribune.

Of No Avail.

"Prisoner," said the court, "have you anything to say for yourself?"

"What's the use?" replied the culprit: "you guys wouldn't believe me."—Philadelphia North American.

MYSTERIOUS LIGHT AT SEA.

Three Steamers Didn't Understand It, but the Prince of Monaco Knew.

The Prince of Monaco has been known since 1885 as an enthusiastic student of the sea and its various forms of life. He usually spends his summers in the study of oceanographic problems, and his cruises have on some occasions been extended almost to the coasts of America. He delivered a lecture before the Royal Geographical society in London in which he told this incident:

One afternoon, while in the bay of Biscay, he sank the trap in which he collected specimens of sea life. It went to the bottom in over 12,000 feet of water, and as night approached he fastened to the wire attached to it an electric buoy and then stood off a mile or so. It did not happen to occur to him that he was right in the track of steamers plying between northern Europe and the Mediterranean, but he was reminded of the fact later.

As he and his 14 sailors were watching with a good deal of satisfaction the swaying buoy with its brilliant illumination a steamer's lights came into view. It was soon evident that the steamer was curious to know the meaning of the illumination, for she altered her course and made for the light. She knew that no fishing boats came out so far from land and so determined to solve the mystery. Up she came to within a quarter of a mile of the buoy, slowed up for a minute, and then started ahead, perhaps a little disgusted at the incident that had lured her several miles out of her course.

She had hardly got away when a second steamer came into view, and she, too, bore down upon the lighted buoy. The marines on the prince's vessel understood by this time that the illumination was probably believed to be evidence of a disaster. Just as the prince's steamer was moving up to explain matters she was nearly run down by one of the large liners in the oriental trade, which had also left her course to render what assistance she could.

The swell was very heavy, and the prince feared a collision as the three vessels approached the light like moths around a candle. He therefore veered off and the other vessels, after standing by for a few minutes, went on their way and probably never learned the cause of that night's illumination at sea.

But the incident gave the prince a pointer. He carefully refrained thereafter from exhibiting his electric buoy on any of the much traveled ocean routes.

FOOLED IN A HORSE TRADE.

This Animal Possessed Several Remarkable Traits.

A prominent English landlord was one day riding across a common adjacent to his preserves when he overtook one of his tenants, who was also mounted. After the usual salutations they rode on in silence for some minutes, when the tenant slightly spurred his horse, a balky animal, whereupon it dropped to its knees.

"What's the matter with your horse?" asked his lordship. The embarrassed tenant remarked by way of explanation that his steed always acted that way when there was game to be found.

A moment later, to the tenant's satisfaction and surprise, a frightened hare jumped out of some bushes near by.

This so impressed the landlord that he at once drove a bargain by which he secured the tenant's barebacked beast in exchange for his own fine mount, perfectly saddled. With much agility the tenant leaped to his new horse, and all went well until they came to a small stream, whereat the landlord's new nag immediately balked. A drive home with the spurs brought it again to its knees.

"Hello, what's up now? There's no game here," said his lordship.

"True, my lord," was the ready reply, "but I forgot to tell you 'ee's as good for fish as 'ee is for game."—San Francisco Argonaut.

Mr. Cole Discovers the Power of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Windsor Feb. 20.—The following statement, which Mr. F. H. Cole of this place requests us to publish, is worthy of attention from every victim of Rheumatism in Canada.

Mr. Cole's experiment fully warrants him in making this statement.

"Words cannot describe how I suffered from Rheumatism and Kidney Complaint. I tried every cure that was recommended, but got no benefit until I began using Dodd's Kidney Pills."

"Thank God I did use Dodd's Kidney Pills, for they cured me—made me sound and well, in every joint and limb."

Those who suffer the agonies of Rheumatism or Lumbago need do so no longer. Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure them.

WRITES A LETTER ON DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

Sufferers are at liberty to correspond with the above address and will obtain full particulars regarding the great cure.

He says: My wife was most terribly afflicted with protruding piles, and contemplated a surgical operation. A friend of ours recommended the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and less than one box effected a complete cure. We were so pleased with the ointment that I tried it myself, as I have been troubled with an unsightly skin affliction which covered the lower part of my face.

For 25 years I suffered untold agony, and was treated by the best medical skill in the United States. I consider Dr. Chase's Ointment worth its weight in gold for piles and skin disease.

CLOTHES SPECIALS.

Queer Pockets and Things Tailors Have to Put In Garments.

"No special."

With that remark to the assistant who took down the measurements the tailor dismissed his patron and said that the suit would be finished "sure" on a certain day.

"What did you mean by saying 'no special' to your clerk?" asked the customer.

"Well, that means that you want your clothes made all right and without any crank things about them. Pockets are the great specials. We have customers who want, besides the regular pockets, places in their waistcoats for pencils, eyeglasses and all sorts of things. Some pencil pockets are made to hold only one pencil and some for a bunch. Eyeglass pockets are also ordered in keeping with the shape and style of the glasses, and pockets for cigars are ordered for all sizes, from the little half pencil shape to the great big perfecto. Freak pockets, inside of other pockets, are also in demand, and chamois lined pockets, which we usually make for the watch side of the waistcoat, are ordered often for trousers by men who carry silver trinkets in them.

Another class of special customers are those whose garments are made with a view to the wearer's health. Many men have an inner band of red flannel put on the waist of their trousers as a cure for rheumatism, and some driving coats are made so that sheets of stout paper may be slipped between the breast lining and the cloth when driving against the wind.

"On the whole," said the tailor, "a man in my business has the best opportunity to find out the kinks and queer points about men, not only as to their persons, but their minds."—New York Tribune.

Waste of Animal Life in Africa.

Although in some particulars oxen show undoubted intelligence, in many ways they are great fools. Thus they seem to have no knowledge of what is or is not good for them to eat. In Natal there grows an herb called "tulip," which is almost certain death to cattle, a fact with which they must have been acquainted for generations. Yet they seem to eat it greedily whenever they get the chance. Once I lost about 80 valuable trek oxen from this cause alone. This and the tale of the horse sickness, to say nothing of the record of rinderpest, will show the reader that farming in Africa is not without its risks. Indeed I know no country where the waste of animal life is so tremendous, although doubtless as the land becomes inclosed and proper buildings and winter food are provided it will greatly lessen.—Longman's Magazine.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Weatherford, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great sufferings for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidney and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by all Druggists, every bottle guaranteed.

Official Ladies and Titles.

Official ladies here are as fond of titles as Chicago heiresses. A title gives the right to embroider a coronet on the body linen. It is pleasant in a railway train to pour scent on a coroneted pocket handkerchief. La Marechale Niel thought so, I dare say, in the summer of 1859. Her husband escaped the carnage of one of the battles fought that year in Lombardy. He also assured, against heavy odds and the terrible blunders of the general staff, victory to the French. His wife was with him when his marshal's baton was brought in with a letter from Napoleon III. Niel thought Mme. Niel would have melted into tears from joy. Instead of that the corners of her mouth fell. "You are marshal, you are," she said. "That does not make me duchess."

Be Careful How You Sit.

Recently an eminent physician gave utterance to the opinion that appendicitis is more common in this country than in others because of the Yankee custom that men have—and men are more frequently sufferers from the disease than women—of habitually sitting with one leg thrown over the other. This habit, the physician was quoted as saying, restricts the action of the digestive apparatus, and especially of the lower intestine and causes stagnation of the contents and the stretching of the opening of the vermiform appendix, making it possible for obstructions to reach the latter and thus giving rise to appendicitis.

There is no other disease, if we may judge from the attention given to it by current publications, in which the general public takes so much interest as in this one, which is comparatively new to medical practice. Probably much of the popular interest is due to the fact that only within a few years what may be called the literature of appendicitis has reached the reading community.—Leslie's Weekly.

SOME TIMELY REMARKS ON SEASONABLE GAMES.

What is Going on in Local and Outside Hockey Arenas—Notes From the Curling Ice.

THE THISTLES BLOOM ON THE ROCKS.

Teams representing the Granite and Thistle curlers came together with a crash on Saturday night and at the conclusion of an hour and a half's play, when the fragments were gathered from the ice, the score stood 3—1 in favour of Thistles. Those who participated in the contest were:

Granites.		Thistles.
Dr Boucher, jr	goal	Gus Hay
A J McClelland	point	Jim Connal
H R Kenner	cover point	Alf Terrill
Geo Boucher	forwards	Tom Ferguson
R Mylie	forwards	Dr Neil
Hamilton	forwards	W Thompson
A Skill	forwards	Fred Dixon
Geo Giroux	forwards

Capt. Hollingshead made his first and, he emphatically states, his last appearance on the ice as referee. As the rushes took place at any time with or without the puck his life was in constant jeopardy. The Granites scored a game in the first half and the Thistles got their three in the last half. The following comments on the game are furnished by an onlooker:

He would have been a bold man who would have ventured on the skating ice at the rink Saturday night during the match and when I have said match it is unnecessary to explain further. Tack anything you like to the word and you will be right, whether curling, skating, dancing or slugging. Where all did so well, "it would be invidious to particularize." Yes, I think so. When first I saw them in full play, I thought they were Indians on the war path with hatchets raised. The paint was blood, and in some cases the man who owned the face also furnished the blood. As an all-round, all over everything, there is no doubt McClennan took first prize, although once when George Giroux came down with a crash on his stomach, I wavered in my decision. Poor Fred Dixon! To think that the reward of so much forethought and no little after thought should be a broken collar bone. He did not notice for some time that it was broken, I am told, as it didn't seem to make any difference in his play. With regard to the combination play, there can be no two opinions. It combined grace, speed, accuracy especially with shooting against the side of the rink) and other points too numerous to mention. There was some very exciting moments. Once when George Boucher came down the ice with the rapidity of a lumber wagon, and ran into the Thistles' defence. Miles Hamilton stood to one side, calling wildly upon his comrade to give him the puck. The latter tried to do so, but fell, whereupon Hamilton whirled round and ran head first into the fence. Too much praise cannot be given to Gus Hay and Jimmy Connal for their conscientious work in looking on and discussing the points of play during the game. The brilliant spurts of the Granites would probably have netted them more goals if the Thistles' goal-sticks had not been so close together. There is room for "kicking" here. Only one man was sent to the fence, and that was when Kenner was ordered off for cross checking himself. But to his credit be it said that he went willingly, in fact suspiciously so. Terrill did some fine work for his side. He was always on the spot where the puck had been a few minutes before. He will make a good player in about twenty years. Much of the play was spoiled for the spectators by the clouds of steam rising from the players. In the second half the stops were too frequent. Somebody's skate came off. Then another man would want a drink of water, and soon several stopped to think where they were. I looked into their faces to see if they knew, but they appeared as unconscious of their whereabouts as a six-day cyclist on the sixth day. It was very edifying to see men out of all condition pretending that they were as fresh as the proverbial daisy. Speaking generally, one is pleased to note the good material in both teams—for making sausages. Many of the players seemed to think that they were armed with flails or were out on a snake-killing expedition so viciously did they slash the ice. Had they been able to skate or stop when they wanted to do so or to go on when they stopped or had they known a hockey stick from a hay-rake there is no doubt they would have done better. The referee's decisions were rarely disputed. Several times it looked a little stormy for him, but the contestants hadn't any wind for words and contented themselves with signs. Lifting was a feature of the game. On one occasion the puck must have been lifted quite two feet. If there is anything in "form" it was there on Saturday night. They say the ice was bad. It is very probable. No ice could stand the strain. It would have been better, too, if more distinctive uniforms had been worn, such as red, white and blue and green, yellow and pink. As it was, the similarity led to mistakes, members of the same team checking each other vigorously. Towards the end signs of fatigue were apparent. Players were inclined to sit on the ice. With these exceptions the play was good.

HOCKEY.

The Intelligencer gives the following account of the game in Belleville Friday: Belleville hockeyists crowned a very successful season last night by defeating, with ease, a Peterborough team composed of three of their famous Seniors and four of their scarcely less renowned Intermediates. At least that is the assertion of their manager as to the personnel of the team.

For the first time this season, Manager Sewell had a poor sheet of ice to offer, due to the continued soft weather. In spite of this drawback the play was fast, and the game was one to delight the rooter's heart.

Although there were very few remarkable individual plays, the combination on both sides was excellent and the forwards made many dangerous rushes. The defence work on both sides was superb, Peterborough's being composed of three crack seniors, Wasson, Reynolds and Hollingshead, while Hulme, Wallace and Nolan all put up the best game they have this season.

On the forward line Belleville was greatly the stronger, the puck being two-thirds of the time in Peterborough territory. The visiting forwards were game, however, and tried to make up by swiping what they lacked in speed.

Peterborough drew first blood, scoring a couple of minutes after the start. Belleville forwards rushed things in the second game, and McGuire soon tied the score. The combination work of Lang, Mallory, Strader and McGuire for the next few minutes was as fine as anything seen here this season, and Wasson, pronounced one of the best goal-tenders in this country, was kept busy repelling the hot shots which rained on him from all sides. In spite of his efforts, ably seconded as they were by the steady work of Reynolds, Lang and McGuire each added one to the tally. Peterborough got into the game for a few minutes then and added another to their score before half time.

The second half opened with a series of desperate rushes on the part of the Peterborough wings, but in vain. Wallace played magnificently, and the rushes that he could not attend to were disposed of by Hulme and Nolan. Finally our forwards took a hand in the play, and Lang rushed it down and scored. Reynolds, who, by the way, is an old Belleville boy, offset this a minute later, scoring with a long lift, which found Nolan unprepared. The remainder of the game was merely a repetition of rushes by our forwards on Peterborough's stonewall defence. Strader, the new man on the local team, who played a fine game throughout, dropped back to coverpoint position, and Wallace went forward to assist McGuire, Lang and Mallory. The gamey little quartette, however, could not pass Wasson, who relieved by long lifts. Hulme finally made the play of the night by rushing the puck past five Peterborough men and passing to McGuire, who scored, making the tally 5 to 3. Only a few seconds remained and the play was listless. Mallory went off on account of a loose skate, and his check was sent off to even up.

THE NATIONALS COMING.

Arrangements have been made to bring the Guelph Nationals to Peterborough for a game on Thursday next. The Nationals have defeated Waterloo twice this year and an idea can therefore be formed of their strength. A practice of the local team is called for this evening at seven o'clock.

The Oriental and Morgan House boarders play at the rink this evening. Game called at 10 p.m.

The Wm. Hamilton Mfg. Co. and the Printers play hockey to-morrow night. The Printers' team is composed as follows: Goal, Dobbin; point, E. Graham; coverpoint, F. Hubbs; forwards, R. Glover, Alf. Terrill, G. Heap and T. Glover.

ITEMS OF NEWS FROM THE CHURCHES.

Some classes of investment had been condemned, which the lecturer recognised as perfectly reasonable means of profit. Ruskin for example had expressed his opinion as opposed to lending money upon fixed rates or interest. And yet Ruskin himself did not pretend to live up to his theory. Money had a certain value to a man who honoured it, and there was every reason why an individual or corporation should pay for the commission which capital represented to them. Against the present expert computation of the average of risk in life insurance, this mode of speculation could only be looked upon as most commendable. And the lecturer took the opportunity to advise every man to provide for old age, or for his family as far as he could by this means. It was a duty. But they were speculations to be condemn. Such speculations as buying up lands, and holding it unproductive, till the growth of the community had increased its value. Evidences of this kind were abundant in and about the city of Winnipeg. Where hundreds of acres of land were lying unproductive, owned by individuals living hundreds of miles away. Where lower speculation left the paths of giving in exchange for value, when the great uncertainties and excitements of chance were introduced, speculation then crossed the border and become gambling. As men and as upright men all such schemes we should repudiate. Among such a class of speculations might be placed speculations in stocks, buying wheat on margin, quite on par with the turn of the fortune wheel, or the placing of a card, and the distress, sorrow and ruination which all such gambling intruded upon the world, should make us think seriously of some limitation in this direction.

PARK STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

The services at the Park street Baptist church yesterday were most impressive. Rev. Mr. Cowsert preached at both services and also addressed the Sabbath school in the afternoon.

In the morning Mr. Cowsert preached from Genesis iv, 9, on the subject of 'Soul Winning." The contemptuous question of Cain was representative of the scorn with which many to-day view the question of winning souls from sin. This class of people were never interested in the salvation of souls. Then there were hypocrites in the church who asked this question. He always found from his own observation that hypocrites were never interested in the winning of souls, but always feared excitement about religious matters. He believed a certain amount of excitement was justifiable. There was danger enough according to God's word to make any unsaved soul excited.

Another class of people who asked the question were the spiritual babies in our churches. By these he meant those who had been born again but who had never grown out of their spiritual infancy. These required the undivided attention of a pastor and had to be dosed with spiritual soothing syrup to keep them from crying or kicking.

He believed that this question should be answered positively by every Christian, because the blood in human veins was one and the same; because God had placed the responsibility upon us in imparting to us a new life, and sending us to save others; and because God held us responsible for our influence.

We could answer the question only by living a consistent life and continually testifying to all whom we came in contact with about the salvation of God.

At the close of the address in response to a question as to how many would endeavour to win a soul during the week, nearly the entire congregation arose.

In the afternoon Mr. Cowsert gave a pointed and practical talk to the Sunday school on "Deception and the need of guarding against it." At the service in evening he gave a soul stirring address from Psalm 119, 59—60. Three steps on the human side of salvation were indicated in the text. On the Divine side all that was necessary had been completed. The first step back to God was reflection on his ways. Thoughtlessness was an almost universal sin. One half of the world do the thinking for the other half, in politics, commerce and religion. This explained why some people would vote for the devil if he were nominated. The Psalmist reflected on his own ways and not on the the ways of some inconsistent sinner.

The second step was the turning into the testimonies of God. The whole created world bore testimony to God and the psalmist had meditated upon these. Then the written testimony, though not as extensive as our Bible is, was enough to tell him of God. "What saith the Lord?" had been his enquiry.

The third step was in making haste to obey God. He believed that many people failed just at this point, the other two steps were necessary but not sufficient. Many were near the kingdom but would be lost because they did not act promptly when convinced of this need and of the sufficiency of Christ as a Saviour. He urged every one present to reflect on their ways, to measure themselves with the Word of God and promptly obey the commands of Jesus.

At each of the three services Mrs. Dingman sang gospel solos in excellent voice. They were greatly appreciated by all present.

The meetings will continue every night this week commencing at 7.30 and closing at nine o'clock.

A TRUE STATEMENT

By Foreman White, of the Hamilton Screw Works.

Hamilton, March 6.—If a vote of the people were to be taken to ascertain which is the most popular medicine on the market, Dodd's Kidney Pills would lead by a large majority.

One of the latest cures by that grand remedy is that of Foreman T. H. White, of the Screw Works here, who testifies that he was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills of Kidney Disease of eight years' standing, after other medicines had failed.

Mr. White says: "One box of Dodd's Kidney Pills relieved me, four boxes cured me. Publish this statement if you wish. It is true in every particular."

A DEPUTATION.

On motion of Aldermen Davidson and Denne a deputation was heard from the Peterborough Poultry and Pet Stock Association. Mr. R. H. Leary, the president, addressed the council and asked that a grant be made the organization, which had lost money on the recent exhibition held in Peterborough.

Mr. Wm. Collins, the secretary, then spoke and referred to the fact that the Association had secured the Ontario Exhibition for next year.

The matter was referred to the Finance Committee.

THE PROPERTY, MARKET AND HEALTH

Committee reported through its chairman, Alderman Sawers, as follows:

1. That the market tolls and charges be sold by auction on March 16th and that this committee be authorized to take all the steps necessary to hold the sale and carry it out.

2. That the following be added to the conditions of sale of the market tolls:—That no person who is indebted to the town on account of market tolls or charges shall be permitted to bid or to purchase the tolls.

3. That this committee be authorized to have a closet constructed on the market place.

4. That this committee be authorized to advertise for tenders for a lot for a new fire hall.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

JOHN SAWERS, Chairman.

The report was adopted.

THE FINANCE COMMITTEE

through its chairman, Alderman Denne, reported as follows:

1. That the Peterborough Kennel Club be given $14, the cost of the hall and light for their bench show:

2. That the following accounts be paid:

Peterborough Light & Power, 2 accts	14 55

All of which is respectfully submitted.

T. H. G. DENNE, Chairman.

THE COURT OF REVISION

through its chairman, Ald. Langford, recommended that the taxes, except school taxes of the Young Women's Christian Association for 1898 be remitted, as it is understood that the Association is being re-organized to do more of the work it was expected to do.

The adoption of the report was moved by Ald. Langford and Davidson.

In amendment Ald. Denne and McWilliams moved that the report be not adopted.

It was decided to allow the report to lie over for a month in order that the council might see how the re-organization affected the Association.

A bylaw introduced by Alderman Denne, granting the Children's Aid Society the sum of $200, received its several readings and was passed.

Alderman Davidson introduced the bylaw which appointed Mr. T. A. S. Hay, town engineer and superintendent of public works. The bylaw was passed. Mr. Hay's duties begin on April 1st.

The by-law fixing the rate at 17 mills for the year was introduced by Alderman Denne and receiving its several readings was passed.

A by-law authorizing the Canadian General Electric Co. to erect poles and wires for the transmission of power to their works was introduced by Alderman Davidson and received one reading.

The estimates for the year 1899 were submitted by Alderman Denne as follows:

On motion of Aldermen Davidson and Langford, Mr. S. Belcher, town engineer, was ordered to be paid $150 on account.

It was moved by Aldermen McWilliams and Langford, that a special committee consisting of all the members of the council, be appointed to confer with the Peterborough Water Company and ascertain upon what terms the waterworks could be taken over by the town and that the said committee have authority to engage an engineer to make a valuation of the waterworks.—Carried.

COMMITTEE ON PARKS.

Alderman Langford rose to point out the need of there being a committee to have especial charge of the parks. A little care in this respect would keep the local parks in better condition. On motion Aldermen Corkery, Denne, Sawers, and Langford were appointed a special committee having supervision of the parks.

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Mr. H. P. Kennedy addressed the council, stating that he and a number of others had organized the Peterborough Live Stock Co., to carry on operations here if suitable arrangements could be made. The capital of the company amounted to $40,000, with a subscribed capital of $25,000. Mr. Kennedy requested that a deputation from the company be allowed to meet a committee from the council, in order to submit a proposition for the establishment of a market.

It was decided that a committee of the whole council be called for Wednesday afternoon to meet Mr. Kennedy.

WE ARE MORE THAN PLEASED.

There was cheer to us all day long Saturday, in the interest you showed in this New Store. It was a revelation to many of you to find such worthy goods at so small prices. Of course, there were many grand values that you didn't see for want of display space and "elbow" room. You're welcome to come and inspect these any time.

But that is only the material side. It is the way we do business that we mean shall be more of a surprise to you. The home-like feeling must be yours when you come here Our employees must be courteous, considerate, thoughtful and attentive. You shall be free to go about, to look about, to rest, to talk, without being importuned to buy.

We will handle only worthy goods; the prices will be fair. ONE Price for one article and that price for CASH.

"I was all run down with complaints peculiar to my sex, and I broke out in sores on my body, head, limbs and hands, and my hair all came out. I was under the doctor's treatment a long time without benefit. They called my trouble eczema. Finally I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after I had used three or four bottles I found I was improving. I kept on until I had taken several more bottles and the sores and itching have disappeared and my hair has grown out." Mrs. J. G. Brown, Brantford, Ontario.

"I was all run down and had no appetite. I had a tired feeling all the time. I was advised to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I did so and it benefited me so much that I would not be without it." Mrs. G. I. Burnett, Central Norton, N. B.

THE LEGISLATURE

The Killing of Deer in the Water to Be Permitted.

A RECONSTRUCTED GAME LAW.

Hon. Mr. Gibson Says Moose Are Plentiful and Sportsmen May Have a Week at Them in 1900—Brewers' and Railways' Objections to the Revenue Bill—House Proceedings.

Toronto, March 7.—The announcement made by Hon. Mr. Gibson yesterday afternoon that it is the intention to introduce a bill this session giving effect to the recommendation of the fish and game commission for the repeal of the section of the game act prohibiting the shooting of deer in the water will be welcome news to many sportsmen. The further information he gave will also be received with pleasure by sportsmen. A number of bills were advanced a stage, and the House adjourned at 5 o'clock.

Read a Second Time.

Amongst the measures that received a second reading in the House were: Mr. Foy's, respecting the Toronto Hotel Company; Mr. Crawford's, respecting Knox Church, Toronto; Mr. Crawford's, to incorporate the Toronto Western Hospital; Mr. Pardee's, to authorize and confirm a deed of agreement between the Toronto General Trusts Company and the Trusts Corporation of Ontario, and to unite the companies under the name of The Toronto General Trusts Corporation.

In reply to Mr. J. S. Duff (West Simcoe), Hon. Mr. Dryden said the Department of Agriculture authorized the publication of the report entitled "The Newer Districts of Ontario." The cost of publication of 1,000 copies was $180. Mr. Duncan Anderson received $460 for services rendered in connection with the compilation.

First Readings.

Hon. J. T. Garrow—Bill for an act respecting the close and sale of cemeteries by municipalities.

Hon. J. T. Garrow—Bill for an act to amend the Municipal Act respecting local improvement.

Hon. J. T. Garrow—Bill for an act to amend the law respecting the liabilities of trustees.

Hon. J. T. Garrow—Bill for an act to provide that priority wages in an insolvent estate shall be paid within one month by the assignee or liquidator.

Shooting Deer While in the Water.

In reply to Dr. Pyne (East Toronto), Hon. Mr. Gibson said that 2,000 circulars were sent from the office of the chief game warden, soliciting answers to a series of questions as to shooting deer while in the water. All who had taken out licenses to shoot deer in 1897 were thus consulted. Not more than 500 or 600 replies were received, and the answers given were very conflicting. The commissioners, after discussing the subject, and having in view the strong views held by a large number of people, had come to the conclusion that the prohibition of shooting deer whilst in water should be suspended. It is satisfactory to know that the revenue the department receives from deer shooting licenses is more than the amount expended in the administration of the law. Much had been done in improving the laws for the preservation of game. To enforce those laws more vigorously would entail additional expense. There had been since the laws were put in operation a considerable increase in the number of deer. Some years ago there was danger of extinction, but these fears had vanished. So great had been the increase of deer in the eastern section of the province that he had hopes there might be an open season for moose in 1900. Other fur-bearing animals were also increasing, through the operation of the game laws. A bill was in preparation by the Government which would be more or less a revision of the present act. Experience had shown the need of revision, and the commissioners thought the act might be usefully amended.

Protection of Insectivorous Birds.

Dr. Pyne secured an order of the House for a return of permits granted during 1898 to collect birds, birds' nests and eggs, under the provisions of the act of 1889, for the protection of insectivorous and other birds.

Hon. Mr. Gibson said the number of permits had been greatly restricted, in accordance with the representations of the game law commissioners. There was no doubt that the permits for scientific purposes had been greatly abused.

The Brewers Object.

Hon. Mr. Harcourt was interviewed yesterday afternoon by Messrs. Eugene O'Keefe and Robert Davies, Lawrence Cosgrave, Hume Blake, Mr. Taylor of St. Catharines and Acting Secretary Carnahan, a deputation representing the Brewers' & Maltsters' Association, with reference to the new act respecting brewers and distillers.

The chief object of the visit was to ask the Government to insert a clause providing that brewers may sell in wholesale quantities within the municipality where the brewery is situate to other than license-holders. If they are refused this they will in cities suffer a loss of profit they now derive from the sale to householders of beer in kegs, which, in some cases, forms quite a large item of business. The deputation also discussed not unfavorably the proposed license fee, with which they found no serious fault. They are also not entirely in accord with the clause which provides for a fine of 50 per cent. of the duty in cases where the brewer makes an incorrect return under the act. It was pointed out to them, however, that the bill also contains a clause remitting the fine where it is found that the error was not made for the purpose of defrauding the Government.

G.T.R. Objects.

Messrs. Wainwright, Biggar and B. B. Osler, representing the G.T.R., also waited upon the Government with reference to the clause taxing the railways, which does not meet with the approval of that railway. The ground upon which the objection is based is that many of the roads operated by the G.T.R. were originally constructed as pioneer or colonization roads in new districts, and that they never have and do not now pay, but are operated at a loss. The company contends that these roads should not be taxed under the circumstances.

Mr. Dryden's Bill.

Hon. Mr. Dryden will introduce a bill to amend the act respecting cheese and butter manufacturing associations and companies. Under the existing act no power is given for the removal of trustees. The bill provides that where necessary new trustees may be appointed at any general or special meeting of the association.

ASSEMBLY NOTES.

Committees will meet to-day as follows: Public accounts, 11 a.m.; standing orders, 11 a.m.; railway committee, 10 a.m.; private bills, 10 a.m.

The Pullman Car Company has retained Mr. W. B. McMurrich, Q.C., to oppose the clauses relating to the company in the new Government bill. Mr. McMurrich was around the buildings yesterday.

Manager Dunstan of the Bell Telephone Company protests against the proposal to tax the company at the rate of one-sixth of one per cent., while banks are taxed at the rate of bnt one-tenth of one per cent. He was interviewing members at the buildings yesterday.

A Publisher's Statement.

"We have used Hood's Sarsaparilla in our family as a spring medicine, tonic and blood purifier, and Hood's Pills for biliousness, and have found both very effective remedies. We believe for impure blood Hood's Sarsaparilla is a good medicine" R. S. Pelton, Publisher of the Bee, Atwood, Ontario.

Hood's Pills give strength even while their cathartic qualities are at work. Easy to take.

Fog in Photography.

One serious and at the same time unsuspected source of fog in photography is often due to the fact that the blacking has slightly worn off the lens mount and there is a reflection which results in a loss of brilliancy in the negative. Constant use and endless cleaning of the lens in time wear the blacking off, and this should be attended to and all metal parts kept well blacked. Where lenses are mounted in aluminium still more care is necessary in this respect, as, wherever in such cases the blacking wears off, white light instead of yellow light is reflected into the lens.

Sometimes diaphragms of the iris pattern are greatly at fault in this respect. By reason of its construction the leaves or vanes in this diaphragm are in constant friction while being set, and thus become polished and reflective, for which reason some photographers avoid having iris diaphragms in their lenses, notwithstanding their convenience. A careful examination of the apparatus will insure safety in this matter. Stops of the ordinary pattern become in time little better than bare metal, especially at the edges of the aperture.

Women's Worst Enemy

Some hesitate before giving an answer, but those who know best will immediately say HEADACHE.

Thousands of women live in misery day after day, and week after week, suffering untold agony from these dreadful headaches. Husbands are disheartened, children neglected, and happy homes ruined. Most women strive to bear in patience the suffering which they consider part of life without looking into the cause or searching for relief. Food cannot digest without the bile which the liver supplies and hence the necessity of keeping the liver in good working order. To cure the headaches you must cure the liver and thus remove the cause of disease.

Dr. Chase spent years of his life in perfecting a medicine which acts directly on the kidneys and liver. Thousands of grateful women have testified during the past ten years to the effectiveness of this remedy for sick headaches. Many a home has been restored to happiness as a result.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, the greatest discovery of this great scientist, are put up to sell at 25c. a box. All dealers.

A SECESSION.

Lord Claud Hamilton Leaves the British Conservative Party on Account of Its Home Policy.

London, March 7.—Lord Claud John Hamilton, chairman of the Great Eastern Railway and brother of Lord George Hamilton, Secretary of State for India, has ruffled the political waters by suddenly seceding from the Conservative party. In an open letter of explanation he asserts that, while the foreign and colonial policy of the Government has his entire approval, its fiscal policy, home legislation and continual attacks upon property and capital, are "beneath contempt." Therefore he says he can no longer support the Administration.

As chairman of one of the principal railway companies, his secession was largely dictated by opposition to the Automatic Coupling bill, which involves what he considers a superfluous capital expenditure on railways. Nevertheless, his action is very disagreeable to the Government.

The Standard, commenting editorially upon the secession of Lord Claud Hamilton from the Conservative party, says: "It cannot be denied that he gives expression to a sentiment which does exist among a section of Lord Salisbury's followers."

Automatic Car Couplings.

London, March 7.—The British Railway Association has arranged to send five prominent railway officials to the United States to investigate the facts upon which the Government bases the bill compelling the adoption of automatic couplings—the measure which would give the Board of Trade power five years from its adoption to compel British railroads to supply the whole of their rolling stock with this device at an estimated cost of $10,000,000.

A CLEVER EXPLANATION.

French Foreign Minister Says Great Britain Receded From Her Position.

Paris, March 7.—In the Chamber of Deputies yesterday, M. Brunet, Progressive Republican, questioned the Government on the Muscat incident.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs, M. Delcasse, declared the facts were that the British resident summoned the Sultan to withdraw a concession to France of a coal depot on a creek near Muscat. The Sultan thereupon asked France to return the deed of the concession and France refused. The Sultan then cancelled the concession. Great Britain, however, quickly admitted France's right to the coal depot and expressed deep regret at the incident. France thus obtained prompt and complete satisfaction and the incident was considered closed.

The Foreign Minister concluded with officially corroborating the statement that negotiations are proceeding between France and Great Britain for a delimitation of their African frontiers, "in a sincere spirit of conciliation and with the view of reaching an arrangement which will guarantee a lasting understanding between the two countries."

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1899 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used. Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. RAILWAY ACCIDENTS.

Collision of a Train Running 60 Miles an Hour.

A RUNNING ENCINE EXPLODES.

Dreadful Occurrence on the Manitoba & Northwestern Railway Near Milwood —Engineer and Fireman Killed— Seven People Killed by a Benzine Explosion on a Russian Railway.

Buffalo, March 7.—Lake Shore train No. 10, the Chicago, New York and Boston special, while running at a speed of 60 miles an hour, struck a switch engine at Westfield, N.Y., last night, just before midnight. Both engineer and fireman of the light engine were so badly injured that they may die, and all the postal clerks and several passengers were badly shaken up, but not seriously injured. The engines were completely wrecked, the postal car went down a bank, the combination baggage and buffet car were overturned, and some freight cars were smashed to pieces. The road was blocked for five hours.

Later it was learned that Fireman Collins of the express was also injured and died while being taken to Cleveland for treatment.

Seven People Killed.

St. Petersburg, March 7 —Last evening a carboy of benzine exploded in a third class railway carriage on the line to Dwinsk, south of St. Petersburg. The carriage was burned, six women and a man were killed and 16 others were injured.

ENGINE EXPLODED.

A Terrible Accident by Which Engineer and Fireman Were Killed on a Manitoba Railway.

Winnipeg, March 7.—A dreadful accident occurred near Milwood station on the Manitoba & Northwestern Railway yesterday morning, by which Engineer W. Hill and Fireman Donlon were instantly killed. At the crossing of the Assiniboine there is a very steep grade on approach to Milwood station, and it was while climbing this about 6 o'clock that the engine boilers exploded, the shock taking the engine right off the track.

None of the passengers were injured.

The company's officials as yet cannot explain the cause of the explosion.

Mr. W. Hill, the deceased engineer, was one of the most highly respected employes of the company. Although but 38 years old, he had been in the company's employ as an engineer for the past ten years. He formerly came from Oshawa, Ont.

GEN. OTIS TO ADVANCE

Filipinos Preparing for the Expected Onslaught.

A LENGTHY CASUALTY LIST.

Further Skirmishes in Which the Insurgents Came Off Second Best—Disposition of the Troops Which Arrived at Manila on Saturday and Sunday—The Oregonians Under Fire.

Washington, March 7.—There is some reason to expect important news from Manila within the next fortnight. It has developed that General Otis has practically completed his plans for a grand onslaught on the insurgents, which is expected to deprive them of offensive power at least. It is probable that he will form a large part of his force into columns as soon as his reinforcements are all at hand, and will push these in parallel lines straight through the jungles, clearing out the insurgents in every direction as the troops go forward. The American troops are getting restless and nervous under the petty but annoying sharpshooting of the Filipinos, and are so anxious to put a stop to this that General Otis has yielded to their desire.

Filipinos Preparing Their Defence.

Manila, March 7.—The troops which arrived on Saturday on the United States transport Senator and those that arrived on Sunday on the transport Ohio are disembarking, and all the preparations are being made to proceed with an aggressive campaign before the wet season sets in.

The rebels, anticipating the American advance, are busy in throwing up defences in every direction, and it is reported that they are levying men and supplies in every province.

The rebels have been concentrating in the vicinity of the reservoir. Yesterday a patrol of Company G, 2nd Oregon Volunteers, was taken in ambush. Two men were wounded, but the Oregonians held their ground under a heavy fire until the remainder of the company, assisted by two companies of the 1st Nebraska Regiment, flanked the enemy, killing 30 and wounding several more.

All the native huts have been destroyed at Mariquina, and the country there is pretty well cleared, but the rebels were returning in small bodies at sundown. Apparently they have secured a new supply of smokeless ammunition recently, as there has been a noticeable difference during the last few days.

The Spanish commissioners who are endeavoring to secure the release of the Spanish prisoners in the hands of Aguinaldo returned to Malolos to offer $2,000,000 for their release. As Aguinaldo has been demanding $7,000,000, it is not likely that their mission will be successful.

THE CASUALTY LIST.

The Latest Sent in by Gen. Otis Is a Lengthy One.

Washington, March 7.—The casualty list telegraphed from Manila yesterday by General Otis is a lengthy one. It is as follows:

Killed in action—Pte. John Toles, 3rd Artillery; Ptes. Joseph W. Everington and William F. Briggs, 18th Infantry.

Died of wounds received in action—Ptes. Richard H. McLean, 1st Washington; Howard A. Olds, 20th Kansas; Edward S. Moore, 1st Montana.

Severely wounded—Ptes. Louis H. Barrian and W. H. Wheeler, 1st California.

Slightly injured—First Sergt. H. H. McFadden, 23rd Infantry; Sergt. Frank F. McNally, 1st California; Pte. James Weldon, 1st Nebraska.

The deaths during the past week from various diseases, principally varcela, were: Ptes. Richard L. Bryant, 1st Colorado; Varine Barker, 13th Minnesota; Harry L. Plowman, 1st Idaho; William J. Donohue, 1st Colorado; Sim Barber, 20th Kansas; John A. Ewing, 1st North Dakota; Frank Upham, 1st North Dakota; Joseph Marx, 1st Montana; J. L. Doran, 18th Infantry.

FILIPINOS LOST SEVENTEEN.

Insurgent Attempt to Capture Waterworks Near Manila.

New York, March 7.—A despatch from Manila, dated at 10 a.m. yesterday, reports that the Filipinos made an attempt to capture the waterworks, six miles from Manila. The attack was repulsed, with a loss to the rebels of 17 killed and many wounded. The Second Oregon and the First Nebraska Regiments were engaged. Two Americans were wounded.

MANGLED TO DEATH.

A Terribly Distressing Accident at Acton on Monday.

Acton, Ont., March 7.—Robert Wilson, aged 16, son of James Wilson, foreman in W. H. Storey & Sons' tannery here, while adjusting a belt near a shaft was caught in the shaft and injured so badly that he died within an hour. Both legs and arms and some of his ribs were broken. He was conscious to the last and wished to die. He was so badly mangled he could not be taken home. His mother, sisters and brothers were called to the heartrending scene.

Both Must Meet Death.

Ottawa, March 7.—His Excellency Lord Minto yesterday approved the order-in-council which confirms the sentence of death passed on Cordelia Viau and Sam Parslow, and they will accordingly be executed on the 10th inst.

Radcliffe, the state executioner, will be at St. Scholastique to-day, and will at once begin the preparatory work.

Cuban Flag Not Recognized.

Havana, March 7.—Tasker H. Bliss, the secretary here of the Treasury Department, has issued a statement that the United States consular agents are unable to obtain recognition or protection in foreign ports for the blue and white flag recently designed for Cuban shipping, and he warns Cuban ship masters not to proceed to foreign ports flying this flag.

May Wheat Fell One Cent, But Later Recovered Half of It at Chicago —The Quotations.

Liverpool, March 7.—Wheat futures yesterday opened below Saturday's close, but firmed up and closed at a net gain of 1-8d per cental for the day on the March and May options.

Chicago, March 7.—The weakness of the early cables, the continued absence of crop damage reports and the large world's shipments for the past week all combined to weaken Chicago's wheat market yesterday, and values fell off sharply. The May option declined nearly a cent a bushel, and the July delivery nearly 1½c. Later cable advices, announcing a decrease for the past week of 637,000 bushels in the English visible supply, caused a partial recovery.

Visible and Afloat.

As compared with a week ago, the visible supply of wheat in Canada and the United States has decreased 448,000 bushels; that of corn has increased 1,511,000 bushels, and that of oats has increased 654,000 bushels. The visible supply of wheat in Canada and the United States, together with that afloat to Europe, is 65,237,000 bushels, against 61,440,000 bushels a week ago, and 72,132,000 bushels a year ago.

FUNERAL OF LORD HERSCHELL.

A Message From the Queen—Remains Leave Washington—The Talbot at New York Ready to Receive Them.

Washington, March 7.—The body of Lord Herschell was taken to New York on the midnight train of the Pennsylvania Railroad last night, whence it is to be taken to England on the British cruiser Talbot. Messrs. Cartwright and Williamson, the secretaries, accompanied the remains.

Message From the Queen.

The following message from Queen Victoria to the President has been received at the Executive Mansion:

Windsor, March 6.—The President of the United States—I thank you sincerely and the American nation for the honors paid to the memory of Lord Herschell, and for the friendly sympathy shown to my country in its bereavement. Victoria, R.I.

The Talbot at New York.

New York, March 7.—The third-class British cruiser Talbot, commanded by Captain Gamble, arrived here yesterday from Bermuda and anchored in the Upper Bay. The Talbot was ordered here to transport the body of Lord Herschell to England. The cruiser was met at quarantine by the United States revenue cutter Manhattan and escorted to her anchorage, just south of Liberty Island, by the cutter.

As soon as the cruiser let go her anchor the Manhattan came alongside, and Percy Sanderson, the British consul-general at New York, boarded the cruiser. He was received at the side of the ship by Captain Gamble. In the meantime the guns of the cruiser began to boom for the international salute, which was answered by the saluting battery on Governor's Island.

The Talbot will take on coal and water this morning, and leave port about 11 o'clock.

The remains of the late Lord Herschel will arrive over the Pennsylvania road at 6.30 this morning. A room has been prepared on board the cruiser to receive the remains.

Fire Salute of 17 Guns.

Washington, March 7.—After conference with the Secretary of State, Secretary Alger has given orders that Fort Wadsworth at the entrance to New York harbor shall fire a salute of 17 guns when the British cruiser Talbot passes out of the harbor with the remains of the late Lord Herschell.

VALUABLE Residential Properties FOR SALE In Peterborough.

Having decided to remove to Manitoba in the spring, I have decided to sell the following valuable properties at prices that should secure ready purchasers:

Parcel No. 1. A Brick Terrace of four houses, adjoining the corner of Sherbrooke and Park streets, two storys, well built with good stone cellars full size of buildings. Each residence contains six rooms with summer kitchen. This property has always been continuously rented and pays an excellent rate of interest on the investment, and it is practically a new property, being only erected a few years, and is in good condition.

Parcel No. 2. Brick residence corner of Reid and Simcoe. Containing ten rooms. House in good condition with all modern improvements, bath, closets, heated with furnace and lighted with electricity.

Parcel No. 3. Brick dwelling corner Aberdeen and Benson streets, facing Dixon Park, containg seven rooms with summer kitchen. This property was erected last season for myself and occupied by myself. Has hard and soft water in kitchen and is a very comfortable residence. This lot is 100 feet square.

Parcel No. 4. Brick residence, corner Wellesley and Benson streets. Two storeys, seven rooms with kitchen, pleasantly situated adjoining Dixon Park. Hard and soft water in kitchen. This lot is also 100 feet square and is a similar building to parcel No. 3.

Parties desiring a good paying investment or home will find any of these desirable purchases. Particulars and terms, which are reasonable, made known on application to the undersigned.

THE ODORLESS CREMATORY CLOSET.

I have been appointed Sole Agent for the Odorless Crematory Closet manufactured by the Crematory Closet and General Heating Co., of Hamilton.

This Closet has found a place in many of the best homes in the province, and all who have used it cannot speak too highly of its merits. Medical men speak of it from a sanitary point of view, claiming that, if health is any consideration, no home should be without one. Here are some of the

TESTIMONIALS.

Alliston, March 1st, 1899.

I have had one of your "Crematory Closets in use now for several weeks and am glad to be able to say that I have found it entirely satisfactory in every respect. I have not been able to detect the slightest odor from it at any time and would not be without it. I am sure it must prove a great convenience to people in the country and in towns where water is not obtainable. Yours respectfully,

JAMES CONWAY.

Sheddon, February 28th, 1899.

I have used it for sometime and find it perfectly odorless. It is a long felt want and I believe it will become very popular especially in rural districts, towns and villages where wells are so frequently contaminated by the ordinary closets. I am, yours, etc.

W. H. MORRISON

Medical Superintendent's Office, Sept. 30th, 1897 Asylum for the Insane, Hamilton.

Gentlemen: I had the opportunity of witnessing yesterday the operation of your Odorless Crematory Closet. It had a large accumulation of fecal matter in the pan when the fire was started, and inside of 20 minutes it was all reduced to ashes. There was no odor before or during the operation of consuming the fecal matter, as the ventilation by the flue seems to carry off all odor at once, before it has a chance to vitiate the surrounding atmosphere.

Yours truly. JAMES RUSSELL, M.D.

Elmbrook, Sept. 30th, 1897.

Dear Mrs—Having been present at a private test of your new patent closet yesterday afternoon, I beg to express my satisfaction with it in every way. Neither before, during or after the burning out of its contents did I detect the slightest unpleasant odor. I am satisfied it will be a boon to thousands in rural towns, villages and country homes. Yours truly,

M. J. MULLOOK.

DISTRICT LODGE GOOD TEMPLERS.

A Successful Gathering—Reports Presented and Officers Elected.

The first annual meeting of District Lodge, No. 10, I. O. G. T., was held at Mount Pleasant on Friday, March 3rd, and was largely attended. The meeting was called to order at 3 p.m. by Bro R C Heard, D C T. After the opening ceremonies the following Credential Committee was appointed:—Bro W Kelly, Bridgenorth; Bro D R Gardiner, Mt. Pleasant; and Bro G G Pratley, Peterborough.

The District Degree was conferred on 41 members, after which the Lodge was reduced to the Subordinate Degree.

The Credential Committee reported the following delegates:

Union Lodge, Smith—Sisters E Darling and M McCarrol; Bros H Darling and Jas. Young.

Gordon Lodge, Smith—Sisters L Allen and Braden; Bros B Allen and L Braden.

Mt. Pleasant Lodge, Mt. Pleasant—Bros Thos Brown, Jas Boyd and H Bland.

Auburn Lodge, Auburn—Sisters E Pratley, E Powell and Bro W Lush.

Zion Lodge, Hall's Glen—Bro Jordan Crowe.

Selwyn Lodge, Selwyn—Sister B McConkey, Bros R Pearson and F McConkey.

City Lodge, Peterborough—Sisters C Martin, H Holmes and Bro W Dredge.

Oak Leaf Lodge, Bridgenorth—Bros W F Wilson, Thos Mann, W Kelly, Jas Mann.

Westwood and Norwood Lodges were not represented.

Reports of district officers were then called for and the following report was given by the District Secretary.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

To the Officers and Members of District Lodge No. 10 I.O.G.T.:

BROTHERS AND SISTERS,—In presenting this report as this the first annual session of District Lodge No. 10, I.O.G.T., it is gratifying to know that there has been considerable increase in the the membership of Good Templars since the organization of the lodge. This lodge was organized in Peterborough by Bro. Geo. Spence, Grand Chief Templar, on March 10th, 1898, with representation of six lodges Selwyn lodge was not represented.

The second meeting was held at Bridgenorth on May 2nd, with representation from five lodges. Selwyn and Westwood were not represented. The total membership reported for May quarter was two hundred and thirty-four. During his quarter two new lodges were organized, Norwood and Zion. The former was organized by Bro. P. G Might, with the charter membership of —, and the latter was organized by Bro. J. Stubbs, with a charter membership of 21.

Bro. Jas. Stubbs and Bro. R. C. Heard were appointed by the District Executive to hold public meetings at the different Lodges in the district to arouse interest in the temperance cause. Five of these meetings were held, the collections amounting to $4.21.

The third meeting was held at Union Lodge on Sept. 4th, 1898, with representation from seven lodges. Westwood and Zion Lodges were not represented. The total membership reported for the August quarter was 237. During the quarter Gordon Lodge was organized by Bro P G Might with a charter membership of 20.

The fourth meeting was held at Norwood on Dec. 2nd with a representation of seven lodges Westwood, Mount Pleasant and Union Lodges were not represented. The total membership reported for the November quarter amounted to 293, an increase of 32 members over May quarter.

Nine lodges have reported this quarter (February quarter) with a membership of 287. Westwood lodge has not reported.

The rebate on the per capita tax for this district lodge has been received from the G. S. for May and part of August quarters, amounting to the sum of $6.

As the most or all of you have been interested in the recent plebiscite campaign it may be of interest to say a word or two with regard to the result of the vote in the electoral district of East and West Peterborough. The result was a large majority for prohibition. The total vote polled was 3,667; out of this 2,753, or 71 per cent. of the votes were cast in favour of prohibition, and 1,103, or 29 per cent. were cast against it, making a total majority of 1,649 in favour of prohibition. While speaking on this subject it may be well to note that in a locality where a Good Templars' Lodge was instituted, the number of votes polled for prohibition were, as a rule, much larger than those polled in a corresponding locality where there was no lodge, thus showing the influence a lodge has in a neighbourhood.

At a meeting of the Peterborough Plebiscite Association it was decided to present to this District Lodge all the literature that was left over from the recent campaign. This literature is now in the possession of the County Deputy, Bro. G. W. Powell. It consists of 10,000 campaign leaflets, cartoons, etc. It is now the duty of the lodge to dispose of this literature.

In conclusion I would urge upon all lodges to increase their membership and make the total membership at our next district meeting double of what it is now.

Fraternally submitted in F. H. and C.,
G. G. PRATLEY, D. S.

Peterborough, Feb 28, 1899.

Bro R Farus, D T, also gave a report.

Reports of the different lodges were next in order, which were responded to by Bro F Gardiner, Mt Pleasant, Sister E Powell of Auburn Lodge, Bro F G Might of Selwyn Lodge, Bro W F Wilson of Oakley Lodge, Bro B Allen of Gordon Lodge, Bro Jordan Crowe of Zion Lodge, and Bro W Dredge of City Lodge.

THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS was then proceeded with amid much enthusiasm, and resulted as follows:

Bro R C Heard	D C T (by acc)
Sister E L Powell	D V T
Bro P G Might	D C
Sister M Northey	D S J T (by acc)
Bro G G Pratley	D Rec (by acc)
Bro M Nurse	D Treas
Bro G Gardiner	D P C T
Bro W F Wilson	D Lecturer
Bro G W Powell	D Chap
Bro W Dredge	D M
Sister L Allen	D D M
Bro J Crowe	D Sent
Sister F Graham	D Guard
Sister C Martin	D Asst Sec
Bro John Rossel	D Messenger

The first seven of the above mentioned officers comprise the Executive Committee for the ensuing term.

FINANCE AND CONSTITUTION

Committees were appointed, the former consisting of Bros. Powell, Might, Gardiner; and the latter consisting of Bros. Powell, Might, Gardiner and Pratley.

The meeting then adjourned until seven o'clock.

Tea was served and ample justice was done it, especially by some of the visiting delegates, who on account of the bad condition of the roads, along with a few mishaps, found it preferable to walk in some cases than to ride. This made their appetites very keen but Mt. Pleasant Lodge was equal to the occasion, and had everything necessary to assuage their wants.

The wants of the inner man having been satisfied, business was resumed at 7 o'clock in the Subordinate Lodge degree.

The newly elected officers were then installed by the County Deputy, Bro. J. W. Powell.

The minutes of the previous session were read and confirmed.

The report of the Finance Committee was read and adopted. It recommended that the Executive committee purchase, as soon as funds are available, a suitable premium which shall be presented to the Lodge reporting the largest membership for the ensuing quarter. Such lodge to hold it until some other lodge reports a larger membership; the Executive of the district will decide which Lodge is entitled to it. Any Lodge holding the premium continuously for two years shall be presented with it.

The D. C. T. appointed the following standing committees for the ensuing year:—

STANDING COMMITTEES.

Finance Committee—Bros. F. Gardiner, G. W. Powell, W. Dredge.

Constitution and Appeals—Sis. M. Buntin, Sis. L. Udy, Bro. P. G. Might and Bro. G. G. Pratley.

Political Action—Bro. G. A. Jamieson, Jas. Northey, D. M. Hunter and Bro. Thompson.

Moved and seconded that this Lodge instruct the District Secretary to write to the publishers or editors of the local papers asking them to insert the names of those persons who violate the Liquor License Law, so as the public can ascertain who are keeping the law and who are not.

The next place of meeting was then discussed. Two places were mentioned, Auburn and Bridgenorth, but on a vote being taken, Auburn was selected.

The next meeting will therefore be held at Auburn on the first Friday in June at two o'clock p. m.

The minutes of the present session were read and approved, after which the business was declared closed and the following impromtu programme was rendered;

Song	Bro Brownlee
Solo	Sister Mrs Shields
Solo	Sister Elliott
Mouthorgan solo	Bro H Matthews
Recitation	Bro E Nurse
Song	Bro Brownlee
Recitation	Sister M McCarroll

It was moved and seconded that a hearty vote of thanks be tendered Mount Pleasant Lodge for the kindly manner in which they received the visiting delegates. After the closing ceremonies of the Lodge, the meeting was closed.

SHALL SCHOOLS GIVE TECHNICAL TRAINING?

The Subject Discussed in the City of Brantford.

A MATTER OF INTEREST TO US.

Pertinent to the Suggested Action of Our School Board—Interesting Arguments Advanced.

As the local Board of Education is discussing the matter of technical schools, the appended extract from the Brantford Expositor's report of a meeting held in this connection will prove interesting:—

"The cause of technical schools in Brantford received a big impetus at the Board of Trade meeting Tuesday night. The gathering was of a cosmopolitan nature, in that it included skilled artisans, Public school and Collegiate Institute trustees, as well as the members of the board. There was but one sentiment animating the meeting, and that was unanimously in favour of the establishment of a system wherein technical education could be imparted to the youth of the city to enable them to enter the industrial establishments with some measure of technical education, which is necessary in addition to actual experience, to fit them for the higher walks of mechanical life. Naturally there are differences of opinion as to the basis upon which such a system should be established, but it is admitted that a reasonably perfect solution of the problem can only be secured by a careful scrutiny of the VARIOUS OPINIONS OFFERED.

President Preston intimated that the ordinary business of the Board would be deferred to a subsequent date, and this meeting thrown open to all who chose to participate in the discussion. Indeed, he would like it understood that artisans were eligible for membership on the Board of Trade, and that their presence would be welcomed. Technical education, in its various forms, including manual training of varying degrees, was a subject that was now engaging a great deal of attention. In Europe, and in the United States, they were very much ahead of us in this matter. Commenting on the fact that Mr. Armour, of Chicago, had lately given $75,000 to the technical schools in that city, he expressed the hope that some Brantford philanthropist might be similarly moved to do a handsome thing for the mechanics of this city. The future of Brantford was the future of her manufacturing industries, and her welfare was that of her artisans. Anything that would assist our industrial population was therefore of prime importance. He quoted the following clauses from the report of the executive committee of the Toronto city council, recommending the creation of a technical school in that city as being equally applicable to Brantford.

"Not only is Toronto behind other cities of equal size in this respect, but we have reason to suppose that our industrial progress will suffer in the future unless provision be made whereby our workers may become as intelligent and well-informed as those of other cities.

"The difference between a scientifically educated workman and one who is totally ignorant of science is as great as that which divides a blind man from one who can see. The one goes about his work in a "rule-of-thumb" manner, having, it is true, the teaching of experience as to the various phenomena he comes across in the course of his trade, but knowing nothing of the theory which weaves those phenomena into a complete system, and which will enable him to make fresh progress.

Also the following summary by Mr. Clark, who is in charge of the manual training department of the Woodstock college of the results achieved under his system:

1. It keeps the boys longer in school.
2. It helps them in any mechanical pursuit.
3. It develops the habit of carefulness.
4. It keeps pupils in sympathetic touch with the working class.
5. It does not interfere with ordinary school studies.
6. It opens up avenues to pupils who cannot succeed in ordinary studies.

Mr. Preston also traced the stages leading up to this meeting, including a statement of the steps the Public School Board had thus far taken and concluded by expressing the hope that there would be full freedom of discussion and that something of a practical nature would result from their deliberations.

Principal Burt, of the Collegiate Institute, was invited to speak on the subject, and addressed himself to the Board as follows:

TECHNICAL EDUCATION.

I am glad to have the opportunity of addressing you on this subject, not that I am by any means fond of public speaking; I am to conscious that my talents are not in the line of oratory; but I am glad to see a business question touch an educational one, for I am sure that school masters and school systems may gain much from the practical wisdom of business men, and I often feel that our courses of instruction are not practical enough, or at least practical in too limited a way.

It is, of coure, not the province of the school to give instruction in specific occupations—to make machinists, carpenters, drygoods men, lawyers, doctors or school teachers; but our courses of instruction need to be so modified that the overwhelming tendency would not be in one line, viz., in the direction of professional work. It seems to me too, that our mechanics should be as well educated in non-technical subjects as are our professional men. Before a boy can begin the study of medicine, surveying, dentistry or law, he is required to have taken a complete High school course in classics, modern languages, science, English and mathematics. This is prescribed by the great trades unions which we call the Societies of Medicine, Dentistry, Surveying and Law. It seems to me that the trades unions of the carpenters, machinists, tailors and other mechanics might wisely use their influence to ensure in those who enter these occupations, at least such a knowledge of English mathematics and science as would enable them to ply their callings intelligently, so that each man could rise to a position to which his talents entitled him, and so too that he might have sufficient general culture to enable him to dignify his position.

It is said, and no doubt truly said, that the boy who wishes must begin early, that his muscles require training as much as his mind—at the same time it is generally agreed that the training need not be specific, that a man who knows how to use all the ordinary tools well, and is acquainted with the properties of ordinary materials, can quickly learn any trade his natural aptitudes fit him for, at almost any age. What we need in our schools, therefore, is to make provision for manual as well as intellectual training, to have courses where the two may be concurrent.

TO LEARN A TRADE

This is no new idea. Germany is outdoing England in the markets of the world since she established her excellent system of trade High Schools. France, too, has made splendid provision for trade education, and old England, slow but sure, is also waking up to the consciousness that she must bestir herself, or lose the commercial pre-eminence on which the maintenance of her prosperity depends. In the great country to the south of us, technical schools have been established, often by private munificence, and equipped with the lavish disregard of expense that characterizes our progressive neighbours. Canada, too, is not without such schools, several cities and towns already having them, while others are favorably entertaining the thought of their introduction. In response to this agitation, the Minister of Education of Ontario, has agreed to give the same aid to the support of schools of this character as is now given to High schools and Collegiate Institutes.

Brantford has a proud place among the manufacturing towns of Canada. Our citizens too, have a reputation for push and energy that makes it certain that they will allow no question of vital importance to be neglected. Provision is growing to be such a question, for it is certain that those places that do most to develop latent mechanical skill will surpass others in the output of their manufacturing establishments.

And now we come to the practical point, what can we do? Provision for the security of our factories and the homes of their operatives have lately entailed a large expenditure for flood prevention, and our wise city fathers are urging the necessity of practising economy. Under such conditions, any steps now taken must involve no large expenditure of public money. We need, I think, two things: First, an elective course of manual training for the schools, to discover and develop mechanical skill in connection with general intellectual and educational training, and second, a more scientific course for mechanics, the latter to be provided in the evenings.

After consulting some of our leading mechanics and employers of labour, I gave, a few days ago, in a letter to the papers, an idea how an inexpensive provision for this might be made. I shall be delighted if the wisdom of this meeting can suggest something better, and if it can find a way to its accomplishment. Anything that the members of the staff of the Collegiate Institute can do to promote the success of any scheme that may be adopted, will, I know, be done willingly, to the best of their ability.

Mr. Burt amplified these remarks at some length. He suggested that premises be secured, and mechanical apparatus, including a lathe, drill and tools to enable classes of twenty-five to thirty to be installed with a capable instructor at the head. He knew of a man who was said to be thoroughly capable, and who loved his work, who might be induced to take the position of instructor.

Mr. Burt's remarks were received with applause.

PRINCIPAL WILKINSON

was called upon and responded. He thought the system of education had not progressed with the times, and in the matter of technical education Canada was behind the balance of the world. The manual training of to-day was Swedish or Russian. The former tended to cultivate the boy until he could make a perfect article—a box or anything of that description. The Russian system trained a lad so that he could make a perfect part In the United States the systems were combined with happy results. To-day, as A. W. Holmes said, the schools were turning out boys with no particular training for any particular purpose. He had heard speeches to children for years, but had yet to hear a speaker hold out to the boys the possibility of becoming a foreman or an expert artisan. The calling of mechanics must be elevated until it was creditable for a boy to avow his intention of going into mechanics. He disagreed with Mr. Burt as to the elective course of mechanical instruction, believing that that the obligatory course would be more practicable and satisfactory. He did not think the outfit tools would be very expensive in the commencement at least, and a higher branch might be provided for evening work. He considered that in Brantford we should aim at giving youths a general knowledge of mechanics and a taste for the work. In concluding, Mr. Wilkins touched on the splendid work done through the medium of training schools in various places. His words were received with applause.

MR. WATEROUS, JR.,

who conducted the Y. M. C. A. classes, was called on. He expressed the opinion that while a training school was important, he thought there was a branch which would be to greater advantage. If a young man wished to go into a shop he could not obtain sufficient knowledge to take a tradesman's part in a manual school, and he believed that a course of training should consist of lectures on the theory of mechanics and mechanical drawings. The young men who would take night schools would probably be those who worked in shops during the day and would not appreciate or require manual exercises,

THE CHILD CAN'T HELP IT.

When a child does wrong wilfully, there is some reason in correcting it.

But when a little one's Kidneys are weak—can't control their water at night—it's wrong to scold and punish.

Thousands of children have been whipped for wetting the bed, who simply couldn't help it.

Parents are coming to understand that this is a disease that needs curing—not a "bad habit" that requires correcting, and are giving their children which strengthen and restore the Kidneys to healthy action, and prevent farther trouble.

DOANS KIDNEY PILLS,

Mrs. Young, 15 Garish Street, Halifax, N.S., cured her little boy by giving him Doan's Kidney Pills. This is what she says:

"My little boy, 13 years old, has for several years been afflicted with weakness in the retention of his water, and did not seem to have any control of his urine.

"Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box, and must say that they helped him wonderfully. He has now finished his second box, and I feel they have cured him. He is pleased to think he can retain his water, as it was so distressing to have the trouble of this inconvenience."

SILENCE ON WARSHIPS.

The Absence of Noise Lends Efficiency to the Service.

In an address delivered before the American Medical association, Passed Assistant Surgeon J. A. Guthrie of the United States navy made some very interesting remarks on the subject of "Noise and Nerves," speaking of the great value of silence on board the modern man-of-war. He said:

"In certain landlocked harbors I have heard the inhabitants complaining of tugs and other noisy boats blowing off their whistles, especially those known as calliopes. The would be waggishness or to what purpose desire of these tug captains deserves a compensation suited to the perpetrator. Have not the cartoonists discovered the tired and irritated visitor from the provinces, racking his brains in the uproarious city, unable to collect his faculties, and has the father, night shirted and capped, marching the colicky infant in the small hours of the night, escaped this artist's humorous vein?

"All these things call to light the necessity for a scientific investigation of useless noise. In a few cities it has been proposed passing an ordinance against the ringing of church bells—this may to some disturb the "day of rest"—but why not include in this an ordinance for weekdays, the shouting of street hawkers, the clanking of other varieties of bells, the steam whistle of the factory? How much better is the silent signal, both in war and in peace. Take the popular football game, and we find that the teams under better control are those who have mastered the silent signals of command.

"One reason the modern war vessel is so deadly may be said to be because it is absolutely as accurate as a floating battery can be. And is not the cause of this accuracy due in great measure to the silent commands sent from the conning tower by the captain to each of his subordinates, shut off from him and each other by walls of steel? When an order is indicated upon a dial manipulated by electric transmission one receives the same in a tranquil state of mind, but if the order is shouted at him by one, two, three or more in rapid succession (as of yore), then there is excuse for confusion."

Coal in the Yukon.

Ottawa, March 7.—Mr. William Joel, formerly of Johannesburg, South Africa, is here on his way to England to float a company to work a huge bituminous coal seam, which he claims to have discovered. The seam is said to be five feet thick. The coal is of an excellent quality, showing 87 per cent. of carbon, and will prove a veritable black diamond mine for its discoverer. The cost of wood for fuel in Dawson is $15 per cord, and, as a ton of coal would be worth as much as two and a half cords of wood, Mr. Joel can market it at a relatively much cheaper price than wood and still make a handsome profit. The mine is on a creek, only two and a half miles from the Yukon River.

HOME ON SHIP OF WAR

Baron Herschell's Remains to Be Honored by Great Britain.

FUNERAL AT CLYFFE, MARCH 21.

Body Will Be Taken to Westminster Abbey the Day Before Interment—The Talbot the Funeral Ship—Impressive Ceremony at Washington on Saturday—Attended by President McKinley.

London, March 6.—It is announced that Lady Herschell, widow of the former Lord High Chancellor and member of the joint American British-Canadian commission, who died at Washington on March 1, has accepted the offer of the Government of Great Britain of a warship to convey the remains of the deceased to England. The funeral has been fixed to take place at Clyffe, Dorchester, about March 21. The remains will be taken to Westminster Abbey the day before the interment and the first part of the funeral services will be celebrated there. The widow, who is greatly prostrated, is still in the south of France.

The Talbot the Funeral Ship.

The British second-class cruiser Talbot has been ordered from Bermuda to New York in order to convey the remains of Lord Herschell from there to Portsmouth.

U. S. Thanked for Its Offer.

Washington, March 6.—Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador, called on Secretary of the Navy Long on Saturday, and on behalf of his Government expressed thanks for the tender of the Brooklyn to bear Lord Herschell's remains back to England, but explained that the British Government had ordered a vessel, probably the cruiser Talbot, from its north Atlantic squadron at Bermuda, for this mission. Final plans for taking the remains homeward will depend on a definite official notification to the embassy of the despatch of the cruiser.

CEREMONY AT WASHINGTON.

Funeral Services Which Were Attended by the President and Suite.

Washington, March 6.—Funeral services over the remains of the late Lord Farrer Herschell were held in St. John's Episcopal Church at 5.15 o'clock on Saturday afternoon. The services, which were conducted by Rev. Dr. Mackay-Smith, included the reading of the Episcopal burial ritual, the singing of the hymns, "Days and Moments Quickly Flying," and "Asleep in Jesus," by a double quartette, and the rendition of Chopin's Funeral March upon the organ. The attendance at the services was one of the most notable that has ever gathered in Washington on such a sad occasion.

At a little after 5 o'clock President McKinley, the Ministers of his Cabinet, Secretary Hay, Secretary Gage, Secretary Alger, Secretary Long, Secretary Hitchcock, Secretary Wilson and Postmaster-General Emory Smith, entered the church, the audience rising. They were shown to seats in front of the church next to the chancel rail. In their immediate rear were seated the members of the United States Supreme Court, headed by Chief Justice Fuller, and the members of the joint high commission, of which Lord Herschell was president. Directly opposite were seated the members of the diplomatic corps, headed by Sir Julian Pauncefote, and to their right many officers of high rank in the army, the navy and marine corps in full dress uniforms. The body of the church was occupied by Senators and Representatives in Congress and distinguished citizens of Washington.

The service was a very impressive one and lasted nearly an hour. The church was opened shortly before 3 o'clock for the reception of floral offerings, which were as notable for elegance as they were in number. Particularly beautiful was the tribute of the Anglo-American high joint commission. It consisted of a wreath of palms, which was massed red and white roses and calla lilies. Extending upward from the base of the wreath were the British and American flags, entwined with crepe and gracefully looped bows of purple ribbon lay between them. The offerings sent from the Executive Mansion and the British embassy were conspicuously beautiful. Numerous wreaths of ivy and fragrant violets were among the tributes which lay upon and about the casket.

Have 50 Lives Been Lost?

New York, March 8.—The National Line freighter Port Melbourne, which left this port Jan. 27 for London, is despaired of. Her commander was Capt. Smith, and she carried a crew of about 50 men. Thirteen to 15 days is her usual time for the trip.

Another vessel upon which the rate of insurance had been increased is the British steamer Croft, Captain Land, which left New York Jan. 29 for Leith and Dundee. She has not yet arrived.

Want Better Relations.

New York, March 8.—At the monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday resolutions were passed authorising the committee on foreign commerce and the revenue laws to take steps for the promotion of better trade relations between the United States and Canada.

Her Majesty Getting Young.

London, March 7.—In view of the fact of the Queen's approaching visit to the Continent, Englishmen are especially interested in Her Majesty's health. It is announced that, except for an occasional attack of rheumatism, Her Majesty is now enjoying remarkable health, unimpaired as it is by the burden of her old age. Her nervous headaches, which formerly caused her so much suffering, are now things of the past. Her Majesty's hearing is as acute as that of a girl of 20, and, though she suffers slightly from weakness of the eyes, her eyesight is keener than that of many young women.

They will demand that the Viceroy appoint a special deputy to arrange the matter.

When a man dies they put a tombstone over him and carve compliments on it. But they don't tell what killed him. If they did you could go into any cemetery and find on one stone in every six the words—"consumption," "pneumonia," "diseased lungs." And if the truth were all told most of them would say also—"due to carelessness."

More men die of consumption than are killed in battle. Consumption is more deadly than rattlesnakes, and yet men run from the snake, and invite consumption.

The time to cure consumption is before it starts. A "little cough" is easy to cure. Weak lungs may be made strong before disease gets in.

DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

Is the one medicine that is successful above all others in the treatment of throat, bronchial and lung diseases. It is a general cleanser and tonic for the weak stomach and for the whole system but it also acts specifically on the throat and lungs. It makes rich, red blood, builds up flesh and strength and renews the vigor of the whole body.

Sold everywhere by dealers in medicine. Be sure you get the genuine. Don't take a substitute.

Mrs. M. Hartrick, of Demster, Oswego Co., N. Y., writes: "I have lost two daughters in less than five years with consumption and scrofula. My eldest son was taken, two or three years ago, with hemorrhage from the lungs. It troubled him for over a year. He took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and has not had a bleeding from the lungs in over a year. Your medicine certainly saved his life."

THE RESTFUL CALM OF HOME.

Nothing Keeps Us Younger or So Smooths Out Our Trials.

"It is high time that our women should lead calmer lives," writes Edward Bok of "The Rush of American Women" in The Ladies' Home Journal. "They should get away from the notion that what we call 'progress' in these days demands that they shall fill their thoughts and lives with matters at the cost of their health or peace of mind. Our homes must have more of a restful calm, and our wives must not be lured into nervous haste and forgetfulness by wrong ambitions or foolish ideas of what the world expects of them.

"There must be left to every woman a clearly defined interval of leisure for the enjoyment of those influences which make our firesides homes of rest and places of satisfying and uplifting calm. It is a pardonable failing to have a pride in the beautiful things which our homes contain, but we must not let that feeling take the place of the influence the home itself exerts on those who make it or live in it. Let us live in and know our own homes, and get the advantage of that restful calm, than which nothing keeps us younger or more surely smooths out the trials of the day. If mothers will be calmer we shall see our girls becoming less nervous and more restful.

"Every home should have a central figure of restful tranquillity. Then would the influence go out to the children. But that can only be done by getting away from the confusing rush of too many duties, by arranging our lives so as to have time for hearthlight rest, by being at leisure with ourselves, by keeping the work of the home inside and the world outside within boundaries, by giving ourselves time to measure labor with its results, by looking into ourselves and seeing what and how much we can do for others. Tranquillity is a priceless possession to either man or woman. It is worth many a sacrifice to enjoy it and to gain that freeness of heart which will enable us to drink deep and long of love and home."

A TRUE STATEMENT

By Foreman White, of the Hamilton Screw Works

Hamilton, March 6.—If a vote of the people were to be taken to ascertain which is the most popular medicine on the market, Dodd's Kidney Pills would lead by a large majority.

One of the latest cures by that grand remedy is that of Foreman T. H. White, of the Screw Works here, who testifies that he was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills of Kidney Disease of eight years' standing, after other medicines had failed.

Mr. White says: "One box of Dodd's Kidney Pills relieved me, four boxes cured me. Publish this statement if you wish. It is true in every particular."

MYSTERIES OF VENUS.

Speculations and Reckonings Concerning the Beautiful Planet.

The most beautiful planet and the one that comes nearest to the earth and most resembles the earth in size is at the same time the most mysterious. Is Venus a living world or dead one—that is to say, is it in a condition to support inhabitants, and is it probable that such inhabitants are there, or, on the other hand, is it unsuited for their presence and barren of living forms?

These questions astronomers at present are unable to answer, but their efforts to answer them and the observations that they have made of the mysterious planet possess an almost startling interest.

First let us briefly recall what Venus is. It is a globe like our earth and of very nearly the same magnitude, having a diameter of about 7,700 miles, while that of the earth is a little more than 7,900 miles. So nearly of the same size are the two planets that if we could view them from an equal distance we should be unable without the aid of instruments of measurement to detect any difference between them. The substance of Venus is slightly lighter, bulk for bulk, than that which composes the earth, but the difference in this respect is so little that again it would require special examination to distinguish by weight between a cubic foot of the soil of Venus and an equal amount of the soil of the earth. It follows that on Venus the force of gravitation or the weight of bodies does not greatly differ from that on the earth. If we could step upon Venus, we should find that we had parted with a few pounds weight, but the difference would not be very noticeable, except perhaps on the race track.

But this planet, so like the earth in many respects, is very different from our globe in its situation. The earth's distance from the sun is 93,000,000 miles; the distance of Venus from the sun is 67,000,000. This difference becomes a matter of great importance when we consider the effects which the sun produces upon the two planets. Heat and light, as everybody knows, vary inversely as the square of the distance. When we compare the square of the earth's distance from the sun with the square of Venus' distance, we find that the former is about double the latter. This means that Venus on the average gets twice as much heat and light from the sun as the earth gets.

But, on the other hand, we know that all forms of life depend for their existence upon the radiant energy of the sun. On the earth, when we pass from the arctic region toward the equator, we find the number of living forms and the variety and intensity of the manifestations of life continually increasing until in the equatorial zone earth, sea and air are all crowded with animate and growing things. The touch of the sun everywhere produces life, and in the absence of sunshine is death. It is but natural to infer that Venus, having twice as much sunshine as the earth, should be proportionately more crowded with animal and vegetable inhabitants, and that the intensity of life there should be correspondingly greater. Some geologists have thought that there was a time when the climate of the earth was so hot that tropical plants and beasts lived abundantly around the poles. A similar condition of things might be supposed now to prevail upon Venus.—Harper's Round Table.

High Priced Fish.

At a certain season of the year—usually about the 1st of October—it is the custom of the commissioners who have charge of the great parks in Chicago to permit fishing in the artificial lakes at certain hours in the morning, the fishermen in all cases being required to use the boats that are kept for hire. This is to prevent the banks from being thronged with gangs of hoodlums.

Early one October morning the editor of one of the great Chicago dailies appeared at a West Side park with a friend, both equipped with fishing outfits of the most approved pattern. They secured a boat, and then the editor inquired if there were any live minnows on hand.

The keeper of the boathouse inspected his bait bucket and found just one, a diminutive specimen about an inch and a half in length. He fished this out and handed it over. Handing him a silver half dollar and telling him to keep the change, the editor took the minnow, climbed into the boat and rowed out to the middle of the lake, where he fished for half an hour without result.

At the end of that time he hauled in his line, looked carefully at the minnow, took a pencil and notebook from his pocket, did a little figuring and returned to the shore.

"What did you get?" he was asked when he appeared at the office later in the day.

"One fish," he replied, "and it cost me $900 a pound."

This, it is believed, is the highest price ever paid for live fish in Chicago.—Youth's Companion.

Diplomacy.

One day a gentleman was holding a conversation with his wife in the presence of their 5-year-old son, and among other things mentioned was "diplomacy."

"Pa," said the youngster when a break in the conversation allowed him to interfere, "what does diplomacy mean?"

"Diplomacy, my son," said the father, "is this—doing exactly the right thing at exactly the right moment."

"Then I suppose I used diplomacy when I got out of the pantry yesterday, dad, did I?"

"What do you mean?" was the reply.

"Why," said the son, "I got into the back yard with that meat pie just at the moment ma caught the cat in the pantry and told you to drown her for thieving."—Pearson's Weekly.

THE RUNNING CINCH.

Its Meaning and Economical Uses Explained by a Western Sheriff.

"It is in the newly settled regions of the far west, where bad men congregate and turn loose, that the running cinch works to best advantage, and it saves costs to the community and trouble to the sheriff," said an ex-sheriff from New Mexico to a reporter in the office of an up town hotel. "It works well all round and satisfies everybody concerned except the man that is cinched, and he never complains, because he's dead.

"You see, it often happens that a sheriff in a wild and woolly region, with the best intentions, has a live prisoner on his hands that ought by all good rights to be planted. He is responsible for his safe keeping in a jail that a cow could walk through, and he knows that the man is dangerous every minute that he lives. The prisoner's friends outside are plotting to help him escape on the one hand, and on the other there is always the chance that the citizens get up a necktie party and call for the prisoner with a rope, which is a reflection on the sheriff and gross disrespect to the majesty of the law.

"These things worry the sheriff, and he thinks he's stood enough of it, so he leaves matters loose in the jail, and there is not much of a watch kept that any one can see, and the prisoner, seeing nothing to hinder, walks out some day and runs for it. He does not get far. The sheriff has everything prepared, with men waiting, and the prisoner is bored and ballasted with lead before he has time to make much of a show as a pacemaker.

"The Mormons have used the possibilities of the running cinch the most systematically, and in the days when they held cards and spades in Utah a 'gentile' prisoner in their hands was liable to be overpersuaded if he declined to take advantage of the chances they gave him to run. During the building of the Union Pacific road through Utah the jail at Brighamville, 40 miles from Salt Lake City, became famous for this. Although the prisoners comprised the toughest class of men, such as naturally flocked to the country as the railroad advanced, no effort was made to hold them in jail, and a door or window was always left open somewhere at their service should they feel inclined to walk out. But none ever got away or outlived his experiment in breaking jail. The Mormons in official authority are always good shots, and the prison guards kept their practice up in this way.

"It was through an atrocious misuse of the running cinch that the great Apache chief Mangas Colorado was killed by United States soldiers about 40 years ago. He had surrendered as a prisoner of war and was held under guard in camp when the plot was made for his death. As he refused the opportunities given him to run he was pricked with a redhot bayonet thrust through the wall of the tent in which he was lying. At that he sprang from the tent and was killed by the guard as an escaping prisoner. This dastardly murder, which was wholly without justification, proved a costly crime for the government in the end. After this the Apaches would not trust the white man's word, and long wars followed as a consequence, in which thousands of lives were lost and vast expense incurred."—New York Sun.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicans had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters;' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents a bottle every bottle guaranteed.

Worth Waiting For.

During a performance at at the Tynemouth Aquarium, a couple from Old Hartley were among the audience. When half time arrived, an attendant placed on the stage a board inscribed with the word "Interval."

"W'at's that, Geordie?" asked the wife. Geordie spelled the word.

"I-n, in; t-e-r, inter; v-a-l, interval."

"But w'at is't?"

"Aa divvent knaa, lass. The foaks is aall gannin oot; but we'll stop to see it!"—San Francisco Wave.

In 1666 the great fire in London burned over 436 acres, destroying at least $35,000,000 worth of property. In 1872 the Boston fire burned over 60 acres, at a loss of $1,000,000 an acre. If the same fire occurred today, it would cost, at the very lowest estimate, $100,000,000. In 1898 the loss on the 2½ acres burned over was over $350,000,000.

SHALL SCHOOLS GIVE TECHNICAL TEACHING?

and this could be dispensed with and the entire time devoted to technical instruction.

SUPERINTENDENTS SPEAK.

Superintendent Detwiler spoke on the subject first. He placed himself on record as favourable to the suggestion and expressed the sincere hope that the enterprise would go through.

Superintendent Gilmour followed. He thought the idea was an admirable one, but differed on the theory that machines should be used, for the reason that in many trades the workmen did not use machines of any description, but used tools only.

Mr. Preston remarked that a number of Brantford mechanics had taken this correspondence course, thereby justifying the proposed technical course in Brantford.

Mr. W. H. Shapely followed at some length. What we wanted to enable Brantford to retain her position in the lead of manufacturing cities, was to teach the boys in the factories at night, those branches of expert mechanical training which they could not obtain during the day.

Mr. Henry Yeigh followed, briefly commending the idea, and expressing the opinion that machines should be utilized in any training school which might be started.

PROMPT ACTION WANTED.

Mr. W. F. Cockshutt moved the following resolution to bring the matter to a head: Moved by W. E. Cockshutt and F. Grobb, that the Board of Trade believes it to be of great importance to the manufacturing interests of Brantford, and to the artizans and youth of the city that so far as may be found practical manual training be introduced into our city schools, and that night classes be established for the purpose of imparting technical instruction to all who may desire to avail themselves of the privilege. That in furtherance of this view the council of this board be requested to seek the advice and co-operation of the various school boards, and to report some feasible scheme at its earliest convenience.

In placing his resolution before the board Mr. Cockshutt made a rattling speech. He thought not a moment should be lost in getting some measure of this description. Brantford was in arrears in this matter, and he believed this city had enough public-minded citizens to put the suggestion on a substantial basis. He would be one of twenty to subscribe $50 each, or one of ten to subscribe $100 each toward a technical school. He believed in commencing in a small way and adding as the necessities of the case seemed to demand. It seemed as though there were two lines waiting to be developed, the first with the young child in the public school, and the other with the young men who already are entered in the various shops, but who desire to secure the theoretical education which they could not obtain at the bench.

Secretary Hately stated that so far as he was aware the school children in the public schools did not get an education in mathematics, and that as many did not enter the Collegiate at all they lost this necessary equipment for mechanical life.

Chairman Leitch, of the public school board, discussed the matter of education in the public schools, agreeing that something should be done towards establishing a more practical system in some respects than that in vogue at the present time. The school board had recently secured concessions by which pupils were admitted, free of charge, to the fifth form training of the Collegiate Institute, and in this way had an opportunity to secure the mathematical training which several of the speakers had described as necessary to the advancement of a mechanic.

Rev. Father Lemon put himself on record as heartily in accord with the proposition. He felt convinced from his experience that the establishment of some measure of mechanical training would save many a boy from a criminal's life, and make honest, wage-earning mechanics of lads who under existing circumstances went to swell the reformatories of the country. He quoted in evidence of this the magnificent work of a Catholic Brotherhood, which trained youths in whatever calling for which they seemed to indicate an aptitude.

President Preston invited the entire gathering to vote on the resolution, which was carried unanimously. Mr. Preston then thanked the representatives of the industrial establishments for their attendance, remarking that they had greatly strengthened the hands of the board by their outspoken approval of the suggested schools, and the opinions volunteered in connection therewith.

The meeting then adjourned.

HOCKEY.

Some weeks ago the Oriental Hotel issued a challenge to play a team from any or all of the hotels in town. The Morgan House jumped into the breach and took up the challenge. Last night the match came off, and the Oriental chaps won't be quite so swift with their challenges another time, as they met with a Waterloo indeed, being defeated by 11 goals to 1. Morgan of the colts proved a great acquisition to the team from Powis's house. He scored nearly all the goals, although Fred Lund is credited with one when he scored with the puck, the goalkeeper and two or three other players. Ernie Wasson proved a cover point whom the Orientals could not pass. On the whole the Morgan House aggregation completely out-classed the Orientals, nearly all of them being good skaters and neat stick handlers. The teams were composed as follows:—

McDowall	goal	W Macdonald
C Ritchie	point	E Graham
E Wasson	coverpoint	A If Terrill
F Lund	forwards	H R H Kenner
H Morgan		Dr Neill
F D Kerr		T McDonough
E Milburn		M Maguire

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady of this country. "Disease fastened his clothes upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz., Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Sold by all Druggists at 50 cents and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

SNOW-PLOUGHING.

To the Editor of The Examiner:

Dear Sir,—Allow me to ventilate a grievance. I hate growling, but there is a limit, even to my patience. Several times during the past two winters I have felt there was occasion for some one to "kick up a dust" about the snow-ploughing in the North Ward, and although I have felt very wrathy on several occasions I suppose the "limit" point had not been reached or I should have done it myself.

Sunday's experience, however, furnished the last straw, and I feel that to allow the matter to pass now without remonstrance would be to countenance a laxity in duty which amounts to dishonesty and imposes an intolerable nuisance on the public.

A few years ago the snow-ploughing throughout the town was done in a business like manner. The ploughs were out early enough to have the principal streets cleared by the time the working people left their homes, and in a manufacturing town like Peterborough where this class is numerous, and many of them are women and girls, this was an important matter. But for the past two or three winters this has been changed, and the contractor now goes his round when he likes, and never in time to be a benefit to the working class. The consequence is, that on account of the snow having been tramped down hard, the plough is raised so as to leave about six inches of snow still on the paths, causing a ridge in the middle of the pathway dangerous to elderly people and exceedingly annoying to even sure-footed person. If, through any cause, the plow is swerved off the walk the driver keeps straight on, regains the path when he can, but appears to consider it no part of his duty to go over the portion thus missed a second time. The crossings he utterly ignores and in turning a corner after a heavy fall will pile the snow a foot deep on them and leave it to pedestrians to wade through the best way they can. To say that the snowploughing in this ward has been done in a disgraceful manner is to use the wrong expression—it has not been done at all. The purpose of the snowploughing contract is to have the paths cleared of snow. This has never been done and not a yard of pathway has been properly cleared this winter by the plow, whilst on several occasions the contractor has shown his indifference to his work by not sending the plow around although snow had fallen.

Sunday morning the paths were covered with three inches of snow, thoroughly saturated by the rain which had succeeded the snow, rendering the walking about as bad as it could possibly be, nevertheless the plow was not out till too late to have the paths cleared when the people returned from church. The plough passed my door at 10 minutes to 1 and its work at that time was not half done.

I understand that the amount to be paid on Ward 4 contract this year is $100. The work has been "farmed" out at a cost of less than $10 to the contractor, leaving him a profit of about $90 on the job. Of course, if there had been a greater fall of snow the work of clearing would have been greater. But last winter the fall was heavy and the work, as it was done, could not have cost the contractor more than $20.

Evidently the sum paid for this work is sufficient to ensure it being well done, and it would be interesting to the residents in the ward to know whether it was stipulated in the contract that the contractor may do it as he pleases, or, whether some one has been derelict in his duty in not insisting on the proper fulfilment of the terms of the contract. I know that I voice the general opinion in saying that the snow plow is simply a nuisance and I think it would be a good act on the part of the council to abolish altogether our present system of clearing our pathways and enact, by by-law, that everyone shall clean the path in front of his own property. This would save the cost of this work to the town and put many a ten cent piece in the pockets of needy persons who would be only too glad to clear the paths of those who do not care to do the work themselves, and it is the only way we shall ever get clear sidewalks.

Yours etc.,
WARD NUMBER FOUR.

[The comments of our correspondent are none too strong. The snowploughing as he intimates is disgracefully—not done. A gentleman from the West Ward called yesterday to say that in that ward it was two o'clock before the walks were cleared—not cleared but dragged over—in the vicinity of his residence. In No. 2 Ward it was eleven o'clock before the plough was brought out and it would not probably been out then if Mr. Ranney had not personally seen to the matter. The snowploughs are supposed to be out at four o'clock in the morning when necessary. If they had on Sunday morning gone out at that hour the street cleaning (so-called) would have been, as last fall's sewer work should have been, over at a time when it was begun. The city fathers are to blame in not keeping the contractors up to the mark. The two hundred or so dollars spent on snowploughing in a season is, so far as effective and proper work is concerned, the best wasted of all civic expenditures.—ED. EXAMINER.]

THE MUSCAT AFFAIR.

Great Britain Did Not Back Down as Insinuated.

THERE IS ANOTHER ASPECT.

France Had to Relinquish All Claims to Territorial Rights—The British Agents Were Not Disavowed—An Early Settlement Expected Between France and England—News by Cable.

London, March 8.—The Parliamentary Secretary of the Foreign Office, Right Hon. William St. John Broderick, answering a question in the House of Commons yesterday, gave a different complexion to the Muscat incident than the version of the French Minister of Foreign Affairs. Mr. Broderick said: "We hold that the action of the British agent in threatening a bombardment of Muscat was absolutely right. By the convention of 1862 there is nothing to prohibit France from having a coal store at Muscat, provided there is no cession of territory, and it is understood that France will avail herself of this power, subject to those limitations."

Early Settlement Expected.

Paris, March 8.—The following semi-official note was issued last evening: "A satisfactory settlement between France and Great Britain of the questions arising out of the Fashoda incident may be expected within a fortnight. The delimitation of the respective territories has so far advanced that the starting points and general direction of the frontier have already been arranged and Great Britain has admitted that France is entitled to a commercial outlet on the Nile."

FILIPINO SHARPSHOOTERS

Continue to Kill Stray American Soldiers With Their Running Fire.

Manila, March 8.—A detachment of General Hale's and General Wheaton's brigades was engaged for two hours yesterday morning clearing the country in front of their lines on both sides of the river, the enemy concentrating with the apparent purpose of cutting off the garrison at the waterworks. The rebels bolted at the first sign of the advance, but they separated into small bodies whenever the covert afforded opportunities and kept up a running fire. The casualties reported are: Capt. O'Brien of Company F, First Wyoming Volunteers, and two men, slightly wounded. The rebels' loss was heavy. No rebels were visible at noon.

Yesterday afternoon General Hale's brigade continued the work of driving out the rebels from the country between the reservoir and the waterworks, a distance of about three miles. The country is now clear on the left of the river, but the enemy is still in front of Gen. Wheaton's line. Near San Pedro Macati they have been actively attempting to make the position of the 6th Artillery on the hills untenable, the sharpshooters keeping up a constant fire all day.

Private Lovejoy, Company C, Washington Volunteers, was killed by a stray bullet, and Major Bell, 7th U. S. Cavalry; Private Young, Company M, 20th Infantry; Private Curran, Company H, 20th Infantry, and Private Sparks, Company I, First Wyoming Volunteers, were wounded yesterday.

Canadian Produce in Britain.

London, March 8.—By returns published yesterday it is gathered that the imports from Canada to the United Kingdom for February are as follows: Cattle, 1,502, value £30,240; sheep, 463, value £674; wheat, cwts., 167,900, value £58,392; wheat meal and flour, cwts., 94,500, value £48,156; peas, cwts., 18,800, value £5,417; bacon, cwts., 80,983, value £23,105; hams, cwts., 8,048, value £15,048; butter, cwts., 1,512, value £6,219; cheese, cwts., 10,001, value £23,876; eggs, great hundreds, 388, value £1,363; horses, 34, value £800.

Italy Demands an Apology.

Rome, March 8.—The Italian Government is fully determined to obtain an apology from China for the Tsung Li Yamen's refusal of the demand of Signor Martino, Italian minister at Pekin, of a concession at Sanmun Bay, Province of Chekiang, to be used as a naval base and coaling station. A squadron of five cruisers, with 100 guns and 1,500 men, will soon arrive at Sanmun Bay.

The Ameer All Right.

London, March 8.—The Calcutta correspondent of The Times says: "News has just been received here from Cabul, under date of Feb. 25, which says the Ameer of Afghanistan was then in excellent health and had just held a public durbar."

Duty on Bounty-Fed Sugar.

Calcutta, March 8.—The Government has decided to introduce in the Legislative Council on Friday a bill modelled on the United States act of July, 1897, giving the Government power to impose a countervailing duty on bounty-fed sugar imported into India.

Choate Slept at Windsor Castle.

London, March 8.—The U. S. ambassador, Mr. Joseph H. Choate, returned from Windsor at noon yesterday, after having been formally presented to Queen Victoria, and having passed the night at the castle.

Earthquake in Japan.

Yokohama, March 8.—A severe earthquake shock was experienced here at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, the disturbance visiting the locations of the great shock of 1891, with some loss of life and property.

Von Knorr Resigns.

Berlin, March 8.—Admiral von Knorr, commander-in-chief of the navy, has resigned. His intention to take this step was announced last autumn.

Have to Eat Horses.

Strasburg, March 8.—All kinds of meat are excessively scarce throughout Alsace-Lorraine, and prices have risen and are rising correspondingly. Many are driven to use horse meat, and the killing of horses at the public slaughter-house is on the increase. Last year at this abattoir 1,100 horses were killed, as against 900 in 1897 and 800 in 1896.

FIFTY-FOUR WERE KILLED.

Funeral of the Victims of the Toulon Powder Explosion Disaster.

Toulon, March 8.—The funeral of the victims of the powder magazine explosion took place yesterday and was attended by enormous crowds of people, the funeral procession extending two kilometres. A dozen cars carried the 51 coffins. The Minister of Marine, M. Lockroy, and many Government and local officials followed the remains to the cemetery.

The deaths resulting from the explosion number 54, and 180 persons were injured. The reports that the catastrophe was the result of a crime are renewed.

The Petit Journal asserts that a fuse five feet long has been found in the ruins of the magazine.

M. Lockroy, Minister of Marine, in the course of an interview had with him by a representative of The Gaulois, said that none of the theories advanced were admissible. "Imprudence on the part of the personnel," he added, "was impossible, as the explosions occurred several hours after the gates had been closed. The heating theory, too, is unsound, as the temperature of the building was always low and the air dry."

Dynamite Cartridges Found.

Toulon, March 8.—A sensation has been caused here by a report that 19 dynamite cartridges were found behind the Toulon arsenal and by the further report that some person, not yet identified, had fired three revolver shots at an arsenal sentry, none of them, however, taking effect.

The Pope Is Convalescent.

Rome, March 8.—The following bulletin was issued last evening: "The condition of the Pope continues very satisfactory. His functions are normal. As the august patient must be considered cured, as regards the operation, no further bulletins will be published."

British Imports and Exports.

London, March 8.—The Board of Trade returns for February, issued yesterday, show a decrease in the imports of £184,900, and an increase in the exports of £1,740,000.

Canadian Grown Tobacco.

Toronto, March 8.—J. N. Wigle of Ruthven went to England some months ago to try and find a market there for the tobacco produced in Essex County. Yesterday he returned with P. Bailey of Liverpool, a man who has been connected with the tobacco trade all his life. They intend to form a joint stock company to prepare the tobacco for the English market. They can get from 8 to 16 cents a pound in bond for all the tobacco we can raise.

A Slave Who Prospered.

Windsor, Ont., March 8.—Louis Payne, probably the oldest resident in Sandwich South, is dead. He was an ex-slave. Fifty years ago he fled from Kentucky and found his way to this district. He engaged in farming, and acquired a comfortable home and much wealth.

DEADLY COAL OIL GAS

Five Men Overcome by Oil Tank Fumes at Sarnia.

HEROIC MEASURES REQUIRED.

One After Another, Until Five Went Down, Were Suffocated in a Big Still—Boilermakers Came to the Rescue, But Hours Elapsed Before the Men Were Out of Danger.

Sarnia, Ont., March 8.—Shortly after 7 o'clock yesterday morning Archie Galloway, who is foreman over a gang of men at the Imperial Oil Company's Works here, ordered some of the men under his instruction to clear out one of the oil tanks in the company's yards at their works in the fourth ward. James McCue proceeded down into the huge tank. When he reached the bottom he was seen by his fellow employes to fall down.

Another workman named John Carter went down to rescue McCue, but no sooner reached the bottom of the tank than he too was overcome by the fumes of the gas.

Foreman Galloway was the next to attempt the rescue of the men and he shared the same fate as the preceding two men.

Henry Willis then came to the unfortunate men's rescue, but he too was overcome, as was also another employe named William Brimbs.

By this time the alarm had been given that some men were being smothered in a still, and a gang of men from the boiler shops were soon on the scene and proceeded to tear the covering from the mammoth still to allow the gas to escape and thereby make it safe for men to descend into the still.

Before this work was completed William McCue attempted to go down the ladder, but when halfway down, fell himself, being overcome, and climbed to the top as fast as he could. He was pulled out of the still just in the nick of time and went into a swoon as soon as he reached the ground.

After the covering had been torn away and the gas allowed to escape, other employes descended into the still, and the five men, who were lying in a heap at the bottom of the still, were hoisted to the surface with ropes, and were taken to the wax department of the company's works, where all that was possible was done for the unfortunate men.

Doctors Logie and Johnston were hastily summoned. The medical men worked over the poor fellows from that time until after 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and their efforts to revive their patients and counteract the effects of the gas were finally successful in the cases of three of the men. About half-past 3 o'clock the physicians considered the three men, Galloway, Willis and McCue, sufficiently recovered to be able to return to their homes.

ATTEMPTED MURDER.

Albert Price, jr., Former St. Kitts Man, Arrested on the Above Charge at Winnipeg—A Vivid Story.

Winnipeg, Man., March 8.—Albert Price, jr., aged 27, formerly of St. Catharines, Ont., was arrested here yesterday, charged with attempted murder.

The case reads like a blood-curdling story in the novels.

His intended victim, an old man named Bolton, 70 years of age, tells the following story: "I left home to come to Winnipeg to attend the trial of Price, who was charged with the theft from me of a calfskin valued at $1.25. Price was out on the remand. About six miles out I was overtaken by Price, who said he was going into the city and I might ride with him. I was not anxious to do this, but as he insisted, I consented and got into the jumper with him. I had not been in the jumper very long when, instead of continuing to come towards Winnipeg, he turned off the road and started off across the country in the direction of the bush. Seeing this I attempted to get out of the rig, but he caught hold of me and endeavored to hold me in the rig beside him. Just as I was on the point of getting clear of him, he pulled a revolver from his hip pocket and said: 'If you don't get into the sleigh I will blow your brains out.' I then got into the jumper and he drove on. I asked him where he was going and he said he would show me, when we got into the bush. I then saw he intended to murder me when he got into a lonely spot, where my body would not be found before spring. I did not dare move for he had me covered with the revolver at full cock. Finally, we met a couple of loads of hay. Price put his revolver away when we got near the loads, saying that if I attempted to make any disturbance or call for help it would be all the worse for me. I saw that it was my only chance for life and resolved to make the best of it. When we got as near the men with the loads of hay as I thought we would get, I made a sudden spring out of the rig and ran towards the loads, shouting to the men to protect me. Price threatened to shoot the men if they did not throw me off the load of hay. One of them came towards me as if to obey the command. I faced him and told him if he touched me I would drive a fork into him. And then he began to shoot at me from the ground below. He missed me several times and I threw myself flat on the load to escape the bullets. One struck me finally and then Price jumped into his rig and drove rapidly along the road to Ste. Annes."

The old man is now in the Winnipeg Hospital with a broken jaw from the shot and may die.

WE ARE MORE THAN PLEASED.

There was cheer to us all day long Saturday, in the interest you showed in this New Store. It was a revelation to many of you to find such worthy goods at so small prices. Of course, there were many grand values that you didn't see for want of display space and "elbow" room. You're welcome to come and inspect these any time.

But that is only the material side. It is the way we do business that we mean shall be more of a surprise to you. The home-like feeling must be yours when you come here Our employees must be courteous, considerate, thoughtful and attentive. You shall be free to go about, to look about, to rest, to talk, without being importuned to buy.

We will handle only worthy goods: the prices will be fair. ONE Price for one article and that price for CASH.

The People's Faith

Firmly Grounded Upon Real Merit—They Know Hood's Sarsaparilla Absolutely and Permanently Cures When All Others Fail.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is not merely a simple preparation of Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia and a little Iodide of Potassium.

Besides these excellent alteratives, it also contains those great anti-bilious and liver remedies, Mandrake and Dandelion. It also contains those great kidney remedies, Uva Ursi, Juniper Berries, and Pipsissewa.

Nor are these all. Other very valuable curative agents are harmoniously combined in Hood's Sarsaparilla and it is carefully prepared under the personal supervision of a regularly educated pharmacist.

Knowing these facts, is the abiding faith the people have in Hood's Sarsaparilla a matter of surprise? You can see why Hood's Sarsaparilla cures, when other medicines totally, absolutely fail.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A Montreal court has held a carter liable for damage done to a pianoforte in moving it. When the courts hold up a baggage smasher and make the railway directors liable for killing citizens at level crossings, the millenium will be a good deal nearer.

If Canadian trade increases in the same ratio in the next thirty years as it has done in the past thirty years, the aggregate trade will be about five hundred millions in 1930. But it is probable from the present outlook that the increase in the coming three decades will be very much greater.

The Mail asserts that "if the Senate had winked at boodling the present opponents of that body would never have thought ill of it." Its opponents are not unmindful of the fact, says the Ottawa Free Press, that, during the long regime of the Tory party and years of political debauchery, the Senate never "winked at boodling." It openly supported and advocated in the most brazen manner every crime its allies in the Commons committed. It was blind, deaf and dumb when Tory steals were on the cards.

The followers of Mr. Whitney, leader of the Ontario Opposition, have a very hard task in their attempt to prove that Hon. Mr. Harcourt's revenue bill will affect the people and not rich corporations alone. A gentleman in sympathy with the Opposition gives an instance which, to his mind, proves that the revenue will ultimately come out of the poor public. He cited his own case. He was a stockholder in two loan companies which had paid dividends of 12 per cent. He was sure that under the operation of the proposed revenue bill the dividend would be reduced. One's heart bleeds for such a typical case of hardship. If poor shareholders who have been accustomed to pocketting 12 per cent. should, by the operation of the bill in question, suffer loss, and have to accept a paltry 11 per cent., the case of hardship should be referred to a society for the prevention of cruelty to capitalists. If Shylock flourished in these days he would jump on the revenue bill of Mr. Harcourt with both feet.

NORWOOD.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Miss Dingman and Miss Greene, of Sherbrooke, have been visiting at the residence of Mr. Choate, Peterborough street.

The young ladies of Norwood, are holding a reception in the Foresters' Hall on Wednesday evening in aid of the Sick Children's Hospital in Toronto.

The High School pupils are holding an "at home" in the school building on Wednesday evening, 15th inst. One of the chief attractions will be the drills by the High School Cadets.

A Guaranteed Asthma Cure.

Clarke's Kola Compound Cures.

Some years ago this would have been considered an impossibility, but Dr. Clarke has solved the problem since completing his experiments with the wonderful Kola plant in England. In 1888, he found, that by combining extracts from the Kola with other extracts made from the Grandiora plant which grows in California, that the compound would cure the severest cases of asthma. Upon experimenting on one of the leading London hospitals he found that 95 per cent. of the cases were cured in from 20 to 30 days treatment, since the introduction of this remedy into Canada in 1889 there have been over 50,000 cases cured in Canada and the United States. Mr. H. N. Hume, C. P. R. Engineer, Western Division, writes: I have been a great sufferer from asthma in its worst form for over twelve years, and never was relieved in spite of anything to help me permanently, until the C. P. R. doctor prescribed Clarke's Kola Compound for me in December last, when two bottles entirely cured me; at least I have not had any return of the asthma. I am personally acquainted with at least six persons who have been cured from asthma from Clarke's Kola Compound, and feel it my duty to recommend it to all who may be troubled with this disease.

Three bottles are absolutely guaranteed to cure. A free sample bottle will be sent to any person troubled with asthma.

Others may relieve, but Clarke's Kola Compound for asthma permanently cures.

Mr. Geo. J. Sherry spent Sunday and Monday in Rawdon visiting some of his relatives.

Mrs. Wm. Hill left for Chicago on Monday to visit Mrs. E. Gear, formerly of Norwood.

Dr. Wm. S. Hall and bride returned from their wedding trip on Monday evening. They have been spending their honeymoon in Montreal and other eastern cities. The Norwood band serenaded them on Tuesday evening.

Miss May Eaton returned from Toronto this week, where she has been attending the millinery openings in that city.

Mr. H. G. Buck returned this week from a business trip to New York State.

On Thursday evening of last week the Norwood hockey club journeyed to Campbellford to play a friendly game with the team of that place. The game was fast and exciting and the spectators were many and enthusiastic. The game resulted in a victory for Campbellford, the score standing 7 to 5. Mr. F. U. Rutherford refereed the game in a very satisfactory manner.

Mr. Wm. Cuthbertson has won first place in the first round of the curling competition now going on for the curling stones offered as a trophy.

Mrs. McGregor is visiting friends in Peterborough this week.

Mr. H. Kirkpatrick was in Toronto this week on business.

Mr. A. R. Anderson, one of the most respected and well known merchants of Norwood, died here on Monday morning. His loss will be severely felt in Norwood and the surrounding country. His funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock with A O U W. honours.

Miss Dot Williams, of Campbellford, who has been visiting friends in town for the last few days, returned to her home on Sunday last.

BRIDGENORTH.

At seven o'clock Saturday evening, the home of Edward Mann was the scene of a happy gathering; the occasion being a presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Mann, on their departure from Bridgenorth to the Northwest. Between fifty and sixty Foresters, friends and acquaintances, gathered together to have a social time, and a general farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Mann. At about 9 o'clock, Mr. J. N. Telford read the following address:—

To Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mann and Son.

On account of your departure from our midst, we the members of Court Bridgenorth No. 256, C. O. F., and friends and acquaintances desire to take this opportunity of extending to you both, our best wishes by presenting to you Mr. Mann, a gentleman's toilet set, and to you Mrs. Mann, a pair of Persian lamb gauntlets, and to your son Melville, a Bible

No doubt you are leaving us with sanguine hopes of a bright future before you; pardon us if we beg to assure you that our esteem and love, and cordial wishes for success in a new country shall not fade away in your absence. In conclusion, we would ask of you to accept of these presents, as a slight token of our friendship and love for you both, and when far away and among new scenes, and new associations, may they remind you of those that are left here, and if we are not permitted to all meet again here, may we all meet where parting is no more.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Man were taken completely by surprise. In replying, Mr. Mann thanked the friends for the address and presentation; that it would ever remind them of the happy days they had spent in Bridgenorth. Mr. and Mrs. Mann left on Monday 6th, on the 5 o'clock train.

Mr. Wm. Young is also going with them; he was also the recipient of a gentleman's companion.

After a very sociable time had been spent, and a general farewell given, the gathering dispersed, with well wishes for Mr. and Mrs. Mann.—Com.

OMEMEE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Spring is opening up, and all kinds of disease are disappearing.

A large crowd from here attended the Peterborough market on Saturday, notwithstanding the bad roads.

Wm. J. Lamb is busy buying pigs for Richardson's, and every shipment is increasing in size.

There are great preparations being made for dairying. The first meeting was held last week.

Great quantities of ice are being taken out here, and our hotels are well prepared for the summer.

W. L. Taylor, agent for the Karn organ, was here last week, and together with J. D. Thornton, agent here, did considerable business.

Our high school is largely attended.

Our tannery is doing a large business.

The Commercial House was crowded all last week with guests.

MR. ANDREW STEPHENS
FERGUS, ONT.

Is now enjoying the best of health after having suffered some time from nervous prostration and weakness of the heart.

Fergus people are pleased to see the well-known boss carpenter, Mr. Andrew Stephens, looking a picture of health again.

He had been complaining of his heart for some time, could not sleep well at night, and seemed nervous and generally broken up.

A friend met him not long ago and congratulated him on his healthy appearance.

"Well, you see," said Mr. Stephens, "if it hadn't been for those Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills that I got at Phillips' Drug Store, I don't know where I would have been to-day

"I used to suffer a great deal from palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath, and was unable to get restful sleep."

"You were in a pretty serious condition then," said the friend.

"Indeed I was,' replied Mr. Stephens, 'but I am thankful to say that my heart never troubles me at all now, I sleep well at nights and never have any sign of nervousness."

"And you owe your restoration to health entirely to Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills?"

"Yes, Sir, their action on my system was simply marvellous, every dose seemed to do me good. I don't think there is any better remedy made for curing diseases of the heart and nerves, and for toning up the system."

"Are they many people in Fergus that have been cured by these pills?" Asked the friend.

"As far as I have heard, quite a number. I know I have recommended them to several and in every case they have done good."

Then the friend of Mr. Stephens parted, the former to wend his way to Phillips & a Drug Store to find out more about Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills—the little life savers.

THE SUFFERING KIPLINGS.

Josephine Buried Privately and Without Any Public Spectacle—Reply to the Kaiser's Good Wishes.

New York, March 8.—Rudyard Kipling's condition continues to improve. F. N. Doubleday, who has been with the author almost constantly since he was prostrated, said early yesterday that the night had been a restful one for Mr. Kipling. The patient, however, is as closely watched as ever, to guard against a possible relapse, to which he will be liable for a fortnight or more. Elsie, Mr. Kipling's 8-year-old daughter, is reported as progressing very favorably, having slept well Monday night.

Mr. Doubleday, in deference to the wishes of Mrs. Kipling, refused to give any information regarding the arrangements for the funeral of Josephine Kipling. It is the mother's wish that the funeral be private. The child, Mrs. Kipling says, in no sense belonged to the public, and she wishes to avoid having the funeral take on the character of a spectacle.

Had Been to the Funeral.

Mrs. Kipling, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. (Dr.) Dunham, and Dr. Conland of Brattleboro, Vermont, yesterday morning left the hotel where the author resides. Shortly after 2 o'clock they returned, with flowers in their hands. It was presumed that they had been to the funeral of Rudyard Kipling's daughter Josephine.

Reply to the Kaiser.

Berlin, March 8.—Emperor William has received through Herr von Holleben, the German ambassador at Washington, a message from Mrs. Rudyard Kipling, expressing her thanks for the despatches to her by His Majesty on Monday, in which he expressed solicitude for Mr. Kipling.

His Majesty's message is much commented on here. It is believed that it was not only sent from sympathy and courtesy, but to create a pleasant political impression.

Hurst at Last Caught.

Montreal, March 8.—At last William M. Hurst, who is accused of swindling the G.T.R. Company out of something like $1,000, and skipping to the United States, has been caught and brought back to Montreal to stand his trial.

Prefer the Union Jack.

Victoria, B.C., March 7.—The people of Dyea, Alaska, are said to be incensed at the American high commissioners for refusing to grant Canada a port on the Lynn Canal. The Dyea Press speaks out in favor of annexation to Canada. This news is brought from the north by the steamer Amur, just arrived here.

The Medical Profession Recommend Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment.

Dr. C. M. Harlan, writing to the American Journal of Health, Feb. 10th, says:—"Among the proprietary medicines deserving recognition is Dr Chase's Ointment, as a remedy for piles, Eczematic, skin eruptions of all kinds, for which it has been used with marked success and has effected remarkable cures in many obstinate cases which seem to baffle the skilful medical attendant."

BLIZZARD IN THE STATES.

From New York to Richmond, Va., There Was Snow and Cold—Floods in West and South.

New York, March 8.—This city had a March blizzard and a decided fall in temperature yesterday, with snow to the depth of five inches. Washington had a fresh mantle of snow. At Cincinnati there was a fall of temperature, and a rise of water. At Newport, Ky., a number of people have been driven from their homes by the flood.

At Lexington, Ky., the waters rage and the breaking of booms in Kentucky rivers has caused a loss of $1,000,000 worth of logs. The Lexington & Eastern Railway has lost heavily by washouts. At Charlestown, Va., even the Governor had to get a boat to go to the executive mansion. Timbermen up the Elk River will lose heavily, immense rafts having been torn loose and swept down the Kanawha, causing damage to coal docks and other property.

At Richmond, Va., the river has invaded all the lower part of the city.

Newton, a suburban negro settlement, in a valley running up from the river, is completely inundated, only the chimneys of the houses showing. The fires have been put out in city gas works by the rising tide, and Richmond was without gas lights last night.

The flood is higher than the great freshet of 1889. A fall of snow, with drifting, added to the trouble.

Toledo is also tied up with snow.

HEART DISEASE.

SOME FACTS REGARDING THE RAPID INCREASE OF HEART TROUBLE.

Do not be Alarmed, but Look for the Cause.

Heart troubles, at least among the Americans, are certainly increasing, and while this may be largely due to the excitement and worry of American business life, it is more often the result of weak stomache, of poor digestion.

Real organic disease is incurable, but not one case in one hundred of heart trouble is organic.

The close relation between heart trouble and poor digestion is because both organs are controlled by the same great nerves, the Sympathetic and the Pneumogastric.

In another way also the heart is affected by the form of poor digestion, which causes gas and fermentation from half-digested food. There is a feeling of oppression and heaviness in the chest caused by pressure of the distended stomach on the heart and lungs, interfering with their action, hence arises palpitation and short breath.

Poor digestion also poisons the blood, making it thin and watery, which irritates and weakens the heart.

The most sensible treatment for heart trouble is to improve the digestion and to insure the prompt assimilation of food.

This can be done by the regular use after meals of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which may be found at most drug stores and which contain valuable, harmless digestive elements in a pleasant, convenient form.

It is safe to say that the regular persistent use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at meal time will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

Full sized package of these tablets sold by druggists at 50 cents. Little book on stomach troubles mailed free. Address F. A Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Often times the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1898 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate For correct and full information regarding the new invention and NEWCOMBE PIANOS, write to our Direct Representative. THE LEGISLATURE

Development of Niagara Falls Power Again Discussed.

THE PREMIER'S FIRM STAND.

He Shows That the Statements Given Currency in The Mail and Empire Were Manufactured Out of the Whole Cloth—Items Passed in Supply—Interesting Routine Proceedings.

Toronto, March 8.—Hon. Mr. Hardy yesterday afternoon took advantage of the opportunity which a question of privilege allowed him to reiterate to the House and emphasize the determination of the Government to enforce the provisions of the agreement with the Canadian Niagara Power Company. The occasion of the Attorney-General's observation was certain articles which appeared in The Mail and Empire in connection with the attitude of the Government upon this matter, and which he declared were manufactured out of whole cloth, and designedly so. In supply a number of items were passed.

First Readings.

Mr. Hill (West York) introduced his bill to amend the Electric Railways Act.

Mr. Stratton introduced a bill for an act respecting local improvements undertaken by municipal councils.

Mr. Stratton also introduced a bill for an amendment of the Assessment Act.

Out of the Whole Cloth.

The Premier took occasion in the House to emphatically deny the statement of The Mail and Empire that in regard to the Canadian Niagara Power Company he had been "rash enough to supplement the contract by a communication to the company at the beginning of this year, in which he practically promised to keep the agreement in force if it should be so far fulfilled by Nov. 1 that there should be work to show for the expenditure of $1,000,000. If the Premier has thus committed himself," the article proceeds, "not to cancel the agreement upon certain conditions, which may be far short of fulfilment, his position is indeed a ticklish one."

Mr. Hardy read the full communication between himself and the company, and, proceeding, said that the communication which he had read was the communication referred to in the article in The Mail and Empire, the only communication to which reference could possibly be made, and it spoke for itself as to whether there was anything whatever in the statements contained in the articles. He said that organs of hon. gentlemen opposite were referring to that letter, and it would be just as well that the true contents should be known to the House and throughout the country. It could not be contended, either, that the statements were justified by anything that he had said in answering the question of the hon. member for Welland a few days ago.

Read a Second Time.

Hon. Mr. Dryden moved the second reading of the bill to further improve the Ben Jose Scale Act. The Minister explained the provisions of the bill.

The House then went into committee on the bill to improve the law respecting public schools.

Hon. Mr. Ross briefly recapitulated the features of the bill, the chief of which is the establishment of continuous classes for instruction in agriculture.

Several clauses in the bill were passed, and progress was reported, the committee to sit again on Thursday.

The bills respecting the San Jose scale and the amendment of the Public Schools Act were advanced a stage, and then the House went into committee of supply and passed a number of items.

The Attorney-General's bill respecting voters' lists in unorganized territories passed the committee.

In Committee of Supply.

The House went into committee of supply and passed these votes in the estimates for education:

Public and separate schools, $455,017.

High schools and collegiate institutes, $115,050.

Library and museum, $7,800.

School of Practical Science, $29,470.

Public libraries, art schools, literary and scientific, $56,750.

Miscellaneous, $12,475.

Superannuated public and high school teachers, $61,300.

Ontario's Lunatic Asylums.

The first vote passed for maintenance of public institutions was that of $98,639 for the Asylum for the Insane, Toronto.

There was a prolonged discussion over the estimate of $129,312 for the London Asylum, and then it was passed.

The estimates for Kingston Asylum, $92,544, and for Hamilton Asylum, $119,033, were passed with little discussion. Then came Asylum for Insane, Mimico, $76,582; Brockville Asylum, $65,998; Asylum for Idiots, Orillia, $56,948, all of which were passed.

Central Prison.

Hon. Mr. Davis gave brief explanations of the vote for $60,250 for the Central Prison, Toronto, which was $1,050 less than in the previous year. The vote carried, as also did that of $26,960 for the Reformatory for Boys, Penetanguishene.

These votes were passed, after slight discussion:

Deaf, Dumb and Blind.

Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, Belleville, $44,646.

Institution for the Blind, Brantford, $32,600.

Andrew Mercer Reformatory for Women, and Refuge for Girls, Toronto, $23,175.

Immigration and Settlers.

The vote for $7,075 for immigration purposes; $4825 for agencies in Europe and $1,250 for agencies in Ontario was carried.

Railway Bills.

The bill relating to the Sault Ste. Marie & Hudson Bay Railway was passed upon by the railway committee yesterday morning. The bill to incorporate the Hamilton & Caledonia Railway was also passed, but it will come up again on Friday in order that the Lord's Day Alliance may be heard regarding the clause to run the cars on Sunday. The bill relating to the Worthington & Onaping Railway was laid over.

Rules for County Jails.

Dr. Chamberlain, inspector of prisons and charitable institutions, had a conference at the Parliament Buildings last night with sheriffs and jailers from various places throughout the province regarding the management of the county jails and the revising of the rules and regulations which have been observed for the last 20 years. Changing conditions have rendered it necessary that more modern regulations be brought into force, and Dr. Chamberlain submitted for discussion a draft of the proposed changes, which he has been working upon for some time.

Deputations Yesterday.

Yesterday many deputations waited upon the Government. Among them were a deputation representing the dairy interests, asking for the erection of a dairy building at the Toronto Industrial Fair; from the bankers regarding the new tax bill; from the loan companies on the same mission, and the executive committee of the License Holders' Association of Ontario.

ASSEMBLY NOTES.

The private bills committee has passed the bill for the Synod of Toronto to raise $50,000 by sale of debentures.

Mr. Russell (East Hastings) and Mr. Smith (Peel), each have bills to enact new systems of electing municipal officers.

The application of Horatio C. Crease of Niagara Falls to practise dentistry in Ontario was passed by the private bills committee, on condition that Crease takes the final examination of the Ontario College in all subjects, excepting chemistry.

The natural gas companies doing business at the western boundary of the province may be more heavily taxed than provided for at present in Mr. Harcourt's bill. Those who are urging the change say that the companies are piping the gas to Detroit and the tax on them should be $25,000, instead of $7,000, as at present provided.

BARON HERSCHELL.

Remains Conveyed From Washington to New York, and, With Military Honors, Delivered to the Warship Talbot.

New York, March 8.—The body of Lord Herschell reached Jersey City from Washington at 7.40 yesterday morning. The special train over the Pennsylvania Railroad bearing the remains was met at the station by the British consul-general, Percy Sanderson; Commodore Philip, commandant of the New York Navy Yard; Lieut.-Commander Kelly, U.S.N., and detachments of American and British marines.

As the casket was lifted out of the car at the railroad station the American marines presented arms, and the drummers rolled the "Four Ruffles," the highest funeral salute known, excepting that given to royalty. Six British tars stepped forward and placed over the casket the flag of England. Before the march to the tug was made a number of gentlemen who had accompanied the body stepped up and laid on the coffin wreaths of flowers. Those who came from Washington with the remains were C. W. Cartwright, secretary of the joint high commission; Mr. Williamson, private secretary to Lord Herschell, and his body servant, T. Martin.

After the flag of England and the flowers had been deposited on the coffin, it was placed on a truck and wheeled to the freight elevators and lowered to the floor below, where another squad of British sailors awaited it. Again six of them stepped forward and lifted the coffin to their shoulders. The buglers of the Navy Yard marines sounded "the call," the marines presented arms, the officers saluted, the civilians raised their hats, and the sailors slowly bore the body to the navy tug Narkota. It was securely fastened to the forward deck, and when both American and British marines were on board the tug turned to Ellis Island, where lay the cruiser Talbot. The snow was falling fast by this time, and before the tug proceeded a cable length from the pier a white pall had settled on the casket, covering it completely.

The Talbot has sailed for England.

MR. FRANK DODGE

Says His Life was Saved by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto Feb, 27.—Mr. Frank Dodge, of North Maupsberg, Ont., has been visiting here recently. He is a splendid specimen of Canadian manhood, standing more than six feet high "in his stockings" erect and muscular.

"I was a different man two years ago," said he to a friend to day. The truth is I would have died of Kidney Complaint, if it hadn't been for Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I had been treated by physicians and had taken various remedies without getting any better. I read of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and decided to try them. I did so, and was thoroughly cured in a couple of weeks.

FIRE AT DYEA.

Two Hotels and Several Buildings Were Burned.

Victoria, March 8.—News was brought by the Humboldt, which arrived here yesterday, of another calamity which befell the unfortunate town of Dyea on March 2, the day before she left. Fire, which broke out in the Palace Hotel, destroyed, in addition to that edifice, the Senate Saloon with its stock, the Court House and tramway barn. Mr. Wiesmann, proprietor of the Palace Hotel, lost everything and the Northern Hotel, Chilcoot Tramway Co., the Senate Saloon and the Court House are also heavy losers. The loss is variously estimated at between $12,000 and $15,000.

THE ODORLESS

CREMATORY CLOSET.

I have been appointed Sole Agent for the Odorless Crematory Closet manufactured by the Crematory Closet and General Heating Co., of Hamilton.

This Closet has found a place in many of the best homes in the province, and all who have used it cannot speak too highly of its merits. Medical men speak of it from a sanitary point of view, claiming that, if health is any consideration, no home should be without one. Here are some of the

TESTIMONIALS.

Alliston, March 1st, 1898.

I have had one of your "Crematory Closets in use now for several weeks and am glad to be able to say that I have found it entirely satisfactory in every respect. I have not been able to detect the slightest odor from it at any time and would not be without it. I am sure it must prove a great convenience to people in the country and in towns where water is not obtainable. Yours respectfully,

JAMES CONWAY.

Shedden, February 28th, 1898.

I have used it for sometime and find it perfectly odorless. It is a long felt want and I believe it will become very popular especially in rural districts, towns and villages where wells are so frequently contaminated by the ordinary closets. I am, yours, etc.

W. H. MORRISON

Medical Superintendent's Office, Sept. 20th, 1897
Asylum for the Insane, Hamilton.

Gentlemen: I had the opportunity of witnessing yesterday the operation of your Odorless Crematory Closet. It had a large accumulation of fecal matter in the pan when the fire was started, and inside of 20 minutes it was all reduced to ashes. There was no odor before or during the operation of consuming the fecal matter, as the ventilation by the flue seems to carry off all odor at once, before it has a chance to vitiate the surrounding atmosphere.

Yours truly, JAMES RUSSELL, M.D.

Binbrook, Sept. 20th, 1897.

Dear Sirs—Having been present at a private test of your new patent closet yesterday afternoon, I beg to express my satisfaction with it in every way. Neither before, during or after the burning out of its contents did I detect the slightest unpleasant odor. I am satisfied it will be a boon to thousands in rural towns, villages and country homes. Yours truly,

M. J. MULLOCK.

A SURE CATARRH CURE.

No matter what your experience has been with so-called catarrh "remedies," your ultimate, complete recovery can surely and positively be effected. Don't suffer any longer. Don't trifle with a distressing and dangerous disease when a sure cure is within your grasp. Thousands of sufferers whose condition was worse than yours have been cured and are now in perfect health. Their enthusiastic and unsolicited testimonies show beyond the shadow of a doubt that is the most wonderfully effective remedy ever compounded. It relieves the most severe case in from 10 to 60 minutes; it effects a full cure in a short time. The most eminent nose and throat specialists in the world have given it their unqualified endorsement. In all cases of catarrh, colds, sore throat, asthma, hay fever and influenza it acts like magic. It is easy and pleasant to use. It never fails to do precisely what is claimed for it. In less than an hour it will prove its worth if you will but give it a chance. A prominent evangelist gives testimony:

Rev. Warren Bentley, writes:—"While in Newark, N. J., conducting religious services, I was troubled with catarrh and used Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder. It gave me great relief and I have recommended it to many among whom I have labored." Hon. David Mills, Minister of Justice of Canada, has used this remedy and highly recommends it over his own signature. At all druggists.

Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart cures all cases of organic and sympathetic disease of the heart. Relieves in 30 minutes. Dr. Agnew's Liver Pills are at once a mild cathartic and an invigorator, system renovator and blood maker and purifier. 25c. for 40 doses. Dr. Agnew's Ointment relieves in a day and cures eczema, tetter and all skin diseases. Cures piles in 3 to 5 nights. 35c. 6

LEAD IN HASTINGS.

FURTHER PROSPECT OF MINING IN ONTARIO.

Syndicates at Work—Lead and Zinc Deposits — A Remarkable Fissure Vein—Hematite Mining.

Ottawa, March 4.—Mr. John B. King, of New York, and a party of American capitalists, returned from Hastings County yesterday, having spent a couple of days in Madoc, Tudor and Lake Townships, viewing lead and zinc deposits.

The Hollondia mine in Tudor township, they say, is being extensively developed by its Belgium owners, and 300 tons of lead are being shipped to Belgium this week.

The Wallbridges of Toronto are working their hematite iron deposits on an extensive scale, and are taking out 100 tons of ore a day. This is being sent to the Hamilton smelters, and yielding profit.

The syndicate represented by Mr. King has secured an option on several properties which will be opened up on a large scale. The Catherine mine, situated on the same stratum as the Hollandia, about three miles distant, covers mineral rights of over 300 acres. The work done so far has exposed a true fissure vein of remarkable characteristics, and shows at a depth of 20 feet ore matter three feet wide, and widening with the depth. The assays of lead range from 70 to 85 per cent. of pure ore. The Catherine is said to be a promising proposition. Last week a vein of zinc was discovered lying alongside the lead vein and quite as clearly defined. It is separated from the lead by a thin wall of calcite. The zinc samples have assayed as high as 80 per cent.

The calcite will be valuable for fluxing purposes, reducing the cost of smelting.

This is the first discovery of zinc in Hastings county, although its presence in the mineral belt was referred to about twenty years ago in a paper read by T. Campbell Wallbridge before the Royal Geological Society of London.

These deposits seemed to be destined to increase the wealth of Ontario. Lead is mined at a profit of $35 and $40 a ton and the market price of zinc is $125 a ton. The Catherine is only two miles from Millbridge on the Ontario Junction Rail way. The county is covered with prospectors and last week Mr. King met two Europeans representing a lot of old-world capital.

To-morrow afternoon's address will be on "Is Jesus the Healer of the Body To-day?" and in the evening he will speak on "The Second Coming of the Lord." Mr. Bales will give his last address here on Friday afternoon at 2 30 on "How to Keep the Fullness of the Spirit." Pastor Fisher of Toronto, accompanied by Mrs. Fisher and "Holy Ann," will then continue the services for a week, to be followed by others.

A Peterborough Spray Pump.

Spraying pumps for fighting bugs, worms and parasites have been rapidly placed upon the market during the past few years. But the slickest, brainiest and most ingenius contrivance which has yet appeared is the invention of a clever Peterborough mechanic. This pump is now being manufactured by Mr. G. Walter Green, the pump and windmill man of McDonel street, and orders are coming in like an avalanche. It has already made a flattering record for itself, before even the first bag has put in an appearance. Already orders for $1000 worth of these pumps have been received by Mr. Green, to be ready early in April. The orders covering this amount are divided between Mr. W. H. Clandinning of Lindsay and Mr. J. H. Thompson of Drayton. They say that necessity is the mother of invention, but the Peterborough Spray Pump is the 'Daddy' of them all.

ANNUAL MEETING

Of the Peterborough Water Company—Officers Elected for the Year.

At the annual meeting of the Water Company the following officers were re-elected for the year:
President—R. A. Morrow.
Vice-President—R. B. McKee.
Secretary-Treas—G. W. Hatton.

PERSONAL

Mrs. McAllister, "The Pines," will not receive to-morrow evening.

Mr. W. B. Talbot has returned from England, where he has been visiting his sister at Bath for the last six months. He had the pleasure of being one of the passengers on the new steamer 'Castilian' just out from Belfast. This was her maiden trip and she crossed to Portland in seven days. Mr. Talbot says that the "Castilian" is a floating palace, being one of the most luxuriously fitted up steamers afloat. The return passage was a most pleasant one, the weather being all that could be desired.

Bicyclists Beware.

The chief of police was seen walking north on George street yesterday afternoon. This is of no particular interest to anybody but two young men who are to be charged with riding their wheels on the sidewalk. The chief was on his way to Police Magistrate Dumble's office to "lay an information."

Adjourned Sale.

The sale of the furniture in the Grand Central Hotel has been postponed until Saturday morning, March 11th, at 10 o'clock. The unsold furniture comprises the contents of 30 Bedrooms, several handsome Walnut Marble Top Suites almost new, a lot of good Carpets, Springs, Mattresses, Bedding, Toilet Sets, Window Blinds, &c. Also, a complete set of Bar Room Furniture, including large Mirrors (one being 6½ x 10 ft.), together with a lot of Silverware and other sundries in the hotel, too numerous to be specified. Everything must be sold. Terms Cash. Furniture is open for inspection all this week.

THE LIVE STOCK MARKET.

A very important matter came before the council Monday night in the form of a proposition submitted by Mr. H. P. Kennedy, in reference to arrangement for the establishing of a live stock market in Peterborough. Mr. Kennedy stated that he and others had organized a Live Stock Company with a view of establishing a live stock market in Peterborough, in case mutually satisfactory arrangements could be made. The authorized capital of the company is $40,000 and the amount subscribed, $25,000. It is understood that the proposed site is in the southern part of the town, convenient to the railways and that the site of the yards at the point selected can not possibly create a nuisance, which was the great objection to the former location so persistently and pluckily sought for by Mr. Kennedy. Under these circumstances, it is to be hoped that the council will cordially co-operate with the company in advancing the establishment of the company's project in Peterborough. If, as is certain, the proposed Live Stock yards will make Peterborough the centre of great cattle trade, the town will stand to gain a great deal through the very large amount of money thereby placed in circulation A cattle market, such as that contemplated, will not only bring to Peterborough the stock and the money represented by it in this county, but those of a wide surrounding district. Under the present system the stock purchased is paid for and shipped from the point where the transaction takes place. With stock yards, properly equipped, established in Peterborough, this town will be made the central depot for a very large trade, and the financial advantage to the town will be in proportion to the extent of the business, which, with proper conditions, is capable of great development.

It is be hoped that the Council will take a liberal view of the matter, and thus assist a project which, if it is of anything like the importance represented, will be another big step forward in the practical advancement of the material interests of the town.

THE CURFEW BELL.

It Should Either be Enforced or Repealed.

Cobourg has abolished the curfew bell. Peterborough might better abolish its curfew bylaw than have the bylaw book cumbered with an unenforced law which tends to breed contempt for all law. If this bylaw were properly enforced or even partially enforced its good effects would be apparent. The streets after dark are the school of vice for the young who are allowed to roam about without restraint—to boys they are the highway to crime and to girls they are the broad road to moral and ultimately physical destruction and represent the "ways that lay hold on hell." Our city fathers should, without much thinking, easily see that prevention of crime is infinitely more easy than cure. In this regard the council could, with good results, all round co-operate more heartily with the Children's Aid Society—which might very profitably be charged (proper assistance being given) with the enforcement of the curfew bylaw.

THE DEATH BADGE.

Is Spared to Many a Home, Because Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart Never Fails to Cure Heart Disease—Relief in 30 minutes.

The pall of death has hovered over many a diseased heart, looking for the last flicker of the candle, and Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart has stepped between the patient and the grim hand, and nursed the sufferer back to perfect and permanent health. Thos. Petrie, of Aylmer, Que., had heart disease for five years, was unable to work. The doctors gave him up to die many a time. Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart gave him relief in 30 minutes, and four bottles cured him. Sold by H. S. Macdonald and Ormond & Walsh.

ASHBURNHAM SCHOOL BOARD.

An Endeavour Will be Made to Make Better Arrangements for Village Pupils to Attend the Collegiate Institute.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ashburnham School Board was held last evening, those present being Mr. E. A. Peck, chairman, and Messrs. Sheridan, Fowler, Agnew and Manlece.

The report of attendance for February was presented as follows:

	On roll.	Ave.	Per Ct
Miss Covey's class	53	45	85
" Erskine's "	43	38	86
" Dawson's "	36	34	89
M W Matchett's class	29	27	93
Miss Williamson—Kindergarten	54	33	61

On motion of Mr. Manlece and Mr. Fowler, the following accounts were ordered to be paid:

Jas Swanston	$12 00
G F Warde	11 86
Review	25
Mrs Boyler	1 40
Geo Nichol, hardwood	20 00
Michael Kennedy, hardwood	40 26
Adolphus Crapp, tamarac	28 25
W Campbell	25

A resolution of the village council was received authorizing the Board to endeavour to make arrangements with the Peterborough Board of Education by which Ashburnham pupils could attend the Collegiate Institute on the same terms as town pupils and, on motion, Messrs. Adams and Peck were appointed a committee to represent the Board in the matter.

The meeting then adjourned.

Pillows Made of Pine Needles.

Are becoming popular, owing to their medical effect on catarrhal maladies. Catarrhozone is like a breath from the pine woods, and yet is a powerful microbe destroyer and germ killer. It is a certain cure for catarrh, though until recently catarrh was considered incurable. It penetrates wherever air can go, and cleanses as by fire. You simply breathe it in—it does the rest. Send immediately for a free sample to N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

COMMUNICATIONS

were received and dealt with as appended:

From Chas. B. Robinson complaining that his son had been struck in the face and abused otherwise by a Collegiate Institute teacher.—Referred to the Supervision Committee to investigate.

From Geo. C. Robb, boiler inspector, reporting boiler of Central School in good condition.—Received.

From the Trustees' Association asking that a delegate be sent from Peterborough to attend the annual meeting.—Received.

From Mrs. C. Cameron complaining that her son had been abused in a room at the George street school.—Referred to the Supervision Committee to investigate.

From a number of parents complaining of the unsanitary condition of the Central school kindergarten room.—Received.

The report was adopted.

THE SUPERVISION COMMITTEE,

through its chairman, W. H. Hill, reported as follows:

1. Your committee asked for tenders in the usual way for supplies for the current year. In the stationery department there were two tenders, Messrs. A. H. Stratton & Co., being the lowest. In the chemical department there were three tenders, the lowest being Messrs. Ormond & Walsh.

2. Your committee therefore beg leave to recommend that Messrs. A. H. Stratton & Co. be awarded the contract for supplies in the stationery department and that Messrs. Ormond & Walsh be awarded the contract in the chemical department.

3. That the Collegiate Institute requires in its library a modern dictionary and as the revised edition of 1898 of the Encyclopedia Dictionary is satisfactory to Mr. Fessenden, your committee recommend that the work be obtained at a price less than $10

All of which is respectfully submitted,
W. H. HILL, Chairman.

The report was adopted.

Mr. McBain inquired regarding the comparison of the amount of stationery used this year and the year before.

The secretary stated that in 1897 the amount used amounted to $924.73, and in 1898 it totalled $714.83.

The inspector reported that every effort was being made to economise in this department.

On the matter of the annual meeting of the Trustees' Association being brought up, it was moved by Dr. Burnham and Mr. W. H. Wrighton, that Messrs. James Stevenson and Robt. Fair be delegates.—Carried.

In regard to the petition complaining of the unfitness of the Kindergarten room in the Central school, for the purpose to which it was devoted, Mr. Hill stated that the rent and taxes paid for the Menzies property amounted to $500 per year. He was in favour of giving up this property and erecting a school at a cost of not more than $10 000 The money necessary for the purpose could be obtained at 4 per cent. or $400, and a saving made of $100 a year. This would afford ample accommodation for the pupils who were now overcrowding the other schools and also allow of a better apartment being alloted for the Kindergarten.

Chairman Hamilton, in speaking on the question, reminded the members that the matter of the erection of a suitable Collegiate Institute should not be allowed to to drop. An effort had been made some time ago to secure the Central Park as a site. This effort was unsuccessful, but there was always a possibility of it being given over to the board for that purpose. If a new Collegiate Institute was erected the present building would be devoted to public school purposes and there would, therefore, be no need of erecting a new school, as suggested by Mr. Hill.

Inspector Walker, in reply to a question by the chairman, stated that the room was not by any means an ideal one for Kindergarten purposes, but he could see no way to remedy the difficulty.

The matter of the erection of a new Collegiate Institute will be a live subject of some future meeting of the board.

Y.M.C.A. ATHLETICS.

The Indoor Contests Resumed—The Third of the Series to be Held on March 21st.

The second indoor athletic contest was held last night. The events were: Standing broad jump, 13 feet, rope climb, for time, running hop, step and jump and quarter mile run on the track.

Chas Mathias holds the standing broad jump record, 8 ft 9½ in. and the quarter mile run, 1 min, 19 4-5 sec.

Sanford Hall has the lead in the 13 ft. rope climb, time, 6 4-5 sec, and 37 ft. 1 in. in the running hop, step and jump.

Sanford Hall heads the list again, Chas. Mathias second and Art. Noble third.

The third contest will be held on March 21st. The events will be: Fence vault, potato race, running broad jump and running high jump.

Peter Stewart unfortunately hurt his arm last week and was not able to take part in last night's contest, but it is hoped that he will soon be able to practice events. He was second in last month's contest.

The scorers last night were Messrs. A. H. Stratton and Geo. H. Williamson, Y.M.C.A. Secretary.

Judges—Messrs. D. Moore, W. E. Loch and P. Stewart.

Timers—Messrs. W. E. Loch, A. H. Stratton and J. M. MacLeod, physical director.

OUR COLUMN OF SPORTS.

SOME TIMELY REMARKS ON SEASONABLE GAMES.

What is Going on in Local and Outside Hockey Arenas—Notes From the Curling Ice.

HOCKEY.

The game between Echo and Hogan's Alley camps has been postponed from Friday night until a week from this evening.

Queen's hockeyists returned Sunday morning from Pittsburg, Pa., land in their praises of the good time furnished them while there. Queen's won all four matches in which they were engaged, totalling thirty-five points to one tallied against them. Only fifteen minute halves were played, so an idea may be gained of the superiority of the play of Queen's team against their opponents.

The Frontenacs banquetted the Guelph Nationals Monday night. Anything may be expected to happen now.

The Guelph National team, which plays here to-morrow night, won from Belleville last evening by six goals to four. They ought to give Peterborough the fastest game seen here this season.

PRINTERS VS. MECHANICS.

The ever victorious Printers added one more scalp to their belts last night when they defeated the Wm. Hamilton Mfg. Co. team by a score of 'steen to one.

Although there was considerable slashing done by the members of both teams, there was not any roughness to complain of, as shown by the fact that none of the players could show even a scratch at the conclusion of the game.

The score at half time stood 8—0 in favour of the Printers and in the last half they kept running the puck through the flags as fast as though they were feeding a Gordon press at top speed.

The teams were composed as follows:

Mechanics.		Printers.
P McFadden	goal	F Dobbin
B Dawson	point	F Hubbs
R Bradburn	cover point	G Heap
T Ferguson	forwards	R Glover
D Jefferson		H Goldey
W Fitzgerald		Alf Terrill

LINDSAY VS. PETERBOROUGH.

A picked team consisting of five seniors and two colts went to Lindsay last night for a friendly match and played a tie game with the Scugog boys, the score being 4—4 when time was called.

The local team wanted a game to put them in condition for the big Guelph National match to-morrow evening and Lindsay offered the necessary inducements for a match, so the team went over yesterday afternoon.

The game was devoid of roughness and the Peterboroughs say that Lindsay will be able to make a very strong bid for intermediate honours next year, as their team is coming to the front fast.

After the match the visitors were banquetted and given a royal good time by the Lindsay boys, who are capital entertainers.

CURLIANA.

The annual Lindsay-Peterborough competition took place yesterday. Three rinks from Lindsay came to Peterborough and won by 20 shots. Only two rinks went from Peterborough to Lindsay. They won by 17 shots, thus giving Lindsay the match by three points. The rinks which went to Lindsay killed two birds with one stone by taking the trip, as whilst playing in the Lindsay-Peterborough competition they were also engaged in playing off the draw against Lindsay in the Colts' Cup series. As the Peterborough Colts won, they will play off in the finals for the Colts' Cup with Belleville, which latter club won out in the Southern Group.

The scores yesterday were as follows:—

The Tea Cup Test

It is well enough to talk about the good qualities of a tea, but after all it is what is shown by brewing that is the final test. The number of cups of good tea that can be brewed from a single pound has as much relation to economy as the price per pound. From a pound of Ram Lal's Pure Indian Tea, 200 cups of tea can be made. Beside, the strength there is the quality of the brew, and in this Ram Lal's stands above all others.

THE NIGHT CLERK'S STORY.

A FACE LIKE CHALK.

A very bad attack of the Grippe one year ago last winter left my system in a very weak state and my nervous system completely unstrung. After getting over the dangerous stage of the disease I naturally expected to gain strength, but, unfortunately, did not do so. On the contrary, my blood became weaker. I daily lost strength and vitality, and my nervous system became so weak that it was a constant source of suffering both day and night. I lost appetite, the sight of food nauseated me, the weak state of my system caused shortness of breath and unnatural action of the heart, such as fluttering and violent palpitation, and my face was like chalk. I was in this condition and constantly getting weaker when I began taking Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills. I had read the books they distributed and their advertisements in the papers, and thought, "Well, I have taken so much medicine without benefit it is useless to spend any more money. However, I finally made up my mind. It is a forlorn hope; I can but try. If I am not benefited I will not be hurt. So I bought one box and received great benefit therefrom, so continued their use, and to-day am a well man in consequence; my blood is strong, my face has the ruddy hue of health, my appetite has returned, I sleep well, I have not the slightest indications of nervousness or heart trouble, and from a sick, weak, nervous man Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills have transformed me in six weeks to full health and strength." I am yours very truly,

(Signed) WILLIAM WILLARD,
Night Clerk Grand Central Hotel,
Peterboro.

Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills are sold at 50c. per box, 5 boxes for $2.00 at druggists, or mailed on receipt of price by THE DOCTOR WARD CO., Limited, 71 Victoria Street, Toronto. Book of information free.

GLEANINGS.

Kissing the hands of great men was a Grecian custom.

The people of the United States use about 250,000 lead pencils each day.

Recruits for the Chinese army are not accepted unless they can jump a ditch six feet wide.

Bamboo pens still retain their hold in India, where they have been in use for more than 1,000 years.

A Farmingdale (Md.) man is wearing a pair of mittens that his mother knitted 30 years ago, and he says he has worn them more or less every winter since.

Pupils in the public school of Copenhagen, Denmark, are required to take three baths a week in the public school building, and while they are bathing their clothes are sterilized in a steam oven.

The Paris Figaro tells of a French judge who granted 294 divorces in four hours a few days ago, which is at the rate of more than one a minute. It was on a day when divorces are granted free for the benefit of people too poor to pay.

Ulm's cathedral spire is to be used for a meteorological station. It is the highest church spire in the world, being 531 feet above the ground. This makes the signal station the highest post erected by human hands, save the Paris Eiffel tower.

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard st., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"it soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will everyone who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50 cents and $1 00 at any Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

Why It Was Named Rubber.

A recent report from a British consul in one of the Central American states gives the following as the origin of the name rubber, as applied to caoutchouc: An English artist discovered in 1770 that the new gum was admirably adapted for rubbing out pencil marks. He wrote a paper on the subject and informed his contemporaries that a cubic inch of this substance, costing only 8 shillings, would last for years. It was used for no other purpose in England than effacing lead pencil marks for about half a century after this discovery; hence the name "rubber."

After the introduction of the raw material and the scientific description of the plant by Frenchmou it was first manufactured into waterproof clothing in France toward the end of the eighteenth century. Later on the firm of McIntoch of Manchester greatly improved on the French idea and manufactured waterproofs on a large scale, and "mackintosh" is the name by which waterproofs have been known since that time.—Philadelphia Record.

People say Hood's Sarsaparilla cures when all other preparations fail to do any good, and you run no risk in giving it a fair trial.

Stopping a Big Steamship.

To stop the Etruria, whose displacement is 9,680 tons, horsepower 14,321 and speed 20.18 knots an hour, 2 minutes and 47 seconds are required, and during the process of stopping the ship will forge ahead 2,464 feet, or nearly half a mile. The United States cruiser Columbia, with a displacement of 7,350 tons, 17,991 horsepower and a speed of 23.8 knots an hour, can be stopped in 2 minutes and 15 seconds and within a space of 2,147 feet. In each case the vessel is supposed to be going at full speed and the stoppage produced by reversing the action of the propeller.

JOSEPHINE KIPLING DEAD.

The Author's Eldest Daughter Died on Monday, But He Has Not Been Told —Mr. Kipling Improving.

New York, March 7.—Josephine Kipling, the 6-year-old daughter of Rudyard Kipling, and the eldest of his three children, died shortly after 6 o'clock yesterday morning from pneumonia. The child's death took place at the home of Miss Julie Deforest in this city. Miss Deforest is a friend of the Kiplings, and Josephine had been taken to her home so she could be near, but apart from, her father.

The girl became ill the day after Kipling took to his bed. The doctors soon discovered that the disease was the same as that which had brought her father to death's door. She had all the attention and all the skill employed to save the life of the author. Dr. Conland, the Kipling family physician, who had known the child from birth, came down from Brattleboro, Vt., and with Dr. Janeway succeeded in warding off the evil effects of the disease until yesterday. But the little frame was not strong enough to withstand the onslaughts of the disease, and while her father was slowly winning back his life, Josephine died. Mrs. Kipling had paid daily visits to the girl, and it was for her in this multiplicity of her sorrows that the sympathy of many friends was most earnestly expressed.

It was generally believed that Mr. Kipling's condition was such that the physicians would not tell him until he should be stronger of the loss he has sustained.

Elsie, the 8-year-old daughter of the author, who is sick in an out of the way apartment in the hotel, was doing nicely, according to the morning's report of Mr. Doubleday.

Regret in London.

London, March 7.—Deep regret is expressed here on all sides at the death of Josephine Kipling, the 6-year-old daughter of Rudyard Kipling, who is announced to have succumbed to pneumonia in New York, and sincere hopes are expressed that the shock and bereavement will not retard the progress of the father or seriously affect the health of the mother, already wearied with nursing.

Telegram From German Emperor.

New York, March 7.—Mrs. Kipling has received the following cablegram from Emperor William of Germany:

"As an enthusiastic admirer of the unrivalled books of your husband, I am most anxious for news about his health. God grant that he may be spared to you and to all who are thankful to him for the soulstirring way in which he has sung about the deeds of our great common race."

Mr. Kipling Had a Good Day.

New York, March 7.—Mr. Doubleday at 7.30 o'clock last night said: "Mr. Kipling has had a splendid—that is a comfortable—day. He is beginning gradually to take nourishment of a more substantial kind. He has not been told of his daughter's death."

Sympathy in England.

London, March 7.—The morning papers almost universally voice deep sympathy in the bereavement that has come to the Kipling family through the death of Josephine.

ALLEGED BILL-RAISING.

Man Arrested at Ridgetown Turns Out to Be George Steves.

Toronto, March 7.—Frank Harrison, one of the men arrested at Ridgetown charged with raising a $1 bill to $10, turns out to be George Steves, a much-wanted man here, partly for the same offence, and also for the theft of about 20 shotguns from various local parties. Inspector Stark read the accounts of the arrest yesterday and wired an accurate description of George Steves. The prisoner was easily identified by several Indian ink marks on his arm. Steves will be tried at Chatham on Thursday, and if acquitted of the charge of raising the note there, a warrant will be sent, and he will be brought here for trial on the charge of passing raised bills and stealing shotguns.

Marron, the other prisoner at Chatham, hails from this city, and appears to have been doped with whiskey and morphine and used as a tool. He was arraigned yesterday and will appear on Thursday for trial. He will turn Queen's evidence.

Why the Chaplain Was Fired.

Chicago, March 7. — At yesterday's meeting of the Baptist Ministers' Association Rev. D. D. Odell of Joliet, Ill., chaplain of the 3rd Illinois in Porto Rico, declared that he had been temporarily detached from his regiment because he had dared to show his superior officers a sample of the "nauseating rations which the men had to eat." He made a number of other charges, which he said he could corroborate, if requested to.

The Talkative Turtle.

A ventriloquist who gave his performance at one of the variety theaters had considerable mischievous fun with his accomplishment during his stay in Washington. He was walking along Louisiana avenue in front of the commission houses one afternoon, when he caught up with the darky steward of one of the big hotels. The steward was packing a good sized turtle along under his right arm. The ventriloquist paduled along at a distance of ten feet or so behind the steward, and then he threw his voice into that of the turtle.

"Look a-heah," the turtle apparently said to the steward, "when is yo' all a-gwine t' drap me; nigguh?"

The black steward shot a sudden look of fear at the talking turtle.

"I'se a-gwine t' drap yo' right heah," hoarsely whispered the steward, and he did, and he was shooting around the corner of Eleventh street, making for the avenue at a dead run five seconds later.—Washington Post.

Grand Trunk Engineer Swears by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Mr. Geo. Cummings, for over twenty years engineer on Grand Trunk running between Toronto and Allandale, says:—"The constant duty with my work gave me excessive pains in my back, racking my kidneys. I tried several remedies until I was recommend by my fireman, Mr. Dave Cowley, to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Two boxes have completely cured me as I feel to-day a better man than ever. I recommend them to all my friends.

How He Writes Them.

"I am surprised to learn that the young man to whom I have just been talking writes those brilliant and profound articles which have caused so much comment," said the fair stranger to the native.

"Does he claim that he writes them?" asked the native.

"He gave me to understand so. Isn't it true?"

"Oh, yes, it's true enough," replied the native. "He writes them—from dictation. He's private secretary and amanuensis to the man who composes them."—

Three Years in Bed.

From Kidney Disease—Although a Man of Three-Score and Ten, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills gave him back perfect health.

This is to certify that I was sick in bed the most of the time for three years with kidney disease. I took several boxes of pills—different kinds—and a great many other kinds of patent medicines; besides that I was under treatment by four different doctors during the time and not able to work. I began to take Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and since that time have been working every day, although a man nearly 70 years of age. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have cured me.

AT LAST.

When on my day of life the night is falling
And, in the wind from unseanned spaces blown,
I hear far voices out of darkness calling
My feet to paths unknown,

Thou who hast made my home of life so pleasant,
Leave not its tenant when its walls decay.
O Love divine, O Helper ever present,
Be thou my strength and stay!

Be near me when all else is from me drifting—
Earth, sky, home's pictures, days of shade and shine,
And kindly faces to my own uplifting
The love which answers mine.

I have but thee, O Father! Let thy Spirit
Be with me then to comfort and uphold.
No gate of pearl, no branch of palm, I merit,
Nor street of shining gold.

Suffice it if my good and ill unreckoned,
And both forgiven through thy unbounding grace,
I find myself by hands familiar beckoned
Unto my fitting place—

Some humble door among thy many mansions,
Some sheltering shade where sin and striving cease,
And flows forever through heaven's green expansions
The river of thy peace.

There from the music round about me stealing
I fain would learn the new and holy song
And find at last beneath thy trees of healing
The life for which I long.

—John Greenleaf Whittier.

Geography For Women.

The introduction to Parkenton's "Modern Atlas," published in 1815, has a reference to "the sex" which ought to be very interesting to our modern college girl. The learned author says:

Geography is a study so universally instructive and pleasing that it has for nearly a century been taught even to females, whose pursuits are foreign from serious researches. In the trivial conversation of the social circle, in the daily avidity of the occurrences of the times, pregnant indeed above all others with rapid and important changes that affect the very existence of states and empires, geography has become a habitual resource to the elegant female, as well as the profound philosopher.

Permanent Cure of Severe Salt Rheum.

The permanent cure after permanent cure that is being received and published day by day has placed Burdock Blood Bitters far above all other remedies in the estimation of the sick and suffering.

Even the severest and most chronic diseases that other remedies fail to relieve yield to the blood purifying, blood enriching properties of B. B. B.

Salt Rheum or Eczema—that most stubborn of skin diseases, which causes such torture and is so difficult to cure with ordinary remedies—cannot withstand B. B. B.'s healing, soothing power.

The case of Mrs. Jas. Sanderson, Emerson, Man., shows how effective B. B. B. is in curing Salt Rheum at its worst, and curing it to stay cured.

This is what she wrote:

"Burdock Blood Bitters cured me of a bad attack of Salt Rheum three years ago. It was so severe that my finger nails came off. I can truly say that I know of no more valuable medicine in the world than B. B. B. It cured me completely and permanently, as I have never had a touch of Salt Rheum since."

Poor, helpless, hopeless, sick, suffering, miserable woman. Sick because she doesn't know any better. Sick because she doesn't really know why. Sick because the organs that make her a woman are not properly performing their functions and so are sending nerve messages with aches and pains and distress all over her quivering body.

Nine-tenths of women's sickness comes from disorder of these special organs. The symptoms are various—the cause the same.

Headache, backache, nervousness, wakefulness, neuralgia and fifty other troubles of women may nearly always be traced directly to feminine weakness or disease. When the most important organism of a woman's body is disordered her whole physical and mental system is upset. The only way to find comfort is to cure the real cause of the misery. Local doctors in general practice are frequently so hurried and rushed that they treat the symptom and not the disease. They give a woman medicine for headache when the headache is due to the reflex action of the uterine nerves. They may give her good medicine but for the wrong disease. Thousands of women, after years of discouragement, have written to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and now thank him for their renewed health and happiness. For over thirty years Dr. Pierce has been chief consulting physician at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute. It was over thirty years ago that he began to use his "Favorite Prescription" in his practice.

It is a medicine devised to cure one certain kind of diseases—female diseases. It brings ease and comfort and sleep. It restores perfect health. It fills out cheek-hollows, brightens the eyes, puts vim and snap into the whole body. It is sold by most dealers in medicine. Don't take anything else. Nothing else is "the same"—nothing else is "as good." Get what you ask for. Patronize honest dealers.

THE FIREMAN'S LIFE.

He Cannot Always Finish His Toilet Before a Mirror.

"Of course everything about the fire department interests us always," said Mr. Glimby, "but there is one little thing in particular that I've seen I suppose hundreds of times that appeals to me more every time I see it, and that is the firemen getting into their coats as they go along. You see this among the men on trucks and on hose wagons. The men on the engine have to use their hands to hold on.

"It's a simple enough thing in general to see a man putting on his coat, but here he isn't standing up in his room before a mirror, but he's jumped out of bed and taken his coat under his arm and slid down a sliding pole and is completing his dressing sitting on top of a rack of ladders going through the street like mad, drawn by three great horses at one end, with a man down at the other end steering this outfit with a wheel. This sight never loses its novelty or its interest. You may see the same thing on a hose wagon.

"But what set me to speaking about this now was seeing a man on a fire patrol wagon, sitting on one of their long seats, facing outward, pulling up the tops of his high boots—red wagon, galloping horses, banging gong, men in fire hats and rubber coats, the whole blooming outfit on the dead jump and this man sitting on the side seat reaching down for the tops of those boots and straightening up with each one as he got it and swaying back a little as he pulled it up into place, just as a man would sit on the edge of his bed at home to put on his stockings and slippers and just as cool and comfortable."—New York Sun.

People who are troubled with any disease caused or promoted by impure blood or a low state of the system may take Hood' Sarsaparilla with the utmost confidence that its faithful use will effect a cure. Lysters, Websters, Shermans.

The dyer's trade in 1370 was naturally pursued in the larger towns rather than in the villages, and by masters employing several workmen. Thus at Pontefract there is a Lyster who employs two men and two maids, another who employs two men, and there is a Webster who employs two men. At Wakefield there is also a Lyster who employs two men. The names Webster and Lyster (also called by his Latin name Tinctor) are common enough to prove that cloth sufficient for local consumption was woven in Yorkshire. There were 12 Textors and four Sheremans (hence the name of Mrs. Sherman) who "clipped" the cloth when the Websters had done their task.—Notes and Queries.

The Misprint Made Him Angry.

Mr. Fegan, the professional antiliquor member of the New South Wales legislative assembly, announced one night in tones of peppery scorn, "Whisky makes men genial for a time." "Hansard" next day carried the misprint to the country, "Whisky makes me genial for a time."—Adelaide Critic.

JACK AND HIS WILL.

A Special Act of the British Parliament Arranges That Matter.

Jack has the proud distinction of having had an act of parliament passed for the express purpose of deciding the way in which he must make his will, so that while all other Britons are lumped together in this matter under the wills act of 1838 sailors' testamentary documents are made under the naval wills act of 1866. The most important proviso of this act is that all wills made by sailors or marines must be witnessed and attested by the chaplain or some other officer if they are actually made on board ship, and this is somewhat curious.

If a sailor likes to make his will on shore, any one can witness it for him, but on board ship the case is different. Needless to say they almost all to a man choose the latter course, as they know that things will be straighter for bearing an officer's signature. If, however, supposing that the vessel was in action and a man was to be struck down who had not previously made a will, if he had to do so before he died, even if it were not attested by an officer, the admiralty has full power to act on the merits of the case and to dispense with that or any other formality that it was impossible to comply with. Another thing—a sailor shares with a soldier the privilege of when on active service being the only man who can dispense with a written will and make a verbal one.

In former times any one could make his will verbally if he so desired, but this, as may be supposed, opened the door to no end of fraud, and it was consequently repealed in the 1838 act, except in the case mentioned above. On the night before a ship or a regiment goes into action there is no more pathetic sight than to see the men, young and old, laboriously writing their wills in case tomorrow should be their last day in this world, and what with witnessing wills and making them on the forms issued by the authorities for those who cannot write—and this class has now almost entirely disappeared from both the navy and the army—the officers have a very busy time.—London Golden Penny.

A TRUE STATEMENT

By Foreman White, of the Hamilton Screw Works

Hamilton, March 6—If a vote of the people were to be taken to ascertain which is the most popular medicine on the market, Dodd's Kidney Pills would lead by a large majority.

One of the latest cures by that grand remedy is that of Foreman T. H. White, of the Screw Works here, who testifies that he was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills of Kidney Disease of eight years' standing, after other medicines had failed.

Mr. White says: "One box of Dodd's Kidney Pills relieved me, four boxes cured me. Publish this statement if you wish. It is true in every particular."

He Wasn't Proud.

The London Telegraph says that while a certain bishop was waiting for a train at Waterloo station, a porter, who often sees him into a compartment and shuts the door, in order that his lordship may be alone, came up to him in a state of excitement and asked

"Your reverence, do you see that gentleman standing in the doorway over there?"

"Yes," answered the bishop.

"Do you know who it is?" continued the porter.

"No," said his lordship.

The railway man then whispered: "It's the 'Coffee Cooler,' your reverence. Oh, he ain't proud! He'll shake hands with your reverence if you like."

The "Coffee Cooler" is a noted colored prizefighter.

Ingrowing Nails.

To prevent an ingrowing nail a strip of cotton should be worked between the nail and the flesh, left large enough to cover the entire nail. A piece of cotton is then twisted into a long roll and placed on the other side of the nail groove over the sound skin. The space between is filled with lead nitrate, heaped up, and the larger piece of cotton folded over it, with more cotton outside, held in place with a moist bandage. This dressing is renewed every day, and in two or three the exuberance is reduced until the edge of the nail can be seen, and cotton inserted between it and the flesh beneath, when the nitrate can be discontinued.

A Medal of Blood.

Garibaldi was once presented with a medal made of his own blood. The giver was Dr. Manini of Naples, who was well known as a petrifier and preserver of the human body.

Dr. Manini in offering his gift to Garibaldi said that whenever the general looked at it it would brace him up for the last fight, and across the medal was engraved the words, "The blood of Garibaldi is forever red."

The strange medal is preserved by the general's descendants. — San Francisco Argonaut.

Dr. A. W. CHASE

COMES TO THE AID OF

Catarrh Sufferers

SUCCESS in life is almost impossible for a man with bad breath. Nobody wants to do business with him. Nobody wants to associate with him. He is handicapped everywhere. Offensive breath comes from Catarrh; sometimes from Catarrh of the Stomach, sometimes of the lungs, sometimes of the head, nose, and throat. It is from Catarrh somewhere, and Catarrh is another name for uncleanness.

Many men understand this, and make every effort to cure it, but it is beyond the reach of ordinary practice.

No self-respecting man can ignore Catarrh. If he has it in any form he makes constant effort to be rid of it.

There is something about the manner of life and the climate of Canada that seems to breed diseases of the mucous membrane. Medical science ordinarily doesn't try to cure Catarrh; it "relieves" it; but Dr. Chase has been curing Catarrh for over thirty years, and his name is blessed by thousands who have shaken off the grasp of this insidious disease.

Sold by all dealers, price 25 cents per box, blower free.

THISTLE DOWNS.

Lighter and whiter than a flying flake
Of winter snows through wan air winnowing
The thistle downs their sudden journeys take
O'er meadows wide in vagrant wandering.
No more shall they to earth reluctant cling
As a moss lined and slowly sinking stone
Left lying in an outer waste alone.
Beside the edge of some remote morass,
But high they toss above the fields new mown,
Like disembodied spirits of the grass.

The drowsy atmosphere in lines opaque
Leans to the sun, that fast is gathering
The last faint dews, his fiery thirst to slack,
While swallows dip, on ever restless wing.
Across a dusty road the robins sing,
And bumblebees upon the clover drone,
While thistle downs in airy spaces lone
Along the skies in happy freedom pass,
Voyaging afar to mystic climes unknown,
Like disembodied spirits of the grass.

TRICKS OF A MIND READER.

The Simple Explanation of an Apparently Difficult Feat.

"Speaking of telegraphy," said a gentleman who takes an interest in occult studies, "reminds of an incident which created a great stir some years ago, but is now about forgotten. A New York lawyer, who claimed to be able to project thought, had a committee of skeptics select a playing card at random and then wired a friend in San Francisco, asking him to think of a card and telegraph back what one came into his mind. The card selected was the five of spades and the reply was correct. All the parties were well known, and the experiment caused an immense sensation.

"The newspapers discussed it by the column, and it was exploited as a positive demonstration of thought transference, but as a matter of fact the whole thing was merely a clever trick. I had it afterward explained to me by one of the people on the inside. It had been prearranged with the San Francisco man that the cue to the right card was to be the wording of the message. The denomination was indicated by the number of words in the second sentence. If, for instance, it was an ace, the sentence would be only one word, 'Answer;' if a deuce it would be 'Answer immediately,' and so on.

"As it happened to be a five the message ran, 'Telegraph reply quickly as possible.' The suit of the card was revealed by the signature. Signing the name in full meant hearts, the first only meant clubs, the last name meant spades, and the initials meant diamonds. The system was beautifully simple, and the message seemed on its face perfectly innocent. It was carefully examined to find a hidden word, but baffled the investigators. As far as I know, the truth about the affair has never been printed."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters;' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents a bottle every bottle guaranteed.

The Audience Got Angry.

There was a scene of wild excitement during the last week of May, 1892, at the Gaiety, London, and all owing to the singular behavior of a policeman. Two popular entertainers were on the stage, and one of them asked the audience a little conundrum, "Why is a policeman an utter scoundrel?"

A gentleman in blue who was apparently on duty in the body of the theater at once took offense. He jumped on to the stage and, seizing the offender, attempted to drag him off.

The audience rose in indignation. Men shook their fists and shouted, "What has he done?" One frenzied young lady in the front of the gallery seized a tumbler and would have thrown it at the policeman if her arm had not been arrested.

The policeman then dragged his captive off the stage amid the hisses and shouts of the audience. But anger was speedily changed to laughter when Mr. Policeman reappeared with his victim and stood revealed as one of the Cosmo trio. I never saw an audience so completely taken in.—London Correspondence.

Pigs and Witchcraft.

Two women of the lower class were quarreling violently the other evening in Heavitree, a suburb of Exeter. One yelled to the other: "You wretch, you always keep a black and a white pig, so that you can witch us! You ought to be scragged!" The one so addressed, it seems, has lived in her cottage some 30 years. She has during this period, it is said, always kept a couple of pigs, one of each color, and her neighbors consider she does this so that she may enjoy the very questionable powers of witchcraft. No butcher in the neighborhood will buy her pigs, as if he was known to do so he would certainly lose the local custom upon which he relies.—Notes and Queries.

TETTER ON HANDS CURED

I had been troubled with tetter for several years. At times my hands would be sore all over, so that I could not use them at all, and were so tender that clear water, even, smarted like fire, and it spread over arms, neck, and face. I had been treated by physicians, but without benefit, when I began the CUTICURA remedies. I found relief before I had taken the first bottle. I used three or four bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, and one box of CUTICURA (ointment), and it has never troubled me since. REPENTANCE AND FAITH.

Services Continuing at the Park Street Baptist Church.

At the evangelistic service in Park street Baptist church, Monday evening, Rev. Mr. Cowsert gave an earnest address on "Repentance and Faith," taking for his text Mark 1., 15. The text contained an exhortation, and yet was a command to have the initial graces of repentance and faith. There were times when God reasoned and entreated; there were also times when He commanded, and to disobey was perilous. There were two reasons why God commanded us to have faith and repentance. The first was that timid folk, who would fear to accept a mere invitation, might be assured; the second was to leave mankind without excuse.

The nature of true repentance was sadly misunderstood. Some people imagined that repentance was feeling sorry for sin. Others, like Judas, were sorry for being found out. He believed true repentance was something worse than a fear of hell. It was a change of mind and heart, resulting in a changed life, and accompanied by a holy hatred for sin.

The faith we were commanded and exhorted to have was a faith of the heart, not of the head. The objects of our faith were the person and work of Jesus Christ. Mere faith about Him was not sufficient. There was vast difference between believing about Christ and believing on Him. True evangelical faith was also accompanied by an abhorrence of sin.

The command to faith and repentance was a reasonable one. Sin was open rebellion against the authority of God and contrary to His character, hence the need of turning from sin in order to have fellowship with God. The command to have faith in Him in order to be saved was using the simplest thing in the world as a medium through which to bestow His precious gifts. Society was bound together by the faith we had in each other, and so we were to be bound to God by faith.

Just before Mr. Cowsert's address, Mrs. Diagman sang in a sweet and impressive manner "What Will You Do With Jesus?"

The meeting this evening commences at 7.30.

THE NEW BUSINESS HOME

Of the Dominion Permanent Loan Company,

12 KING STREET, W., TORONTO.

Illustrated Description of the New Premises—Very Handsome and and Convenient Offices.

The illustrations on this page are of one of the handsomest and most up-to-date business premises in Toronto. They represent the headquarters of the Dominion Permanent Loan Company at No. 12 King street west, and comprise a suite of offices, commodious, elegant and substantial, as befits the business home of one of our most powerful and prosperous and financial institutions. Even a casual visitor passing along the street, if he has any eye for the chastely beautiful in architecture, must have his attention arrested by the originality of the design of the exterior of the building. Shapely Grecian columns in solid oak, with richly carved capitals; Corinthian pillars, also of solid oak, and finely finished wood work combine to give a chastely elegant effect at once pleasing and restful. The massive doors of solid cherry, richfully and tastefully ornamented with brass work, are a triumph of design and workmanship. Passing through these the visitor finds himself in a large vestibule, floored with marble mosaic, in which the name of the company is tastefully inserted. On the east wall of the vestibule the names of the officers of the company are shown in gold lettering on white marble. The inner doors, which are of quartered oak, highly polished, are as richly ornamented with brass as the outer ones. To the left as one enters the lobby, is a neatly fitted up manager's office. Beyond this stretches the main office with its army of busily employed clerks. The counters, which screen the main office from the public lobby, are of highly polished quartered oak, neatly and tastefully panelled, and relieved by beautiful carved oaken columns which support the top. The carving on the caps of these columns is particularly fine. The cage ledges are supported by handsomely carved brackets. The top of the counter is of highly polished mahogany, and is surmounted by beautiful grill work in bronze and oxidized and polished brass, of a substantial yet light looking design, which is exceedingly effective, and in appearance all that could be desired. In this grill work are the usual openings for cashiers, accountants, etc. At the rear of the lobby is a pretty yet strong oxidized brass door, the centre of which is ornamented with the monogram of the company in polished brass. Further in is a private office, which, with its comfortable furniture and polished oak desks and tables, has an air of business comfort. In the rear of the office is the Board

VIEW OF LOBBY OF THE MAIN OFFICE

VIEW OF INTERIOR OF MAIN OFFICE.

Room, which is one of the handsomest and most appropriately fitted up apartments of its kind to be found in the city. The illustration gives but an imperfect idea of its substantial and comfortable elegance. At the end of the room is seen a handsome mantel of particularly striking design. The lower part is done in faced brick, the upper part in oak is supported by two heavy fluted columns, with elegantly carved tops, the monogram of the company forming an appropriate and effective centre-piece.

The wood work in the Board-room, which is by the Charles Rogers & Sons Co., like that in the main office, is finished in the very highest style of the art, and is not excelled in appearance even by the higher grades of furniture made by this justly celebrated firm.

FINE INTERIOR WOOD FITTINGS.

The designs for the interior wood fittings were prepared by Mr. F. H. Herbert, the architect of the building, and the work was executed by the Charles Rogers & Sons Company.

Strictly, the design cannot be said to be of any particular period, but is somewhat after the Renaissance. The wood used is Indiana quarter cut white oak, and the workmanship is like the finest cabinet work. The walls are trimmed with a wain-scot in polished quartered oak, neatly panelled, which gives them a richly-finished appearance. The offices are carried out in the same character, and are fitted up with chipped and polished plate glass.

THE BOARD ROOM.

A STORY OF PROSPERITY.

It is hardly necessary here to speak of the business prosperity of the company. On the principle illustrated in the homely adage, the proof of the pudding is in the eating, that can best be learned by a perusal of the proceedings of the Annual Meeting, where the story of the result actually accomplished is told. With the same bold, yet careful and conservative policy, a long career of profitable usefulness may safely be predicted for the Company.

THE WORK OF A FIEND.

M. Lockroy Believes Toulon Explosion the Result of Foul Play.

HEAT AFFECTS THE AMERICANS.

Lord Salisbury Said to Be Going to France to Personally Conduct the Settlement of Anglo-French Disputes—French Minister of War Compares Armies of France and Germany.

Toulon, March 9.—It turns out that the 12 dynamite cartridges found behind the Toulon arsenal yesterday are of foreign manufacture. M. Lockroy, Minister of Marine, in an interview regarding the explosion of the naval powder magazine at La Goubran, between La Seyne and Toulon early Sunday morning, intimates that the experts now have little doubt that it was due to foul play. He thinks it was possibly caused by some clockwork arrangement provided with a detonator, hidden in a powder keg.

Awfully Hot at Manila.

Manila, March 9.—The temperature yesterday at 3 o'clock was 87 degrees, but the cloudy air was like steam and the troops were greatly inconvenienced in the line, in spite of the temporary shade afforded by matting and bamboos wherever feasible. There were fewer prostrations, however, from the heat.

SALISBURY GOING TO FRANCE

To Personally Attend to the Settlement of Anglo-French Disputes.

London, March 9.—The Birmingham Post learns that Lord Salisbury will shortly go to Paris in order personally to settle pending Anglo-French questions with President Loubet and Foreign Minister Delcasse.

FRENCH AND GERMAN ARMIES.

Quantity Must Be Met by Quality, Says the French War Minister.

Paris, March 9.—In the Chamber of Deputies yesterday the debate on the army budget led to the usual references to the necessity for preparedness against Germany and to comparisons of the two armies. The members of the House, while complaining of the budget, which totals up 875,000,000 francs, admitted the impossibility of retrenching and the necessity of meeting German increases by corresponding additions.

The Minister of War admitted that the French effectiveness was inferior to the German, but it was impossible to remedy this owing to the lack of population. The Minister also expressed the belief that mere numbers, above a certain point, did not add to the effectiveness of the army, as they could only act as reserves, and he was convinced that the fate of a conflict would be decided before the reserves could be employed. It is not necessary, therefore, to be alarmed about the neighboring increases. France must meet quantity with quality. The rifles and guns of the French army were without their equals, and the country therefore might await the future with confidence.

BERESFORD IN LONDON.

In an Interview He Reiterates That the Open Door Policy in China Is the Only Good One.

London, March 9.—Rear-Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, who has just completed his tour of the world in the interests of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Great Britain, in an interview with a representative of the Associated Press yesterday reiterated his well-known views on the subject of the "open door" in China, as being the only possible policy of Great Britain. In so doing, he said, it was impossible to estimate the importance of the Chinese market, a single province of which was worth the whole of Africa from a commercial point of view.

The Admiral also said that there would be war unless the "open door" policy should be adopted, and he asserted that American trade in China was progressing by leaps and bounds, proportionately much faster than that of Great Britain.

He told The Daily Mail interviewer he could say little about his tour until he had completed his voluminous report to thee Associated Chambers of Commerce, which sent him out on his tour, but he insisted that it all the powers began grabbing land in China, it could only result in quarrels and war.

Must Keep China on Her Feet.

"It is absolutely necessary," he said, "to keep China on her feet. Better stand up now for the open door than venture upon the dangerous course of spheres of influence. I do not suggest a cut and dried alliance. I do not think America would join such an alliance. But America, England, Germany and Japan might agree to work together to maintain the open door.

"Of the six men who direct China's policy, four have never been outside of Pekin. Li Hung Chang has no real power. The Empress Dowager is the real power, and a very clever woman. She signs the popular edicts herself and makes the Emperor sign the unpopular ones. The provincial rulers are more progressive than those at Pekin. They all favor the open door policy and only want to save China's face; but they think we are afraid of Russia. We must help stiffen China, which will not be a difficult task."

The Taotai Has Been Bounced.

London, March 9.—The Shanghai correspondent of The Times says: "The Viceroy of Nankin has informed the British, American and German consuls, who on Sunday declined to hold further negotiations with the Taotai of Shanghai regarding the question of the extension of the foreign settlement, that the Taotai, whose evasive and obstructive tactics were the ground of the consular complaint, has been superseded."

The Pekin correspondent of The Times says the Chinese are discussing the advisability of making Sanmun an open port, so as to evade Italy's demand for a concession.

China Will Apologize.

Rome, March 9.—The Tribuna says it learns that the Chinese Government has offered to send the Italian minister, Signor Martino, a written apology, through Sir Claude Macdonald, British minister at Pekin.

Editor Severely Punished.

Paris, March 9.—M. Francis de Pressense, foreign editor of The Temps, and leader of the Dreyfusards, was committed yesterday to pay a fine of 500 francs and damages to the amount of 3,000 francs for libelling M. Guerin, president of the anti-Semite League.

The Waltz King Is Ill.

Vienna, March 9.—The eminent composer, Johann Strauss, head of the great dynasty of waltz kings, is seriously ill. Herr Strauss is a victim of influenza, and the physicians say that his condition is extremely critical.

Fast Steamship Line.

London, March 9.—The Elder-Dempster Company and the Beaver Line intend to establish fast weekly services between Liverpool and Montreal.

Queen Marie Worse.

Brussels, March 9.—Extra editions of the evening papers, issued at midnight, assert that the condition of the Queen Marie Henriette has grown worse.

Two and a Half Years for Bill-Raising.

Hamilton, March 8.—Charles Kleval of Lynden, who was mixed up in a raised-bill case with George Steves, who is now under arrest in Chatham, was tried before Judge Snider yesterday on a charge of passing a raised bill on Mrs. Moore of Alberton on Feb. 16. He was found guilty. In sentencing him to Kingston Penitentiary for two and a half years, the judge expressed the opinion that he had been a tool of his friend Steves.

Gave Up Life for Her Hair.

Battle Creek, Mich., March 8.—Miss Ethelyn M. Wallace of this place has died from the weight of her hair. Her locks were four and a half feet long and caused brain trouble, as she would not allow them to be cut.

MYSTERY CLEARED UP

Former Toronto Bookkeeper Dies at Nagasaki, Japan.

HE TOOK $60,000 WITH HIM.

Cost the Buntin, Reid & Co. Paper Firm in Toronto a Large Amount of Money—Method by Which It Was Secured—Man Who Loved Diamonds and Pearls.

Vancouver, B.C., March 9.—The latest Japanese papers say a man who went by the name of Jackson was found dead in bed at Nagasaki, entirely among strangers. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of death from acute pleurisy. Search among the effects of the dead man proved his name was not Jackson, but Williams, who was connected recently with the wholesale house of Buntin, Reid & Company, in Toronto. He left Toronto suddenly and was said to have been speculating in New York stocks. Later, he wrote a Toronto friend that he was going for a whirl in the Orient. Williams, the Oriental papers say, was a great society man in Toronto, and was known for the value and size of the diamonds he wore.

A Lonely Death.

The strange and terribly sudden end to a remarkable career, as told in the Oriental exchanges, shows that he failed in his object, for he died miserably, alone and almost friendless, after filling subordinate positions in a mercantile house for several years. He had been sick and uncared for in the miserable garret for nearly a week before discovered, and must have suffered terribly. Letters addressed to people in England, it is stated, discovered his identity.

CAREER IN TORONTO.

His Death Clears Up the Mystery of His Disappearance in 1893.

Toronto, March 9.—Mr. Alex. Buntin of Buntin, Reid & Co. last night said the disappearance of Williams in September, 1893, had cost the firm a large sum of money. In many of the transactions criminal intent could perhaps not have been established, his offence consisting more of maladministration of the interests committed to his charge than to direct crime. The manipulation of accounts and writing off of debts was carried on for a long period. The belief at the time of the bookkeeper's disappearance was that he had secured about $60,000, but of course a large part of this was obtained not by embezzlement but by the maladministration practised by him. Williams, as described by those who knew him intimately, was rather an eccentric character, and it is believed that the proceeds of his account cooking went largely into the hands of stockbrokers and commission men.

Williams was employed by Buntin, Reid & Co., wholesale stationers, for 25 years, as bookkeeper and confidential clerk. He came to Toronto from Kidderminster, England. He roomed at 157 Denison avenue. On Thursday, September 14, 1893, he disappeared, and has not been seen here since.

Were Diamonds and Pearls.

For years he was a familiar figure in the streets of Toronto, going about in the coldest winter weather without an overcoat or gloves. Passionately fond of jewellery, he was always resplendent with diamonds and pearls. He enjoyed the reputation of being a hard worker, and, although eccentric, was thoroughly posted in all matters of business.

At first the members of the firm stated that there were no irregularities in his accounts, although it was learned that shortly before his departure he drew about $18,000 from the Traders' Bank, and left small accounts at his credit at the Imperial, Commerce and Hamilton banks. Later an investigation of his books led to the placing of the case in the hands of the detectives, and he was traced to the United States. An attaching order against his real and personal property was taken out by the firm. He was reported to have been in Chicago on September 23 of the same year. For a considerable time thereafter no trace of the missing man was found, and it was impossible to tell where he had gone.

HOMAN WALSH DEAD.

Landed the Pioneer Kite Which Made Possible the First Suspension Bridge Over the Niagara Gorge.

Niagara Falls, N.Y., March 9.—Friends here received advices last night from Lincoln, Neb., of the death of Homan Walsh there yesterday. He was born here and in 1848, when he was a young boy, was invited to try and connect the Niagara cliff by a kite string, he being an expert in that line. He tried once and failed; then he crossed to the Canadian side by ferry and in half an hour, during a high gale, he landed his kite on the American bank, receiving a reward of $50. This string drew a heavier cord, followed by ropes and cables, and from them grew the first great suspension bridge across the gorge, which was situated where the present railway steel arch bridge stands.

STEVES GOT TWENTY YEARS.

Tramp Who Shot a Pal Found Guilty of Manslaughter.

Brantford, March 9.—At the Assizes here the case of Steves, the tramp, for murder at Paris Station, was commenced, and concluded last evening. Some half-dozen witnesses gave evidence for the prosecution, after which Steves went into the witness box and admitted shooting in self-defence. The jury brought in a verdict of manslaughter. Steves was sentenced to 20 years imprisonment.

Perfectly Cured

Weak and Low Spirited—Nervous Prostration—Appetite Poor and Could Not Rest.

"I take great pleasure in recommending Hood's Sarsaparilla to others. It has been the means of restoring my wife to good health. She was stricken down with an attack of nervous prostration. She suffered with headaches and her nerves were under severe strain. She became very low spirited and so weak she could only do a little work without resting. Her appetite was poor, and being so weak she could not get the proper rest at night. She decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, as we had heard it highly praised, and I am glad to state that Hood's Sarsaparilla has perfectly cured all her ailments." G. THURSDAY, MARCH 9, 1899.

AN ENEMY'S APPROVAL.

The Toronto Evening News, which in a political sense is but an evening edition of the Mail and Empire, has the frankness and honesty to print this approval of the new Ontario Revenue Bill:

"It is based on sound economical principles, and likely to be acceptable to the people of the province. * *

"When the necessity of gathering additional revenue is taken into account, it will be difficult for any person to show a better means of obtaining that revenue than the one the government has adopted.

"As far as the contention that this is a resort to direct taxation is concerned, there does not seem to be any ground for it. Certainly the principle of the bill is not direct taxation, as the people of the province understood the phrase. The general apprehension of a direct tax is that of a poll tax, so that while the political hair-splitters may call this measure by any name they choose, the people of the province will not call it direct taxation any more than they will call a tariff on manufactured articles direct taxation. * *

"The general effect of the new bill is not calculated to injure the government except with the liquor interest, and even possible opposition from this source has been modified by confining the operation of the new measure to cities. Altogether the bill is very shrewdly conceived and ably framed. As it is analyzed more closely, defects which are not apparent on the face of it may be discovered, but on the first reading it does not appear to be one that lays the government open to serious attack from any direction."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

IF Great Britain should adopt a tax of a shilling a quarter on wheat, it is not probable that it will be made to apply to Canadian wheat.

THE Mail and Empire says that the purpose of the new Liberals (whoever is meant by that) "is not to reform, but to deform, the Senate." Isn't this a "moral" impossibility?

THE German Emperor's telegram to Mrs. Kipling is all very nice as a matter of sentiment, but let Mr. Kippling touch up the Teutonic Tommy Atkins as freely as he has done the British prototype in the immortal Barrack Room Ballads and see what lese majestie proceedings would loom up.

LORD CLAUDE HAMILTON has left the Conservative party in Great Beitain, not because it wasn't clean, but because he disagreed with its home policy. Here is an opportunity for some British journal, if one can be found—which, thank decency, is impossible—like the Mail and Empire, to inaugurate a campaign of abuse a la Tarte.

THE Toronto Telegram, (Independent) says:—"The Government has not placed its burdens upon weak or crippled shoulders. The breweries, the distilleries, and the bar-rooms can stand increased taxation. The banks and other corporations must be weak, indeed, if they are seriously inconvenienced by the burdens which Mr. Harcourt imposes."

EVERYONE who knows anything about the subject acknowledges that wide tires are very helpful in the maintenance of good roads, but the difficulty in the past has been to get owners of vehicles to adopt them. In Oregon they hope to get over the trouble in a novel way. Those who use wide tires in that state will be rewarded with a rebate in taxes for four years.

OPPOSITION orators and organs speak sneeringly of Hon. Mr. Harcourt justifying his revenue bill by the necessity of finding new sources of revenue. If Mr. Harcourt is wrong he is sinning in good company. The London Times is advocating a duty on breadstuffs, claiming that with the present sources of revenue a sufficient income for imparial purposes cannot be secured. If this course is a justification for Great Britain, with its thousand years of history, complaint should not be made that a growing province like Ontario, whose development has only just begun, should find it necessary to supplement sources of revenue that were sufficient for the necessary demands of a province in its infancy of development. If we in Ontario enter upon, as we should do, a vigorous policy of development, our revenue that has so far sufficed for ordinary state needs, will necessarily have to be increased.

KEENE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. Frank Bolin, of Peterborough, is spending a few weeks with his brother here.

Miss Maud West, of Peterborough, was the guest of Miss Helen Laing for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Reid and family have settled in our quiet little village.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Campbell spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Toronto.

The newest thing in baby girls at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Nelson.

Our young folks took advantage of the splendid skating on the river and lake, which were an unbroken sheet of ice last weeks.

A colts' hockey match was played off Thursday night between a team from the Peterborough Business College and the local Juniors. The play was clean and devoid of any roughness. The spectators enjoyed the treat and lustily cheered the good plays of both teams. The Peterborough boys showed themselves full of true sport, and we heartily welcome such-like to our little village. Score, 5—5. We expect the "Ironsides" (Hardware), of Peterborough, to float among the "buoys" here at an early date. Watch for announcement.

The local Curling Club sent down two rinks—four skips and four colts—to take part in the Campbellford bonspiel. The "old hands" were smothered by 15 shots in the two-rink competition, and left for home, while the Colts were up two shots and stayed over to flood their "stanes" through the water against the Peterborough Granites, when they were "ducked" by four shots. The following were the rinks:—

The senior hockey team in response to an invitation went up to Lakefield on Friday to play an exhibition game at the carnival with the first seven of that place. The boys were well treated and despite the fact that they had two junior men on they tied the home team by a score of 4 to 4. Our boys are starting in late but it is not their fault as they were unable to get a game on to any advantage before. The junior players are fast coming to the front and the prospects for next season are bright. Lakefield seniors play here Friday night. We would like to accommodate the Colts, but they ask too much for expenses.

MR. FRANK DODGE

Says His Life was Saved by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto Feb. 27.—Mr. Frank Dodge, of North Maupeberg, Ont., has been visiting here recently. He is a splendid specimen of Canadian manhood, standing more than six feet high "in his stockings" erect and muscular.

"I was a different man two years ago," said he to a friend to day. The truth is I would have died of Kidney Complaint, if it hadn't been for Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I had been treated by physicians and had taken various remedies without getting any better. I read of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and decided to try them. I did so, and was thoroughly cured in a couple of weeks.

THE ORANGEMEN.

Grand Lodge of Ontario West Convened in the Town of Barrie—State of the Order.

Barrie, March 9.—The Orange Grand Lodge of Ontario west opened its annual meeting yesterday afternoon, Mr. D. M. Jermyn of Wiarton, the Grand Master, in the chair, all the grand officers and a large delegation being in attendance.

Mr. D. M. Germyn, Grand Master, delivered a comprehensive address, in which he reported that the order is still progressing. The Grand Master made touching reference to the dead, mentioning specially the late Mr. D'Alton McCarthy, Rev. Dr. Chiniquy, and Rev. Dr. Kane of Belfast.

Mr. William Lee, Grand Secretary, reports the organization of two new county lodges, viz., South Kent and North Muskoka, also an application for the formation of a new county lodge taking in the Rainy River district, to be named the County Lodge of Rainy River. The reports received from county lodges show the following: Initiations, 1,393; joined by certificate, 360; reinstated, 248; while the loss by death has been 166, and by expulsion 41, the net increase being about 1,700.

Mr. E. F. Clarke, M.P., Grand Treasurer, reports cash on hand and in bank, $1,694.56; arrears outstanding, $922.10; also a full statement of receipts and expenditures.

The work at the afternoon's session was routine in character.

Grand Trunk Engineer Swears by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Mr. Geo. Cummings, for over twenty years engineer on Grand Trunk running between Toronto and Allandale, says:—"The constant duty with my work gave me excessive pains in my back, racking my kidneys. I tried several remedies until I was recommend by my fireman, Mr. Dave Conley, to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Two boxes have completely cured me an I feel to-day a better man than ever. I recommend them to all my friends.

MAN TO MANY DEAR.

A True Physician, Dr. H. Wright of Toronto, Passes to His Rest.

Toronto, March 9.—A man beloved by thousands, one who did good alike by his skill and his generous heart, passed away on Tuesday in the person of Dr. Henry Wright.

It is related of him that he worked for the good of his fellows, rather than for the increase of worldly wealth. Many incidents might be related where a consideration of the poverty of his patients resulted in the entire abolition of fees. Thousands of Torontonians can testify to this.

He was born on Aug. 5, 1817, in Marysburgh, Midland District, County of Prince Edward, of United Empire Loyalist parents. He was a son of the Rev. David Wright. After a common school education he studied medicine with Dr. John Rolph. He it was that enabled Dr. Rolph to escape from Canada in the turbulent times of 1837. The doctor rode his horse to Oakville and got to Niagara. Shortly afterwards the deceased and Dr. Rolph were in partnership as doctors in Rochester. When quiet was restored in Upper Canada, Dr. Wright came to Dundas and practised for a few years. Afterwards he was in Markham, and 40 years or more ago he came to Toronto, where he has since resided and practised until two years ago.

He had practised for 62 years in all with wonderful success. Practically, till reorganization, he was secretary of the Toronto School of Medicine, in which he was a lecturer. When reorganization took place he became the first professor of medicine.

THE LEGISLATURE

Amendments to the Workmen's Compensation Act Proposed.

THE PROCEDURE SIMPLIFIED.

The Costs Cut in Two by the Premier's Bill—Onus of Proof Placed on Employers of Injured Workmen—The Debate on the Bonus Question Continued—Assembly Notes.

Toronto, March 9.—Yesterday afternoon Hon. Mr. Hardy introduced his bill to amend the law respecting compensation to workmen for injuries. The measure, which, Mr. Hardy announced, embraced the best features of the English act and discarded those for which the public mind was not ripe, has for its object, first, the placing of the onus of proof with respect to the condition of machinery, etc., upon the employer, and, secondly, the simplifying of the legal procedure and the lessening of the cost of litigation under the act by means of arbitration. Mr. Whitney approved of the effort made both by the Attorney-General and Mr. Crawford in their bills to simplify legal procedure, and advocated an extension of the principle suggested to the general legal procedure.

Hon. Mr. Hardy's Speech.

The Attorney-General introduced the Government's bill to amend the Workmen's Compensation for Injuries Act. He said the working of the present act had not been as satisfactory as could have been desired. The machinery was in several respects imperfect, and it entailed great expense. The legal expenses were high with the retaining of counsel and costs of witnesses. Hence the need of simplification and reduced expense. The injured workman was by this amending bill given the option of a decision on his claim by arbitration. This was in accordance with the English act, and this was a point wherein the Canadian law differed. It was provided in the present bill that after due notice the plaintiff may decide whether he will have recourse to arbitration or proceed by ordinary process of law. If the judge in chambers finds that there are no complications as to law the action will go to the arbitrator. The costs are made costs in the county court; and the decision of the court of arbitration is to be final. The costs under the proposed bill will be less than one-half of the ordinary costs in the law courts. Many complaints had been received by the Government as to defects in the working of the present act. These had been duly considered and provisions made to amend what had been complained of. Trials and settlements of actions would be more expeditious and there would be an absence of friction and unnecessary delay. These, with the economy in working, were matters which would commend themselves to the favorable consideration of the House. The English act was in the nature of an experiment; it had not long been in force, and the country had not yet made up its mind on its merits. Therefore the Government had only adopted one important section of that act—the resort to a court of arbitration—and incorporated that in the present bill.

The Opposition Leader.

Mr. Whitney (Dundas) said that until he had considered the provisions of the bill he could not deal with it as fully as he might have occasion to do later. Neither he the House was unaware that Mr. Crawford, the member for West Toronto, had a bill before the House of a similar nature, though going further than the Government bill apparently does. From the brief statement of the Attorney-General, he concluded that Mr. Crawford's bill was broader and generally more desirable than the one now introduced on the part of the Government. There is one good feature in both the bill of Mr. Crawford and that of the Attorney-General—the simplifying of procedure for recovery of compensation for injuries. He saw no reason why the same effort should not be successfully made to simplify all legal procedure. He hoped the time was not distant when simplification would be adopted in regard to the entire legal procedure of Ontario.

The bill was then formally read a first time.

Questions by Members.

Hon. Mr. Hardy, in reply to Mr. Whitney, said that no patients had been admitted to Toronto Lunatic Asylum from other provinces of the Dominion or from the United States.

Orders for Returns.

Mr. C. B. Powell (Ottawa) obtained an order of the House for a return of correspondence in reference to the abduction of an Ontario man named Meagher by a customs officer of the United States.

Mr. McLaughlin (Stormont) obtained an order of the House for a return of a copy of Miller's report as to the discovery of gold in the Township of Marmora.

Mr. S. J. Fox (West Victoria) obtained an order for a return showing the number of police magistrates in Ontario, their names, dates of appointment, territories and salaries.

The Bonus System Debate.

Mr. W. M. German (Welland), who resumed the debate on the bonus resolutions, considered that Mr. Pattullo's bill went too far. He considered that exceptional circumstances more than those stated in the bill should be considered in case of applications for bonuses. He thought that to lay down a hard and fast line that no bonuses should be granted was to go further than the Legislature intended in the act now on the statute book. He, therefore, moved an amendment to the resolution to the effect that in view of the exceptional legislation of the past five or six years, and pending legislation in this respect applied for in the present session of the House, founded on the assumption that similar privileges would be granted, the private bills committee should take these facts into consideration, whilst careful not to pass bills in contravention of the act of 1888.

Mr. F. F. Pardee (West Lambton) seconded the amendment.

Mr. S. Clarke (West Northumberland) spoke for the rights of municipalities to decide the benefits or otherwise of bonuses. They were better judges of what was desirable in their respective districts than the Ontario Legislature.

Mr. H. Carscallen (East Hamilton) spoke in favor of the amendment. The adoption of Mr. Pattullo's resolution would be productive of very little good. It was a hardship to deprive municipalities of the power to judge of the propriety of granting a bonus which they would have to pay. Such a provision as the vote of two-thirds of the ratepayers would be a safeguard in such cases.

Dr. McKay (North Oxford) pointed out that smaller places would be handicapped by the city of Toronto with its millions' worth of vacant property, which would be offered firms at a nominal rental in lieu of bonus, and moved an amendment to the amendment, that questions of bonus, loans, or exemptions be submitted to ratepayers to be decided by a two-thirds majority, and that such bonus, loan or exemption be not for the purpose of aiding any manufactory or industry where a similar one exists.

Mr. James Conmee (West Algoma) seconded Dr. McKay's amendment, after which the debate was adjourned.

The Bill Out of Order.

The Speaker gave his decision respecting Mr. Crawford's bill to regulate the overcrowding of street cars. It was out of order. The Speaker added that he was of the opinion that any citizen of Toronto had a right to the presentation of a private bill to the House to secure legislation on the lines of Mr. Crawford's bill.

Second Readings of Bills.

Mr. German (Welland) moved the second reading of his bill to amend the act incorporating the Ontario Veterinary Association. By consent it was amended to allow practitioners of 15 years' standing to register. The only object of the bill was to have veterinary surgeons protected in the same way as lawyers and doctors were. The bill was then read a second time.

Mr. Barr's bill to amend the Registry Act was, after discussion, withdrawn.

Mr. Jamieson's bill to amend the Municipal Act was read a second time.

The bill of Mr. Hill (West York) for amendment to the Municipal Act was read a second time. So was Mr. Marter's bill to amend the Assessment Act.

Private Bills.

A dozen private bills were advanced a stage in committee of the whole House.

MRS. C. GRIMES, HAZELDEAN, ONT.

Would not be without Laxa-Liver Pills in the house—they cured her of Indigestion and Liver Troubles.

Another Ontario lady speaks from experience of the good effects of Laxa-Liver Pills. It is Mrs. Grimes, Hazeldean, Ontario. She wrote the following account of her experience with this remedy:—"Having had an attack of indigestion and liver trouble last spring, I decided to try Laxa-Liver Pills and find that they are the best thing I have ever used. They give relief that is most lasting in its effects, very much more so than any other remedy that I have ever tried. They are easy to take and act promptly and effectively. I believe them to be the best liver medicine that is to be found and I would not be without a bottle of them in my house."

ASSEMBLY NOTES.

James Grant of Edgewood has been appointed clerk of the Second Division Court, vice George H. Duck, resigned.

A recount of the ballots cast in the recent bye-election in South Perth, by which Mr. Nelson Monteith was elected by a majority of seven, will be held before Judge Barron at Stratford on Saturday.

The City of Ottawa Railway bill, which provides for Sunday cars, was passed by the private bills committee yesterday by a vote of 34 to 18.

Deputations on Wednesday.

The Government received the following deputations yesterday: From the life insurance men complaining of the tax bill; from South Perth, against the Brown bill, to amalgamate North and South Perth registry offices; from many representative men asking for further assistance to the James Bay Railway in the shape of $5,000 a mile, or $3,000 a mile and 6,400 acres of land per mile, from a point 70 miles south of Parry Sound on the Severn River through to James Bay (in his reply to this deputation, Mr. Hardy said the land bonus question was a serious one).

THE HOSPITALS.

Summary of Contents of a Very Interesting Legislative Report.

One of the most interesting reports laid on the table at this session of the Legislature is that containing statistics and information regarding the hospitals. The work done by the hospitals in Ontario during 1898 surpasses all previous years in their history, the number of patients treated having been 21,898, an increase of 2,211 over any preivous year, while the death rate was greatly decreased, being 1,129, or about five per cent. of the cases treated. This is the lowest death rate yet reached in the province. The number of hospitals receiving Government aid is 48. Three were placed on the list during the year: St. Luke's, Ottawa; General Hospital, Cornwall; Orthopedic Hospital, Toronto.

The grant of the Government was formerly 30 cents per day, but this has been changed to a yearly grant of $110,000, which is divided among the various hospitals according to the work done.

"How long the Legislature will continue to grant aid it is difficult to say," says the report, "but it is natural to suppose that as these institutions become more nearly self-supporting by fees, private contributions, etc., the Government grant will become less."

The collective stay of patients amounted to 573,899 days. The average of each patient was 27 days. The average per capita cost per day was 80.79 cents.

The reports of the Toronto hospitals are as follows: General, treated 3,117, total income $75,555, expenditure, $72,419, per capita expense per day 88.21 cents.

Grace, treated 836, total income $17,350, expenditure $15,261, per capita expense per day 77.40 cents.

Sick Children's, treated 633, total income $45,575, expenditure $30,714, per capita expense per day 88.98 cents.

St. Michael's, treated 1,725, total income $29,929, expenditure $29,988, per capita expense per day 68 cents.

Western, treated 872, total income $6,812, expenditure $6,922, per capita cost 81.80 cents.

BOB GINTY'S LEG BROKEN.

He Fired an Overloaded Shotgun in a Smokestack.

Newmarket, Ont., March 8.—Yesterday an employe of the Office Specialty Company named Bob Ginty undertook to blow out an accumulation of soot in the sleve of the smokestack with a charge of buckshot. He put in a very heavy charge, and, resting the gun on his knee, fired it off. The result was the gun kicked so strongly as to break his leg between the knee and thigh. He is now in the surgeon's hands.

He Fooled the Surgeons.

All doctors told Renick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest Pile cure on Earth, and the best Salve in the World. 25 cents a box. New York State Law Regarding Pike and Pickerel Close Season Declared Unconstitutional.

Buffalo, March 9.—The New York State law prohibiting the handling of pike and pickerel during the "close" season, when the fish are lawfully caught or purchased outside the State, has been declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court. The close season extended throughout February, March and April. The decision rendered yesterday is of great importance to the fishermen, as large shipments of the fish mentioned are made daily from Canada to Buffalo and other cities in the State.

THE ODORLESS CREMATORY CLOSET.

I have been appointed Sole Agent for the Odorless Crematory Closet manufactured by the Crematory Closet and General Heating Co., of Hamilton.

This Closet has found a place in many of the best homes in the province, and all who have used it cannot speak too highly of its merits. Medical men speak of it from a sanitary point of view, claiming that, if health is any consideration, no home should be without one. Here are some of the

TESTIMONIALS.

Alliston, March 1st, 1898.

I have had one of your "Crematory Closets in use now for several weeks and am glad to be able to say that I have found it entirely satisfactory in every respect. I have not been able to detect the slightest odor from it at any time and would not be without it. I am sure it must prove a great convenience to people in the country and in towns where water is not obtainable. Yours respectfully,
JAMES CONWAY.

Shedden, February 28th, 1898.

I have used it for sometime and find it perfectly odorless. It is a long felt want and I believe it will become very popular especially in rural districts, towns and villages where wells are so frequently contaminated by the ordinary closets. I am, yours, etc.
W. H. MORRISON

Medical Superintendent's Office, Sept. 30th, 1897
Asylum for the Insane, Hamilton.

Gentlemen: I had the opportunity of witnessing yesterday the operation of your Odorless Crematory Closet. It had a large accumulation of fecal matter in the pan when the fire was started, and inside of 20 minutes it was all reduced to ashes. There was no odor before or during the operation of consuming the fecal matter, as the ventilation by the flue seems to carry off all odor at once, before it has a chance to vitiate the surrounding atmosphere.
Yours truly, JAMES RUSSELL, M.D.

Elmbrook, Sept. 30th, 1897.

Dear Sirs—Having been present at a private test of your new patent closet yesterday afternoon, I beg to express my satisfaction with it in every way. Neither before, during or after the burning out of its contents did I detect the slightest unpleasant odor. I am satisfied it will be a boon to thousands in rural towns, villages and country homes. Yours truly,
M. J. MULLOCK.

The Stanley Piano Company.

The following from Presto, a leading musical journal of the United States, and published in the city of Chicago, will be of local interest. Presto says:—Interesting particulars of the progress of the Stanley Piano Co., Limited of Toronto, appear in this issue of the Presto. The acquisition to the Canadian industry of so strong an individuality as Mr. A. L. Davis, is the best possible evidence that piano manufacture in the Dominion is keeping pace with the other progressive industries. The successful growth of the "Stanley" piano is further gratifying to the Presto, and scores of Mr. Charles Stanley's friends in the States, because of that gentleman's earlier work here, and particularly his part in the progress of the industry in Chicago. With the removal of the factory of the Stanley Piano Co., Limited, from Toronto to larger quarters at Peterborough, we are sure that its true career is but just begun and that it will develop rapidly and substantially."

TEAM OF HORSES DROWNED.

They Go Through the Ice at the "Yankee Bonnet."

Yesterday afternoon Mr. —— Smith, of North Monaghan, lost a valuable team of horses by drowning in the river. He had been to town during the day with a load of produce, and was proceeding home by way of the east side of the river, wishing to call for his daughter on the other side of the river on his way home. He made a sad mistake in selecting a place to cross. He should have gone much lower down. The current at the "Yankee Bonnet" is swift, and the ice there is the last to form and is never at any time safe. Lower down the river the ice is good. He had got about half way across when the team plunged through the ice. Though help was promptly at hand, it was impossible to get the horses out. They became entangled in the harness, and one horse getting on top of the other, drowned the latter, which in turn dragged down its mate. Mr. Smith fortunately escaped with his life.

AT MISS DELANEY'S.

Early Spring Millinery Already on Exhibition—Peterborough as Well Advanced as Toronto.

Miss Delaney takes the lead in early spring millinery. Among the novelties for spring there is an exquisite display of tulle, lace, chiffons, crepe, flowers, ribbons and satins, in new shades, the richness of which has seldom been seen here so early in the season, and affords a new pleasure to Peterborough ladies. The admirable taste shown in the choice of goods, both as to quality and style, is, this year, more noticeable than ever.

In colours the leading shades are purple, new blues, pink and cerino. A noticeable feature of all the smart millinery is the number and variety of handsome buckles, veilings and ornaments. Miss Delaney always makes a specialty of gloves, hosiery and corsets, and her spring selections in these lines have been made with extra care. The ladies of Peterborough need not delay making their selections for spring as Miss Delaney is quite as well prepared to supply their wants as are the milliners of Toronto and other centres.

MASONIC CONCLAVE.

MERIDIAN POINT REACHED BY PETERBOROUGH MASONRY.

Second Official Visit of the District Deputy Grand Master—Peterborough Lodge Entertains the Visiting Brethren—Exemplification Par Excellence.

In the beginning, Solomon owned the earth and had a little fence around it and inside the enclosure he allowed no one but Masons. Whatever reliance may be placed on this statement, it is morally certain that these Masons, like all other followers of Adam, longed for more light and liberty. And so it came to pass that one fine morning this ancient hive of mysterious workers broke through their enclosure and thenceforth there went up a mist that watered the whole earth and there grew up in the East that spirit of Masonry which has spread over the whole habitable globe.

The universality of the brotherhood has left its impression on the world, for the brethren have not shut up their Masonic principles in the lodge room, but in whatever sphere of life they be placed they have helped each other and recognized that it was their bounden duty to progress as the days go on. So mote it be.

The early days of 1899 have been marked in Peterborough by an unusual manifestation of Masonic activity among the local brethren. Last night the District Deputy Grand Master for the Ontario District paid a second official visit and was loyally received by the brethren of Peterborough Lodge, No. 155. There was a very large attendance of the craft, including Grand Lodge officers, visiting brethren from the District Lodges—Corinthian Lodge, Peterborough; Clementi Lodge, Lakefield; Keene Lodge, Keene, and representatives from lodges in different parts of Ontario, outside the district.

Among those present were: the distinguished guest of the evening, R. W. Bro. Jas. Evans, D.D.G.M., Port Hope; R. W. Bro. H. Rush, Grand Junior Warden; R. W. Bro. E. H. D. Hall, P.D.D.G.M.; R. W. Bro. R. E. Wood, P.D.D.G.M.; R. W. Bro. Benj. Shortly, P.D.D.G.M.; V. W. Bro. Alex Gibson, V. W. Bro. H. Winch, V. W. Bro. Chas. Cameron, V. W. Bro. R. Winch, V. W. Bro. R. Mulholland, in addition to the presence of fifteen well-skilled P. Ms., contributing to make the assemblage one of noteworthy importance to the local fraternity.

Chief interest was centred during the evening in the official visit of the D.D.G.M. In anticipation of this visit W. Bro. W. Conway, the W. M. of Peterborough Lodge, and his officers, have been diligent. The work of the evening was in the 3°, and the exemplification was a revelation to the D.D.G.M., drawing forth valued words of commendation from the distinguished visitor, and the retinue of skilled craftsmen present.

IN THE REFRESHMENT ROOM.

At the conclusion of the work of the Lodge, the Grand Lodge officers and visiting brethren were entertained at supper by the members of Peterborough Lodge, with W. Bro. W. Conway in the chair.

W. Bro. Conway took occasion to express the pleasure it afforded him of having the D. D. G. M. present, and was convinced he would carry away with him a good report of the craftsmen of Peterborough. He was proud of his officers, and he never had any doubt what the verdict would be. He then proposed the toast of "The Queen and the Craft," which was royally honoured.

R. W. Bro. W. Millar in a few happy words proposed the toast of "The Grand Lodge of Canada," responded to by R. W. Bro. H. Rush, R. W. Bro. R. E. Wood and R. W. Bro. Alex. Gibson.

Bro. (Rev.) W. L. Armitage proposed the health of the "D. D. G. M.," who responded in an encouraging speech on the state of Masonry in the district. He had visited officially twenty lodges and found a most flourishing condition existing in every section. He referred to his reception in Peterborough as of the most enthusiastic and hospitable character and extolled the officers of Corinthian and Peterborough Lodges for the skill and accuracy of their work. "Peterborough," he said, "was the head-centre of Masonry in this district and he invited the officers to take the place of honour at his Lodge of Instruction to be held in Port Hope on March 21st.

R. W. Bro. Benj. Shortly made some appropriate and pertinent remarks respecting the state of the district as it was to be found now and during the days when he had reviewed it. He proposed the toast of "The Visiting Brethren," which was responded to by W. Bro. W. Graham, of Lakefield, Bro. (Rev.) Bushel, of Keene, Bro. Lalong, of Brockville, and W. Bro. R. Munro, of Lakefield.

R. W. Bro. Chas. Cameron gave some interesting ancient history of Masonry down to 1903 when Peterborough Lodge was instituted.

V. W. Bro. Rich. Winch proposed the toast of "The Newly Raised Candidates." The toast was responded to by Bro. W. Bunton, who gave expression to the pleasure and profit it had afforded him of enjoying the privileges of Masonry. The principles it inculcated and the lessons it taught were calculated to make men better in every walk of life.

"The Junior Warden's Toast" was then given and honoured in the usual happy manner. By special request a new and appropriate song entitled "The Junior Warden's Toast," was sung for the first time in Peterborough by Bro. Crane, who invested it with a spirit such as only a Master Mason of the vocal art could arouse.

THE JUNIOR WARDEN'S TOAST.

From the east comes the sound of the Master's voice "Are your glasses charged to the brim?"
"Aye, charg'd in the West," "full charg'd in the South" the Wardens answer him.
Then to our farewell toast to-night our brimming glasses drain
"Happy to meet, sorry to part, happy to meet again."
Chorus—Happy to meet, sorry to part, happy to meet again,
Happy to meet, sorry to part, happy to meet again.

"We meet upon the level" true, and when our work is o'er,
"We part upon the square" each night within the close tyled door
And, breaking from each loyal heart, there breaks this glad refrain
"Happy to meet, sorry to part, happy to meet again"
Chorus Happy to meet, etc.

Dear brothers of the mystic tie, the night is waning fast,
Our labour's done, refreshment's o'er, this song must be our last.
Good night! Good night! yet, ere we part, once more the farewell strain,
"Happy to meet, sorry to part, happy to meet again."
Chorus—Happy to meet, etc.

The local brethren are indebted to R. W. Bro. H. Rush, G.J.W., for the advance copy of the inspiriting music of this new Masonic song, adapted and written by R. W. J. C. Morgan, D.D.G.M., Georgian Bay District.

During the evening a number of capital songs were given, in which Bros. Crane, Stocker and Walden took part.

Ribbons for everything this season. If you are wondering how to have your New Dress trimmed this season, don't worry over it. Come and see the many beautiful things we are showing in Ribbons, we'll settle that matter for you. All Ribbon frilled free of charge while you wait.

VEILINGS.

The latest fad in Veiling can be found here. The same identical things as shown in the leading centres of fashion, are shown simultaneously at this store. We have some particularly nice things in sewing Silk Veilings for March winds that ought to interest you just now.

NEW WAIST SILKS.

It will only require a visit to our Silk Department and you will conclude at once that this store is pre-eminent in the matter of Silks. Our assortment is simply immense, covering all qualities and prices, in pliads, checks, and stripes. This season stripes are the latest up-to-date things in Silks. See what we are showing in stripes. They're right.

NEW WASH GOODS.

If you ask us what we think about Wash Dress Goods this season, we will say: Pique will be the rage for both Skirts and Blouses; we are showing a range of them that will make you think they are the right thing too. Many people are buying their supply now expecting a scarcity when the big selling season arrives.

MUSLINS.

New Muslins and beauties everyone of them. Don't forget to see our New Muslins.

NEW DRESS GOODS

Is will do you good to see the very latest arrivals in Dress Goods. Just the same things as are worn in London and Paris to-day can be found right here in Peterborough; we don't have anything but the the very latest here because we buy them right from the fountain head, and in all cases they have to be made after we give our order which insures our customers getting the thing at the right price, as in buying from us there is no middleman's profit to pay.

MEN'S DEPARTMENT.

We aim to make this a Gentlemen's store as well as a Ladies Store, and we have made special importations for the men this year in the very Nobbiest Suitings, Ties, Collars, etc., that could be procured in the Old World. Which will be sold at prices consistent with our Modern Dry Goods prices.

A BIG COAL COMBINE.

Capital Representing Railway Interest of 800 Millions. Only One Respectable Railway out of the Combine.

New York, March 8.—The World to-day says: J. Pierpont Morgan returned yesterday on the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm Der Grosse. He went abroad two months ago to secure assent of the Readings' English stockholder to a plan that the Vanderbilts the Pennsylvania Railway Company, Maxwell, of the New Jersey Central, and W.H. Truesdale, of the Delaware and Lackawanna and Western Companies had formulated for the consolidation of all the great eastern coal interests under one management.

Mr. Morgan, when seen soon after his arrival, was very reticent regarding his work in London. It is understood that his efforts have been successful. From men with whom he has talked and who have been in cable touch with him during his absence, a general explanation of the plan was learned. Hundreds of millions of dollars have been brought into one combination. A pro rata division of the coal output and of the profits has been outlined, though months will be required to finally adjust all the details. It is estimated that fully $3 200,000 will be saved annually in operating expenses. The companies said to be in the big deal are the Reading Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, Pennsylvania, New York, Lake Erie and Western Coal and Railway Company, Pennsylvania Coal Company, New York, Ontario and Western Company. Central Railroad of New Jersey, New York Susquehanna Railroad Company, with a combined capital of more than $800,000,000.

(This combine, will of course, mean an advance in the price of coal, though it is claimed that over three millions a year will be saved in operating expense. One may safely wager that the consumer won't get the benefit of it; the object is to increase the price of coal and consequently the profits of the combine. It is interesting to note that the State Line and Sullivan Railway in Pennsylvania, better known in Canada as the People's Coal Company, is the only large coal mining organization that is not in the combine.

AN IMPORTANT PROPOSAL.

Provincial Reference Library and of Provincial Travelling Library.

The readers of the EXAMINER may have seen notices from time to time of a movement for the formation of a Provincial Reference Library, and of Travelling Libraries, i.e., boxes of books to be sent under certain conditions to the country districts of the Province. A very strong committee to forward these schemes has been formed in Toronto, and Prof. MacCallum, of Toronto, its chairman, recently wrote Mr. Cortes Fessenden and Rev. H. Symonds asking them to endeavour to form a local committee in Peterborough to co-operate with other local committees and with the Central Committees in Toronto.

A meeting was therefore held in Mr. D. W. Dumble's office yesterday afternoon when the following were present: Messrs. Cortes Fessenden, Sheriff Hall, D. W. Dumble, Dr. Burnham, J. Jeffreys, Rev. H. Symonds, Mrs. Macfarlane Wilson, Miss Lundy and Miss Amy Halliday.

Mr. Cortes Fessenden presided and explained the objects of the meeting.

It was moved by Mr. Dumble, seconded by Rev. H Symonds, and carried, that the meeting approve of the scheme as presented.

The following committee was elected:—Mr. Cortes Fessenden, Dr. Burnham, Inspector Walker, Mr. T A. Hay, Mr. E.B. Edwards, Rev. H. Symonds, Mrs. Kendry, Mrs MacFarlane Wilson, Miss Lundy and Miss Halliday.

PETER CONNAL & Co.

The reports were adopted, on motion of Rev. J. G. Potter and Rev. S. J. Shorey.

The following collectors were appointed for the year:—Miss Ada Stewart and Miss Devell, Mr. S. H. Best, Miss Hamilton, Miss E. Mahood, Mr. Thos. Hall, Miss Hutchinson and Miss Cochrane, Mr. Thos. Petrie, Miss Forsythe and Miss Tully, Miss Adams and Miss Wand, Mr. Carver, Miss Miller and Miss Lush, Miss Butcher and Miss Turner, Mr. A. Reid, Messrs. Wm. Fowler and A. Stewart.

Officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows:—

President—Sheriff Hall.
Vice-Presidents—The local clergy.
Treasurer—Mr. J. Crane.
Secretary—Rev. J. G. Potter.
Depository—Peter Connal & Co.

Sheriff Hall introduced Rev. R. E. Knowles of Galt, the speaker of the evening, who, he stated, had been a former resident in Peterborough, and a student with the late Dr. Tassie.

Mr. Knowles expressed his pleasure at again meeting the citizens of Peterborough, and paid a touching tribute to the memory of the late Dr. Tassie.

The address delivered was a most eloquent one, the thoughts of the speaker being clothed with an elegance of expression rarely heard and delivered with a magnetic fluency which carried his audience along with him in a manner most complimentary to the gifted pastor of the Galt Presbyterian church.

As a basic thought for his address the speaker referred the audience to the Scripture quotation, "Behold three men seek thee."

All would admit, he said, that the Bible was the word and thought of God.

One of the great needs of the day was that men should know their relationship to themselves. Lack of familiarity with our own lives was one of the drastic lacks of the present day. All life should not be spent in looking into ourselves, as this would give pessimistic inclinations. When Alexander the Great sighed for more worlds to conquer, he could probably have appeased that desire, if he had paused to look into his own heart. Well would it be for us instead of calling out O God tell me thy name, to cry O God tell me my name! Was it not Peter who beholding himself in the cried out, "depart from me, O God, for I am a sinful man." Could we but see ourselves so.

GLORY OF THE REVELATION

A light most cogent is thrown by God's holy word on the relationships men bear towards one another. There are days when men do not see as they ought to see, and cannot see, except through the word of God, the beauty and loveliness of those about them.

Nothing more inspiring is there than the thought which comes to the minister when he meets men on the street, is that they are all his brethren, that he recognizes in fallen men and women, the children of the King of Kings. We read of Peter and his fall and yet did not the day come when he stood for Christ braver than ever!

Those of you who live for yourselves, if you read the Word of God will realise that you are possessed of your fellow men. You cannot escape them.

Very essentially the Word of God has altered throughout all the world the relationship not only of men to others, but to life itself.

What is the Bible to you if it has not taught that you can defy sorrow. The man who believes that there is a God who loves us is a long way towards the Kingdom.

AS A MOTHER

with a caress quiets her child at night without a word of argument, so are we soothed by the simple thought of our Maker, in the hours of darkness and trouble.

Take the life about you. The only way you can read the enigma is by the light of the Word of God.

Look about where men have not the Bible. Life is a prison, a failure, inevitable.

God is always asking for money, but think of what He gave—think of the cross.

Not our relationship to ourselves—to others—and to life has been so altered by the Bible, as our relationship to God. Think how slight and opaque would be your relation to Christ, but for the revelation of the Bible. Take it then to the heathen. Think of those who know not of His saving power. Write it everywhere that Jesus is Love. To you this revelation has come. Has it brought to you what it brought to Peter!—"men are seeking."

That Word must go and shine from the far north to the tropics of the south; from pole to pole and we must send it. What have you done? Think of your relationship to God. Are you related to Christ and cast out no denial? Are there not uncounted negative Christians who are positive failures? Christians who had done nothing. A man may say he does not swear, he does not do this, or he does not do that, but has he cut off his right hand—has he searched and searched his pocket until he found two mites, the total of his wealth, and cast them at the feet of the Lord? No! No! He is but the negative Christian.

The speaker closed with an eloquent appeal to the citizens of Peterborough to take a positive position on this question, and to assist a work such as the Bible Society is doing in endeavouring to spread the light of the Gospel.

A cordial vote of thanks was moved to Rev. Mr. Knowles by Rev. J. E. Bastow and Mr. G. M. Roger.

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. S. J. Shorey.

MAN'S NEED AND GOD'S REMEDY.

Many Deciding For Christ at the Park Street Baptist Church.

There was a large attendance at the evangelistic meeting in Park street Baptist church last evening. Just before the sermon Mr. Cowsert and Mrs. Dingman sang a pretty duet, "All for Jesus." Mr. Cowsert gave a powerful address from Isaiah 53:5, upon the subject "Sin a disease and the Gospel a remedy." God had used many ways of revealing sin, but mankind, in their blindness and spiritual ignorance, were unable to apprehend its true nature. This inability to recognize sin was a proof of sinfulness. Sin was spoken of in the Scriptures as a debt, a transgressing, a missing of the mark, a coming short and in the text as a disease, universal, contagious, defiling and mortal. Many people are troubled as to how sin originated, but the more important query was, how can we get rid of it?

Sin is a disease which distracts the faculties of the soul, benumbing the conscience, polluting the affections, and so weakening the will that the moral energies are impaired. This was why a man, while desirious of doing right, was not able to carry out his intention. Sin also produces visible pollution and people often bear in their faces the marring lines of vice. Then sin, like disease, produced death, spiritual and eternal.

The remedy for sin was the bruising of Jesus Christ, and the life He freely poured out applied by faith to the sinful soul. There were many false remedies. Some people sought to get rid of sin by joining a church, others by submitting to baptism, while others observed the Lord's Supper. No one could be saved by being good. It was only through the broken body and shed blood of Jesus that sin could be overcome and spiritual life obtained.

At the conclusion of the address Mrs. Dingman sang a solo, the beautiful and impressive piece, "Eternity, Where?" In the after meeting four or five decided for Christ. The meetings continue each evening except Saturday.

Pillows Made of Pine Needles.

Are becoming popular, owing to their medical effect on catarrhal maladies. Catarrhozone is like a breath from the pine woods, and yet is a powerful microbe destroyer and germ killer. It is a certain cure for catarrh, though until recently catarrh was considered incurable. It penetrates wherever air can go, and cleanses as by fire. You simply breathe it in—it does the rest. AN APPRECIATIVE COMMUNICATION.

To the Editor of The Examiner:

It affords me great pleasure to certify that, having heard Mr. Stubbs lecture in our church here last evening, I believe good cannot fail to result from such an entertainment. The magic lantern illustrations accompanied by Mr. Stubb's verbal description of Scripture scenes and incidents make a wonderfully realistic reproduction of the life of Christ, eminently calculated to touch the heart.

The miscellaneous pictures of important places and buildings, etc., in various parts of the globe, are sure to be entertaining and instructive to both old and young.

Personally I enjoyed the lecture through out and most unhesitatingly commend it to the public.

JAPANESE CATARRH CURE CURES.

The following testimonial is only one of the hundreds daily received by the Proprietors of Japanese Catarrh Cure. Coming from British Columbia, where, owing to extreme dampness of the climate, catarrh is more prevalent and more difficult to cure than in other parts, makes it more valuable. Mr. James Farr, of the well-known firm of J. & E. A. Farr, Chilliwhack, B. C., writes: "I have been very badly troubled with catarrh for years, and tried all the advertised remedies and many doctors, but in every case the catarrh came back. One year ago I purchased six boxes of Japanese Catarrh Cure, and since finishing the treatment with this remedy, have not felt the least sign of catarrh. My nephew, Willian Bentley, was also bad with catarrh that it was unpleasant to go near him; he has also been cured by Japanese Catarrh Cure. We keep it for sale in our store, and know of many others similarly afflicted who have been cured." Japanese Catarrh Cure is guaranteed to cure any case of catarrh. Sold by Ormond & Walsh, druggists, Peterborough. A free sample will be sent to any person suffering from this disease. Enclose 5 cent stamp. Address, The Griffiths & Macpherson Co., Toronto.

They Reach The Kidneys.

Mr. Conrad Beyer's opinion

—OF—

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS.

No one can be healthy with the kidneys in a diseased or disordered state. The poisonous Uric Acid which it is their duty to filter out of the blood, is carried into the system and produces Rheumatism, Headaches, Backaches and hundreds of ills and ailments.

Any one who has the slightest suspicion that the kidneys are not acting right should take Doan's Kidney Pills. They are the most effective kidney remedy known. Mr. Conrad Beyer, at E. K. Snyder's Shoe Store, Berlin, Ont., bears this out when he says:

"Anyone suffering with kidney troubles cannot do better than take Doan's Kidney Pills, for they cured my wife who has been afflicted with pain in the back and other kidney troubles for a long time. They have helped a great many of my acquaintances in this town, and I must say they are the medicine that reach the kidneys with the best effects."

Doan's Kidney Pills are daily giving fresh evidence of the fact that they are the best remedy for Backache, Lame or Weak Backs, Bright's Disease, Dropsy, Diabetes, Gravel and all troubles of the Urinary System.

Price 50c. a box or 3 boxes for $1.25 at all drug stores, or sent by mail, The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto.

CLAWED BY A TIGER.

A FEARFUL EXPERIENCE IN THE WILDS OF BURMA.

Story of an English Engineer Who Was Captured by the Natives and Used For Bait In a Trap Set For a Man Eating Monster.

Burma was a most disturbed country from 1852 till 1856. I had my share of rough work, for I was detailed to survey and explore the country with a view to opening it out by roads, writes Henry Stone in The Wide World Magazine.

I was quite young and owed my position to my knowledge of surveying and civil engineering, which I had learned at school at Woolwich. I was surveying a line for a road between Prome and Rangun. I cannot give details, as I have not my diaries by me, but one day some villagers came to ask me to shoot some elephants that were destroying their dhan (paddy fields).

I asked them if the herd was a large one. They said yes, but that if the two ringleaders, who looked like twins, were killed the rest would go back quietly into the yomahs.

I was not particularly busy that day, so I agreed to go out. I had a long trudge, and, sure enough, I came on the two inseparables and accounted for them both. But the day was overcast. We strayed erratically. Finally night came on, and our men acknowledged that they did not know their way out of the forest.

I ought to have mentioned that Moung Goung Gee, an independent warrior, half soldier and wholly a dacoit, was in arms at this time and appeared here and there from time to time. Wherever he met our troops he was defeated, of course, but as a rule he only attacked outlying towns, torturing the people and levying blackmail wherever possible. His whereabouts, however, had not been heard of for some time, and as there was no hope of our getting back to my headquarters we lit fires and composed ourselves to sleep.

I suppose it was between 2 a. m. and 3 a. m. when we were savagely awakened, and before we knew for certain whether the whole thing was a fantastic dream or not we were securely bound and taken off to Goung Gee's headquarters, about six miles off.

We had an interview with him next morning. He said he had long wanted to catch a sahib of the detested English and would mete out to me a punishment so terrible that it would effectually prevent others from wandering into his country. As for those with me, he said they had been warned what their fate would be if they assisted the kala-logue.

He ordered them off for instant torture and execution, but I cannot describe the horrors that followed. Their memory is a horrid nightmare to this day.

About 5 p. m. I was walked off a good six or eight miles through dense jungles, reviled and tortured more or less the whole way, and at length I found myself stripped and thrust into a trap prepared for a tiger —a bamboo arrangement of simple construction. My jailers were needlessly brutal and abused me in every way, hoping I'd like the treatment I should meet from the man eating tiger which hovered about near where the trap had been specially laid.

But previously, while a prisoner and tied to a tree, a Karen girl had, at the risk of her life, given me a little water, and I begged of her to send some one hurriedly to Captain D'Oyly, who was camped a few miles off, to hurry to my rescue.

The trap was one of those usually erected for tigers in Burma. It was a long, rectangular, boxlike structure made of bamboos. The portion set aside for the bait was only just large enough for me. I crouched there dumbly, half dazed with horror and quite unable to realize my fearful position.

It was Christmas eve, and the weather very chilly—for Burma. I offered large bribes to my custodians to let me escape, but they only scoffed at me.

How slowly did the hours pass. The cold was bitter, but I must have dozed off all the same, for I remember being awakened by a clammy something crawling over me. My heart leaped into my mouth It was only a rock snake, however, creeping through the bars and seeking an exit somewhere. Oh, the ghastly loathsomeness of feeling that cold, creepy reptile gliding over my poor, palpitating body! I thanked God when the snake found an outlet somewhere and disappeared.

But shortly afterward the crowning horror came. I heard soft footfalls first and then something sniffing round the trap. There could be no doubt that it was the man eater. My heart nearly burst. I was kept in agony for fully ten minutes, and then the beast evidently found the door, for he entered, and I heard the door fall. There was a partition of bamboos between him and me, but I anticipated that he would soon demolish that and then tear me to pieces as I lay huddled up helplessly.

It appeared afterward, however, that the Karen girl's brother had been forced to erect the trap and had made the partition of male bamboos of great strength.

In the darkness I could see the great, luminous, wistful eyes of the man eater. The fearful brute, finding he could not get in to me, began to insert his paws gently, but I crept up to the outer bars, and then he could barely reach me. He did succeed, however, in giving me a claw or two on my back and buttock.

As he smelled the blood he began to gnaw at the bars and would doubtless have made short work of them, but there was a sudden glare of torches, a confused murmur, and then I felt the worst had passed.

The Karen girl, with ten of the Sikhs out of the 20 which formed my bodyguard, came up and bayoneted the tiger, who was caught literally like a rat in a trap. Fire they dared not, as they were only a couple of miles from Goung Gee's camp. They released me—more dead than alive—from my living tomb and then improvised a hammock out of a native blanket and carried me to my camp.

En route I met D'Oyly, who, with a strong force of regulars and irregulars, was hastening to my rescue. He was delighted to see me free and hastened on in the hope of surprising the dacoit leader. The latter, however, was too well served and had decamped before my friends arrived.

I lay between life and death for six weeks, for the shock to my system, as well as the exposure to the cold chills of a December night, had brought on a severe attack of fever. But I was truly thankful for my seemingly miraculous escape from that man eater whom I met under such appalling conditions.

PADEREWSKI AS A STUDENT.

After He Had Won Fame He Practiced All Day For Months.

"When Paderewski came to Leschetizky, in Vienna, it was as a concert performer who had already achieved success in Russia and mastered an extensive repertory," writes Cleveland Moffet of "The Man Who Taught Paderewski" in The Ladies' Home Journal. "Leschetizky heard him play for awhile and then said: 'You have some very bad faults, but you have talent. You have played too many things and nothing well enough. Your wrist is hard and stiff. If you come to me, you must forget for six months that you have a repertory. You must play nothing but exercises for technique, six hours a day of exercises, and nothing else.'

"Paderewski thought the matter over and decided that he had the strength of will for this severe test and put himself entirely in Leschetizky's hands. All day long for six months this finished concert performer worked away at the mechanics of piano playing, at exercises specially devised for him by Leschetizky and some devised by himself with reference to peculiarities of his own hands. Every evening he took a lesson at the professor's house, this being a mark of special favor, for with ordinary pupils all lessons end at 5 in the afternoon, and one lesson in two weeks is the best that even the most proficient may attain. One hour, two hours, three hours, these nightly lessons lasted, for Leschetizky gives no heed to time once his serious interest is aroused. These two men were together constantly. They took long walks; they played hard fought games of billiards, both being adepts at the game; they talked incessantly, for Leschetizky has a fluent tongue, and what the older man knew of the sounding art he gave freely to the younger man, and that the disciple has given to the world."

Paid Him Back.

A droll story of the matinee hat comes from Paris. Sitting in a theater in a hat of startling dimensions a lady heard a voice behind her: "Is there no good sense left? Are we to have our view of the stage blocked by people in hats like that?" The protest, which was made by a stout gentleman, became so vehement that the lady rose and walked out.

A week or two later, at another theater, she found herself sitting behind a stout personage with a great head and two huge ears which stood out like fans. At once she received that it was her assailant of the previous occasion. So, addressing the audience at large, she exclaimed: "Is there no good sense left? Are we to have our view of the stage blocked by people with ears like these in front of me?" After a few moments of this eloquence the ears retreated in discomfiture.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Taxes on Hearths and Windows.

Among the most curious of the taxes which have from time to time been imposed are those upon chimneys and upon windows. The former tax was first enforced in 1662, and was at the rate of 2 shillings upon every hearth or chimney. This was an obnoxious tax, and William III immediately on his accession to the throne obtained some popularity by sending a message to parliament desiring that the imposition should be taken off (March 1, 1689), and his majesty's faithful commons complied with their sovereign's request. The window tax, of which our fathers and grandfathers still talk, was not repealed until 1851.

The Magic of Rome.

The story of Rome is a tale of murder and sudden death, varied, changing, never repeated in the same way; there is blood on every threshold; a tragedy lies buried in every church and chapel, and again we ask in vain wherein lies the magic of the city that has fed on terror and grown old in carnage, the charm that draws men to her, the power that holds, the magic that enthralls men soul and body, as Lady Venus cast her spells upon Tannhauser in her mountain of old. Yet none deny it, and as centuries roll on the poets, the men of letters, the musicians, the artists of all ages, have come to her from far countries and have dwelt here while they might, some for long years, some for the few months they could spare, and all of them have left something, a verse, a line, a sketch, a song that breathes the threefold mystery of love, eternity and death.—"Studies From the Chronicles of Rome," by Marion Crawford.

The Spider's Elastic Appetite.

The spider has a tremendous appetite, and his gormandizing defies all human competition. A scientist who carefully noted a spider's consumption of food in 24 hours concluded that if the spider were built proportionately to the human scales he would eat at daybreak (approximately) a small alligator, by 7 a. m. a lamb, by 9 a. m. a young camelopard, by 1 o'clock a sheep and would finish up with a lark pie in which there were 120 birds. Yet, in spite of his enormous appetite, a spider has wonderful power of refraining from food, and one has been known to live for ten months when absolutely deprived of food. A beetle lived in a similar state of unrefreshment for three years.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

of the comfort and security afforded to them by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Headaches and Backaches that come expectedly or unexpectedly are charmed away, and the rich, red blood made by shows itself in the rosy cheeks and clear, bright eyes of those who use them. These pills are not a purgative; they give strength instead of taking it away. They act directly on the blood and nerves; invigorate the body; regulate the functions, and restore health and strength to the exhausted woman when every effort of the physician proves unavailing. Mothers anxious for the healthy development of their growing girls should insist upon their taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People

IN A DECLINE.

Mrs. W. Goodwin, Argyle Sound, N.S., says:—"After the birth of my first child I was in poor health and unable to recover my strength. I had a severe pain in my left side and lung, which almost made it impossible for me to breathe. I had a bad cough day and night, and was troubled with night sweats, and on awakening found myself very weak. My complexion was sallow, and my appetite entirely gone. All my friends believed me in a decline. Our family physician attended me for a long time but I got no better. Then a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Acting on this advice I bought a supply, and continued their use for a couple of months, when my health was fully restored. I am sincere in saying that I believe Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved my life."

The wonderful success of this remedy has led to many attempts at imitation and substitution, but these never cured anyone. Refuse any package that does not bear the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." Put up in packages that look like the engraving on the right, the wrapper printed in red ink Sold by all dealers, but if in doubt send to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont, and they will be mailed post paid at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2 50.

WRITES A LETTER ON DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

He says: My wife was most terribly afflicted with protruding piles, and contemplated a surgical operation. A friend of ours recommended the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and less than one box effected a complete cure. We were so pleased with the ointment that I tried it myself, as I have been troubled with an unsightly skin affliction which covered the lower part of my face.

For 25 years I suffered untold agony, and was treated by the best medical skill in the United States. I consider Dr. Chase's Ointment worth its weight in gold for piles and skin disease.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters;' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents a bottle every bottle guaranteed.

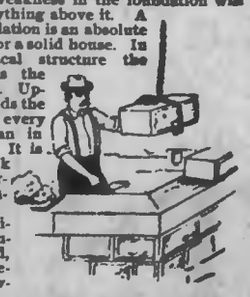
When a builder wants to put up a permanent structure, he looks well to the foundation. He digs deep and lays the stones with exactness and precision. He "trues" and "plumbs" and "levels." A defect or weakness in the foundation will affect everything above it. A solid foundation is an absolute necessity for a solid house. In the physical structure the stomach is the foundation. Upon it depends the support of every other organ in the body. It is the weak and disordered stomach that causes indigestion, impure blood, general debility, nervousness, sleeplessness, and all the woes of dyspepsia. It is the disordered stomach that makes thin, impoverished blood, where microbes of consumption flourish and multiply. It is the weak and disordered stomach which brings about conditions that cause a hacking cough, sore throat, bronchitis, weak and bleeding lungs.



To make the foundation of your physical structure solid; so that the rest of the organs may successfully resist the attacks of disease, nothing equals Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This medicine is a tonic, an appetizer, a blood purifier, a nerve builder, a flesh maker, a foe to weakness and a blessing to worn-out and run-down humanity. It is a non-alcoholic specific for every disease that comes in advance of consumption. It is a distinct remedy and stands alone. Nothing is like it, and there is no substitute for it. It has a record of thirty years of cures.

Mrs. Lula Hedgecoke, of Dozier, Collingsworth Co., Texas, writes: "I was troubled for seven or eight years with indigestion and liver complaint, and received more benefit from the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets' than any medicine I have ever tried."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are for constipation, biliousness, and torpid liver. These troubles they cure permanently without causing distress. They are pleasant in fact as well as name—no griping. At all dealers.

A TRUE STATEMENT

By Foreman White, of the Hamilton Screw Works.

Hamilton, March 6.—If a vote of the people were to be taken to ascertain which is the most popular medicine on the market, Dodd's Kidney Pills would lead by a large majority.

One of the latest cures by that grand remedy is that of Foreman T. H. White, of the Screw Works here, who testifies that he was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills of Kidney Disease of eight years' standing, after other medicines had failed.

Mr. White says: "One box of Dodd's Kidney Pills relieved me, four boxes cured me. Publish this statement if you wish. It is true in every particular."

THE MODERN PIGHOUSE.

Small, Movable, Easy to Clean and to Make Warm in Cold Weather.

The idea that costly permanent houses or pens are necessary for successful pig growing seems losing its hold among the progressive growers. The "up to date" pighouse as described by John M. Jamison in The Rural New Yorker is of quite a different character, and Mr. Jamison states his views about it as follows:

The objections are many to a large hoghouse, such as will accommodate the whole herd. The difficulties that the farmer meets in keeping the sanitary conditions of such a house as they should be should cause him to give the matter careful consideration before he puts much money in a large house. When disease once strikes a herd in such a house, the problem of thoroughly disinfecting the building becomes a serious one, so serious that but a few farmers possess the skill to accomplish it. It is also known that the weather, air, sunshine, rain and snow are the best disinfectants that we can command. If we can construct buildings so that we can expose every part, inside and out, to the weather, we are in better shape to ward off disease, and if once caught can the sooner start again.

MOVABLE HOGHOUSE.

In our experience I have concluded that a small house, easily handled, large enough for one sow when she farrows, or for several shotes or feeders, according to size, is much better than a large, permanent house. The cuts show the house we use. The first represents the house as in use for all weather, except when a sow farrows in zero weather, when we cover the house with straw or fodder to make it absolutely safe against the frost and cold that destroy young pigs so quickly. The second shows the house covered with bundled fodder. Straw will answer as well, or even fresh stable manure piled around the house to one-half its height.

The most convenient size for the house is 6 feet square. The sills should be oak or other durable wood of 2 by 6 or 2 by 8 inch stuff. The rafters, of 2 by 4 inch material, are cut 3 feet long, three on a side. If the roof is to be of plank, the best quality of roofing plank should be used, and the joints carefully covered with strips. If to be of metal, the sheathing should be of matched lumber. The ends, excepting the doorway, should be of matched lumber. When the frame is put together, it should be spiked and nailed as securely as possible. The lumber used in construction, except the sills, should be of light material. This is best to make it easily handled, and being light it will not rack to pieces so easily. Another point must not be forgotten—the house must be as tight as it can be made, as all the air needed can be had through the doorway. The best door when one is needed is a fertilizer sack, or something of that kind, fastened above the doorway and allowed to hang over it. This is always closed, and there is no danger or risk attached to its use, as there would be to a wooden door. The sow and pigs soon learn to push it in or out, as occasion requires.

It is only in extreme cold weather that any door is needed. We always have the house set with the doorway in the direction from which comes the least wind. When the house is made as tight as it should be, the wind driving in at the door will affect them but little at any rate.

When the surface is rolling, floors to these houses will seldom be needed. The ground is the best floor under most conditions, but when the weather is very wet and the ground muddy a plank floor comes in excellent play. The floor should be made separate from the house, and the house placed over it, the floor fitting neatly inside the sills. When a plank floor is used, care should be taken to prevent the wind driving under it. One man can turn one of these houses over on to a sled and move it when desired, which should be done when the ground floor is used and becomes filthy.

A NEW INVENTION!
The Newcombe Piano
Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier o the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1898 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

ARCHBISHOP CRANMER AND THE REFORMATION.

REV. MR. WARREN, OF LAKEFIELD, SPEAKS ON THE SUBJECT.

Fourth of the Series of Lenten Lectures Conducted in St. John's Church—A Most Interesting Address.

The fourth of the series of Lenten lectures in St. John's church was delivered last evening by Rev. Geo. Warren, of Lakefield, who took as his subject "Cranmer, and the Reformation." In opening, the speaker stated that it should be understood that the English Reformation was a portion of a great continental change effecting the whole of Europe. One feels that a study of any change like a reformation, involving one in the danger of passing of false judgment on the past, which must be guarded against. That which is changed must perforce contain within itself some of the elements of imperfection. Yet the presence of this imperfection should not blind us to the presence of much that is permanently good. First of all we proceed to deal with some characteristics of the church before the Reformation. One of the great features of the pre-reformation Church was the extent of the authority of the priesthood. The priesthood of the Church was the ultimate authority in all religious matters, and was recognized as such. This authority accorded with the political features of the early centuries. Just as feudalism reigned outside the church, so we find that men in the authority of the visible church. Another feature of the church before the Reformation was the limitations placed upon the intellect of man. This limitation grew partly out of the general ideas of the age, and partly out of the necessities and out of the church's struggle with heresy. The chaos of opinions that were maintained during the first few centuries in opposition to the plain truths of the Gospel, compelled the church to define her faith in a concise way. The result of this we have in the creeds of the church. But not only did the church define her faith, but she gradually imposed her faith upon the mind of the age. She used her power to repress false opinions, and it would be hardly wise for us to say that in this she was wrong. Yet undoubtedly one result of this was a limitation upon the intellectual life of man, from which it was bound sooner or later to escape.

REPOSED IMPLICIT CONFIDENCE

Other-worldliness is another feature of the church before the Reformation. No one can charge the church of the dark ages with being a worldly church. Its main idea of Christian life was unworldly and this arose in a way which we can easily trace. Our Lord gave to his disciples an ideal of life which appeared to them to be totally contradicted by the world lying in wickedness. The consequence of this was that they conceived of the church and the world as almost altogether separate and sought for the realization of the ideal apart from the common life of men. This mystic ideal of Christian life enshrined itself principally in the monastic system. Undoubtedly there existed in the church before the Reformation many beliefs and practices mingled with a purer religion, but which can only be deemed superstitious.

OF CHRISTIAN LIFE

The story of the Reformation explains how a great change was brought about, events gradually discrediting the hierarchy as an absolute and final authority in religious matters. Monasticism was unable to lift men entirely out of common life. It could not sustain its ideal and was powerless in the presence of urgent social problems. In the course of years it had accomplished its work and was dying a natural death. One of the great influences of the time, which contributed to ring about a change in the religious world, was the New Learning. The New Learning made its appearance gradually, beginning in Italy about the end of the 13th century and culminating, as far as England was concerned, in the scholarly work of a brilliant and enthusiastic coterie of scholars at Oxford near the close of the fifteenth century. The New Learning gradually revealed to the church men of the age a new source of authority in religion. This was the Bible.

A STUDY OF THE BIBLE

and early Christianity afforded glimpses of a purified religion.

The English Reformation—Considering the work of John Wycliffe and of Collet and others at the close of the 15th century it seems certain that we must look to the New Learning and the Bible for the mainspring of the Reformation in England. At the close of the 15th century we find that a small band of leading churchmen, with Archbishop Warren at their head, were earnestly preparing the way for the reformation of the church. This was before Henry VIII appeared upon the scene.

Collet lectured in St. Paul in 1497, Erasmus a few years afterwards published his Greek Testament, Tyndal translated it into English, and in 1526 the English Bible was publicly placed in the churches.

Crammer was only eight years of age when Collet lectured at Oxford. Educated at Cambridge, he was accidentally brought to the notice of Henry VIII and rapidly rose to distinction, owing to his subserviency in the matter of the divorce. This subserviency is the dark blot upon the character of Crammer, but notwithstanding this there is no doubt that Crammer was a reformer by conviction, not becoming such all at once, but gradually as he became acquainted with the leading ideas of the Reformation. He worked with Henry VIII of the Church, possessing more than ordinary talents for the special work there required—namely, that of re-arranging the ceremonies and revising the service books of the church. The Primer, a book of devotion, was published in 1535. The King's Book, a book of doctrine, followed, and the Litany was translated into English in 1543. A commission was appointed with Cranmer at its head to revise the service books of the church. They purged them of all apocryphal matter and simplified them by the rejection of antiphons, etc., and as a result, gave us in 1549 the Prayer Book which we have now. It is really no new service book, but bears the same relation to the service books of the mediæval church as the church after the Reformation bears to the church before the Reformation. In both cases we have organic continuity.

Cranmer in his own person exemplifies the caution that characterizes the English Reformation. The great scholars, Crollet, Erasmus and Moore and Henry VIII. never had any intention of breaking with the past. Their idea was Reformation, not Revolution, and as a consequence we find that Church authority was not thrown overboard, the ancient ministry was retained, but another source of authority was brought to light and is regarded by the formularies as the ultimate source of authority. The church made use of another channel of authority, namely, human reason.

A MONTREAL MAN

Tells How Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured him of Dropsy.

Mr. Henry Lavinge, Versailles Street, Found a Cure in Dodd's Kidney Pills After his Doctor had Failed to Help Him.

Montreal March 8.—There are many persons in this great city, who owe their lives to that famous medicine Dodd's Kidney Pills. There are hundreds who gladly acknowledge their debt in order that other sufferers may profit by their experience.

One of these kindly and generous citizens, is Mr. Henri Lavinge, resident at No. 104 Versailles Street. Mr. Lavinge tells his story in very simple, but exceedingly forceful language. He tells it briefly too, but it loses none of its startling impressiveness on that account. Here it is: "I have been a great sufferer from Dropsy, and swelling, or bloating of the legs. I consulted Dr.——of this city, but he was unable to give me any relief, much less cure me.

"I read of several cures effected by Dodd's Kidney Pills and decided to try the medicine in my own case. I bought a box and before I had used one half its contents I was wonderfully relieved.

"I continued using the pills until I had used five boxes in all, and I was then thoroughly and permanently cured. All pain had left me, and my health is excellent in every way. You are at liberty to publish this, as you see fit."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are a positive cure for Dropsy, Gout, Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Rheumatism, and all other Kidney Diseases.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists, at fifty cents a box, six boxes $2.50, or sent, on receipt of price, by The Dodd's Medicine Co., Limited Toronto.

OUR COLUMN OF SPORTS.

SOME TIMELY REMARKS ON SEASONABLE GAMES.

What is Going on in Local and Outside Hockey Arenas—Notes From the Curling Ice.

HOCKEY.

Last night the Guelph Nationals won from Belleville by six goals to one.

Fenelon Falls and Lindsay II have each won a game now, so Fenelon Falls proposes one with Lionel King as referee.

The final game in the Midland Colts Curling Association will be played off at the rink to night between Peterborough and Belleville.

The game with the Nationals of Guelph is called for 8 30 this evening and should be a grand match. The Nationals are the champions of Western Ontario and come to Peterborough with a great record. The Peterboroughs will have on their best senior team and will do their best to lower the flag of the victors.

The Hardware men scored another victory last night by defeating the Tinsmiths by the score of five goals to two. In the first half the score stood 2—2, but the weight and superior staying power of Patty Connal's men told in the last half, when they scored three goals to their opponents nil. Space does not admit of a more detailed account of the game.

The Lead Pipe Cinches have challenged the Printers, but they will have to win their laurels before they run up against a team that has never met defeat.

The team for to-nights senior game will be as follows:—Goal, Wasson; point, Reynolds; cover point; Hollingshead; forwards, Lionel King, W. Crossley, R. Davidson, and Bert Belleghem.

TECHNICAL EDUCATION.

Ottawa Deputation to Wait on the Ontario Government—Labour Leaders Say Government Should Help the Scheme.

(Ottawa Free Press.)

A movement is on foot to arrange for a big deputation of manufacturers, mechanics and educationalists to wait on the Ontario Government to ask for assistance towards the establishment of a technical school in Ottawa. The interest in the movement is increasing every day, and many skilled mechanics who have tested the usefulness of technical instruction as imparted in British and American schools, are enthusiastic in their endorsation of the proposal.

The leading local advocates of the scheme think the Government should educate public opinion and encourage the industrial development of the country by establishing schools. A leading educationalist speaking to the Free Press on the subject, said the control of educational affairs by the provinces is rather detrimental to the best interests of technical education. The improvement of the mechanics and others to be benefitted thereby would tell greatly in the development of industrial life, and progress would be much greater under a national and uniform school system.

FRASERVILLE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Fraserville has undergone a general change of hands. Mr. Wm. Hallam has purchased the blacksmith shop and has two men at work in it. But the greatest wonder of the age is the change of the general store belonging to A. A. Goodfellow, who sold out out to Mr. Andrew Brown, of Peterborough. Mr. Brown has since sold to Mr. F. S. Richardson.

Rev. T. P. Steele is holding revival meetings here.

We are looking forward to a Grand Royal Arch Degree meeting and oyster supper here in the new Orange hall here in the near future.

THE NEW SCHEDULE.

Some Modifications of the Revenue and License Bills.

LIKEWISE AN ENLARGEMENT.

Tables Showing the Changes Made by the Provincial Treasurer After Hearing the Industries Affected—Gas and Electric Light Companies to Pay Taxes—All Railways Now Included in the Act.

Toronto, March 10.—The measure by which the Government proposes to supplement the provincial revenues have undergone a number of changes Those changes are in the nature of a readjustment of taxation so as to cause the burden to fall more lightly upon the parties and interests affected. The Provincial Treasurer has given notice of his intention to introduce the necessary resolutions enforcing the payment of the taxes and licenses, which will probably come up for discussion on Tuesday next.

The Breweries.

This is the way the new bill stands as regards breweries:

Two hundred and fifty dollars where the amount invested in the business of the brewer obtaining the license is $10,000 or less; $400 where it exceeds $10,000, but is not more than $20,000 [as in the original bill].

Five hundred dollars where the amount invested as aforesaid exceeds $20,000, but is not more than $50,000 [was $40,000].

Seven hundred and fifty dollars where the amount invested as aforesaid exceeds $50,000 [was $40,000], but is not more than $100,000 [was $75,000].

One thousand dollars where the amount invested as aforesaid exceeds $100,000 [was $75,000], but is not more than $150,000 [was $100,000].

One thousand five hundred dollars where the amount invested as aforesaid exceeds $150,000 [was $100,000], but is not more than $200,000.

Two thousand dollars where the amount invested as aforesaid exceeds $200,000. [This is an entirely new clause.]

The above figures show a decrease for breweries where the amount invested is less than $100,000, and for those where capital is invested over $200,000, an increase by $500.

Tax on Distilleries.

The remodelled bill makes no difference to the distillers, the tax levied being the same as in the old bill, except that the following additional provision is made: "The Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, where it is shown that the sale by any distiller was the preceding year less than 10,000 gallons of proof spirits, and that the sale will not exceed that quantity during the calendar year in which the license is to be issued, may issue a distiller's provincial license at a sum not less than one-third the minimum charge for a distiller's provincial license."

The fees to be charged distillers are as follows:

One thousand dollars where the amount invested in the business of the distiller obtaining the license is $50,000 or less.

Three thousand dollars where the amount invested as aforesaid exceeds $50,000, but is not more than $100,000.

Four thousand dollars where the amount invested as aforesaid exceeds $100,000, but is not more than $150,000.

Five thousand dollars where the amount invested as aforesaid exceeds $150,000.

New Liquor License Fees.

Fees for licenseholders are referred to in the new bill as follows:

Over and above the duties for licenses hereinbefore imposed, in respect of tavern, shop and wholesale licenses, and any duties which have been or may be imposed by any municipal bylaw, unless as to the last-named duties the municipality by bylaw otherwise provides, there shall be paid, in order to the raising of a revenue for provincial purposes, for the exclusive use of this province, the following additional duties thereon, the whole of which shall form part of the consolidated revenue of the province:

For each wholesale license:
Elsewhere than in cities	$100 00
In cities having a population of 150,000 and upwards	300 00
In cities having a population of 40,000 and less than 150,000	250 00
In cities having a population of less than 40,000	200 00
For each tavern or shop license:
In cities having a population of 150,000 and upwards	$250 00
In cities having a population of 40,000 and less than 150,000	225 00
In cities having a population of less than 40,000	190 00
In towns	70 00
Incorporated villages	60 00
Townships	30 00
For each tavern license in cities granted to premises exempted from the necessity of having all the tavern accommodation provided by law	350 00
For each tavern license in towns granted to premises exempted from the necessity of having all the tavern accommodation provided by law	170 00
For each beer and wine license a fee, in addition to that provided by section 41, of one-half that hereby added to tavern licenses.

The Revenue Bill.

The resolutions also provide for some changes in the tax to be paid under the revenue bill. Insurance companies other than life are to pay two-thirds of one per cent. on the gross premiums, in respect of business in the province, but mutual fire insurance companies are to pay upon the gross premiums received in respect of business transacted on a cash basis.

Where the receipts from premiums of a life insurance company whose head office is elsewhere than in Ontario are less than $20,000, and where such company lends money on security and has invested in this province $100,000 or more, such company shall pay a tax of one per cent., calculated on the gross premiums, and one-fourth of one per cent. on the income from investments received by such company, in respect of the business transacted in the province during the preceding year.

For the bank tax the original schedule provided 1-10 of 1 per cent. up to $2,000,000 paid-up capital; $25 for every $100,000 up to $6,000,000, and $15 for every additional $100,000. In the new schedule the last clause is cut out. This affects only the Bank of Montreal, and lowers the tax on that institution by $900. The tax on offices remains.

Other changes are loan companies with terminating or withdrawable capital, $65 on every $100,000 after the first $100,000.

Trust companies to pay one-third of one per cent. up to $800,000, and $65 on each additional $100,000.

Railway companies in the province, $5 per mile, on each line of single track, both the companies owning and the companies operating to be jointly and severally liable.

Street railways to pay $20 per mile up to 20 miles; $35 per mile between 20 and 30 miles; $45 per mile between 30 and 50 miles, and $60 per mile above 50 miles.

Telegraph companies owning lines worked by other companies 1-10 of one per cent. on paid-up capital. Companies operating lines under lease or agreement 1-10 of one per cent. upon paid-up capital.

Railway or other companies owning telegraph lines 1-10 of one per cent. on the capital invested.

Express companies to pay $2,000.

Sleeping car companies to pay 1-3 of one per cent. upon the capital of the company invested in cars and rolling stock used in Ontario.

One of the most important changes is that regarding the tax on gas and electric companies. Before they were untaxed. Now they are taxed as follows:

Every gas company and every electric lighting company in any city in the province shall pay a tax of 1-10 per cent. on its paid-up capital, but this shall not apply to any gas or electric works owned by a municipality and operated for the purpose of the municipality.

The above taxes in the year 1899 to be payable on November 1 and in future years on June 1.

Sharp Has Been Run Down.

Toronto, March 10.—After successfully eluding the police for nearly three years, Edward Sharp has at last been taken into custody, and will appear in the Police Court this morning on a charge of conspiring to obtain money by fraud during the progress of the general elections in June, 1896. He was apprehended yesterday at Acton. Sharp and his wife tried, it is said, to work a sort of political "badger game," and approached all the candidates here with the exception of John Ross Robertson, M.P.

This Is the Day of Doom.

Montreal, March 10.—To-day at St. Scholastique Sam Parslow and Cordelia Viau will give up their lives to expiate one of the most cold-blooded murders ever committed in Canada. Shortly after midnight yesterday Parslow attempted to escape, having succeeded in sawing off one of the bars of his cell door, but he was quickly overpowered and returned to his apartments. Rev. Father Malochc, S.J., states that both are resigned.

Fifteen years in Kingston Penitentiary was the sentence imposed on Thursday at Chatham on George Steves, who was convicted of passing one dollar bills raised to ten.

The newly organized Consolidated Smelting & Refining Company will be capitalized at $65,000,000. M. Guggenheimer Sons are the only big smelters not in the combination.

Edward F. Bogart, postmaster of Wilkes-Barre, was arrested on Thursday, charged with tampering with the United States mails. Mr. Bogart is also editor of The Evening Leader of that city.

The steamer Alameda brought news to San Francisco of the finding of a gold nugget in western Australia weighing 90½ pounds avoirdupois. The strike was made in the Pilbarra gold fields.

Thursday the jury brought in a verdict of guilty in the case of Margaret A. Cody, who has been on trial at Albany, N.Y., since last Thursday, charged with blackmailing George and Helen Gould.

Among the new aides appointed to Lord Minto are Lieut.-Col. Otter and Lieut.-Col. Hon. J. M Gibson, and Hon. Sir John Carling, K.C.M.G., is appointed Honoary Lieut.-Col. of the 7th Fusiliers of London.

The London Daily News publishes an interview with Count Esterhazy, in the course of which he said: "It is all up with Gen. de Boisdeffre. All the excitement will end in smoke and the pardon of Dreyfus."

It is understood in London that the Chinese Government has promised to resist Russian pressure to repudiate the terms of the new railway loan, relying upon the promise of British assistance against extreme measures.

A petition signed by over 70 millers of western Ontario has been forwarded to the Ottawa Government, praying that the harbor of Goderich be deepened as speedily as possible to admit the largest grain vessels now trading in the upper lakes.

John W. Prior, the colored man who took Celia Mondary, a 16-year-old white girl, from Detroit to Windsor and married her, was found guilty in the Essex County Court on Thursday of perjury, and sentenced to four years imprisonment in the penitentiary.

J. Pierpont Morgan has now absolute control of the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company. Since March, 1897, he has held an option on a block of 150,000 shares of Lehigh Valley stock belonging to the Packer estate. He purchased it on Thursday and $3,000,000, the cash covering the transaction, was paid.

The Emperor and Empress of Germany and their family commemorated the death of His Majesty's grandfather, Emperor William I., on Thursday by visiting the mausoleum and depositing wreaths upon it. In the evening Their Majesties attended a memorial service in the Emperor William Church.

The colored troops who were sent to Cuba during the war, having been mustered out of the service, were returned to Atlanta, Ga., on Thursday. They got drunk and began shooting from the car windows as the train moved out of Macon. Will Goodyear, a 16-year-old white boy, had his arm fractured and passersby were compelled to flee in all directions.

Those who were intimate with ex-bookkeeper Williams of the firm of Buntin, Reid & Company, Toronto, refuse to believe the story published in Thursday's papers that it was he who was found dead in bed at Nagasaki, Japan. All letters received from him show beyond a doubt that he was in the best of the health and had amassed a large fortune after leaving Toronto. Messrs. Shilton, Wallbridge & Company, his solicitors, say the difficulties with the Buntin-Reid firm only arose out of business transactions and that there was nothing really wrong.

Acute Rheumatism

Pains in the Foot and Limb—A Complete Cure Accomplished by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"For a number of years I was afflicted with acute rheumatism in my left side and all the way down my limb into my foot. I live five blocks from my work and had to stop and rest several times in going and coming. I could get no relief from my trouble and was on the point of giving up my job when I happened to hear of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I purchased a bottle of this medicine and a vial of Hood's Pills and began taking them. Before I had half finished them I was relieved and it was not long before I was completely cured. I never lose an opportunity to praise Hood's Sarsaparilla, for my cure meant a great deal to me, as I have a family and must always be at my post." THE WAY TO LOOK AT IT.

THE Brantford Expositor says:—

"Peterborough is said to be holding out inducements to the Thomas Organ Company to remove from Woodstock to that town. Under the circumstances, Mr. Pattullo's efforts to stiffen the spinal columns of the legislators on the bonus question would seem to have been put forth none too soon."

The Expositor is hardly on the bullseye. The inducements referred to are not exactly those represented by corporate negotiations. The inducements Peterborough has to offer are represented by unsurpassed railway facilities and water power and incidentally, electric power. Mr. Patullo's anti-bonus "efforts" won't stop the flow of our river, nor put our railways out of commission nor, in fact, affect in any way our natural and acquired inducements to manufacturing establishments seeking location in a live town that affords in the most accessible and economical conditions, facilities for prosecuting their operations to the best advantage. No wonder Brantford wishes Peterborough's wings clipped a little. While that city has to spend thousands to prevent their little brawling river from making a nuisance of itself Peterborough has bowling merrily past its doors enough water to drive all the wheels in Brantford. We have in Peterborough inducements represented by natural and acquired manufacturing advantages, but we are not pining to mortgage the town for the sake of making the town. If manufacturers come to us and want good situations we shall of course show them the best we have, and give them reasonable encouragement—moral, in any event, and material, to a reasonable extent.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

IT is said that Judge Macdougall of Toronto, has decided that it is an indictable offence to predict the future. According to that Sir Charles Tupper will have to confine his platform verbosity to dealing with the chilly present and the glorious past.

THE despatches say that Admiral Dewey is growing "white" under the strain. The bleaching process is working in the wrong place. The object of the expansion filibuster is to make the brown man "white, and civilising regeneration seems to come very slowly. But then there's nothing very improving to the morals in machine gun shot and bullets.

"Strike—for your altars and your fires,
Strike—for the green graves of your sires,
God and your native land."

That's what the Filipinos are doing, but the Yankee newspapers in their despatches call the people of the Philippines "rebels," because they are doing just what a Yankee poet—Fitz-Green Halleck—practically urged them to do in the lines quoted above. A strong man enters your house and seizes upon it and then prosecutes you as a trespasser because you refuse to go. Democracy without liberty is Cæsarism—Tsarism—tyranny.

EIGHTEEN years ago the value of the output of the Transvaal gold fields was $50,300. Last year it was $85,000,000. This gigantic growth in comparatively a few years will undoubtedly be equalled, if not surpassed, by Canada during the next decade. In 1886 the gold production of the Dominion was $1,000,000; in 1897 it was $9,027,000, while last year it jumped to $14,000,000. A few years must see Canada occupy the rank of second or third, instead of, as she now is, the fifth, among the gold producing countries of the world.

BONUS AND TAXES.

(Woodstock Express.)

An exchange figures it out this way: "All these requests from A, B or C, for bonuses, or exemptions, are simply requests that their taxes shall be paid in a whole, or in part by the remaining letters of the alphabet." Supposing so, what then? Take the case of Woodstock, and let A represent one of the factories, say Anderson's. The taxation on the present assessment of the factory would amount to $700 a year. Supposing the factory to be exempt from all taxes the rest of the alphabet would be required to make up the $700. But supposing the factory was not here at all, the town would have to make up the $700 or do without it, and not only that, but the town would require to make up the far greater amount which the employees of the factory pay in taxes. Wouldn't it be a good business then for the rest of the alphabet to make up A's share of the taxes in order to retain the vastly greater amount which A's employes contribute? That's another way of looking at it.

[And our contemporary might have added that the amount of money spent in the town yearly by 100 employees, say $500 each, would put in circulation half a million dollars, which would be a great factor in helping other persons pay their taxes.

THE NICKEL QUESTION.

(Montreal Herald)

New interest is added to the discussion of the question of an export duty on nickel by the announcement, which seems to be generally credited, that one of the most promising of the Sudbury nickel properties has been purchased by Mr. Ludwig Monde. Mr. Monde is an eminent metallurgist, and one who by no means limits his energies to research and experiment. He is partner in a concern for the manufacture of chemicals which regularly pays large dividends on a large capital. Latterly he has been experimenting with nickel, and claims to have successfully treated a considerable quantity at a low enough cost to warrant a further application of the process. The process has excited the interest of Dr. Robert-Austen, of the British mint, who has frequently given expression to his view of the importance of the Canadian nickel deposits. Mr. Monde's process which is apparently one requiring great delicacy of manipulation, is not likely—according to one authority—to be put in operation near the mines where climatic conditions might interfere with its effectiveness, and where it could not be under the personal supervision of the discoverer. According to the statement of one who met him in England last year, Mr. Monde stands ready to purchase 10,000 tons of nickel matte per year under contract for twenty years. As the combined copper and nickel in the matte exported from Canada in 1897 amounted to only 4,750 tons, Mr. Monde's proposition is plainly one to be seriously regarded.

We get an inkling of the probable occasion for a slightly increased demand for nickel in a report just made by the Ordnance Bureau of the United States navy, which indicates that the American authorities have come into possession of the formula used by Krupp, the great German armourer, in making ship armour. Added to the steel are nickel 3.5 per cent, and chromium 1.3 per cent., with minute portions of carbon, copper, manganese, phosphorus, sulphur and silicon. This is almost identical with the American formula, and the same is believed to be true of the process used at the French military works at Creusot. It is plain the United States is about to make important additions to the navy, and there is every reason to suppose that Germany, France, Russia, Japan and Great Britain will not be behind hand in spending money on naval equipment.

It is thus to be seen that if Canada had a monopoly of the supply, the tariff policy of the States would not be the only or even perhaps the principle factor to be considered by those who wish to see the development of Canada's nickel resources proceed on right lines. But the mines in New Caledonia produce each year a quantity about equal to that produced in Canada, and there is some reason to believe that an agreement has been reached between those now in control of the two great fields by which they divide the market. An intervention like that now credited to Mr. Monde might, however, play ducks and drakes with such an agreement, which has only been made, in all probability, to keep the price at the present good figure. It is easy to credit the statement, made by some who have an approximate knowledge of the cost of separating the nickel from the copper and other ingredients in the matte, that at the price paid for copper this last couple of years the nickel has been all profit. If such be the case, the present activity in the nickel district may easily be accounted for.

The Medical Profession Recommend Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment.

Dr. C. M. Harlan, writing to the American Journal of Health, Feb. 10th, says:—"Among the proprietary medicines deserving recognition is Dr. Chase's Ointment, as a remedy for piles, Eczematic, skin eruptions of all kinds, for which it has been used with marked success and has effected remarkable cures in many obstinate cases which seem to baffle the skilful medical attendant."

ORCHARD AND GARDEN.

Apply plenty of well rotted manure in the garden during the winter.

Cut back slim wood before the buds start; better fruit will be secured.

Save up the wood ashes to use as a top dressing when planting in the spring.

Pears budded on the quince are said to be dwarfed. They never make large trees.

In the garden plant or sow everything in long rows, so that the cultivator can be used.

The apple, pear, quince and thorn can be grafted on one another with varying success.

The chief value of dwarf pears consists in their early bearing, which is due to defective sap circulation.

Pears seem to thrive best if grown in close proximity to stone. They draw both moisture and richness from stone.

With house plants the soft wooded should stand nearest the light and the hard wooded back, if all cannot have equal light.

Orchards should be kept free from weeds. They take up plant food and moisture that are needed by the growing trees.—Exchange.

HER MAJESTY'S FRENCH VISIT.

Her Majesty Will Not Start for the South of France Till Saturday—Preparations Made.

London, March 10.—The Queen has postponed her departure to the South of France until to-morrow, in consequence of the storm in the Channel. Instead of going in her own yacht to Cherbourg, as usual, Her Majesty decided to avoid the long sea trip and go from Folkestone to Boulogne-Sur-Mer in a special passenger boat, which has been entirely changed for its 80 minutes' trip. All sorts of staging and platforms had been erected at Folkestone, where Rear-Admiral John Fullerton, aide-de-camp of the Queen, who has been in command of the Royal yacht Victoria and Albert since 1884, and a host of court officials, have been superintending the arrangements. Two trial trips have already been made and everything was in readiness yesterday.

At Boulogne-Sur-Mer, in addition to a large force of gendarmes and custom house officials, two battalions of infantry were in readiness, while the entire railroad line to Nice was guarded by soldiers, posted at intervals, supplementing the usual force of railroad employes detailed for duty in such emergencies.

The French Government is taking unusual precaution on account of the supposed hostility of a portion of the people to the Queen. All these arrangements in France were upset by a despatch from Rear-Admiral Fullerton, postponing the journey on account of the weather prevailing in the Channel, classed as a "storm," whereas only a moderate sea was running.

THE LEGISLATURE

Bonus Resolutions Go Over Until Next Session.

HON. MR. ROSS' BILL PASSED.

Great Divergence of Opinion on the Bonus Resolutions Caused Them to Be Withdrawn by Mr. Pattullo After the Premier Had Said Great Good Would Come From the Discussion.

Toronto, March 10.—The members of the Legislature did a heavy day's work yesterday. Commencing in the committees at 10 o'clock in the morning, with commendable persistency they stuck closely to their work until 11 o'clock last night. In the House the bill to improve the public school law was passed through committee after an interesting debate. The discussion upon the resolution that the bonusing system should be abolished gave rise to a prolonged debate, which was concluded by Mr. Pattullo withdrawing the resolution for the present session, after it had been clearly demonstrated that the views of the members upon the subject were so divergent that it would be impossible to arrive at a satisfactory conclusion by the adoption of either the resolution or the amendments. Although the matter did not come up in the House, Hon. Mr. Hardy, in reply to an inquiry, gave an emphatic denial to the report that the Government intended relaxing the regulations requiring all logs cut on Crown lands to be sawn in Canada.

Mr. Ross' Bill.

The House again went into committee on Hon. Mr. Ross' bill providing for continuation classes in the public schools and the teaching of agriculture.

Mr. Whitney took objection to the issue of a commission to re-adjust the school sections of Manitoulin and St. Joseph when a county or district judge could do the boundary work.

Hon. Mr. Ross said the method provided for in the bill would be the more economical, and the bill, with slight amendments, was then passed by the committee.

The Bonusing Debate.

Mr. H. Carscallen (East Hamilton) resumed the discussion on the motion respecting bonusing by municipalities. The Government should pursue a policy of mining development. He heartily approved of bonusing such undertakings as smelting works, which were always extra hazardous, and which, owing to their service to industry, should be heartily encouraged, not only by the provincial but by the Dominion Government. At the same time, he approved of taking away the power of bonusing of rival industries.

Mr. James Conmee (West Algoma) pleaded with the House not to be too stringent on municipalities, but to give them credit for knowing what was best in their own interests. He objected to curtailing the rights of municipalities.

Mr. M. B. Morrison (West Hastings) maintained that to prevent bonusing was against the best interests of many localities, and certainly was not fair play.

Mr. W. A. Kribs (South Waterloo) said if Mr. Conmee had moved to give Mr. Pattullo's motion the six months' hoist, he would gladly have seconded it. Bonuses have been of immense benefit to many municipalities. We have in consequence of the bonus and exemption policy more factories in Waterloo than in any other county in Ontario. He would like to know where anyone could find more prosperous farmers than in Waterloo. One reason was that they had all the market they required for the farm almost at their doors, by reason of these many industries.

The Speaker at this juncture ruled that Mr. McKay's amendment to Mr. German's amendment of Mr. Pattullo's resolution was out of order, and, therefore, was not subject to further discussion. It was an amendment to the resolution.

Mr. Pattullo's Reply.

The member for North Oxford then replied. No member of the House was more anxious than he to see the industries of Ontario flourish, and he believed that his resolution would conduce to still greater prosperity. He might have included "floods and other exceptional circumstances" as entitled to a bonus, as well as "loss by fire." He expressed his willingness to accept the amendment of Mr. Graham, as he was aware that there are bills before the private bills committee that ought to be "kicked out"—if the House will allow the expression. But there are also bills relating to bonusus which he would be satisfied to see pass this session, but not hereafter.

The Attorney-General here interposed and thought that the House had amply discussed the many bearings of this question. In view of the diversity of opinion, he suggested withdrawal of the resolutions.

Mr. Whitney said he was not solicitious of the matter being carried to a division.

Mr. Carscallen also pointed out the different position the House was in by the ruling out of Mr. McKay's amendment.

Mr. Pattullo said he fully sympathized with members in their difficulty in supporting his resolutions, knowing the constituencies they represented. He believed much benefit would result from the prolonged discussion of the important question. He hoped at a future session the House would be found willing to adopt some similar motion.

Resumed at Night.

At the night session Mr. Pattullo continued his remarks on the criticisms of hon. members. He said that during the debate he had heard much talk regarding the right of municipalities. He regarded that as mock heroics. His resolution did not propose to take away any rights from municipalities. The House had already done that when it had decided that no municipality should have a right to bonus in any form without the consent of the Legislature. He was not speaking against municipalities, but in their behalf. If there was no bonusing whatever industries would get along and do better.

"You assert," he continued, "by resolution that there shall be no bonusing, but you advertise that any municipality that wants to bonus must come to you for special legislation, to avoid the law. I would rather leave my resolution as it is than to take another position of that sort. Simply let the law remain as it is for another session."

The Leader of the Opposition.

Mr. Whitney (Dundas) declared his strong opposition to both the resolutions of Mr. Pattullo and the amendment of Mr. German. The leader of the Opposition referred to the special efforts made a few years ago to kill the bonusing system because the Government was trying to strike a deadly blow at protection in Canada. He severely criticised the Free Trade, Cobden Club opinion of Mr. Pattullo—opinions that the country had disavowed and swept away two years ago throughout the country. The Ontario Government had no policy on the question of bonuses. The Government had in fact forgotten to do its duty. The resolutions of Mr. Pattullo were a consequence of this neglect. "I am," said Mr. Whitney, "emphatically in favor of the bonus system without the remotest restriction. Why? Because I am in favor of freedom and the right of the people to deal with their own local industries." He admitted there had been unwise bonuses, but this did not affect the inherent power of a municipality to grant a bonus if it saw fit. If the Government should see its way to re-enact the general law as to bonuses, which they had repealed in 1888, he would cheerfully support them; but he would never be a party to a policy that says the people are not to be trusted to know what is best for their own interests. He hoped, however, that in the future the House would have more regard in the granting of private bills to the safeguards suggested in the amendment of Dr. McKay.

Hon. Mr. Gibson pointed out that at present there are no safeguards, and only exceptional circumstances are now considered by the private bills committee. The House, and he would say the people of Ontario generally, are not in favor of the granting of bonuses. As to exceptional legislation, the private bills committee insisted that there should be practically a unanimous opinion in favor of such exception. He was surprised that the leader of the Opposition should state his willingness to relax provisions of so beneficial a nature, and which have seemed to give universal satisfaction. In conclusion, he said that he gathered from the discussion a desire on the part of the House to discourage totally the uprooting of industries in one locality and then transplanting to another. That was a vicious system.

The Attorney-General said in the municipal law there was always stringent provision relative to borrowing powers. This was a safeguard and discouragement of rash enterprises, and too sanguine dispositions to grant bonuses. After stating that great benefit must result from the discussion of the resolutions, the Attorney-General suggested their withdrawal.

To this Mr. Pattullo assented, and the resolutions were accordingly withdrawn.

Bills Advanced.

At 10.35 the House went into committee and advanced several private bills.

The following public bills were read a second time:

To amend the Prisons and Asylums Inspection Act—Hon. Mr. Davis.

To amend the Public Libraries Act—Hon. Mr. Ross.

To amend the Municipal Act—Hon. Mr. Garrow.

To amend the law respecting the liability of trustees—Hon. Mr. Garrow.

To amend the act respecting wages—Hon. Mr. Garrow.

Respecting the closing and sale of disused cemeteries—Hon. Mr. Garrow.

The House adjourned shortly before 11 o'clock.

ASSEMBLY NOTES.

Yesterday a deputation, introduced by Mr. Conmee, M.P.P., waited on Premier Hardy and asked a grant of half a million dollars in aid of the Rainy River Railway. The Premier promised consideration to the arguments adduced.

The railway committee yesterday passed bills to incorporate the Toronto, Lindsay & Pembroke Railway, Haliburton, Whitney & Mattawa Railway, and the Smith's Falls, Rideau & Southern Railway.

For several days a rumor has been current that the Government contemplates the relaxation of the regulations requiring all logs cut upon Crown lands to be sawn in Canada. In an interview Hon. Mr. Hardy said there was not a shadow of foundation for the rumor, and he intimated that there is no intention on the part of the Government of receding from the position which had been taken in respect to securing employment for Canadian workmen in the manufacture of logs into lumber.

Old England's Flag, vs. Dr. A. W. Chase's

The virtues of Dr. Chase's remedies are known the world over and like old England's flag the sun on them never sets.

Dr. Chase's Ointment, Kidney-Liver Pills, Catarrh Cure, Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, and Liver Cure enjoy the confidence of everybody. They have won their way into the public favor on merit. Their sterling qualities and high standing and purity have made them the household word all around the world. All dealers sell and recommend them.

PROHIBITION REFUSED.

Premier Sir Wilfrid Laurier Writes a Letter Which so Informs Mr. F. S. Spence—Dominion Alliance Called.

Toronto, March 10.—A. d. Spence, secretary of the Dominion Alliance, has received from Sir Wilfrid Laurier the answer of the Government to the request of the alliance that a prohibition measure be introduced into the Dominion Parliament following upon the plebiscite of last fall. The Premier announces that the expression of public opinion recorded at the polls in favor of prohibition did not represent such a proportion of the electorate as would justify the introduction by the Government of a prohibitory measure. In his letter the Premier points out the results of the vote, saying "the record shows that the electorate of Canada, to which the question was submitted, comprised 1,238,849 voters, and of that number less than 28 per cent., or a trifle over one-fifth affirmed their conviction in the principle of prohibition."

Sir Wilfrid's letter concludes thus: "My object is simply to convey to you the conclusion that in our judgment the expression of public opinion recorded at the polls in favor of prohibition did not represent such a proportion of the electorate as would justify the introduction by the Government of a prohibitory measure."

Ald. Spence has called a meeting of the Dominion Alliance executive for Tuesday next.

STRAIGHTENED OUT.

British and Russian Governments Have Agreed on the Niuchwang Contract—Direct Exchange of Views.

London, March 10.—The Daily Graphic makes the following announcement this morning: "The Niuchwang loan contract crisis has been amicably settled by a direct exchange of views between the British and the Russian Governments. The Russian assurances are completely satisfactory. The whole difficulty is ended, and the two Governments are arranging a scheme by which their relations in the far east may be permanently regulated."

HEART DISEASE.

SOME FACTS REGARDING THE RAPID INCREASE OF HEART TROUBLE.

Do not be Alarmed, but Look for the Cause.

Heart troubles, at least among the Americans, are certainly increasing, and while this may be largely due to the excitement and worry of American business life, it is more often the result of weak stomachs, of poor digestion.

Real organic disease is incurable, but not one case in one hundred of heart trouble is organic.

The close relation between heart trouble and poor digestion is because both organs are controlled by the same great nerves, the Sympathetic and the Pneumogastric.

In another way also the heart is affected by the form of poor digestion, which causes gas and fermentation from half-digested food. There is a feeling of oppression and heaviness in the chest caused by pressure of the distended stomach on the heart and lungs, interfering with their action, hence arises palpitation and short breath.

Poor digestion also poisons the blood, making it thin and watery, which irritates and weakens the heart.

The most sensible treatment for heart trouble is to improve the digestion and to insure the prompt assimilation of food.

This can be done by the regular use after meals of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which may be found at most drug stores and which contain valuable, harmless digestive elements in a pleasant, convenient form.

It is safe to say that the regular persistent use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at meal time will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

Full sized package of these tablets sold by druggists at 50 cents. Little book on stomach troubles mailed free. Address F. A Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

THE ODORLESS CREMATORY CLOSET.

I have been appointed Sole Agent for the Odorless Crematory Closet manufactured by the Crematory Closet and General Heating Co., of Hamilton.

This Closet has found a place in many of the best homes in the province, and all who have used it cannot speak too highly of its merits. Medical men speak of it from a sanitary point of view, claiming that, if health is any consideration, no home should be without one. Here are some of the

TESTIMONIALS.

Alliston, March 1st, 1898.

I have had one of your "Crematory Closets in use now for several weeks and am glad to be able to say that I have found it entirely satisfactory in every respect. I have not been able to detect the slightest odor from it at any time and would not be without it. I am sure it must prove a great convenience to people in the country and in towns where water is not obtainable. Yours respectfully,
JAMES CONWAY.

Shedden, February 28th, 1898.

I have used it for sometime and find it perfectly odorless. It is a long felt want and I believe it will become very popular especially in rural districts, towns and villages where wells are so frequently contaminated by the ordinary closets. I am, yours, etc.
W. H. MORRISON

Medical Superintendent's Office, Sept. 30th, 1897
Asylum for the Insane, Hamilton.

Gentlemen: I had the opportunity of witnessing yesterday the operation of your Odorless Crematory Closet. It had a large accumulation of fecal matter in the pan when the fire was started, and inside of 20 minutes it was all reduced to ashes. There was no odor before or during the operation of consuming the fecal matter, as the ventilation by the flue seems to carry off all odor at once, before it has a chance to vitiate the surrounding atmosphere.
Yours truly. JAMES RUSSELL, M.D.

Binbrook, Sept. 30th, 1897.

Dear Sirs—Having been present at a private test of your new patent closet yesterday afternoon, I beg to express my satisfaction with it in every way. Neither before, during or after the burning out of its contents did I detect the slightest unpleasant odor. I am satisfied it will be a boon to thousands in rural towns, villages and country homes. Yours truly,
M. J. MULLOCK,

Cordelia Viau and Sam Parslow Hanged at Ste. Scholastique.

(Special to the Examiner.)

St. Scholastique, Quebec, March 10th.—Cordelia Viau and her paramour, Sam Parslow, convicted of the murder of the husband of the former, were hanged at four minutes to eight o'clock this morning. A mob outside tried to batter down the prison yard gate, and shots were fired, which were answered by the police inside the jail yard. After the drop fell the spectators made a disgraceful rush and tore away the black cloth that covered the bodies in order to get a sight of them.

A PRESENTATION

To the Wife of Sergeant-Major Peters, at the Drill Shed, Last Evening.

During the winter those taking the course at the provisional school of instruction, which has been conducted in the drill shed during the past few months, have been most courteously treated by Mrs. C. Peters, wife of the Sergeant-Major, and last evening they took occasion to give expression to their appreciation of her many kindnesses in tangible terms, by presenting her with a Bible and Hymn Book.

The following address was read by Sgt. J. W. Edwards:

Mrs. C. Peters:

DEAR MADAM.—The time has come when our Provisional School has drawn to a close. The officers and N. C. officers determined not to let this occasion pass without expressing to you in some tangible form our indebtedness to you for the untiring efforts in our behalf. I, therefore, take great pleasure on behalf of the members of the class in presenting you with a copy of the Holy Bible, hoping that within its sacred pages you will find consolation and hope as life's shadows deepen and the years go by. I also present you with a copy of the Hymnal, hoping you may long be spared to sing praises to Him who has said "in six troubles I will be with you and the seventh I will not leave you." Wishing you and your family long life and prosperity. Signed on behalf of the Class,

J. W. EDWARDS, Colour Sergt.

PETERBOROUGH COLTS ONCE MORE WINNERS.

They Capture the New Curling Trophy.

CHAMPIONS FOR FIVE YEARS.

The Local Curling Colts Have Never Met With Defeat and Add Another Victory to Their String.

The Peterborough Curling Colts won their twenty-seventh consecutive victory last night, when they defeated the Belleville Colts in the final game for the trophy.

The ice was in good condition. In fact the Belleville men said it was too good, as in their own town they have been at a great disadvantage this winter through poor ice.

The match started shortly after ten o'clock and continued until after one. As Peterborough would rather lose to Belleville than to any other club in the Association, a feeling of rare camaraderie characterised last night's game, which was witnessed by a number of the older curlers. At no time was the match a runaway one. On the seventeenth end the scores on the two rinks were identical, 11—16, and, as each Belleville rink scored a point in the last end, the figures on each blackboard stood 12 to 16—a rather odd coincidence.

The rinks were composed as appended:

Belleville.	Peterborough.
RINK NO. 1.
H P Thomas,	H Snowden,
A McGee,	Gus Hay,
F F Breatnell,	Geo Boucher,

The cup, which Peterborough has now won twice, will become the property of the local Colts permanently in the event of their winning it next year.

The first trophy competed for amongst the clubs of the Midland Colts Curling Association was the magnificent cup for which the local Granites and Thistles curl each New Year's Day. It was won by the Peterborough Colts for three consecutive years and thus became their property. They handed the beautiful trophy over to the Joint Committee of the Granites and Thistles, and it will be curled for in perpetuity—for all time.

The cup was presented to the association in the first place by W. H. Biggar, Esq., M. P. P., of Belleville, who, with Mrs. Biggar, occupies the position of Patron and Patroness. The second cup was purchased by the Association out of its own funds and though won by Peterborough last year, it was not received in town until a couple of weeks ago, the secretary waiting until the annual meeting of the Association to submit the different designs. The one selected is most appropriate. The cup is of silver and stands thirty inches in height, being mounted on a handsome ebony base, upon which will be fastened small silver shields bearing the name of the club which wins it each year. The trophy is surmounted by a curler in the act of delivering a stone.

Peterborough has now won this cup two years in succession and if won again next year it will become the property of the local Colts.

Quite a few changes have taken place in the two rinks representing the Peterborough Colts since the organization of the Association five years ago. There is one, however, who has always been actively identified with the Colts, and has skipped in every match but one since the start. This is Mr. Dickson Davidson, and to him much of the credit is due for the enthusiasm existing among the local Colts to-day. The one game which he missed was that in Lindsay last week, and a recent attack of illness made the trip too hazardous a one to undertake. He has pursued the trophy for hundreds of miles, and has curled for it in every town in the Association where the draws have been played off, including, Belleville, Campbellford, Port Hope, Cobourg, Lindsay and Norwood. Not a single defeat in five years is a great record but it is a record which is possessed by the Peterborough Colts Much of the honour and glory is reflected on Skip Dickie, whose careful end building and dashing style of play have more than once pulled the rinks through some pretty tight places. Mr. C. N. Brown has vied for Skip Davidson for the last four years and put up a grand game last night. Gus Hay and W. J. Thompson have also been identified with the Colts for a number of years.

At the conclusion of the game last night the visitors were royally banquetted at the Palace, the up-stairs parlours being fitted up for the occasion. The menu and pretty table decorations reflected great credit on the proprietors. The evening concluded with short congratulatory speeches, interspersed with vocal and instrumental music.
